R. E. Cunningham Dies In California

R. E. Cunningham, 73, who has made his home in Tahoka several years, died at 9:00 a. m. Monday at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Patsy (Pauline) Jolley, in Tarzana, Calif. His other daughter, Mrs. Bobby (Phama) Vaughan, lives at Venice, Calif.

Mr. Cunningham, who formerly was nightwatchman at the Union Compress, had been ill for several years, and last May went to California to visit his daughters. While there, he became seriously ill. Mrs. Cunningham had left here Monday of last week to be with him, and was at his bedside when death came.

In addition to his wife and two daughters, Mr. Cunningham is survived by a brother, Joe Cunningham, and a sister, Mrs. Mollie Mathis, both of O'Donnell, and several other brothers and sisters living elsewhere.

No details were received here on funeral plans, but it was reasonably certain he would be buried in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Beard had as their guests Monday their former pastor and wife, Rev. and Mrs. Harry Hames of Brownwood.

J. L. Miller underwent an appendectomy Thursday night of last week at Tahoka Hospital.

Presidential Election Is Tuesday

GOV. ADLAI E. STEVENSON

GEN. DWIGHT EISENHOWER

Propose Swimming Pool City Hall Bond Election

Backing was given the City of Tahoka's proposed bond issued for a swimming pool, park improvements, and a new city hall at a meeting of representatives from seven local civic clubs and members of the City Council Monday night in the county court room.

Mayor Jim Applewhite explained to the group a method by which a swimming pool can be built. The City Council has been studying the proposal for several weeks, and has had the assistance of bonding men and engineers. Some local civic groups and a number of individuals have informally petitioned the Council to call a bond issue for such civic improvements.

Paddock Engineering Co. of Dallas, specialists in the building of swimming pools, has presented plans for a pool which will cost approximately $35,000.00, complete with facilities for chlorinating, or purifying, the water. This price does not include dressing rooms, walks, etc., which the city would have to build itself.

It has been found that a city with Tahoka's valuation can legally vote bonds not exceeding $25,000.00 for park improvements.

Bonding men and attorneys have advised the Council also that it can not use any part of the revenue bonds it voted two or three years ago for water and sewer improvements for building a swimming pool. But they do say it will be possible to use other funds, or to use a part of funds, voted for a new city hall on the swimming pool.

The Council has been discussing (Cont'd. on Back Page)

County Asks 12 Miles New Road

Twelve miles of new farm-to-market road, all in Woodrow McLaurin's commissioner's precinct No. 3, have been recommended for paving in 1953 under the state program by C. S. McCarty, district highway engineer. Four miles of present paving in the precinct will be taken over by the state for maintenance purposes.

If approved by the State Highway Commission, the new paving will begin at a point 4 1/2 miles west of O'Donnell at the corner made by existing paving. The paving will extend one mile south, thence west seven miles, thence north four miles to Newmoore. Present paving to be taken over by the state is the four and a half miles of existing paving extending from O'Donnell west.

Congratulations:

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Brookshire on the birth of a daughter weighing 8 pounds 4 ounces in West Texas Hospital Saturday at 1:26 p. m. Named Dana Gwyn, she is the first grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. Borden Davis. Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Brookshire are the paternal grandparents.

Tahoka Planning For Homecoming

Tahoka schools will observe Homecoming Week and "Howdy" Week November 10 through 14, during which all ex-students will find a special welcome at the school. The week will be climaxed with the Tahoka-Spur football game Friday night, November 14.

Monday has been declared "no branding day" by the Student Council, which is sponsoring the week.

Tuesday, Patriotic day, James Minor of Post, a graduate of the Tahoka schools, will speak at the assembly program.

Wednesday is "big boss day." Thursday, "round-up day," students will dress in Western garb.

Friday is the big Homecoming Day and football game.

Invitations are being mailed out-of-county ex-students whose addresses the school has available. Local ex-students and any others reading this are welcome without a written invitation.

Boy Scouts Sponsor 'Get Out Vote' Drive

Tahoka Boy Scouts will conduct a "get out the vote" campaign in the city Saturday, according to Scoutmaster H. M. McCord, Jr.

The Scouts will meet at the Scout Hall Saturday morning at 9:30 o'clock. Liberty bells, calling attention to Tuesday's general election, will be hung on door knobs over town.

Absentee Ballots Issued 100 Voters

Today, Friday, is the last day a voter may cast an absentee ballot in the General Election of next Tuesday.

Mrs. Beulah Pridmore, county clerk, issued the 100th absentee ballot early Thursday morning, and this is believed to be a record here in absentee voting in a general election.

Anyone who is ill, crippled, or who can not cast his vote in person on Tuesday, may secure an absentee ballot and vote it TODAY with the County Clerk.

Weather Favors Cotton Harvest

Tahoka gins had turned out 7,240 bales up to 9 a. m. Thursday, an increase of 2,250 over the same time last week.

This would indicate that Lynn county has ginned nearly 50,000 bales to this time.

The weather has been favorable for some time now for cotton harvest. Some farmers are nearly through, while others are hardly started due to inability to get hands.

Lynn county still has not had a hard killing freeze, though the frost two weeks ago nipped tender cotton in low places and much of the irrigated cotton in the north part of the county.

More and more farmers are turning to mechanical boll pullers this week.

Jaycees Install New Officials

Tahoka Jaycees elected new officers at a meeting held Tuesday night.

A. V. Barnes is the new president, succeeding J. E. (Red) Brown. Other officers are: H. L. McMillan, Jr., vice president; Billy Bob Chancey, secretary; and James Huey, treasurer.

The Jaycees hope to enter into a more active program in the future than has been carried out the past few months.

For a fun program Tuesday night, Gravel Ayer was tried in "Kangaroo Court" on a bribery charge. Each member had been pledged to bring another man with him to the meeting, and Ayer was alleged to have enticed away another man's guest, Russell McGee served as judge, "Red" Brown as prosecuting attorney, and Ayer defended himself, unsuccessfully.

At the next meeting on November 7, 7:30 p. m., at the WOW hall, Stanley Sigman, "the other man" in the case, will be tried for accepting a bribe.

All old Jaycees are invited to renew their membership in this civic organization.

State Brotherhood Leader Will Speak At Local Baptist Church This Sunday

Dr. L. H. Tappscott, Executive Secretary of the Baptist Brotherhood of Texas, will speak at the morning worship services of the First Baptist Church here Sunday. He is recognized as one of the outstanding leaders of the Southern Baptist Convention in the work of men in the church. For a number of years he has led the work of the Brotherhood in Texas.

The executive committee of the Brotherhood of the local Baptist Church will have a meeting with Mr. Tappscott at 2:30 Sunday afternoon.

Exercise your right as a good citizen and vote Tuesday!

Next Tuesday is the day when American citizens go to the polls to elect a President and Vice President.

Though officials from Justice of the Peace to President are to be elected, practically the only interest—in Texas, at least—is in the national officials, since Democratic nominations of other offices in this state is tantamount to election.

After spirited campaigns, a decision is up to the voters next Tuesday.

The Democrats have nominated Governor Adlai E. Stevenson of Illinois for President and Senator John J. Sparkman of Alabama for Vice President.

The Republicans have nominated General Dwight D. Eisenhower of Kansas, but a native of Texas, for President, and Senator Richard M. Nixon of California for Vice President.

The issues have been discussed fully in the press and on the radio, but much of the discussions from both camps has been political "hocus." The voters are urged to disregard the fantastic charges, the near-truths, and to think for themselves—and vote accordingly.

This year's general election ballot is the largest in history, 19 by 24 inches in size. There are columns for the Democratic Party, Republican Party, Prohibition Party, Progressive Party, Christian Nationalist Party, and Constitution Party, and also blank columns headed Independent and Write-In.

However, a vote cast in any column other than the Democratic and Republican columns is obviously a wasted vote and will mean nothing in the selection of our officials.

Voters may vote a "split ticket" if they desire. Regardless of the pressure both in the Republican States and the Democratic South, the voter still has the right in the United States to cross party lines on any given office.

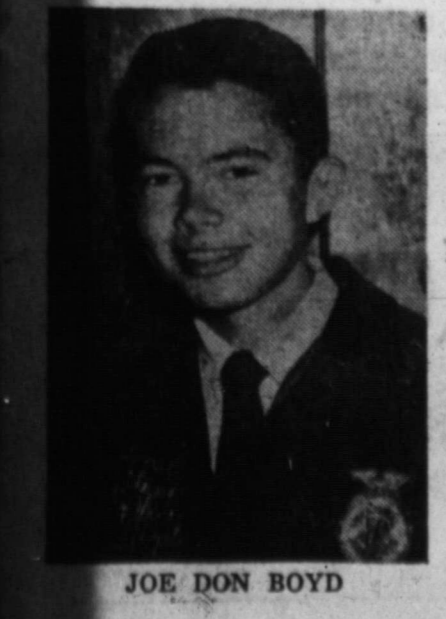

The voter may cast his vote for any candidate for any given office by placing a check mark in a little box at the left of the name of the candidate for which he wishes to vote. Or, as a second alternative, he may scratch out all candidates, or columns of candidates for whom he does not wish to vote, leaving the names of the candidates for whom he does wish to vote.

Almost overlooked in the heat of the Presidential campaign is the fact that Texas voters must pass on two amendments to the Texas Constitution.

One of them would "authorize" the Legislature to provide Workmen's Compensation Insurance for employees of cities, towns, and villages.

The other would provide "for the establishment of a State Medical Education Fund from which grants, loans or scholarships may be made to students desiring to study medicine."

Above all, exercise your right as a good citizen of the United States by going to the polls Tuesday!

Lyntegar Pays Government Loan Twenty-One Years Before Due

By Sarah McClendon,
Lubbock Avalanche Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27—John Heck of Wilson, who, as president of the Lyntegar Electric Co-operative at Tahoka, handed the Rural Electrification Administration today a check for $170,896.37 in final payment of the cooperative's first government loan 21 years ahead of schedule, says rural electrification has done more to increase the standard of that section than any one other thing.

"We used to see our boys go to college and that would be the last of them," he said. "They were not satisfied to come back to the farm. Now these boys are coming back and the boys who went to college are the best farmers we have. They are showing their daddies really how good farming methods are carried out. The point of this is that rural electrification has given them some incentive to come back."

"This has made farm value advance from 250 to 300 per cent in our section where we are now. I am proud to say, completely covered with electricity. The only customers we add now is when a boy and girl get married and want to set up housekeeping in a new home."

"People come around to buy farm land and the first thing they look up to see is if the wires come in. Of course they want paved roads, too, but they insist on electricity."

Heck says by far most of the electricity his cooperative sells goes for conveniences in the farm home and that these in turn increase farm productivity as well as keep the folks on the farm.

Favors Co-op System

He is highly in favor of the cooperative system of bringing farms electricity and said any section not having this ought to be encouraged to take advantage of the REA plan.

He pointed out that this was no government give-away program. "Remember, we paid interest on our loan."

Heck who has given 15 years to the cooperative at Tahoka says that it was not once easy to get people to favor cooperatives. "When we first started, we got run off people's places a time or two. Now they want to take a baseball bat to us to get us to bring them electricity."

Pennington Is Praised

He said he had one word for the reason why Tahoka cooperative was able to pay off its first loan finally so far ahead of schedule—good management. He and the cooperative's vice president, Frank Harris of Lamesa, who accompanied him, gave credit to Garland Pennington. Heck said Pennington deserved credit for the god record "more than any one man."

Department of Agriculture records show that one other cooperative in Texas, Magic Valley Electric Cooperative, Inc., at Mercedes, paid back $200,000 in 1948 which it had borrowed in 1927 and which was not due until 1972. This and the Lyntegar Cooperative appear to be leaders in Texas where there are number of cooperatives with most of them doing good business.

REA Issues Statement

Riggs Shepperd, Merkel, formerly with the cooperative there, is now assistant administrator of REA in Washington and took part in acceptance ceremonies today along with the administrator, Claude Wickard.

REA issued this statement regarding Lyntegar:

In return, for payment, Heck received a cancelled note for $304,000, the amount of its first loan. Today's payment included $170,385.06 in principal, and the remainder in interest.

Serves Wide Area

The co-op serves 6,817 rural consumers over 3,280 miles of line in 10 counties: Lynn, Garza, Terry, Hockley, Borden, Martin, Yoakum, Gaines, Dawson, and Lubbock. It went into operation July 21, 1939.

Farm uses of electricity in the co-op area include irrigation pumping, power for grain elevators and other farm machinery, seed drying and cleaning, as well as many uses in farm homes. The increase in use of electricity on farms served by the co-op is shown by a jump from 69 kilowatt hours average consumption in August, 1946 to 163 kilowatt hours in August of this year.

Loans approved to the co-op to date total $4,779,000, of which $2,919,283 has been actually advanced. Payments to the government of principal and interest now total $939,474. Over $200,000 has been paid back in advance of the date due.

The first loan was made Oct. 20, 1938, and since REA loans are for a 25-year period, the payment was completed about 31 years ahead of time.

Also present at the ceremony was Frank Harris of Lamesa, vice president of the cooperative.

S.S. Death Benefits Based On Earnings

Mr. Gerald Schantz, field representative of the Lubbock Social Security office will be at the Post Office in Tahoka at 9:00 a. m. on Wednesday, November 5, to discuss all matters relating to Social Security.

The amount of Social Security retirement or death benefits are based on the record of a person's earnings in work covered by the social security law as shown by his social security account. It is, therefore, extremely important to make sure that your account is correct. By so doing, you will be making sure that you and your family receive all that is properly due when retirement or death occurs.

The social security people have found that errors in your account may occur when an employer does not have your social security number or does not have your name exactly as it appears on your card.

Making sure that your account is correct is a simple as a, b, c: (a) Take care of your social security card. "Use it—don't lose it!" Show your card to every employer for whom you work so that he can report your wages completely and correctly.

(b) If you lose your card, ask the social security office for a duplicate—not another number. If you change your name by marriage or for professional reasons, ask the social security office to change its records. You

"They never had it so good!"

THE order is, "Forward march"—and off they go, feet sucking against the Korean mud, every bone crying, "I'm tired!"

The order is flop and eat—and they flop and try to eat, no matter how little they like the food.

The order is, "Take hill number 63!"—and they fight forward, not ready for death, but expecting it with every splatter of bullets.

Then, in the quiet moments, one soldier will turn to another and half grin and say, "You never had it so good."

A joke—a classic Army joke—but these days it has a real bitter note to it. Because at the same time everyone is wondering and saying:

"Did it have to come to this?"

"Couldn't the shooting have been stopped before it began?"

"What's the matter with our foreign policy?"

"Why didn't the Administration see this coming?"

"Must we keep paying for their mistakes?"

"WHAT? We've never had it so good? COME INTO MY FOXHOLE AND SAY THAT!"

All right—the damage is done—and we all know what has been badly begun must be well ended.

BUT—shall we forget or forgive those who blundered? Will YOU? Do you DARE? Will you trust America's future foreign-policy to those responsible for Korea? Is this official fumbling what you want for America? You know it isn't!

Not if you value the lives of your sons. Not if you value your own life and welfare and that of your family. Not if you value the peace and prosperity of America.

No—you will want to clean house. You will want to sweep out of power and into the ash can the Administration that brought your country to this. You will run, not walk, to the polls. You will vote eagerly, glad that you can make a change. You will

Writer Reviews U.S. Foreign Policy, Depreciates Threat From Russia

By ARTHUR I. BOREMAN, Editor,
Merchant's Trade Journal, September, 1952

Here are known facts that clearly indicate that Russia dares not, and will not, risk World War II, no matter what political, economic, or military action we take, other than direct attack upon Russia.

1. OIL AND STEEL: Since Russia controls less than 27 per cent of the world's oil and steel it is obvious she could not hope to win a prolonged, highly mechanized war. The Kremlin knows this. Even with Europe's oil and steel, her supply would be far less than ours, and hers are vulnerable to bombing attacks. Much destroyed production not yet fully restored.

2. NAVY: Russia, except for some submarines, has practically no navy. No nation can win a highly mechanized, prolonged war without a strong navy.

3. AIR POWER: Russia's air power is largely in short range, tactical fighter planes, not long range bombers. Her air force is far more for defensive than offensive use. Her capacity to produce does not compare with ours.

4. RUSSIA'S ARMY: Less than 5 per cent of Russia's troops are members of the Communist Party. The Kremlin dares not trust her army too far outside Russia. All ammunition is removed from guns before military parades. Even the police must leave all weapons when going off duty. Russian soldiers fight well on home soil but poorly away from home. Look how long it took Russia to lick little Finland!

5. AUTOS AND TRUCKS: The U. S. has 42 million cars and trucks. Russia has 180,000. That disparity alone is enough to deter Russia from risking a prolonged, highly mechanized war, and the Kremlin is well aware of her disadvantage. Here we have the finest highways in the world. Russia, with only 180,000 cars and trucks, is still in the dirt road stage.

6. TRANSPORTATION AND COMMUNICATION: Russia has little. (Citizens are not allowed to travel more than 18 to 25 miles without a permit.) This weakness would be a terrific handicap in a prolonged, mechanized war. The Kremlin knows this even better than we do.

7. There are 180 dialects in the Soviet Union. Unity? There is none through mutual contacts and understanding. Only through force. It takes unity to win modern wars. Russia has no such thing.

8. INVENTIONS: Recent wars have been decided by newly invented weapons. I challenge anyone to name one single major invention to ever come out of Russia! We have an enormous advantage here.

9. ATOMIC WEAPONS. Our superiority in atomic weapons and ability to produce makes it fatal for Russia to risk a modern war, and well she knows it.

Those nine facts deal with Russia's physical disadvantages, so great as to make our fears, of attack, ridiculous and indefensible.

Now, let's examine other known facts that also clearly indicate Russia knows she dare not risk World War III. Her only hope for world domination is through sabotage, fomenting revolution; through economic and moral breakdown in the countries slated to become victims, and the U.S.A. is high on the list. It is men like Alger Hiss and his associates who have placed us in greatest danger. That danger is internal, not from without.

10. EUROPE. Business men returning from Europe report that the closer you get to Russia, the less war talk heard, and the less fear that Russia dares risk World War III. Europeans cannot understand our war hysteria here. They think it is fantastic. They think we are nuts! If so many business travelers know this, surely Gen. Eisenhower must be even more aware of it.

11. MARSHALL PLAN—COLLECTIVE SECURITY: The very name "Marshall Plan" means it was the U. S. and NOT Europe that proposed and promoted the idea. Had Europe been in such deadly fear of Russia, as we are, they, rather than us, would have taken the initiative. It would have been called the "European Plan," "British Plan," "French Plan," or some name indicating European urgency and sponsorship. Who proposed, promoted and ballyhooed the North Atlantic Pact?

The very fact that we have had to virtually bribe Europe, with billions of our tax money to persuade them to even make a feeble start toward arming for defense, clearly shows they know the Kremlin dares not take any direct action that involves risk of World War III.

12. TITO: Tito thumbed his nose at Stalin, causing the Kremlin great loss of face, all over the world. Russia could, but did not, take any military action against Tito. Tito was weak and vulnerable. We are strong. Why haven't OUR leaders the guts to tell them where to head in?

13. BERLIN AIR LIFT: They dared not take military action against our air-lift operations.

GREECE: We gave Greece military aid, directly helping her drive out guerrillas. Russia took no military action against Greece or us. THEY WOULD NOT DO SO IN CHINA.

15. Russia has taken no military action against anybody, at any time or place, that would indicate she dares to or will risk World War III—no matter what political, economic or military action we take any place against anyone except direct military attack upon Russia herself.

16. KOREA: Administration spokesmen (and even Eleanor) gave only two major reasons for NOT bombing military objectives in Manchuria, blockading the Chinese Coast, or letting Chinese Nationalists create a diversion, or helping in any way! They said to us:

A. It would enlarge the war and risk bringing Russia in actively and directly. Stalin, himself, completely exploded the myth and exposed the fallacy of that contention. All of our top military brass and you, yourself, know that near the end of the war Stalin flatly refused to join us against Japan. He repeatedly gave as his reason that he would never be dumb enough (as he expressed it) to risk involvement on two fronts! Now then, we know that our leaders—all of them except MacArthur—insist that EUROPE is Stalin's major offensive objective! He refused to risk involvement on two fronts when his allies—U.S. and Britain—had the most powerful ground, sea and air forces in history. Does anybody in his right mind really believe that Stalin would join a far weaker ally and risk such involvement (and our atomic bomb) by action in Korea that would risk World War III? Of course not, and no matter what we do there to end that war with victory. This is doubly emphasized by our being told that Europe is our "No. 1 Front," while Korea isn't a "war front" but only a "police action"!!

B. We are told by all administration spokesmen that bombing Manchurian bases, blockading the China Coast, using Chinese Nationalists, etc., would risk "our allies pulling out and leaving us to go it alone." (These are Acheson's exact words.)

Does anyone in his right mind believe for one second that our allies would risk losing our great financial and military aid by "pulling out and leaving us to go it alone?" You know better, and so do I. How childishly stupid can our political and military leaders be? England, wishing to appease the Reds, to trade with them, would bellyache just as they did about bombing the hydro-electric plants, but pull out? Not a chance! If our bombers made a surprise attack and destroyed that swarm of Red fighter planes parked just across the Yalu, the English might yell their heads off, but THEY WOULD NOT DARE PULL OUT ON US!

Furthermore, our whole appeasement of our allies, and especially Britain, assumes that WE need them as allies MORE than they need US! You know, and I know, and so does our top brass know, that simply isn't true.

Anyway, 9,000 allied casualties vs. 120,000 American casualties means we are practically going it alone in Korea, anyway—for all practical purposes.

No, it is plain we could bomb "the tar" out of Manchuria, blockade their coast, make Britain quit selling the Reds material used to kill our men, use the Chinese Nationalists, etc., and still they wouldn't dare pull out! Am I right?

RED CHINA AND RUSSIA: Russia is perfectly willing to let Red China kill off her best soldiers in Korea and break down economically. That is Russia's real game with them, with France, with us. NOT risking war itself! Russia dares not make Red China too strong by going very far with either military or economic aid. Enter the Korean war? Nonsense!

18. EUROPE AGAIN! Let's go back to Europe again. Stalin could have over-run Europe. Might do it now with a blitz. Why doesn't he? Our atomic bombs and his knowledge that Russia cannot win a prolonged, mechanized war!

We have ballyhooed to the world our plan to rearm and solidify Europe. If Stalin intended or dared risk taking military action that might start World War III, would the Kremlin WAIT until Europe got strong enough to make such plans impossible? Of course not. That holds no matter what we do in Korea or in the United Nations. They are bluffing. It's time their bluff is called Right!

19. ALLIES? FOR WHAT? Everyone keeps talking about our desperate need of allies. Allies for what? The Korean war? Well, look at the measly help we got, in spite of billions handed to them.

Allies to help us defend the United States? That must be one assumption. Dare Stalin directly attack us? Of course not. There wouldn't be any Russia left if he did.

Allies to help US defend Europe? You would think so by all the yapping about our having to bribe them to stay allies for that purpose! If Europe really feared Russia they would be arming like mad begging US to HELP—we wouldn't have to bribe them—with billions—to rearm! Right?

Isn't it about time to quit appeasing faint-hearted allies and to insist that they do a little appeasing of and cooperating with US? I think so, and I believe you do, too.

And here is another known fact that just about clinches it. I challenge any of our top brass to name a single instance when Russia has, herself, started a war of aggression. Grab a bite here and another there, sure, but once their bluff has been called they have ALWAYS backed down. That is traditional and a historical fact. They will do it again if their bluff is called.

Well, there are just some of the facts showing Russia cannot win World War III and DARES NOT TAKE THE RISK!

These known facts indicate that Russia is running the most colossal bluff in all history. Once intelligent, strong leadership calls that bluff, Russia will back down (as she always has). India and Egypt will climb on our band wagon in a hurry. So will Iran.

I say it is time to get ourselves strong, intelligent and ALL-AMERICAN leaders who will call that bluff, and soon! Russia would back down, pull the Reds out of Korea, and really disarm. If, that is, we told them to do it OR ELSE!

Stevenson and the Democrats won't (tell Russia off). I hope, and believe, Eisenhower might do it. I say we could have a start toward world peace in less than a year, with strong and intelligent leadership. Let us pray we get it.

I WANT MY KIDS TO GROW UP CLEAN—but will they—if they keep on seeing shady operators prosper and nobody doing anything about it?

I don't think there's anything funny about mink coats or deep freezes or "fixers" or tax collectors accepting favors from gangsters.

How can I explain such things to wide-eyed kids who think our country is the finest in all the world? Kids whom I've taught to honor truth and decency?

How can I expect them to believe me when the newspapers and radio and TV tell of investigations balked at every turn—of slippery, public officials who actually get better jobs—instead of going to jail?

I don't know the ins and outs of politics. Being a good wife and mother takes all my time. But I do know right from wrong.

I know corruption in office is wrong. And it spreads—like rotteness in a basket of apples.

And as it spreads, it can corrupt my children—and yours.

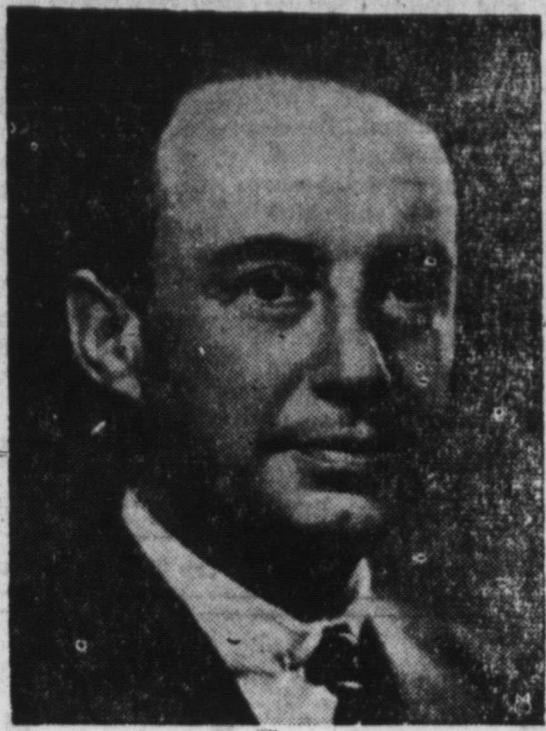

In fact, from what I hear about the bribing of school basketball players—and selling narcotics on school playgrounds—and wholesale cribbings—and teen-age muggers—and all the other horrible forms of juvenile delinquency—the corruption is spreading already!

So I'm going to do something about it before it's too late. I'm going to the polls on election day and prove to my kids that crime doesn't pay—anywhere, any more.

I—and my neighbors—and decent people everywhere—know a crook caught red-handed will always promise to reform. This time, we are going to forget party politics AND HELP IKE CLEAN HOUSE!

Freshmen Take Lamesa 20 to 12

Tahoka's two Bullpup football teams closed out their 1952 home seasons Tuesday night with a loss and a victory, the Freshman team winning over Lamesa and the Seventh and Eighth losing to Slaton.

The two teams close out the season with games at Brownfield next Thursday.

Tahoka Freshmen defeated Lamesa Junior High team by a score of 20 to 12 in a game which should have made the A team boys a little envious.

Lamesa scored first in the game in the first quarter on a 20-yard pass to the right halfback. The attempted conversion place-kick was low.

In the second quarter, Tahoka set up its first score by a long pass from Quarterback Ted Pridmore to Right End Carelton

Bell. Two plays later, Fullback Jerry Williams went six yards through the line to score, and Pridmore passed to Bell for the conversion, and Tahoka led 7-6.

Opening the third quarter, Halfback Tommy Franklin took the kick-off on the Tahoka 20, and with the assistance of some nice blocking carried the ball all the way to Lamesa's 10.

Three plays later, Williams took a pitch-out from Pridmore and ran around right end to score. Williams bucked the line for the conversion, and Tahoka led 14-6.

But on the first play from scrimmage after the kick-off Lamesa threw another pass to its right halfback, who went all the way, 60 yards for a touchdown. It was the same play that had scored the visitors' first TD.

During the fourth quarter, Williams went around right end, and with the aid of a perfect

Democrats For Ike Met Here Monday

About forty people including several from New Home attended a meeting at the Legion Hall Monday night sponsored by the local Democrats for Eisenhower.

Prof. Dick Heineman of Texas Tech and T. L. Marquam of Lubbock and C. A. Gould, county chairman, made brief talks.

Two pictures also were shown, "Korea—The Price of Appeasement" and "America's Creeping Socialism."

AGED MOTHER OF MRS. GARRARD VISITS HERE

Mrs. Angie Bigham of Lubbock, 91, is here visiting her daughter, Mrs. Tom Garrard. She makes her home with another daughter, Mrs. Neta Keever of Lubbock. Although she has reached an age that very few people attain, Mrs. Bigham is still remarkably active and has retained her mental faculties almost entirely unimpaired.

She has seen a lot of Texas and American history made in these ninety years and has seen West Texas almost completely transformed.

block from Franklin, scoring another TD from 19 yards out. The conversion failed. Score, 20-12.

A few minutes later, Junior Fitts, Tahoka left end, intercepted a Lamesa pass and returned it 16 yards to erase Lamesa's last threat.

Among the Freshman boys seeing action this year, in addition to those named above, are: N. E. Wood, Jr., Ronny Brooks, Ware High, Jr., James Burkhardt, Stanley Stone, Joe Dockery, Leon and Glenn Anderson, Walton Terry, Jerry Slover, Donald Blair, and Bobby Cook.

Tahoka's other Junior team, made up of Seventh and Eighth grade boys did not fare so well, losing to a big Slaton team 64 to 13.

Tahoka's little boys were out-matched by the visitors, who had a bunch of much larger and much older boys (one lineman was said to weigh 215 and one back 160).

Following the game, the Tahoka boys' mothers honored them with a dinner.

Though these little boys have been none too successful in winning games, they have been getting valuable experience and training in good sportsmanship from their coaches.

Winter Buds Hold Beauty; Observe Them Carefully

Observing tree buds in winter can be adventure. Each is a miracle of nature. Each has been placed with care—next spring's flowers and leaves in miniature meticulously folded and sealed. Each contains just enough oxygen and moisture to keep alive until the miracle of spring unfolds them.

A mature elm may hold as many as six million buds. Yet only a percentage will open. If squirrels eat some, if others freeze or are damaged, nature has supplied enough to give a tree full foliage.

Winter buds are a tree's didgerm. Some are as colorful as precious jewels. They come in many forms, unusual shapes. But never is one square. The architectural pattern of nature is in spirals and ovals.

Look closely and winter buds become works of art. Some contain only flowers; some hold leaves, still others contain both flowers and leaves.

The flowering dogwood by your door has fat silver-gray shoe-button-like buds at the ends of twigs. These are next spring's flowers. Now observe the gray, slender and sharp buds along the twigs, arranged in spiral form. These hold next spring's leaves.

Their colors are kaleidoscopic. Buds of a shadblow are rich brown red, fringed with silver hairs. Sweet gum buds are highly polished mahogany red, broad at the base and tapering sharply. Buds of red maples are crimson trident, and note how all maple buds are grouped in threes at the end of each twig, with the tallest one in the center.

A willow bud is half an inch long, tapering gradually to a rounded tip. Pussy willow buds are blue black mottled with red at the top; swamp willows have an orange hue, black willow buds are glossy, wine red.

Dental Caries, and Sugar

America's sweet tooth is one of the main reasons for this nation's enormous percentage of decayed teeth, a nationally known dental educator says. Dr. John C. Brauer, dean of the University of Southern California's college of dentistry, reports that although the cause and prevention of tooth decay is controversial, there is one point of general agreement—excessive sugar consumption is a prime factor.

Dr. Brauer points out that what constitutes "excessive sugar consumption" varies among individuals. He explains: "While the reduction in refined sugars and other carbohydrates is recommended strongly, and it may be concluded that dental caries virtually can be eliminated by this procedure, one cannot dismiss the other contributing factors which have been observed in a small percentage of the population."

Rev. and Mrs. Bennie Hargrave of New Home attended the State Baptist convention in Fort Worth last week. He reports there were 4,170 delegates present. Rev. and Mrs. Vance Zinn of Lakeview and Rev. Troy Dale and wife of O'Donnell also attended the convention.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Donaldson returned home Sunday from a visit with their daughter, Mrs. Lola Thomas, and family at McAllen.

The drought continues to increase the danger from fires. All citizens are urged to be careful with trash fires and motorists are especially urged not to throw lighted matches, cigarettes or cigars onto highway right-of-ways.

Flower bulbs may be planted in Texas from October 15 to December 15. October is considered the best planting month for bulbs which can take the cold weather without damage.

Although Texas ranks ninth among all the states in hog production, the production falls far short of supplying the pork consumed by the state's growing population.

Solicitors Not Authorized To Take Money For Methodist Home At Waco

People in Tahoka and O'Donnell soliciting donations to the Methodist Home at Waco had absolutely no authority to do so, and were not collecting funds for this institution.

Rev. Jim H. Sharp, Tahoka Methodist pastor, authorized The News to make this statement and to further state that no one other than local Methodist pastors, or their agents, have any authority to make collections for the Methodist orphanage.

After being notified that some solicitors were making a collection with the implication that the funds would go to the Methodist Home, Rev. Sharp, to make doubly certain he was correct, called authorities in Waco, who confirmed the fact that no one is supposed to be in this area soliciting funds for the home.

Rev. Sharp has notified the local officers and the Methodist district superintendent, and the so-called solicitors for the Methodist Home are being sought.

Eisenhower

and the

Farm Program

Texas-born Dwight D. Eisenhower has committed himself to a sensible Farm Program, and we believe he is the Farmers' best man for President.

Dwight Eisenhower, born in a farming state (Texas), reared in a farming state (Kansas), worked on the farm as a young man, has a number of relatives who engage in farming, and owns a small farm himself. Such a man will NEVER FORGET that the foundation of civilization rests with the welfare of agriculture and rural life.

Eisenhower favors and will work for:

1. FULL farm parity and adequate price supports.
2. Stepped up soil and water conservation programs.
3. Increased research to find new uses for farm crops.
4. Continued credit facilities on a par with industry.
5. Gradual by constant reduction of taxes.

And, in addition, he favors the return of Texas tidelands to Texas, which will benefit every Texas citizen.

Mrs. H. W. Calaway Moves To Snyder

Mrs. H. W. Calaway went to Snyder Monday to make her home with her daughter, Mrs. Guy LeMond. The latter came up Sunday for her mother, whose health has been none too good for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. LeMond lived at Tahoka before moving to Snyder in September, 1928.

Guy retired from the rural mail service a little over a year ago, Mrs. LeMond told The News, after having seen 32 years service as a rural mail carrier. He entered the service at Tahoka in the late 'teens, and transferred to a Snyder route in 1932.

Incidentally, the LeMonds have an oil well on their small acreage in the outskirts of Snyder.

Mrs. C. E. Woodworth, underwent surgery in a Lubbock hospital Wednesday of last week. She was able to return home this week.

The City has not decided on a location for the pool, but it hopes to build it if the voters want the improvements under the above conditions, on a site of sufficient size to permit development of a city park that will fit the needs of Tahoka people.

In fact, the City has ambitions, if the bonds are approved, of using present city employees and equipment to improve a park and children's playground and beautifying the same with grass, trees, etc., and the installation of walks and fences.

The pool, if built, will be contracted to experienced swimming pool builders. It would be a "seabule" pool 90 feet long, 50 feet wide at the shallow end and 35 feet wide at the deep end. Water, purified constantly with chlorinating equipment, would not be changed.

The Council is sold on the need for this added recreational facility for both the children and adults of the town and county. In addition, it would be a drawing card to business interests, be a civic improvement to make living more attractive in Tahoka, and would save parents many trips to Lubbock, Brownfield, Slaton, and other towns having swimming pools.

Civic club representatives at the meeting included: Tahoka Chamber of Commerce, Herman Renfro and Russell McGee; Garden Club, Mrs. A. M. Bray; Phebe K. Warner Club, Mrs. H. W. Carter; Tahoka Rotary Club, A. M. Bray and Tom Gill; Methodist Men, Clint Walker; Boy Scouts, H. B. McCord, Jr.; and Tahoka Jaycees, J. E. (Red) Brown. Representing the city were: Applewhite, E. R. (Roy) Edwards, Hick Gibson, Herman Heck, Tom Bartley, Pat Hines, and Mr. and Mrs. George Nixon.

School Lunches For Next Week

Following are the daily menus for the Tahoka school cafeteria for the week, November 3-7:

Monday: Salmon croquettes, blackeye peas, mashed potatoes, green salad, hot rolls, honey, and milk.

Tuesday: Green beans, hominy, potato salad, cheese sticks, corn bread, milk, and apple pie.

Wednesday: Hamburgers, potato chips, lettuce, pickles, prunes, cake, and milk.

Thursday: Baked beans, macaroni and tomatoes, French fries, lettuce, corn muffins, cookies, chocolate milk or plain milk.

Friday: Toasted weiners and cheese, buttered potatoes, English peas, lettuce and tomatoes, fruit jello, bread, and milk.

Swimming Pool --

ing for several months the advisability of building a new modern and practical city hall. The makeshift city hall is in bad state of repair, of insufficient size, and has been threatened with condemnation by fire inspectors.

Therefore, the Council called in the civic organization representatives Monday night to seek their advice on voting bonds on the two propositions. All those present seemed to favor going ahead with the bond election at this time.

Mayor Applewhite explained that the Council proposed to call a bond election to vote $25,000.00 in bonds for the park improvements; and $60,000 for a new city hall. Part of the latter would be used on construction of the swimming pool.

If and when the city hall is built, more adequate provision would be made for the fire department and living quarters would be included for a member of the department, for which local property owners receive a credit on fire insurance rates. More office space would be provided in the building, and fire-proof storage space built for city records.

Bond men say these bonds could be voted without raising Tahoka's city taxes at all on account of the bonds.

Tahoka now has about $277,000.00 in bonds outstanding, but about $225,000 of these are revenue bonds, which means that they are retired from revenue from the water and sewer system and not from taxation. Of the remaining approximately $45,000.00 in bonds outstanding, which are paid out of tax monies, the Council will in a few days retire approximately $4,000.00. Thus, at present the City has only about $40,000.00 in bonds outstanding to be paid from tax funds.

The auditor and bonding companies declare Tahoka is in excellent financial condition at the present time, and no increase in taxes or raise in valuations would be necessary to retire the proposed bonds.

Tahoka Meets Post Next Week

Tahoka Bulldogs opened their defense of the District 6-AA title against the Slaton Tigers in that city Thursday night, a game played after The News went to press and before this issue is in the hands of readers.

Next Friday night, the Bulldogs tackle the Post Anelopes at Post in the second conference game, and two weeks from tonight the Spur Bulldogs come here for the last home game.

Lose to Abilene B

Last Friday night at Kelley Field, the Bulldogs were overpowered by a very strong Abilene B team—a team which local fans declare was as strong possibly as Denver City or Seminole.

The Bulldogs played a good game against overpowering odds. The visiting Eagles were big, rangy, and experienced. The News was informed the team was made up of boys too old for varsity. Interscholastic competition, transfers, and boys not quite good enough for the Eagle A team.

In spite of the fact that Abilene B won 28 to 6, Tahoka rolled up 12 first downs to the Eagles' four. Most of Tahoka's first downs came by passing in the second half, and all four of the visitor's scores came from long runs, or passes.

Abilene received the kickoff, and after moving from the 36 to the 50, was forced to punt, but on Tahoka's first play from scrimmage the ball was fumbled and Abilene recovered. On Abilene's first play, Fullback Kenneth Huffman went 35 yards around right end to score, and Larry McCraw kicked his first of four conversions.

Bulldogs Start Drive

Midway in the second quarter, Eagle Don Rhoden took a Tahoka punt on his own 30, lateraled to MacDearman, the play carrying 70 yards for a touchdown.

Charley Schulz brought the kickoff from the 5 to the 21, and with the help of Ables carried to the 28 in two plays. Then Cole Abilene intercepted Gordon Smith's pass on the 30, but John Foster covered a fumble on the

Bula Wins Over New Home 56-21

New Home Leopards will close out their regular season of District 2-B six-man football tonight, Friday, at Lazbuddy.

Last Friday night, Bula came to the bustling Lynn county community and went home with a 56 to 24 victory over the New Home team.

For New Home, Darrell Fletcher scored three touchdowns and Willie Nieman once, while Richard Skinner scored five for Bula.

Jake Bogart and DeWayne Nell one each.

Jo Ann Peek was crowned Homecoming Queen before a large crowd, possibly 500, spectators in a halftime ceremony. Her attendants were Peggy Hemmeline, Wynoma Clem, Bernice Peek, and Nita Fortenberry.

New Home now has three wins and two losses in conference play, and one win and one loss in non-conference play.

SECOND SECTION

The Lynn County News

TAHOKA, TEXAS, — FRIDAY, OCTOBER 31, 1952

SLEEP IS WHERE YOU FIND IT for Pfc. Gary A. Hutchcraft of Terrace, Calif., as he takes a cat-nap on his way to a bath and new clothes after days of bitter fighting against Chinese Communist forces in Korea.

37, and Tahoka started its first drive. With a 21-yard pass complete to Richard Havens, short gains by I. V. J. Melton, J. B. Ables, and Kenneth Early, aided by a 15-yard penalty on Abilene, Tahoka moved to the Abilene 12, where the ball went over. Abilene led at the half 14 to 0.

Drive 78 Yards Again

Opening the second half, Smith brought the kickoff from the 7 to the 34, and Tahoka started moving again, but all in vain. It was now, however, that Ta-hoka opened up with a brilliant passing attack, with Smith doing the chunking and Havens catching one for 17, Steve Slover one for 11 yards, and Melton one for 4 yards. Tahoka moved to the Abilene 12, but bogged down and Abilene took over on the 15, fumbled to the 20, and on the next play Abilene's Joe Stewart went 80 yards for a touchdown. Late in the third quarter Schulz caught a 13-yard pass, but early in the fourth, running from its own 31, the Eagle's McCraw threw a long pass to Left End Vick who went all the way for a TD, 69 yards.

Bulldogs Score

Melton brought the kickoff from the 10 to the 34, and Smith's passes clicked again. He hit Havens for 12 yards, Melton for 14, Slover for 10, and Willie Lee for 14. Then Ables carried to the 1 yard line, and on the next play Schulz went over for Tahoka's only score.

Abilene couldn't go, and Tahoka took the punt on its own 35. Schulz made 9, a pass to Milfred Ratliff was good for 11 yards, and another was good to Ratliff for 7, but Tahoka drew a 15 yard penalty, and the game ended two plays later. Ratliff also covered a fumble during the game, and turned in his best performance of the season.

Others doing yeoman service in the line included Center Joe Brooks, Guards John Foster and Roswell Bartley, Tackles John Curry, Billy Stice, and Duane McMillan, as well as Linebackers Garland Huddleston and Billy Tong, and Defensive End Willie Lee. Jimmy Bragg did his best, but had a little hard luck while quarterbacking the team.

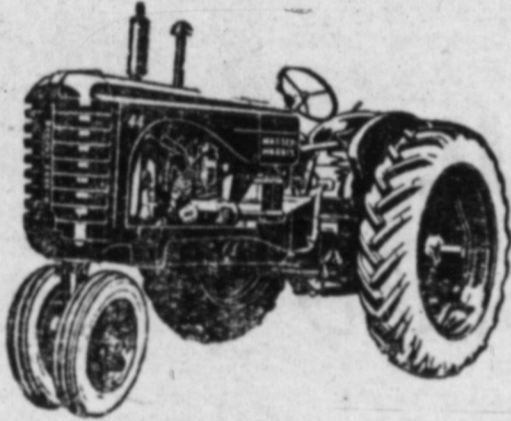

Smith threw 27 passes, had two intercepted, and 13 were incomplete, but he completed 12 for 147 yards. Havens' punting was good again, kicking five times for a 34 yard average. Melton, Schulz, and Smith turned in punt and kickoff runbacks totaling 118 yards.

At halftime, Deanie Edwards was crowned the THS band "sweetheart" by Harley Schulz. She was accompanied onto the field by Ann Reasonover and Patsy Smith.

Idalou 61, Wilson 12.
Bula 56, New Home 24.

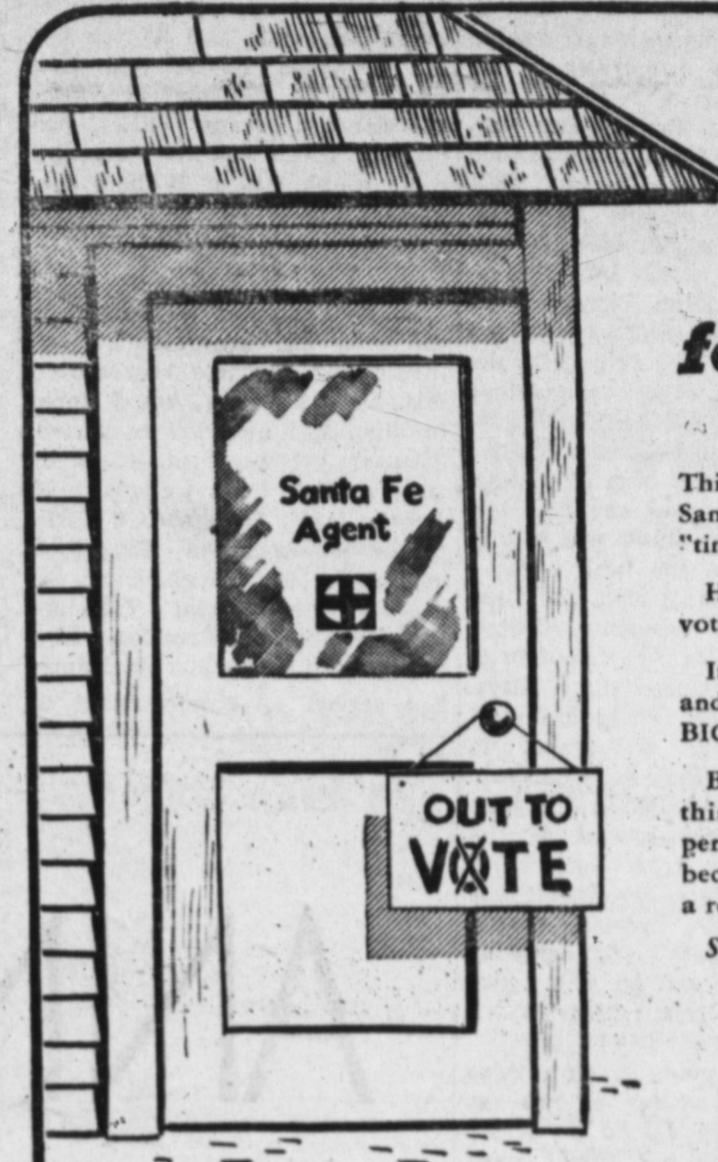

Wilson Mustangs was no match for the undefeated Idalou Wildcats when the two District 2-B teams clashed in the Lubbock county city Friday night, and Idalou won 61 to 12.

Jimmy Schneider was Wilson's hero of the game. He took a pass in the first quarter and ran 60 yards to score. Then, in the fourth, he took a kickoff and returned it 80 yards to pay dirt.

The heavier, experienced Idalou team scored twice in the first, four in the second, one in the third, and two in the final period.

Today, Coach A. J. Sales takes his Mustangs to Whitharral for a game, and Friday of next week Wilson will entertain the Meadow team. Then follows games with Whiteface and Wellman at Wilson.

ODDS AND ENDS

(BY E. I. THE ELDER)

It was my happy privilege on Tuesday night of last week to speak to the Brotherhood of the Arnett-Benson Baptist Church in Lubbock on Religious Conditions in Mexico. The invitation came from the Brotherhood through Robert Warren, formerly of Tahoka, who is now a member and a deacon of the Arnett-Benson Church. I was accompanied to his home in Lubbock by his father, W. R. Warren, of the old Dixie community, and from his home Robert took us to the Church. There we found other friends whom we had known in other years. Specifically, there was Weldon Lemon, son of W. I. Lemon of Tahoka, who is also a deacon and an active worker in that Church. Also, we found Jim Dyer formerly of Tahoka, who moved away many years ago and who has been living in Lubbock the past few years. He also is member of that fine young church and helps to keep the machinery oiled. When Tahoka was laid out and started in 1903, his father, J. V. Dyer, and family lived out a few miles east of town, and when The Lynn County News was born in that same year, J. V. claimed the distinction of having been the first subscriber to the paper. For several years after the perpetrator of this column became owner of the paper—which was about November 1, 1923, which will be exactly 29 years ago on Saturday of this week—Mr. Dyer used to come into the office of The Lynn County News at frequent intervals to discuss politics and "the state of the Country" and other momentous problems. I think Judge J. W. Elliott was then county judge, Sam Sanford was sheriff, Judge B. P. Maddox was county attorney, Walter E. Smith was county clerk (who in the heck is he—oh yes, Old Hap), Mrs. Zoe Lowrey was tax assessor-collector and Skip Taylor was the district clerk. Well, since those days, many a Tahoka family has moved to Lubbock, we regret to chronicle, but they have not only added to its population but have helped to build several of its churches, the Arnett-Benson being one of them. Rev. Cecil Ray is the popular, live-wire pastor. He has a great and growing church there, and he is a good and prudent young leader.

made by any man before the national convention of any political party in America. Although he was then only 36 years of age, it won him the Democratic nomination for the Presidency, although he had not gone to the Convention as a candidate for that office. He failed to be elected over William McKinley, the Republican nominee, but for two other Presidential campaigns following, he was the Democratic nominee. Although I never became convinced that he was right on the "Free Silver" question I did become thoroughly convinced along with millions of other Democrats that he was one of the ablest, purest, and most conscientious men that ever bore the standard of any political party. The South and the West became worshippers of William Jennings Bryan. I became one of his most devoted followers.

In 1900, he was nominated on the issue of "Imperialism," regarding which Time also proved that he was wrong, but I voted for him. McKinley was re-elected, however, but was assassinated by an anarchist, Leon Czolgosz, 10 months later, September 6, 1901, at the Pan-American Exposition in Buffalo, New York. Upon his death, Vice-President Theodore Roosevelt became President. Governor Adlai Stevenson of Illinois had served as vice-president of ing the last administration of Grover Cleveland and was Bryan's running mate in 1900. This Adlai Stevenson was the father of the present Democratic candidate for the Presidency.

Following all these exciting events and in the face of two previous defeats, William Jennings Bryan was not a candidate for the Democratic nomination in 1904. Judge Alton B. Parker of New York, regarded as a reactionary Democrat, was the nominee, and Theodore Roosevelt was nominated by the Republicans. Roosevelt was overwhelmingly elected. I voted for Parker.

In 1908, Bryan staged a comeback and was again nominated by the Democrats. Having served almost two full terms Roosevelt did not seek the Republican nomination that year and so the Republicans nominated William Howard Taft. I voted for Bryan, but Taft was elected.

By 1912, Roosevelt had split with Taft and organized the Progressive Party, of which he became the nominee. Taft was re-nominated by the Republicans. Bryan did not seek the Democratic nomination but threw his full strength to Woodrow Wilson, who was nominated after a long and bitter struggle. Progressive Texans in the convention also lined up solidly for Wilson. I myself strongly favored Wilson and gave him my unstinted support through both his administrations.

In the election of 1920, Governor James M. Cox of Ohio, and Senator Warren G. Harding of the same state were the opposing candidates for the Presidency, Cox as a Democrat and Harding as a Republican. Again I was for the Democratic nominee, although I knew he had little chance to be elected. Such wilful and envious senators as Senator Lodge of Massachusetts (Republican) and Senator Reed of Missouri (Democrat) had wrecked Woodrow Wilson's proposed League of Nations and thereby wrecked Wilson's health also so that he was unable to defend his proposal or himself against their vicious attacks, and he went down to his grave a physical if not a mental wreck. Foolishly, the entire nation seemed to turn against Wilson and his policies, and so it was a foregone conclusion that Cox did not have the shadow of a chance to be elected and Harding was swept into office by the largest majority that had ever been recorded in a national election. And what a tragedy it proved to be! Harding was caught in the web of crooked grafters then and I am against them now.

Luckily Calvin Coolidge had been nominated by the Republicans as Harding's running mate, and immediately upon Harding's death he was sworn in by his own father, a Vermont Justice of the Peace, as President of the United States August 3, 1923.

At the next election, November, 1924, Coolidge was the Republican nominee; John W. Davis, former ambassador to Great Britain, was the Democratic nominee, with Charles Bryan of Nebraska, brother of William Jennings Bryan, as his running-mate; and the Progressives nominated Robert LaFollette of Wisconsin and Senator Burton K. Wheeler of Montana as their team. Coolidge received a tremendous ma-majority over both his opponents. Again I was voting Democratic

In 1929, you remember, Coolidge announced that "I do not choose to run," and the Republicans nominated Herbert Hoover and the Democrats nominated Alfred E. Smith of New York as their candidate.

There is where I broke over. (Continued)

Odds & Ends

Smith was the leader of all those dripping wet saloon stooges who had undertaken to sabotage national prohibition. He and his crowd had encouraged wholesale violation of the law and then fought it on the grounds that it could not be enforced. I am not saying that Smith himself lied but he was leader of the crowd that didn't hesitate to circulate any kind of a lie that would tend to discredit the law. Furthermore Smith was an avowed Roman Catholic. Political prejudice, you charge. Not so, it is only loyalty to America and Americanism. I do not think that Al Smith ever attended a public school a day in his life. He attended a Roman Catholic parochial school, and he was taught to become a "devout" Catholic. Catholics in the United States pretend to be broad-minded. They not only "tolerate" but they fraternize to a certain degree with members of Protestant denominations. Yes, they claim to believe in the four freedoms which are written into our Constitution. But in Mexico they have constantly sought to stamp out and destroy freedom of religious worship, freedom of assembly, freedom of the press, and freedom of speech. They have resorted to the most inhumane cruelties down there to suppress Protestantism. The fact that the Mexican government 35 years ago undertook to hamper and destroy the power of Catholics has not changed their attitude toward the Protestants. They are just as hostile against Protestants today as they were 35 years ago. This is not prejudice; it is facts. The Pope of Rome claims powers superior to that of any civil government if and when they conflict. If Al Smith were President of the United States, he would have to listen to the Pope of Rome on occasion or be excommunicated.

I voted against Al Smith for President and would do it again. If I remember correctly, I believe I voted for Franklin D. Roosevelt each time he ran, although I am not very sure of that and not too proud of it. I did not vote for Harry S. Truman four years ago. I voted for a real Southern Democrat.

So, that is my political voting record, folks. And having given you that, I propose now to give you my platform—the principles that will guide me in casting my vote next Tuesday.

First: I think that the most important problem confronting the citizens of America today is the up-rooting of dishonesty and corruption in our government. The corruptionist, the bribe-giver, the bribe-taker, the peddler of special privileges or special favors for a price, the common cheat, swindler, embezzler, or grafter in the handling of public funds is a traitor to his country—morally if not legally—and he must be eliminated. Our government must be cleaned up, otherwise it is nothing more nor less than a farce and a swindle itself. Not since the administration of Warren G. Harding have we had as much corruption in different departments of the government as we have had during the past eight or ten years. Those who condone it, those who believe it, those who excuse it, can not be expected to clean it up. Of course I am aware that Governor Stevenson is in no way responsible for the mess in Washington but he will be under deep obligation to Harry S. Truman, and I do not think that Pendergast politician can be depended upon to clean up any mess that he has had a part in making. Furthermore, folks, I do not wish to appear prudish, but I am sick and tired of hearing a President of the United States continually using Kansas City back-alley language in addressing the decent American audiences.

Second: Both Truman and Stevenson have unequivocally committed themselves to the task of robbing Texas of her tidelands oil. And while pronouncing their determination to do so, Truman went so far as to accuse Texas of seeking to rob the United States of its oil. Back yonder a couple of years ago, when I read the majority opinion of the U. S. Supreme Court written by Mr. Justice Vinson, his opinion convinced me that the U. S. Government might have good grounds for its contention, for he denied some of the important facts that Attorney General Price Daniel had been citing. I thought that surely he must be right as to his facts and Daniel must be wrong. But I found out later that Daniel was right and Vinson wrong. Daniel's position was further substantiated by the undeniable fact that although Texas was admitted into the Union 106 years ago, her claim to these tidelands was never questioned by the United States Government until just a few years ago. So, it appears that Truman and Stevenson and a bare majority of the Supreme Court are in fact undertaking to establish an unjust claim to this tidelands oil and are thus taking away from the school children of Texas millions of dollars to which they are justly entitled. Eisenhower has repeatedly asserted that he believes that Texas is entitled to this oil money and that he will use his influence as President, if elected, to restore it to the school children of Texas.

Third: While I am in favor of providing better schools for the colored children of the South, I am bitterly opposed to Truman's FEPC measure, which he is trying to ram down the throats of the people of this country. In fact, Truman has been continually using Texas as a mat on which to wipe his muddy political shoes. And during this campaign, Stevenson has repeatedly stated that he will favor the enactment of such a law.

Fourth: I am opposed to government by minority pressure groups. By catering to highly organized labor unions, to certain racial groups, to powerful but un-American religious organizations, to various small groups of different kinds who have axes to grind, a President can shove through Congress legislation which that body does not really favor but whose members are afraid to oppose. These pressure groups in states like New York, or Pennsylvania, or Massachusetts, or Michigan, can often exert an influence on legislation and on political elections out of all proportion to their numbers. There is a possible remedy to this: The nomination of candidates for the major offices by popular vote and also the election of the President and Vice-President of the United States by popular vote. If that reform is adopted, the vote of Bill Scroggins out here at Podunk will have just as much weight in the election of a President as will the vote of John L. Lewis or Cardinal Spaghetti of New York City. I believe that Eisenhower favors such a reform; I am pretty sure that President Truman and his hand-picked candidate for the Presidency will give very little support to such a proposal. Lewis and Mitchell and Tobin do not want their wings clipped.

THE GOOD OLD DAYS

(Under Republican Rule)

I am an 80-years-old business-managed tax paying cotton farmer. I have been around for a long time. I can remember some thirty years ago when Republican rule was in evidence. I remember Harding, Coolidge and Hoover Especially well.

- When cotton was selling for 5c a pound.
- When potatoes were 3c a pound.
- When corn brought only 10c a bushel.
- When livestock was selling for 5c a pound.
- When a bank went broke—brother you were broke.
- When no farmer had rural electrical service.
- When bankers and Chamber of Commerce were fighting those benefits.
- When Social Security was unheard of.
- When the Valley had thousands of visitors. But they all came on freight trains—hunting jobs.
- When you could get a room at any hotel for 50c a night. But no one had fifty cents.
- When we were told to sell apples—but we had no apples.
- When Chicken dinners were 20c. But no one had 20c.
- When we were promised a chicken in every pot. But we didn't even have a pot to put it in.
- When we were promised a car in every garage—but we didn't even have a garage.
- When Prosperity was "just around the corner" (How did he know the Democrats would win in '32.)
- When farmers didn't have 90 per cent parity for crops.
- When Jack rabbits were known as Hoover Hogs.

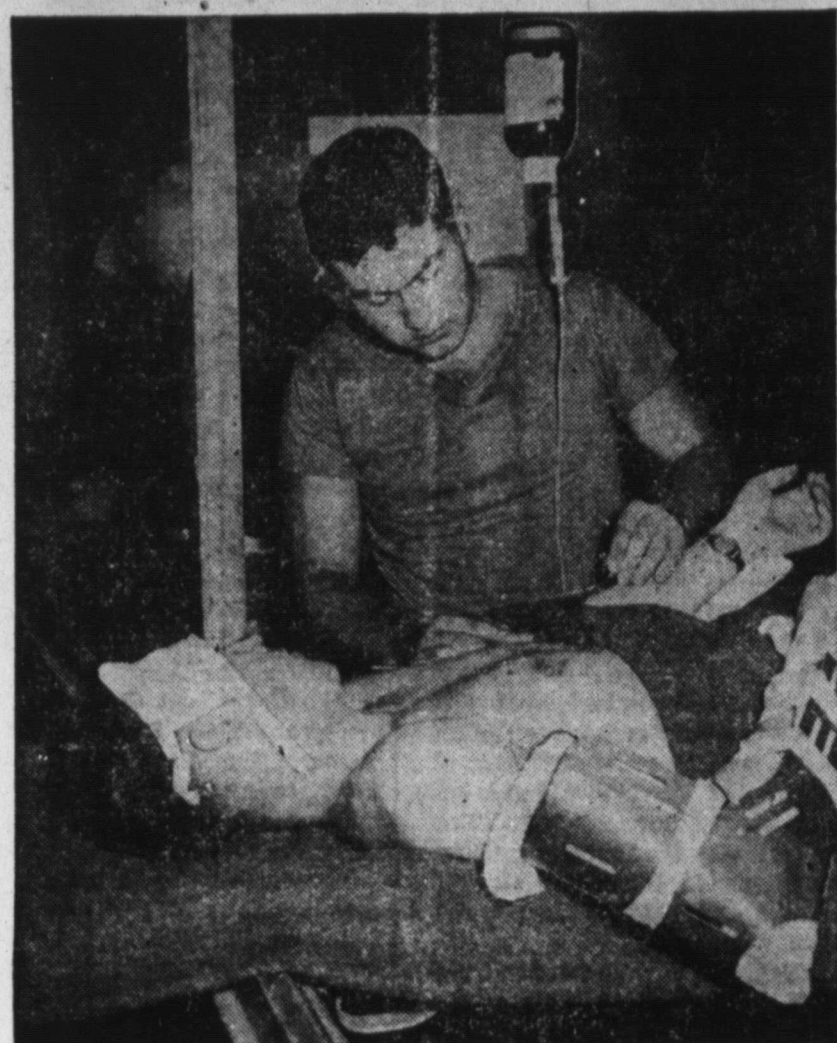

DON'T LET THEM TAKE IT AWAY

- Don't be a sucker; I heard a lot of you complaining that you want a change. If a Republican is elected, you'll get a change but you won't have any change in your pocket.
- You can't live on promises, we tried it.
- Don't let them change our production lines to soup lines.
- Don't let them force you to change that farm tractor for an Ox team.
- Don't let them force you to change that Cadillac for a one horse shay.
- Don't let them make you change that TV set for a magic lantern.
- Don't let the Mortgage Bankers take your home and farm again.
- Don't let them hide Tea Pot Dome behind a Mink coat.
- Don't let them put another DULLES in Our State Department.
- Don't let them turn your Bank Account into Bankruptcy.
- Don't let them turn the clock of progress back a half Century.
- Don't let them tell you that a cheap dollar won't still buy more than No $$$.
- Don't let them make you believe that it is immoral for the farmer and laboring man to have a decent standard of living.

WHY REMEMBER THE REFORMATION?

(By Rev. C. C. Ehler)

On October 31st, Protestant Christians throughout the world will observe the Birthday of the Reformation and many of them will observe, this with special Reformation services on the following Sunday.

Many men were associated with the Protestant Reformation. None however, is more identified with this great ushering in of the modern world than Martin Luther. Men of authority from all walks of life have acclaimed his work. Phillips Brooks, the great preacher, said, "All human progress must remember Martin Luther." Johann Wolfgang Goethe, the great poet, said, "We do not at all know how much we owe to Luther and the Reformation." James Freeman Clark, author, said, "Luther is the real author of modern liberty of thought and action, the giant founder of modern civilization and of pure religion." George Bancroft, historian, said, "The principle of Justification by Faith alone brought with it the freedom of individual thought and conscience against authority."

Luther brought an enslaved church and people back to the open Bible. He brought back to the people the right of private judgment, universal education the complete Sacrament of the Altar, Christian hymns, and civil and religious liberty.

His greatest contribution, however, was that of bringing back to light the scriptural doctrine of "Justification by Faith." It was this key to the understanding of the Scriptures which Dr. Martin Luther, by God's providence, was allowed to find. He found it amid his soul struggles during his stay in the monastery.

As we find peace and the assurance of the forgiveness of sins by the grace of God, for the sake of Christ, through faith, we should thank God for sending the world such a man who had the courage to stand up against "the powers that be." For by grace are ye saved through faith and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: not of works, lest any man should boast." Ephesians 2:8, 9.

"We had intended to drive on to Rome on Wednesday, but a late start made it necessary for us to stay overnight in Florence. Florence, the birthplace of Michelangelo and Leonardo de Vinci and other great artists, remains one of the art centers of the world.

"The next day we drove on to Rome by way of Pisa. We had a good look at the famous "leaning tower of Pisa," which is reported to be the place where Newton proved his theory of gravitational force. The thing sure does lean and is one of the most interesting sights that we saw on the trip.

"We stayed in Rome for three nights and two days. We could have spent two years and still not seen everything, but we tried to see some of the things that were most famous. Rome is the birthplace of one of the early civilizations, and the remains of this civilization is probably better preserved than any other. A person could not help but be person excited along with a feeling of insignificance when looking at such a structure as the Colosseum which was built in the years from 72 to 78 A. D. and of course, is best known for its use by the Romans as a place to amuse themselves by persecuting the Christians and watching gladiators fight to the death.

"Viewing the ruins of places of such historic figures as Julius Caesar and Nero made all the hours of studying about them in history seem worthwhile.

"We also drove past some of the catacombs which were used by the Christians as a sanctuary for escape from the persecutions by the Romans. It is said that they are so numerous that if they were placed in a straight line that they would reach across the length of Italy.

"The St. Peters Cathedral is indescribable even by anyone who is familiar with all the works of art that it possesses and it is a structure that has no equal of its kind.

"We spent the entire two days seeing as much as we could of the things that I have mentioned and countless others, such as magnificent fountains, the two hills of Rome where the mythical characters of Romulus and Remus were supposed to have been mothered by a wolf, and other structures that were built as far back as the fifth century B. C.

"Sunday, August 3, we drove to Livorno, Italy, on the Mediterranean coast and went swimming.

seemed to be a wonderful place for a vacation, but we had more places to see and drove on the next day across Italy, and her famous Alps.

"Switzerland is quite a small country and is surrounded by Germany, Austria, Italy and France, so most of its inhabitants which depend a large part upon the tourist trade, are obliged to know all these languages and their native tongue, even though it is basically German, is a mixture of several different languages.

"We spent Tuesday night in a small village outside of the Swiss capitol city of Bern and near the French border.

"Wednesday, we entered France and would have been able to detect a change even if we had been blindfolded. The French, as the Italians, do not seem to possess the attribute of cleanliness and it evidently being fertilizing season, the odor was sufficient to indicate that we had crossed the border. France, at one time may have been a leading progressive nation and a center of culture, but it is clearly evident that this is no longer the case. Agricultural pursuits are much the same as they were a century ago. Modern business is conspicuously lacking; and I do not include the art of burlesque as being within the realm of culture.

Lutherans Will Hear Report World Convention At Lubbock Meeting

National Lutheran Council Churches of Lubbock and surrounding communities will hold a "Post-Hannover" Conference at Shepherd King Lutheran Church of Lubbock on November 3, 1952, starting at 5 p. m. It is one of more than 200 similar conferences scheduled throughout the country this fall.

The meeting has been arranged to bring to local churches the "Hannover Horizons" of world fellowship and service of the Assembly which was held at Hannover, Germany, last July 25 to August 3. Thousands of delegates and visitors representing more than 50 million Lutherans in the federation's 52 member churches in 25 countries attended the Hannover Convention.

The "Post-Hannover" conference here will also discuss plans for completing local church goals in the current Lutheran World Action appeal to raise $2,900,000 for relief and reconstruction abroad and a ministry to Lutherans in the U. S. Military forces. Mr. Arnold Maeker is conference chairman. The committee in charge of arrangements include: Mr. Werner Teggerman, welcoming committee; Mr. B. R. Bradshaw, publicity; Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Spitzer, music and food committees. Dr. Henry F. Schuh of Columbus, Ohio, president of the American Lutheran Church will be the principal speaker, and the Rev. Martin E. Carlson, of Minneapolis, Minnesota, Director of Stewardship of the Augustana Lutheran Church will also speak.

Some 10,000 local churches are affiliated with the eight Lutheran church bodies participating in the National Lutheran Council, the agency which supervises the gathering and distribution of Lutheran World Action funds.

The Council's participating bodies are the United Lutheran Church in America, Evangelical Lutheran Church, American Lutheran Church, Augustana Lutheran Church, Lutheran Free Church, Suomi Synod, United Evangelical Lutheran Church and Danish Evangelical Lutheran Church.

Since 1940, these church groups have contributed more than $51,000,000 in cash and goods through Lutheran World Action and Lutheran World Relief to provide spiritual and material aid in all parts of the world.

Of the $2,900,000 goal of Lutheran World Action this year, $350,000 has been earmarked for spiritual service to Lutheran men and women in the armed forces. This ministry is conducted by the Council in cooperation with the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod. It provides pastoral care for service personnel while they are in training camps in this country and on duty abroad.

The program at present includes 32 service centers and nearly 100 contract pastors in the United States, Alaska, Panama Canal Zone, Formosa and Hawaii. It provides religious literature and helps home congregations keep in touch with their members in military service. The Council has allocated $700,000 of the LWA goal for the support of orphaned missions, which were cut off from their supporting societies in Germany and Finland by World War II and which are still dependent on aid from the United States. Support is given to Lutheran orphaned missions in Africa, Palestine, India, China, Japan, New Guinea and Indonesia.

During the past four years, aid to displaced persons and refugees has been a major activity of the Lutheran World Action program. A total of $530,000 has been allocated for this work in 1952, with $390,000 going to Geneva, Switzerland, where the Lutheran World Federation Service to Refugees has its headquarters, and $140,000 to the New York office of the Lutheran Resettlement Service.

More than 36,000 DP's have been resettled in the United States through the Lutheran Resettlement Service and more than twice that number have been aided in other parts of the world through the LWF Service to Refugees. While the American program is nearly completed, unless Congress passes additional legislation, aid to refugees in Europe remains a continuing need. Resettlement efforts are still being made in South America, Canada, Australia, and New Zealand.

The emigration of large numbers of Lutheran refugees from Europe to Latin America prompted the National Lutheran Council to organize a Division of Lutheran Cooperation in Latin America last fall. An increasing amount of aid, including $65,000 from the 1952 LWA appeal, is being given to minister to refugees, organize congregations and develop church life in Venezuela, Peru, Brazil, Columbia, Argentina, Chile, and other Latin American countries.

O'Donnell Loses To Denver City

O'Donnell, Eagles lost 49 to 7 last Friday night in Denver City to one of the most powerful schoolboy teams on the South Plains. The game was a district 4-A conference affair.

O'Donnell's only score came near the end of the game when Modisette went over for a TD, but the Eagles rolled up 16 first down against the Mustang's 19. This was the most first downs any team has made against Denver City this season.

Denver City scored two touchdowns in each period but the third, when it scored only one.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Z. Sewell of Draw on Sunday attended a reunion at Loraine honoring Mr. Sewell's aunt who was 95 years of age Friday of last week.

Smith is improving. James Smith, who fell and broke a leg last week, is reported by his father, Guy Smith, to have withstood the operation at West Texas Hospital last Thursday in fine shape, and he is improving. The operation is believed to have been a success.

Other allocations from the 1952 LWA goal include $225,000 for Lutheran World Relief, $200,000 for promotion, $25,000 for the American Bible Society, and $115,000 for work in cooperation with other inter-denominational agencies.

The Rev. C. C. Ehler, pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church at Wilson, stated that Lutherans from all over the area are expected to attend this unusual rally in large numbers.
