REV. HATCHETT BURIED HERE

Pioneer Minister Laid To Rest Here Friday, Came To Tahoka 26 Years Ago

The mortal remains of Rev. H. S. Hatchett were laid to rest in the cemetery here Friday afternoon following funeral services conducted at the Baptist Church by Rev. W. H. Bishop of Post assisted by Rev. H. C. Smith of the Methodist Church of this city.

This faithful minister of the gospel died at his home at Valley Mills Thursday afternoon after a lingering illness, having died exactly two months to the day and hour after the death of his twin brother, J. B. Hatchett, whose remains were buried here on May 22 of this year.

Brother Hatchett was a former resident of Tahoka, having removed to

LOCAL WOMAN DIED SUNDAY

Mother Of Mrs. W. O. Henderson Passes Away After Long, Useful Life

A great host of friends followed the remains of Mrs. Emma Howard Slaughter to the cemetery here Monday morning following a brief funeral service at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. O. Henderson, conducted by Rev. H. C. Smith of the Methodist Church.

Mrs. Slaughter passed away at an early hour Sunday afternoon, after having been confined to her bed about eight months. She suffered a stroke of paralysis on the day following Thanksgiving last year and had been practically helpless ever since.

She had been making her home here with her daughter for the past several years and the esteem in which she was held here was attested by the wilderness of flowers which friends placed upon her casket.

Mrs. Slaughter was born at Crockett, Texas, August 8, 1851. She spent her girlhood and was educated in New Orleans. It was there, too, that she was married to E. J. Hous-

Visiting Pastors At Baptist Church

Rev. W. H. Hughes, for six years pastor of the Baptist Church at Levelland, filled the pulpit at the Baptist Church here last Sunday morning and evening. He brought two excellent messages, which were much enjoyed by his congregations.

Rev. Mr. Howell, who has been pastor at Roscoe the past two years, will fill this pulpit next Sunday at both the morning and the evening hours. Everybody cordially invited.

Broomcorn Proves Better Than Cotton

J. R. Strain of Midway is one of Lynn county's farmers who planted a little broomcorn and not so much cotton this year. In fact, he has been profitably raising broomcorn for several years.

This year he has 40 acres that will be ready to harvest next week, and he expects it to produce about ten tons. Broomcorn is now bringing about $75.00 a ton. Harvesting and marketing will cost $15.00 or $20.00 per ton. Therefore, his profit will be about $50.00.

Last year Mr. Strain raised seven tons, sold part of it for $80.00 and part for $65.00.

REVIVAL MEETING AT DIXIE STARS SUNDAY

The Church of Christ will begin a series of meetings at Dixie on Sunday, July 31, according to G. M. Murrish of that community. Elder A. L. Burnett of Brownfield will conduct the services. Every one is cordially invited.

Miss Dora Dean Neill of Brownfield is spending the week here as the guest of Misses Opal and Myrtle Cooper.

NEGRO KILLED FRIDAY NIGHT

Another Stabbed In Back Is In A Serious Condition; Charge One With Murder

Henry Dickey, colored, was shot and killed in the negro residential section of Tahoka at the northeast outskirts of the town last Friday night, and Joseph Gatlin, colored, was arrested and placed in jail charged with the crime. An examining trial was held here Tuesday and bail was granted in the sum of $3,000. Gatlin has not yet made bond and is still in jail.

A few minutes prior to the fatal shooting, Dickey and William Gatlin, father of the accused, engaged in a difficulty in which Dickey stabbed Gatlin with an ice pick. The pick entered the back of Gatlin's neck and penetrated to a depth of several inches. In attempting to extricate the pick, other negroes broke off the handle and they had much difficulty in removing the weapon. Gatlin is said to yet be in a most precarious condition.

The trouble is understood to have arisen over a woman who had been living with Dickey as his wife.

Mrs. Skip Taylor and little daughter, Olga Faye, left Sunday to spend a few weeks with Mrs. Taylor's mother in San Antonio.

LEADS FOR REPRESENTATIVE

JOHN N. THOMAS Of Tahoka

Lockhart In Run-Off For Senator

Correct figures in the races for the state senate and representative have been difficult to procure, but it is certain that Arthur P. Duggan of Littlefield and G. E. Lockhart of Lubbock will be in the run-off for the senate with only a few votes difference between them.

John N. Thomas of Tahoka and Homer Winston of Brownfield will be in the run-off for Representative, Thomas leading Winston by about 1,000 votes.

Many Surprises In Saturday Primary

'MA' FERGUSON HAS BIG LEAD

Sterling Goes Into Run-Off With Hunter Third; Large State Vote Is Cast

The latest available election returns show "Ma" Ferguson leading Governor Sterling by 99,671 votes, while Tom Hunter is trailing Sterling by only 66,369. The figures as compiled by the Texas Election Bureau at 6 o'clock Wednesday afternoon were as follows: Ferguson, 364,625; Sterling, 264,964; Hunter, 198,546; all others, 36,744. These returns come from 251 of the 254 counties of the state, 181 of them being complete. The total vote

LARGE COUNTY VOTE POLLED

Lockhart, Nelson, Thomas, Smith, And Parker Win; Jones And Story In Run-Off

The election in this county brought a number of surprises. Perhaps the most unexpected results are to be found in the race for county judge, "Happy" Smith receiving 613 more votes than both his opponents combined, receiving either a majority or a plurality in every voting precinct in the county except two. Judge Grider received a plurality at Newmoore while Judge Heath was the high man at Three Lakes. One of the greatest surprises came from O'Donnell, Judge Grider's home which gave Smith a lead of 129 votes.

Most people were also surprised at the majority that Sheriff B. L. Parker received over former sheriff Sam Sanford, his lead being 753.

Nelson's majority over Price, candidates for district attorney, was likewise larger than most people anticipated. In fact, many believed that Price would probably carry the county, yet Nelson's lead was 407 votes. But the most surprising feature of this contest was the fact that Nelson carried each of the six counties in the district.

John Thomas, candidate for Representative, received 2,039 votes in this county, while his four opponents combined received only 636 votes. Mr. Thomas is leading in the district by about 1,000 votes.

In the race for the state Judge Lockhart received 1,206 votes, Duggan of Littlefield coming second with 442. Lockhart and Duggan are in the run-off in the district.

In the race for county clerk, Bill Jones of O'Donnell is just one vote ahead of H. C. Story of Tahoka, and these two will be in the run-off.

Other run-offs are the following: Finley and Stuart for commissioner of precinct No. 1; Nordyke and Warwick for commissioner of precinct No. 2; Harrison and Edwards for public weigher in precinct No. 1; Payne and Rogers for public weigher at O'Donnell; and White and Heck for public weigher at New Home.

Training Course At M. E. Church

Rev. J. W. Watson, of Lubbock, Conference Executive Secretary, preached a splendid sermon at the local M. E. church Sunday morning preliminary to the course in the Organization for Christian Education which he is conducting each night this week. Rev. Watson is a forceful speaker and is holding the interested attention of a large class of local workers with his practical presentation of this very vital subject.

"Barcarolle" by Blake was the church hour musical prelude, and "La Cinquintaine" by Gabriel-Marie was the violin solo chosen by Charles Gagnat, who favored the Young People's Department also by repeating it in their opening exercises.

At the evening hour, the Rev. Smith found an inspirational message in the theme "Let us all be of one mind—the mind of the Christ". Miss Ney Camille Fenton gave an interesting report on the Intermediate Young People's camp at Post last week end. Eleven credits were earned by the local young folk who attended under the leadership of the Counselor, Mrs. H. C. Smith.

Rev. J. N. Hester of Draw is driving in for the training class each evening, and on Tuesday night, Fiske Miles, Educational Director of Lubbock First Church, was a visitor and conducted the brief worship service.

Due to the election Saturday and the consequent late hours, the attendance suffered Sunday morning. Let us get back to normalcy next Sunday—well over the 200 mark. Special music for the opening. Come right on time—9:45 A. M. Bring someone!—Reporter.

CARDS OF THANKS OMITTED

We have been compelled to leave out this week expressions of thanks to the voters from W. O. W. (Bill) Jones of O'Donnell, E. O. White of New Home, and Clyde Shaw of Wilson. They will appear next week.

THANK YOU!

To the voters of Lynn county: I hereby express to you my heartfelt thanks and sincere appreciation for the splendid vote given me for State Senator in the primary last Saturday. The large vote in Lynn county helped me lead the ticket in the senate race. For this I am very grateful. Your continued support is most earnestly asked in the run-off primary. Sincerely and gratefully yours for a square deal for West Texas.
ARTHUR P. DUGGAN; candidate for State Senate.

TIPPIT THANKS FRIENDS

I am very thankful for the votes and support given me in my recent race for cotton weigher. Though I did not get in the run-off, you gave me a good vote and I appreciate the confidence you thereby expressed in me and my ability. I had no hard feeling toward any of my opponents or any of their supporters, and count them as my friends, also. I will continue trying to be a good citizen, and possibly will make the race for weigher again four years from now. Again I thank you, friends.
T. I. TIPPIT.

HARRISON THANKS VOTERS

I take this means of thanking the many friends for the most splendid vote you gave me last Saturday, August 27th is the date to decide finally who will be your cotton weigher. No one can appreciate your support more than I shall and I promise to faithfully discharge my duties, if elected, and in every way prove worthy of the confidence you may place in me. I shall try to see you in person to solicit your vote for August 27th and to reassure you of my willingness to give service. In the event I do not get to see you I want you to know that your support will be much appreciated.
HOMER HARRISON

APPRECIATION OF SUPPORT

I want to express thru the News my sincere thanks for the splendid support the people of Lynn county have given me in my race for county clerk in the election just finished. It makes me feel that you have confidence in me. I have tried to run a square, clean race all along and intend doing the same thing in the coming run-off that will terminate on August 27th. May I ask all of you for your support and influence throughout the next thirty days, and then your votes on election day.
Sincerely yours, H. C. STORY.

THANKS VOTERS

I wish to express my sincere appreciation for those who supported me on last Saturday at the polls with their vote. The result makes me realize, forcibly, that I am not a politician, however I have no hard feelings toward any one and my best wishes are for the successful candidates and I am ready to lay stepping stones rather than stumbling blocks in their paths. Again thanking those who supported me, I am, yours,
L. C. HEATH.

QUICKER, BETTER RELIEF from use of Black-Draught

"I have taken Black-Draught, off and on when needed, for twenty-five years, for it is easy to take," writes Mr. George T. Wharton, of Petersburg, Va. The vote last Saturday would indicate that the people of Texas are desirous for another chance to approve or disapprove of the Eighteenth Amendment. While we believe that submission of the matter will only add to the confusion and turmoil of the times, yet we are perfectly willing for the fight to be made all over again. Let the people rule.

Now that the first primary is over and the run-off campaign is about to begin, there will be great temptation to many of us to get excited and all "het up". Let's all keep cool and in a good humor.

It was positively painful to us to scratch the names of some of the candidates for office in last Saturday's primary, but we could not vote for all the good men.

The disappointment of the defeated candidate must be keen, but happy is he who will not permit disappointment to sour his disposition.

Happy is the man who, after being knocked down, can come up smiling.

WOMEN AND CHILDREN WENT THROUGH HARDSHIPS

Shortly after I came to the Tahoka Lake Ranch, 1898, I married Mrs. Effie McNeill Cooke, a descendant of James Bowie of Alamo fame. She and her eight year old daughter, Ethel, now Mrs. B. H. Robinson of Tahoka, had moved to Lubbock about a year previously from Dallas county. Mrs. Robinson has one son, Jack Alley Robinson, named for me. Several years after our marriage we adopted a three year old girl, Hazel, now Mrs. A. C. Bennett of Boyce City, Oklahoma.

Mrs. Alley's birthplace was about where Buckner Orphans Home is now, near Dallas. She knew Mother and Father Buckner when they lived in a log cabin and as a child played with the first orphans they took to raise. She went to school with some of the Sanger brothers and the Padgett boys, the latter of saddle-making fame.

Mrs. Alley was among the first women residents of Lynn county, and Ethel was the first and only child for quite a while. Mrs. Enos L. Seeds, whose husband was postmaster and had a little store at Grassland, the first in Lynn county, and Mrs. Bill Petty, wife of the T-Bar Ranch foreman, were the only other women in this section.

Up on the northern edge of the county, near the Lubbock county line, Major Johnson of Colorado City had formed the Dixie Ranch. Sometimes, Mrs. Johnson and her daughter would come up for a short stay. While on one of these visits, the daughter ran away with Wes Allen to Estacado, where they were married. When Mrs. Johnson heard they had left the ranch, she got on a horse and rode all the way from the Lynn county place to Estacado in pursuit, but arrived too late to prevent the wedding.

Mrs. Alley went through many of the hardships that the rest of the pioneers faced. She rode a horse well and was frequently called on to help with the cattle. She did not like to stay at home, anyway, and nearly always rode herd along with me and the cowboys.

One winter I sold about 400 calves and yearlings to an Illinois man and drove them from Tahoka Lake down to Stanton to ship. Mrs. Alley and Ethel, who was just a little girl then, went along. At Stanton we weaned a lot of the calves for shipment and were ready to drive their mothers back to the ranch when a severe blizzard swept down from the Plains. All my cowboys quit me except two old men, but after feeding the cows for three days we decided to face the cold back home. No sooner were we started than a cold rain began falling and continued until we reached the ranch.

The trip required about a week and was a hard one for a man, let alone a woman and a girl. We would just turn the cows loose at night, we were so short on hands, but luckily we were able to get them back without losing any. At Lamesa, Ethel quit us and took the mail back to the ranch, but Mrs. Alley stuck it out all the way.

Just about the time Tahoka was being established a drought came on. We ran out of stock water at Tahoka Lake and had to drive the cattle to Indian Canyon, nearly thirty miles south. We were short on hands, and

Mrs. Alley was called on to help with the driving. Ance Lockwood, now a prominent citizen of this county, Ellis Payne, later with Goodnight and now living in the Dalhart country, Arch McPhall, the cook, Mrs. Alley and myself drove the 3,000 head of cattle.

We drove until 11 or 12 o'clock on the night of the first day, slept a few hours and drove on to Indian Canyon, arriving at 2 or 3 o'clock in the afternoon. It was summer and a hot, dry and parching wind was blowing from the south. Mrs. Alley brought up the drags, and the dust that fogged on her from the herd was plenty. That was a real job for a woman and she was exhausted from the trip.

To cap it all off, the next day when we had just gotten back to the Tahoka Lake headquarters we looked back to the south and saw a prairie fire east of Tahoka. We went back and fought the fire all afternoon.

Lubbock was just a small town even in the first years of this century. We went there frequently. We also went to Big Spring and to Stanton quite often, as those two towns were on the railroad. When Mrs. Alley and I were first married there was no social life to speak of in Lynn county. In fact, each of the other two women in the county were fifteen miles away and lived in opposite directions from our ranch.

There was no school, and we had to send Ethel away to get her education. One year she went to Lubbock. Then she went to a convent at Stanton; following that, to the old Birdwell private school at Big Spring; and then to Simmons College at Abilene. When Hazel got big enough to go, there was a school at Tahoka.

We would make our trips to these cities in a hack or on horseback. When the automobile came, I bought the first car in Lynn county, a Buick.

We sold out the Tahoka Lake Ranch in 1909 and moved to Tahoka to operate a store I had established several years previously. I also became postmaster at Tahoka, succeeding A. B. McLeod, but resigned in 1911 to become manager of the Long-S Ranch at Soash.

Next week: The concluding installment, "Later Day Ranches of the Plains".

New Lynn

The farmers are now wearing new smiles on account of the good rain that we received last week. Its estimation in inches was small but it helped to stop the hot winds and the drought that was in order.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernice Jones, who have been attending school at Tech, paid a short visit in the home of his mother and family, Mrs. T. I. Jones, afterward returning to their present home at Brownfield.

The Methodist meeting closed Sunday night. Many were converted and reclaimed during these few nights of worship. Bro. Damron, formerly of this community, did the preaching, assisted by Rev. Thurston the pastor.

Miss Winnie Spears is visiting in her parents home, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Spears. Winnie has been attending school at Tech and will soon leave to fill a position as a teacher in a school near Amarillo.

Bro. C. D. Damron, wife and two sons, have returned to their home at Briston. Bro. Damron was in charge of the Methodist meeting.

Mrs. W. P. White and son, Harold, have returned to their home at Tulsa, Okla. They have been visiting her parents for the past month, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Krebbs.

A meeting will begin at the Baptist Church on the night of August 3rd. Everyone is invited to attend each service. Bro. Roberson, the pastor, will do the preaching.

Singing was well attended Sunday afternoon, with visitors from nearly all the neighboring communities. We appreciate your presence and invite you back at any time. We will have singing Saturday night, although we have discontinued it for the summer meetings. Being a vacant Saturday night between the Methodist and Baptist meetings, we are to accept this opportunity. Everyone is invited to attend.

How Cardul Helps Women

"Mal-nutrition" means that your body is not getting enough to keep it up, so that what it has to do is not done well. You may not be eating enough to keep up the work of the body, or there may be something wrong that keeps you from getting full value from the food you eat.

Because of mal-nutrition, some women have aches and pains every month. Such pains should not be neglected.

Take Cardul to give you a better appetite, to give you more strength from the food you eat—to build up and increase your feeling of well-being. Aches and pains go away as you build up with the help of Cardul.

"MA" FERGUSON IN LEAD IN GOVERNOR'S RACE

counted is 864,908, which breaks the record in Texas, the previous high mark being 857,773 in the second primary in 1930. It is estimated that the total vote, when all returns are in, will exceed 875,000.

Contrary to all expectations the vote in Lynn county was heavier last Saturday than it was in the first primary two years ago, the total vote for governor being 2,852 against 2,778 in 1930. Mrs. Ferguson again led all her opponents, as she did two years ago, receiving a slightly larger per cent of the entire vote this year than in 1930. Her vote this year was 1,274 against 1,102 in the first primary two years ago. The combined vote of her opponents this year was 1,578 while the combined vote of all her opponents two years ago was 1,676.

In the first primary two years ago Tom Love received 733 votes, Clint Small 594, a Ross Sterling 73, the other candidates the remainder. In the second primary two years ago, Mrs. Ferguson received 1,447 votes and Ross Sterling 1,394, Mrs. Ferguson winning in this county by 53 votes.

Two years ago 63 more votes were polled in the second primary than in the first. Mrs. Ferguson increased her vote by 345, most of the opposition vote in the first primary going to Sterling in the second. It remains to be seen what percent of the opposition vote this year will go to Mrs. Ferguson in the second primary. The larger portion of it will likely go to Sterling.

Begin Taking Cardui Today If You Suffer Like This Lady Did

"WHEN I was a girl, I began taking Cardui," writes Mrs. Maggie Stanfield, of Crandall, Ga. "I was very irregular for twelve months. Nothing did me very much good until my mother began to give me this medicine. Then I got all right, stout and well."

"After I was married, I was in bad health. I began taking Cardui again. I was troubled with my back a lot. Was awfully restless. I could not sleep well. I just weighed 90 pounds when I began taking Cardui. I improved rapidly. Before long I weighed 126 pounds. I felt fine. I was able to do a good day's work."

Cardui is sold by druggists here.

Nicholson Has Voted 63 Years

A. O. P. Nicholson, now almost 88 years of age, blind and decrepit, is still much interested in politics. He says that he has been voting for sixty-six years, and so on last Saturday morning he insisted on voting again, but had to be transported to the polls. He was sick and the sun was hot, so the ordeal was almost more than he could stand, but still he got a great kick out of it. The election did not go to his liking all the way through but he thinks the world will live over it.

Speaking of elections and politics, the aged man became a bit reminiscent Monday and disclosed an interesting career. He cast his first vote in 1866, he married in 1868, and he has been a member of the Methodist Church for 63 years. He is amazed that he is still alive, for during his life time he has undergone many hardships. He was wounded by a bursting shell in the Civil War, he was captured and held as a prisoner by the Yankees for more than a year, he has suffered three severe attacks of pneumonia, he has had three strokes of paralysis, for twenty years he was afflicted with a cancer which was said to be incurable but he has no trace of it left now, forty-five years ago his right eye was accidentally knocked out and since that time he has lost the sight of the other eye, and although he has been virtually an invalid for months, he declares that he has gotten into such a habit of living that he doesn't know whether he will ever die or not. He is one of eight children, four of them older and three of them younger than he, but all of them are dead. He alone still lives. "I attribute my long life to obedience," he said. "I never disobeyed my parents, and I have heard my mother say that I never gave her any trouble."

He can discuss politics, religion, and other topics most intelligently, and he delights to do so. He can recite the stirring events of Reconstruction days in Texas, the exciting story of the Hogg-Clark campaign, and other colorful chapters of Texas history with as much accuracy and precision as the best informed man among us can detail current political events.

Yes, he got a great kick out of that vote Saturday. "It may be my last one," he confided to the editor.

HAS GOOD CROPS
J. W. Warrick of Grassland was in town Monday exhibiting half grown bolls of cotton which he had plucked from his field. He said that he had many such and that the cotton as well as the feed crops in that section of the county promises to be very fine. He himself has 175 acres of cotton and 150 acres of feed, and he declares that they now appear to be the best crops he ever had.

Many Visitors At T-Bar Round-Up

Dave Childers, manager of the T-Bar Ranch, reports some distinguished visitors during the recent annual round-up. Among these was Dr. Krueger of the Lubbock Sanitarium, who for the first time witnessed an event of this kind. Dr. Krueger was reared in another part of the state, where there are no ranches, and he has been so busy in the sanitarium since coming to Lubbock that he had never had an opportunity to witness a big round-up. It was all very interesting to him, Dave reports, even though multitudes of flies were impolite enough to persist in walking around over the Doctor's big hunk of barbecue. Others from the sanitarium, members of the visiting party, were Miss Marie Reams, the matron, and Misses Pickens, Harris, and Tredway, nurses, and also Mr. and Mrs. McKinney of Lubbock, the former being district manager for Montgomery Ward and Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Crona of Chicago also visited the ranch during the round-up. Mr. Crona is connected with a big electrical concern in that city. Dave says that during the week there were possibly 500 visitors at the ranch.

WHERE GOOD EGGS GET WHAT THEY DESERVE

Every day hundreds of thousands of eggs are delivered by farm patrons to more than 100 Swift & Company produce plants over the United States. Producers are paid cash for all they offer.

In these plants all eggs are carefully graded and packed in cases. Only the best, in size and quality, are destined eventually to go into cartons and be sold under the Brookfield label. Others, perhaps not so large or so even in color, are sorted to get the highest price for their grades.

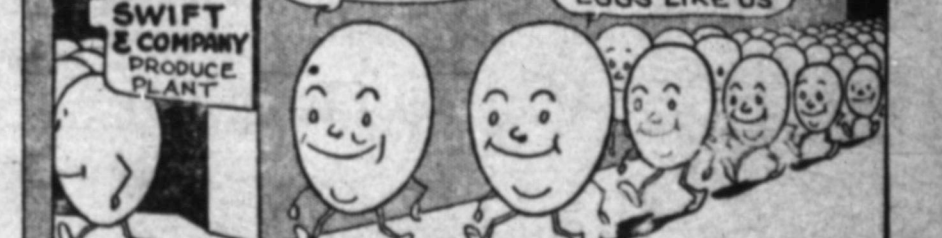

Under refrigeration and in carload lots Swift & Company ships the eggs to more than 400 branch houses, each the distributing center for a great population. Every retailer customer of every branch house is a possible customer for any eggs that arrive at a produce plant.

IT LOOKS LIKE WE ARE THROUGH! IT'S A SHORT LIFE AND A MERRY ONE.

ANYHOW WE MADE THE BEST OF OURSELVES.

In these branch houses the best eggs are packed in cartons with the Brookfield label. Thousands of salesmen daily make their rounds, selling eggs, poultry and butter as they sell meat. That means economy in sales cost. Deliveries are so frequent the eggs reach the consumer in perfect condition just as they were when Swift & Company selected them.

With Swift & Company as a guide, every egg has the chance to make the most of itself. Demand is dug up by the sales force and fostered by product advertising. Costs of service are as low as long experience and great volume can make them. Profits are low—over a period of years per pound.
