Board Re-elects All Teachers In School

All teachers in the Tahoka schools asking for re-election were given new contracts at a dinner meeting of the Tahoka school board Tuesday night in the Homemaking Cottage.

This was the first meeting of the board since the recent election, and Kevill Coffman and Maurice Huffaker were sworn in as the new trustees, succeeding Vernon Willhoit and Joe Robinson. All board officers were re-elected. A. M. Bray, president; John Witt, vice president; and Felix Jones, secretary. Other members are Frank Greathouse and J. D. (Buck) Martin.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Tenney do not expect to return as they desire to move back to East Texas to be near property they own; and Mrs. Peggy Carter Beckham does not expect to teach next year as her husband will be returning from service overseas.

Supt. Otis Spears, the principals and coaches were re-elected at a previous meeting.

Mr. Spears said the Tahoka schools will qualify for three additional teachers next year because of increased daily attendance. The school lost four teachers last year because of loss of students by reason of the drought.

Students Enter District Meet

Many Tahoka school students this week end are participating in the annual Interscholastic League Meet, with the Class A literary events being held in Morton Friday, the tennis tournament at Texas Tech on Friday, and the track meet at Tech on Saturday.

The girls volleyball team played at Levelland Wednesday, along with Post, Morton, and Littlefield, the other teams qualifying for the finals.

Jake Jacobs, high school principal, announces the following are entered in the literary and tennis contests:

Boys' declamation: Jerry Cain, Typing; Margie Curry, Ted Pridmore, and Gordon Smith.

Shorthand: Rose Marie Yandell and Bobbye Draper.

Number sense: Delores Gage and James Adams.

Ready writers: Margie Curry.

Boys' tennis singles: Ware High.

Boys' tennis doubles: Ronnie Brooks and Carlton Bell.

Girls' tennis singles: Betty Carroll.

Coach Bill Haralson is taking 12 boys to the district track meet and he has hopes that some of them will qualify for the state meet.

Boys entered are: Garland Huddleston, Donald Blair, Junior Pitts, Gordon Smith, Jimmy Harter, Jerry Williams, Bobby Huffaker, Duane McMillan, Stanley Stone, Tommy Paris, Larry Simmons, and Ted Pridmore.

Haralson expects Blair to show up well in the sprints, Pitts in the high jump, and Smith, Huddleston, Fitts and Blair in the sprint relay.

TAHOKA CO-OP. MEETING

Tahoka Co-op Gin is holding its annual stockholders meeting next Tuesday, beginning at 10 a. m. at the American Legion Hall in Tahoka.

A barbecue dinner will be served at noon, according to B. L. Hatchell, secretary.

Dock Dewbre of O'Donnell, who underwent surgery in Tahoka Hospital Thursday of last week, was able to go home Tuesday.

Jaycees Install New Officials

New officials were installed at a banquet of the rejuvenated Tahoka Jaycees in the school cafeteria Monday night, attended by nearly fifty members of the club their wives and a few guests.

Though not the largest, the affair was one of the most enjoyable dinner meetings held in Tahoka recently.

Principal speaker was Ralph Krebs of Lubbock, an old New Lynn boy and past president of the Lubbock Jaycees, who made a very inspiring talk on Jayceecism.

He traced the growth of the Junior Chamber of Commerce from its inception in St. Louis in 1915, and stated that there now are clubs in 55 nations of the world with a total of 200,000 members. There are 20,000 young men in 175 Texas clubs.

In emphasizing the importance of such an organization both to the community and to the individual member and in urging the young men of Tahoka to take advantage of the opportunities offered by the Jaycees, he said the average age of the signers of the Declaration of Independence was only 33. Napoleon reached his zenith at 34, and John Calvin was a famous churchman at 26.

He cited projects sponsored by successful Jaycee organizations in neighboring towns, and urged

Explorer Post Holds Banquet

Explorer Scouts of Post 21 forgot about camping trips and other scouting thrills Tuesday night and sat down to a banquet table at Scout Hall with heaping plates of barbecue and beans.

This was the Explorers' parents banquet, and about 25 people attended.

Cecil Hammonds planned the event, with the help of Dr. Emil Prohl. Meat was prepared by Turner Rogers, and mothers of the boys made pies and salads.

A small Court of Honor was held, with bronze palms going to Karl Prohl and John Redwine, a silver palm to Guy Witt, and a ribbon was presented for the enlisting of five more boys in the Post in 1954.

After the Court of Honor, games were enjoyed by one and all, these including balloon bursting and cracker whistling.

The boys report everyone had a very nice time, the only "gripe" being the blowing sand outside.

More Improvements At Court House

Further improvement is underway in the Lynn county court house this week.

Rubber tile floor covering is being laid on all offices of the main floor and also on the district clerk's office on the second floor.

Many minor improvements and repairs have been made on the building during the last year or two.

More recently, the lawn has been cut down, and new grass and shrubs will be planted. This work is being done by the Commissioners under the supervision of County Agent Bill Griffin and H. D. Agent Wanda Roach.

Congratulations:

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Zant of route 1, Wilson, on the birth of a daughter weighing 6 pounds 11 ounces at Tahoka Hospital at 5:32 a. m. Wednesday.

Make Plans For Cancer Drive

Lynn county's quota in the Cancer Fund drive, which will be made this month, has been set at $1,350.00, according to H. W. Carter, county chairman.

Since Lynn county was released from its obligation in the drive last year, the local chairman has expressed the hope that the people will come through more generously this time.

Lynn county has never failed to raise its quota in the Cancer Fund drive.

The fund is used to aid victims of this dread disease, but more especially to finance research work in methods of detection, treatment, and prevention of the malady.

Two years ago, Lynn county's quota was $1,050.00, and Mr. Carter says more than this was raised.

Mrs. E. Prohl has been named chairman of the woman's "coffee" drive in Tahoka. Others named to help Mr. Carter in the various areas of the county are: Charley Cathey, O'Donnell; Pat Campbell, Wilson; W. C. Roberts, Grassland; and J. B. Edwards, New Home.

Contributions may be handed or mailed to any of these people. The county-wide canvass will be made during the next two weeks.

Local People At Rotary Meeting

Eight Tahoka Rotarians and six Rotary Anns attended the 183rd District Golden Anniversary Rotary Conference which met in Midland Sunday through Tuesday.

Those attending report this was probably the finest conference ever held in West Texas, and all the speakers were outstanding. Four of the most prominent speakers were Dr. Kenneth McFarland of Topeka, Kansas, a nationally known educator and platform speaker, who is education consultant of General Motors; D. D. Monroe of Clayton, N. M., past director of Rotary International; Dr. Hugh M. Tiner Los Angeles, president of George Pepperdine College; and Dan Proctor of Chickasha, Okla.

There were 500 Rotarians and their wives registered. This district now has 38 clubs with 2,180 members.

Those from Tahoka attending all or some of the sessions were: A. M. Bray, president, and wife; Harold Green, president-elect, and wife; Johnny Reasonover; Mr. and Mrs. Calloway Huffaker, Otis Spears and family, Dr. and Mrs. Emil Prohl, Mr. and Mrs. Clint Walker, and Wynne Collier.

Salk Polio Vaccine Will Be Given 525 Lynn County School Pupils

All local arrangements have been made for giving the free Salk polio vaccine shots to about 525 Lynn county first and second grade school children, according to Dr. Emil Prohl, county health officer; Mrs. Ruth Jolly county superintendent; and Clint Walker, county polio chairman.

Only detail lacking is the receiving of the vaccine. However, reliable reports indicate the vaccine will be available for us here some time between April 22 and 27.

A definite schedule for giving the shots may be made in next week's issue of The News.

Medical experts are proclaiming the new vaccine and the announcement Tuesday of its apparent success in last year's experimental use as one of the greatest advancements in the history of medicine.

The vaccine was developed by Dr. Jonas Salk, brilliant young Philadelphia scientist. After much research and study of the vaccine, 440,000 children were given the shots last spring under direction of doctors and the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Since then, scientists have been studying the results of the immunizations, and on Tuesday it was announced from the University of Michigan that these studies showed that the shots were 80 to 90 percent effective in preventing the dread disease which has afflicted many children.

The vaccine was officially licensed for public use only a few hours after it had been found safe, effective, and powerful in preventing paralytic polio.

Texas State Health Department will have sufficient vaccine available for all Texas first and second graders. As quickly as this vaccine can be readied for shipment, Lynn county's portion will be flown to Lubbock, and local authorities will pick it up there.

Several meetings have been held by Lynn county school authorities, doctors and officers of the county organization of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis to prepare for the possible vaccination campaign.

No vaccine is available at this time to the general public, but such will be available within a few weeks or months. Tahoka doctors said the vaccinations of first and second grade students will be absolutely free. When available to the general public, the series of shots will cost only $10.00 to $15.00, it is believed.

The parents of about 475 Lynn county first and second grade students have already returned signed requests for having their children vaccinated. No child will be vaccinated unless this request is signed and returned to school authorities.

All the doctors in Lynn county are cooperating in the program. These are Dr. Prohl, Dr. Skiles Thomas and Dr. Noble Runbo, all of Tahoka, and Dr. Joe Leh-

Methodist Meet Drawing Crowds

Unusually large crowds are attending each service of the revival meeting being held at the First Methodist Church.

Rev. Howard Hollowell, pastor of the Laurel Heights Methodist Church in San Antonio, has been bringing a fine message at each of the three-day meetings. In fact, many declare he is the best ever heard in the local pulpit.

Night services have had visitors from Lamesa, O'Donnell, Wilson, Slaton, and many other neighboring towns.

The breakfast meeting from 7 to 8 a. m. was attended by 43 men and boys Tuesday morning, 71 Wednesday, and 76 Thursday.

A good audience has also been present at each 10 a. m. service.

Rev. Hollowell is recognized as one of the outstanding preachers of the Methodist Church in the Southwest. Reared at Sweetwater, he has served successively at Ackerly, O'Donnell, Spur, Midland, Oak Cliff in Dallas, and now in San Antonio.

The meeting will continue through Wednesday of next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan McWhirter and son and Mrs. McWhirter's sister, Miss Mary Alice Westbrook of Hobbs, N. M., spent last weekend in Fort Worth visiting relatives.

Jimmy Whorton, student in San Angelo Junior College, spent the Easter holidays here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Whorton.

Boy Scouts Train For Camporee

Twenty-five Tahoka Boy Scouts accompanied by four adult leaders, spent Friday night and Saturday at Camp Post doing work in preparation for the annual Camporee which will be held at Seagraves on April 22 and 23.

Adults accompanying the boys were Rush Dudgeon, Cecil Hammonds, Roy Ford, and L. A. Forsythe.

Baptists Secure Song Director

On the recommendation of a special committee and the deacons, the church approved Mr. Bob Lewis of Hobbs, N. M., as the Director of Education and Music. He will fill the position left when Winfred Walker accepted the invitation of the Perryton Baptist Church several months ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis have one child almost two years old. Mr. Lewis is a graduate of Wayland College, Plainview, and has served in the First Baptist Church of Anton, the First Baptist Church of Spur, the First Baptist Church of Hobbs, and most recently in the Calvary Baptist Church of Hobbs. Much of his time in the past two years has been in the field of evangelistic singing.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis will arrive in Tahoka Saturday night, April 16th and will be here next Sunday to take up his duties as a member of the staff of the Church. He will move to Tahoka as soon as arrangements can be made. He will direct the music for the Sunday night's services, and will lead in a Fellowship hour for the young folks after church. The entire church is happy to welcome the Lewis' to our community and church family.

Big Crowd At Baptist Revival

Good attendances mark the revival services at the First Baptist Church this week, according to Rev. Clifford Harris, pastor. Mr. Hooper Dilday is doing an excellent job of leading the choir and congregation in the singing of good old gospel hymns, and Dr. Harold Graves, president of Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary, is bringing messages from the Bible direct to the heart.

Last Sunday there were 405 in the main Sunday school and 57 in the Mexican Mission. Workers this week are busy working toward a record attendance next Sunday of 555 in Sunday school which meets at 9:45.

The pastor and church extend a warm welcome to all who do not have a church home to attend these services, and especially to be in the Sunday services.

Charter Granted Country Club

Charter for the new T-Bar Country Club, now under construction a mile north of Tahoka, was received Wednesday by Truett Smith, president of the club, from A. M. Muldrow, Secretary of State. The non-profit organization was incorporated for fifty years.

Incorporators are listed as: O. C. Elliott, J. E. Brown, J. T. Forbes, Frank Hill, Albert Curry, F. W. Chapman, Lynn Birdwell, Mrs. Myrna Gagnat, Harry Lee Short, A. L. Holder, Kay K. Moore, and L. T. Storch.

Work of building the golf course on the country club site was started in the winter, but this work has been delayed by the weather and the difficulty of securing sufficient water.

Three wells were drilled, one hole conducted by Robinson Drilling Co. and one by Rebel and R. M. Thomas, in the hope of getting a five or six-inch irrigation well. This kind of water was not found.

Last week, several members of the club reamed out the hole on the club house site and are now pumping it. At the present time, the well appears to have a capacity of about a three-inch stream. Members state this is not quite enough water.

A small pump will be put on this well, a small pump on another well of about two-inch capacity, and it is likely that two other small wells will be put down on the west side of the tract.

Bases for the greens and tees have been built, the fair ways laid out, and are ready for planting. Roughs were sown in barley, which is still living in spite of the drought and sandstorms.

Sufficient water seems assured to water the grass greens and the area surrounding the greens, but it will likely be necessary to wait for a rainy spell to seed the fairways.

In the meantime, the country club will have to secure considerable water pipe, some of which it hopes to get donated.

Much of the work so far has been done by interested members, including Elliott, Curry, Chapman, Storch, Brown, the Thomas brothers, H. B. McCord Jr., Sonny Roberts, and numerous others.

Members of the club hope to make this a center for clean, wholesome recreation for the entire county. The club has 90-odd paid up members, and many more are expected to come in later, some of whom have been holding back to see if water would be found.

A. D. Riddle, who underwent an operation at Tahoka Hospital Wednesday of last week, was released to return home Wednesday of this week.

Make Rules For Lunchroom Use

Any organization of the community desiring to use the school cafeteria should contact Mr. Milton Gardner, principal of the North Elementary School.

who hasn't seen his sister, is hoping she will be home in about two weeks. The grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Hill of Tahoka and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Frost of Brady, say they will

Fred Edwards At Sunshine Festival

The News has received a copy of the St. Petersburg (Fla.) Times "Sunshine Festival" special edition of 212 pages, which features the big annual celebration of that resort and fishing city.

The paper was sent by Fred Edwards, who with his wife, is spending several months there. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. (Wilson) Edwards, have been spending the past few winters there.

The News force enjoyed browsing over the big edition, and we could imagine that Fred is doing a lot of fishing. If fishing is as good as the paper claims, Fred should have some tall tales to tell his fellow Texans when he returns.

Want to feel like a pilot feels?

HOTTEST BUICK IN HISTORY No wonder you see so many '55 Buicks on the highways —they're rolling up bigger sales than ever before in history—topping the popularity that has already made Buick one of the "Big Three" of America's best sellers.

Today's the day to "Join The Test Pilot Club" and see what a thrill you get when you try Variable Pitch Dynaflo!

We're not kidding. When you try a '55 Buick with Variable Pitch Dynaflo, you'll feel like a pilot does when he heads his plane down a runway for take-off. For you, in the driver's seat, are doing what that pilot does—you're changing the pitch of your propellers—one way for instant response on getaway—another way for better gas mileage in cruising. Your propellers are whirling in oil, deep inside the Dynaflo unit. When you press the pedal in the normal way, you hold those propellers in their economy angle—and you enjoy plenty more miles from your gasoline. But when you want instant acceleration—for quick getaway, or for a sudden safety-surge of emergency power—you just press the pedal way down, and—with absolute smoothness—you get the action you want, and split-second quick. It's the thrill that's the talk of the industry —performance unlike anything you have ever known before on the ground. And so many folks have been asking to try it that we Buick dealers across America have set up April as "Test Pilot Club" Month. All it takes to join the "Club" is a test drive at the wheel of a new Buick. That's all. So we cordially invite you to win your "wings"—to try the spectacular performance of Variable Pitch Dynaflo—and to feel the mighty V8 power that puts the whip to these gorgeous new Buick beauties. Drop in this week. *Dynaflo Drive is standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.

Local Delivered Price of the 1955 Buick SPECIAL Sedan, Model 48 (Illustrated) is less than some models of the best-known smaller cars! Come in and check it!

Said a sleuth: Ah! The mystery's unraveled!— About cars that "take off like a javelin." But with Dynaflo's switch Of its Variable Pitch— as you were here. Now you're there. Boy, that's travelin'! (Why don't you try a Buick?)

W. M. U. HOLDS MISSION PROGRAM

The W. M. U. of the First Baptist Church met Monday at the church for the regular Monthly Mission Program, entitled "Caution: Crowded Island." Those present were informed of our Baptist work in Hong Kong. The program was presented as reports, letters, interviews, eye witness descriptions, and research from Hong Kong missionaries and Chinese Baptist leaders. Those appearing on the program were Mesdames: Terry Noble, Pat Hutchison, T. R. Riddle, Oscar Whitaker, Clifford Harris, Ivan McWhirter, H. B. Howell, and Dub Kenley who came in costume as Mr. C. F. Lam, the most outstanding layman of Hong Kong. Eleven were present for the meeting.

We are happy to announce that girls of Y. W. A. age (16-25) met Tuesday afternoon at 5:00 at the home of Mrs. Garland Pennington for the purpose of organizing a Young Woman's Auxiliary of the First Baptist Church. The points on the Standard of Excellence were reviewed, duties of officers were discussed and the president and vice-president elected. Plans were made for a tea and installation program at the home of Mrs. Garland Pennington on Friday, April 22, at 5:00, for the newly elected officers and chairmen. Mrs. John Martin, pastor's wife at Wilson, and also our Associational Young People's Director will be with us to conduct this program. Girls within the age group are urged to join. Mrs. Pennington and Miss Wanda Roach are counselors for this new organization.

Next Monday the W. M. U. will meet in circles for the study of our new mission book, entitled "Guide for Community Missions." The circles will meet in the following homes: Sharpley, with Mrs. Bryan Wright; Wingo, Mrs. Fulford; Walker, with Mrs. James Huey; and Sallee with Mrs. Carl Williams.

On April 18, 1949, Elre became the Free Republic of Ireland, cutting last ties with Britain.

MISS NATHALEEN MURPHY, GARNER BARHAM MARRY

The News is delatly informed of the recent marriage of Miss Nathaleen Murphy of Lubbock to Garner Barham of Tahoka. They were united in marriage at Clovis, New Mexico, on March 30.

The bride formerly lived here and worked for about two years at Tahoka Hospital. For more than a year, she has been at Lubbock, where her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Murphy, also formerly of Tahoka, now live.

Garner is the son of Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Barham of route 5. Both are graduates of Tahoka High School. Following his graduation, Garner served at "hitch" in the Army.

At the present time, they are making their home at Lubbock, where Garner is doing carpenter work, but he is also working a farm west of town.

"I just don't know how I ever got along without my ELECTRIC CLOTHES DRYER!"

... says Mrs. Orval Wallace
1206 13th STREET
ABERNATHY, TEXAS

"The feature that I like best about the clothes dryer is that it eliminates tiresome trips to the clothesline forever. Why we have a croquet court in our backyard now in the place where the clothesline used to be."

Mrs. Wallace has a completely all-electric laundry, with washer, dryer, ironer and electric water heater.

"The 'problems' of washday are ended with an all-electric laundry. I used to run short of diapers for the baby when the weather was too bad for line drying. Now, I can wash and dry clothes for the children in less than an hour. Also, many of the garments need little or no ironing when they come out of the dryer."

Make your washing, drying, ironing — water heating, too — modern, make them electric.

"I like our electric water heater," Mrs. Wallace says, "because there is always plenty of hot water. It's wonderful, too, to know that electric water heaters are completely safe. There's no chance of a low burning pilot light going out, and my table top model gives me an extra work space for folding and stacking my clothes as I take them out of the dryer."

Japan Is Subject Of Rotary Talk

Paul Canfield, a pilot trainee at Reese Airforce Base, presented the Rotary Club program Thursday noon last week.

He gave a talk on Japan illustrated with color slides, which proved very interesting. Canfield, whose home is in Salt Lake City, spent three years in Japan immediately following World War II as a missionary for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. He was accompanied by Bud Gammon, also of Reese, and Birch Larsen of Tahoka.

Tommy Franklin and Milfred Ratliff, Tahoka High School seniors, were introduced as the Junior Rotarians for the month of April.

Harold Green, president-elect of the club, was elected the club delegate to the Rotary International convention in Chicago, and Dr. Emil Prohl was named the alternate. Truett Smith also expects to attend the convention, which will celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of Rotary.

The club also went on record as favoring a bill before the Texas Legislature which would regulate the distribution of lewd and obscene literature.

Wynne Collier gave the official welcome ceremony for two new members of the club, Robert E. Gibbs and Dr. Noble E. Rumbo.

VISIT MRS. MILT FINCH

Mrs. Charlie Finch of Tahoka and Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Shelton and Linda of Slaton visited in Waco and Hubbard last week with Mrs. Milt Finch and son, Wilbert Finch, and family.

Mrs. Milt Finch, who is almost blind, has been in a hospital at Waco but is now home and able to be up a part of the time.

Wilbert, who works in the big rubber plant at Waco, was recently injured while at work. Although he has his right leg and hip in a brace, he is able to work a part of the time.

The Milt Finch family formerly lived in Tahoka.

CARD OF THANKS

I take this means to say thanks to all who were so nice to me and the family during my illness. Sincere thanks for the prayers, flowers, cards, visits and food brought and other help offered. Special thanks to my pastor, to Dr. Prohl and the staff of nurses. May the Lord bless each bountifully. —Mrs. A. E. Hagens.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. House of Stephenville and Clint House of Midway, father, mother and brother of Mrs. Helen Biggerstaff, visited Helen and Bill over the Easter holidays. Clint is principal of the Midway school.

Allen Nelson Relates Experiences As A Youth In the Blanco Country

BY ALLEN NELSON,
As told to Ben Moore

Most everyone in Texas is taught from boyhood until overtaken by ripe old age that there is absolutely nothing able to act more quickly than can a rattlesnake. Possibly this is true. However, I do know that a Texas boy can, and sometimes does act as quickly, which about evens matters between the two.

Having been reared down along the banks of the Pedernales river, in Blanco county, I doubt that any boy ever killed more squirrels than I did while growing to adulthood. While my father was operating a country store and blacksmith shop, his only son was growing up right in the very lap of Mother Nature.

Along with neighboring boys there was a keen rivalry with each endeavoring to outdo the other in the number of wild bird's nests found during the mating season of the wild creatures. And great was the number of varieties to be found there in that wild section of Texas. Now, in old age, I am glad to think that we were pretty good boys in that we did not molest the mother birds.

But day after day, as we put forth into the brush, often taking along our faithful squirrel dog, parents repeated the admonition, "watch for rattlesnakes." Although I was considered throughout our neighborhood as being about the best hand with what we called a Niggershooter, having killed many squirrels with such a weapon, I had advanced to the age when I was allowed to carry my dad's old double-barrel shotgun on occasions.

My small dog Tasso located a squirrel high up in a pecan tree and I was very busy trying to get a shot, backing up a bit into a patch of berries. There was a dynamic rattling at my heels which caused me to bounce some what like a rubber ball. As my feet struck the ground, the biting end of a rattlesnake struck within a few inches of my feet, proving to me that the whole performance required hardly more than a second's time. The snake was angry and managed to a gain strike, but I had again bounced, firing as I did so without taking particular aim. The snake, which carried ten rattles wounding up minus it's head. Several times thru he years I have dreamed of that frightful experience.

The time has now come when we hear but little discussion of the fact that buffalo used to roam over Texas. Mighty little is said about the fact that they never inhabited the eastern section of the United States. The very thought of their habitation is slipping from the mind of the present generation. Not many years hence they will be mentioned only in a vague manner.

But it wasn't so when I was a small boy. Many fellows could, and did, tell of their experiences in killing buffalo out on the plains of West Texas.

When I removed from Blanco county to Runnels county early in this century the grass covered prairie still had a lot of buffalo horns. We paid no attention to them. Now, we do wish that we had been thoughtful enough to gather them. How nice it would be at this late date to fashion them into odds and ends, reminiscing as we did so. It isn't likely that another buffalo horn from the original animals may ever be picked up, unless possibly in some cave where it was protected. Some were picked up as late as the early thirties.

Of special interest to myself now, and unknown to a great many, is the fact that buffalo horns were often found in Blanco county as late as 1895. The animals are thought of as having lived only in the very open sections of the country. Generally speaking, this is true. Here, we get an interesting angle on the situation.

The Hill Country of central Texas is now so covered with brush that one can hardly see a cow at a distance of one hundred yards. Why should buffalo ever try to live safely in such a country? Well, it was very different, even as I was ushered into that section. When I was a small boy, back in the 1890s, one might often see a cow at a distance of one mile. We can well imagine how the buffalo once grazed over the hills which were covered with tall sedge grass, with timber only along the streams.

Judging from the size of horns which we picked up in Blanco county, compared to those found in West Texas later it seems that the animals, like cattle did not attain as great size down where the grasses do not contain all the proper mineral elements as found in higher altitudes.

Jaycees . . .

the Tahoka Jaycees to sponsor outstanding projects for the betterment of the community, to work hard for their fulfillment, and to maintain optimism.

Krebs suggested that Tahoka might not have had its present city park and swimming pool, if the local club had not started the project on which they apparently failed. The interest aroused may have helped lay the ground work for the city-sponsored project later.

Rufus Rush of Lubbock, national director of the Texas Jaycees installed the new officers and in his introductory remarks stated that the principal aims of the Jaycees are to furnish leadership training among the young men of the community and to carry out civic improvements for the good of all people of the community.

The new officers installed are: Bill Chancy, president; Roy Everett, vice president; Leslie McNeely, secretary; David Massey, treasurer; Dan Curry, Charles McClellan, J. D. Davis, and Regan Reed, directors. The reorganized club now has 20 members, and most were present at the banquet.

Charles McClellan, who did a fine job as master of ceremonies, said that Krebs was actually the father of the Tahoka Jaycees, which he helped organize in 1947, and of which the new president, Bill Chancy, is the only charter member in the reorganized group. He asked the cooperation of all members in making the organization a big success and asked that credit be given where credit is due to members working on various projects of the club.

Bill Chancy pledged the group he would do his best and also asked cooperation in making this organization a credit to the community.

Six Lubbock Jaycees and several other guests were present, including Geno Jones, representing the Tahoka Chamber of Commerce, and himself a past president of the Tahoka Jaycees. Ralls Jaycees had intended having a large delegation, but did not come because of the tragic death of one of that club's leading members Sunday night from injuries in a car wreck.

A fired chicken dinner, with second "helpings," was served by the luncheon staff.

man of O'Donnell. They are furnishing their services free, and will also furnish nurses to help give the shots. Ladies clubs of the county will also help.

Procedures recommended by the national research experts will be followed explicitly. At this time, it is believed there will be three shots with a possible booster shot to follow next year. The first shot will be followed by a second about a week later and the third shot will follow about a month later.

Since the last shot may come after the close of the regular session of school, it will likely be necessary for the children to return to their school for one day in late May or early June to take this last shot.

Parents need not come to school with their children. The vaccination is virtually painless and little or no after-effects are suffered.

Exact date of the immunization shots can not be announced until date of receipt of the vaccine is determined.

However, the shots will be given at the two Tahoka elementary schools on one day. First and second grade students from Grassland and from Dunbar will come to the Tahoka elementary school for their shots.

At O'Donnell shots will be given both Whites and Negroes at the white school.

At New Home, the same procedure will be followed.

At Wilson, students of the Lutheran school will also go to Wilson elementary school for their immunizations.

Parents of first and second grade children, who have not returned the signed request slips are requested to do so at once, so that there will be no hitch in the program when the vaccine arrives and so that all children may take advantage of the immunization.

Mrs. G. W. Forsythe entered Tahoka Hospital last Saturday with pneumonia. Wednesday, she was reported to be recovering nicely.

J. R. Strain Has Farmed In County For 35 Years

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Strain are owners of the above farm place, located a little over a mile south of New Home.

Tom Hale, Jr., was the rural reader and Donald Renfro the first town reader to identify the place correctly. Others calling were Mrs. Don Caraway, Mrs. Strain, Joe Young, Johnny Rain-d, Carlice Edwards, and Mrs. Linnie Finch.

Mr. and Mrs. Strain have been living in Lynn county 35 years, the last 20 years at New Home. They moved from Colorado City in 1920. They farmed at Midway for seven years prior to moving to New Home in 1935.

Their present home place was bought from Bill Balch's father in 1942. This is a 160-acre dry land farm. They also own another 160-acre farm adjoining this one on the southeast, commonly known as the Earl George place, on which they have a small irrigation well. J. R. says the well is not much, but it gives him something to do and provides a little "drouth insurance." He irrigates about thirty acres of cotton from the small well. He also owns some valuable Lubbock city property.

J. R. probably won't like for us to say this, but he has become pretty well-to-do through hard work, watching the pennies and sound investments. And most of his money has been made dryland farming.

Much of his "nest egg" has been made by practicing diversified farming—raising a few cows, hogs, and chickens along with cotton and feed. In fact, he still keeps some livestock on the place. Along the road, he and Mrs. Strain have put in a lot of hard work, but they have managed to maintain a sense of humor and enjoy living.

J. R. was married to Miss Bes-sie Morgan at Electra in 1914. They have two daughters, Mrs. J. B. (Margaret) Edwards, whose husband farms and manages New Home Gin; and Mrs. W. G. (Thelma Ruth) Chapman, whose husband is with government syn-thetic rubber plant at Borger. There are five grandchildren, Sylvia, Larry and Lynn Edwards and Kenny and Johnny Chapman. The Strains have long been ac-tive members of the Methodist Church.

Former Citizen Died Last Week

Arthur W. Maxey, 57, a former resident of the Gordon community, died of a heart attack in Abilene Wednesday of last week, according to a news story in the Abilene Reporter-News brought The News last Saturday by Clyde Thomas.

Funeral services were conducted Thursday at an Abilene funeral chapel by Paul Southern, Church of Christ minister.

Mr. Maxey, who had lived in Abilene 19 years, had retired in 1950 after spending eight years on the police force there.

Survivors include his wife; one daughter, Mrs. Audrey Cope of Compton, Calif.; his father, W. C. Maxey of Baird; two brothers, W. C. Odds AND Ends

(BY E. L. THE ELDER)

Now we are going to resume the recital of the enchanting story which Miss Ross gives us about Nazareth and the people of Galilee in the days of Christ. But the very first paragraph contains enough paths to make the Christian people of the world weep and wail in sackcloth and ashes for the sad state of affairs that has developed in the past centuries in the land where Jesus lived and taught nearly two thousand years ago.

While Miss Ross says that everybody in Nazareth seems to be "happy and contented," she draws a picture of indolence and business stagnancy that gradually eats the strength and vitality of the people like a cancer or a consuming tubercular malady; and in the very next paragraph she observes that about half the village is Moslem and that where the peerless and dynamic Jesus once stood and taught divine truth to the people, now stands or sits issuing the stupid vapors of Moslemism.

But we'll let Miss Ross tell the story. Time: about 1941.

"The streets of Nazareth are narrow and winding; the shops are cave-like holes in the wall, open in the front, where the merchant sits with legs crossed, while the customer stands in the street and bargains. It is a quiet and peaceful place where everybody seems happy and contented. I did not see as many of the lame and the blind here as I had seen in many places in Palestine. At sunset the shops closed and within an hour or more everybody was in bed. I liked to sit near Mary's fountain just at sunset and watch the life of the village. It is not difficult to find men and women, as well as boys and girls, who can speak English, for they have had a school here for a number of years that taught English as one of the subjects. One woman I met, who spoke very good English, told me that she was fifty years old and that she had learned English when she went to school as a little girl in Nazareth. "As about half of the village is Moslem, it also has a Moslem school with all the boys sitting on the dirt floor, swaying back and forth as they shout in unison the verses or texts of the Koran which they are trying to learn. Sometimes the teacher, a swarthy sheik, stands, but usually he sits before his class like a tailor at work. When Jesus was a school boy, the Bible was probably taught to Jewish children in the same way. The boys whom I saw were all bright, alert-looking youngsters, and seemed to be as glad to have visitors show them their accomplishments as is the average boy of the same age in the United States. They have quaint-looking slates, made of pieces of tin, painted black, with Arabic letters painted on them.

"I saw more children playing in Nazareth than in any village in Palestine. The streets near the fountain is a favorite place in which to play late in the evening. One of the larger boys came up to me; he told me his name was Musa, and asked if I did not want a guide. He also wanted to know if I were Greek Orthodox. He said that he was, and he wanted to sell me some candy. He was making money for his church. A group of smaller children, both boys and girls, were playing with stick horses in the middle of the street; three or four boys climbed into an olive tree nearby and were helping themselves to the olives, but the owner of the tree came out and chased them away with switch which he broke from the tree. The children wore gowns or dresses of blue, brown, yellow, or red, and were bare-footed; the boys wore red fez caps and the girls had scarfs on their heads. The public threshing floor is on one side of the village and is a favorite playground for the children when it is not being used for threshing grain. Here the boys play marbles, tag, hide-and seek, and blind man's buff. The boys usually play by themselves, running and playing and laughing. It is easy to think of the young boy Jesus and his friends playing in the same manner and in these same streets years ago.

"A few miles from Nazareth, on the way to the Sea of Galilee, we passed the village Kefr Kenna, the site of ancient Gana of Galilee — and Nathanael's home town—the place where the first miracle of Jesus was wrought. (John 2:1-11). The The spring is right by the roadside, and as there is only one, it must have been from there that the water which was turned into wine was obtained.

"The wedding feast in Cana of Galilee was very real to me when I attended a wedding celebration in a village in the Lebanon not such a great distance from Cana. The 'go between' or 'match-maker' had arranged the most important part of the marriage proposal — the sum offered as a dowry by the bridegroom's father. In the bridegroom's house there had been singing and dancing for five evenings, but in the bride's house there was no rejoicing, for they were losing a member of their family. When all the preliminaries were settled the bride was placed on a horse at her father's house, with head and face completely covered with a thick veil. Her father's brother led the horse, followed by her women friends, singing and giving their cries of joy, called, 'zugarat.' As the procession reached the house of the bridegroom, her uncle led the horse up to the front door; and as he lifted her from the horse she reached up and plastered a piece of bread-dough on the jamb of the doorway directly over her head. (This was a sign of good housewifely qualities, so I was told.) Then she was carried through the doorway by her uncle. She was led to a corner of the room where she sat for some time, still covered with her veil. After a time she allowed her women friends to uncover her face, and examine her dress and jewels. The dress was of needle work, made negligee style. And there was a great display of rings and bracelets. Her hands and nails were stained henna.

"The bridegroom and his men friends had assembled on the village threshing floor, where the celebrated by eating, drinking, smoking and telling stories. It was at this time that the men guests gave the bridegroom presents of money, and the bridegroom carried until the last coin had been given. In the meantime the bride and her party waited, for none of us knew when the bridegroom was coming. Suddenly there was a great noise, beating of drums and firing of guns. The entire village knew the bridegroom had started. How clear the story of the wise and foolish virgins seemed here.

"While the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept.

"And at midnight there was a cry made, Behold, the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him.

"Then all those virgins arose and trimmed their lamps.

"And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil; for our lamps are gone out.

"But the wise answered, saying, Not so; lest there be not enough for us and you; but go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves.

"And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage; and the door was shut. (Cont'd. On Next Page) door was shut. "Afterward also came the other virgins, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us. "But he answered and said, Verily I say unto you, I know you not." (Matt. 25:5-12). "In excavating in Palestine many tiny little clay lamps are found which will hold not more than two ounces of oil. These lamps are called 'virgin lamps,' and it is easy to understand why an extra measure of oil was necessary while waiting for the bridegroom.

"Many people had been invited to the wedding feast, but the 'Governor' or manager of the feast had no idea how many guests he would have—such was the case at the marriage in Cana when the supply of wine was exhausted, and the mother of Jesus told Christ they had no wine. At this time he performed His first miracle of turning the water into wine at the marriage in Cana. (John 2).

"During the dancing before the wedding feast, as well as afterward, the men danced in a circle by themselves and the women did likewise. They asked me to join the dance, which I did. And in their oriental politeness they assured me that I executed the steps perfectly, but with my western frankness I knew they were being polite.

"It is probable that Cana, like the other cities and villages of Galilee, was much larger in Jesus time than it is now. Another five miles brings us to the Lake of Galilee—"Oh Galilee, blue Galilee"—still lovely in its setting, thirteen miles long and seven wide, lying in a deep depression six hundred and eighty-two feet below sea level. It is entirely circled by mountains, two hundred to twelve hundred feet high except at the entrance and the exit of the waters of the Jordan. It is a very different place, however, from the Lake of Galilee that Jesus knew, for here, in the Master's time, and for some time afterwards, there were many cities upon its shores, and the country was teeming with commerce and life from many lands. There were money changers, tax collectors, as well as fishermen, but that is all gone. There is very little life about the lake now except scattered Bedouin camps—and the will life of the country. Of the nine cities located on the shores of the lake when Jesus taught here, only Tiberias remains. The medical hot springs, that caused Herod Antipas to want to build a city here, are still to be seen near the present location of Tiberias. And sick folks still come from Syria, Palestine and Trans-Jordan to be healed at these springs, just as they no doubt did in Jesus' time. Although there were many more than now, the gathering there of many hundreds of sick people must have been the reason for the great number who want to see Jesus, at nearby Capernaum, to be healed.

"During Christ's time, Tiberias was considered unclean because Herod had built it over an old Jewish cemetery. We have no record that Christ ever went into Tiberias.

The little Sea of Galilee was noted for its sudden storms. Miss Ross will remind us of this peculiar characteristic of this little body of water next week, but surely it was not more noted for its sudden squalls than Texas is noted for its sudden blizzards and occasional tornadoes. West Texas, during the month of March, and particularly during the last half of the month, was the victim of one sudden storm after another. Sometime the disturbance came in the form of a blizzard, sometime in the form of a sand-storm, and one was just about as disagreeable as the other. The last week of March this year has probably never had its parallel as a stormy period of like length at this period of year since civilized man has driven the Indian and the buffalo from off these plains. The month brought us a little snow and spotted sprinkles of rain, but as a rule the elements have been just about as dry as they have been stormy. People are hoping that this year will be a better crop year in Lynn county than it has experienced in the several years of the recent past. And yet, the people of Lynn county have no reason to complain. A crop of 108,000 bales of cotton is not a bad record for

Dr. Asper is best known for his recitals on Sunday morning from the Mormon Tabernacle in Salt Lake City over a national radio network.

All organ music lovers are invited to attend the program. There is no admission charge, but a "free will" offering will be taken.

T. Garrard, formerly of Tahoka and now a postal clerk at Seagraves, was here Monday visiting his dad, Tom Garrard.
