Remap Puts Lynn In New Representative District

With members of the legislature, state officials and courts still wrangling about new boundaries of state senate and house districts, it appeared this week that Lynn County would remain in about the same district for Sen. E.L. Short and would be in a new odd-shaped state representative district. Lynn County has been in the 77th district of State Rep. Jim Rudd of Brownfield, but under the new proposal which courts so far have left unchanged, Lynn would be the extreme western county in the 78th legislative district, which now includes two state representatives who apparently will be running against each other on the Democratic ticket.

State Rep. Walter Grubbs moved to Merkel from Abilene to avoid being paired with Abilene Rep. Gary Thompson. Grubbs reportedly has blamed the realignment peculiarities on a commitment by some redistricting board members to avoid pairing Rep. Bill Heatley, longtime legislator from Paducah, with another incumbent.

WOODWORK

by dalton

FREQUENTLY those of us who are constantly fighting the battle of the bulges discuss the hundreds of diets and suggestions people come up with, often as we cram hot buttered cheese rolls into our mouths with both hands.

There is no end to the jillions of books, advertisements and favorite diets of various people who will swear that this plan or that one will work.

I'm always seeing ads that want to sell fat folks an elastic belt, or which offer some plan you can follow which will let you lose pounds while eating chocolate pie or steak or gravy. These are so ridiculous that I never paid much attention. But there was a suggestion (not in an ad) in last week's Family Weekly which might help. This woman psychologist suggests that we associate a negative image with the thought of food. She said when she picks up a piece of chocolate candy, for example, she tries to think of it as being full of worms. Such an imagination might make you too sick to eat anything at all.

Anyway, no diet is going to work unless we are determined to lose weight. And any of them will probably work if we are.

The only sure way for me to lose weight is to be locked up in a room someplace where someone slides in a glass of water and a plate of turnips through a little door twice a day.

IN THE SAME Family Weekly there was an advertisement which I strongly suspect is a big gyp. It is headed "My Husband's Snoring Kept Me Awake." and tells how snoring isn't funny when you're trying to sleep (how true). Then it says some guy developed a "simple invention at a renowned research sleep center" which stops snoring instantly.

It doesn't say what this invention is, but you can find out by sending in ten bucks or so to the man in Brooklyn. Chances are it's a piece of adhesive tape, about two inches wide and 5 inches long. Apply to the snorer's mouth and not only will he stop snoring, he'll stop complaining about your poking him in the ribs, stop talking in his sleep and maybe even stop breathing.

Tuesday's Lubbock Avalanche-Journal reported "Grubbs" apparently unexpected move to a mobile home in Merkel has resulted in Heatley's being paired anyway--with Grubbs. Cottle County (Paducah) is at the north edge of the proposed new 78th district. This district includes Cottle, Lynn, most of Taylor County outside of the city of Abilene, Nolan, Jones, Fisher, Scurry, Garza, Kent, Stonewall, King and Knox counties. Grubbs, who is formally announcing his candidacy in this issue of the News, has said he was given no advance notice of the pairing with Thompson in Abilene and had only a few days to move to Merkel and satisfy the state law requiring him to live in the new district for a year prior to the November 1982 election.

Sen. Short's District 28 is the same as it was, except for the addition of Howard County (Big Spring).

Suspect Held In New Home Vandalism

A 20-year-old man was arrested by sheriff's deputies Tuesday for questioning in three incidents of vandalism Sunday night in and near New Home.

Officers said charges of criminal mischief were being considered against the man. A trailer was pushed by another vehicle through a fence at the New Home High School football field and a vehicle then was driven on the track, causing an estimated $150 total damage, according to Supt. Ricky Mantooth.

Dewey Engle, foreman for the Texas Highway Dept., reported three signs knocked down on FM 1730 south of New Home, and Dennis Haley, a mile north of New Home, reported a vehicle ran through his yard and over a group of five-year-old evergreen trees, damaging or destroying ten of them. Replacement value of the trees was set at $1,000.

On Tuesday, Rhoda Villarreal reported that a house two miles east of New Home had been burglarized. Missing were a black and white TV set, picture clock and an AM-FM stereo. Total value of the stolen items is $269.

Tahoka city police answered several disturbance calls, a prowler report and complaints about loud mufflers and one call from a resident who said some males were using her yard for a toilet.

Police issued tickets for exhibition of acceleration and running a red light.

In jail during the week were two for criminal trespass and one each for driving while intoxicated, public intoxication and theft by check.

Civil Defense Plan Brewing For County

Lynn County Commissioners Monday heard a presentation from a civil defense expert on emergency situations in event of natural disaster or nuclear attack and about plans being developed for meeting such an emergency.

Lynn County has been designated as an area to help provide shelter for persons from the Midland-Odessa area in event of nuclear attack, according to Jane Van Praag, who works through the Department of Public Safety as a representative of federal civil defense planning.

Problems of shelter, food and water supplies and loss of utilities were mentioned just before the lights went out in the meeting room. It was no major attack or disaster, however, but a 40-minute power loss which affected several cities in the area.

Mrs. Praag said she is in the process of devising a civil defense plan for the entire county which will include listing of places where persons can take shelter, how many each place will accommodate and other information. Commissioners also were offered samples of candy which had been stored in a fallout shelter for 20 years. Judge Melvin Burks is the civil defense coordinator for the county.

All commissioners were present as the court approved purchase of a breathing pack to be used by the sheriff's department, hired a new veterans service officer.

The group also approved Marlene Patterson as deputy district clerk. After accepting the resignation of Russell Howle as service officer, the commissioners agreed to employ James Reed of O'Donnell in that job.

Transfer of $8,000 in road and bridge funds to each of the four county precincts was approved.

On the recommendation of Precinct 4 Commissioner E.R. Blakney, the group approved the bid of Yellowhouse Machinery Co. of Lubbock to sell the county a John Deere maintainer for $84,570. The county will take the machinery on a lease-purchase agreement stipulating 20 per cent down and the balance in annual payments.

Looking at finances, the group was told by Judge Burks that no tax increase should be necessary for the 1983 budget despite a loss in revenue anticipated from a new farm machinery exemption.

Wilson City, School Vote Contests Due

Five persons are running for two spots on the board of trustees of Wilson Independent School District April 3, and seven persons are seeking three positions on the Wilson City Council.

Running for the school board are incumbent Tommy Bednarz, and new candidates Woody Follis, Rex Little, Lowen Young and Ray Ehlers. Incumbent Roy Lynn Kahlich is not seeking re-election.

In the city election, Don Morton is running for the remaining year term of Mayor Virgil Henderson, who resigned. Incumbent councilmen Victor Steinhauer and Werner Klaus are seeking re-election, with other candidates for council being Lonnie Paul Donald, Violet Stone, Virginia Gatzki, Ricky Yowell and Ray Crispin.

The city election will be April 3 at the Museum Building.

School Board, Bingo Votes Draw Interest

With school, city and hospital board votes coming up April 3 in Tahoka and in other cities in the county, primary interest appears to center on contested school board races and a vote in county precinct 3 (primarily O'Donnell) for or against legalization of bingo games in that precinct.

A group of O'Donnell citizens presented a petition to county commissioners asking for the bingo election so that Catholic Churches could legally operate bingo games. The election has been set in Precinct 3 and with both support and opposition reportedly strong, a good turnout of voters on that proposition is anticipated.

In Tahoka, there are just three candidates for three vacancies on the city council, and in the countywide vote for hospital board there also are just three candidates seeking three spots.

Incumbents Jim Solomon and Richard White and new candidate Tom Cooper have filed for the Tahoka City Council. Incumbent James Roberts is not seeking re-election.

On the hospital board incumbents Larry Hagood of Tahoka and Roger Doss of O'Donnell are running, and Tom Freitag of Wilson is seeking the other spot being vacated by Roy Lynn Kahlich of Wilson.

The Tahoka school board has five candidates for two three-year seats and two candidates for the two years remaining on the term of board member Tommy Lawson, who resigned. Seeking the two-year unexpired term are J.E. Nance Jr. and Jimmy Woodard. Running for the three-year terms are Zane Curry, Robert Smith, Ray Morales and incumbents Bob Haney and Jay Dee House.

School Set On Elections

An election school with any interested persons invited will be conducted by Tom Clark of the secretary of state's office at 7 p.m. Monday in the Lynn County courthouse, district courtroom.

All election judges and election officials are especially urged to attend, according to C.W. Roberts, county clerk. He added that anyone is welcome.

Hancock - Strickland United In Marriage

MRS. DON STRICKLAND nee DONETTE HANCOCK

Donette Hancock and Don Strickland were united in marriage in a candlelight double-ring ceremony Saturday, March 6, at 7 p.m. in the United Methodist Church at New Home with Rev. Rick Wolfe, pastor, officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hancock of New Home. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. James Taylor of Woodrow.

Yvonna Schweda, cousin of the bride, presented a prelude of wedding selections. She also accompanied the soloist, Mrs. Julia Gill of New Home. The musical selections included "The Wedding Prayer," "What a Difference You Make in My Life," and "Always and Forever."

The bride, presented in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white silk organza and chantilly lace. The high neckline featured a row of crystal pleating and the same crystal pleating outlined the sheer yolk which was overlaid with chantilly lace and embroidered in sequins and seed pearls. The back of the bodice featured a v-shaped yolk which also was outlined in the crystal pleating, and overlaid with lace. The modified empire waistline had a white satin sash which ended at the back in a bow with satin streamers down the back of the skirt. The full sheer sleeves of organza were caught at the wrists in a lace band, and a ruffle of the crystal pleating accented her hands. The sheer sleeves had appliques of the chantilly lace and were also embroidered in sequins and seed pearls.

The full skirt featured a wide ruffle of crystal pleating at the bottom, and the ruffle swept around the sides and up the back to a point mid-way of her skirt. A second ruffle of the crystal pleating began at the sides, and swept around to the back and together with the silk organza swept into a full chapel train.

Her fingertip veil of illusion was gathered to a cap covered with chantilly lace to match her dress. The cap was enhanced by seed pearls and sequins. A row of chantilly lace edged the entire length of the veil.

She carried a cascading bouquet of white silk roses and baby blue flowers with blue and white streamers atop a white Bible given to her by her mother and father.

The bridal tradition were carried out with the bride's selections of something old: her mother's wedding shoes, something new was her dress; something borrowed, a pair of pearl earrings of her aunt, Mrs. Lit Moore; something blue was the garter worn by her mother at her wedding.

The maid of honor was Carria Burleson of Levelland. Serving as bridesmaids were Stacy Hancock, sister-in-law of the bride, of New Home, Kim Rice and Lisa Hobgood of Lubbock. The attendants wore long baby blue dresses of quiana knit with flounced bodice and flared skirt. The bodice featured an old-fashioned stand-up lace neck with long sleeves. They carried baskets of silk flowers in shades of blue.

Rebecca and Lee Jay Lisemby of New Home served as flower girl and ring bearer.

Best man was Jody Deatrage of Houston. Groomsman were Dahlen Hancock, brother of the bride, Steve Holland of Lubbock and Blake Kitchen of Levelland. Ushers and candlelighters were Stony Gill of New Home and Lance Folson of Lubbock.

Mrs. Steve Holland of Lubbock assisted in registering guests.

Shane Schweda, cousin of the bride, and Jimmy Taylor, brother of the groom, distributed rice roses.

A reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the church following the ceremony.

Serving in the houseparty were Brenda Barnett, Lyna Poer and Julie Robb of Lubbock, Sandy Strickland, sister of the groom, and Regina Austin of Post.

The bride is a graduate of New Home High School and American Commercial College. She also attended South Plains College and is employed at Texas Commerce Bank. The groom is a graduate of Cooper High School and attended Texas Tech University. He is employed as an electrician.

After a wedding trip, the couple will reside in New Home.

Letter To Editor

Letters to the editor do not necessarily express the views of this newspaper. All correspondence must be signed, and in good taste before it will be published, and the name of the writer must be published also. Letters to the editor may not be more than two double-spaced typewritten pages.

Dear Sir:

You recently editorialized your feelings and frustration with some of the dialing problems you had experienced with your telephone service. And, I am sure your expression of the dissatisfaction was and is shared by our General Telephone customers in Tahoka. However, and very much contrary to the impression which was left with the reader, the problems you described have not gone without notice or attention by General Telephone and its employees. For example:

1. Just over a year ago we permanently located a maintenance cable splicer in Tahoka. His main assignment was to eliminate the cable faults and related conditions which have caused serious service deficiencies and trouble which were being generated by rain, wind and related weather factors. The success of this effort can be measured by the fact that the exchange of Tahoka has exceeded the maximum trouble level set by the Texas Public Utility Commission only once in the past fourteen (14) months.

2. A project was begun in mid-1981 and is still under construction to provide much of the western half of Tahoka with new and/or additional cable facilities. This project represents an outlay of approximately one-quarter million dollars — a sum of no small amount even in this age of higher prices.

3. Much of the long distance equipment required to serve Tahoka is located in the toll switching center at Brownfield. Because of this, we have increased the number of personnel required to maintain this equipment and have extended work schedules to obtain greatest work efficiency.

4. Conversion of the electro-mechanical direct distance dialing equipment to solid state (electronic) equipment has begun but will not complete until late 1982. This conversion is also being made at great cost, but it will substantially improve the dial completion on direct dialed calls.

5. Local central office maintenance routines have been accelerated during the past year, and we obviously have some distance to go. But, we are getting there and we will not let up until all service objectives are achieved.

6. Modern telecommunications is unbelievably complex and because of this complexity we utilize extensive back-up systems should portions of the system fail. When an operator comes on the line and requests the calling number of a private line user after a long distance number has been dialed, it is because the calling number was not electronically identified by the equipment. When this occurs, the operator is automatically switched into the circuit, the number manually entered and the call is then processed normally. If this did not occur, the calling party would have to re-dial. The result is actually a convenience to the customer since he does not have to re-dial his call.

The employees of General Telephone who live and work every day in Tahoka are extremely dedicated to the purpose of providing good, economical telephone service. And, they, in turn, are fully supported with equally dedicated personnel in Brownfield and elsewhere. We know that service has not always been as good as the customers, or we as a company, would like; but, progress has been made, is being made and will continue. And, that is not an idle statement. It is a commitment.

Sincerely,
O.D. Hearn
Division Manager

Dear Editor,

It has been my pleasure to work in the Tahoka school system for the past five years. In the time I have been here I have seen many positive things happening. I believe it is a combination of things that has made our school program so effective.

First, is the strong leadership of our school administrators; second, is a faculty who is interested in school and community activities. They work well together, enjoy their jobs, and are genuinely concerned for the young minds left in their care. Third, is our athletic program. Everyone likes to win and this attitude has carried over to other programs in our school. Last, but not least, is a school board that has the best interest of the students in mind.

As a member of TSTA/NEA a teacher organization, I have had many visits with other teachers from around the state and across the nation. From these visits I have learned that we have a very special situation in Tahoka. We must continue to work together to keep things moving in an upward trend.

I am concerned as a parent, teacher, and taxpayer, that because of money (or the lack of it) our students may suffer.

The Federal budget for education has already been cut, and because of these cuts many children will be deprived of special help they need and deserve.

I understand we may have to cut our local budget because of low enrollment and unpaid taxes. If programs and teachers are cut, it is the children in the school system who will be hurt. A teacher can not do the best job possible in an over crowded classroom. Behavior becomes a problem; individual attention becomes almost impossible.

I would like to encourage the members of the present school board to consider carefully any cuts they make. I would also ask that people Plan Now To Join The Fun from 4-6 p.m. March 25 at the bank, as we celebrate our 75th anniversary. We want you to be here!

For out-of-town business, picking up a phone can cost less than dropping a line.

UNITED STATES POSTAGE $6.63

The stamp on a letter is only a small part of the cost of doing business by mail. You have to include the cost of secretarial time, materials, mail handling and overhead. That adds up to something like $6.63. You can do a lot of business with long distance for that amount, take care of orders faster, and save time and energy as well.

Plus you never have to lick stamps.

project will be automatically entered in the drawing... The Better Business Bureau offers this advise on land promotions. If you are interested in buying unimproved land, it might be worth the trip to go see the lots offered; however, you must decide this before going. Don't be misled into thinking that you are going to get the prize when you go; your name will be put into a drawing. It has been the Bureau's experience by the phone calls received that everyone that has called has been in the First Prize Category. Remember, this land is unimproved; will there be access to sewage, electricity, roads, zoning, etc? Most of all, please be aware that purchasing real estate can be one of the most expensive and complicated transactions for the average consumer, so we suggest that you seek the advice of a reputable attorney. If you have any questions, call the Bureau at 1-800-692-4466.

Rep. Walter Grubbs Seeks To Represent Lynn County In Legislature

State Representative Walter Grubbs of Merkel has filed with the state democratic executive committee in Austin to have his name placed on the ballot in the May 1982 Democratic Primary for re-election to the Texas Legislature.

Grubb's legal residence is in the new 78th Legislative District where most of his present 61st District counties have been placed by the State Redistricting Board in their actions last October. The federal judge panel recently approved the plan insofar as the 78th District is concerned. Grubbs has represented the 61st District now for two terms in the state House. In making his announcement, Grubbs said he welcomes the opportunity to seek re-election in this new 12-county district, which includes four counties from his present 61st District, being rural Taylor, Nolan, Fisher and Jones, and adds Scurry County from District 63, Lynn County from District 77, and Garza, Kent, Stone-wall, King, Knox and Cottle counties from District 101.

Grubbs added that he feels this 12-county area comprises a distinctly compatible community of interest because the economy is based largely on farming, ranching, oil and gas production, financial institutions and retail businesses. He added that he has spent most of his life in this West Texas area and feels he knows well the interests and problems of folks in this part of the state.

Having worked in West Texas and in Washington, D.C. for nearly 22 years, as assistant to Congressmen Omar Bureleson and George Mahon, Grubbs said he has found it "very gratifying and a challenge to represent the fine people of this West Texas area in the Texas Legislature."

"Being a retired congressional employee I am free to spend my full time and energy in this position as your state representative. I have the time and desire to serve, with no other compelling responsibilities except, of course, my wife and three fine grandchildren."

"I am a strong advocate of our free enterprise system, and you'll find my voting record consistent with this philosophy. I voted for a constitutional amendment that would have prohibited a state income tax...I voted against expansion of the bilingual education program in our public schools...I voted against the tax reform act that is bringing about large tax increases for many Texas homeowners at a time when inflation and high interest rates are crippling everyone...I worked for and we succeeded in holding down state spending to the smallest percentage increase in ten years. I was an assistant to two fiscally responsible congressmen for 22 years and I was exposed to an excellent conservative philosophy, which I have fully adopted. Omar Bureleson and George Mahon served a combined 76 years in the U.S. Congress."

Grubbs stated further, "there are a few fulltime legislators in the Texas House, but I am one of them. I have no compelling obligations to any aspect of our society either financially or otherwise. I am free to be as independent as I choose in my voting on important legislation. My only obligations are to all the people I try to represent through responsible, honest, prudent and common sense decisions I am called upon to make as a legislator, in the interest of good government for this great West Texas area and all of Texas. If my sole source of a livelihood depended upon one segment of our business or professional society, then perhaps it might be difficult for me to cast votes that might have an adverse affect on that business or profession. My livelihood does not depend upon banking, law practice, manufacturing, transportation, education, medical care, agriculture, retail or wholesale business or any other area that would restrict my independence in making those important decisions that affect all aspects of our society in the legislative process."

Grubbs also feels a need for tougher law enforcement against repeat criminals and says punishment of convicted criminals should be carried out to the fullest without probation being granted in too many serious crimes. He is a strong advocate of enforcement of the laws against drug traffic and abuse. He introduced in the last session one of the five "War on Drugs" bills which passed and became law.

Rep. Grubbs is presently serving in some important positions in the Texas House. He is a member of the Appropriations committee, vice chairman of the Health Services Committee, a member of the House Administration Committee, has been appointed to the Legislative Council and is chairman of a special select committee to investigate the Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation. He is also a member of the Council on Health and Welfare.

Grubbs has been quoted as saying he feels his conservative philosophy represents the majority philosophy in this West Texas area.

Grubbs said, "I am proud that the Texas government is solvent and that it is being run in a fiscally responsible manner, without deficit spending and with a minimum amount of waste and extravagance by state agencies and their many programs."

He continued, "state government needs to maintain this practice and operate within the revenue being provided by the taxpayers." Grubbs said further, "There is no need at this time for any new taxes" and that he has opposed all proposals to impose them.

Grubbs was reared at Colorado City where he served on the city council, and as mayor, for six years. He knows the problems of our smaller communities and shares the interests and concerns of this area from the standpoints of experience and background. His father was a cotton ginner at Colorado City and his mother served as county treasurer for 12 years in Mitchell County.

Dairy Success Story Is Told

The remarkable growth of a new South Plains dairy started on a "Shoestring", to a million dollar business was told Tahoka Rotarians Thursday noon by Earl Gilliam, originator of Flatland Milk Co.

With limited funds, Gilliam and partners started the dairy with cows they leased from others. At first a raw milk facility, they started selling three gallons a day to customers who came to the dairy, and this quickly grew to 300 gallons a day sold by May 1980, then to 600 gallons per day.

To meet state and city laws, in August, 1981, the dairy began pasteurizing milk for sale in stores, and now the plant pasteurizes about two-thirds of its milk which is sold in 50 Plains stores. However, there still is a demand for raw milk.

The dairy is now milking 190 cows.

Cap Whorton arranged the program, and Nick Summitt introduced the speaker.

Thank You

We would like to express our sincere appreciation to our family and friends for their thoughts and prayers during the loss of our infant son and my stay in the hospital.

Marty Cooper Wins Second In Contest

Marty Cooper of Tahoka High School has received a second place award in a math, physics and chemistry contest hosted at West Texas State University. Cooper tied for second place in the math contest with Alice Garrison of Tulia. The team from Tahoka also received second place in the small schools category. Team trophies were awarded to teams with at least three students who took all three tests. The Junior Engineering Technology Society contest was begun to replace the annual math contest which had been sponsored by the WTSU Department of Math and Physics, said Treasure Brasher, WTSU instructor in physics, who coordinated the event.

JETS, which does not sponsor many high school chapters in the Texas Panhandle, said Brasher, promotes technical careers. More than 250 students from high schools in the Panhandle and South Plains region took tests in the three areas. Several students participated on all three tests and awards were given to students who took all three tests and earned the highest scores. Team trophies were awarded to teams who had at least three students who took all three tests. The 40-minute written tests were taken by students from Plainview, Plains, Channing, Nazareth, Cotton Center, Claude, Wolforth, Tahoka, Tulia, Canyon, Spearman, Lubbock, Amarillo and Hereford.

INSIGHT INTO EYESIGHT

Van Moore, O.D. OPTOMETRIST

THE NEARSIGHTED EYE
What happens when one eye or both eyes are nearsighted? The nearsighted eye focuses on an object too soon. The image is sharp when it enters the cornea, the "window of the eye." But it gets out of focus by the time it reaches the retina. This is the innermost lining of the eye that sends the image to the brain. There are several causes of nearsightedness. One is an eyeball that is longer than normal, measured from the front of the eye to the back, where the retina is located. It is too long to hold an image in focus by the time it reaches the retina. Or the problem may be the light-bending ability of the eye. It may do too good a job at bending the light, causing the image to go out of focus. Nothing can be done to shorten the distance between the front and the back of the eyeball. Nothing can be done about its light-bending ability. That's the way you were born. But an eye examination will show how these problems can be corrected by wearing properly fitted glasses.

1982 FARM PROGRAM

An acreage reduction program has been announced for the 1982 crop year. To qualify for program benefits, participating farmers must reduce their 1982 acreage planted for harvest from an established acreage base. You will be notified of these bases in the near future. Your base can be determined by looking at the higher of: (1) 1981 planted acres; or (2) the average of 1980 and 1981 planted acres of each crop.

The reduction amounts for 1982 are 15% for wheat and cotton and 10% for feed grains (sorghum, corn, barley, oats).

You will be eligible for loan and deficiency payment protection on each crop program in which you participate.

be designated in skip row patterns of a minimum of 4 rows with 160 inches from plant to plant. Cultural practices or lists of approved cover crop for these acres have not been developed at this date. Number of plots when not in a skip row pattern have not been announced. Conservation use acres must be planted to a row crop or small grain in one of the last two years.

No Offsetting Compliance
Neither offsetting nor cross-compliance will be required under any of the reduced acreage programs. This means there is no compliance requirements between farm numbers or between different crops on one farm number.

1982 LTA Sign-up
There will be a sign-up for Long Term Agreements to carry out conservation practices over a 3 to 5 year period. Practices included are terraces and reorganization of irrigation systems. The sign-up period will be March 8-12. The Soil Conservation Service will work with the operators and owners to develop a Conservation Plan of Operation.

LUBBOCK, Friday, March 5, 1982

Officials of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., Lubbock, have fixed April 21 as the date for the 25-county cotton producer organization's annual meeting, to be held in the Lubbock Memorial Civic Center. The exact time of the meeting will be announced later.

According to PCG Executive Vice President Donald Johnson, central topic of the meeting will be the classing of cotton by instruments, referred to in the industry as "HVI," the acronym for High Volume Instrumentation. "Interest in HVI among producers, textile manufacturers and cotton merchandisers is growing by leaps and bounds," Johnson notes, "which we think makes it a very timely topic for our annual membership meeting."

HVI discussion among High Plains producers in recent months, Johnson continues, has been stimulated further by widespread dissatisfaction with manual classing results on much of the 1981 crop. "And one of the issues to be faced at our meeting is whether HVI can be expected to answer all or any of the complaints producers have against traditional classing methods."

Speakers for the annual PCG gathering have not been named, but are being chosen to address all aspects of HVI.

Plans call for an official of the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Agricultural Marketing Service, which is responsible for cotton classing operations, to discuss USDA's position with regard to converting classing offices to HVI, including possible sources of funds to cover the cost of such conversion.

Also on the program, Johnson says, will be a speaker from a textile mill where cotton is being evaluated by instruments as a means to improve the predictability of end product quality.

A growing number of mills are using instruments and are pleased with the results, Johnson points out, which is an indication that making instrument data available to mills before they buy their cotton could be a valuable marketing tool for producers.

"However there is always the question of whether the market pricing system will properly reward producers for providing additional quality information," he says, "and this is another concern we will be asking our speakers to address."

In fact, Johnson concludes, we expect to get speakers who will focus on all of the advantages and possible disadvantages producers might expect from HVI.

Cotton Prices Strengthen

High Plains cotton prices improved $5 to $7.50 per bale during the week ended March 4, according to Mack Bennett, Area Director for USDA's Marketing Services Office at Lubbock. Growers sold mixed lots of mostly grades 42 and 52, staples 31 and 32, mike 35 - 49 at around 46.00 cents per pound, up 100 points from a week earlier. Grade 52, staple 32, mike 30 - 32 brought about 41.00 cents, up 150 points, Bennett said. Growers continued to move cotton into Commodity Credit's loan. An estimated 1,181,000 bales of 1981-crop or 50 percent of the production had loans outstanding at mid-week, up from 1,152,000 a week earlier. The survey covered counties served by Lubbock's Marketing Services Office and included Form A, Form G and seed cotton loans. Growers reportedly sold a few hundred bale equities at around $15 per bale.

Improved demand by cotton shippers improved prices at March shipping deadlines approached.

Average prices received by U.S. upland cotton farmers in mid-February was estimated at 49.70 cents per pound by USDA's Statistical Reporting Service. January's revised average was 49.90 cents, the first month the average fell below 50 cents since January 1978. These prices included cotton delivered against forward contracts.

Lubbock's Marketing Services Office classed 16,000 samples during the week ended March 4 for a season's total of 2,327,000. This compares with 1,614,000 classed by the same date last year.

Predominant grades were grade 42 at 17 percent, grade 52 at 34 percent, grade 43 at 11 percent and grade 53 at 20 percent. About 83 percent was reduced one grade because of bark. Ten percent was below grade.

Predominant staples were staple 29 - 14 percent, staple 30 at 45 percent and staple 31 was 28 percent for an average of 30.3 thirty-seconds of an inch.

Micronaire 35 - 49 was 18 percent, 33 - 34 was 11 percent, 30 - 32 was 23 percent, 27 - 29 was 27 percent and 26 or below was 21 percent for an average of 30.

Gins paid High Plains growers $75 to $85 per ton for cottonseed, mostly $75 per ton.

Agriculture's 1983 budget. While specifically authorized in the 1981 farm bill, the funding was not included in the Administration's budget proposal. National Cotton Council delegates urged the organization to work for such funding at its recent annual meeting.

COTTON ENTERS LOAN: The U.S. Department of Agriculture reports that 359,617 running bales of 1981-82 crop cotton entered the Commodity Credit Corporation loan program during the week ended Feb. 24. Loans were repaid on 54,846 bales, leaving 4,833,185 still under loan. A total of 5,354,853 bales have entered program so far this season.

Since 1979, the EPA and the Texas Department of Agriculture (TDA) have been working under a grant agreement, primarily initiated to eliminate duplication of duties.

In the fiscal year 1981 the Department made inspections on 646 formal complaints of possible pesticide or herbicide damage. Of these 154 were valid.

Homestead Exemptions Due April 1

Homeowners who are 65 years of age or older and failed to receive their school district homestead exemptions in 1979 have until April 1 of this year to do so. In this way, elderly homeowners will be able to take advantage of the tax freeze associated with the $10,000 homestead exemption, said Dovie Miller, chief appraiser for the Lynn County Appraisal District.

According to a law passed by the Special Session of the 67th Legislature, over-65 homeowners who qualified for the school homestead "tax freeze" in 1979, but did not apply for the limitation, may file an application with the chief appraiser of the appraisal district in which the home is located.

Application must be made with Chief Appraiser before April 1, 1982.

To qualify for the tax limitation, on January 1, 1971 a homeowner must have satisfied these requirements:

- Be 65 years or older
- Own his home
- Use that home as his principal residence

The chief appraiser will consider all applications and notify each applicant before April 15, 1982. If the application is approved, the chief appraiser will make an entry on the appropriate school district's 1982 appraisal records.

This entry will indicate the amount of tax the over-65 taxpayer should have paid in 1979, had he been granted the $5,000 general homestead exemption and the $10,000 over-65 homestead exemption. No refunds of taxes paid will be given for 1979, 1980, or 1981.

For 1982, the taxpayer's amount of homestead taxes paid may not exceed the amount of taxes the school district would have imposed on the homestead for 1979, had the taxpayer been granted his homestead exemptions. This frozen tax amount will remain in effect as long as the homestead remains the same.

For applications, contact Dovie Miller at the Lynn County Appraisal District Office, 1616 Ave. J, Tahoka or call 998-5477.

A Time to Say We're Proud of Texas Agriculture

Over 27 million Americans are bowlers.

At General Telephone... We're Not Simply Talking About Service Improvements We're Making Them In Tahoka

At General Telephone, better service isn't just a goal, it's a solid commitment. General Telephone spent over 354 million dollars in 1981 on capital expenditure projects (i.e. new electronic switches, expanded cable projects, modernization), and GTE will spend over 410 million dollars in 1982 to provide you the best telecommunications available.

For Tahoka this investment in service improvement is working as shown below. General Telephone is working hard to continually provide you with the best of service.

The Texas Public Utilities Commission (PUC) has established certain standards in public hearings, and our service results are listed against those standards.

	Tahoka

LAND PRODUCTIVITY VALUATION

MAY BRING YOU TAX RELIEF ON YOUR PROPERTY TAXES

Under the Texas Property Tax Code, farmers and ranchers who qualify may have their land taxed on the basis of Productivity rather than Market Value. Productivity valuation may lower the taxes on your agricultural or open-space land, but you must apply for the special valuation this year before May 1.

To find out if you qualify and where you should file applications, contact your new county appraisal district, or local tax offices in appraisal districts which have postponed implementation.

While there, ask for your free copy of our pamphlet, Taxpayers' Rights, Remedies, Responsibilities. Or write to us and we will send you a copy.

Tying the knot—it's happening later in life these days.

As many young people postpone marriage and the rate of divorce increases, more and more marriages today involve individuals in their late 20's and early 30's, says Diane Welch, a family life education specialist.

Read the Label

Before using any product, let the label be your guide. Read it, and consult your dealer or other authority if you have questions. Check to be sure you are using the right product or medication. Ask family and hired workers to read and follow label instructions when using chemicals. Go over instructions with inexperienced workers and those who might have trouble understanding the label. Never store potentially toxic products in unlabeled containers or in ones made for a different product, such as soft drink bottles.

Tahoka Rotary Club meets at 12 Noon each Thursday at Tahoka Cafeteria.

Watch out for those "Bargain" jewelry advertisements—the stones may not be real, cautions Linda McCormack, a family resource management specialist. "Remember two adages: 'you get what you pay for,' and 'The big print gives it to you,' while the fine print takes it away," she warns.
