Kenneth Cawthron Announces Candidacy For County Sheriff

Kenneth Cawthron, a Lynn County resident presently working with the Garza County Sheriff's Dept., this week announced his candidacy for the office of Lynn County sheriff, subject to the Democratic Primary May 5. He issued the following statement:

"I have been involved in law enforcement for approximately seven years being employed with Tahoka police Dept., Lynn County Sheriff's Dept. and presently with the Garza County Sheriff's Dept.

"I have been a resident of Lynn County all my life and I reside at Route 4, Tahoka with my daughter, Sonya, a junior at Wilson High School.

"It is my intention to speak with as many of you as possible before the May Primary. Due to the time element and the hours that I work in Garza County your understanding will be appreciated if I miss contacting any of you.

"I will appreciate your support and vote. Thank you very much."

Living In Tahoka Different For Young Canadian Nurses

By DEAN BARTLEY

"As we were driving to Tahoka we were dodging tumbleweeds because we didn't know what they were, then we saw other cars running over them, so we laughed so hard we had to stop the car."

That was the reaction of Darlene Larter, Sandra Sloan and Vera Read on seeing their first tumbleweeds as they drove 2757 miles from Canada to Tahoka. Neither of the three had ever been in the United States.

Arriving in the city Jan. 9 after one week of driving eight hours a day, the three registered nurses assumed duties at the Lynn County Hospital Jan. 16.

"We were placed in Tahoka by a Placement Service in New York," explained Sandra. "We have a one-year work visa and should it not be renewed for any reason, we will have to be out of the country by Dec. 15."

"We came from a 350-bed hospital to this 24 bed unit, but it is not as difficult as we had imagined," Vera said. "Of course, the medicines are basically the same and nursing care is the same. We were surprised to see all the modern equipment in such a small hospital. The nurses and hospital staff here have been very helpful in teaching us about the equipment and different techniques."

Differences Noted

"I have a hard time remembering the 'green slip' to make charges to the patients," Darlene remarked. "In Canada we give a 'health care receipt' to the patient as all medical bills are paid by the government. I am more aware not to be wasteful, since I know the patients here will be paying for their own individual medical bills."

Officials of the hospital and the Tahoka Chamber of Commerce said that the decision of the young nurses to join the staff of the hospital here actually was a life-saver for the facility itself.

"Because of federal laws requiring a registered nurse on duty at all times, we were facing the distinct possibility of having to shut down in March of this year unless we hired some RNs," said Hospital Board President Larry Hagood. "And these young women are themselves a definite asset to the whole community."

Chamber officials pointed out that the hospital is one of the biggest businesses in the county and that the services provided are invaluable. "Everybody needs to understand what the hospital means to the community, and how important to the hospital operation these nurses are," said Chamber manager Winston Wharton.

Twenty-five-year-old Vera has a Bachelor of Education Degree from the University of Prince Edward Island.

Sandra, who is 22, took one year pre-nursing courses at the same university.

Darlene, 23, studied 18 months at Dalhousie, Nova Scotia and six months at UPEI. All three attended Prince Edward Island School of Nursing to become registered nurses, the last year being an internship with three-fourths of an RN's pay.

Miss Water

Coming from Prince Edward Island, the smallest of the 10 Canadian Provinces and two territories, the young women miss the water. "We have been told we would have to drive 300-400 miles to get to a lake near here," they declared. Vera described her homeland: "The crescent-shaped island lies in the waters of the Gulf of St. Lawrence and Northumberland Strait. It is four miles wide at its narrowest point and approximately 100 miles at the widest. It is 212 miles long. (114 as the crow flies.)"

Prince Edward Island

To gain access to the island a person must either fly or go by boat. From Nova Scotia it is a distance of 14 miles by ferry or from New Brunswick it is a nine mile ferry ride.

The north shore of the island has sandy beaches and the southern shore has low red rock bluffs. The island is called the "Cradle of Confederation, where all Fathers came to establish Canada."

"Fishing is big," states Sandra. "We also have dairy farming and raise tobacco, potatoes and small grain crops. A farm consists of approximately 200 acres."

Darlene's home is in Charlottetown the capital of the island. Vera lives in Summerside, the second largest city and Sandra comes from Grandview, a farming community.

Snow Heavy

There is lots of snow in the five months of winter on the island with the temperature dropping as low as 20 degrees below zero, a summer temperature of 80 degrees with a high humidity and a beautiful "Indian Summer", they said.

Sandra's hobbies are snow shoeing, biking and soccer as well as needle crafts. Darlene and Vera enjoy cross country skiing, (on designated trails or they make their own trails) walking and jogging. All three of the young women enjoy dancing and singing. Darlene has sung in choirs and at weddings. All three are single.

Darlene and Sandra are Catholics and Vera attends the Christian Church. The three have attended several churches in Tahoka and Lubbock.

Homesickness comes and goes, they admitted; but the warmth and friendliness of the people has helped. Also, they visit three classmates who are employed at Lubbock General Hospital on two year work Visas.

"People have really been nice to us and we really appreciate it," Darlene said.

Tahoka School Board To Meet

The Tahoka School Board will meet Tuesday, Feb. 21, at 7:30 p.m. in the board room.

Two Traffic Mishaps Reported In City

Tahoka police investigated a couple of accidents during the past week including a vehicle-pedestrian accident that occurred last Thursday in the 1500 block of Ave. G on the west service road of Highway 87 that involved a 1977 Pontiac 4-door driven by Lupe Aleman Jr. of Tahoka. Joe Antonio Moya Jr. of Tahoka was attempting to cross the service road when he was reportedly struck by the vehicle. Moya was taken to Lynn Co. Hospital where he was treated and released on Monday.

Another accident was investigated on Monday at the intersection of 6th and Ave. E that involved a 1981 Chevrolet 2-door driven by Guadalupe M. Lopez of Tahoka and a 1974 Ford 2-door driven by Rickie Lynn Graves of Tahoka. No injuries were reported.

Kelly Draper reported to police that on last Wednesday, someone had stolen 31 cassette tapes and a cassette case from her 1975 Mercury while parked in the high school parking lot. The theft was believed to have occurred between 8:30 and 9 p.m. during a basketball game.

Police also received a couple of calls from residents complaining of loud neighbors who were keeping people awake late at night.

One Tahoka resident reported that she had been receiving several prank calls from someone who wouldn't give their name. Thriftway Supermarket reported that some kids had been getting in the dumpster and were throwing trash everywhere.

One ticket was issued for an expired license plate.

Wayne Tekell of Tahoka reported a pump, electric meter and panel box destroyed by 30-30 rifle fire at a farm southeast of Petty between

Feb. 3-10. Damage was estimated at $1,000. Crime Line, 998-5145, is offering a $200 reward for information on the incident.

Freddie Martinez, Rt. 2, O'Donnell, reported items stolen from a farm 1.5 miles south of New Moore, including planter units, gauge wheels and attachments, sweeps and hitch. The items were later located at a used equipment dealership in Brownsville, and investigation is continuing.

In jail during the week were two persons for criminal mischief and for public intoxication.

Commissioners Renew Policies

Lynn County commissioners Monday voted to renew insurance on the county show barn and a third of the coverage on the courthouse and contents, and on the library and extension office building.

In a mostly routine session, the group also approved payment to Dawson County totaling $6288 for Lynn County's portions of expenses for secretaries to the district judge and district attorney, court reporter and district judge's expenses.

A trip to a clerk's meeting in College Station for District Clerk Joy Laws and County Clerk C.W. Roberts was approved, as was payment of $752 to Lubbock County for Lynn County use of the juvenile detention facility in Lubbock. The payment was for 91 days; total cost to Lynn County for use of the facility is $2884 per year.

Present were commissioners Nell Blakney, Eldon Gattis, Bart Anderson and Boyd Barnes, and Judge J.F. Brandon.

WOODWORK

BY DALTON

avalanche-JOURNAL film critic William Kerns last Sunday published results of a poll of readers on the ten best and ten worst movies of last year, and he also listed his own choices. I rarely am in the majority on anything (I still can't believe the rest of you people elected Jim Hightower and Jim Maddox), and frequently when Kerns pans something, I like it, and vice versa.

Well, maybe frequently is not quite the right word, since I don't see many movies in theaters. Anyway, for once, I couldn't really quarrel with any of the choices by him or his readers on the best and worst films of last year, because I finally had a perfect score: I have seen none of the movies mentioned. (Last year when readers rated "E.T." as the best film, I had seen it, and I agreed that it was really good). This year, though, I can't argue with the choices, since not even one of the movies mentioned has had the privilege of my seeing it.

I'm kind of proud of that record, just as I was sort of proud that I didn't watch the Superbowl, because I dislike both teams.

Two File For City Council

Anyone interested in running for Tahoka City Council may file for the city election now until the March 7 deadline, City Manager Carl Reynolds said this week.

The terms are for two years, and the election will be on April 7. Interested persons may file at the city hall between the hours of 8 a.m. and 5 p.m.

This year one and one-half million Americans will suffer a heart attack, and nearly one million people will die from diseases of the heart. The economic drain on our resources in the form of direct medical cost and lost wages and production will exceed $64 billion."

HEALTH BEAT

Ears, Altitude And Airplane Travel

You may be able to avoid ear discomfort during air travel - the most common medical complaint of airplane travelers - if you lend your ears to these suggestions from the American Academy of Otolaryngology-Head and Neck Surgery (AAO-HNS). It's the national association of physicians who treat the ear, nose, throat, and related areas of the head and neck.

- Swallow. This activates the Eustachian tube which connects the back of the nose with the middle ear. You swallow more often when you chew gum or let mints melt in your mouth.
- Yawn. This is an even better activator of that muscle.
- Avoid sleep during descent; you may not swallow enough to keep up with the pressure changes.
- Unblock your ears by using the following method: (1) pinch your nostrils shut; (2) take a mouthful of air; (3) using your cheek and throat muscles, force the air into the back of your nose as if you were trying to blow your thumb and forefingers off your nostrils. When you hear a loud pop in your ears, you have succeeded. You may have to repeat this several times during descent.
- If you are traveling with a baby, give him a bottle or pacifier to suck, and do not allow him to sleep during descent.
- Use a decongestant pill or nasal spray an hour or so before descent. This shrinks the membranes and makes the ears pop more easily.

Travelers with allergy problems should take their antihistamine tablets at the beginning of the flight for the same reason. WARNING: decongestant tablets and sprays should be avoided by persons with heart disease, high blood pressure, irregular heart rhythms, thyroid disease or excessive nervousness.

Even after landing you can continue the pressure equalizing techniques (but avoid using nose sprays for a prolonged period.) If your ears fail to open, or if pain persists, you may need to seek the help of your otolaryngologist.

The stem of a type of wild iris-blue-eyed grass - is not strong enough to support more than one blossom at a time. One flower blooms each morning, then dies that night to make room for the next.

Energas Earnings Reported

Energas Company reported unaudited earnings of $1.9 million, or $1.03 per share, for the period Oct. 19, 1983 through Dec. 31, 1983, on revenues of $67.5 million.

For the quarter ended Dec. 31, 1982, Energas, operating as a division of Pioneer Corporation, had a loss of $1.9 million on revenues of $52.9 million. After adjustments to reflect the spin-off of Energas from Pioneer and the effects of an accounting change in the method of recognizing gas revenues and expenses, the company's pro forma results for the quarter ended Dec. 31, 1982 would have reflected a loss of $1.0 million (55 cents per share) on revenues of $68.0 million.

SODIUM LABELING-- Consumers are more concerned, but not necessarily more informed about salt in their diets, says a foods and nutrition specialist. A 1983 A.C. Nielsen survey conducted for the grocery industry shows that of the 75 per cent of customers who read ingredient lists on food products, 40 per cent of them do so to avoid salt or sodium, says Dr. Alice Hunt. A large majority - 87 per cent - of the shoppers surveyed favored sodium labeling. But 52 per cent indicated the labeling would be more useful if they understood it better. "The biggest problem for most consumers," she said, "is that they may not understand milligrams per serving or how it relates to their own daily needs." To really watch your salt intake, you need to know that the intake of sodium for adults ranges from 1,100 to 3,300 milligrams per day. One level teaspoon of salt contains about 2300 milligrams of sodium. Since there are sodium containing compounds in many of today's processed foods, reading labels for sodium content is probably a good idea for everyone, says the specialist.

Rotary Club Hears Carnegie Speaker

People who want to be more successful and who want to develop and use dormant talents and skills may reach their goals through the Dale Carnegie experience, Tahoka Rotarians were told last Thursday at their regular meeting in Paris Cafeteria.

Bonnie Gunn and Barbara Henry of Lubbock spoke to the group and Mrs. Henry gave a demonstration of memory skills.

The Dale Carnegie Course, now more than 60 years old and having approximately four million graduates around the world, is a unique training system designed to develop confidence and successful, interpersonal relationships at home and in one's occupation. It builds upon a positive attitude toward one's abilities as a communicator and a motivator of others. Reducing tension and anxiety through a better understanding of one's self and others is one of the main objectives of the course.

"It should be noted that the course deals with the whole person and the causes that produce lasting change," Mrs. Gunn said. "The Dale Carnegie Course seeks to bring out the best in people, to help them become the men and women they would like to be."

The class members learn the technique of gaining acceptance of his ideas through skillful use of the human relations principles exposed by Dale Carnegie in "How to Win Friends and Influence People." They also learn how to add the ingredient of enthusiasm which lights the fires of motivation in other people.

A free preview will be held on Thursday, Feb. 16 at 7:27 p.m. at the Covenant Presbyterian Church at 48th and Salem in Lubbock. Everyone is invited to attend or call for more information at 792-6288 or 792-3443.

Buddy Knox Earns "Top Gun" Honor

Capt. Raymond "Buddy" Knox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leighton Knox Sr. of Tahoka, was recently named "Top Gun" Weapons System Officer (WSO) for 1983 by the 526th Tactical Fighter Squadron of Ramstein Air Base, West Germany.

Capt. Knox won the distinction "by demonstrating superlative flying skills and consistently high gunnery scores. It was determined that he, and Aircraft Commander (AC) Maj. John Fox, would have destroyed 37 enemy aircraft in aerial combat had the competition been real."

Capt. Knox is currently assigned to the 526th Tactical Fighter Squadron, Ramstein Air Base, Germany and flies the McDonnell-Douglas F-4E Phantom II, a multirole, two-place fighter aircraft. The aircraft is capable of supersonic speeds (in a high-speed dash it could fly from Tahoka to Lubbock in three minutes) and carries 4 radar guided and four heat seeking missiles. Additionally the Phantom carries an internal 20 mm cannon capable of firing 6000 rounds per minute.

The mission of the 526th Squadron is the air defense of West Germany. The squadron mans two fully armed aircraft (and crews) 24 hours per day, 365 days per year. Upon notification of a border crossing violation or an unauthorized aircraft wandering too near the East-West border the aircrews have only five minutes to get into the air. Once air-borne they either escort the aircraft back across the border or in the event of a lost pilot or an emergency they will lead the distressed aircraft to the nearest suitable landing place.

Capt. Knox, a 1970 graduate of Tahoka High School, has flown more than 1000 hours in the Phantom and has been with the 526th Squadron for 16 months.

MICROWAVE OVEN NEEDS SEPARATE CIRCUIT—Power surges from other kitchen appliances can damage a microwave oven and result in costly repair bills, says a home economist. A microwave oven should have its own 15 amp circuit, especially if it has touch controls rather than a mechanical dial control, says Bonnie Piernot, a specialist family resource management.

A microwave oven with touch control number pads has a micro-processor which is susceptible the rapid rise and drop of electrical power caused by appliance such as an ice maker refrigerator or air conditioner. This surge of electricity can damage the micro-processor's electronic circuit board, causing the oven to fail, she cautions. A warranty typically covers the control unit for two years. After that, replacing the unit will cost $125-$200 plus labor, says the specialist.

Tissue paper gets its name from its original use: it was designed for placing between the folds of extremely fine gold-woven fabric, or "gold tissue."

Once upon a time gasoline was cheap.

So was natural gas.

Some folks remember cheap gasoline prices. Natural gas prices used to be cheap for power plants at Southwestern Public Service Company, too.

Today, it's different. Natural gas costs continue to increase, and since we don't own any gas wells, we don't have much to say about natural gas prices... just as you don't about gasoline.

We've brought coal into the picture to help keep costs down. Electricity made from coal costs much less.

Another way we're...

Not any more. Natural gas prices have increased dramatically.

COTTON TODAY

Barr Heads Council: Accepting the National Cotton Council presidency this week, John S. Barr, III, said he is confident the industry can continue the momentum it has achieved during the past year. The oak ridge, La., producer pointed to leadership resources across the Belt, an experienced and capable Council staff, and industry strength built on unity as the reasons for his confidence. Named to the post by the Board of Directors, Barr succeeds Gerald Brewer who is now board chairman.

Morris M. Bryan, Jefferson, Ga., textile manufacturer, was elected a Council vice president. Re-elected were Vice Presidents Lloyd Cline, Lamesa, Tex., ginners and Samuel B. Hollis, Memphis, warehouseman; Treasurer James H. Sanford, Prattville, Ala., producer; and Executive Vice President Earl W. Sears, Memphis. Macon Edwards was named senior vice president, governmental affairs, and Gaylon Booker, vice president, operations.

Brighter Situation Noted
The cotton industry's situation over-all has dramatically improved from what it was a year ago, National Cotton Council President Gerald Brewer reported at the 46th annual meeting this week. The Fresno, Calif., cotton leader said the improved outlook stems in part from the PIK program, the weather, and the general economic recovery. He also credited Council activities as a key factor in cotton's brighter balance sheet, citing re-opening of PIK bids, obtaining of blended credit for Korea's purchases of U.S. cotton, and securing federal cost share for expanding boll weevil eradication throughout the Carolinas.

These achievements alone represented a return of more than $285 million from industry firm's $3.5 million "investment" in the organization, he said.

Cotton Export Outlook Looks Brighter: An improved outlook is shaping up for U.S. raw cotton exports as a result of major shifts in world cotton trade patterns, according to the National Cotton Council.

Council economists report that the 1983-84 cotton exports are likely to be somewhat higher than the United States Dept. of Agriculture's 6.3 million-bale estimate when the season ends July 31. They point out the U.S. emerged as the world's only reliable large-scale supplier of raw cotton during this year's first quarter.

Russia has been forced to withdraw from export competition because of faltering production, and several other exporting countries have been hit by weather problems for the past two seasons. As result, the U.S. export sales pace is about 50 per cent higher than last, and shipments about 25 per cent higher.

Boggs Named President: C.L. Boggs, who heads Plains Cotton Cooperative Assn., Lubbock, Tex., is new president of Cotton Council International, the overseas arm of the National Cotton Council.

He succeeds Peter E. Hirschfeld, Dallas cotton merchant, who becomes CCI board chairman.

Other CCI officers named at the Council's annual meeting are: Rudi E. Scheidt, Memphis merchant, first vice president; C.L. (Bill) Scott, Casa Grande, Ariz., producer, second vice president; and H.L. Hodges, Greenwood, Miss., cooperative, treasurer.

New directors are Jack Mc Donald, Decatur, Ill., Richard Woodward, Raymond V. Cooper, Dallas; G. Frederick Deans, Memphis; R.B. Flowers, Tunica, Miss.; Fred Salyer, Corcoran, Calif.; Tommy Fondren, Lorenzo, Tex.; and Jackie Wiley, Lovington, N.M.

Re-elected directors are Morris M. Bryan Jr., Jefferson, Ga.; Eduardo Esteve, Dallas; J.S. Francis Jr., Peoria, Ariz.; Daniel K. Frierson, Chattanooga; Donald E. Litz, Tipton, Calif.; and L.F. Preston, Fresno.

FROM THE CEA'S DESK BY GREG HENLEY

Americans tend to think of money as their only valuable resource.

However, it's important to look closely at another resource that we seem to have less and less of as we become busier and busier. That resource is time.

Time, money, energy, skill, material things, brain power: all are valuable resources. Learning to mobilize them to reach specific personal and household goals are girls and boys from 9 to 19 in the 4-H home management program, says Greg Henley, county agent with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

4-H members in the program learn that decision-making is what management is all about. They might tackle family food bills and come up with cost-cutting techniques. They organize personal work schedules that set realistic goals and conserve time and energy.

Whatever projects they choose, 4-H'ers can earn awards donated by Beatrice Foods Company and arranged by the National 4-H Council. Eight outstanding 4-H'ers are awarded national college scholarships of $1,000 each. One top program member from each state receives an expense-paid trip to National 4-H Congress in Chicago each fall. And four members per county are eligible for medals of honor.

All winners are selected on the basis of their records of accomplishment by the Extension Service, which conducts the 4-H program.

Social Security By BOOTH ROBBINS

Everyone who has ever worked a job covered by Social Security has an individual lifetime earnings record in file at the Social Security Administration headquarters. This computerized record, identified by Social Security number rather than by name, is updated each year. It is this earnings record that helps determine if a person worked long enough to be eligible for Social Security benefits and if so, the amount of the monthly payment.

Since wages did not count for Social Security purposes until 1937, no earnings before that time are recorded. In addition, no self-employment earnings are credited before 1951. Basic pay received by persons in military service on active duty in 1957 or later is in the earnings record.

On request, the Social Security Administration will send a person an earnings statement that summarizes the information contained in the record.

The earnings shown on the statement include wages as well as self-employment, which is reported on the Federal income tax return filed each year. Since all earnings are recorded after the close of a year, there may be a lag of 18 months or more before earnings for a given year are actually recorded.

The maximum amount of earnings that count for Social Security purposes is set by law. In 1984, only the first $37,800 in wages count for Social Security. If a person works for more than one employer during the year and, as a result, pays Social Security taxes on more than the annual maximum, he or she may claim credit on his or her Federal income tax return.

To give you an idea of the size of the bookkeeping operation Social Security maintains, the following statistics are given:

* Records are maintained on over 240 million Americans who retain active Social Security numbers:

* Social Security pays monthly benefits to nearly 36 million people and Supplemental Security Income payments to 3.6 million people;

* More than 7.5 million new claims applications are processed annually;

* Some 12 million new and replacement Social Security cards are issued each year;

* Each year Social Security processes some 380 wage reports from employers, 19 million post actions and 120 million health bills and queries.

Is it any wonder that occasionally something goes haywire and you don't receive your check on time? Of course, only a very minute percentage of people have any trouble at all, but even at that, it is too many.

It is the desire of Social Administration to get everyone's check to them at the right times, right places and the right amount.

Acting Social Security Commissioner Martha A. McSteen has pledged her total support to the modernization effort that will result in the improved service the public deserves.

Incidentally, Martha McSteen was Regional Commissioner of Social Security in Dallas for many years and prior to that she worked in a number of offices in the Dallas Region. The Dallas Region consists of Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Louisiana.

The first record to sell a million copies was "Dardenella's/m Forever Blowing Bubbles," by Ben Selven. It was put out by Victor Records in 1919.

Dietary Guidelines To Lower Cancer Risk Recommended

The American Institute for Cancer Research has published recommended dietary guidelines based on the findings of research studies that suggest a link between diet, nutrition and cancer. These guidelines are closely patterned after the National Academy of Sciences report, "Diet, Nutrition and Cancer." They are:

1. Reduce the intake of dietary fat—both saturated and unsaturated—from the current average of approximately 40% to a level of 30% of total calories.
2. Increase the consumption of fruits, vegetables and whole grain cereals.
3. Consume salt-cured, smoked and charcoal-broiled foods in moderation only.

4. Drink alcoholic beverages only in moderation. According to AICR, these guidelines are consistent with good nutrition and adherence to them may also reduce the risk of developing cancer. "The relationship between diet and cancer is being investigated by many cancer researchers," said Dr. T. Colin Campbell, the senior science advisor of AICR and an experienced researcher in the field of nutrition and cancer. "The evidence of a link is sufficiently persuasive that the NAS has proposed interim dietary guidelines. We believe the American public needs to be aware of both scientific research in this area and the findings that have been discovered so far,"

he said. The basis for the guidelines is scientific research that shows that a balanced nutrient intake achieved through the consumption of moderate amount of a variety of foods and not through the use of vitamin and mineral supplements may inhibit the development of some chemically caused cancers. According to these guidelines, such nutrients and food constituents as Vitamins A, C, E, dietary fiber, beta carotene, and selenium have been shown potentially to inhibit cancer when consumed at levels found in a balanced diet. It is important to note that excessive consumption of certain of these substances, especially selenium, can be toxic, the report said. The guidelines also explain that while many people have reduced their consumption of saturated fat, they have not reduced

Voter Registration Certificates Are Mailed

Voter registration certificates were mailed to the registered voters of Lynn County Jan. 15. The blue certificates will be in effect from March 1, 1984 through Feb. 28, 1986. Anyone having changed voting precincts or changed their name and or address should contact the Lynn County Tax Office in order to be eligible to vote in all elections. Citizens who have not registered must do so 30 days prior to an election to be eligible to vote. Any registered voter who has not received a certificate should contact the County Tax Office.

total fat intake. Research has shown a link between fat intake and the incidence of cancer, especially cancer of the breast, large bowel and prostate. Research has also shown a link between excessive consumption of salt-cured, smoked and charcoal-broiled foods and cancer. Dr. Campbell says that few Americans are likely to be at risk from this, however, because of American dietary habits and controlled food processing procedures. High alcohol consumption affects cancer risk because of "empty" calories in alcoholic beverages reduces the intake of nutrient-rich foods. High consumption of alcohol may be associated with the development of liver cancer. Combined with cigarette smoking, high alcohol consumption also increases the risk of certain cancers.

CLOTHING IS GOOD BUY—Clothing was a good buy last year, but finding real bargains this year will still take time and shopping skill, says a home economist. The Consumer Price index indicates that clothing prices increased only 2.7 percent over 1982 costs, while prices in general increased 3.9 percent, reports clothing specialist Becky Saunders. Although two thirds of this slight increase was due to higher prices, one-third resulted from increased consumer spending. Spending for women's suits and dresses increased more than other clothing and footwear categories, she says, probably because of the rising employment rate for women, and the fashion emphasis on "investment dressing."

The unaided human eye, in optimum circumstances, can distinguish 10,000,000 different color surfaces.
