Contract Let For Roadside Park

Contract for completion of the East roadside park north of Tahoka on US Highway 87 has been let to Rhode Pipe Company of Silverton, with completion expected in 100 days, announces O. L. Crain, district engineer, Texas Highway Department. Parks in Hale and Crosby counties are included in the contract, work awarded on a low bid of $41,969.05 for the three projects, and will include arbors, water systems, and seeding. The Lynn county park already has arbors and some other installation, and work here will consist mostly of water well, piping, and landscaping. This rest area will serve northbound traffic mostly. The older Lynn county roadside park to the north of the new one serves southbound traffic. This park has become recognized as one of the outstanding beauty spots in the Southwest developed by the Highway Department, and pictures of it have appeared in national publications. Local people have suggested the park should be named "Eugene Munsell Park" for the local highway maintenance man who has been largely responsible for developing the beauty spot.

Hospital District Proposal Will Be Presented Voters

Lynn county citizens will have an opportunity to vote on a proposal to set up a Lynn County Hospital District and issuance of bonds to build a hospital, possibly with funds matched by the Federal government. This decision was recently reached by the Lynn County Hospital Committee, set up to study proposals and make recommendations. As a result of the decision, permission to form the district will have to be granted through a special bill passed by the Texas Legislature, and is now the case in all public hospital district proposals. The local committee has approved a rough draft of the proposed bill to be presented to the Legislature as soon as possible in January. Following passage of the bill, an election will be called on the issue. A slate of provisional directors for the proposed district has been named and consists of E. R. Blakney of New Home, John Ellis of O'Donnell, Elmer Blankenship of Wilson, W. T. Kidwell, Clint Walker, Borden Davis and Garland Thornton.

Library Friends Plan Campaign

Official word has been received from the Department of Internal Revenue that the newly formed Lynn County organization, the Friends of the Lynn County Library, has been approved for accepting tax deductible donations. The Friends organization was recently formed to add to the county-wide interest in the development and utilization of the County Library facilities. Before contributions could be accepted for this purpose, the ruling which designates the organization as a tax exempt non-profit organization was necessary. Friends of the Library President, Ralph Beistle, is announcing the receipt of this ruling, states that any contribution donated by Saturday night, December 31st will count as a deduction on 1966 income tax reports and also help to provide books for the Lynn County Library to loan to students in any of the county schools, or any citizen of the county. Although the library has approximately 10,000 volumes, there is still a need for enlarging the number available and for purchasing new books which are continually coming off the presses. During January, the Friends of the Library group is planning to kick-off a publicity campaign being planned by a committee under the chairmanship of Dr. Pat Brecheen of Tahoka, and a Membership Drive being planned by a committee headed by Mrs. Leland White. Although Membership in the Friends is obtained by a donation of $1.00, it is hoped that some business and organizations will want to contribute more to aid the rapid improvement of Library service.

Religious Survey Over Tahoka Area Planned

The 1967 Area Religious Survey will get underway with the beginning of the New Year in Tahoka and the surrounding area. The preachers of most of the churches in Tahoka have been planning this joint venture for two or three months with a view toward securing information which would help to make the services the churches provide more meaningful in the community. The need for such a survey is the result of observation that as many as 4,000 residents of Tahoka are not participating in worship activities or spiritual service any where on the average Sunday. This comprehensive survey is expected to assist in determining how the churches may meet the needs of the community as well as the compilation of information of the religious composition of the area. The first effort to secure the completed survey forms will be accomplished this Sunday morning, when each of the participating churches will distribute to all families present the blank forms with instructions to return them on that date. Assuming that many families will still be enjoying the holiday vacation, a follow-up effort will be made Sunday, January 8th. After this date, a door-to-door canvass will begin with the goal of securing the completed survey form from each family during the month of January. As the survey forms are gathered, volunteer workers will compile the information and make it available to the Lynn County News as well as each participating church. The cooperation of each family is earnestly solicited. If you are among the citizens of Tahoka who may not be present for religious services the next two Sundays for any reason, you can help make this effort a success by preparing the information form printed in the ad found in this week's paper and taking it, or sending it to any of the churches in the community, or by having it filled out and ready to hand to the census taker when he calls at your home.

Gary Gunnels Hurt In Explosion While On Christmas Visit

Gary Gunnels, about 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Gunnels, received severe burns in an explosion in Axtex, New Mexico, while visiting a cousin there last Thursday, Dec. 22. Gary has burns on the face, back, and arm, and is in San Juan Hospital at Farmington, N.M., but his mother writes The News he probably will be moved to the Lamson Hospital about Monday. He and three others were injured when an explosion rocked Reynolds' Shell Station in Axtex Thursday afternoon. Two heavy garage doors were buckled by the blast and a window was blown out of the office. Weldon Reynolds, 42, owner of the station and a brother of Milton Reynolds of Tahoka, had to drive a pickup through one garage door to reach his son, Mike Reynolds, 15, and the nephew, Gary Gunnels. The latter, his clothes still smoldering, was admitted to San Juan Hospital at 2:40 p.m., less than 15 minutes after the blast, police said. The boys were cleaning a wash rack when some gasoline apparently became ignited from contact with a gas heater. The Reynolds boy was treated for face burns and released, and his father and another man, George Livingston, 39, were treated for flash eye burns and released.

Warning Issued on Mail Box Damage

Mailboxes are protected by Federal law, and pranksters or vandals who damage or destroy the boxes and their contents may be in for a heavy fine or imprisonment. Postmaster Charles Townes warned today.

The Postmaster noted that some 25,000 mail receptacles were damaged or destroyed in the past year. It was also noted that 2,641 persons were arrested in the year up to June 30 for damaging or destroying mail receptacles.

Postmaster Townes quoted from the law: "Whoever wilfully or maliciously injures, tears down or destroys any letterbox or other receptacle intended or used for the receipt or delivery of mail on any mail route, or breaks open the same or wilfully or maliciously injures, defaces or destroys any mail deposited therein, shall be fined not more than $1,000 or imprisoned not more than three years."

This applies to all mail receptacles and the mail in them, even though the boxes are bought by citizens and are their personal property, the Postmaster emphasized.

"Pranksters — and especially children who do not know any better — should be made to realize the seriousness of their actions, the Postmaster said. "A $1,000 fine or a term in jail is enough to take the humor out of any prank."

Often the mailbox damage is the work of youths, who do it for "kicks." And the courts have shown little sympathy for this youthful means of expression. In Michigan, a justice sentenced two 18-year olds to 10 days in jail, including two on a diet of baby food. The diet specifications, explained the judge, was because the youths "acted like babies." They were also fined $25 each plus $15 costs.

In New York state, five youths were fined $25 each plus restitution or restoration, plus no driving for an indefinite period, plus an 8 p.m. curfew, plus a written analysis by each of a magazine article entitled "A Judge Gets Tough on Hoodlums."

Two Iowa youths who damaged 39 mailboxes were required to personally apologize to each boxholder in addition to making repairs or providing a new box.

In Missouri, three 17-year olds lost their driving privileges, were given a 9 p.m. curfew, and had to report twice weekly to juvenile authorities. They had damaged 63 mailboxes.

And in Arkansas, four juveniles faced the following: (1) no driving, until further notice, (2) a 10 p.m. curfew, (3) return to court in a month with letters from their school principals reporting on grades and attitudes, (4) full restitution of all damages, and (5) wear a sign for 30 days stating "I have not learned to respect the property of others."

TOMMY KIDWELL

Kidwell Named All-South Plains

Tommy Kidwell, 185-pound senior guard on the Tahoka Bulldogs football team this past fall, has been named to the Avalanche-Journal's All-South Plains Dream Team, "the cream of the crop among area football players," as described by Bill Hart, the newspaper's area sports editor.

Kidwell, the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Kidwell, was selected to the defensive team, but he was also outstanding on offense, leading many plays as pull-out blocker.

The "Dream Team" was made up of 22 players, 10 from Class AAA schools, six from Class A, three from Class AA and two each from Class B and Eight-Man.

Also named to the "Dream Team" was Tom Curry, 212 tackle at Kress, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bob Curry and grandson of Mrs. Wiley Curry.

Others on the team that Tahoka played included Don Windham, Post, end; Dan Fields, Plains tackle; and Winn Robinson, Crosbyton linebacker. On the second team were Tom Armstrong, Kress end; Dale Layne, Idaho guard; Paul Walker, Post back; and Ricky Emper, Plains back.

In the Class A All-Regional named last week by the Avalanche-Journal, Kidwell was also named as a guard along with the other Class A boys mentioned above.

In addition, Milton Edwards, 215 senior Bulldog and son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Edwards, was named to the second team as a guard.

Cliff Thomas, 185 pound junior halfback, son of Dr. and Mrs. Skiles Thomas, who missed last half of the season because of injuries, was given special recognition. Hart says, he would have pressed some one for first team, but was named to a six-man back field on the second team.

Incidentally, seven players on the first team and five on the second were from schools Tahoka played. Seven of these were from teams Tahoka defeated, the other five from Plains and Seagraves.

Cocher Dempsey Alexander of Spur nosed out Coach Don Smith of Tahoka for coach of the year honors, Hart wrote in his story.

Several Groups Give Christmas Cheer To Patients At LaVoy's

Tahoka Girl Scouts presented a Christmas program and sang carols to residents of LaVoy's Nursing Home last week, according to Mrs. Morris Bingham.

A group of Future Homemakers of America from O'Donnell, accompanied by their advisor, Mrs. Warren Smith, brought persons at the home a bag of homemade cookies and sang carols one day recently.

The 3 and 4 Class of the Methodist Sunday School made Bible markers for each resident of the home and went to the home Sunday morning at 10:30 and sang Christmas carols.

Mrs. Bingham says the men and women of the home appreciate the Sunday School class held each Sunday morning by Warren McKibben, and the services of the local ministers and churches.

Votes were counted in the two contests that have been underway for a few months, revealing Darlene Gurley as the "Sweetheart of the Temple" and Dorothy Kidwell as "Pythian of the Year."

The next meeting will be January 3, and the installation of officers will be January 17.

5,575 Males Sent To Job Corps

The Texas Employment Commission referred 5,575 Texas male youth to Job Corps for assignment to training centers in fiscal 1966, the TEC annual report to Governor Connally revealed this week.

TEC has acted as recruiting, screening and referral agent for the Job Corps since the program began, with the first request for eligible referrals reaching TEC in November 1965. Of the 5,575 youths referred between that date and August 30, 1965, approximately 85 per cent actually reported to a training center. The remainder had found work, entered military service, declined for family reasons, or for other reasons did not enter the program when notice of selection arrived.

Through November 30, TEC offices had referred 9,249 male Texas youth 16 through 21 to the Job Corps, with an estimated 8,000 of these actually reporting to a training center. This ranks Texas second only to California in the number of male youth participating in the Job Corps training program.

Female youth are recruited and referred to training centers by an organization of volunteer women known as Women in Community Service. TEC plays no part in the Job Corps program for girls.

Miss Sandra Lumsden, Wm. Chas. Smith Take Marriage Vows In Wilson Church

Miss Sandra Lumsden and William Charles Smith, Jr., were united in marriage Dec. 27th. The First Baptist Church of Wilson was the scene of double ring wedding vows read by the Rev. H. F. Scott, pastor of First Baptist Church, Seagraves.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Wm. G. Lumsden of Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Smith of Crowell, Texas.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a formal length "A" line gown of white peau-de-soie, fashioned with a bateau neckline, long petal point sleeves and an empire bodice. A wide band of handpleated Chantilla lace extended from the neckline to hemline. A detachable sleeveless coat with lace appliques swept into a chapel length train. She carried a cascade of white orchids surrounded with white butterfly roses.

Miss Sharmyn Lumsden, the bride's sister, was maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Misses Sueella Smith of Crowell and Jane Stoker of Wilson. The attendants wore formal length gowns of emerald green sate-peau, with bateau necklines, elbow length sleeves and empire bodices accented with tiny bows. The "A" line skirts featured a full panel inset in the back. Headpieces of matching leaf clusters held short veils of illusion. They carried cascades of white pom-poms with a hint of green.

Serving his brother as best man was Randy Smith of Crowell. Groomsmen were Tom Montgomery of Brownfield and Quinton Willis of Levelland. Ushers were Harry Hewlett, Jr. and Jack Mason of Wilson.

Wedding selections were presented by Mrs. Roy Lynn Kahlich, soloist, accompanied by Mrs. G. L. Nelson, organist, both of Wilson.

A reception followed in the home of the bride's parents.

The bride's travel ensemble was a royal blue silk suit with matching accessories.

Mrs. Smith is a senior at Texas Tech, a member of Chi Omega social sorority, and will graduate in January. She has also attended the University of Hawaii and Bay-

Christmas Seals Buy TB Progress

What in the world does a Christmas Seal buy?

Well, in 75 countries of the world it probably buys more per penny invested than anything you can name. This is partly because the world's tuberculosis associations, like the 23-county West Texas Tuberculosis Association, depends primarily on volunteer help.

To be specific, it buys education to inform people about all chest diseases. It even goes so far as to educate people to the danger of smoking.

It has, in the past, paid for legislative lobbies to get laws passed against things as simply vulgar as public spitting—or for things as large as state-supported tuberculosis hospitals.

It buys research that has led to wonder-working cures for tuberculosis, once commonly known as the "White Plague."

A Christmas Seal saves lives like yours.

In West Texas, Christmas Seals have contributed toward the purchase and upkeep of the WTTA mobile x-ray unit. In just the first nine months of this year, this unit discovered 50 cases of suspected tuberculosis, 35 cardiovascular irregularities (suggestions of heart disease), and 139 other chest abnormalities.

One of these "chest abnormalities" resulted in a letter sent to the WTTA offices in Lubbock. It was mailed from a West Texas hospital room. The body of the letter said:

"Thanks for saving my life. I don't know what more to say." This was from a West Texan

Slides Are Shown At Rotary Meeting

Blake Lovelace of the local Soil Conservation District office showed color slides on the subject "America the Beautiful" Thursday noon of last week at Tahoka Rotary Club.

The series of pictures taken in all 50 states of the nation were mostly from farms and ranches and featured the various phases of conservation.

Horace Rogers was in charge of the program.

Jay Gurley of Clovis was here this week visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Gurley. A teacher and coach at Clovis, Jay is doing graduate work at Eastern New Mexico University at Portales.

Miss Janice Parks, a third grade teacher in the schools at Gunnison, Colo., came Tuesday to visit with Mrs. Ruth Walker and family and other friends before classes resume.

Congratulations:

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry McKibben on the birth of a daughter weighing 7 pounds and 2 ounces on Wednesday at 12:16 p.m. in Methodist Hospital.

Mrs. Coye Collier left Christmas Eve for Long Beach, Calif., where she visited with her son, Jack Collier, and a daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. (Carolyn) Cleveland and family. Jack is attending school there. She returned early this week, having gone both ways by airline.

TAYLOR INDUCTED IN ARMY

Mike Taylor left Tuesday to undergo basic training at Ft. Bliss after having been inducted into the Army Dec. 13. Following his induction he was sent home for the Christmas holidays. Mike, who is married to the former Gilda Gandy, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Taylor and is a graduate of the local schools.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS" By C. WILSON HARDER

A curious story was reported in the Richmond, (Ind.) Palladium-Item about a Culpepper, Va. farmer who owns a 1,133-acre farm, part of which is on the side of a mountain.

The local Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation

Committee approached the farmer about accepting a government handout of $54.39 an acre to retire the mountain side land from production. The surprised farmer said C. W. Harder this would be impossible since the difficult terrain had never been utilized for farm land.

The honorable farmer turned down the offer of the Agricultural Department's subsidy and declared that an acceptance would be wasting taxpayer's money, since the mountain land was useless for farming.

The Government official noted the farmer's statements, and promised an investigation of his complaints about the subsidy.

This item caused us to wonder how much unproductive land around the country is being subsidized by the Agriculture Dept.

Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman was met by a storm of protest during his Farm Belt tour last spring when he praised lowered consumer prices. Since then both Freeman and Vice-Pres. Hubert Humphrey have been expressing pleasure over new rise in farm prices. The feeling in the Farm Belt, however, is that Administration statements continue to hold the farmer responsible for rising prices.

The farmer, too, pays for escalating living costs. And can he be blamed for high bread and other food prices when his share amounts to less than a penny for most items?

Since 1960, the farmer's prices have increased 14 per cent, and his costs 12 per cent. The fact that twice as many dairy farmers quit their farms this year than ever before is a sure sign of discouragement, and a reason for subsequent increases in the prices of dairy products.

While the politicians in Washington butter up the farmers for November elections, housewives are complaining to themselves about skyrocketing food costs. A case in point is a group of Phoenix, Arizona women who banded together vowing to bake their own bread until retail prices descended. They not only succeeded in lowering local prices, but spread the idea of pledged revolt to other quarters of the country.

President Johnson announced, "We have achieved prosperity." But one is compelled to listen to reports such as the one in the Christian Science Monitor: "Despite attempts by the Administration to underplay the increase in living costs, the upswing is considerably higher than indicated. . . the projection for 1966 is an increase of 3.6 per cent, compared to an increase of 2 per cent in 1965—a rise in the rate of increase of 80 per cent for 1966 over 1965." And despite more modern developments and automation increases, the actual take-home pay of workers has been shrinking annually, lower today than in 1961.

who made the casual effort it takes to use the mobile x-ray unit. While his chest pictures showed no sign of TB, it did reveal a tumor which proved to be malignant. This is not an unusual discovery for the x-ray unit. In this case, successful, early surgery now promises this man a longer life than he could have had without those who have cared enough to purchase Christmas Seals.

Where does the job of Christmas Seals leave off? Wherever some other responsible agency takes over a job done by the Tuberculosis Association. Then the Association gratefully says, "Thank You" and turns to tackle another problem of respiratory disease that is necessary and still undone.

The very first Christmas Seals, originating in Denmark because a postman worried about some sick children—built a hospital.

America's first Christmas Seals in 1907 kept a TB hospital open after all other funds were exhausted.

Now states provide hospitals, but until TB is eradicated, the Christmas Seal job of education, case-finding and research will go

If Lynn county people really want a hospital, it seems to us the provisional board set up to direct the institution is an outstanding one—seven leading citizens of sound business judgment who will take a hard look at all angles before jumping into deep water.

It's gotten to where rural areas simply can not get more doctors without hospital facilities. O'Donnell learned this fact, but possibly O'Donnell can get a doctor with open hospitals in both Lamesa and Tahoka. With the coming of Medicare, Lubbock hospitals are warning that they may not always be able to give admission to out of town people. In fact, on several occasions, Martin White of White Funeral Home here has had difficulty getting emergency cases admitted promptly at Lubbock and in at least one case he was very lucky his patient didn't die before he could get him admitted.

But, one thing is certain. Lynn county can't get more doctors without an open-practice hospital. We believe a hospital is a must for our county.

One trip to Lubbock would cost more in gasoline and car expense than the annual tax to support a hospital would be on a quarter section of land. A lot of people spend more on cigarettes in a week than their part of the hospital tax would cost, or one day's fishing, or a family dinner, or a week's coffee drinking.

Mrs. B. L. Hatchel of Wilson brought us a picture last week for our historical collection of the Tahoka Municipal Power, Light and Water plant taken in 1921, which shows the small power plant building, a ground tank, a small "standpipe" and a wooden-wheeled windmill. A note on the back $2.50 was the minimum charge for electricity and then 25 cents per kilowatt hour for additional "juice," and the notation "Texas Utilities purchased in 1928." Earl Waits of Hereford, an uncle of Mrs. Hatchel, gave her the picture. It seems someone at Hereford had made a collection of early-day power plants, and recently when these pictures were being destroyed, Mr. Waits thought of his Lynn county niece, retrieved the Tahoka photo and gave it to Mrs. Hatchel. Please, don't throw away those pioneer pictures. We'd like to save them to frame and hang in some public place.

Mrs. Coleman (Jewell) Wells, 3098 Roberta, Largo, Florida 33544, writes they enjoy The News, looking forward to receiving each copy, and says "Our stay in Florida hasn't increased our love for the Old Sunshine State by any means, so we may be headed back to good old Texas in the near future."

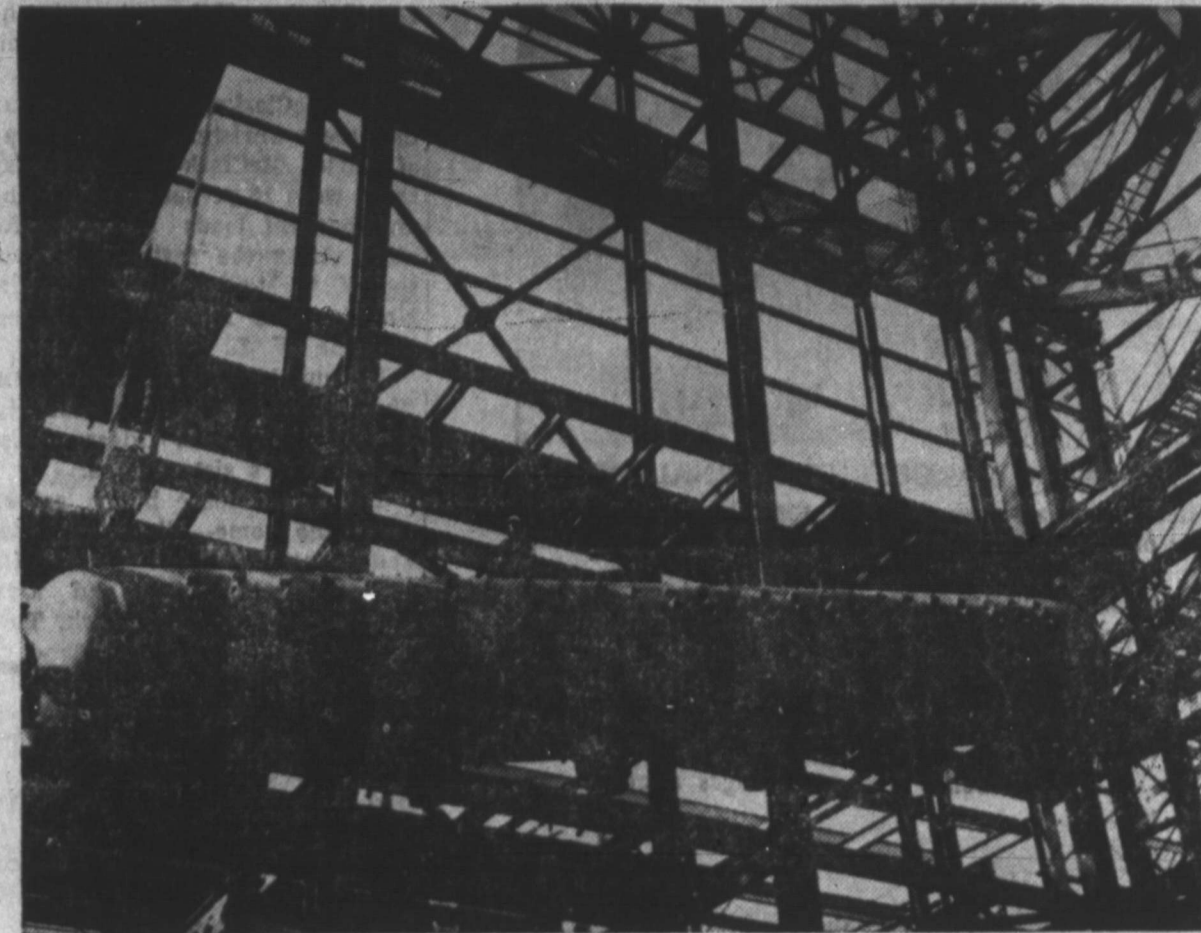

We're informed that per capita population, New Home has more members of the Saddle Tramps at Texas Tech than any other city in the world. Three boys from New Home, Dave Hancock, Max Blakney, and David Unfred, are members of the Saddle Tramps.

Southwestern Public Service Plans $20 Million Improvement Program

A 1967 construction program calling for the investment of more than 20-million dollars in new electric facilities was announced today by A. R. (Lon) Watson, president and general manager of Southwestern Public Service Company.

The new investment is being made, Watson said, in order that the electric company can continue to provide economical service for its customers at the same time that it assures them of reliable service.

"Electric service seems to be the last holdout against inflation. The purchasing power of today's electric service dollar is $1.07 - or 7 percent more - than its 1962 value. On the other hand, the dollar you use to buy other goods and services is worth just 77 cents today, when you compare it with a 1962 dollar.

"There are two reasons for the increased value of the electric service dollar. Our customers are using more service, and the more they use the less they pay for each unit. This increases consumption, in turn, has made it necessary for us to have a continuing program of construction. The new equipment being modern, larger and more efficient helps us keep our service economical at the same time that we improve its dependability," Watson said.

Southwestern Public Service Company has not had a general rate increase for electric service in more than 15 years. Since that time, a rate simplification program, designed to reduce the number of rate schedules in the commercial and industrial fields, resulted, generally, in lower costs for users.

The major item in the 1967 program is continued construction on a 210,000 kilowatt generating unit at the company's Nichols Station, northeast of Amarillo. When the new unit goes into service in mid-1968, it will double the generating capability of the station.

"We design, engineer and supervise the construction of all of our generating stations. This 'do-it-yourself' approach assures our customers of the best possible plant at the lowest practical cost. Right now, for example, our costs per installed kilowatt of generating capacity run substantially below the nation-wide average for units of comparable size," Watson said.

Watson also pointed out that the major additions made to the company's generating facilities in recent years are using less fuel and water for each unit of electricity produced, enabling the company to partially offset substantially increased costs for gas fuel and to conserve water resources.

Automation is also playing a major role in holding the price line. Some 70 percent of the company's total generating capability is now controlled by a computerized automated dispatching system. The ADS constantly compute the cost of generating and transmitting the power so that the most economical means are utilized under all load conditions.

Additional power for the South Plains section of the company's service area will be provided by a 230,000 volt transmission line which will be built from Plant X, in Lamb County, to Tuco Station, in Hale County.

The new line will result in a fourfold increase in the amount of power available in the South Plains area. It will be the second 230,000 volt transmission link to the region, complementing a circuit of this size which now delivers power into the area at a point south of Lubbock.

"Our interconnected generation and transmission system provides every corner of our 45,000 square mile service area with adequate power resources for future growth. Every community that we serve, from the smallest to the largest, can be assured that adequate, economical power is one of the assets it can include in an industrial development effort.

Working in cooperation with all of the cities that we serve, we have embarked upon a new area development program which we hope will add 10,000 industrial jobs to the region in the next ten years," Watson said.

Southwestern Public Service Company anticipates a 1967 gross peak load of 1,368,000 kilowatts and will have generative capability of 1,609,000 kilowatts to meet this demand.

"Our investment in this area has doubled in the last ten years, going in round numbers, from 200-million to 400-million dollars. There are only two reasons for this investment. First to provide the best and most economical service for our customers today; and then to provide the base on which we will meet the needs of the future. The continued opportunities for growth in this region are apparent, but if they are to be realized they will call for the full co-

Phillips Son-in-Law Get Air Force Medal

The captain is one of more than 500 select government officials and officers from U.S. and allied armed forces in the present class at the Air Force Command and Staff College at Maxwell. The curriculum covers advanced military leadership, management and use of aerospace forces.

The 10-month program is part operation of all of its citizens. Your growth makes our possible, and we pledge our every effort for continued progress for this region," Watson concluded.

Lynn County Soil Conservation District News

ELMER OWENS HAROLD PAYNE
E. R. BLAKNEY BOYD BARNES
JIGGS SWANN

Now is the time of the year when members of the district should be determining how they are going to farm their land to reduce soil and water losses next year, says Don Reed of the local Soil Conservation Service office. On all cropland, rows on the contour will hold water on the land better than rows running down hill.

Where present terraces will normally serve as guidelines, where terraces are not present, contour guidelines should be established.

Point rows on standard terrace systems should normally meet in the middle of the interval or end against the upper terrace.

Many members of the district are doing a good job farming on the contour, but there are still thousands of acres in the district that should be farmed on the contour or terrace and contour farming.

Every member of the district should take a close look at his own farming operations and see if he can't reduce this soil and water loss by improving the moisture conservation practices he is applying.

GRASSLAND NEWS

by Mrs. O. H. Hoover

Christmas is over! What an enjoyable time it has been — big dinners, family get-togethers, and general rejoicing. I hope we didn't forget why we celebrate Christmas or that we didn't forget our boys who are fighting for us. I was hoping so hard that we might have peace by this time. Peace on earth and to all men of good will.

Part of the Hoover kids were home for Christmas with their mother, Nina Belle Chapman of Plainview, Herbert C., Daurene and Doyle Hoover of Littlefield. Huston and Lura had gone to Rossmore, Calif., to the daughter's and family. Duane Hoover had to work, and Rodney, No. 1 son of Herbert and Daurene, was in San Diego taking training in the Naval Reserve. Jack had sent his mother a tape recorder, one roll full of talk from his family in the Philippine Islands, and we had a lot of fun filling a tape to send back to him. I hope he enjoyed it as much as we did. We had a lovely day together Sunday and Nina Belle stayed over until Monday afternoon.

The Gus Porterfield family had a big dinner and tree Saturday, Christmas eve. Attending were the Dr. D. G. Porterfield family of Abilene, Jim Bob and Janet and children, the T. A. Stone family, and the grandmother, Mrs. Georgia Cook of Tahoka. What a lovely time Christmas is!

Mrs. Carrie Wall and children had their Christmas with Billie Joe and family, New Home. Maurice didn't get to come; roads down Dallas way were slick.

The Carl Greens all gathered in the home of Ruby and Morris McClendon, and had their turkey dinner and tree Saturday night. Everyone of the bunch was there. Mr. Greer seemed to enjoy the tree very much, however he took a choking spell after they had gone home and was bad until Monday. He seems improved some now, for which we are thankful. Sure hope he continues to improve.

The Gerners sure have had the visitors over the Christmas week and Jerry is home, as I told you last week. Saturday and Sunday visitors were Louise and Laura Gerner, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Haley of Kingsville. He is an Air Force man stationed at Houston. Cindy Haley and brother, Rickey, of New Home, and his girl friend of Tahoka. Raymond and Marie Gerner and son Wade of San Angelo and Wade's girl friend, Donna Roe of Lubbock; Jerry Turner spent the week end with Jerry Gerner and his friend Dennis Germaine, Addie and Terrell Brown and son, Larry. And Monday, Mrs. Ruby Clayborn and daughter, Marie Anderson of Roswell, N. M., and Neil Francis of Houston, stationed there in the Air Force, and J. M. Haley. Also,

Gordon Gin Man Dies Christmas

E. C. Hogan, 59, owner and operator of Gordon Gin in northeastern Lynn county, route 2, Post, died Christmas night in the hospital at Slaton.

Funeral services were held Wednesday in First Methodist Church of Slaton with Rev. David Brinkley, pastor, officiating, and burial followed in Resthaven Park of Lubbock.

He bought the Gordon gin six years ago, and prior to that was with Lubbock Cotton Oil Co. for 17 years.

Mr. Hogan is survived by his wife, a son, a daughter, his mother, two brothers, one sister, and five grandchildren.

"Bud" Brock Makes College Who's Who

Bud Brock, son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Derwood Howard of Tahoka, is among the 18 junior and senior students at Wayland Baptist College in Plainview, selected for Who's Who among Students in American Universities and Colleges, Says Dean of Students, S. L. Harris.

Eligibility for Who's Who, a national honor, is based on grade-point average.

Brock, a candidate for graduation in May, is majoring in physical education, with a minor in history. He is a member of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, serving as treasurer, and International Choir. He has been president of the sophomore class, freshman BSU council and Athletes for Christ. Brock also handled intramural competition last year and plans a teaching career.

He is married to the former Miss Carolyn Howard.

THORNTONS HAVE VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Johnson and two daughters of Bettendorf, Iowa visited during Christmas with her sister, Mrs. Garland Thornton and family. The Johnsons and Thorntons spent Christmas Day with the ladies' parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. McNeil in Lubbock, and visited with Mrs. W. G. Thornton of Littlefield. Garland's mother also visited here with her son and family and the McNiels.

Romans 6:23

Grandmother Haley is staying with the Amos Gerners at this time.

The McCleskey and Allen clan had their Christmas in the home of Carlos McCleskey. On Sunday there were 16 present. Santa came and brought loads of beautiful gifts. After the festivities ended the W. G. McCleskeys visited Uncle Mac and Aunt Nora Richey, also the W. L. Gribbles.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Murray spent Christmas Day with their son Hulan and family in Odessa, also visited Tom's sister, Pans.

The J. F. Moore bunch gathered at the home—all the children and grandchildren — and Mrs. Moore's brother, Otis and Opal Bosworth of Harrison, Ark. They celebrated Sunday and Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Huffaker had as week end guests their daughter and family, the Jay Johnstons of Colorado Springs, and Mrs. Huffaker's mother, Mrs. Hicks, who is still here with them.

Delbert McCleskey is at home over the holidays. He goes to school at Bethany, Okla.

Mr. and Mrs. "Preacher" Roberts of Tahoka visited in the Kelly Laws home Monday and played "42" a while.

The Kenneth Huffakers really celebrated with a traveling Christmas party. Had dinner with the H. E. Huffakers and the tree, from there to Sonja's grandparents in Slaton and on to her parents, the Virgil Smiths, near Post. Two of Sonja's brothers were there.

A bunch of young men left on Monday for Rock Springs deer hunting. They are Kenneth Huffaker, Jim B. Porterfield, Alton, J. B. and Steve Greer, Dick King and three others. Good luck, boys. Little Don Porterfield is on the sick list with a bad earache.

The J. A. Propsts had all their children home Christmas Day except Janiece. She lives in Colo., and wasn't able to come. Those who did come were the Mitt McGaws of Abernathy, the Tom Markhams of Anton, the Charles Propsts of Graham community, and Morris Dorace and Traci Huff of Woodland, Calif. They all plan to spend the 27th together again.

Mrs. Inez McGrew was an overnight guest of her sister, Lucile Walker, last Monday night.

Cleety and Laucell Walker took Mrs. Lucian Walker to Plainview to see a specialist Monday. He is making some tests. We wish for her better days soon.

Morris Dorace and Traci Huff visited Mrs. Hoover Saturday morning. So good to see old neighbors!

Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Melton of Crane spent the day Friday with Mrs. Spears in Tahoka.

The Inklebarger bunch had their Christmas tree Saturday night in the home of the Doyle Terrys and their dinner Sunday in the Jim McGrew home in Lamesa.

The Kenneth Turner family of Tahoka spent their Christmas eve with the L. S. Turners, had their turkey dinner and tree, and of course Santa brought lots of nice gifts. Everyone enjoyed it, especially the grandchildren.

Mrs. Lucy Cunningham went to Midland to spend the holidays with her daughter, Sylvia. Mr. Reed and Sylvia drove up for their mother.

Billie Inklebarger seems to be much better.

We hear Jim Patterson is back in the hospital. We wish for him a speedy recovery.

Naomi and Lewis Ward and son Lawson of Rusk spent Christmas with the G. C. Watsons and their mother, Mrs. Spears.

Mr. and Mrs. Watson visited their son Herbert and Laura Watson in Abernathy one day recently. They are doing fine.

Mrs. Spears, who is in the nursing home in Tahoka, wanted me to say thanks so very much for the many lovely cards she received from Grassland friends. She enjoyed them so much.

Lawson Ward, son of Naomi and Lewis Ward, has just finished his law school and passed his bar examinations. He will enter officers' training school in the service.

Count your blessings, folks, for 1966, and have a god year in 1967, is our wish.
