MRS. R. L. KING DIED SUNDAY

Had Been Ill Since May 1; Leaves Seven Children To Mourn Her Death

Mrs. Gertrude King, wife of the late Rube L. King, died at her home here just before ten o'clock Sunday morning and her remains were interred in the cemetery here Monday afternoon, Rev. M. C. Bishop, pastor of the Baptist Church at Post officiating.

Deceased had been seriously sick since the first day of May. Recently it was discovered that her malady was pellagra, that dreaded disease that frequently wrecks both body and mind and brings the victim slowly but surely to the portals of death. She suffered long and death must have come as a sweet relief.

Mrs. King was a good wife, mother, neighbor, and friend. The children and other relatives have the sincerest sympathy of the people of Tahoka in this affliction that has come upon them.

Mrs. King, whose maiden name was Gertrude Watts, was born in Missouri July 13, 1886. After her marriage to Rube L. King, the family moved to Texas, and they have been residing in Lynn county since 1916 or 1917. Her husband preceded her in death only a few months, having died suddenly March 22, 1932.

She leaves surviving her the following children: Lee, William, C. B., Florence, Jack, Kelly, and Katherine. She also leaves one surviving sister, Mrs. H. C. Quinley of Franklin, Missouri, who was at Mrs. King's bedside most of the time for several weeks preceding her death.

Many friends attended the funeral services, which were conducted at the home, and followed the remains to the grave. The lavish and beautiful floral offerings attested the esteem in which she was held.

Joe Bailey Boy Died Tuesday

Paul Ray Tyler, 7 years and 8 months old, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Tyler of the Joe Bailey community, died Monday morning in the Lubbock Sanitarium, and the remains were buried Tuesday afternoon in the cemetery at O'Donnell. Funeral services were conducted at the family residence by Rev. J. W. Braswell, Baptist minister, of Lamesa.

Death resulted from a ruptured appendix. The little fellow had been taken to the sanitarium a week prior to his death suffering from appendicitis. An operation was not performed immediately for the reason that the boy's physical condition was not such that he could undergo such an ordeal. He had previously undergone an operation for tuberculosis of the bone, it is said, and this disease had so weakened his vitality that physicians found it necessary to build up his strength, if possible, before operating for appendicitis. The efforts were unavailing, however, and the little fellow's suffering was relieved by death early Monday.

Harris & Applewhite, undertakers, of this city prepared the body for burial.

The parents and other relatives have the deepest sympathy of numerous friends.

Henry Ansley Dies After Auto Crash

Henry Ansley, newspaper man of Amarillo, died in that city Saturday from injuries received in an automobile accident Friday night. He was returning to his home from a speaking engagement, where he had spoken in behalf of Sterling for governor, when the car in which he was riding turned over.

Ansley was only 34 years of age but had already won a high place in newspaper circles and had recently become famous for his unique article entitled "I like the depression", which was widely published throughout the country.

Ansley had several acquaintances and friends in Tahoka.

MRS. KETNER BETTER

Mrs. J. E. Ketner, who has been critically ill the past few days, was reported by the attending physician to be slightly better this morning.

Parkhurst's Cow Is Good Producer

D. A. Parkhurst is unusually proud of a Jersey cow he has out at his house. She is one of those big milk and butterfat producers about which we hear so much but very rarely see. This particular cow turns out about five gallons of milk a day. The milk seemed unusually rich, and from last Sunday's milking of 21 quarts Mr. Parkhurst decided to make a test of the milk's richness. The test showed six pounds of butterfat, an unusually high record.

Start Meeting At Church Of Christ

We wish to announce again the revival meeting of the Church of Christ which begins Friday evening at 7:45, August 19th. This meeting will be conducted by a very able minister of the Gospel, Bro. Drenon of Brownfield. Bro. Drenon has been pastor of the Brownfield church for the past three years and is a very noted church worker.

If you are interested in the good old-fashioned doctrine as expounded by the Apostles come out to this meeting. It will continue over two Lord's Days—two services each day at 10:30 a. m. and 7:45 p. m.

Young Brother Albert Smith of Slaton will conduct the song services.—Reporter.

Diphtheria Takes Luttrell Child

The little ten-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Luttrell residing in the Draw community died of diphtheria at an early hour Thursday morning. The parents are members of a religious sect that does not believe in the use of medicines but relies solely on prayer in cases of sickness, it is said, and they declined to have the child treated by a physician.

The remains will be buried Friday in the cemetery at Draw.

Red Cross Help For Hail Area

Since our last report we have received the following donations: A. R. McGonagill, food, 75c; M. P. Roberts, food, 20c; J. H. Cobb, food, 50c; S. R. Kemp, clothing, $7.80; Holloway, food, 90c; Byron Brown, food, 40c; M. Thompson, food, $1.00. Many thanks!

We need wheat, and if you can donate a peck, half bushel, bushel, or five bushels, we can put it in a good place for the victims of the drought and hail.

We wish to especially thank each person who has donated to the Red Cross garden vegetables for those who lost their gardens by the last two hails. We have furnished these hail victims with another supply of garden seed and they will soon have good gardens again.

Please do not ask me if you can get flour, cans, etc. The only place to get this information is at the desk in the office of the Red Cross on Saturdays. I do not have the time to answer each individual's questions. All my spare time is fully occupied in getting flour, garden seed, cans and food for the drought and hail victims.

B. P. Maddox, Chairman of Lynn County Chapter American Red Cross.

THIEVES ARE AGAIN BUSY

Burglarize Burleson Grain Co.; Steal Gas From Texas And Gulf Companies' Tanks

Thieves have been busy in Tahoka again. On Saturday night they broke into the Gulf and Texas oil stations here and stole a quantity of gasoline from each. They also broke into Jim Burleson's feed, grain, and tire store and stole six truck casings valued at about $30.00 each. The Connolly warehouse was also entered but nothing has been missed there as yet.

Officers are at work on these cases but if they have any clue as to the identity of the thieves they are keeping it to themselves.

With crop prospects fine the next Dollar Day here should be a hummer.

Build New Gin For Grassland

The cotton crop throughout this section and especially in the vicinity of Grassland promises to be so fine this fall that Thomas Brothers, ginners at Grassland, are erecting another gin at that place.

Their present plant at that point is the largest in the country, and with the new plant in operation Grassland promises to become one of the largest ginning centers in the county.

Nine State Constitutional Amendments Will Be Before Voters November 8th

There are a total of nine proposed constitutional amendments that the legislature is submitting to voters of Texas for consideration in the general election, November 8. They are being printed in the newspapers and it would probably be worth while for our readers to cut them out and save them for future reference. The amendments are as follows:

SINGERS MET HERE SUNDAY

Many visitors were here last Sunday attending the Lynn County Plateau Singing Convention, which was held in the spacious auditorium of the Central Ward school building.

The convention met in the morning and continued until far into the afternoon. At a business meeting in the afternoon a new president and secretary were elected, Mr. Krebbs of New Lynn being elected president and Mrs. Homer Harrison of Tahoka secretary. The place for the next convention, which will be held in February, was not decided.

Methodist Young People Give Program

The Young People's Division of the Methodist church was in charge of the last mid-week service presenting an interesting and attractive program which was much enjoyed.

On Sunday morning the 11:00 o'clock service was dismissed to worship with our Presbyterian neighbors. For the church school opening Miss Elizabeth Wyatt played a prelude, and Mrs. Fred Bucy conducted the worship period, making a splendid talk on "Using God's Gift to the Best Advantage" and sponsoring the musical feature, a vocal duet by Mrs. Gladys Carmack and Mr. Bucy.

For the night session an interesting program had been arranged by "Happy" Smith, Mr. Farris, a visitor from the New Home community, led the song, and the special numbers consisted of a male quartet by Messrs. Burnett, Boswell Edwards, Kenneth Reid, and Coughran Ketner, and a piano solo by Miss Marjorie Wells. J. B. Pace, Jr., made an unusually fine talk on "The Relation Between Christian Education and Public School Education". It was a most interesting subject well handled.

There will be splendid special music next Sunday at the 9:45 hour. Everyone try to be present right on time.—Reporter.

MAKES APPEAL FOR SUPPORT

Asks For Second Term On Record; Assails "Fergusonism" As Threat To State

Possibly three hundred voters heard Governor Ross Sterling defend his administration in a thirty minutes speech delivered at the noon hour Saturday from the front steps of the court house here.

The Governor was introduced to the audience by Mr. Frank Ogilvie, an attorney of Fort Worth, who spoke some twenty minutes in advocacy of Governor Sterling's candidacy and assailing the record of Jim Ferguson. Ogilvie was introduced by Judge B. P. Maddox of this city.

Reminding his audience that he had now been in the service of the state for five and a half years, four as a member of the state highway commission and one and a half years as governor, Gov. Sterling called attention to the wretched condition that he found upon coming into the office of state highway commissioner. He found that the highway equipment belonging to the state had been let out to private individuals and scattered to the four winds. One contractor was even charging the state for the use of equipment that the State owned.

The funds had been lavishly spent, little work on the highways had been done, and the work of the department so mismanaged that federal aid had been withdrawn, the only state in the Union from which federal aid had been withdrawn. He recited how he went to Washington and induced the authorities to restore federal aid, and cited the vast amount of highway that had been built in this state since that time.

He assailed Ferguson's proposal that the gasoline tax be cut up into three parts, one part to go into the general revenue fund, one into the school fund, and the remainder into the highway or Ferguson fund. That would place only about ten million dollars annually in the state highway fund.

J. L. Martin, the most recent manager and editor of the Reporter, has returned to his home in Childress, where he formerly published a paper. He expects to enter the newspaper business again some time soon, it is said.

Little Baby Dies Of Whooping Cough

John Calvin Wilson, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Wilson of Lubbock, seven months and 18 days of age, died here about 6:30 o'clock Saturday morning in the office of Dr. J. H. McCoy. Death resulted from whooping cough with cholera infantum as a contributing cause.

Mr. Calvin had been working on the highway in Gaines county and they were undertaking to take the sick child to Lubbock. They had car trouble a few miles southwest of Tahoka and had to be brought in by a farmer. The infant was immediately taken to the Doctor's office, where every possible effort was made to save its life, but all efforts were in vain.

The body was taken to Lubbock for burial.

THE REMEDY FOR THE DAMNABLE AFFLICTION

And Hoover has gone wet!
Many erstwhile dry Senators and Congressmen are showing inclinations to do the same thing.

There are evidences the popular sentiment has swung to the wet side. All this wet propaganda has been doing its work. The constant dripping of the water will wear away the hardest stone. It has been dinned in our ears day in and day out that Prohibition is a failure. It has been blared out unceasingly through the newspapers and magazines.
The law is not being enforced, and therefore the law must be repealed.

These repealists forget that it was the lawlessness of the saloon that put it out of business. It persistently and defiantly refused to obey the law. It constantly violated every law designed to curb and control its evils. Finally the people decided that this lawless thing must be destroyed.
They started in with local option.
Then they progressed to state-wide prohibition; and finally came national prohibition.

And now, because the liquor traffic is still lawless, they say that the laws against it must be repealed.

Both parties say that the saloon must not return. What do they propose in its stead?

If the sale of liquor is legalized, then the only way to prevent the return of the saloon is to prohibit the sale of liquors in unbroken packages and to prohibit the drinking of it in any place where it is sold.

That might be a slight improvement over the saloon, but how much?
It would bring liquor out into the open all right, as the Democratic platform demands—out into the open streets, into the open highways, into the open "social clubs", into the open dance halls, and into the open pastures. Men could no longer place one foot on the brass rail in a saloon, blow off the foam, and guzzle down the beer. But they could do this very thing in the social club. Beer could not be sold by the keg or the bottle. Whiskey could not be sold by the drink, but it might be sold by the quart or the gallon.
Beer clubs in the towns and beer parties in the pastures and drinking sprees in the automobiles and drunken brawls in the dance halls would become a hundred times more prevalent than they have been under Prohibition.

Furthermore, if anybody imagines that the liquor laws under some such scheme as this would be obeyed and respected, such person needs to be sent to an institution for the feeble-minded.

But, we guess the country is headed for some such fool scheme.
A lot of the young folks don't know

Take a Pinch of BLACK-DRAUGHT
For Distress After Meals

He had suffered distress after meals, but by taking Theodor's Black-Draught he was relieved of this trouble, writes Mr. Jess Higgins of Dawsonville, Ga.

"I had sour stomach and gas," Mr. Higgins explains, "and often I would have bilious spells. I read about Theodor's Black-Draught and began to take it. It relieved me of this trouble. I keep it all the time now. I consider it a fine medicine. I take a pinch of Black-Draught after meals when I need it. It helps to prevent sick headache and to keep the system in good order."

You can get Black-Draught in the form of a SYRUP, for Children.

any better. A lot of the older ones have short memories. The slick wet propagandists have gotten in their work—and both Roosevelt and Hoover have fallen for it.

This is the remedy offered for this "damnable affliction of prohibition".
On with the dance! On with the knock-down and drag-out!

MORE ABOUT THE RUN-OFF CANDIDATES

All candidates for state offices were selected in the first primary except candidates for governor, railway commissioner (unexpired term of four years), railway commissioner (full term of six years), and one justice of the supreme court.

Lieutenant governor Edgar E. Witt, state comptroller George H. Shepperd, state treasurer Charley Lockhart, and land commissioner J. H. Walker were nominated without opposition.

Jimmie Allred, attorney general, defeated both his opponents by a majority of almost two to one.

Commissioner of agriculture McDonald defeated his opponent by a majority of more than two to one.
L. A. Woods of Waco defeated Chas. N. Shaver, state superintendent of public instruction, by a small margin.

For railroad commissioner to fill the unexpired term of Pat Neff, filled by appointment till the November election by Ernest O. Thompson of Amarillo, the two runoff candidates are Thompson and W. Gregory Hatcher.

Thompson is a comparatively young man but he has already made a reputation as a fighter for the rights of the people as against the corporate interests. Starting out in life as a poor boy, he amassed quite a bit of property in Amarillo, then ran for the office of mayor of that city and was elected. As such he made a successful fight to lower the rates of several public utilities serving the city. He is a red-headed scrapper, possessed of the West Texas spirit, and is unquestionably well prepared from the standpoint of intellect, courage, and familiarity with the duties of the office to make an excellent railway commissioner.
West Texas ought to stay with him.

W. Gregory Hatcher has served as state treasurer and was a candidate for a state office two years ago.
In the recent primary he received almost as many votes as Thompson for railway commissioner, there being a difference of less than 4,000 votes between them. We know little as to Hatcher's qualifications for the office. As state treasurer, he was involved in several quarrels with other state officials concerning matters in which they were all concerned. He did not seem to get along very well with his associates, but he might make a splendid railroad commissioner—we couldn't say.

For the full term of six years, railroad commissioner, the present incumbent, C. V. Terrell of Wise county is opposed by Lee Satterwhite of Ector county. In the first primary Terrell received 366,266 votes against 213,309 for Satterwhite, a lead of more than 150,000 votes. But the other candidates for this place in the first primary received almost 290,000 votes. So, it would be possible for Satterwhite to overcome Terrell's big plurality and receive the nomination, but it doesn't seem probable.

Terrell is just closing his first term of six years as railroad commissioner. During most of the time that Pat Neff was a member of this commission there was almost constant disagreement between him and Terrell and the two had many sharp clashes. We do not undertake to say which was right but we have great confidence in Pat Neff. Satterwhite has been severely attacking Terrell's record and his methods. Satterwhite has himself served in the legislature from three separate districts; first from a central Texas district, second from the Amarillo district, and now he is serving from the Midland district.
He served one term as speaker of the House of Representatives and made a reputation for his ability to turn off business. He was popular in the House and was highly esteemed by his associates. He gained an intimate knowledge of the institutions, the departments, and the business of this state, and is doubtless well equipped to serve as railroad commissioner.

For justice of the supreme court of Texas, Judge William Pierson of Greenville and Judge J. E. Hickman of Eastland are the opposing candidates, Ocie Speer of Austin being eliminated in the first primary.

Judge Pierson is the present incumbent.
He is an able lawyer and a man of the highest integrity. It is conceded that he has been an able member of this high court. He has been in ill health much of the time, which interfered very materially with his performance of his duties at times, but his health is now said to be much better. He led Hickman in the first primary by about 41,000 votes, Speer having received about 192,000.

Hickman is a comparatively young man. He has been serving for a number of years as justice of the court of civil appeals at Eastland and is now chief justice of that tribunal.
He is generally reputed to be an able jurist, is affable and courteous, a hard worker, ambitious and worthy.
He was born and reared in West Texas and received an enormous vote in this section in the first primary.

Both Pierson and Hickman are splendid Christian gentlemen of the highest type.

Now go vote for the best man in each of the above races.

School days are here again. Some of the schools in the county have already started. The school here is to open a week from next Monday.
Most of the schools in the county will likely close for a few weeks during the Fall to enable the children to help gather the cotton crop, which now promises to be good. It is hoped that in spite of this interruption, in spite of the depression, in spite of all difficulties, this will be the best school year Lynn county has ever had. Possibly there is nothing more sorely needed than a higher degree of education among the masses. Ignorance and superstition are a bane to any people.

Warning! Farmers should get ready for the cotton leaf worm. If this kind of weather continues long, he will be abroad in the land. Two weeks ago we warned the people against the re-election of Ferguson.
The appearance of worms in the cotton would be almost as great a menace as Fergusonism. Poison is the best ammunition to use against the worms; the ballot is the best weapon with which to destroy Fergusonism.

Governor Sterling is not an orator, but nearly everybody who heard him agreed that he made a good speech here last Saturday. There was no ballyhoo about it, no flimflam, no wild charges, no appeal to prejudice. It was a straight-forward defense of his administration—a clear-cut statement of facts, a presentation of pertinent information, that made a deep impression on those who heard him.

additional as attorney's fees if placed in the hands of an attorney for collection.

Said petition further alleging that on the 8th day of June, 1923, J. B.
Rhodes and wife, Ethel Rhodes, conveyed to the defendant, T. A. Smith, the hereinafter described land. And in said deed, the defendant T. A.
Smith, agreed and assumed the payment of the above described notes, which constitute a vendor's lien against the hereinafter described land; whereby the defendants, and each of them, became liable to the plaintiff for the sum of money in said notes specified, together with all interest and attorney's fees. The first six of said series of notes having heretofore been paid are released and discharged. This suit is maintained on the balance of said notes, from note No 7 to 18 inclusive.

That said notes were given as part of the purchase money of the following described real estate situated in Lynn County, Texas, and described as follows to-wit: All of the South one-third of Survey No.
27, Block No. eight, Cert. No. 654, of the E. L. & R. R. R. R. Company's surveys and containing 213 1-3 acres of land. Also, 6 2-3 acres along the South line of the East one-fourth of the North 2-3 of Survey No. 27, Bk.
8, Cert. No. 654, E. L. & R. R. R. R.
Company Surveys, situated in Lynn County, Texas. Both tracts above described making a total acreage of 220 acres of land, a more particular description of said land being given by metes and bounds in the plaintiff's petition on file in the District Clerk's office of Lynn County, Texas.

That notes Nos. 7, 8, and 9 are past due and unpaid and the plaintiff has declared the remainder of said notes due, but the defendants, though often requested, have failed and refused to pay said notes or any part of them, but the same remains still due and unpaid.

That the plaintiff has placed said notes in the hand of an attorney for collection and contracted to pay him the 10 percent attorney's fees stipulated therein, same being reasonable, and the usual and customary fees.

Wherefore Plaintiff prays that defendants be cited to answer this petition, that he have judgment for his debt, interest, attorney's fees and cost of suit against the defendants and each of them and for a foreclosure of his lien on the above described land and premises and that the same be decreed to be sold as provided by law.

Herein fail not, and have you before said Court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and the seal of said Court, at office in Tahoka,

Got Over Weak, Painful Condition By Taking Cardui

"I was weak and run-down and suffered quite a bit with pains in my side," writes Mrs. Nick Baranco, of Beaumont, Texas. "I was nervous. I did not rest well at night, and my appetite was poor. My mother had used Cardui with beneficial result, so I decided to take it. I surely am glad I did, for it stopped the pain in my side and built up my general health. I took seven bottles in all." For over 50 years, Cardui has been helping women just as this Texas lady describes above. Cardui is sold at all drug stores.

Wilson

Since our last report from Wilson we have had several good rains and the cotton and feed crop is assured as far as moisture is concerned. Feed harvesting is the order of the day and one of the finest crops in the history of Wilson is being cared for. Cotton has begun to open in some places and it is thought picking will start not later than Sept. 10.

The Baptist revival now in progress at Wilson is in its second week and much good has been done. Rev. Darby has been preaching some very soul-stirring sermons and up to Tuesday night 20 conversions and reclamations have been brought about. W. E. SUDDARTH HONORED WITH BIRTHDAY PARTY Complimenting her husband, Mrs. Rubie D. Suddarth entertained last Wednesday evening with a stag dinner, which, owing to the fact that it was the first birthday celebration in the history of the honoree, proved as much of a joy as it was a surprise.

A color motif of yellow and green was carried out in the table appointments of green glass surrounding a centerpiece of Shasta daisies. The elaborate menu also repeated the color scheme, from the cantaloupe cocktail to the yellow ice-cream daisies and green mints.

Place cards were set for: E. H. Bouliou, Judge C. H. Cain, Dr. E. E. Callaway, A. L. Lockwood, Ovid Luallin, G. M. Reid, Robert Reid, W. B. Slaton, W. E. (Happy) Smith, H. C. Story, A. B. Swan, and the host. Useful as well as ornamental gifts were appreciated by the recipient next only to the cordial wishes of the departing guests for many happy returns of the occasion.

MISS VIRGINIA SANFORD ENTERTAINS FOR GUEST

Last Wednesday morning Miss Virginia Sanford entertained with a bridge-luncheon for Mrs. Ham Land of Amarillo. Miss Evelyn Wells won high score, and the honoree was presented a lovely guest prize.

Those enjoying the games were: Misses Elsie Woosley, Evelyn Wells, Lilliamae Reid, Mable Lee, Lucile Slaton, Snookie and Charlene Maddox, Helen Applewhite, Ola Belle Singleton, Fern Aycox, Hazel Connolly, Marion Morris of Waco, Gertrude Bishop, Mesdames James Taylor, Tom Short, and the honoree and hostess.

MISS AYCOX HONORED AT HOME OF MRS. FINCH

As a courtesy to Miss Auda Mae Aycox of Lubbock, Miss Mary Ellen Pesterfield entertained Wednesday evening in the home of Mrs. M. C. Finch. Games were enjoyed throughout the evening.

A dainty refreshment plate was served to Misses Della Shook, Auda Mae Aycox, Floy Ben King, Hazel Anglin, Eloise Clark, Mary Ellen Pesterfield and Messrs. Dewey Curry, Earle George, "Skinny" Edwards, Woodrow Walker, Vance Tredway, and Kenneth Reid.

LYNN COUNTY HEARS GOV. ROSS STERLING

way fund, he declared, and it costs practically that amount to maintain the highways already built. The state would have no money with which to build new highways, and since the Federal Government appropriates one-dollar for the building of highways to every dollar appropriated by the state, practically the entire Federal appropriation would be lost to Texas. With this meager sum with which to build highways, it would be impossible to pave No. 9 though Lynn county, as the highway department is now planning to do.

Sterling also vigorously defended his action in declaring martial law in East Texas. The price of oil had gone down to 10 cents a barrel, he said, and the farmers who had leased their lands to the oil companies were getting nothing for their royalties, and the little independent oil men were being rapidly put out of business. At the same time the big companies were rapidly taking this cheap oil out of the state and storing it in other states. Since Texas gets a tax of two per cent on all oil produced, the State itself was losing vast sums of money by reason of the ruinously low prices that was being paid for oil. Many of the people in that section of the state were becoming desperate and threatening violence. Five thousand people in a single mass meeting appealed to the governor to do something about it. He declared martial law, cut down production, and the price promptly and steadily rose to almost a dollar a barrel. Not only were many idle men put back on their jobs, thousands of farmers enabled to get something for their royalties, and the independent oil dealers saved, but millions of dollars was placed in the state treasury which otherwise would have been lost.

Sterling also recited the improvements that had been made in the penitentiary system. He declared that 88 per cent of the food consumed by the inmates is being produced on the penitentiary farms. It is almost paying its way completely. Preceding the Governor's address, Mr. Ogilvie made a striking comparison between the official record of Governor Sterling and the record of the Fergusons. He showed that while Governor Sterling was proposing measures in the interest of the masses as against the corporations and the special interests, such as the big oil companies, the sulphur interests, and the cigarette manufacturers, Jim Ferguson was appearing before the legislature as a lobbyist fighting these proposals.

The party left here for O'Donnell, Lamesa, Sterling City, and San Angelo, where they were to speak in the afternoon and night.

MRS. TAYLOR ENTERTAINS WITH TWO TABLES BRIDGE

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. James Taylor entertained a few friends at two tables of bridge. Punch and bridge cakes were served during the games. High score was won by Mrs. Leroy Knight and Miss Dude McCoy. Those present were: Misses Virginia Sanford, Hazel Connolly, Helen Applewhite, Dude McCoy, Mmes. Leroy Knight, Roy Taylor, and Tom Short.

Lost 20 lbs. Of Fat In Just 4 Weeks

Mrs. Mae West of St. Louis, Mo., writes: "I'm only 28 yrs. old and weighed 170 lbs. until taking one box of your Kruschen Salts just 4 weeks ago. I now weigh 150 lbs. I also have more energy and furthermore I've never had a hungry moment."

Fat folks should take one-half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water in the morning before breakfast—it's the SAFE, harmless way to reduce as tens of thousands of women know.

For your health's sake ask for and get Kruschen at any drug store—the cost for a bottle that lasts 4 weeks is but a trifle and if after the first bottle you are not joyfully satisfied with results—money back. adv.
