Locker Buys Amphibian Plane, Gets Dealership For Sailplanes

Morgan Locker, Muleshoe flying service owner, returned Friday from a ten day business and pleasure trip to Maine and New York.

Locker flew Braniff Airliner from Lubbock to Sanford, Maine for a business meeting with Jack Strayer, President of the Colonial Aircraft Corp.

While there, he obtained his water rating under the supervision of Colonial's test pilot, Wien Young and also purchased an Amphibian Skimmer, which he flew the remainder of his trip.

The four-place amphibian should be of special interest to the fishermen. It is as much at home on the water as on land, and has a cruising speed of approximately 130 miles per hour which will enable a fishing party to be fishing within a short time after take-off.

From Sanford, Locker went to Schenectady, N. Y., where he visited friends, on to New York City for a sight seeing tour that included a visit to the United Nations Building, R. C. A.'s Radio City at Rockefeller Center and other points of interest, then to Elmira, N. Y.

There he acquired the Dealership for Schweizer Sailplanes and purchased a new 2-22 sailplane trainer. The trainer plane should arrive here at the airport this week. A scoring school will begin immediately.

Locker states that his return trip was very interesting. The landing of the Skimmer at Mansfield, Ohio; Springfield, Mo.; Oklahoma City, and on several lakes along the way drew large crowds of people. He was detained in Oklahoma City for quite some time by the crowd that gathered to see the plane.

BOWLING WINNERS
Jim Ward is fitting Glenna Buhrman for the bowling ball she won in the Bowling School for Beginners.

The pool opened Monday, Memorial Day, and although it was pretty cool because of the Sunday night rain, the management reported a good crowd of swimmers.

Season tickets are on sale, and the concession stand is open. Coach Callan is the manager and Mrs. Callan manages the concession stand.

Oliver Headed For Texas University

Derrell Oliver, one of the best athletes ever to come out of Muleshoe's High School, signed a letter of intent with the University of Texas Longhorns Monday of this week.

Oliver was one of the most sought-after high school grid-ironers of the West Plains, as more than a dozen schools wooed him for his football ability.

Oliver holds an even dozen individual records set at Muleshoe high, out of 19 records set for Muleshoe. Derrell had perhaps his best night against the Rams of Portales last year when he accounted for 25 points while running for 301 net yards for the one night's efforts.

Derrell had the distinction of lettering all four years while at MHS, starting at left end his freshman year. He has also played every position in the backfield.

Oliver has made the All-district team twice, in 1958 and again in 1959. He also made All-South Plains second team in '59, and received honorable mention on the team in 1958.

Derrell has been invited to play in the football game in Amarillo on August 20, when the Sod Busters, members of Class B and AA pit their talents against the City Slickers, boys from AAA and AAAA schools.

Although not up to par after the Friona game last year, Oliver saw action in every game, in some just for three plays. This was enough to make the scouts from the universities and colleges to watch his progress.

Among the universities and colleges bidding for his talent were University of Texas, University of Oklahoma, University of Colorado, University of New Mexico, Texas A & M, SMU, TCU, Texas Tech, New Mexico State, West Texas State, and ENMU.

Derrell stated he wanted to thank all the people who were instrumental in getting him the scholarship, and all his friends for every word of encouragement to him.

Journal-Corner Drug Election Party Set To Begin At 7:00 P.M.

The run-off primary election the coming Saturday, June 4, is featured in Bailey County by a local race and a district race in which the people are vitally interested.

Jesse M. Osborn, of Muleshoe, is running for re-election as representative in the Legislature for the 96th Texas district, composed of Bailey, Lamb, Castro, Deaf Smith, and Farmer counties. He is opposed by Clarence Hamilton, of Earth.

COMMISSIONERS RACE

In the run-off for Commissioner, Precinct 1, Bailey County, are R. O. Gregory and I. M. "Ike" Stinson. The polls will open in the seven voting boxes of the county at 8 o'clock and close at 7 p.m.

ELECTION PARTY

The Journal and the Corner Drug will conduct their election party as usual with a board on the north wall of the store. Every effort will be made to obtain election results in the county and from the other counties of the district as quickly as possible.

Results in the county commissioner race, since the Muleshoe box is the only one in the precinct, ought to be available in a few minutes after the polls close.

ELECTION SET FOR JULY 5

Copies Of Proposed Home Rule Charter In Hands Of Voters

Printed copies of Muleshoe's proposed Home Rule Charter are being mailed this week to every qualified voter in the city, so citizens may have time to read and study the provisions of the charter prior to the July 5 election date.

City employees reported early this week they had received the charters from the printers, and were addressing them to citizens of the city.

The law requires that each voter be furnished with a copy of the proposed charter prior to the election date.

The proposed home rule charter election has been set for July 5 in city hall, by the city council at a special session several days ago. Provisions of the proposed home rule charter include the employment of a city manager to work full time administering the business affairs of the city. Other provisions for the enactment of additional legislation to that already in the general statutes of the State of Texas.

Each of the 11 articles making up the proposed charter deals with some facet of city administration.

Article I defines the type of government as the Council-Manager form, and details the powers granted the city council and the city manager. Article II defines the powers of the city under the civil statutes. Article III outlines the duties of the council and provides for a zoning ordinance, a building code and a planning commission. Article IV deals with the administrative services of the city, such as the fire department, police department and city court. Article V tells how elections must be conducted by the city. Article VI sets out methods of recalling officers guilty of misconduct, etc. Article VII tells how initiative and referendum actions may be exercised by the people. In Article VIII, the rules for platting and development of additional portions, are laid out. Article IX deals with municipal finance, the budget and tax assessment procedures. Article X is on franchises, their granting, control and extension. Article XI provides general regulations.

It is pointed out by the Charter Planning Commission, which drew up the proposed charter, that adoption of the charter will mean more efficient government, more business-like government, and more opportunity for growth of the community under planned development.

Citizens who have questions concerning any detail of the proposed charter may call the Chamber of Commerce, where an information service has been provided for that purpose.

BIRTHDAY DINNER

A lovely birthday dinner was given in the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Mills Sunday, May 22, honoring Lula Epperly and Jane Epperly. Pictures were taken and they received many gifts.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Epperly of Littlefield, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Epperly of Segall, Mr. and Mrs. Odie Epperly and Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Mills of Muleshoe.

Rains Boost Crop Outlook Over Area

Rain was once again heralded into Bailey County shrouded in a skyfull of brilliant lightning displays. The storm roared into town in the eleventh hour Sunday night. By morning it dumped 1.15 inches of rain on Muleshoe which had received only .03 moisture in all the preceding 28 days of May. Scattered showers Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights were of lawn sprinkling magnitude.

Irrigation pumps, which have been working late into the nights, will now be able to get a rest. The rain came in time to help some irrigated wheat and other grain crops, but the dry land growers chances of making better grain

The Memorial Day weekend produced half again as much water as the previous five months. Total precipitation for the year stands at 3.61 compared to our normal of 5.43. May rounded out at 1.21 after getting off to a dry start... this is 1.42 below our May normal. We are still 1.82 down for the year.

We May Get Too Much!
Now our moisture supply has been turned back on. It may be well for everyone in Bailey County to be on the lookout for the shut-off valve. It might take some time to close it again.

He Predicts Again
More light rains loom in the crystal ball for June 3 and 4. Heavier rainfall will probably not take place before the next issue of the "Journal" so we'll save that event for our June 9 issue. Precipitation for the coming week should be about .50 inch.

Temperatures for the coming week are expected to read:

Date	Low	High	Deviation from Normal
Thurs.	63	90	4
Fri.	65	92	6
Sat.	64	91	5
Sun.	56	83	-4
Mon.	58	85	-2

Kirk Family Expresses Thanks To All The Community People

Supt. Jerry Kirk and family will be leaving soon for Elk City, Okla., where he has accepted the position of school superintendent, after having spent all of his teaching career in the Muleshoe school system. As the time draws near for them to leave the community, they have written a letter of appreciation and thanks to the people, which The Journal reprints here:

We would like to take this opportunity to express our appreciation to all of the people who had a part in giving us the lovely silver tea and coffee service, with serving cart and the beautiful eight-day clock.

We shall always remember you and hope that if you are ever in Elk City, that you will come by to see us.

We would also like to say thanks for you allowing us to work in the Muleshoe schools for the past 15 years. There will always be a warm spot in our hearts for the people in this community and for the Muleshoe schools.

We especially appreciate the many fine people in this community who have always supported the schools, and have helped us to have a good school in Muleshoe.

I believe that the Muleshoe schools have made much progress in the last eight to ten years. I assure you that I am seeking no credit for these improvements. I believe the credit should go to the teachers, principals, students and to the patrons who have supported and worked hard for better schools.

I am especially proud of the student body of the Muleshoe schools. I think that they are not just one of the best, but the best student body in Texas, and I wish much success to each of them.

I hope for everyone in this community the best of everything, and may God's richest blessings be with you always. JERRY R. KIRK & FAMILY

Grow Grass On Marginal Lands

Here is shown a pasture of Weeping Love Grass on the Bert Mathis farm, 7 miles south of Muleshoe.

Much of our agricultural land today may be classified as marginal. This means that it is doubtful as to whether a profit can be had by farming it. This land should be planted to grass and taken out of cultivation. Much of the land which is marginal has become so because man has allowed it to erode through his management or cultural practices.

Grasses are a must for protecting and rebuilding this marginal land to a higher fertility and productive level. Grasses can also be used to good advantage on our best farm land. By using grasses in a systematic rotation, the fertility of the soil can be increased and the organic matter content maintained or raised.

Grass also provides a protective cover for the surface of the soil to guard against wind and water erosion. The large amounts of residues and roots produced by grass do much to open the soil up to air and water movement and to improve the tilth and general soil condition.

Why not try grass in your crop rotation or on the shallow, non-profitable land you are farming. For assistance contact the Soil Conservation Service.

Mrs. Clyde Monk and Linda spent the week-end in Quitaque with the W. J. Carters, and attended graduation, Friday.

Terracing Activity Noted On Many Blackwater Valley Farms

There has been quite a bit of terracing activity going on in the district this past fall and winter. Approximately 80 miles have been constructed. Some of the farmers that have constructed terraces are E. A. Glenn, R. E. Ethridge, of the Longview community.

Mr. Glenn constructed about 5 miles of terraces and Ethridge constructed 2 miles and built up about another mile. Near Siegall, M. C. Butler and E. D. Jackson have constructed 12 and 6 miles respectively. The McDonald estate south of Baileyboro have built several miles of terraces and diversions. Several other cooperatives have built terraces during the past year.

Terraces are generally thought of as being needed on land that is steep and has gully erosion. While terraces definitely are needed on this type of land, they are also needed on flatter land that has only sheet erosion which is not as noticeable. The land can gradually wash away without the farmer realizing that it is washing. Sheet erosion may take as much as an inch of topsoil a year from a field.

This does not sound like much but over a period of years this can mount up. Also a factor usually overlooked is the amount of water terraces hold on the land that normally would be lost by runoff. This moisture that is saved may mean the difference between making a crop and crop failure. Moisture holding is especially beneficial on flat land because the terrace will back the water up farther and cover more acres.

Terracing activity in the past few years has been rather slow. This is partly due to the dry years we have had and to the type of terraces constructed in the early 1950's. Terrace specifications have been changed to make them wider at the base and thus more farmable. The distance between terraces has been widened some. This terrace interval change will help some on flatter land but will not change the spacing much on steeper slopes. If your farm has gulleys or is gradually creeping away due to sheet erosion or you would like to hold all the moisture that falls on the land, drop by the local Soil Conservation Service office and we will assist you with your problems.

LONE STAR AGRICULTURE

COTTONSEED MARGINS OF COOPERATIVE GINS

Cottonseed, once a waste product of the cotton industry, has become an important agricultural product, which contributes to our economy in the form of human food, animal feed and their valuable products.

The competitive market position of cottonseed has been improved by major developments in processing along with improvement in cotton production. In 1959 the Texas cotton crop was valued at almost 737 million dollars at the farm level, and cottonseed accounted for over 72 million dollars of this total. Seed normally contributes 10 to 15 per cent of the total value of the cotton crop.

More seed go to the crushers every year and fewer seed are returned to the farm for feed. The modern ### cotton producer prefers to feed cake and hulls and to plant certified seed.

Cotton gins are practically the only market available to farmers for their cottonseed. The prices which gins receive from cottonseed oil mills presumably determine the price farmers receive from the gins for their cottonseed. However, the margins between the mill prices and prices paid farmers are affected by the operating methods of the gins and their buying and selling practices, which in turn affect the costs of handling cottonseed.

A recent study by the department of Agricultural Economics and Sociology at College Station shows that seven factors in the cottonseed buying and selling practices affect four of these factors affect the gross margins on cottonseed. Four of these factors affect the margins directly and two are minor or contributing factors at all gins; one factor affects only cooperative gins.

Seasonal price changes, purchase weights, mill grading and transportation allowances affect margins directly. Seasonal movement of cottonseed is correlated with seasonal price change. Harvesting method contribute to gains or losses in the purchasing weights at the gins. At cooperative gins, the oil mill patron dividend on cottonseed purchases affects the margin.

By evaluating these factors, ginners should be able to improve the efficiency of operations, thus lowering costs and enabling the gins to pay a greater proportion of the mill price to farmers.

The Sandhills Philosopher Says

He's Sorry Cities Not Growing Faster, But Don't Look To Him

Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm reviews the census situation this week without being very helpful.

Dear editor:
 Some of the preliminary census figures have been coming in, according to the newspapers I've been reading lately, and as I understand it a lot of towns and cities are downright miserable about it. Many of them want a re-count.

Despite the fact a lot of cities already have more people than they can provide paved streets for, some of them have more than they can provide police protection for, they still want to get bigger and bigger and to have the census figures show their population gained only half as much as they figured it had, is a blow to civic pride. To have it actually show a decrease, is considered a major catastrophe. To have it double in size, is a cause for hand-springs.

I don't understand this, I've got as many people living around me as I want, and I figure most of my neighbors are as close to me as they care about being, but still I can't see where us country folks can be of much help to the towns and cities.

I mean, for the past twenty-five years we've been culling as fast as we can, to where the farm population has dropped from 30 per cent of the total population of this country to only 10 per cent, but still the cities aren't satisfied. Oh, I'll admit, we might have a few stragglers and low producers left we could send into town to swell the census figures next time (don't look at me, I ain't going, even if I do qualify), but anybody who understands arithmetic knows that if us farmers just have 10 per cent of the population left, even if all of us moved to town, cities could show only a 10 per cent increase, and that won't pacify many chambers of commerce. Also, it would completely eliminate the farm problem, and how're you going to have a Presidential race without a farm problem.

Consequently, it looks like the problem from here on out is up to the towns and cities,

BABSON DISCUSSES

Preparing For Further "Colder" War

Babson Park, Mass., June 2. My ideas on the international situation have been covered in the last two weeks. I especially refer to the reaction of other countries to the U-2 spy incident — particularly those countries in which we have bases—and the subsequent collapse of the Summit conference. I now want to suggest what conservative investors will take into consideration in preparing for a continued cold—and perhaps a "colder"—war between Russia and the United States.

WHAT SHOULD BE DONE ABOUT EQUITIES

With few exceptions, most investors will think it risky to buy equities at this time. Money in the bank will appear to them better just now than stocks or possibly undeveloped real estate. It looks as if Mr. Khrushchev may be calling a turn in the bull market. It is a good time to take advice from some banker or an investment counselor in whom you have faith. Sensible people will not get panicky and rush either to buy or sell stocks; but will play safe to avoid unnecessary worry. There will be no war this year.

Bonds may be a good purchase,—at least they will give good security, perhaps better than good stocks will give. Of course, some people will advise against buying bonds for fear of inflation. However, I believe that inflation has been anticipated for the time being by the considerable discount at which bonds are selling. This discount has primarily been due to the increase in money rates. These higher money rates, however, have been largely offset by the discount at which many good bonds are selling. If you have any doubts, compare their current yields with the yields on good stocks.

A Few Bond Illustrations

American Telephone & Telegraph Co. 2 7/8 coupon due in 1982. These are selling around 72 and yielding about 3.65%.

Chicago Rock Island & Pacific Railroad 2 7/8 coupon due 1980. These are selling around 75 and yielding about 3.80%.

Northern Pacific Railroad Co. 3% coupon due 2047. These are selling around 60 and yielding about 5.00%.

Commonwealth Edison Co., 2 7/8 coupon due 2001. These are selling around 70 and yielding about 4.10%.

Cleveland Electric Illuminating Co., 2% coupon due in 1985. These are selling around 71 and yielding about 3.85%.

The above examples include the leading telephone company, two railroad companies, and two excellent utility companies.

Personally, I would rather buy the bonds of an electric power company which serves smaller communities than one which is primarily located in a large city that might be bombed in case of World War III. As investors usually buy bonds to keep for a considerable length of time, it is well to give some consideration to the possibility that World War III could start before most good bonds mature.

Other Attractive Considerations

The properties of the telephone company, and also of certain railroads, are so well diversified over large areas, and in many cases own such valuable mineral and oil rights, that they should be attractive possibilities for investment. Even if their terminals were temporarily disrupted, or even destroyed, they would be quickly restored. Hence, I again cite the American Telephone & Telegraph and the Northern Pacific bonds as offering excellent

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICE

The spiritual foundation of the universe including man will be emphasized at Christian Science services Sunday in the Lesson-Sermon "God the Only Cause and Creator".

Opening selections from the Bible will include this verse from Isaiah (46:9): "Remember the former things of old: for I am God, and there is none else; I am God, and there is none like me."

A correlative citation to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy states (331:18-24):

"God is individual, incorporeal. He is divine Principle, Love, the universal cause, the only creator, and there is no other self-existence. He is all-inclusive, and is reflected by all that is real and eternal and by nothing else. He fills all space, and it is impossible to conceive of such omnipresence and individuality except as infinite Spirit or Mind."

Parmer County Farm Bureau News

The Poage farm bill, according to Washington Correspondent Glenn Martz, has not a single sponsor east of the Mississippi or south of the Mason-Dixon line. Farm Bureau, in every state, opposes this same bill which would make the farmer's income dependent directly upon the whims of congress each year, with very little if any initiative for the individual to better himself.

It seems that the American citizen hasn't much choice in the list of presidential candidates. It is very difficult to determine differences in their attitudes on Federal Aid to Education, Socialized Medicine, the Loyalty Oath for college students using federal funds for their education, or the Connally Amendment that retains the right of the United States to determine whether cases concerning citizens of this country should come under American or United Nations Court Jurisdiction.

In regard to the latter, UN World Court, when it is known that there could many years when not a single representative from the United States would sit on the court, it makes you shudder to think of having a case come before it. We Americans have become accustomed to the rights guaranteed us by the Constitution to such an extent, that it is hard to believe that a candidate for the presidency would advocate placing those rights in the hands of people who have never considered the rights of the individual citizen of much importance. If there has ever been a time when Christian Americans needed to demonstrate the "faith of their fathers" in the God of Creation, we believe it is now. We need to claim the promise that he made to his people that "Prayer Changes Things" (and people).

Donald Christian, Vice-president, still expresses his appreciation to the majority of you members who send in your dues when statements are received. He also urges those who are not members to look and decide if they would not like to become members, too.

CONSIDER THIS: Whose hatred is covered by deceit, his wickedness shall be showed before the whole congregation. Proverbs 26:26.
