With the coming of school here in the area about to start, local merchants are running special items in this issue of the Journal on sale. Actually with the opening of school the economy of the area will receive a boost with teacher income that will be spent in Muleshoe.

Teacher pay has been the talk for some time and this department is glad to see them get the raise. Higher learning has been the wish of many parents for their children and school teachers are just like anything else. You pay for what you get. Many of us would not have received the education we have if it had not been for some dedicated people who believe in teaching.

This is the second issue of the Journal to be published on Wednesday evening and we hope everyone will enjoy getting the paper earlier. This will enable our advertisers to do a more effective job of reaching the greater Muleshoe market area.

Sam Damron has been doing a bang up job in selling the Muleshoe season tickets and we would advise anyone who hasn't got their tickets to do so now because they are going fast.

Mr. Forbes, known to most everyone as Scoop, is in California on his vacation and everyone here misses him. Scoop is deserving of a vacation though and we think the boss will enjoy himself in sunny California. We just hope that he and the Mrs. like reading in the Journal when they receive their paper.

We are real sorry to see our city manager Arch March resign his post. We have not known Arch very long but we think he will make some city also a good manager.

The new football stands are looking good and we know the fans will enjoy them. Mr. Mills has done a real good job on them. This department will be glad when football season is here because we just plain like high school football.

Be sure to check this issue of the Journal for back to school bargains and free theatre tickets that will be given away by thirty Muleshoe firms, 10-4.

Hi Plains Tests Milling Quality Of Wheat Plots

Farmers in Bailey County will be planting wheat during September and October and much of the irrigated land will be fertilized.

County Agricultural Agent J. K. Adams states that the fertilizer needs for wheat will vary considerably among soil types and that chemical analysis affords the best known guide to profitable fertilizer use.

The Soil Testing Laboratory operated in Lubbock by the Extension Service is now located in new quarters at the Agricultural Experiment Station. The $2.00 fee for testing a soil sample could be an excellent investment.

Adams suggests you come by his office for an information sheet that explains how samples should be collected and mailed. It is of great importance that you fill in the information requested on this sheet since all known factors are considered along with the chemical values in arriving at a fertilizer recommendation.

By taking samples early the report will be on hand when the time comes to decide how much and what kind of fertilizer is needed.

Ice Cream Party Will Honor Mules

Muleshoe High School cheerleaders are sponsoring an ice cream party at 8 p.m. Thursday, August 17, to honor the 1961 Muleshoe Mules.

According to Karen Jones, one of the cheerleaders, the public is invited to attend and those attending are requested to bring a freezer of ice cream.

"Please come on out and show the Mules you are backing them," the cheerleaders said.

Sodium Also Plagues Bailey Farmers

Soil Tests Show High Lime Content Holds County Back

Bailey County Agent J. K. Adams disclosed this week that the high lime content of Bailey County, uncorrected, is what keeps Bailey County from being the top producing farm area in the state of Texas.

Adams made this statement while telling of the abnormally high content found in this county and what can now be done to help counteract the effects of the lime in the soil.

Adams said the average pH (potential Hydrogen) in soils is 7, while the pH of over half the soil tested in Bailey County is over 8, with over one-third having a pH of 8.3 or higher. Some soil tested in Bailey County has a pH of 9.1.

Each tenth of 1 per cent of potential Hydrogen is equal to about 1 ton of lime per acre in the top 12 inches of soil.

High lime content makes plants turn yellow and holds down the yield of crops. Lawns, shrubs, cotton, grain and other plants are affected by the condition.

Iron sulfate is relatively cheap and a good source of iron to use to counteract the high lime content, which results in iron chlorosis. Chlorosis may also result from manganese or sulfur deficiencies, while poor drainage and aeration will result in a general yellowing of plants. But in this area, yellowing is usually attributable to the abnormal lime content.

Iron chelates may be applied in the soil as an spray. Chelates are organic chemicals which can envelop certain elements such as iron and keep them available for plant use.

SODIUM MORE SERIOUS Chlorosis is also caused by sodium salts in Bailey County. This becomes a much more serious condition than the matter of a high lime content.

Sodium salts have been found far in excess of the danger level in some places in Bailey County. There is a possibility, according to Mr. Adams, that sodium is coming from the irrigation systems in use in some places. This is being checked by the state laboratory and a report will be made when some conclusive evidence is found to support or disprove the theory.

TEST IN PROGRESS In one test of the use of iron sulfate, the Cecil Mardis farm was sprayed three times with 5 pounds of iron sulfate in each 20 gallons of water. Bad weather, including rain and hail, washed the chemicals off the first two times, but the crops still show good results, as the grain sorghum headed off faster than normally expected on the land. Yield on this acreage will be checked at harvest time and is expected to show some increase.

Farms not previously checked for soil content should be checked. City dwellers might do well to have a soil analysis made if they hope to grow better lawns, flowers or gardens.

The highlime content of Bailey County does present some problems in farming and in raising good lawns, but proper care and treatment will go a long way toward improving the outlook in production in the county.

Arch March Quits As City Manager

Arch March resigned last Friday as Muleshoe City Manager. March, who came to Muleshoe less than a year ago as the city's first manager after adoption of a home rule charter, tendered his resignation Friday. City council met Tuesday and accepted his resignation. He gave personal reasons as reason for his resignation, which is effective September 15.

March, in his statement to the Journal, said, "I have thoroughly enjoyed my work in Muleshoe. It is a community of solid growth and progressive people. Muleshoe has accomplished a great deal of civic improvement in the past few years, but much remains to be done.

"Muleshoe, as any other city, owes a debt to its pioneers that can be paid only by providing the type of city in which the coming generations will be proud to live—by working together, forgetting personal differences and continuing to improve, the goal can be accomplished."

March indicated he has no definite plans for his immediate future, though he intimated that several possibilities do exist for some move up the ladder to a larger city.

No action has been taken by the city to replace March as yet. City officials are investigating several possible replacements, however, and this will be reported on in a later issue of the Journal.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Paul Chisholm, Sudan, and Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Ballew of Clarendon.

Candelabra bearing white tapers with accents of lemon leaves and white satin formed an arch at the altar. Arrangements of white gladiolus, mums, pom-poms, and ferns completed the decor.

Performing the double ring services were the Rev. Wayne Perry of Ropesville.

Mrs. Waymon Bellar accompanied by Tommy Cates, organist, sang "Because" and "Whither Thou Goest."

Accompanying the white covered aisle the bride was accompanied to the altar by her father who gave her in marriage.

She wore a hand clipped charitably lace gown, designed with a scalloped portrait neckline and long sleeves tapering to petal points above the hands. The figure bodice was enhanced with a magnificent skirt scalloped at the hemline and swept to a chapel train. Satin roses were tucked into a miniature bustle at the center back.

Her waist length silk illusion veil featured a crown of Lily of the Valley and stephanotis.

Atop a white pearl Bible she carried white pholenspsis orchids with accessories highlighting the delicate daintiness of the orchid stephanotis and seed pearls.

Editor Requests Cooperation With Correspondents

Community correspondents are, thinks Journal Editor Gary Stone, a very necessary part of the Journal's service to readers.

"These people do a fine job of reporting the news of their respective communities," said Stone, "and need the help of those they serve."

Referring to the fact that residents of some communities do not cooperate to the fullest with their representative correspondents, Stone urged readers to let the correspondents know when things are happening in the community.

"Some of these correspondents spend many hours each week gathering and writing the news for their columns," said Stone, "and would appreciate having the readers tell them when something is going on in the community."

"If readers do not cooperate more fully with the correspondents, those columns will be in danger of being discontinued," said Stone. "Please help your correspondent to serve you," he concluded.

D.P.S. Investigates 10 July Accidents

The Highway Patrol investigated ten accidents on Rural Highways in Bailey County during the month of July, according to Sgt. D. S. Lawson Patrol area.

These wrecks accounted for four persons killed, eight injured and a property damage of $7,525.00.

The rural traffic accident summary for Bailey County from January through July of 1961 shows a total of 33 crashes. As a result of these crashes there were twenty persons injured and six persons killed. The estimated property damage amounted to $22,575.00. This compares with the first seven months of 1960's total of 26 rural crashes injuring twelve people, killing three persons and damage of $16,515.00.

"Prior to August 1, throughout the state of Texas, there had been a total of 974 fatal crashes resulting in 1214 persons losing their lives needlessly," the Sgt. stated. This compares with 929 fatal crashes and 1134 lives lost for the same period in 1960. Therefore, in 1961 there have been 45 more fatal crashes resulting in 80 more lives lost, or a seven per cent increase.

With the summer vacation period in its final month and Labor Day approaching, many thousands of people will be crowding in their final visit, out- ing, etc., before their children start back to school. This means many people will be trying to travel too far in a short time. Many will be carefree and careless in their driving.

The Sgt. listed some facts about last year's Labor Day Weekend and some suggestions to remedy this. There were 22 fatal crashes resulting in 30 smashed out lives over the 1960 three-day Labor Day Weekend. In order to arrive alive at your destination start in plenty of time to allow for delays along the way. Give the right of way,

Mrs. Rutherford Joins Hamilton Teachers Staff

After teaching third grade classes for the past nine years in the Muleshoe School, Mrs. W. H. Rutherford is leaving our teaching staff and will be teaching one of the elementary grades in the school at Hamilton, Texas.

Mrs. Rutherford first taught in the Mary DeShazo school, then at Richland Hills from the time the building was completed until the end of last school term. She also taught 4 terms of summer school.

Mr. and Mrs. Rutherford are members of the Muleshoe Church of Christ and their faithful service there will also be missed.

The Rutherford family moved to Hamilton Tuesday.

Austin Lady Has Fun With Names

The Journal this week received a clipping from Lela Glasscock Foust, Austin, with what was assumed to be a job at Muleshoe's name.

The story, from the Associated Press wires and the Austin American, told of a town in Virginia named Fairview. That is, it had been named Fairview for a while. The original name had been Tightsqueeze, then had been changed to Fairview. Now the residents have demanded and regained the original name of Tightsqueeze.

The community's name was changed to Fairview only a couple of months ago at the request of a district supervisor who said he thought the old name

Schell Completes Military Training

Army Pvt. James C. Schell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil F. Schell, Farwell, Texas, completed the final phase of six months active military training under the Reserve Forces Act program at The Air Defense School, Fort Bliss, Texas, July 29.

During this final phase, Schell was trained in the duties of a radar operator.

He is scheduled to spend the remainder of his military service with the 5th Artillery's Battery B, a National Guard unit in Clovis, N. M.

The Air Defense School, the largest military school in the nation, trains personnel to man and maintain the guided missile systems employed in the air defense of the U. S., by our armies overseas and by our allies of the NATO and SEATO nations.

The 22-year-old soldier is a 1956 graduate of Farwell High School and attended Eastern New Mexico University in Portales.

Quality milk concerns the entire dairy industry, says A. M. Meekma, extension dairy specialist. It cannot be overlooked at any point as the milk moves from the producer to the consumer. That, he says, is a primary reason that sanitary standards for the production of Grade A are so high.

Who Went To Service? Kenneth, Not Eugene

Confusion has reigned supreme at the Kenneth Henry's and the Eugene Henry's since Kenneth was inducted into the service last week.

Kenneth, who was residing in Illinois, responded to a draft notice, came to Muleshoe and left with the other draftees from the area but was listed as Eugene Henry.

Eugene is still employed here, while Kenneth has already begun duties with the army.

SHERIFF'S REPORT

Two were jailed this week for driving while intoxicated, along with one for felony worthless check by the sheriff's office. One subject was released to Dallas police for worthless check after serving a sentence here for a similar offense.

Highway Patrol officers arrested two for drunk, while the city police jailed six for drunk, three for drunk and disturbance and one for transporting liquor. One man was arrested by the city for being absent without official leave (AWOL) from the military service.

Wheat producers will determine whether or not wheat marketing quotas will be in effect on their 1962 wheat crop on August 24. Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman set the date and urges full participation in the referendum by all eligible wheat producers.

The Texas Agricultural Extension Service in recent weeks has released two publications which should be especially valuable to grain and forage producers. They are B-975, "Insects Attacking Forage Plants" and L-217, "Control of Insects in Farm-Store Grain." Copies are available from the offices of local county agents or the Agricultural Information Office, College Station, Texas.

THANK YOU

We want to take this opportunity to thank the wonderful people who attended our Grand Opening this past week.

The reception we received was wonderful, which makes us realize that Muleshoe is a wonderful place to be in business.

We also want to thank everyone for the flowers that were sent for our opening.

It will be our aim to provide everyone in town the very latest in women's fashions that can be obtained and we invite everyone in the Muleshoe trade area to come in anytime and see our new fashionable women's wear that will be arriving every week.

During the present season, over 300 girls from New Mexico, Texas, Oklahoma, and California have joined in the camping program that includes pack trips, a gypsy trip, study of nature, arts and crafts, dramatics, ceremonies, and campcraft skill first and second years, is offered to older girls whose aim is Girl Scout counseling.

Off the Runways

Doings At Muleshoe Airport
 By MRS. NOAH KINSER
 (Compiled from the notes and log of the flight made by the Morgan Lockers on their trip to Little Torch Key, Fla., on July 24.)

A the hour of 4 a.m., the sounding of the alarm clock aroused the Locker family. All members of the family were immediately out of bed and preparing for the take-off on their trip. Locker contacted the Lubbock weather bureau and was given a complete weather report, with all points clear for a safe flight, and only Meridian, Miss., reporting fog and zero visibility. The Aztec having been serviced the previous night, was given a quick re-check of all equipment and gas tanks.

By the time preliminary procedures were completed, Mrs. Locker and the children, Gail, Don, Freddie, and Karen were waiting, and the call of "all aboard" found them all seated with their safety belts secured. Starting the right engine and then the left, they were off down the taxi strip, passing for the pre-flight check of the engines and instrument panels, they made the take-off run and were airborne at 4:35a. m.

Climbing to an altitude of 7,500 feet, Locker put the aircraft on automatic pilot at a heading of 93 degrees. Then by radio, contacted the Federal Aviation station in Lubbock and filed a flight plan for the first leg of the air journey to Meridian, Miss., their designated fuel stop, and was given a wind aloft analysis report; a 5 knot tailwind.

The flight being made by Omni, they flew Omni outbound from Lubbock to within range of Guthrie inbound. Upon reaching Guthrie at 5:19 a.m. they recorded a ground speed of 185 mph. Daylight came just as they entered the Lake Kemp-Seymour area. This usually dry part of Texas was filled with water. Lakes, streams, terraces and ravines were overflowing to the point of resembling some sections of Florida's lowlands.

Nearing Jacksboro the sky became overcast. Locker, turning the automatic pilot back to manual control, began the climb out and went over the top at an altitude of 11,500 feet. Flying above the cloud deck, towering cumulus cloud jukted upward, and the Aztec winged its way through them.

They reached the crest of the up-slope over Ft. Worth and the overcast trailed off into a down-slope just beyond Dallas. The sky became clear, the speed of the Aztec was recorded at 190 mph, and the time at 6:27. Having passed the Bridge-Georgetown, Ft. Worth and Dallas Omni stations, they were well on their way to Shreveport, La., where the skys again became cloudy and soon they were flying between layers of clouds, encountering some rain along the way, but no turbulence. By the time they were over Shreveport, Fort Worth and Dallas was registering on the speed indicator.

With Mrs. Locker busily computing distance, times of arrival over each Omni station and ground speeds at intervals, and making entries of each on the log, determined that they would be over Jackson, Miss., at 8:20. With Jackson in mind for their alternate fuel stop, Locker radioed the Jackson weather bureau for the latest information on the fog conditions at Meridian, Miss., and with Meridian only 27 minutes away and reporting a 5 mile visibility, with skys broken to scattered, they proceeded to this designated stop.

Beginning the let down, Locker called the tower for landing instructions, was given clearance to land on runway 23. Final entry made on first leg of flight was "wheels touched down at 8:47; wind, 5 knots and south-westerly.

Meridian, being a combined civilian and military base, hums continually with activity, with National Guard units in jet flight training, airliners landing, along with all sizes and types of civilian planes.

While personnel of the Key Brothers Flying Service refueled the Aztec, the Lockers had breakfast at the air terminal cafe. The massive structure housing the terminal is built around a beautiful tropical garden, with the cafe and lounges overlooking the garden.

The Lockers then enjoyed a brief visit with their friends, the Key brothers, who were active pilots back in the ON5 Genny days.

At 9:40 a.m., they were again off the runway and climbing out. Attaining an altitude of 7,500 feet, the automatic pilot locked on and the flight plan filed on the last leg of the trip to Marathon, Fla.

Flight was pleasant and exciting with cumulus clouds towering to an estimated height of 20,000 feet, in all shapes from fluffy powder puffs to majestic mountains of snow.

Passing the Tallahassee area at 11:35 a.m., thunderstorms loomed ahead enroute to Cross City, Fla., with the Cross City weather bureau reporting severe turbulence with violent up and down drafts. Locker veered south out over the ocean past Tampa and Ft. Meyers,

Reading Clinic
Scheduled Here

Superintendent Neal B. Dillman announces that a reading workshop will be held at Muleshoe Elementary School on Tuesday and Wednesday, August 22 and 23.

Mrs. Gladys Bartholomew, a highly successful primary teacher in Norman, Okla., will conduct the workshop. She has had a great deal of experience as a reading consultant, having conducted many summer workshops in several states, including Texas, Oklahoma, Arizona, and California.

During the workshop, Mrs. Bartholomew will explain and demonstrate the use of "Phonetic Keys To Reading" for grades one, two, and three and "Keys To Independence In Reading" for grade four. She has been teaching the program for several years.

This series of readers is used widely not only in Texas but throughout the United States. Each year many school systems, determined to do something about the current problem of pupils who cannot read, are adopting this method of teaching reading.

Sessions will begin each day at 9 a.m. and will be dismissed at 3:30 p.m. Time will be allowed at each session for a question and answer period, during which all teachers may feel free to participate. The workshop is provided free of charge by The Economy Company, publishers of "Phonetic Keys To Reading" and "Keys To Independence In Reading". Interested teachers are invited to attend and take advantage of the opportunity to learn more about this outstanding material and the phonetic approach to teaching reading.

'Model A' Wiring
Still In Use Here

by JOE HARBIN
Electric Co-Op Correspondent

Just as the highways built in the "Thirties" were fine for the "Model A" but are so inadequate to carry the load of modern traffic, so are the services branch circuits of the electrical wiring in many of our homes.

They were adequate enough for the jobs they were designed to do, but with the increase of "Electric Traffic" needed to serve the many new Electric Appliances and gadgets we have added, they are becoming outdated and overloaded.

To emphasize the terrific growth in Kilowatt Hour usage in the farm home, the records of Bailey County Electric Co-op show that during the first month of operation, November 1938, the 127 members averaged using 27 K.W.H. and during the month of November 1960 the 2600 farm homes averaged using 314 K.W.H. One can see by a little simple arithmetic that it is more than 10 times as much as at first, yet many homes are still supplied by the original services.

Inadequate wiring can cost you money—a 10 per cent drop in voltage will cause a 30 per cent loss of light or 20 per cent loss of heat. In other words, part of the voltage is used up in trying to push the load of current through too small a wire.

You can tell if your home is not adequately wired if it has shrinking T.V. Pictures, blowing fuses or tripped circuit breakers, "slow" heating appliances, dimming lights, or faltering motors. Your electric equipment is designed to operate on either 120 volts or 240 volts and that is what the Bailey County Electric Co-op strives to supply to you at your meter.

A check with a volt-meter will verify this. Then if your farmstead wiring is too small to handle the "Load" you are paying extra to heat your wires instead of your toaster or you are not getting as much light from a light bulb as it is rated to furnish.

This is not to say that everyone's house wiring is inadequate. Many have ample wirings; but if your house has some of the symptoms mentioned above, check with your Electrical Contractor or call us at the Bailey County Electric Co-op. We will be glad to assist you in any way we can to get the best possible service out of the power you buy.

Today's Meditation

Read Proverbs 12:17-23;
John 3:1-11

Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor. (Exodus 20:16.)

Traveling through the mountains from a farm where we had some days of vacation, we gave an elderly lady a ride. She was going to a religious meeting. During the few minutes she was in the car, we soon learned that she was very inquisitive and was willing to use her tongue.

She wanted to know from where we had come. I mentioned the name of the farmer, "Oh", she said, "he is quite a man—impossible to say anything evil about him."

Then she talked about other people. I am sure they all were sinners, though some were Christians and some non-Christians. She did bear witness—even false witness against many of them. It is possible, to bear false witness even against non-Christians.

I am quite convinced that it is sin to speak when we bear false testimony and do not keep to the truth. Let us be careful when we talk—keep to truth and be governed by love.

PRAYER: Dear Father, help us to be more careful when we talk and bring our witness. Let us never hurt people by telling things which are not true. May all we say and do in life express that love which was revealed in Jesus, the truth and the love by which we live. In His blessed name we pray. Amen.

Lawns Subject To Leaf Mold

Fadingout is a common summer disease of lawn grasses in all areas of Texas. It most often occurs on grasses that have suffered from lack of soil moisture in midsummer followed by a heavy watering. Fadingout is sometimes called "melting out," "going out" or "gray leaf mold."

Irregularly shaped dead areas occur in the lawn. Isolated, scattered sprigs of living grass are usually found in the disease areas. Leaves die back from the tip end. Runners or stems of the grass may have small dead spots. These spots may or may not enlarge and girdle the stem. Roots may be rotted.

The disease is caused by a Curvularia and Fusarium species of fungi. These soil molds are most active following a heavy rain or watering on grass that has previously been weakened by drought. There is an indication that soil nematodes may be associated with fading out in some cases.

Fadingout is controlled by proper management of the lawn. Proper watering, fertilizing, mowing and aeration are important.

In lawn areas that respond slowly to proper management practices in the summer, zineb or captan fungicide drenches may prove helpful. Use the above fungicides at the rate of 2 to 4 pounds per 100 gallons of water. For small amounts of spray, use 1b to 3 tablespoons of 50 percent wettable captan or one and one-third to two and two-thirds tablespoons of 75 percent wettable zineb in one gallon of water. Wet the grass with the solution down to the soil line. Use a sprinker can or hose on sprayer for small areas. Apply drench right after mowing. Also, drench the healthy grass beyond the diseased area to a width of several feet. If nematodes are a problem, drench with Nema X, Nemagon or Fumazone as the manufacturer directs.

Local county extension agents can supply additional information. Ask for a copy of B203, "Home Lawns."

Social Security Changes Noted

Another important change in the Social Security Act is reported upon this week by the manager of the Lubbock Office, John G. Hutton. This change is in the length of time a person needs to have worked under social security to get retirement benefits for himself or to qualify his family for survivors benefits in case of his death.

Some 160,000 older people will become eligible for cash benefits because of this change in the law—older men and women, workers, their wives or dependent children, and widows over 62 of workers who have died. First payments to newly eligible persons can be made for the month of August. Under the new law, a man reaching 65, or a woman reaching 62, this year will need social security credit for only 2½ years of work under social security, instead of the present requirement of 3½ years. A man who reached 65, or a woman who reached 62, before 1958 needs only a year and a half of work under social security to be eligible for social security retirement benefits.

The survivors of workers who died before 1958 may also become eligible for benefits under this change in the law if the worker had earned social security credit for at least a year and a half. And the amount of work for others who have died since that time is also reduced proportionately. It was pointed out that credit for work under social security is counted in three-month "calendar quarters". Therefore, a person need not have worked for a continuous period of 2½ or 1½ years, as the case may be. Social security credit for calendar quarters earned at any time since 1936 can be counted toward the amount of work needed to qualify.

If you believe that you or someone in your family may now be eligible for benefits because of this change in the law, get in touch with your social security office promptly. The law remains the same for some, since no one can become entitled to benefits with a total of less than six quarters, or about a year and a half of work credits, according to Hutton.

A representative of the Lubbock Social Security Office is in Muleshoe today in the County courthouse and will be glad to assist in all matters pertaining to social security.

Parmer County Farm Bureau News

Next Wednesday, August 23, at 10 a.m., the District II Farm Bureau leaders will meet in the new Swisher County Farm Bureau office for policy development discussions.

The office is located in Tullia. Those expected to attend from Parmer County are Roy V. Miller, chairman, Commodities Committee, Carl Schlenker and T. L. Kent, members; H. P. Hamilton, chairman Legislative Committee, an M. T. Glascock, Charles Howell and Clarence Johnson, members; Gilbert Kaltwasser, chairman Resolutions Committee and Edmond Kitlen and Claude Osborn, members.

Also attending will be Herman Geries, County President and Vernon Symcox, County Secretary. The purpose of the meeting is to assist these leaders in getting membership participation in the development of Farm Bureau Policies.

The Agricultural Act of 1961

takes up eight pages of fine print on standard size paper. For most of us, the reading of this act results in confusion, but it can be summed up by those familiar with legal writings in fewer words. We are thankful for those with the ability to sum it up briefly.

At the next directors meeting, the time and place for the Annual County Farm Bureau Convention will be set. We are hopeful that a good, interested attendance will be had. The time will be set sometime in October.

All members are urged to be giving thought to promote ideas they may have to improve Farm Bureau's service to farmers. Your officers and directors will appreciate any suggestions you may have at any time.

If you have not filed for state gas tax refund recently, you should do so now. It will not be necessary to file again for a year if you file now or have filed within the last few weeks.

Los Planos Enjoys First Meeting Of The 1961-62 Year

Betty Wagon and Beverly Wagon were hostesses to the Los Planos Study Club members and their guests for a lovely salad supper Tuesday night, August 8, at the home of Betty Wagon.

This was the first "get-together" for the club for the 1961-62 year and it was thoroughly enjoyed by everyone present.

The weather cooperated to the fullest extent and the salads brought by each member, were served buffet style in the backyard of the Wagon home.

After the meal, a short business meeting was held in which the following members were elected to offices vacated by members who have moved away since elected last spring.

Treasurer, Jo Adine Mayhugh and Parliamentarian, Francis Doss.

Fifteen members were present along with four guests. Guests present were Janell Turner, Mary Moore, Elita Stockerd and Dorothy Crow.

Each member is looking forward to a very busy year.

Founders Day Was Observed By The Eastern Star's

Mary Farley, Worthy Matron and Elbert Nowell, Worthy Patron, presided at the regular meeting of Muleshoe Chapter No. 792, Order of the Eastern Star, Tuesday Evening, August 1, in Masonic Hall.

Routine business was transacted, and the Annual Founders Day was observed.

Mrs. Wynnie Dunn, Chairman of Program Committee, reviewed the biography of Dr. Rob Morris, the founder of the Order of Eastern Star. Mrs. Clara Lou Jones played one of his musical compositions, "O, Galilee," and Elbert Nowell gave the famous poem, "The Level and The Square," composed by Dr. Morris.

An invitation was received, from the Founders' Day Committee, of Grand Chapter, to the Silver Twilight Tea to be held in the Eastern Star Home, in Arlington, August 26.

The Charter was draped and a eulogy given, in memory of Mr. H. E. Musson, who passed away in his home in Norman, Oklahoma, July 4. He held a Life Membership in Muleshoe Chapter.

Mrs. Hazel Nowell, Chairman of the committee on Sickness and Distress, reported cards and flowers sent to members who are ill.

Messages of condolence and Resolutions of Respect were sent to bereaved members, by Mrs.

Wheat Farmers Vote August 24

Wheat producers will determine August 24 whether or not wheat marketing quotas will be "The decision farmers make in effect on the 1962 wheat crop, is extremely important to them and to the rest of the Nation not only for 1962 but also for many years to come," said Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman when he announced the referendum date. "The program available with quotas in effect would be far different from that which could be operated without quotas," he added.

If two-thirds of the referendum voters favor quotas, cooperators will be eligible for full 1962 wheat price support. Although the level of support has not definitely been determined, it will be higher than the present level of $1.79 per bushel if proposed legislation now before Congress becomes law. At a recent press conference, Secretary Freeman said that the national average support for wheat would likely be in the neighborhood of $2.00 per bushel.

If farmers decide in the referendum against quotas, there will be no limit on marketing price support would be at 50 per cent of parity (wheat parity is now $2.37 per bushel) and would be available to those farmers who plant within their acreage allotments.

On May 12, Secretary Freeman proclaimed marketing quotas and a national acreage allotment of 55 million acres for the 1962 wheat crop on the basis of estimated supplies and utilization of wheat. At that time he deferred setting the date for the referendum pending action to provide an improved wheat program for next year's crop.

"Though action has not been completed on a new program," the Secretary explained, "it seems desirable to now set a date for the referendum on 1962 marketing quotas in order that all producers may be apprised of the voting time. Under legislation now being considered, stocks of wheat would probably be reduced by 100 million bushels rather than increased by that amount if changes are not made. This would result in savings to the Government on this one crop of $50 million in the first crop year, and in the period before new stocks could be disposed of at present rates the savings on this one crop would amount to $258 million."

Best In World

Anyone who believes that a solution to a nation's medical problems is to put government in charge should read, word for word, an article in the July issue of Nation's Business by Dr. E. Lloyd Dawe.

Dr. Dawe — physician, surgeon and psychiatrist — is of English birth. He received his medical education in London, served four years as a medical officer in the British Army, and entered practice under the British National Health Service . . . the government body which administers England's program of socialized medicine. Subsequently, Dr. Dawe left England in disgust, and now practices in Connecticut.

His article deals with the experience of doctors and patients under the Health Service, and it is a sorry story indeed. Doctors are fined for prescribing drugs they believe their patients need, but which are not on the government's official list. In order to earn even a modest living, a doctor must handle an excessively large number of patients. There is a heavy burden of paper work, taking up time that should be given to practice. Hospitals are overloaded, simply because they are "free" — that is, supported out of taxation — and so patients, particularly elderly ones, are shuffled off to them instead of being cared for at home by their families.

So it goes, with Dr. Dawe citing chapter and verse. The sum total is a serious downgrading of the medical services available to the majority of English people.

Dr. Dawe warns of the grave dangers that lie in proposed Congressional bills to give our own government substantial powers and responsibilities over medical care. His eloquent conclusion: "In this country I have found freedom of action and professional choice. Now I feel I am practicing in the best existing system in the world. It is not perfect. But we are striving to make it better. And the best medical care can be given only in the system where a doctor is not a government clerk but an individual with professional dignity and freedom."

BABSON DISCUSSES:

Our Senior Citizens

The latest census figures show that the number of people over 55 years of age has increased about 25 per cent compared with the head count taken ten years previously. While this gain is not as robust as the 50 per cent increase in the number of teenagers, it is substantially ahead of the "middle" age group between 25 and 55 years old, which just about held its own.

UP TREND IN OLDER AGE POPULATION
 The combination of growth in total population and lengthening life span means that the number of people over 55 years of age is likely to continue to increase. More important even is the progress of medical and biological science.

In the above connection, let me say that I.B.M. is working on the theory that, if arteriosclerosis and cancer can be controlled, older people might live to 120 years or more!
 Several drug companies are working on polymers, D.N.A.'s and R.N.A.'s (the latter initials are used in place of involved chemical terms) which have a close relationship to life I will write further of this in some later week.

POWER
 The growth of this segment of the population means that in the future this group will exert a greater influence upon the nation's economy, and, I might add, upon the political picture also.

Thus, even though their per capita spending of older people will rise.

Because of the long prosperity of the past two decades, older folks today have more of a backlog of purchasing power.

Savings in the form of insurance, annuities, securities, and pension funds are at all-time high. To these can be added the more liberal social security payments and other forms of "transfer payments." The trend of legislation would seem to indicate more public old-age assistance in the future.

SENIOR CITIZENS AND GENERAL BUSINESS
 Unlike the teen-agers, the necessities of life required by older people are more moderate. Nevertheless, certain food companies are tailoring a number of products to the needs of the geriatrics.

Older people do consume large quantities of soft drinks, fruits, and fruit juices.
 Perhaps their biggest needs are for medical and dental supplies, eye glasses, hearing aids, clothing, sporting goods lines (fishing) and hobby supplies should experience higher demand. Tourist and vacation regions, and businesses incidental thereto, will enjoy their trade.

People quickly become bored with retirement. Therefore, I forecast that businesses supplying "Do-it-yourself" tools, seeds and gardening implements, and cameras and photographic equipment should find a good market in these senior citizens.

Also, demand for radios, photographs and records, and television sets will benefit; as well sales of greeting cards.

 Twenty-five members of Troop 69, Boy Scouts from Shreveport, La., stopped in Muleshoe Tuesday evening for supper. They were enroute to Camp Philturn at Cimarron, N. M., for their summer outing.

They were traveling by special bus and were thoroughly enjoying themselves. It was the first time for many of them to visit the west.

Camp Philturn is one of the most picturesque camps in the United States. The camp is a place for those who have learned the technique of and rewards of outdoor living.

The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Bill Garrett.

 Wednesday morning of this week, members of the Pierette Club entertained with a "Come as You Are" breakfast at the home of Mrs. John Smith.

Throughout the morning club members called for guests and took them to the Smith home where they were served a delicious breakfast.

Summer flowers were used attractively throughout the entertaining rooms for decorations.

OPPORTUNITY FOR SERVICE AS WELL AS PROFIT

Profits from the older age group will come largely through nursing homes. Builders tell me that the greatest increase in their business is in the building of nursing homes.

At present, some large houses are coming onto the market for possible use as such, but under present laws it is cheaper to build a new nursing home than to remodel a fine old house.

A single room and bath, with all the usual facilities, can run as high as $150 a week; but there is a tax consideration which helps out those who are supporting aged parents in these institutions. Nursing homes surely provide a needed service.

The above discussion should receive careful attention on the part of bankers, businessmen, investors, and even the average reader of my column.

One thing should be remembered, however, namely, that although President Kennedy and others are seeking more funds for the aged, I repeat that the "middle" group of people (between 25 and 55 years of age) must, for the next few years, not only pay directly for their own children's and parents' support, but also pay the taxes to build and equip educational structures, nursing homes, etc., and provide for greatly increased public assistance.

Sandhills Philosopher:

Is Puzzied By Rewards Russian Spacemen Get

Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm has been keeping up with the news lately, his letter this week indicates.

Dear editor:
 I was out here on this Johnson grass farm the other afternoon wondering why people are always picking on airplanes to hijack, you never hear of anybody hijacking a farmer's tractor and forcing him to drive off course to some distant place, when I shut the motor off on my own and got off and beat down under the shade of a tree and pulled out a newspaper I'd been carrying around in my pocket for several days as a standby in case I ran out of something to think about, and discovered it was an issue printed right after the second Russian flew around the earth in a rocket ship.

I had already known this latest flier had made seventeen trips around the earth and landed right back in Russia where he started from, which may be progress to some people but it isn't my notion of it, but what interested me was a paragraph saying this flier, just like the other one who made it around the earth, would be given an automobile.

For conquering space, a Russian gets what us Americans are already swamped with. Funniest way to distribute automobiles I ever heard of, and it's also an index to what man really thinks about space. He may be curious about it, but once he's been out there, he sure is interested in getting back to earth and sampling some of the pleasures of the world, like driving an automobile or going to sleep in his own bed.

People are always talking about conquering space, but it's Understand, I'm not discounting what the Russian astronauts have done, but it sure seems like going to a lot of trouble to get a slap on the back and a new car, when anybody in America can get the same thing just by walking into the nearest car dealer's show room and waving the downpayment.

MULESHOE HIGH SCHOOL — This building will be the scene of many happy hours for students during the coming school year. It will be the beginning of high school for many and the climax for many others. It will offer an opportunity to gain knowledge and a chance to make memories for the future. It will hold excitement for some, boredom for some, but experience for all. And it will all start August 28.

Students May Still Obtain Deferments

Students who plan to continue their studies in college or university and those planning to enter their freshman year should not let increased draft calls interfere with these educational plans.

That is the advice of Colonel Morris S. Schwartz, state Selective Service director, who heads the 137 Texas draft boards.

"Students will be considered for scholastic deferment and will, in all probability, be given the deferment if they are full time students and are making passing grades," Colonel Schwartz said Wednesday.

The state Selective Service director is convinced that draft boards are "conscious of the need for a continuous supply of trained and educated people in the state and nation."

Colonel Schwartz said that "knowledge is the basis of strength" in our armed forces, on our farms, and in our laboratories, factories, and professions.

"Mirabeau B. Lamar put it better than I ever could," he stated. "When the father of education in Texas said, 'The cultivated mind is the guardian genius of democracy,' he uttered something for posterity."

The state Selective Service director pointed out that, under present policy, no one is drafted under age 22. He said he did not expect increased draft calls to alter this policy, at least for the foreseeable future.

"Under this policy alone," he said, "some young men will have a good opportunity to complete work toward some bachelor's level degrees before being considered for an induction call."

He counseled students to seek deferments from their local boards when these deferments are needed for the students to complete their college or university work.

Texas draft boards currently have more than 8,000 college students deferred on the basis of educational deferments in the state's consolidated military manpower pool.

Some college students also get deferments for their activity as students taking military training. This activity includes ROTC programs and enlistment in the National Guard and reserve organizations of the armed forces.

Stone's Throw

by GARY STONE

The other day I heard two people talking about a third party. One of them said this other person was lazy, saying it as though it were a crime.

I wonder how many people have thought what all they owe to lazy people? Wouldn't we still be lugging weight around on our backs if some lazy ancestor hadn't decided it would be easier to construct a wheel and roll the weight? And then somebody else later on figured pulling the cart was too much work, so he went out and caught a wild horse and tamed it so the horse could do the work.

Sometime later on in evolution, some lazy soul decided it was altogether too much trouble grinding meal by hand, so he or she hooked a wheel on an axle, put another wheel on the other end, with paddles on it, and had

Colonel Schwartz urged young men, both in and out of college, to seek information and understanding from their draft boards.

"After all is said and done," he counseled, "no one is better prepared to advise draftage men than the draft boards."

Things have gone so far now that we are too lazy to go out and catch the horse, so we use a car. We're too lazy to take the grain to the mill, so we buy it ready-ground. We're too lazy to go down to the river and pound our clothes on rocks, so we buy automatic washers. And then there are some who are too lazy to work, so they draw unemployment insurance.

That makes all of us lazy, since we all use so-called "labor-saving" devices. This gives us more time for leisure, in which we talk about other people being lazy.

Speaking of lazy people the farmers around Muleshoe must be a little less so than the rest of us, because there are some beautiful crops in the making.

I went out last Thursday morning with J. K. Adams, the county agent, and saw some good cotton and grain sorghum on the Airport Farm, being worked by Harry Lee. His cotton is doing well, though the rows close to the road aren't quite uniform.

Noticed that there are a lot of plants with 15 or more bolls on already, though. His grain sorghum is part of a test being run by the County Agent's office, and even I can tell a lot of difference between the results between some of the varieties. Mr. Adams put signs up along the road that morning, with the signs a mill run by water power. This was the beginning, I guess, of the industrial revolution.

in the middle of the test strips of 16 rows each. It will be interesting to see what the difference is in the yield.

By the way, be sure and read the story on the lime content in Bailey County's soil. Whether you live in town or farm, there's something in the story for you if you aren't familiar with the problem. Both farm land and city lawns are affected by this problem, and now that a remedy has been found everyone can profit from learning about the situation.

DON'T BE A DISHWASHER BUY ONE

O.K., so you don't wear a skin diver's suit and use a stiff broom when you do dishes by hand. You'll have to admit, though, that this kind of equipment would come in handy when water is splashing all over the sink and you can't remove some stubborn dirt.

The simple, healthful, economical solution to dishwashing is an electric dishwasher — portable or built-in. Just 1½¢ worth of electricity will do the job each day — and you'll save that in fingernail polish and lotion, alone.

Live like the lady you are — do dishes electrically.

Let's Talk about Money

...it's a fascinating subject

Money is very beautiful stuff to look at ... not so much, perhaps, because of its artistic design as because the sight of it reminds us of the many pleasing and necessary things it can do for us.

... Yet ... if we're not careful about how we handle it, we may thoughtlessly cheat ourselves out of some of the finer things our money can bring us.

... Because only a part of each dollar we spend puts actual goods and services into our hands. Whether we like it or not ... some of that dollar also goes toward the upbuilding and support of the community in which it is spent ... to pay for the schools and churches, the roads and streets, the police and fire protection and other social facilities that make up modern living ... and to make stronger that community's economy.

... If the area benefitting from our trade is that in which we live, then we get for ourselves all that our hard-earned money pays for ... and often many times over ... in better business, better jobs, better living among more good and useful neighbors.
