

Historical Events of 1960 Mold A New Muleshoe

By VERN FOLTZ

The year 1960, now three-quarters gone, marks a gigantic stone for Muleshoe which will point the way to our future citizens for many generations to come.

History in the making has way of being obscure. While we are making history we are so blinded by their brightness so that we are unaware of its magnitude.

It is necessary to stop and reflect upon the wide consequences our present-day activities will have on our children and grandchildren.

You may recall the quote of Abraham Lincoln, "The world will little note nor long remember what we do here. Yet every year that passes the world takes note of what he and the others at that grave-side ceremony for this nation's heroes were commemorating. And we shall long remember.

So too will the 1980 and 1995 Muleshoe citizens take note of what we are doing in the U-Bar City in 1960. We can be proud of our 1960 accomplishments too.

The most important single act of 1960 was achieved when the Muleshoe voters thronged to the polls and voted over two to one for the adoption of our new home rule charter.

There were other significant events in 1960 which helped to build the proper frame-of-mind preceding the election and others since that time which show that we have made a wise choice. Here are those events:

Jan. 4—Lindal Murray elected as president of Chamber of Commerce.

February 8—Chamber of Commerce increases its promotions and publicity budget some $2,000 over its 1959 figure. The 1960 fund was $11,530.

Febr. 20—United States mail delivery was approved and free city delivery was inaugurated in Muleshoe on this day.

Mar. 17—First National Bank announces plans for expansion.

Mar. 18—H and FFA Stock Show biggest ever in Muleshoe.

April 17—Muleshoe merchants offer fabulous free vacations for two to Hawaii.

April 28—St. Clair's Dept. Store announces plans to erect new building.

May 12—U. S. Census figures show that Muleshoe increased 65 per cent over its 1950 figure of 2477 to a new mark of 4177. Bailey County jumped to 9,034.

June 23—Sneed Supply announced that they had secured the Rambler dealership for the Muleshoe trade territory.

July 5—New Home Rule Charter approved by Muleshoe voters by a majority of more than two to one.

July 31—First National Bank holds open house.

Aug. 13—Muleshoe merchants, the Chamber of Commerce, and local authorities co-operated to hold a mall-type shopping day on the main street of Muleshoe.

Aug. 18—Arch March was announced as the first City Manager for "The New Muleshoe."

Aug. 25—H. D. King of King Bros. Grain & Seed Co., announced that a new cattle feeding plant was near completion just west of Muleshoe.

Sept. 10—Farmers Co-operative Elevator holds grand opening of new Co-op Farm Supply Store in Muleshoe.

Sept. 15—Arch March moves to Muleshoe and assumes duties as Muleshoe's first City Manager.

Sept. 15, 16, 17—Large Fiesta held by Muleshoe's Spanish people in observance of Mexico's Independence.

March has come to Muleshoe with many good ideas. These are not just good ideas either. Most of them are as soundly fundamental as the foundation which supports Pike's Peak.

In fact March operates in this manner. He says there are good ideas, but he prefers the "good-sound ideas".

Nor, in talking with the City Manager, did I get the impression that he thinks he's going to come into Muleshoe and ramrod courageous new ideas upon an uninformed public.

He insists that the people should know what he is up to and, knowing what he is trying to do, they understand the overall picture and pledge their unwavering support.

When talking to Arch in his city hall office this week he conveyed to me the idea that he doesn't sit around thinking up a bunch of new ideas. He says one must get out, meet people, learn the present situation of things, decide what is wrong with present methods, formulate a corrective plan, gain the support of the people concerned so that they will help him carry out the corrective measures.

Muleshoe has made its bid for greatness in the modern world. Now we must play our hand to achieve the ultimate of what our resources can provide.

1960 is our great year of awakening and it is only three-quarters gone. Let's see what we can accomplish in the remaining and final quarter.

FIRST FOR NORTHWEST CONFERENCE

Methodist Home For "Retirement Living" Selects Hereford As Site For Building

The first home for retirement living in the Northwest Texas Methodist Conference will be located at Hereford it was announced Tuesday.

The announcement followed a meeting held in Lubbock of trustees of Methodist Homes for Older Adults, Inc., of which W. C. Young, Andrews, is president. Mr. Young is a banker at Andrews.

Headed by the Hereford Business & Professional Women's Club, the community has subscribed $100,000 for the home, including a choice site.

It was indicated the Home will be built in two construction steps, the first to provide for 60 residents, and the Board hopes that within two years after its opening they can enlarge to care for 150 residents.

Non-Profit Program

Those who move into the Home in most cases will pay for the actual cost of care by the month on a co-op basis, making the Home a non-profit program. There will be room for at least twenty per cent of the apartments to be assigned to people who need help at financial levels making the Home a non-profit program with church-gift tax consideration for each donor.

All members will continue to be "independent" and choose their own daily activity and schedule. They will furnish their own apartments as they wish so long as their plan meets safety codes and the citizenship code set up by the Council of Members who make their own rules.

Each would have a private efficiency apartment, congregate parlors, visiting rooms, dining room, library, chapel, TV room, hobby shop, party room, snack bar, solarium, complete infirmary, with provisions for a guest bed room all set in a private park, at much less than it would cost to buy a three bedroom home.

The Home will be open to people of all faiths, but all applications must clear a committee on admissions. A building committee appointed Thursday night to contact firms for preliminary design and to hire one to prepare for contract study.

The Methodist Board also elected Mrs. Dyalhia Benson, R. Allison, and J. C. Meador, all of Hereford to serve in an advisory capacity to the building committee as the project makes progress.

The public may secure more facts about the Home by writing to the Chamber of Commerce, Hereford, Texas, or to W. C. Young, Andrews, Texas, or perhaps secure later information from Rev. Don Davidson, whose office address is Executive Director, Northwest Texas Methodist Homes for Older Adults, 3301 South 5th St., Abilene, Texas.

Publicity will be given to the progress made in the plans for construction and opening of the Home from time to time.

Infirmary care will be part of the first plan. The Home will have the latest features discovered to be worth while for adding "life to years" rather than "years to life", in the language of the director.

Each apartment may have its own brass doorknocker and nameplate and will probably have radiant heat in the baseboard. It is possible that even the promenade in front of the central service will be free from snow and ice by radiant water lines.

The design for capital finance makes provision for large or small gifts by any interested person either in memorials, freewill gifts, annuity investments for lifetime dividends to the donor, deferred membership, or immediate monthly care residence.

WORLD FAMOUS ENSEMBLE

Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo To Appear In Plainview Dec. 16

Ballet Russe de Monte will highlight the season of Plainview Community Concert Association offerings. This world famous ballet ensemble will appear in Plainview December 16 at 8 p.m., in the High School Auditorium.

Bringing such a distinguished troupe of outstanding dancers to this area is an ambitious undertaking for a town the size of Plainview, but the Community Concerts Association is meeting the requirements and is anticipating wide participation from neighboring towns.

It took some doing to get the tremendous production to Plainview, however after the highly successful appearance here two years ago of the Chicago Opera Ballet, the Concerts' directors were able to convince the booking department of the National Community Concerts Association that Plainview facilities were adequate for the ballet company.

Company of 70

Special arrangements are being made to take care of requirements of the company of 70 who compose the ballet. Dressing rooms for the stars and choruses must be properly equipped with mirrors and lighting and a large room, and wardrobe mistress to insure that all costumes are fresh and ready. Proper preparation of the stage floor is required, as a slippage stage could mean serious injury to a dancer. The orchestra pit must be equipped for the twenty musicians and conductor who travel with the company.

The Plainview Community Concerts' membership drive will be launched this week. The Kick-Off Dinner is scheduled for Monday night, Sept. 26, and under the annual campaign procedure an intensive week's drive will be conducted.

A concerted effort will be made to secure a membership roll large enough to insure presentation by Plainview Concerts Association of three other top-rated programs, along with the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo.

Memberships are cordially solicited from neighboring communities and cities and towns adjacent to Plainview. Adult memberships are $7.50 and students $3.50. These membership cards also carry admission to offerings of other Community Concerts' Associations in the area—at Clovis, Canyon, etc.

If you do not have a representative of the Association in your town, you may write Mrs. Louis Cummings, Hale Center Highway, Plainview, or call Capital 3-2108 or Capital 4-5702, Plainview.

NM Captain Of Police Killed In Clovis Crash

CLOVIS, N. M.—State Police Capt. James A. Clark, 53, died late Monday night when his police car crashed into the side of a moving freight train at a dark crossing west of Clovis.

He was the second state officer to be killed in traffic within a 35-day period.

The accident occurred at 11:05 p.m. Mountain Standard Time as Capt. Clark was returning to Clovis after making a last tour of the area around Cannon Air Force Base, west of the city.

His car slammed into the seventh car from the end of a long Santa Fe Railway freight train. Skid marks on the gravel road measured 147 feet, but Clark's car hit with such force that it derailed a flat car loaded with new automobiles.

The accident occurred at a grade crossing on a dirt road running west of U. S. 60.

Clovis officers who investigated the crash said Capt. Clark apparently did not see the train. They think he was driving about 40 miles an hour and the train was making 60 miles per hour.

Capt. Clark was born Oct. 15, in Texas.

He is survived by his wife, Christine of Clovis; two sons, Gene M. of Lawndale, Calif., and James R. of Clovis; two daughters, Carolyn and Cathryn. Clovis is his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy O. Clark of Miami, Ariz.; brother, Ralph Clark of Los Alamos, and three grandchildren.

DWI Gets Fine, Jail Sentence

Just as The Journal editor remarked to other workers, "I wish I had some local event to write about", a newsworthy event happened in the street almost in front of the Journal office Tuesday afternoon.

After receiving two calls protesting a man's driving, officers were on the lookout. Garland Freeman, deputy sheriff, saw the man, stopped his car and arrested him near the Tri-Co Bowling Center on West American boulevard. Nearing the courthouse, the man began to struggle with Freeman, trying to get the officer's gun.

Freeman could not wrestle for the gun and do a very good job of driving so his car rammed into Dudley Malone's Oldsmobile, parked at the curb in front of Malone Milk Co. office. Police Chief Findi arrived to help Freeman subdue the man who was hustled off to jail. The officer's car was badly damaged, but one had to examine closely to find a small dint on the Oldsmobile, although it was pushed onto the sidewalk.

The man, whose name is Curtis Royce Holly, of Clovis, was charged with DWI. Hearing the case, Judge Glen Williams assessed a fine of $200 and 3 days in jail, and suspended the man's driver license for 6 months.

AT RESEARCH STATION

3,500 For Field Day

As reported to The Journal by Bill Wimberley, Texas State.

The greatest number of people gathered at Halfway last week to witness the High Plains Research project than has ever attended. Over 3,500 people toured the Field Day activities and some 2,880 were registered for the occasion.

In the past three years Field Day crowds averaged near 2,000 individuals. A goodly number of these people made the trip from Muleshoe and vicinity.

The fourth annual High Plains Field Day activities were capped by a mammoth barbecue at 6:30 p.m. This was the delight of us who enjoy good barbecue.

There were some 800 varieties of Sossame shown, some of which will be adapted to this area. Cotton, sorghums and soybeans were also displayed.

Particular interest was shown in the methods of soil conservation and water restoration. The methods and devices shown at Halfway will begin to be carried into the fields all over the Plains in a few years.

In addition to farm tours there was a farm machinery show. The latest in development of farming, irrigation, and agricultural aviation equipment were shown.

Ideas of how to best utilize what we have is our key to the future, and ideas of just this kind are in abundance every year at Halfway.

It was announced that a procedure course salad luncheon will be held in the home of Mrs. Bernard Phelps from 9:00 until 2:00 Monday, Oct. 3.

The ladies presented Mrs. Gatewood with a lovely corsage in appreciation for her services.

The next P.T.A. meeting will be held in the cafeteria at 7:30 p.m. Monday, Oct. 10.

Muleshoe Meets Hereford Here

The Muleshoe Mules, still looking for their first win of the season, will try to tame the high flying Hereford Whitefaces here Friday night at Benny Douglass Stadium. Last week the Whitefaces stamped past the strong Dimmitt Bobcats 28-0. The week before that they had shut out the Canyon Eagles 26-0. In the Dimmitt game Hereford turned loose some fleet-footed halfbacks and crunching fullbacks. Their forward wall is a beefy, hard charging and hard hitting bunch.

The Mules, who have tied Clovis then lost to Littlefield, have proven themselves as rugged on defense, but a little light and slow on offense. The Mules this year have failed to come up with a fast, break away runner or a bulldozing back to pick up that needed yard or so.

Coach Halter has done some shifting of the ball club, hoping to come up with the right combination. Probably starters Friday night will be: Jimmy Patton, LE; Mike Barron, LT; Jerry Wright, LG; Bob White, C; Wayne Malone, RG; Jerry Howard, RT; Mike Cabrera, RE; Billy Gilbreath, QB; Jerry Gilbreath, LH; Rex Miller, RH; and Gary Pierce, FB.

The Mules haven't met the Hereford Whitefaces since 1955 when they lost by a 47-7 score. Muleshoe has never been able to down the Whitefaces, although tying them 20-20 back in 1953.

This will be the last home game until October 14 when the Mules will meet the Olton Mustangs to start the district play. Next week they will travel to Dimmitt to meet the Bobcats and the following week they will tangle with the Friona Chiefs at Friona.

Self-Preservation Now Primary Consideration For US People

by Vern Foltz

This week the butcherer-of-Hungarians, Mr. K., has come to the United States. He has not come here due to any welcome from this country, but because the United Nations headquarters are in New York City. The U. S. would be the last to refuse a member nation its right to attend an international assembly.

The U. S. did, however, restrict Mr. K. to Manhattan Island. This I am glad they did. Any tyrant who shows utter disregard and contempt for this country need not expect a red carpet welcome or free rein.

We are all aware of the Congo trouble and the Cuban fiasco which brings these quirks of mankind to our shores. All this clamouring for headlines and showy disregard for diplomacy brings right to our doorstep the theme of this type of checker-playing. The familiar chord that we hear behind all the charges and countercharges has long been the motto of the Boy Scouts of America, "Semper Paratus" . . . Always Prepared.

Now more than ever we as individuals must be prepared to meet the circumstances that so suddenly (and almost likely) will be thrust upon us . . . warfare of some kind and perhaps nuclear warfare.

The best way we have of being prepared is to make sure that we will be alive in the event of an emergency. As long as we are on our feet we can defend our country, and the ideals for which we stand.

Keeping one's self alive may not be as easy as it now appears. One cannot be out grubbing for groceries if he is in danger of death by radiation. So you can see that a supply of food is essential right now . . . before anything develops into war. If war never comes, no one has lost anything . . . if war develops all may be lost.

Nor can we go stampeding to the grocery store for food after attack. Picture a bigger crowd than you've ever seen at a football game converging on a grocery store to fight each other for scraps of food. There's not enough food in our stores for everyone at any given time for a two week period.

The way to avoid all this is to begin to lay back a 2-week supply of food right now . . . a little at a time. It won't take more than ten dollars. It may save your life . . . and our country.

If you don't know what to get, write to me and I'll see if I can get some grocery outlets to stock prepared survival kits. Each should contain enough food for two people for two weeks.

The above calls attention to the need for keeping the individual alive. If you succeed in keeping yourself alive the burden of keeping this country alive will then fall upon your shoulders. Here is what you will then need:

1. Source of water.
2. First Aid Kit.
3. Survival food kits (others may come to you for aid)
4. Gun with plenty of ammunition. This is just as important today as it was for the pioneers who were settling our western frontiers. They had to protect their lives and property and the lives of their loved ones.
5. Radio with short wave bands is optional, but it may help to keep you informed.

It would be wise to have these survival artifacts on hand in case some bureaucratic organization gets control of our government and seeks to round up all firearms and other means of resistance. I say be prepared to defend our freedom to the very last breath of the last free individual alive. Our freedom was won with blood and if it is taken from us it is going to have to be taken with more bloodshed. We all have something worth dying for. It wouldn't be worth living if we lost our country or its ideals.

London, England, Sept. 22—Every young person should be "protected" until he or she is 14 to 16 years of age. If the youth shows any natural resources, he or she should be protected or "subsidized" through high school and perhaps in college, but no longer.

United States Economics
 The same economic principle should be applied by nations. The U. S. had nearly all the natural resources—including cheap labor—when it adopted a protective tariff. It had timber, oil, iron, gas, copper, water power, and the climate to raise cotton, cattle, and grains. A protective tariff was then justified in order to give industry a start.

But to give the U. S. protective tariffs now, when it no longer has cheap labor, would be foolish and in the end make conditions worse. The same applies to Great Britain and most of Europe. The formation of the six and seven-nation European groups which have united to provide central markets for their products and eliminate trade barriers is a wonderful step forward which United States manufacturers and labor should watch.

More About Ireland
 Since my last article on Ireland, I have studied the Emerald Isle most intensely. It has three basic natural resources: Good soil, plenty of rain and fine pasture land for cattle and sheep. It, however, lacks timber, coal, oil, gas, and sunshine. It has no iron, only a trace of copper; but much cheap labor. Common labor is happy with $3.00 per day and skilled labor with $6.00 per day since living costs are very low.

The future of Ireland is agriculture, principally livestock. The main manufactured products which appear to pay are cement and sugar made from sugar beets. There are also great possibilities for further development of the tourist business, especially hunting, fishing, and mountain climbing. Yet the Irish government is making a serious effort to attract factories—with tax exemption to other helps. The most interesting experiment is being made 8 miles north of Killarney by the "H-C" Crane Works. This is a German concern which is importing its iron, making it into cranes and heavy machines and exporting all their products (selling none in Ireland) to all parts of the world. All Ireland hopes these Germans will succeed.

England, France, and Germany
 England has a small amount of iron and coal which, with good workers, has made this an industrial nation without the need of protective tariffs except as to luxuries. England's skilled labor and financial ability has made its bankers a power in world finance, insurance, and shipping.

The French people are not too well informed on economics, but Southern France has a fine climate for raising grapes and other fruits. Hence, it is leading the world in making fine wines, perfumes, fashions, and other luxuries. (Our California is fast catching up.)

Germany has steel and much cheap skilled labor; but Italy appeals most to me. It leads the world in plastics, and is fast developing a great business in automobiles and machines of all kinds.

Finally, just a word about leaving the U. S. A. and working in Europe. Except for young people who like farming and stock-raising, the opportunities in Ireland and France are slight. The clerks work from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.—for $8.00 to $12.00 per week. I visited a skilled carpenter, the father of a man in my office at Wellesley whom I pay $8,000 a year. This carpenter gets $4.28 per day.

Living is Cheap
 But the living here is cheap for working people. Everyone has good food and warm clothing and a good time. The weather is bad; but the people are healthy. A person in the U. S. who is retiring on a pension should think of coming here to live instead of going to California, Arizona, or Florida. With a pension check coming every month from the "good old U. S. A.", he could live here like a millionaire and have a long, healthy, and happy life.

In West Germany and Italy there are more opportunities for young people, with progressive factories for making all kinds of machines, textiles, plastics, etc. But you must work no coffee breaks or labor unions. Even the waitresses in the hotels run. Everyone is "on their toes." These European countries do not need protective tariffs.

The Sandhills Philosopher Claims New Law On Disc Jockeys Offers Little Relief To Listening Public

Editor's note: The Sand Hills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm discusses popular music this week. We guess that's what he's doing. Dear editor:

With the world fraught with danger, I feel sort of guilty thinking about something frivolous, but if Congress can do it, I guess I can too.

What I'm talking about is a new bill passed by the last session of Congress and just signed by President Eisenhower, making it against the federal law for a radio disc jockey to accept undercover pay to play a phonograph record over the air.

When I first read this article hurriedly, I thought it meant it was now against the law to play some of these so-called popular records over the air, and I thought, well, now, Congress is making progress, but when I read it closely I discovered it's still perfectly all right to play the things, just so the record-makers or the song-writer or the publishing company doesn't pay you something extra to do it.

This is not what I call progress. I didn't think the crime was in taking money for playing them. I thought the crime was in playing them in the first place, but that's not the way Congress voted. You can still get off scott-free for playing them, provided you do it for nothing.

Congress missed the boat. What it needs is a bill making it against the law to put a needle in a juke box if what's going to come out comes out, if you follow me. On the radio, you can turn the thing off while the guitar player hollers for his lost love, but in a cafe, you're stuck.

On the other hand, a lot of people must like these records, and who am I to disagree with them? I don't know any more about music than I do foreign affairs. All I know is that if I was a disc jockey, I'd sure want some extra money to play some of that music over and over, day after day.

Yours faithfully,
 J. A.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

by Vern Sanford
 TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—With all the hoopla over the national elections, many Texans may get to the polls November 8 before they realize they have other important decisions to make that day.

Four proposed amendments to the Texas Constitution will be voted on at the general election. Voting to approve or reject alterations in the state's important responsibility a voter has. It is the average citizen and only opportunity to participate directly in the lawmaking process.

Here, in brief, are the proposed amendments (in the order they will appear on the ballot) and what they would do:

AMENMENT ONE: Would authorize creation of special hospital districts in Lamar County, Hidalgo County and Commissioners Precinct No. 4 of Comanche County.

Approval of this amendment would not actually create these hospital districts, but would give local voters authority to do so in a local election.

Amendments such as this one, which apply only to the areas specifically mentioned, usually are passed on the grounds that they give local voters authority to take care of local affairs. Since it is permissive rather than mandatory, local voters can decide for themselves whether they want to carry it through.

Some argue against such amendments on the grounds that such details as this should not be added to an already overly-long Constitution.

AMENMENT TWO: Would permit a rate of interest not to exceed 3½ per cent on bonds issued hereafter for the benefit of the Veterans Land Fund. Present constitutional ceiling is 3 per cent.

Veterans Land Board is authorized by law to sell bonds and use the money from these sales to buy land which is resold to qualified Texas veterans. Law provided for the sale of $200,000,000 in bonds, but the Board has not been able to sell the last $62,500,000 of these bonds because, in today's market, 3 per cent interest does not make them an attractive investment.

Financial experts think that raising the permitted interest rate to 3½ per cent should be sufficient to make the bonds salable again.

Amendment Three: Would change the pay scale of members of the Legislature to give them annual salaries of $4,800 plus $12 a day for each day in session. It would limit regular sessions to 14 days (present limit is 120 days). Lawmakers would receive $12 a day for each day of a 140-day regular session plus $12 a day for each day of a 30-day special called session.

At present, legislators receive no annual salary. They get $25 a day for each day, up to 120 days, of the regular session plus $25 a day for each day of a 30-day special called session. They receive no pay in years the Legislature does not convene (such as 1960). Under this proposal, they would receive $4,800 a year base pay whether they spent any time in session or not.

Present provisions for travel expenses would not be changed. These provide for the lawmaker to receive $2.50 for each 25 miles of the round trip between his home and Austin once each session.

This amendment is essentially a compromise between the present arrangement and the constitutional change proposed in 1958. Last time the proposal was for annual salaries of $7,500 and no per diem. It also provided for annual sessions which, many think, contributed to its defeat.

Proponents of the current plan say that it will make it possible for better qualified people to serve in the Legislature without having to make so much of a personal financial sacrifice to do so.

Opponents argue that it will create "professional legislators." They contend that it is better for the lawmaker to have another job in private life to keep him closer to the problems of the people.

If the amendment is passed, a Texas legislator would receive for his two-year term of office minimum pay of $9,600. In other states, the pay for a two-year term ranges from $200 in New Hampshire to $15,000 in New York. Average is about $3,600.

AMENMENT FOUR: Would give the Legislature authority to classify loans and lenders, to license and regulate lenders, to define what part of the charge made on loans should be considered interest and to fix the maximum rate of interest which should be charged.

This is generally known as the "anti-loan shark" amendment and is being supported by a blue ribbon committee of citizens from over the state.

At present the Constitution provides that the maximum rate of interest shall be 10 per cent. This is widely, almost universally, violated by the small loan industry, usually through additional charges besides the interest—"handling charges, service charges," etc.

Attorney General's department investigations have turned up cases of flagrant abuse by loan companies, making charges that totaled altogether as much as 300% of the amount loaned. On the other hand, the investigators themselves admit that a loan company making short-term, high-risk personal loans cannot stay in the black on 10 per cent.

If this amendment is passed, it will be up to the Legislature to decide what is a fair charge. Even those legislators who voted for this proposal admit they dread the prospect of having to decide what rates are fair.

The Texas Department of Public Safety announced today applications will be received until October 1 to fill 120 openings in the DPS field service.

Field service examinations will be given October 4 in Tyler, Houston, Harlingen, Midland, El Paso, Lubbock, and Waco; October 5 in Dallas, Lufkin, Corpus Christi, Abilene, Amarillo and Austin; and October 6 in Fort Worth, Beaumont, San Antonio, San Angelo and Wichita Falls.

Col. Homer Garrison, Jr., department director, urged young men between the ages of 21 and 35 to "take this opportunity to serve your state and at the same time begin a life-time career of prestige and security as a patrolman."

He said application forms and full information can be obtained at any Texas Department of Public Safety field office, or by writing to department headquarters, P. O. Box 100, Austin.

Successful applicants will undergo a strenuous but rewarding 16-weeks training period with pay at the department's Law Enforcement Academy at Austin which will put them in tip-top physical and mental condition," Garrison said.

Upon completion of training, they will become commissioned officers and will be issued uniforms and other equipment. Then they will go into field service under the supervision of veteran officers.

Basic qualifications call for a high school education or the equivalent, height not under five feet, eight inches nor over six feet, four inches, and weight not less than two pounds per inch of height, nor more than three pounds per inch of height.

Garrison said there are many personal benefits for state patrolmen, including job security, a good retirement system, annual vacations, sick leave and advancement opportunities.

Highway Patrol Investigates 7 Bailey County Mishaps In August

The Highway Patrol investigated 7 rural accidents in Bailey County during the month of August, according to Sergeant D. S. Lawson, Patrol Supervisor of this area.

These wrecks have accounted for one person killed, three injured, and a property damage of $6,215.

This brings the total for the year in this county to four persons killed, 5 injured, and a property damage of $22,730.

1088 Fatalities Prior to the first of this month there had been a total of 1,088 fatal accidents in Texas. These tragedies resulted in 1,342 persons losing their lives.

The back to school bell has already sounded for Texas school children. They will be using our highways and streets to and from school. Motorists should drive with more caution and care than ever before.

Sergeant Lawson pointed out that at the present rate of traffic fatalities, half of the elementary school children in Texas will be involved in a motor vehicle accident before they reach the age of 21.

Fifteen persons were killed and 240 injured in rural traffic accidents involving school buses in Texas during 1959.

Bus Traffic Law State laws regarding traffic in regard to school buses read as follows: "The driver of a vehicle upon a highway outside of the limits of any incorporated city or town upon meeting or overtaking from either direction any school bus which has stopped on the highway for the purpose of receiving or discharging any school children shall stop the vehicle immediately before passing the school bus, but may then proceed past such school bus at a speed which is prudent, not exceeding (10) miles per hour, and with due caution for the safety of such children."

The Sergeant stated, "The driver of the passing vehicle is responsible for taking the due caution. He is responsible for knowing that his proceeding past the bus will not result in endangering any lives."

Remember, no one has a child to spare!

Four Cotton Reports Free

College Station—Four cotton market news reports of interest to farmers and the cotton trade are available from the Agricultural Marketing Service, according to John L. McCollum, manager, Southwest Area, Cotton Division, Dallas.

These reports are designed to keep all interests abreast of cotton and cottonseed developments during the market season. They include, The Cottonseed Review, The Cotton Quality Report, The Cotton Classing Report, and the Weekly Cotton Market Review.

The Cottonseed Review, released weekly during the active ginning season, covers the movement of cottonseed, changes in price and quality, and harvesting conditions. Information in this report is limited to areas where cottonseed is officially graded.

The Cotton Quality Report, a monthly release, shows the percentage distribution by districts of the grades and staples of cotton ginned during the month, cumulative for the season and year ago comparisons. The Cotton Classing Report, released each Monday during the harvesting season, shows the grade, grade index, staple length and the number of samples classed under the Smith-Doxey Act by various classing offices.

The Weekly Cotton Market Review, the only report issued throughout the year, reports market conditions with respect to demand, prices, inquiries, offerings, domestic and export sales, crop developments, harvesting conditions and other pertinent or seasonal market information.

These reports are mailed free upon request. Farmers and others in Texas and Oklahoma should address inquiries to: Cotton Division, AMS, U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, Room 708, Jackson St., Dallas, Texas.

40,000 VETERANS LINE UP FOR FARMS

In the face of mounting anxiety on how to save the family farm, the Veterans Land Board in Austin has some 40,000 veterans lined up waiting to buy Texas farm and ranch land.

This waiting list of 40,000 is now on file at the General Land Office, and requests currently are coming in at the rate of 250 a week. The whole program has been slowed down pending the outcome of a proposed constitutional amendment which will be voted on in the Nov. 8 general election.

The amendment would authorize the Legislature to lift the rate of interest it pays on State bonds sold to purchase land for resale to veterans from 3 per cent to 3 1/2 per cent. The Land Board at present has on hand $62,500,000 worth of these bonds which have failed to attract buyers because of the 3 per cent interest rate. Sale of these bonds at a higher rate of interest would once more accelerate the land buying program.

It is a fact that few of the veterans buying land through the program actually intend to live on or to make a living from their small tracts. For one thing, the limitations are too stringent. The maximum State loan is $7,500, although this may be applied to purchases up to but not to exceed $15,000. Except in extremely rare cases, this is far from enough to provide sufficient land or improvements to make a livelihood.

TERMS ATTRACTIVE

But the terms are attractive—the down payment required is only 5 per cent of the purchase price, and the veteran is given 40 years to pay the balance at an interest rate of 3 1/2 per cent. Through July this has resulted in the sale of 22,427 tracts through the Veterans Land Board, a total purchase price of $132,390,612 and a State investment amounting to $122,102,109. Of these 22,427 tracts, only 158 have been forfeited back to the State because of non-payment of loan installments. More than two million acres of land are involved.

Average price paid for the 22,427 tracts has been $70.03 per acre. The veteran is not required to live on the land he buys, and it is figured that the vast majority are buying as an investment or with plans of eventual retirement with income from elsewhere.

Statistics show that not more than 15 to 20 per cent of veterans requesting application forms actually complete the applications. Approximately 100 application forms are mailed out each week by the Land Board, but the weekly rate of return is only 15 to 20. It may be that the idea of going back to the farm loses some of its appeal when it comes to putting up the cash, even when the amount is small.

Complete Conservation Plan Needs

Another crop year is coming to an end, harvest is close, and many farmers will harvest a good crop for their year's work. We soon will be planning next year's crop, figuring out our cropping systems.

Before we plow the ground, let us think: What happened to the water during the last heavy rain?

How much water ran off your fields during the last heavy rains?

Parmer County Farm Bureau

The question foremost, presented in present political and other organizational groups is whether the government or the individual should take the initiative in developing industry and family income interests.

The view of Farm Bureau people, from the individual member to the national level, is that the individual should be given the opportunity to seek his level of livelihood by exercising his initiative in the realms of private or public employment.

That is, if he wants to work for the other fellow, who choose to invest his funds and try, through good management and judgement, to increase the value of the investment, he can do so, without asking anyone but the employer.

If that individual wants a better income than he started at, he should be entitled to higher pay when he demonstrates to his employer that he is making his employee more than he was when he started.

If the employed individual is not making his employer more than when he started, he should understand that another man, who may not have worked as long as he, may be entitled to an increase in pay because he is willing and able to produce more.

And, the employer should have the right to increase or decrease his number of employees to suit the needs of his productive machine.

Resolutions being prepared by Gilbert Kaltwasser and his committee for the consideration of Parmer County members include reiteration of one that has been presented before; allowing the farmer, whose income fluctuates greatly because of natural, uncontrollable conditions, to average his income over five year periods for income tax purposes.

Probably to be presented, is a resolution calling for the elimination of the "Weed Spray Law", which requires possession of a certificate that shows the number of acres to be sprayed, but offers no protection to those who may be damaged because of such spraying. The certificate costs ten cents per acre.

Farm Bureau members believe that every farmer should inform himself of the activities of farm organizations in the area, and become a member of the one he believes to be operating in the interest of a better America and a better agricultural opportunity for all farmers.

Farm Bureau makes every effort it can muster to get the ideas of its members so that those ideas will be the policies guiding the legislative and other activities of the organization at all times. You are urged to be in attendance at the annual Parmer County Farm Bureau Convention at the Oklahoma Lane Community Building on the night of October 6, 1960.

Was the rain a gully-washer? Did new gullies start on sloping fields or old gullies get deeper, wider or longer? How much top soil washed away? Were any crops washed out?

How much water did your land contribute to your neighbor's farm, into and down road ditches and into lakes?

Moisture stored in the soil is as valuable to growing crops as fresh summer rains. Saving water during wet periods for possible drought is just as practical as putting money in the bank for hard times.

You may not be able to store all the water that falls during the heavy rains, but you can store much of it through good soil and water conservation measures.

We should give a lot of thought to using the land according to its capability, and install structures that might be needed, such as terraces and other measures.

Many of us don't want to build the terraces that are needed to prevent that water erosion because it slows down our farming operation.

What we like or dislike now might save our soil and keep it productive for our children and their children to come.

A long time conservation plan is needed on most farms. Contouring, terracing, management of residues, good crop rotations, with green manure crops, and other soil building practices should give increased yields.

But you must have a long-range program to get full benefits from your soil building and water conserving practices.

For a conservation plan or other assistance contact your soil conservation supervisor in your zone. Contact your local Soil Conservation District Office.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICE

The eternal, harmonious nature of God's creation will be brought out at Christian Science services Sunday in the Lesson-Sermon on the subject of "Reality."

Among the Bible passages to be read are these verses from Psalms (111:7, 8): "The works of his hands are verity and judgment; all his commandments are sure. They stand fast for ever and ever, and are done in truth and uprightness."

Readings from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include this (208:20): "Let us learn of the real and eternal, and prepare for the reign of Spirit, the kingdom of heaven—the reign and rule of universal harmony, which cannot be lost nor remain forever unseen."

The Golden Text is from Lamentations (5:19): "Thou, O Lord, remainest for ever; thy throne from generation to generation."

Today's Meditation

Read Mark 14:32-42

He said, Abba, Father, all things are possible unto thee; take away this cup from me; nevertheless not what I will, but what thou wilt. (Mark 14:36.)

Prayer has been defined in many ways. Prayer is communion with God; friendship with God; the soul's sincere desire, uttered or unexpressed. Such definitions can be multiplied.

Prayer is the submission to the will of God, at all risks. In the garden of Gethsemane, Jesus prayed the same prayer three times—the prayer that God would take away the cup from Him. That was a cup of shame and most painful death upon the cross. He prayed to God to remove it. But each time Jesus said, "Nevertheless not what I will, but what thou wilt." He was obedient to the will of God in the face of agony and sorrow.

He had once said, "I came down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me." He spent His whole life in doing the will of God. Shall we through prayer submit ourselves to the will of God in all circumstances?

PRAYER: O God, give us the courage to run the risks of prayer—the risk of seeing ourselves as we are, the risk of becoming more like Christ, the risk of doing Thy will. In Christ's name. Amen.

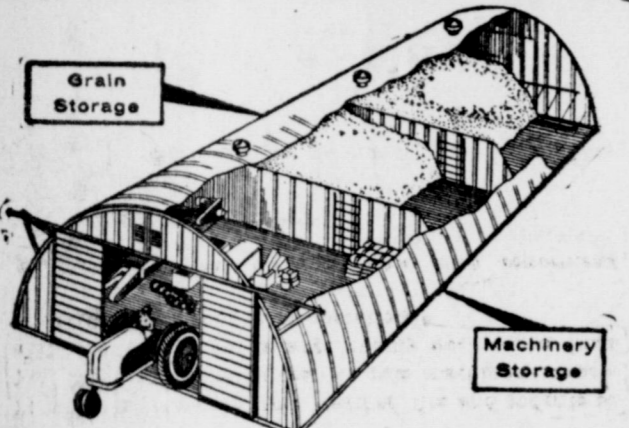

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY
Am I willing to pay the price needful to do the will of God?
