"I Have a Drug Problem"

I have a drug problem.

Someone at a store in a small town read that a methamphetamine lab had been found in an old farm house in the adjoining county and he asked me a rhetorical question, "Why didn't we have a drug problem when we were growing up?"

I answered, "I did have a drug problem when I was kid growing up on the farm."

I was drug to church on Sunday morning.

I was drug to church for weddings and funerals.

He was preceded in death by his parents; two sisters, Elsie Taylor and Lucy Peek and four brothers; Edwin O'Dell, Winefred O'Dell, C.B. O'Dell and Stanley O'Dell.

Walter was married to lva Lorene Jones on June 10, 1940 in Abilene, Texas. They have shared their lives for well over 64 years. Most of their early years were spent in the Rowden Community where Walter was a farmer. Walter left farming in 1953 to join the city of Abilene water repair department where he worked for 3 years. He then spent 5 years at the City water production plant at Lake Fort Phantom before becoming-an operator at Grimes Water Treatment Plant in Abilene. He spent 22 years at that position. He retired from the city of Abilene in 1983 after serving the community for 30 years.

Mr. O'Dell has two children, both of whom live in Abilene. His daughter, Donna Gordon and husband Larry and his son, Alvin O'Dell and wife Linda. He also has eight grandchildren living in Abilene. Russell and Kim Gordon, Phaedra and Brian Davis, Kriste O'Dell-Farias and Israel; Kelli and Kristian Allen; Skylor and Michelle Adkisson; Kimberly and Mark Davison; Tammy Adkisson and Angela Smith. He also has thirteen great-grand children, all of whom live in Abilene.

Mr. O'Dell served in the US Army during WWII in the South Pacific Theater. He served from 1943-1946 and was honorably discharged.

He has been a long standing, faithful member of the Second Baptist Church in Abilene.

Services will be held at Crescent Heights Baptist Church at 1902 N. Mockingbird Lane in Abilene on February 2, 2005 at 2:00 p.m. Services will be conducted under the direction of Elliott-Hamil Funeral Home. Family visitation was on February 1, 2005 from 6:00 - 8:00 p.m. at Elliott-Hamil at 542 Hickory in Abilene. Pastor Joseph Prim of Second Baptist will bring the message. Pastor Carl Mauldin of the Rowden Baptist Church will offer the eulogy. Pall bearers will be the grandsons of Mr. O'Dell. Burial will be in the Admiral Cemetery in Callahan County. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be sent to Hendricks Hospice Care, Meals on Wheels or your favorite charity.

The Japanese Quince is blooming now, which is most often the first bloomer of the year. Most people confuse them with Red Buds, that is also a early bloomer.

BREAKTHRU By Bob Pipes Cross Plains Church of Christ 433 N. Main (254) 725-6117

In Monday's Dennis the Menace cartoon, Dennis tells the preacher, "That was a pretty good sermon, but a couple more jokes would help." Well, in spite of the possible effectiveness of a few jokes during the sermon, this preacher doesn't tell many because I either forget the "punch-line" when I get to it or I don't present it right, hence the joke "falls on its face"!

Jesus didn't tell jokes but He did share parables, along with 'regular" teaching. And when He made a point, it didn't "fall on its face." I'm thinking just now of the triplet of parables in Luke 15, where at the end of the first two, He plainly says that there is great rejoicing when just one sinner repents. Then in the third parable, that of "the lost son," He plainly demonstrates it as the father goes running to meet his son who has repented and come home.

There are some that need to "repent and come home." I assure you that you will be as welcomed with open arms as the prodigal son of the parable. I promise that we will not act like the "older brother," for we really do care about you.

"Texas"

By James Nichols

The state song of Texas is "Texas Our Texas". The music was composed by the late William J. Marsh, who died February 1, 1971 in Fort Worth at the age of 90. The words were written by Marsh and Gladys Yoakum Wright, also of Fort Worth.

It was the winner of a state song contest sponsored by the legislature and was adopted in 1929. The wording has been changed once, shortly after Alaska became a state in January 1959. The word "largest", in the third line, was changed by Mr. Marsh to "boldest".

gram, offering a unique opportunity to graduating high school students who work hard to keep Texas litter-free.

The Don't Mess with Texas Scholarship, sponsored by a donation from Advantage Rent-A-Car, recognizes the valuable contributions of Texas high school seniors who have taken actions to prevent litter in their schools or communities. One $3,000 scholarship and two $1,000 scholarships will be awarded in the spring of 2005. Applications are due April 1, 2005, and are now available to be completed online at www.dontmesswithtexas.org or through high school counselors. Last year's scholarship winners were rewarded for their creative and sustainable efforts, leaving behind inspiring legacies in their hometowns. Macey Bielski of Waller won the first-ever $3,000 Don't Mess with Texas scholarship for creating an environmental student group called Project Earth and organizing community wide litter cleanups in the Waller

What Are the Requirements? *An essay of 300 to 350 words identifying a litter problem in the student's school or community and the action he or she took to address it.

*Two letters recommendation-one from a school-related source and the other from a non-school-related source.

*A completed Don't Mess with Texas Scholarship application online or by mail.

The scholarship is TxDOT's latest effort to generate more youth involvement in the Don't Mess with Texas campaign. TxDOT research shows Texans ages 16-24 are the state's most frequent litters and they are often the most difficult audience to reach.

A God Thing

Hunter, a six year old girl, lives in Brownwood, Texas. She had learned that the helicopters that flew near the hospital area transported sick people to larger hospitals which might have more doctors, and equipment that could help.

One day, Hunter and her mom were in the hospital area, and Hunter saw the helicopter flying away.

"Look Mom," Hunter exclaimed, there goes the helicopheart attack. Bobbie took him by ambulance to the hospital in Brownwood. They decided to send him by helicopter to Abilene Regional Hospital. Which they did

When Bobbie got to the ICU waiting room in Abilene, she met a warm and delightful woman named Nelle, whose husband was in surgery. They experienced the quick but strong bond that often develops between women whose loved ones are in similar trauma

The second day in ICU Nelle was waiting for Bobbie.

"What time was it when they transported Jack out of Brownwood?" Nelle asked. "About 2:00 in the afternoon," Bobbie re-

"I have a story to tell you, said Nelle. Don't cry when you hear it." Then Nelle related the story about Hunter and the helicopter. Hunter's mom is Nelle's friend, and it was indeed Jack

Jack is at home and doing well. Both he and Bobbie Lou are humbled and very grateful
