

SCOOP SEZ

By J. M. Forbes

As the Chamber of Commerce week began its drive for more members and more financial support, we asked Senn Slemmons to give us something we could get our teeth into, in order to tell in this column what the organization is, what it does, Senn came up with a good one, which we print below. You know we sort of take the Chamber of Commerce for granted, don't we? We know much about it, but hope they are doing a good job. "They" consist of you and me. Now, I never saw a better explanation of what the CoC is than what you, I hope, are about to read:

Why Invest In The Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce? Here's 10 Reasons Why . . .

1. Because I realize that every man owes a debt to his community that cannot be paid in taxes—a debt of personal service.
2. Because the Chamber of Commerce unifies the public spirit of any city and directs it into useful and constructive channels.
3. Because it links the people of the entire community together in a common enterprise, and makes possible great public and business-forward movements.
4. Because my business judgment tells me that whatever is best for this city and my neighbors is too valuable an asset for me to pass up.
5. Because as a member of the Chamber of Commerce, I am afforded an opportunity actually to work for conditions I have long hoped for.
6. Because membership in the Chamber shows my sympathy with an organized effort to better my city and improve the conditions of life within it.
7. Because it is unfair and unjust for me to derive benefits from a community-serving organization and not give it my active support.
8. Because the Chamber of Commerce is business insurance—an institution that is accomplishing great good for my city at a time when concerted action means more than ever before.
9. Because I realize that attention to my own business is not enough. No individual business will prosper greatly unless general conditions are improved. The Chamber of Commerce is part of a nation-wide business movement working to that end. As an individual I want to pool my efforts with others for greatest results.
10. Because this is the proper time for readiness to present a united front. I have never been a quitter in my own affairs, and I am not going to quit now and let others carry the community load.

Keep the Chamber of Commerce in your payroll—it works for you.

We didn't have it in the paper last week, so we mention it now: Charles White, 17, was the sub-contractor on the electrical wiring for the Medallion Home, shown here to big crowds Saturday and Sunday. Pretty remarkable, what, what? But he's used to it: two years ago he wired the new Methodist parsonage. Like father, like son, for his dad, Jim, is service man for the local office of SW Public Service.

And I've been watching the career of another Muleshoe youngster, my good neighbor and friend, 84-year old L. W. Haney. He has just finished the sidewalk he built all by himself; few caterpillar outfits can move as much dirt as he can with a round nose shovel. I watched him do all the excavating, and a lot of dirt had to be moved before excavating began; fit the forms; build some sidesteeps leading down to the street, slant the walk toward the other street. Ready Mix poured the concrete. Now my young friend is looking about for other jobs to do.

New Educational Trends Explained By Superintendent For 1958 Term

With the myriad details of the ending of one term of school occupying much of his attention, Superintendent Jerry Kirk still has time to begin making plans for the 1958-59 fall term.

Even though the students may enjoy a three months vacation starting this week, much of the preliminary work necessary to operating the huge business that is the Muleshoe Independent School system must be done during the summer months by administrative personnel.

Kirk told The Journal this week that his summer plans include working on the educational program for the fall term, seeking out and interviewing teachers to replace those lost in normal personnel turnover, and similar tasks.

In regard to the educational program planned for next fall, Kirk pointed out that department-

City Council Buys New Police Car; Will Operate Two

The Muleshoe City Council met in special session Wednesday afternoon to open bids for the purchase of a new police car. The city-owned car was badly damaged in an accident last Sunday evening on highway 84 at West 7th street.

Members of the Council voted to accept the low bid of Muleshoe Motor Co., for the sale of a 1958 Ford.

The old police car, when repaired, will be put into action as a night patrol car, or used on standby basis as needed.

The Council also heard an explanation by Rhea Bradley, area highway department engineer of Littlefield, concerning details of the widening of US 84 west to the west city limits.

McClure Resigns Coaching Post To Return To School

Coach Charles McClure, who has been assistant football coach here the past few years, has resigned his post to enter Texas University for graduate work, it was announced recently.

Head coach Wayne Mantooh said several applicants have been interviewed for the position, but no decision had been reached at press time.

McClure taught in junior high school and coached junior high school athletics.

He is married and has one child.

Departmentalization means that one teacher will teach all sections of, for example, the fourth grade, similar subjects, such as math. A second teacher will teach all sections of that grade another subject, social studies or science. Each teacher will teach the language arts in her own home room. This new program will enable the teachers best qualified to teach the subject she knows and likes best. It will furnish a better program for the students, and prepare them for a similar plan in the advanced grades. Pupils will remain in their home rooms with the teachers changing on tests during the school year.

Mr. Kirk also said that this next term, as in past years, emphasis is on the educational program. Students who will be high school freshmen this fall, have with their parents, planned a four year curriculum of 20 credits, designed to suit their particular fields of interest and aptitudes.

Basing their recommendations on tests given during the current school year, high school faculty advisors have counseled with the enrolling freshmen students and their parents, in setting up their entire high school course of study. No student may change his schedule without permission of the parent.

At DeShazo, the program began with the professional by Susan Birdsong, followed by a flag ceremony, and the singing of "America, The Beautiful" by the audience.

18 LADIES TOOK PART IN GOLF PLAYDAY

Eighteen ladies of the Women's Golf Association took part in the regular playday at Muleshoe Golf Club, held Wednesday.

A ball was given as a prize to the first three place winners for low net: 1. Eunice Evans, net 63; Inez Bobo, 67; Ruby Hart, 68.

The ladies held a business session afterwards during which they worked on plans for the Hi-Plains Association luncheon June 4 and the local Invitational Tournament to be held June 10 through 13.

by JOHN CROW

It began on a Thursday morning in October. For several days before, there had been heavy selling and severe losses in the stock market. But on the morning of October 24th, the bottom dropped out of the market.

Panicky crowds gathered outside of the dignified Stock Exchange Building in New York, on famed Wall Street, that morning. The big bankers of the nation came to the rescue of the market that day, and the avalanche of selling was temporarily stopped.

Over the weekend there was frantic debate, a mixture of fear and the hope that the nation's financial giants would be able to lead the market to recovery. On Tuesday morning, all hope died. This was the day of the great liquidation, the famous "16-million share day." On this day the October "bear market" came to its disastrous climax. This was the beginning of an era which America will never forget.

Remember the year? A lot of Americans gambled that year—and lost. But strangely enough, when a man bought a car in those days, he figured he couldn't afford to gamble. He shopped for the car that was the best buy—and the dealer who would give him greater savings.

The year was 1929. A lot of Americans this year have discovered that the new 1958 Chevrolet is today's best buy, for beauty, value and performance. And you'll discover your "best buy" on a new 1958 CHEVROLET when you check our deal, at—

U. S. GRAIN—Third Largest Crop Expected

WASHINGTON—The specter of another possible shortage of storage to take care of the nation's grain supplies is leading the government to urge farmers to erect more bins of their own.

The country moves into the new production year with a record supply of food and livestock feed grains. But the prospects of the third largest wheat crop of record and of big crops of corn and other grains raises the possibility that more storage facilities will be needed.

Pamphlets Distributed
Secretary of Agriculture Benson has said he hopes the government itself will not be forced to buy additional bins. It already owns facilities with a storage capacity of about a billion bushels. Benson hopes to get the government out of the storage business, but the continued existence of surpluses has prevented this.

The department is broadcasting through grain areas pamphlets telling producers it will pay them to buy or build storage facilities for their farms.

Loans Available
In these the department points out that it will make loans at 4 per cent interest covering up to 80 per cent of the cost of facilities. These loans are payable over a five-year period.

In addition the department offers farmers payments for storing government grain in their bins. These rates are 16 cents a bushel a year for corn and barley; 16 and 17 cents for wheat, depending on the state; 12 cents for oats; and 28 to 31 cents a hundred-weight for grain sorghums.

Officials say these payments would pay for new bins in two or three years. Hence the claim that it will pay farmers to build new bins.

Methodist Church Conference Begins In Lubbock May 27

Parmer County Farm Bureau News

by Raymond Euler

Well, Raymond Schueler, Jack Patterson and Vernon Symcox went to Slaton last week, where they had an appointment with Mr. Bisbee, superintendent of the Slaton branch of the Santa Fe Railroad. They discussed with him the procedure followed by Mr. Clark, Amarillo superintendent in mapping out and treating bindweed on RR right of ways. Mr. Bisbee was very cooperative, and said he would probably follow the same procedure on his line. Bindweed will not have much chance in Parmer county so long as you have boys willing to give of their time and expenses to carry on the work begun in Farm Bureau four years ago. We urge that you cooperate with them in this program, regardless of your organization affiliation.

There will also be a recommendation concerning a conference-wide seminar on working with other denominations.

Conference activities will get underway Tuesday morning with the memorial service with Rev. Jordan Grooms of First Methodist church, Big Spring, as speaker, and the communion service.

control and the amount you are allowed from ACP for chemicals for their control. Pick up one.

Farm Bureau, which is responsible for farm to market legislation to date, will be in Austin full force at the next session to protect the concessions they have gained over the years in this program. An article in the Houston Chronicle of February 27 this year, makes it clear that there are some forces in cities that intend to change this farm road program, putting a stop to such construction so that the money can be used for what they call "more important freeways."

They condemn Texas Farm Bureau for wanting even more money for rural road improvement, saying it is unfair. The Colson-Briscoe Act is the one that has provided what you have, and it is the one the city boys are seeking to change. Your Farm Bureau membership will help in the battle, but you are perfectly welcome to come in for information on the subject, and suggestions as to how you can help, whether you are a member or not.

BABSON ASKS . . .

YOU A QUESTION

Babson Park, Mass., May 22—Do you know the name and address of the Director of Civil Defense for your State? If not, write your State Governor today. After getting the Director's name, write him to send you his literature on (1) What to do to prepare for an enemy's dropping a bomb near where you live; (2) How to protect against the fallout. Also write your nearest Weather Bureau.

Washington and News Releases

Every department in Washington is showering newspaper editors with "releases" about Russia to make people "war minded". But you will find very little instruction as to what to do in case Russia should decide tonight to strike us. Presumably, the reason is that preparation for war temporarily boosts business and employment; while the only sales the Civil Defense people can help are those of the manufacturers of shovels and a few needed dugout and hospital supplies.

I am a fairly intelligent man, but I did not know until yesterday that when the radar at our station is that preparation for war all radio broadcasting stations except two must shut down. This alert means that Russian planes are coming and can reach you in 15 minutes. The two operating stations are 640 and 1240 kilocycles on your radio dial. Mark these two numbers on the wall near your radio—all newspapers should carry them on their radio page until every man, woman and child know them by heart.

Evacuation vs. Shelters

I don't place much confidence in Evacuation Plans. The theory is that on sharp blasts of whistles horns, etc. lasting 3 minutes, the city should evacuate. Those in automobiles may be able to do it; but I am too dumb to imagine a city of 50,000 or upwards being able to do so. Besides, where would the people go? How could the near suburbs house or feed them? What is the Federal or State Civil Defense organization doing to provide sufficient shelter? If I should be caught without an automobile in any city when the "alert" was sounded, I would not try to get out. I would go to the nearest building or home and ask to go to the basement. Every basement should be a limited "shelter"; but I understand that to have one bomb proof and fallout proof, it should be built into the cellar or yard with concrete blocks and covered with 3 feet of dirt. Shelters against fallout should be kept stocked with drinking water, canned food, old clothing, toilet conveniences, and a battery radio. For particulars write to the Federal Civil Defense at Washington, D. C. for their free booklet on "Home Shelters for Family Protection in an Atomic Attack, TM-5.5." Let me add this sad fact that less than one percent of American homes have sent for this booklet.

Bomb Hits vs. Fallout

The force of an atomic bomb is many thousand times that of the largest TNT bomb ever made. It not only has a terrific powerful explosion, but it creates a heat of 5,000 degrees. It crushes; it burns; and often injures for life. Most sensible people would rather be killed outright by such a bomb than left alive but injured.

The bomb, however, directly affects only a small area of, say, five miles. With the fallout, the situation is very different. This is the dispersal of the mushroom cloud made by the explosion of the bomb. This may travel 20 to 50 miles according to the winds and weather. The Civil Defense has not yet succeeded in waking us up to the need for escaping from this deadly dangerous fallout in the air. Before closing this column, let be publicly render thanks to Mrs. Bell Land, Director Civil Defense, Crystal River, West Fla., who awakened me to the situation.

Money Spent on Backyard Shelters Should Be Tax Deductible

Congress is wise in spending billions for missiles, submarines, and radar systems; but with all this protection, one or two Russian bombers could sneak through. This is no reason for us to get faint hearted and compromise with Communism, but it is reason for us to spend much more money on shelters and on educating families to make their own shelters. The newspapers should encourage this.

Furthermore, money spent on such shelters should be deductible for income-tax purposes. This would cost the government nothing. And a great mass movement to build shelters would increase employment all over the nation, and not only in those cities where missile, automobile, and airplane plants are located. Let us teach our children survival.

Sandhills Philosopher Admits Economic . . .

Situation Is Confused But Claims It Always Has Been

Editor's note: The Sand Hills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm writes about confusion this week, a topic he may be an authority on, if you get what we mean.

Dear editor: According to an article I read last night in the Wall Street Journal—and how a copy of that paper got out here on my Johnson grass farm is no harder to explain than how some men got to be Congressmen, how some teachers ever got into teaching, how some men got married, how some women stay married, how some editors . . . this has gone far enough—at any rate, according to this article, the present economic situation is confused.

I have been thinking this over and I've decided it's right. The present economic situation is confused.

You take the car manufacturers. I understand they have about 800,000 new cars on hand and they're not moving fast enough, so a campaign to buy now was launched. Even Eisenhower urged people to "buy now." And what happens? The United States sees its foreign aid money wind up in the hands of a spendthrift son of the Dominican Republic's dictator, who comes to this country and buys a foreign-made car for an imported actress. This is called getting nowhere fast.

But speaking of the surplus of cars and other products now bothering manufacturers, you mean to say the business tycoons haven't got more judgement than you dumb farmers? You mean to say they pile up surpluses the same as you and me? Everybody knows a farmer hasn't got any more sense than to keep on producing regardless of how big the surplus is, but I always figured big business was different.

This is the reason you can say the economic situation is confused. Everybody has come to expect the farmer to keep plowing and planting, filling up warehouses and depressing the market and writing letters to Congress, but I always figured big business was smarter.

However, this is a democratic country, and what's fair for one ought to be fair for another, and I'm proposing that Congress set up a Car Relief program with a Car Bank, etc. for the automobile industry. You let the industry keep on turning out cars and filling up warehouses and it won't be long till the price drops to nothing and car manufacturers and car dealers will be forced to give up and find a job in the country. This would be bad for the land.

The family-size car manufacturer and the family-size car dealer are necessary to the economy of this country, and if Congress is on its toes it'll work out this Car Bank idea immediately and keep things on an even keel. I would like to say though that I'm not worried just because the economic situation is confused. It's always been that way with me.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

HEAD FOR SHELTER

WASHINGTON NEWS LETTER

By Senator Lyndon Johnson

Dear Friend:

The American people are deeply shocked by the treatment accorded the Vice-president and his wife in Latin America. The shock is understandable. The Vice-president is the symbol and the representative of our Government.

As one who has been intimately acquainted—on terms of mutual respect and friendship—with Latin Americans for many years, I am confident that this feeling of shock is shared by our neighbors to the South. The fact is that those who attacked our Vice-president are the enemies of Latin America just as they are the enemies of the United States.

We are faced by a common peril—an unthinking force directed by coldly calculating men in Moscow and Peking.

An enemy of civilization is loose in the world. That enemy has the intelligence and the skill to capitalize on our mistakes and our weaknesses and will do so at every opportunity.

The demonstrations against our Vice-president are, in part, manifestations of temporary conditions that are being deliberately exploited by the enemies of freedom. We must recognize those temporary conditions, whatever they may be. We must not close our eyes to their implications.

The bad economic conditions in Latin America are a direct reflection of the business slump in this country—a situation that has cut down purchasing power. As Allen Dulles has said, this recession is a luxury that our Government cannot afford. To an uncomfortable extent, we are paying the penalty for procrastination at home as well as abroad.

We are living in an age of "brush fires" which can spring up at many unexpected points in the world. We must be prepared to fight those fires effectively—and we must recognize that such fires are not put out solely by guns and troops.

These are times in which all Americans must stand together. These are times, also, in which civilized men throughout the world must stand together—against bookburning, against ugly mobs, against tyranny.

Unity of freedom-loving men and women is vitally necessary. But there is more involved here than a demonstration of unity. Along with unity, there is a need for a prudent, thoughtful, deep-reaching reappraisal of the position of the United States in the world.

It is an urgent need, one that all Americans, working together, must meet without delay. I am confident we can meet it. I am confident we will meet it.

Speed Still Main Cause of Highway Deaths in Texas

Even though the average speed of Texas driving showed some improvement last year, driving too fast for conditions continued to hold its number one position in the list of causative factors for rural fatal accidents.

According to the Texas Department of Public Safety, one or more traffic law violations are apparent in most every rural fatal accident. For all types of rural accidents—those classified as fatal, injury and non-injury—the Texas DPS said seven out of every eight involved at least one violation of our traffic laws.

Records for 1957 disclose that 2,539 persons died in traffic accidents in our state in 2,077 fatal accidents, and our economic loss was estimated at more than 277 million dollars. Even so, our death rate dropped from 6.5 to six deaths per 100 million miles of driving. There were 67,886 injury accidents last year and 191,120 non-injury accidents, making a grand total of 261,983 accidents of all types.

With an eye on the accident and fatality record for 1958, Col. Homer Garrison, Jr., DPS director, asked for greater public cooperation in traffic law observance. He said, "Records for the first third of this year indicate that with continued public cooperation some 250 fewer persons will be killed this year than in 1957. Garrison said each individual driver 'is a deciding factor in determining whether or not this will become a reality.'"

"Each driver must use his own knowledge, judgement and decision in avoiding accident situations. We have laws that are designed to aid the driver in protecting himself and others on our streets and highways. Those laws will do only one-half the job if only one-half of the drivers use them.

"Security in driving is the business of every driver. We hope that Texas motorists will continue to improve their knowledge of traffic laws and will become more disciplined in using them. This must be done if we are to make our streets and highways safer for ourselves and our families.

LAZBUDDIE NEWS LETTER . . . Graduation Tonight For Eighth Grade

by Mrs. Clyde Monk
The 8th grade graduation exercises were held last Thursday evening in the high school auditorium, with the stage decorated beautifully in the class colors, orchid and white.

The valedictorian was John Agee with the salutatory honors going to Debbie Hawkins. Class history was read by Jimmy Broadhurst and class will by Ann Mitchell. The entire class sang "Zeal Our Watchword", while the parting charge to the seventh grade was given by Richard Chitwood, with Bill Curry as speaker for the occasion.

After the diplomas were presented by E. T. Ford, a school board member, and Mr. Fred Wilbanks, elementary principal, the response was given by Paul Wilbanks. Others seated on the stage with the class were A. L. Mitchell, R. A. Hartsell, and Supt. J. G. Ward, with Rosemary Aget at the piano. Other class members not already mentioned were James Brown, Gary Foster, Donnie Smith, David Koelzer, Eva Dean Ivy, Wanda Bean, Joe Tartar, Don Watson, Robert White, Larry Strahan, Janice Darling, David Smith, Luella Kay Burreson, Jimmie Dale Seaton, Cooper Young, and Sammy Blackwell. Escorts were Patricia Peterson and Eugene Houston with Sharon Parham, Gayle Robinson and Harrol Redwine as ushers.

Following the graduation exercises, mothers of the class prepared and served a supper buffet style in the school cafeteria to the class, their families and the entire faculty. The dining room was lovely in the class colors and approximately 126 enjoyed this social.

Mrs. John Bond and boys, Sidney and Walter and Mrs. Jack Smith and Jack Finley visited last Wednesday and Thursday in Shamrock and Wellington. Mrs. Bond left the boys in Shamrock with her mother, Mrs. Lizzie Scruggs while she and Mr. Bond went on the senior trip with the class. Mrs. Smith and Jack Finley visited in Wellington with Mrs. Archie Shipley.

Senior Trip To Corpus Christi

The senior class left early Saturday morning for a weeks trip to Corpus Christi. The class sponsor, Mr. Bond and his wife accompanied them. They planned several sight seeing spots on the way down and back, San Antonio being one of them. Seniors not being able to make the trip were Carroll Littlefield and Mary Hartsell.

KARL LOVELADY SPEAKS TO THE FARMERS

I believe in a broader "Farm-to-Market" road program, by trying to get an additional $50,000,000 per year to the amount now spent, for more farm roads.

I believe in a much broader rural electrification and rural telephone program so that every farmer will benefit.

I would like to see a state supported experimental farm, to be located in the heart of the vegetable growing district, for experimentation in the growing of vegetables.

I would support a program to conserve our surface water supply by the state expending money for the construction of dams on all rivers and draws where needed. (In doing this we would also have places for recreation right here in West Texas.)

I would amend the present employment law so that the TEXAS EMPLOYMENT COMMISSION would bring into any given area suitable labor to be used on the farm where said labor is not locally available at the time when this labor is most needed by the farmer.

I would vote for and support a stronger seed regulation law in order to put this state on a par with other states in seed regulation. I will always oppose any legislation to unionize farm labor.

I am against corporation farming, and thus do not believe in destroying the small individual farmer, who has meant so much to the economy and development of our communities.

In my entire life both as a private citizen and a public official I have worked one hundred per cent with the farmer, and when elected your State Senator I will continue to be one hundred per cent behind the wishes of the farm people.

Sincerely yours,
Karl L. Lovelady
Candidate for State Senator

PLYMOUTH SAVES YOU MONEY ON GAS...
MOBILGAS ECONOMY RUN VICTORY PROVES IT!
New "Fuel-Saver" Choke that helped clinch title is standard equipment on all Plymouth V-8s Pound for pound, Plymouth uses less gasoline than either of the "other two" cars in the low-price "3". This was proved beyond doubt when a 1958 Plymouth V-8 was officially declared winner of the low-price car competition in the 1958 Mobilgas Economy Run. Plymouth's competitors also entered cars with 6-cylinder engines (supposedly more economical) but Plymouth beat every car in its class—V-8s and 6s alike!
This title-winning Plymouth is exactly the same Belvedere V-8 with TorqueFlite Automatic Transmission that you can buy right off your Plymouth dealer's floor.
These tests prove that every Plymouth has built-in economy features not found in the "other two". For instance—one of the most important factors in Plymouth's smashing win is the new "Fuel-Saver" Choke that you get at no extra cost on all Plymouth V-8s. This ingenious device employs a triple-stage vacuum piston and a new thermostatic element to reduce the amount of fuel you use in warming up the engine. So it can save you even more on short-distance drives—the kind most people make.
Among the many other savings Plymouth gives you is the $140 you save on standard-equipment Torsion-Aire Ride. The "other two" charge up to that much extra for their best suspension systems.
So if you are dollar-conscious, better hustle over and talk terms and trade with your Plymouth dealer. He wants your business, and he'll go all out to get it!

School's Out!

Classes were dismissed for the summer last Friday afternoon with the children returning on Monday for report cards. Many of the grade school students celebrated their summer freedom by parties and other activities. The 4th, 5th and 6th grades were treated to a skating party at the Clovis rink, Monday afternoon, with a weiner roast following in the park. Approximately 50 students and their mothers enjoyed this. This was a tired but happy group of youngsters and at the end of the day declared that school was officially ended until the fall season.

On Monday evening the 8th grade again had a get together at the J. B. Young home. They, along with their families, teachers and friends, feasted on hot dogs and all the trimmings. The men folks were able to enjoy some "42" while the young people were supervised in games by the mothers.

Dairy Products Lead Food List

Milk and dairy products are featured items for the U. S. Department of Agriculture's June Pivotal Foods List.

The Department has designated this feature to support the dairy industry campaign, "June is Dairy Month", the time when milk supplies are at their height for the year.

Milk production in 1938 is expected to run around a billion pounds over the record production of last year. This would make 1938 the sixth successive year in which milk production has set a new record.

plentiful enough to rate a spot on the June list are spring vegetables and vegetable fats and oils.

As a result of replanting in the three major vegetable producing areas—Florida, Texas and California—it is likely that there will be more than the usual overlapping of harvesting in June.

The plentiful supply of vegetable fats and oils in June is largely the result of last year's bumper crop of soybeans. The highest acreage on record was accompanied by record yields, resulting in a crop of 480 million bushels. The 1938 crop is expected to be 10 percent larger than last year's record high.

OPTOMETRY: The Art and Science of Visual Care

Oh, but I DO have my glasses on!

Today, this is becoming a fairly common statement. Many people are being fitted with CONTACT lenses, with perfect success, eliminating heavy spectacles. In many instances, much better vision is achieved with contacts.

Progress in this field of vision care has been tremendous even in the last two years. Use of contacts now may be possible for you even if unsuccessful before.

Not all optometrists fit contact lenses. Those who do not will refer the work to those with special training.

For information, write Texas Optometric Association, Contact Lens Section, Bolm Bldg., Austin, Texas.

Exercise Care In Handling Insecticides

Don't fail to follow manufacturer's directions when handling and using highly toxic insecticides, warn Extension Entomologists F. M. Fuller and C. F. Garner. They point out that weather conditions continue to favor heavy insect infestations and this means farmers will be handling materials which kill bugs as well as humans.

Insecticide injury to man is most common through oral and respiratory intake or by skin absorption. Continued exposure even to lower insecticide concentrations, with no regard to safety measures, can result in accumulation of chemicals in the body and may cause eventual tissue or organic injury, say the specialists.

Many phosphorous compounds, such as parathion, methyl parathion, EPN, TEPP, demeton, Dazinon, Phosdin, Thimet and Guthion, are extremely poisonous and must be handled with care. Many phosphorous insecticides are more poisonous to warm-blooded animals than most other chemicals used for insect control say the specialists.

Community in that this is a cotton producing community and exporting and importing are important to the citizens. Prospects for a cotton crop are good this year, with plenty of moisture. The immediate problem is seeding the crop because of wet fields.

New Standards For Spud Grading To Be In Effect Here

Potato growers and handlers of this area will begin operating under a new schedule of grading standards on July 15, according to an announcement by the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

The revised standards, the first major changes in potato grades in 25 years, were developed by the USDA with close cooperation of trade representatives. Suggestions for further improvements have been invited.

Under the new standards, there will be no U. S. Extra No. 1 grade. Instead, there will be a newly defined U. S. Fancy grade, similar to the former U. S. Extra No. 1, except that it calls for higher requirements for maturity, shape and cleanliness.

In addition, the new standards involve modifying the definitions of "damage" and "serious damage", to improve the accepted standards of U. S. No. 1, U. S. Commercial and U. S. No. 2 grades.

Scoring of defects in all grades now is based solely upon the individual potato, not on the gen-
