ERNEST R. RAY DIED TUESDAY

Pneumonia And Ulcerated Stomach
Cause Young Man's Death
After Long Illness

As the culmination of an illness that continued for almost four weeks, Ernest R. Ray passed away at 2:50 o'clock Tuesday morning at the home here of his grandmother, Mrs. M. I. Ray. Funeral services were conducted from the Methodist Church at 3:30 p. m. Tuesday by Rev. R. T. Breedlove, the pastor. Interment was in the City Cemetery.

Death resulted from pneumonia. Mr. Ray first became ill with ulcerated stomach. This was apparently yielding to treatment and the patient seemed much better, when pneumonia set up about ten days prior to his death.

Mr. Ray was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ray, now of Midland. He was born near Lometa August 3, 1903, and was therefore 27 years of age at the time of his death. The family moved to Tahoka in 1906, and Ernest was reared here. For the past several years he had been an automobile mechanic by trade, residing for the past two or three years in Lubbock.

Besides his father and mother and grandmother, he left surviving him two brothers, Elmer, of Amherst and John of Los Angeles.

Many friends here extend sincere sympathy to all the bereaved.

Gradon B. Nance Dies Of Injuries

Gradon B. Nance, 24, son of J. B. Nance, died last Wednesday night in a hotel room in Odessa as the result of injuries received in an accident which occurred on the highway ten miles south of that city earlier in the night.

Young Nance was driving along the highway after dark, when he met an oil company truck, according to his father, J. B. Nance, who was here Wednesday night. As his car and the truck were passing, some object protruding from the truck and unseen by Nance struck his car and also himself. The truck driver did not stop but proceeded on to Odessa. Realizing that he was hurt to some extent, Nance turned around and drove back to town, ate supper at a cafe and then went to a drug store to get his wounds dressed. Ten stitches were required to close a cut or laceration on one of the arms. Nance had also been struck on the chest but did not think any serious injury had been inflicted to that portion of his anatomy. Accompanied by two traveling men, he went to a hotel, procured a room and went to bed. The next morning he was found dead in his bed and the indications were that he had died soon after retiring. Death had evidently resulted from internal injuries inflicted in the vicinity of the heart.

The body was shipped to Plainview, Nance's former home, where funeral services were conducted and interment made Sunday.

Gradon Nance spent a year in Tahoka with his father, J. B. Nance, a few years ago. He was a young man of good character and made many friends while here. His father, whose home is in Plainview but who has spent most of his time here the past several years and who has been operating a hotel in Cooper the past few months, was here Wednesday night on his way from Plainview to Odessa to learn more about the accident which caused the death. Mr. Nance stated that he expected to return to Tahoka within a few days and reopen his land and oil office here.

H. M. Anthony Buys Green House Caf

O. J. Jackson has traded the Green House Cafe one door north of the News office to H. M. Anthony, getting some city property in Anson in the deal.

Mr. Anthony took charge Tuesday and opened the place of business Wednesday morning. It had been closed for several weeks.

Mr. Anthony was formerly in business here and has many friends in the county whom he invites to visit his new place of business.

KIWANIS HAS GOOD MEETING

"Jake" Leedy Outlines Platform In Race For Constable; Jake
On Preachers

Miss Lucille Slaton entertained the Kiwanians at luncheon Wednesday with a couple of vocal solos with Miss Mabel Lee at the piano.

H. W. Calaway, Democratic nominee for constable, was on the program for a discussion of his policy as an official after January 1st, but for some unknown reason he failed to "show up." Jake Leedy was present, however, and President Truett Smith announced that Jake would "pinch-hit" for Calaway. Jake immediately disclaimed his purpose to do any "pinch-hitting" for the absent candidate, but on the other hand announced himself as a candidate for the office, but on the Independent ticket, the Socialist ticket, or any ticket that could corral the votes. He bitterly assailed some of the planks in Calaway's platform, to the great delight of his audience. Calaway apparently lost out heavily by not being present to defend himself.

In apparent seriousness Truett Smith read a message from Kiwanis International suggesting that the local club sponsor a dance in order

Burglary Of Drug Store Attempted

An attempt to burglarize the Tahoka Drug Store Tuesday night was evidently frustrated before the culprits effected an entrance. A hole about six inches long and from one to two inches wide was cut in one of the lower panels of the back door, and knife marks about the margin of the panel indicated that the thieves would have effected an entrance if they had worked at the job a few minutes longer.

Harlan Cook, one of the clerks at the Tahoka Drug, was compelled to go to the store to get some medicine about 1:30 in the night, and it is supposed that his arrival frightened the thieves away.

Some young "squirts" about town are going to get in bad if this thing keeps on long.

Bulldogs Play At Crosbyton Friday

The Tahoka high school Bulldogs are scheduled to play at Crosbyton this Friday. Crosbyton always has a strong team, and though she made a bad early season start has been showing up to be a strong team the past three weeks. Tahoka has not won but one game from Crosbyton in recent years and that was last year when Tahoka decisively put the skids under the East Plains football team on the local gridiron.

Tahoka has had two weeks rest, not having had a game last week. A game was scheduled for last Friday with Idalou here, but that team was forced to cancel all games when it was learned by Idalou school authorities that several of the team members were ineligible.

PIE SUPPER AT LAKEVIEW

Everyone is cordially invited to attend the pie supper at the Lakeview school house Friday night, October 24. The pie supper is for the purpose of raising money for school necessities. Your attendance highly appreciated.—Reporter.

Why Not Build Roads Now?

(An Editorial)

Several persons have suggested to the News editor recently that now is the time for Lynn county to start a road building campaign.

The State Highway Commission has adopted the system in West Texas counties of requiring road contractors to employ local labor as far as possible in the paving of the highways. That policy is being pursued now in Fisher and other counties, we are informed. This is being done in order to give employment to the residents of these counties, many of whom are in sore need of employment.

If Lynn county would vote bonds for the paving of her highways some time soon, many of the farmers of the county could be given employment during the winter and spring months. This would help them to pull through until another crop can be made. It would be a wonderful help to the people of the county at this immediate time.

Some would probably oppose a bond issue on the grounds that it would add to the tax burdens of the people, many of whom are not able to pay their taxes now. The answer to this is that by furnishing employment to a great many local people it would afford them an opportunity ity to earn the money with which to pay their taxes and to feed and clothe their families during these stressful times.

If bonds were voted, the state and Federal funds would be available at the ratio of two to one for the paving of highway No. 9. State funds would be furnished in an equal amount with local funds to pave highway No. 84, and if it should be designated as a Federal highway, as has been promised, two to one would be allowed for the paving of this highway.

There has heretofore been a strong sentiment throughout Lynn County against voting highway bonds. But, since the proposal to issue state bonds has fallen through, the voting of local bonds is the only alternative if we expect to pave any time soon. Many people who have heretofore opposed county highway bonds are now ready to support them, we have been told.

The News is not undertaking to initiate a campaign for highway bonds. We are willing to leave that to others. At the suggestion of others, however, we are calling attention to these facts, and if there should seem to be sufficient favorable sentiment to justify the calling of an election, we would be glad to support the movement.

Lockhart Says People Should Vote For The Constitutional Amendments

Kiwanis Club Votes To Have Public Dance

What do you think of that? Every institution in a community helps to build up or tear down the moral atmosphere of that particular community. Every citizen is to some extent responsible for this atmosphere. A public dance hall is an asset or a liability to the community where it is located.

Now, Mr. Citizen, what about your personal responsibility for what goes on in Tahoka? You can't say I am not interested. You are interested, and if a public dance hall is a good thing, if it encourages right living, if it helps develop character in our young people, you should be for it with all your influence. But if on the other hand it encourages wrong living, if it tears down character, if it is a bad thing in our community you should be against it with all your influence.

But you say, I have no children. Well your neighbor has, and surely you recognize the old time Bible principle of being your brother's keeper. You say, my children do not attend these places. Somebody's child attends and surely we cannot be so selfish as not to be interested in that child.

If it's true a public dance hall is a cancer on the body morality ought not some one sound a warning? Ought not fathers and mothers, who know the danger of such an institution in our splendid community, do something about it?

Sunday evening in the First Baptist Church of Tahoka the pastor will have something to say about this institution. Others will be given an opportunity to speak. He doesn't take the position that people who dance are bad, but he does take the position that a public dance hall is bad. If you don't believe it come and hear him. If you do believe it come and give your moral support.

The heading of this announcement was only a joke that was put over on the pastors of the town. The Kiwanis Club is composed of good men and they are not by any means in sympathy with a public dance hall.

OWEN J. HULL

With no change in the basis of valuations, Cameron County's tax values climbed $3,000,000 between 1929 and 1930. Cooke County, largely by reason of oil developments, gained over $1,000,000 in tax values over last year.

Cherokee County is making preliminary surveys preparatory to spending a $250,000 bond issue on its roads. San Saba is receiving bids on street paving in an ambitious program of civic development.

Intensive Terracing Of County Planned

Quarantine Raised In Grider Family

The quarantine of the G. C. Grider home was raised Tuesday. Fred, who has been suffering from infantile paralysis, had recovered to such an extent that all danger of transmitting the disease had passed. Judge Grider fears that the little fellow is going to be permanently crippled in the left leg. He plans to place Fred in the Masonic Hospital at Dallas soon for further treatment.

LLOYD FULTON ADMITS GUILT

Convict Given Two Years For Participation In Tahoka Drug Burglary In 1929

Lloyd Fulton entered a plea of guilty in the district court here Friday to the charge of burglarizing the Tahoka Drug Store on May 1, 1929. He was brought from the penitentiary for trial, where he was serving a two years sentence for unlawfully receiving stolen property in Midland county. The jury here assessed his punishment at two years in the penitentiary.

It will be remembered that Jim Wheelus, a confederate of Fulton's, was convicted of this offense last year. He is now serving his term in the pen. Mrs. Delois Walker, the third member of the party, entered a plea of guilty also last year and received a five years suspended sentence.

This disposes of the entire bunch involved in this burglary, according to the evidence of these parties.

More Rain Visits County This Week

Following several days of cloudy damp weather, a shower amounting to .39 of an inch fell in Tahoka Wednesday afternoon. It was apparently heavier in some localities than it was in town. Rain which fell thru-out Wednesday night had increased the amount of precipitation to 1.45 inches at 8 o'clock this morning. The continued damp weather this week has kept cotton pickers out of the field most of the time and very little progress is being made in gathering the crop. Some farmers are complaining that feed which had been cut but which was still in the fields when the rains set in has been badly damaged. The rainfall his month up to Thursday morning amounted to 4.03 inches according to the Government rain gauge. It has been much heavier than that in some localities. It is very beneficial to the small patches of wheat in the county.

Grider Meets Fool, Car Is Wrecked

As Judge G. C. Grider and son, Earl, were innocently making their way along the highway just this side of Lamesa last Thursday, they met a fool driving a big car. The result was that the radiator on the Judge's Ford was torn up, and the bumper, the lights and one fender were torn off, entailing a damage of about fifty dollars. The Judge and Earl were considerably shaken up, but neither was seriously hurt.

The accident occurred when the driver of the big car, meeting some cotton wagons, whipped by them on the wrong side of the road. Judge Grider was driving along just behind the cotton wagons, and when the big car passed the wagons it swerved a bit back toward the middle of the road and struck the Ford which the Judge was driving. The driver did not even stop but seemed to "whip up" a bit as he came on down the road. The Judge did not even have time to get his number.

COUNTY BUYS THREE LEVELS

Commissioners Lead Support To County Agent By Furnishing Machines For Work

The commissioners' court Monday authorized Ray Shaver, county farm agent, to purchase three additional farm terracing levels to be used in teaching and assisting the farmers of Lynn County to terrace their lands for the coming year. Mr. Shaver has had only one level up to this time.

Early next month, Mr. Shaver will begin holding terracing schools in various communities of the county. He desires from at least six to twelve farmers in each school. He will spend a day in each community instructing the farmers how to use the levels and terrace their lands and will leave the levels, all four of them, in each community for a period of three days for the use of the farmers. He will do no terracing himself but will merely teach the farmers how to do it. Mr. Shaver also states that no level will be loaned to any farmer unless that farmer will agree to run his rows parallel with the terraces. Mr. Shaver says that it will not pay for them to run the rows across the terraces.

Co-Op Receipts In Texas Near Half-Million

That the cotton co-operative marketing movement is sweeping the State of Texas is indicated in deliveries already this year of more than 400,000 bales of cotton, according to S. L. Leathers, local representative of the Texas Cotton Cooperative Association.

Mr. Leathers stated that he had just received word from the State Offices of Dallas that the 400,000 bale mark was passed with Monday's receipts, and at the rate deliveries continue to be made from all sections of the State, the half-million bale mark will be reached by November 1st. Mr. Leathers also stated that similar reports of substantial progress were being received from other cotton co-operative marketing associations throughout the cotton belt.

"The bulk of deliveries are now being made to the Seasonal Pool," Mr. Leathers said, "through which pooling plan the member receives a final return on the actual grade and staple of cotton delivered by him based on the season's average sales prices for each particular quality. In this manner, he does not receive either the season's high price or the season's low price, but rather the average price throughout the year."

The Association's 90 per cent initial advance on the market value of classed cotton continues, it was said. Deliveries to the channels of co-operative marketing this season are already 150,000 bales greater than at any time during the past ten years.

This office has been open for business four weeks and has received a total of 1790 bales. This amount includes all cotton received from other points. "We received 99 bales Saturday," Mr. Leathers stated.

NEW FILLING STATION TO OPEN HERE SOON

Clyne Thomas is having a new front built to the old Red building formerly occupied by the Hill Motor Company and now occupied by the Park feed store, preparatory to installing a filling station. John N. Thomas will run the station and will handle the Phillips products.

Clyne says that when the improvements are finished, this will be a most attractive station. He expects to have it ready to open about November 1st.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

Any erroneous reflection upon the reputation or standing of any individual, firm or corporation, that may appear in the columns of the News, will be gladly corrected when called to our attention.

Poverty and lack of employment will sometimes drive good people to acts of desperation. A woman nurse walked into a Fort Worth bank this week, with a bottle of liquid in her hands, threatening to blow up the bank unless a thousand dollars were handed over to her. She was overpowered, and the bottle taken away from her, which was found to contain only a harmless chicken medicine. She requested the officials to send her to the penitentiary for a long term, stating that she had been unable to procure work since July, that she was in destitute circumstances, and was "too proud to beg." We do not know whether her story was true or false, but we do know that poverty and destitution drives many a person to the commission of crime. The statesman who strives to stamp out injustice, to improve the condition of the poorer classes, to banish poverty and idleness may be serving God just as truly as the preacher in the pulpit or the churchman in the pew.

"Every dog has his day." That is an old adage that constantly finds confirmation in every field of activity. Last year most south Texas counties suffered a cotton crop failure. This year they have raised bumper crops. According to the recent government report, thirty-three south Texas counties had ginned 823,204 bales of cotton prior to October 1st against only 224,420 prior to the same date last year. One south Texas county not included in the above group, Nueces, seems to have broken all records this year in cotton production by a single county. It had ginned 146,497 bales against 117,850 last year. The immense crop in south Texas, which comes on the market very early, has much to do, no doubt, in holding the price down. But the blame for this condition may be laid at the door of West Texas next year, for according to the law of averages it is our time to raise a bumper crop next year. Just sit steady in the boat and watch us do it.

Following the sermon by the pastor at the Baptist Church Sunday, in which the duty of a citizen to his community was emphasized, Judge B. P. Maddox called for an expression of sentiment as to the operation of a dance hall in Tahoka. The congregation was practically unanimous in opposition to it. A public dance hall in nine cases out of ten is an unclean thing, and public sentiment in Tahoka should become so strong against it as to make it impossible.

The News believes that when a law becomes a dead letter throughout the state, with no prospect of its enforcement except possibly in isolated spots, it should be repealed. We have laws in this state forbidding the sale of cold drinks and cigars on Sunday. They are not observed anywhere. We also have a law forbidding the operation of picture shows on Sunday. This law is not generally observed. In fact, it is utterly ignored in practically all the cities and most of the towns in the state where picture shows operate. These laws are not observed because there is little public sentiment in most localities favoring their observance. Public sentiment generally is strongly against them, in fact. There is no prospect, in our opinion, that any of them will ever be generally enforced in this state. They should be repealed.

William G. McAdoo, Secretary of the Treasury under Wilson, has issued a statement suggesting that when Congress meets in December it authorize the use of the wheat which the Federal Farm Board has purchased—or as much of it as may be necessary—to feed hungry and distressed human beings during the winter. That is at least a most humane suggestion. McAdoo was a great administrator of the railways during the World War, and we believe that he would have made a great President of the United States if the Democrats had nominated and elected him. It may be that he would not be available in 1932, but in our opinion the Democrats could yet do much worse than nominating McAdoo.

While we have always believed that the Democratic doctrine of a tariff-for-revenue-only is correct in principle and that a protective tariff is wrong, yet it must be admitted that a reasonable degree of protection rightly applied does help many industries in this country. It does seem to us, however, that the protectionists have over-jumped themselves and that the high tariff duties now prevailing are hurtful to the country.

A BOY'S REMARKS TO HIS STOMACH

What's the matter with you?
Ain't I always been your friend?
Ain't I been a partner to you?
All my pennies don't I spend
In getting nice things for you and —Don't I give you lots of cake?
Why, I loaded you with good things
Yesterday! I gave you more
Potatoes, squash and chicken
Than you'd ever had before!
I gave you nuts and candy,
Custard pie and chocolate cake,
Then, last night when I went to bed,
You had to go and ache.
Say, what's the matter with you?
Ain't you satisfied at all?
I gave you all you wanted. Why,
You was hard jes' like a ball!
You jes' couldn't hold another bit o' puddin'.
Yet, last night
You ached most awful, stumick, and
That ain't treatin' me jes' right.
I've been a friend to you, I have
Why ain't you a friend of mine?
They gave me castor oil last night,
Becuz you made me whine.
I'm awful sick this morning and
I'm feeling awful blue
Becuz you don't appreciate
The things I do for you.—Ex.

WHAT OTHERS THINK

VOTE FOR AMENDMENTS

The News recommends that the voters of Randall county go to the polls in the general election. Voting in the general election is looked upon with disdain by too many Texas voters, but this year all who voted in the primaries should go to the polls without fail and vote in the general election.

There are some constitutional amendments to be voted upon in the general election which should be approved by the voters. They meet the public's demand for a reform in our state government, and the voters should first study these amendments, and then vote upon them.

One amendment is for the purpose of keeping the supreme court open twelve months in the year. The court now is forced to take a three month's vacation regardless of the amount of work stacked up—and at the present time the court is about five years behind with its work.

Another amendment would allow the West Texas counties with university lands to tax these lands for county purposes at the same rate as local people pay taxes. The state pays taxes to counties which have penitentiary lands, so why not allow the university to pay local taxes upon its property?

Another amendment would allow the regents of the university to invest the large permanent fund in other than U. S. government bonds. Texas securities are good, and draw a large rate of interest. The university fund now amounts to more than sixteen millions of dollars, and will grow larger each year as the university oil lands are developed. Only the interest of this fund may be used, so the state should allow the regents to invest the funds in places where it will draw the largest amount of interest.

The other amendment is in two parts, and will be voted upon as separate propositions. This amendment proposed to increase the length of the session of the legislature from 60 to 120 days and increase the pay of the legislators, at the same time reducing the mileage. The amendment is endorsed by all who have had anything to do with the law making body during the past years.—Canyon News.

TRUCKS VS. RAILROADS

A flying squadron of Houston business men had occasion the other night to visit a town twenty miles to the north.

In that distance, they met or passed eighteen mammoth trucks loaded down with bales of cotton.

The road they traveled parallels one of the state's great railroad lines. To every inch of that fine, concrete highway, this railroad had been a very substantial contributor.

Upon this particular line of railway, service has been curtailed time after time, the reason given being that traffic has decreased to such an extent that this train or that had ceased to be profitable.

When three or four of these motor trucks had crowded their car onto soft shoulders, this group of business men quite naturally began to discuss the problems which motor truck transportation had thrust upon the state. Unquestionably, they agreed, the motor truck had become a menace to the life and limb of automobile riders, and it threatens the very existence of the railway lines which are so vital to the progress and prosperity of the state. These same motor trucks, loaded beyond every consideration of safety, are placing upon the highways a load under which even concrete can not stand up. Roads which should last twenty years are being chopped-up in five, and maintenance costs soar to outlandish figures.

Finally, in all equity and fairness, it is difficult to justify the assumption that railroads should contribute to the "construction of highways" which are to be used by motor truck lines for the sole purpose of capturing the railroads' business.

A menace to life and limb, a destroyer of the highways built for the use and enjoyment of all the people, and an institution which is sapling the strength of the railroads which have contributed so much to the development of the state and which remain so necessary to its further progress and prosperity, the motor truck has become one of the gravest problems of the day.

For the common good of all Texans, something must be done about the motor truck.—Editorial Digest.

MUD VS. PAVEMENT

Wet weather or dry, paved highways show to advantage. During the recent dry spell our fresh graded dirt roads were so rough that you were expecting to break a spring or blow out a tire—if you were lucky and did not get stuck in the loose dirt.

Since the rains, a trip to Lubbock ought to convince anyone of the advantage of paved highways. It took ye editor exactly 55 minutes to skid the eight miles to Slaton Monday morning and less than 25 minutes to make the eighteen miles of paving on to Lubbock. The eight miles of mud took three times the gasoline required for eighteen miles of paving—and the wear, tear and strain on the car and temperament was incomparable to the easy riding on pavement.

Don't forget that paving Garza county highways would give you a chance to work for wages before harvest time next fall.—Southland Sun.

WRECK VICTIMS

Returning home from Lubbock Monday night, we saw a wreck barely a hundred yards in front of us. An old Ford roadster hit the rear of a truck parked on the paved highway, one lady being badly cut about the face by flying glass from the windshield. Taken to the hospital with her baby, which seemed hurt also, was a pathetic sight, especially as they were obviously in financial straits.

While we were helping clear the wreck which was blockading the highway, another car arrived taking victims of another wreck to the hospital. Will folks never realize that carelessness causes more suffering in our nation than war or pestilence?—Southland Sun.

The T. & P. is asking for the privilege of charging a two cent passenger rate between Fort Worth and Big Spring, to compete with bus traffic. Personally we think it should be allowed, and also anywhere else the railroads see fit to cut rates to meet bus and truck competition. By patronizing buses and trucks so extensively we may be killing the goose that lays the golden egg—if the railroads will pardon the goose allusion—for it is a fact that they cannot operate indefinitely at a loss and as improvements are made in good roads and better and larger buses and trucks many towns now enjoying a railroad may soon see the day when it will be an inland town.—Idalco Echo.

COUNTY ATTORNEY OF GARZA COUNTY RESIGNS

Leon Moses, county attorney of Garza County, was here Friday looking after professional business in the district court. Mr. Moses, who is a nephew of the well known lawyer, Dayton Moses, stated to a representative of The News that he had just resigned as county attorney at Post and will locate in McKinny for the practice of his profession. His term of office would have expired on January 1. His successor, the Democratic nominee, is Mr. Smith, an old-timer at Post.

Venerable Citizen of San Antonio Tells What Konjola Did in His Stubborn Case

MR. WILLIAM DAVIS

"It was nine years ago that I began having trouble with constipation, indigestion, bloating and poor appetite," said Mr. William Davis, 71, of 732 Kayton avenue, Dallas. "I took several kinds of medicine but nothing did me the good that Konjola did. I had to take laxatives daily and gas and indigestion followed practically every meal. At times the pain was so severe that I could scarcely bear it. My entire system was run down. "I read so much about Konjola that I decided to give it a trial. I noticed an improvement within three days and in three weeks I felt better than I had in years. I am telling all my friends about Konjola and expect to take it until I am free of all ailments."

Konjola has done as much for thousands when taken regularly over a six to eight week period. It is truly a master medicine for ailments of the stomach, liver, kidneys, and bowels and rheumatism, neuritis, and nervousness. Konjola is sold in Tahoka at Tahoka Drug Co., and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

PUTS IN THE EGG BASKET

WHAT OTHERS PUT ON PAPER

A fair feeding test of RED CHAIN is the best way to clear up conflicting claims about egg mash. Talk is cheap—and anyone can find nice words in the dictionary. On paper most feeds claim "more eggs at less cost"—but RED CHAIN actually does what others claim to do! Don't buy your egg mash for what it does on paper—buy it for what it puts in the egg basket... Feed RED CHAIN to your own hens and see the difference between claims and results. It is the unequalled quality of RED CHAIN Egg Mash that makes it the cheapest egg producer—regardless of price.

SOCIETY

Club and Church News

W. M. U. OF BAPTIST CHURCH QUILTS FOR BUCKNER HOME

The appeal for help for orphan children finds a ready response in practically all hearts. Those unfortunate ones, who have been deprived of their most cherished heritage, parental love and care, attract the sympathy and generosity of nearly everyone, be they saint or sinner, and the yielding to an unselfish impulse in an instance of this kind often leads to acts of generosity and liberality along other lines.

On last Monday afternoon fifty five women met at the church to engage in a quilting for the inmates of Buckner Orphan's Home. Several nice quilts were quilted making nine that this Society has ready to send to the Home, two having been quilted by one of the Circles previous to this meeting. A beautiful spirit of harmony and co-operation prevailed among the women, and all seemed to greatly enjoy the social fellowship which this occasion afforded. The Pastor regaled the workers with delicious (?) refreshments. The President, Mrs. Caveness, interrupted the work long enough to hold a business meeting to attend to some needed matters. One item was the election of Mrs. H. B. Howell to succeed Mrs. K. R. Durham as vice-president, she having resigned this position to accept that of Chairman of the Young Matrons Circle. Some gratifying reports were made by the Chairmen of some of the standing committees, and the general tone of the meeting was enthusiastic and optimistic.

Next Monday afternoon the women will meet for their Bible study, and it is to be hoped that this large number will find it in their hearts to come to this meeting and exercise their minds and souls even as vigorously as they did their hands on the present occasion. The three circles of the Society were represented numerically as follows: Blanche Rose Walker, twenty-five, Sallee, twenty, Young Matrons, ten. — Publicity Chairman.

Tech Prof. Writes On "Alkali Trails"

LUBBOCK, Texas, Oct. 22.—"Alkali Trails" is the title of a new book by Dr. W. C. Holden, professor of history in Texas Technological College. The book deals with the social and economic movements of the Texas frontier from 1846 to 1900, the frontier life period in Texas.

Dr. Holden speaks authoritatively and with interest regarding early explorations, the buffalo hide and bone industry, the cattle kingdom, the advent of settlers, the coming of the railroad, agriculture, droughts, and the mineral craze. He also writes entertainingly of amusements, frontier journalism, the origin and growth of sectionalism, and the movement for the division of the State.

The work is based on original sources, including files of frontier newspapers, personal correspondence, diaries, ranch records, records of the War Department, records of the Adjutant General's office, the Governor's papers, and various archive materials. ## 'Lois O'Shay' Thinks Editor Very Unfair

On the same day that our paper went into the mails last week, the News received a communication from "Lois O'Shay" vigorously protesting against our refusal to publish his or her article replying to Rev. R. T. Breedlove. "I think you very unfair in refusing my article," the protest begins, and "The public knows that you are too," it continues, and the writer proceeds to use a whole page of perfectly good paper trying to convince us that we should reconsider and publish it. "It is those who do not know—the unthought—that I'm striving so hard to help * * * If you editors refuse to let such things appear you just are not doing your duty", we are informed.

Now we have just this to say: If "Lois O'Shay" will come to this office and sign his or her real name to the article in question, we will publish it in spite of its length and its controversial nature.

When we published the first article from "Lois O'Shay" we presumed that to be the writer's real name, though we had never heard of any such person. We have become convinced that "Lois O'Shay" is a fictitious name. If the writer is so anxious to present his or her views to the public, let him or her reveal his or her identity. Both the public and the editor have a right to know. Now come on in and sign up and your article will appear in our columns.

Open Palo Duro Canyon For Day

CANYON, October 17.—The Palo Duro Canyon will be accessible to the public on November second thru a plan of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce.

Palo Duro Canyon, the scenic feature of northwest Texas, is privately owned and is seldom open to the public. In order that the general public may know something of the beauty of the canyon an arrangement has been completed between ranchmen and the chamber of commerce whereby people may become acquainted with possibilities of the canyon as a park.

According to L. N. George, secretary of the commercial organization, Company F of the National Guard will assist in directing the traffic during the day. It is also stated that the trip November 2nd will include a different itinerary than the trip last summer so that a person who went on the previous trip will see another section of the country.

Secretary George states that people from every section of the state attended the last open day and that more are expected this time. The fall colorings are said to be exceptionally beautiful throughout the canyon this year.

Liberty County is to have a new $250,000 court house. LaSalle county is to vote in October on $150,000 bonds for a new courthouse at Cotulla. Jefferson County's $1,000,000 court house is under way.

Brady reports petitions in circulation for a $655,000 road bond issue for paving highways 9 and 10 and improving lateral roads.

COMMUNITY BUILDING VS. COMMUNITY DESTRUCTION

(By C. C. Williams)

In every community there are a great number of citizens who are willing to exert every ounce of their influence and a part of their money toward the upbuilding of their community. In every community there are also a small number who seem to never give a thought to the well being of their neighbors and community interests. The first above mentioned group are working in one direction and the second working in the opposite direction, many times without thought as to what they are doing.

The progress and development of any community depends on the amount of business which it can concentrate in the hands of the people who live in that community and who do business, pay taxes and contribute to the various activities which help to promote community interests. The larger cities have grown up because they have been able to concentrate a greater volume of business in that particular community. If Tahoka is to grow and prosper it is necessary that the people who live in its trade territory help by giving the people who are in business in Tahoka, all of their own business possible. We all know that there is no one living in Tahoka or its adjacent territory who does not desire that Tahoka grow and make a larger and better county seat.

Yet in the face of this outstanding fact, it is astonishing to learn of the number of our people who patronize out of town peddlers who come into our city, and into the homes of our citizens and in many instances "high pressure" them into buying from a sample something which their own merchants would be glad to sell them at as good a price for the same quality and in most cases of a better value. In most cases the purchaser never sees the salesman again, and has no assurance that the transaction will be made satisfactory, as your merchants are always ready to do. These salesmen do not pay any taxes here to help keep up the city, county, schools, churches or any thing else. They merely want you to place an order, and they are through with you, and the community means nothing to them. They do not care whether you have a County Agent, Demonstrator, Fire Department, Churches, Schools, Roads or anything else. They have the order and that is all they care for. Your local merchants help to pay all of these and pays more as his business grows and prospers. And as his business grows and prospers the greater variety of merchandise he can provide for your choice, and the better prices which he can make to you. These men not only contribute to the community thru taxation but a great number of them assist in the maintenance of the Chamber of Commerce which at all times is on the job to protect and promote the interests of the community, and no certain group is so often thought.

A good example of the citizens throwing down a home institution for a transient was exemplified week before last when the greater part of the show going public spent hundreds of dollars with a transient show, when we have a man in our city who has invested something like $40,000, that we may have up-to-date entertainment, and who pays taxes to the support of our city, county and schools on this investment. We have peddlers who come into our community and peddle merchandise carried in all of our houses from the lumber yards to the smallest articles in the Variety stores. Ask one of these people for a contribution, for the church, a membership in the Chamber of Commerce, or any other worthy cause in Tahoka or your rural community and see how much you get. Ask them to assist in the schools and see what they tell you. If our merchants do not have the particular merchandise on hand they have access to the wholesale stocks and are glad to do as the "sample salesman" order it for you. This will apply to stationery, dry goods, clothing, implements, groceries, athletic goods, class rings, auto parts, building materials or any thing else which can be ordered.

The Chamber of Commerce is just as anxious to assist the farmers in the Tahoka trade territory as it is the people who live in Tahoka. It has no sure cure for ill, but is at all times ready to assist in every possible way for the farmer to increase his income. One piece of agricultural work which the organization sponsored in the fall of 1929 gives promise of bringing many thousands of dollars to the farmers of Lynn County, through the assistance of the introduction of the Misdale cotton, a better staple, into Lynn County. Mr. J. C. McCauley of T-Bar stated that the sack of seed which he planted this year was worth $250 to him. The work of the County Demonstration Agents have the backing of the Chamber of Commerce, because they are assisting the farmers to increase the earning power of their farms. It was for this reason that the Texas Cotton Co-operative Association was sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce the past summer and this fall. We are all just one big community, and if all the people do not work together the community will not grow and prosper, but much can be accomplished by the mutual assistance of one for the other in the various activities of our community.

During the year 1929 there were 114 firms and individuals assisted in the maintenance of the Chamber of Commerce. The list has not been so great the past year probably on account of the scarcity of money, but at the present time a great percent of this number is still assisting in the work which the Chamber of Commerce does in the way of promoting and protecting the interests of Tahoka and Lynn County. The membership of the Tahoka Chamber of Commerce at present is composed of the following:

Abstractors: Bradley, Don; Taylor, W. S.
Banks: First National Bank, Security State Bank.
Barber Shops: Morton & Dye, Strickland's.
County Officers: Caveness, H. P.; Greenwade, Thelma; Grider, G. C.; Nelson, G. H.; Sanford, S. W.; Shaver, E. E.; Smith, Traett; Weatherford, J. S.
Doctors: Durham, K. R.; Townes, C. B.
Drug Stores and Confectioners: Tahoka Drug Co., The Limit, Thomas Bros.
Dry Goods Stores: Hogan Dry Goods Co., Jones Dry Goods Co., Levine Bros., United Dry Goods Stores.
Filling Stations and Oil Agencies: Anchor Filling Station, Brandon, W. W., Clinton, W. T., Reed, S. E., Tahoka Service Station.
Garages: Corley, Jack, Texas Garage.

Grain, Feed and Poultry: Burleson Grain Co., Lubbock Poultry and Egg Co., Park, Sam.

Grocery Stores: M-System, Piggly-Wiggly, Tate, B. R.

Hardware, Furniture and Implements: Harris & Applewhite, McCormack Hardware Co.

Hotels: Keltner, Sunshine Inn.
Insurance: Grider & Barton, R. E. Key.

Lumber Yards: Cicero Smith, Forrest, Higginbotham-Bartlett.

Motor Sales Agencies: Connolly Motor Co., Snowden Chevrolet Co.

Postal Employees: Eubanks, J. C.; Parkhurst, D. A.

Tailor Shop and Laundry: Craft Tailor Shop, Tahoka Laundry.

Variety Stores: Kemp's Variety Store, King's Variety Stores.

Breedlove, R. T., Minister; Colleenback, J. H. Blacksmith; English, D. B., Theatre; R. E. Fleming, Santa Fe; Grider & Barton, Insurance; Heare, J. L., Santa Fe; Hill, E. I., Lynn County News; Holmes, K. C., Farmer's Gin; King, B. C. Drayman; Maasen, H. A., Truck Line; Nowlin, Deen, Real Estate; Panhandel & Santa Fe Railway Co.; Park, E. A., Stockman; Roberts, Oscar; Southern Sewer Co., State Telephone Co.; Tahoka Bakery; Texas Utilities Co.; Wakefield, C. H., Dairy; West Texas Gas-Co.; Wetzel & Sons, Stockmen; White, Taylor, School.

The above firms and men are not "giving" but are investing from $2.00 to $20.00 per month in the Chamber of Commerce that the community might have an organization whose business it is to promote and protect the interests of the community, and the community in this sense means all that portion which contributes to the making of Tahoka and Lynn County. These people deserve the support and patronage in preference to the out-of-town peddler who contributes nothing toward the up-building of the community.

M. O. Cannady, wife and baby returned last Thursday from Colorado Springs, Colo., where they had been called several days previously on account of the illness and death of his uncle. While there, Mr. Cannady had his tonsils removed and was not able to return to his work at the post office until Tuesday of this week.

Our good friend R. D. Morris, who has been reading the News many years, came in Saturday and had his expiration date placed a year in the future. He says that about all he can do now is to read, and he wants the News to supply a portion of his reading material.

to raise money for charitable purposes during these stressful times. Most of the Kiwanians favored the proposition—all in fun; the fun being at the expense of the pastors present, particularly the Baptist pastor, Rev. Owen J. Hull.

As a matter of fact, the board of directors did decide to sponsor a Halloween party to be given on Thursday night, October 30th, the wives of the Kiwanians being invited guests on this occasion.

LITTLEFIELD, Oct. 22.—J. L. Wingfield, 17, high school student, was killed Tuesday by the discharge of a shotgun while hunting with four other boys. The gun was accidentally fired while the party was riding in an automobile en route to the hunting grounds. The load struck the youth in his head, killing him instantly.

passage of bills. This would obviate the necessity of calling special sessions of the legislature, he stated. It would also do away with much hasty and ill-advised legislation, he thought.

Another part of this amendment would raise the per diem of members of the legislature from $5.00 to $10.00 per day but at the same time would reduce the mileage allowed them from 20 cents to 10 cents per mile. Since legislators draw their mileage for each regular and each special session of the legislature, and since most of the special sessions under this amendment would be cut out, Judge Lockhart thought that this amendment would result in an actual saving of money to the tax payers.

The remaining amendment would so change the constitution as to permit the supreme court to remain in session twelve months in the year.

ENGINEER GAVE UP

Says He Could Not Stand Indigestion Any Longer.—Relieved By Black-Draught.

Pulaski, Va.—How a railroad engineer was relieved of indigestion was described by Mr. C. K. Nelson, a Fourth Street resident of this city. Mr. Nelson said:

"I was suffering from stomach trouble in 1917, and had been suffering for some time. I had a tightness in my chest, a shortness of breath. There seemed to be a heavy weight in the pit of my stomach, and quite a bit of nausea, yet I couldn't vomit. I tried different remedies, yet suffered on just the same. When in West Virginia, on a work train, I was in such a condition that I just gave up and came home. I couldn't stand to work, in my condition.

"Some one told me about Black-Draught. I started taking it in small doses after meals. It helped me, and I went back to work.

"One morning while on my engine I felt like I would smother. I stopped in a little town, bought a package of Black-Draught, took a dose and later in the day took another dose. It relieved me and I have not had a bad spell like that in more than two and a half years."

Theodore's Black-Draught contains no chemicals. Composed of pure botanical roots and herbs. 20-225

Under the present constitution it can remain in session only nine months. This would enable the court to do much more work at the same salaries now paid and would help the court to catch up with its work.

The Judge expressed the belief that every person who really acquainted himself with the purpose and effect of these amendments would heartily support every one of them.
