Local Group Works For Gas Measure

Forty-one delegates of the District Plains Irrigation Gas Users Association gathered in Austin Sunday afternoon for their third attempt to bring before the special called session of the Senate Committee a bill which if passed would give them the right to appeal to the Railroad Commission for the adjustment of gas rates used for irrigation.

The group represented 11 counties from the Hi-Plains district.

From the Bailey County Irrigation Gas Users Association were Bill Millen, president of both Bailey County and District Plains Association; Wylie Baker, secretary; Ed Little, Oscar Allison and Morgan Locker, director of the Bailey County Association.

They are being represented by John Akins, Hereford attorney.

The bill, Senate Bill 39, was proposed after the Association hired rate engineer Stineburger of Dallas to investigate rates charged the farmers by the Pioneer Natural Gas Company and his report concluded that the farmers had felt the barb of a 14 per cent average rate hike, with the heavy users increase running 17 per cent and light users about 10 per cent.

Bill Millen said that before gas rates could be raised on the city user, the Gas Company had to negotiate with the City Commission, then if the resident felt that their rates were too high, they had the privilege of appealing to the Railroad Commission. The Railroad commission allow 6 1/2 per cent return on investments and the present rates charged the farmer is averaging some 12 per cent return on investments.

Millen said the farmers were captive customers and were seeking a media, the Railroad Commission as their rate adjuster.

He stated that they did not wish to be unfair nor unreasonable, but like the city people, wanted someone to appeal to on the raises. Of the many years of the present set-up, neither the town people nor the Gas Company has had to appeal to the Railroad Commission for rate adjustment.

Millen said that Pioneer Gas felt that it was a two-way road, that they were not overcharging the farmer users. Under the bill they would have the privilege of seeking the rate raise as would the farmer seeking lower rates.

Two weeks ago, the bill was presented and the Senate Committee transferred it to the Senate Agriculture Committee. The bill was approved by the Agriculture Committee and is ready to be brought out on the Senate floor.

The bill will have to be introduced by Governor Price Daniels. The farmers hope that Governor Daniels will introduce the bill this week as the thirty day special called session is fast drawing to a close.

The local group flew to Austin in an Aztec, by Muleshoe Flying Service charter.

County GOP Sets Meeting Saturday

A countywide Republican convocation has been set for Saturday January 20, at 2:30 p.m. at the American Legion Hall, Harold Sneed, Bailey county GOP chairman announced Wednesday.

"I would like to particularly urge Republicans and their friends" from West Camp, Mays, Baileyboro, Three Way, Bula and Circleback to attend this important meeting," Sneed said.

Primary of the agenda of the Saturday afternoon meeting will be plans to expediate all qualified persons' payment of poll tax before the January 31st dead line.

Temporary appointments will be made for Republican election judges and precinct chairman in Bailey County, Sneed said. The election of officials will be held at the May 5 primary of the local Republicans.

Another Republican spokesman told of ultraliberal Byron Skelton, a true extremist, on Jan. 5 who assuaged the defendants of free enterprise—the Republicans—"sitting still." "For 20 years Americans saw government controls, devised and administered by liberal Democrats, strangle a free economy and concentrate more and more authority in federal agencies at the expense of state rights and individual liberty. During the time of FDR and HST, the liberals demonstrated that many conservatives did little more than hate what was happening and become indignant, while Skelton's liberals worked for Fabianistic measures paving the road to socialism.

"If such people as Skelton think Republicans are sitting still, they can rock his chair again. Gen. John G. Tower was elected to cause conservative Texans awake to find sitting still did not elect good congressmen.

"Too many elections have been lost by good men who did nothing. The work it takes to win is well repaid by the conservative vote of Texas' Republican congressmen and by state representatives, district and precinct officials," the Republican added.

Band Members To Perform At Honor Concert

Four members of the Muleshoe High School Band will be in Lubbock Saturday to perform with the All Regional Honor Band.

The foursome is composed of Linda Scott (cornet), Kathy Gray, Kathy Moore and Susan Birdsong (clarinets).

The concert is free and the public is invited to attend.

Monday Closing For C of C Fete

The ticket deadline is Monday, Jan. 22 for the Annual Chamber of Commerce banquet, Chamber manager Carroll Pouncey reminded today.

"We're very pleased with the results so far, but would like to remind those planning to go who haven't notified us to do so at once," he said.

Business is good in Muleshoe as 1962 gets underway. The city recorded a record year in 1961, and merchants are looking for more both in total bank deposits and postal receipts

Muleshoe Considered As Location For Plant

A Muleshoe committee met Tues. with representatives of Plains Cooperative Oil Mill, which is looking into the possibility of expansion by new plant acquisition.

The group went at the invitation of the Oil Mill committee, according to Chamber of Commerce President Frank Ellis, and expressed the feeling of the community that an industry would greatly benefit the economy of the area, he said.

Also meeting with the group were representatives from Tula, Brownfield, Levelland and Littlefield. The industrial group talked with representatives from the Plainview area on Monday.

"We feel that we have just as good a chance at landing the plant as any community represented there," Ellis said, adding that the local group was armed with answers to questions the Plains people had to ask.

"We just laid the facts about Muleshoe before them with no exaggerations or highpressure presentations," said a member of the Chamber of Commerce.

"We feel that we're in a favorable position for any agricultural based industry," he added.

No indications were made at Tuesday's interview, of course. The committee will probably make recommendations of their findings to the Plains Oil Mill Board.

Attending the meeting from Muleshoe were Judge Glen Williams, City Manager Albert Fields, Chamber President Frank Ellis, Owen Jones, Joe Harben, Harmon Elliott, Chamber Director Carroll Pouncey and James Jennings, Chairman of Muleshoe's Industrial Committee.

Muleshoe Band To Attend Festival

The Muleshoe High School Band is presently making plans to attend the 30th Anniversary Tri State music festival in Enid, Oklahoma, on May 3rd, 4th, and 5th. Funds enabling the Band to attend this Festival have been earned by the Band members through the sale of magazines and birth day calendars.

Last year some 18,000 music students from all over the country attended the Tri State Festival and competed for honors in Band, Choral, and Orchestral music.

The Muleshoe Band will enter competition in concert playing, sight-reading, precision marching, and parade marching as an organization, plus some twenty-five solos and small ensembles by individual members. Each event is judged on the basis of division ratings, just as our Interscholastic League contests are here in Texas. Awards will be presented to the most outstanding contestants in each class. Also, for each first or second division earned by a school, a certain number of points is credited to that school, and at the end of the contest, a Grand Sweepstakes Trophy is given to the school in each class which has accumulated the most points.

Besides the individual performances by the various organizations, the students have an opportunity to perform in the Tri State Band, Choir, Orchestra, and Brass Ensemble. These are honor groups composed of the most outstanding musicians attending the Festival, and, after rehearsing throughout the Festival, they perform at the Grand Finale Concert on the last night of the Festival. Also, performing on concerts are the Phillips University Band and Choir and outstanding guest organizations. Guest groups in the past have included the Chicago Symphony Woodwind Quintet, the Singing Sergeants, the WAF Band, the USAF Drum and Bugle Corps, the Air Force Band of the West, and the 4th Army Band.

On the last morning of the Festival, the Muleshoe Band will compete in the "Million-Dollar Parade" through downtown Enid.

solists for the Festival are chosen from among the most outstanding musicians in the country.

"I consider the Tri State Festival one of the finest festivals held for high school musicians in the country. Our band has worked very hard for the opportunity to attend, and I feel that it will be an invaluable musical experience for the Band and for each individual member." School Supt. Neal Dillman said.

Business Comes To Muleshoe

The Associated Growers of Muleshoe opened their office this week at 105 West First, with Dick Bell appointed the local manager.

Associated Growers' main office is in Hereford, but is soon to be transferred to Lubbock. Colman McSpadden of Lubbock is owner.

The company plans to build a grain elevator and will install a fertilizer distributing business.

"We are already set up to handle the farmers' fertilizer needs," said Bell, who said the company would be located temporarily at the former Dick Bell Trucking Co. until new headquarters can be arranged.

The company, which opened Tuesday, will carry all types of fertilizer and insecticides, as well as miscellaneous farm supplies, such as tires, batteries, etc.

The Associated Growers hopes to open a branch office in Needmore sometime in the future, Bell said.

S. T. (Pappy) Thornton, Herecompany, "We're happy to be in Muleshoe. We're proud to have Mr. Bell as manager," said Thornton, who is a former Muleshoe bus-nessman.

The company also plans to open offices in Lubbock, Lariat and Farth, Thornton said. There would be elevators located at each location, receiving points for shipping out.

Lane Will Be Judge Aspirant

Bank Deposits Reach All-Time High in M'shoe

Bank deposits in Muleshoe stood at an all-time record high at the year-end quarterly report by the two local banking institutions.

Total deposits by the two banks stood at $12,706,885.94 as of Dec. 31, the official fourth quarter reports showed. That was an increase of almost a million dollars, or $972,463.31 over last year's figure.

Total assets at the two banks amounted to $13,655,987.59, up more than $1 million over last year's figure of $12,607,841.56 as of the same date.

Deposits at the Muleshoe State Bank were $6,578,726.41 as of Dec.

31. That figure was the highest recorded there in the last few years, and up $337,000 from last year's December report.

Deposits at the First National Bank also showed an increase, of more than $635,000 to a total of $6,128,159.53. That was an increase of 11.6 per cent over last year and marked a year-end record at the bank for the sixth consecutive year.

The deposit records, while not overwhelming increases, were impressive because of the lateness of the cotton harvest and the resulting late selling of cotton.

"We're up over the $7 million mark as of Jan. 15," states Norman Thomas, Muleshoe State Bank Vice-president, indicating a gain of about a half million dollars in just a two-week period.

Robert Alford, Vice-President and Cashier at the First National Bank, was equally impressed with 1961. "And we hope to have just as good a year in 1962," he said.

Representatives of both banking institutions were pretty well agreed on the main reasons for their respective increases.

While the record county cotton crop was a big factor, both pointed out that the increased prices paid for maize, along with the bumper crop produced accounted for a lot of the increased revenue.

Another thing cited was the good yields on dryland farms in the south end of the county, and the better price paid for "wasty" cotton this year.

The outlook for 1962? Of course it's anyone's guess, but as one bank official put it—"Everyone always expects next year to be better than the last."

"The flags fly every day in Muleshoe"—or do they? Muleshoe merchants are supposed to be noted for their "fly the flag" policy every day. Some merchants such as the one shown above observe the rule, but some don't.

Mrs. Griffith has received many gifts from foreign missionaries and her collection includes items from nine countries. From Africa, Jerusalem, Switzerland, Japan, Mexico, Canada, China, India and Brazil comes varied articles used by the people of their respective lands.

Varied Collectors Items Come From Nine Foreign Countries

Collecting items from foreign countries brings the story of many customs and odd articles into the home of Mrs. Byron Griffith.

One of her favorite items, and truly one of beauty and novelty, is a coffee table from Ghana sent to her by her niece, Marjorie Stephens who is a Baptist missionary in Nigeria.

The table is constructed of solid mahogany and two hand carved elephants serve as the table base. Their tusks are ivory. Ghana, located in West Africa on the Gulf of Guinea is known as the "elephant country", and was until 1957 called the Gold Coast.

The small cabinet beside the table is from Jerusalem and is carved of olive wood.

Bookends between the elephants are made from ebony wood and except for being hand rubbed with the inside of the outer hull of cocconut, is in its natural state. Most of the Africans polishing is done with the cocconut.

On the table is a hand woven basket, also from Africa; a covered tea cup from Japan, the pitchers are from Switzerland and Mexico. The ash tray from Canada, silver container, Brazil and the tea pot from Szechow, China. Although very small in size, the missionary who gave the tea pot to

In addition to this collection, Mrs. Griffith has hanging on her Chinese warlord and one of the National birds of China. The paintings are done on Chinese paper manufactured in China from the delicate inner coating of the rind of bamboo and is used only for fine work. The pictures about a yard in length will roll up to pencil size. They were sent to Mrs. Griffith by Mrs. Blanche Groves, missionary to Hong Kong who has visited in Muleshoe many times.

Mrs. Griffith said they are actually used by the Chinese people. The small vase is from Hong Kong and the silver bell from India.

The mahogany candy dish made by an 87 year old cabinet maker in Goshen, Arkansas, represents the handiwork of our country.

Henry Higginbothams Mark Fiftieth Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Higginbotham are celebrating their fiftieth wedding anniversary Friday, January 12.

The couple who reside at 301 W. Third Street were married in Plano, Texas on January 12, 1912 in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Holly.

They are parents of four children. Daughters are Mrs. Marjorie Smith of Hale Center and Mrs. Hallie Chesser of Anton. Their sons are Ben R. Higginbotham, 522 W. 5th Street, Muleshoe, and Henry Higginbotham, Jr. of Crosbyton. They also have eight grandchildren and 4 great grandchildren.

Higginbotham, now retired, came to the Plains in 1903 locating first at Brownfield just about the time the town was starting to build. There he was employed as a driver of a freight wagon, making trips from Big Springs and back requiring some 9 to 13 days for each trip.

Higginbotham then began working on the U-Bar ranch and worked on the ranch until an accident sustained while bronc riding caused him to retire from the life of a cowboy for many years. He entered barber school in Oklahoma City and after finishing training, became a journey barber.

Mrs. J. G. Arnn Hostess for Muleshoe Study Club Meeting

Two interesting, yet diverse, topics were "food for thought" at the Muleshoe Study Club, which held the seventh meeting of the year in the home of Mrs. J. G. Arnn last Thursday afternoon.

"Foods and Fads" was the subject of Mrs. Cecil Cole. She related dogmas of various food fadists, such as the non-harmful but misguided notion that carrots make curly hair. Another misconception was in regard to food raised on depleted soil, which is not affected in vitamin and mineral content, but in production of more or less crops.

However, some five million people are deluded by quack doctors, naturalist fads, reducing "rackets" and arthritis cures, she said.

"Too many are lured whether by friends or advertisements, by the play on their emotions rather than their intellect. Use your own intelligent skepticism and reliable information on nutrition". This was the final advice in regard to judging food fads and food facts by Mrs. Cole.

Mrs. Ann Graham, Home Demonstration Agent of Bailey County, presented members with the quick, easy and nutritious plan of oven meals. Recipes for a complete oven meal, as well as freezer meal, completed the detailed five steps for the busy-home-maker.

The combination of foods; selection of meat, then vegetables and desert, with temperatures and correct utensil, and the arrangement in the oven of dishes were discussed. Helpful hints to the busy homemaker of today were designed to assist in planning and preparation of the oven meal.

"The timer is set, so the homemaker may go and return home to her complete and delicious meal ready for her family", Mrs. Graham said.

Mrs. W. Q. Casey presided over the short business meeting which preceded the program. Mrs. Cole gave the prayer, with Mrs. Carroll Poncey presenting roll call and the minutes of the last meeting.

The gracious serving of refreshments by the hostesses completed the meeting.

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, under the laws of the State of Texas all citizens desiring to vote in elections held in year 1962 must qualify by paying the poll tax or obtaining a certificate of exemption from poll tax by January 31, 1962; and duty of every citizen to participate.

WHEREAS it is the patriotic duty of every citizen to participate in the process of self-government by meeting his obligation to his government and preparing himself to vote; and

WHEREAS our right to vote is the most basic of our constitutional freedoms, secured in battle by our forefathers and defended in every generation by brave men willing to shed their blood to protect this right, which is the corner stone of our liberties and is now under attack by a ruthless communistic society which has never permitted free elections; and

WHEREAS, the widest possible participation in elections is a proud sign of civic health and of a citizenry dedicated to the defense and the exercise of our American Way of life.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Harvey Bass, as Bailey County Democratic Chairman, do hereby proclaim the week January 24 to January 31, 1962, as

"QUALIFY TO VOTE WEEK" IN MULESHOE and urge that all our citizens who are eligible to vote proceed promptly to pay their poll taxes or obtain their certificates of exemption in order that they may be qualified to vote. ## Dimes Campaign To Begin For Bailey County

The Bailey County March of Dimes Drive will get in full swing, shortly, according to county chairman for the fund drive, Jeff Peeler, manager of Southwestern Public Service.

Peeler says that the Muleshoe High School Student Council is to help with the collection of funds. Robert Garlington is president of the Student Council.

"We hope the people of the Muleshoe area will pitch in and help us come up with a good total," said Peeler. He said that there would be delegates to call on the businesses for donations, and rural persons in charge of certain areas for donations.

Peeler noted that it was March of Dimes donations that was largely responsible for the Salk vaccine, which has all but dealt a death blow to Polio.

"We hope to finish our drive by the first or second week in February," Peeler added.

Mr. and Mrs. Doc Shavor of Amherst spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. P. M. Lancaster.

Mrs. Eugene Bryan is a patient in the Medical Arts hospital. She is feeling much better and hopes to return home soon.

District Council Installs St. Clair

Mullettes Grab District Lead

The Muleshoe Mules will be seeking their first district win, while the Mullettes will be out to protect their unbeaten district record Friday night when Muleshoe basketball teams travel to Morton for a pair of games.

The Mules continued to have hard luck during the past week, dropping a tough one to Abernathy, 61-56, and to the Whirlwinds at Floydada Tuesday, 75-51.

The Mullettes' luck was quite the opposite, as they scored relatively easy wins over Abernathy here last Friday, 62-37 and 55-37 over girls at Floydada Tuesday.

The Mules came closest to their first district win against Abernathy, leading during much of the fourth quarter before hitting a cold spell and taking the five points loss.

Jim Young hit 27 points, Wayne Malone 11 and Bob White 10 in the balanced effort.

The Mullettes led all the way against Abernathy, Mary Wedel and Trudy Davis each scored 22 points, and Ira Lee Inman added 14.

Against Floydada Tuesday, the Mules again took the lead after one quarter, 13-10, but fell behind the second half. Young led scoring with 21, the same number scored by Rodney Teague, Floydada's all-around star.

Miss Davis led the Mullettes' Tuesday win with 25 points.

Can't 'Reason' With Soviet Plot for World Conquest

We're Falling For Moscow 'Jitters Bait'

Davis Merwin, long-time editor, publisher and foreign correspondent, hasse en combat with all four armed services. He twice covered wartime Korea and moved with forays into enemy territory, to report hostilities. He has dealt with the Communists at first hand.

By DAVIS MERWIN

"This could of course mean war," "nuclear holocaust," "extreme rightists", or just plain "extremists".

Spot Cotton Demand Up

Demand for Southwest spot cotton was sparked last week by the government's announcement of 1962 support levels for upland and extra-long staple growth, reports the Agricultural Marketing Service.

Severe weather gripped the Southwest area and brought late harvest to a standstill. Most late ginnings moved into trade channels at firm prices.

Demand strengthened for practically all qualities, although inquiries centered on the lower grades of good character and micronaire.

Shippers needing cotton for nearby commitments were active buyers.

Formby Makes Announcement For Governor

Calling for a return of the Government to the people of Texas, Marshall Formby, Wednesday, made his formal announcement for Governor in the Democratic Primary. Formby, made his announcement from McAllen, in the Valley, where he was guest of honor at an appreciation dinner.

Recently, the highway through the Valley was named the "Marshall Formby Valley Expressway".

Formby is a former County Judge, former State Senator and, a former member and Chairman of the Texas Highway Commission. He is a strong advocate of the State Farm-to-Market Road System.

"Texans are demanding a more positive, progressive state administration, headed by a Governor who is not obligated to any cliques in either Washington or Austin. People are tired of the bickering and fussing among elected executives in Austin and they want a new leader—but one who will not be dictated to from Washington," Formby said in his announcement.

Furthermore, the State needs a good solid businessman approach to solve the State's economic problems. I propose to bring sensible and logical leadership to the Governor's office when I am elected."

Formby's platform includes favoring a simplified tax system; amending the so-called unfair merit car insurance ruling; increasing the speed limit of 70 miles per hour on 4-lane divided highways in rural areas and then strict enforcement; solving the State's water and soil conservation problems; less red tape for small businessmen and farmers, and, operating Texas on a cash basis. He favors greater consideration for the State's senior citizens.

He was born in Hopkins County. He is a practicing attorney, farmer and co-owner of four Texas radio stations.

WOMEN WEIGHT LIFTERS

NEW YORK (AP)—Columbia University reports that a woman lifts her iron about 200 times an hour while ironing. Based on use of a three and one half pound iron and six hours to do the ironing for a family of four, she lifts a total weight of more than two ton.

JUSTIFIED POLICY

And here's a dilly: "The Soviet journalist was interested to know whether the President admit that U.S. interference in the affairs of Cuba was a mistake. Mr. Kennedy persisted in justifying the policy of his country with regard to its small but heroic neighbor."

In the interests of fair play with good Americans who have been squelched in their efforts to highlight the Red menace, it should be recalled that candidate Kennedy decried the U2 overflights, promised "never again", suggested official expression of regret, mourned the collapse of the Paris Summit conference and inveighed against U.S. protection of the Chinese offshore islands. The Summit in Paris was clearly staged and aborted with just the right timing to satisfy Mr. K and scare the world.

REDS WON'T CHANGE

Presidents Roosevelt, Truman and Eisenhower have all shown us the pitfalls, the inefficacy of one-man, top-echelon diplomacy. When are we going to learn that the Reds have a long-run takeover program which they are not disposed to change for anyone? And when shall we come awake to the fact that we are getting nowhere talking reason, especially at the Summit? Yet now there are strong indications that our top man wants to go to Russia. After decrying resort to junkets abroad, he and we promptly took a licking at Vienna.

The prevalent view seems to be that whether or not we find the occupants of our nation's high offices right or wrong, we should "follow the leader". This is the sort of stuff of which dictatorships are made.

As Bob Hartmann puts it: "When are we going to learn that Khrushchev won't play with an unstacked deck?"

FACULTY HEAR IDEAS

Members of the Bula school faculty attended a Texas Small School Association meeting held at the Pep School Auditorium. Highlights of the meeting was things small schools are doing and also how they can be improved.

The phone in one early phone booth required no money to operate but the caller had to deposit a coin to get out of the selflocking door.

Mary De Shazo And Richland Hills P.T.A. To Meet Jointly

Muleshoe DeShazo and Richland Hills P.T.A. will meet jointly on Thursday Jan. 25th at 7:30 p.m. in the High School Auditorium. This will be the first meeting of the year 1962. All parents and others interested in the welfare of our schools and students are invited to attend.

Hickenlooper Wins Policy G.O.P. Post

Sen. Bourke B. Hickenlooper, Iowa, won the Senate Republican policy chairmanship Wednesday in a 21-14 vote victory over Sen. Leverett Saltonstall, Mass. The result showed that conservatives still hold the balance of minority power in the Senate.

succeeded the late Sen. Styles Bridges of New Hampshire in the influential policy post. Bridges died last November.

WHAT IS CHIROPRACTIC?

Chiropactic is a science by which the doctor locates and removes cause of disease. For every dis-ease, ache or pain there is a cause. As long as you have a cause, you will have dis-ease. Removal of cause results in removal of dis-ease. That sounds reasonable, doesn't it? You use the same principle every day in your home, at work, or at play and it works. For example: You are in the yard watering your lawn with a water hose and a rock falls across the hose. It may interfere with the flow of water to where there is only half of the original amount coming out at the nozzle. Do you work on the nozzle? No, you go back down the hose and remove the cause, the rock. That seems to be the simple, ordinary thing to do in the case and it will also work in your health problem. That is what Chiropractic is about, locating and removing the cause. What follows—Health.

The bones of your spine encircle the cable of nerves running to and from your brain. Naturally, when a bone shifts out of place it will reduce the size of this tunnel like structure causing a pinch or kink on some of these nerves. The brain now loses some of its capability to control the tissue to which these pinched nerves supply.

The tissue becomes weak, lowering resistance. The tissue under goes destruction resulting in disease. Chiropractic locates the pinch, restores the bone to its normal position freeing the nerves of any pinch or blockage. The brain regains control of the tissues, produces a rebuilding effect. Repair occurs, symptoms disappear, patient regains health. Simple but factual.

The Business World:

Buildup in Steel Inventory Underway

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Steelmen say a big inventory buildup already is under way. They feel that in attempting to halt it or put a brake on it, the Kennedy administration will be setting quite a task for itself.

All agree that such a buildup in stocks because of fears of a strike this summer can upset the normal course of the business cycle. You have only to look at what happened three years ago to see that.

But getting steel users to have full faith in the effectiveness of effort to assure there will be no strike—or, as much to the point, no price rise afterward—may be hard to do. This is especially true now, months ahead of the mid-year contract deadline and without much indication so far as to what the steelworkers will ask or what the mills will offer.

And it is now that the orders are pouring in for the steel to be stockpiled as a hedge against a possible strike.

It is this big pickup in steel output in excess of current consumption that probably inspired reports on high authority in Washington that the government intends to try to discourage steel users from excess inventory buildups as well as to keep close watch on contract negotiations.

The rush of steel ordering is likely to increase, in the opinion of the metalworking weekly, The Iron Age. It says sheet mill products already are being produced at capacity, while orders for other products are now calling for output at 60 per cent of capacity.

As this increases, it predicts the following schedule of steel shipments: January 80 per cent of capacity, February 85 per cent, March 90 per cent. It thinks this might well continue through the following three months as the mills fill the orders received.

The same rush to stock upon steel occurred in the first half of 1959, the last time that union contracts came up for negotiation.

This pushed the total of industrial production well above current consumption. Many steel users not only tried to stock up on their steel using products than their sales books justified. They wanted stocks of their products to sell if there were a long steel strike. That summer there was a long strike.

Many users were able to live off their stocks. But near the end of the strike layoffs in steel-using industries started to mount.

After the strike was settled the steel mills worked at capacity while their customers slowly built up their depleted stocks. Many of the users overestimated the strength of the recovery and ordered more steel than they need, as it turned out. Again the general economy had a rosy look that was more of a fever flush than a healthy glow.

Les Procter Is Candidate For Attorney-General Post

AUSTIN—Travis County District Attorney Les Procter announced this week as a candidate for attorney general on the Democratic ticket, and at the same time criticized big spending in political races.

The announcement came on the effective date of 40-year-old Procter's resignation from the prominent prosecution office he has held for seven years.

"One issue we can decide in this race," Procter said, "is whether a poor man has an opportunity in Texas politics today."

"I do not have the money to urge that I am a better bread-faith food or a brighter soap suds."

Procter, a Marine Corps veteran of World War II and Korea, said he would conduct an enthusiastic "Spartan" campaign. "With no luxuries and only the bare necessities."

"I have only enough money, most of it mine, and half of that borrowed, to go among the people of my state and ask them sincerely to permit me to be their attorney general," said Procter.

Procter said he had been told by political professionals that a candidate with a small campaign fund can not hope to win a statewide election—that he would not be taken seriously.

He said it was his "hope that the voters will base the decision on the sincerity, ability and qualification of the candidates and not upon the stage effects of big campaign spending."

Procter said he would cover as much of the big state as possible, but would rely heavily on "self-appointed spokesman and friends who will raise their voices in my behalf."

He said he was staking his hopes on voters who want clean government and desire an "uncommitted attorney" representing them in the attorney general's office.

Procter said that since the attorney general is the lawyer for all the people of Texas the office should not be sought on the basis of platform but on principle.

"That principle is the fair and just interpretation and administration of the law without fear or favor—the product of hard work and not of political consideration he said.

Procter has become widely known in recent years through his prosecution of criminal cases arising from the veteran's land, insurance, and legislative bribery scandals.

New Hospital Pharmacy Uses Unique Concept

A new concept in hospital pharmacy is in operation at Damron Pharmacy, located in Green Hospital and Clinic.

"We make copies of all prescriptions filled at the hospital and file them at the store (Damron's Drug) as well as at the hospital," says Sam Damron, one of three pharmacists who are dividing duty.

"Then, should anyone need a prescription filled when the hospital pharmacy isn't open, they need only to bring it by Damron's," he continued.

Damron Pharmacy began operation at the Green Hospital and Clinic last week.

The three pharmacists are: Sam Damron, graduate of Muleshoe High School (class of 1942) and University of Texas School of Pharmacy (1948). He and his wife Elaine have two children, Druscella, 10 and Dana, nine.

Walter Chambliss, also a graduate of the University of Texas School of Pharmacy (1958). He and his wife, Frances have a five-month old daughter, Sharon.

And last but not least, Joe Sam Damron, a Pharmacy school graduate in 1933. Mr. Damron has been a druggist and pharmacist in Muleshoe since 1932.

The Damrons are proud of the new hospital pharmacy and its "baby blue" color.

The pharmacy is open from nine a.m. until 5 p.m. seven days a week.

Draft Quota For February Is Announced

AUSTIN. — The state quota for Texas draft boards in February calls for 296 men, Colonel Morris S. Schwartz, state Selective Service director announced last week.

The state's February call of 296 compares with a quota of 440 for January. The February call is the state's share of a national call of 8,000 men, all for the Army.

Colonel Schwartz also announced that local boards would send 1,760 men for pre-induction physical and mental examinations, compared to 4,000 in January, and with men who are at least 22 years old on February 1, with the exception of volunteers or delinquents, who may be younger.

The February quota will be filled, Colonel Schwartz said.

Off The Runways

HEATHINGTON SOLOS

Willard Heathington made his solo flight last week after about 12 hour of instruction.

Heathington is enrolled in ground school and flight training a is advancing rapidly toward obtaining his private license.

FILM DEMONSTRATION

A Sanderson visual aid film used in teaching ground school was shown at the Muleshoe Flying Service Airport office last Friday night for the first run of public showing.

A crowd of aviation enthusiasts were on hand for the demonstration. Students enrolling in ground school are Max Bowers, A. E. Bowers and Hugh Yeates of Arch, N.M.; Dean Weatherly, C. W. Palmer and Merlin Roberts of Morton; Leon Jones, Texico, Betty Williams and Willard Heathington of Muleshoe.

The classes which began January 8 are taught on Monday and Tuesday nights. The film and instruction on pre-flight was completed with last Tuesday night's session and students will begin the weather phase of the course this week, according to Fred Boyce.

FLYING INSTRUMENT

One of the strangest sensations as a passenger in small aircrafts other than stunt flying must be named "flight by instrument."

Those who have never had the experience, go along on an instrument training flight at the next opportunity.

Shortly after clearing the runway in the Tri-Pacer, on a simulated bad weather instrument flight, Sunday, Morgan Locker placed the hood over his head, veered to the left and headed for the Omirange station located just southeast of Bovina.

With the instruments, and the Omni station along with the "beep" signal on the radio, flew directly over the station. Immediately after crossing it, he turned the plane, made a swinging loop to the east of the station and lining up with the station signals flew toward the Clovis Municipal Airport. Flying for 8 minutes and some seconds he lowered altitude and told the passengers in the plane "We are now even with the runways of the Clovis airport and are at an altitude which is usually low enough to break out of normal low ceiling weather to make an VFR landing, then removed the hood.

Locker has worked out the directional heading of flight path to and from the station by time element and instrument and daily practice to give students more accurate training in instrument flying. Larger Omni stations have this system worked out for pilots benefits.

NEW STUDENT

Terry Smith of Earth is a new student pilot.

Smith is training in the J-3 1961 RECAP

Looking back into the first few months of 1961's activities at the airport brings to mind these events:

January 2: At dawn, the Muleshoe airport was buzzing with activity as Civil Air Patrol units and private planes flew in to form a headquarters here to join and all out search for a missing Tri-Pacer with four men aboard. The plane was found about noon 2 miles south of Ft. Sumner, N.M.

The Morgan Lockers returned from a flight to Little Torch Key, Florida, where they spent 2 weeks repairing damage to their home there caused by Hurricane Donn and Harold Locke, airport instructor moved to Marlin to start his own airport.

Neil Everett left January 21st to serve three years with the Army and Jack Wright flew to Amarillo to take his flight test. Clifford White made his first cross country flight to Levelland. The Muleshoe Flying Service Sail planes was demonstrated at Clovis Municipal Airport drawing a record crowd and the Locker attended a series of parachute jumping contests in Ruidoso. Getting on to Alamo, Locke made his first jump at the Sky Diving Club there.

received their private pilots license: Bob Allen of Clovis soloed in the sailplane.

Fred Boyd joined the airport personnel as flight and ground school instructor and A&E mechanic and Mrs. Boyd began flight training as did Bobby Merrill from Earth. Flashing red lights were installed as a safety measure atop the obstructions at the end of the runways; Dr. Santos and Walter McMahan soloed in the Comanche.

At sunrise, Howard Watson, Leon Smith along with Chet Sauls, Louie Figuerroa and Rick Puente of Alamogordo made parachute jumps at Horseshoe Bend from the Tri-Pacer.

Harold King and Morgan Locker left on a charter flight to Tulsa, La.; Leon Smith and Howard Watson accomplished the feat of Sky Diving by moonlight; a Piper Aztec was purchased and delivered to the Muleshoe Flying Service; Herbert Griffith, Marvin Davenport and George Tompkins started flying lessons and Dr. and Mrs. Ray Santos flew to Wichita.

The Aztec was chartered by Tom Watson, G. W. Mims, Hershel Ward and Clarence Mason for a trip to Houston.

On May 4 the new addition to the airport office was completed and furnished. Herbert Griffith made a cross country dead reckoning flight to Hobbs and Roswell, returning by Ft. Sumner and flying by navigation around the restricted area.

Flying the J-3 in the West Camp area at a low altitude, Morgan Locker flipped the plane when he made a forced landing due to engine failure. Damage was comparatively light to the plane and Locker was not injured.

During the week of May 18, Muleshoe youngest lady to begin flight training was Virginia Bayless and Mrs. Rachel Sterline, age 76 took her first airplane ride which she enjoyed very much. Lyndol Kinser received training in mountain flying while on a flight to Alamogordo in the Comanche.

Willie Washington, 15 year old student of Hill Top School was employed at the Muleshoe Flying Service and is taking flying lessons.

In June, Mrs. Emaline Farghan and Ella Harper who were injured near here in a car wreck were flown to their home town of San Bernardino. The Aztec was used for the air ambulance flight piloted by Morgan Locker. Dr. Ray Santos accompanied the patients on the flight.

Abilene Center Is Called Democracy Symbol In Action

Abilene (AP)—A million dollar rehabilitation center, available to people of East Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico, is being opened here without federal, state or local tax support and without charge to patients.

The center is called by its supporters a perfect example of democracy in action.

All patients are out-patients, living in their homes. And parents are taught to help continue treatment in their homes. Care must be prescribed by the patient's doctor.

The West Texas Rehabilitation Center started with dreams of a few people in 1952 and has been in operation since 1953. It has over 400 patients and a staff of 26, headed by Shelley V. Smith.

Money for its operation comes from donors who have provided and equipped the building on a two-acre plot, and from supporting events.

The Cattlemen's Roundup, an idea that originated with Conda Wylie of Ft. Chadbourne, has become a major source of income. Joe Skinner of Abilene was chairman of the first round up. Ranchmen from 38 towns formed the roundup committee.

The center is classified as a hospital by the Internal Revenue Service, making all gifts and donations tax deductible.

The 1962 budget has been set at $100,000. Two special projects are planned, a $6,000 expansion of the physical therapy department, increasing it by 1,000 feet, and establishment of Handico, an enterprise to provide handicapped workers with employment with sub-contracting work on virtually any type of handwork. All equipment has been contributed by groups of individuals.

Two nationally prominent women have been speakers at the center.

One was Mrs. Oveta Culp Hobby, president and editor of the Houston Post and former secretary of health, education and welfare. The other was Mrs. Ivy Baker Priest, former treasurer of the United States.

Mrs. Hobby, who opened the center with souvenir key at the time of the dedication of the building in September, 1955, spoke on "Treat the Whole Child."

"Part of your task," she said, "will be a continuing one of education—of helping the public to understand the importance of rehabilitation."

Dedication of the hydro-therapy pool, largest of its kind in Texas, and the speech education center in March 1961, which also coincided with open house, was presided over by Bob Kennedy of Abilene, public relations committee chairman, who said:

"Here you can see what people can do for themselves. It can be done because we have done it."

Mrs. Priest, national chairman of the 1957 Easter Seal campaign and active in national crippled children and adult work, said that the West Texas group had created "a monument that will endure. She pointed out that the American Way of life and system had made the center possible and praised the spirit and determination of those who aided in founding the center.

Speaking of crippling diseases, she said neither wealth or geography of race prevented the scourge.

Homer Scott of Abilene is new president, succeeding Z. Oswald, who has served for two years. Oswald will serve as vice president. Raleigh Brown is secretary; Fred Henry, treasurer and Dr. Donald McDonald medical director.

By Boyce House

I am not a mighty hunter.

My greatest hunting exploit was when I was not yet 13 years old. I was visiting my Uncle Lonzo's farm in Missouri. My proudest possession was a singleshoot .22 rifle. Several of us boys were out hunting. We had seen no game and so we took turns shooting at cans on top of fence posts, bottles placed on logs and paper targets on trees.

At last we actually sighted a squirrel. But by this time, our supply of ammunition was used up.

So I volunteered to remain and keep an eye on the squirrel while the others went for more shells. This suggestion was not received with enthusiasm but after all I was the owner of the rifle and furthermore was providing the capital. A package of cartridges was a quarter. These were the black powder kind; the smokeless variety was more expensive—but I didn't mind swabbing the barrel with a bit of wax. Also the 25-cent box was rim-fire; there was another kind which was supposed to be more accurate but they cost more. The full facts are given as every effort is being made to make the account of this exploit absolutely accurate.

However, the state of my finances was such that I had only a nickel in cash. With that three shells could be bought.

So the other boys hastened to the general store, which was a half mile—and was substantially the same distance back.

I kept an eye on the squirrel and, as he would circle the tree, I would do likewise but at a distance and in a casual fashion so as not to alarm him. (The insinuation of pseudo-friends that I was smart enough to keep away from a squirrel are passed by as unworthy of notice.)

The strain of watching the creature had me almost exhausted when my colleagues returned. In a matter of seconds, the gun had been loaded; I took dead aim—I had agreed to take the first shot) and at the crack of my trusty rifle, the squirrel fell to the ground.

One squirrel does not provide much meat but it was enough to flavor a large amount of dumplings—and dumplings are the best part of a squirrel, anyhow.

And that is the story of the most exciting experience of my hunting career.

Farm Bureau Works For Farm Betterment

By RAYMOND EULER Farmer County Farm Bureau

It is our sincere hope that most of the people of the Golden Spread saw or heard "Hollywood's Answer to Communism" Friday night. It was presented locally by competitive business organizations, and supported initially by loyal American producers and actors who find themselves in the midst of proponents of a switch from the American way. We believe most American Citizens appreciate both of the facts that bring hope for a reversal of a trend. Farm Bureau, locally state-wide and national-wide, openly opposes Communism whenever and wherever it is found.

Members of the Gas User's Association have been, and are actively working for legislation in Texas enabling farmers to get irrigation fuel at a reasonable cost. Farm Bureau supports this organization in its efforts. Some of you may never know how much some of your neighbors & fellow farmers are spending and working for your benefit in this endeavor. If you knew, we know you would lend your support voluntarily and vigorously. We hope you will. Vernon Symcox a member of the board of the above mentioned organization reported to the Farm Bureau Board on activities of the organization last week.

President Harry Hamilton reported to your board on a meeting he attended in Amarillo last week where Congressman Walter Rogers was guest of District 1 Farm Bureau. He was questioned regarding his views on Farm Bureau recommendations on national policies. Of particular interest was the Bracero program which appears to be on the way out regardless of Farm Bureau and other farm group efforts to save it.

Farm Bureau is for long range improvement in farm and other business and individual income. Generally speaking, Farm Bureau people believe this can only be accomplished by a return to individual freedom, individual opportunity, and individual initiative without undue interference from the government.

We hope you share these basic beliefs enough to volunteer your membership if you are not already a member.

Political Calendar

JAN. 31—Last day to pay your poll tax or get an exemption certificate.

FEB. 5—Deadline for politicians to get their names on the primary ballot, either Democratic or Republican. This includes candidates for county, district, and state elective officials; all 31 state senators and 150 representatives, 23 U.S. congressmen, and one judge in each of the 11 courts of civil appeals district. The state-wide races include governor, lieutenant governor, attorney general, comptroller, land commissioner, treasurer, agricultural commissioner, two railroad commissioners, one judge of the court of criminal appeals and three members of the state supreme court.

APRIL 15—Absentee voting begins for first primary elections.

MAY 1—Last day for absentee voting.

MAY 5—First primary elections, for both Democrats and Republicans. Precinct conventions, both parties.

MAY 13—Absentee voting begins for second primary runoffs.

MAY 23—Absentee voting ends.

JUNE 2—Second primary elections, both parties.

SEPT. 18—State conventions, both parties. Sites to be selected in March.

OCT. 1—Sale of 1963 poll taxes begins.

OCT. 17—Absentee voting begins for general election.

NOV. 2—Absentee voting ends.

NOV. 6—GENERAL election. In addition to all nominees named in party primaries, voters will ballot on 14 proposed changes in the state constitution. These include legislature-approved plans to put a $2,000,000 ceiling on state assistance to the totally disabled, raising the limit on state needy and old age payments from $47,000,000 to $52,000,000, line of succession for state officials in case of enemy attack, resale of veterans land program land when unsold to veterans, workmen's compensation insurance for employees of all political subdivisions, a state program for acquiring water conservation storage facilities and a number of hospital districts.

Each of us should be conducting a personal drive in Muleshoe to see to it that every eligible person pays his or her poll tax and votes.

WHO ME? Yes, all of us.

Armed with knowledge and motivated by patriotism, righteous anger or common sense, we must decide to reach the plateau that too few of us ever achieve—the level of political action. Although the air on the political level is not necessarily rarified and the company may at times include a bewildering variety of the human species, at least vision is extended and we see more clearly the issues at stake.

This, then, becomes the greatest weapon for each individual—the knowledge and foresight gained by actual, practical, working, doing and participating in our elective process.

And remember, the deadline to qualify is January 31st, just 18 more days!

Sometimes people who are willing to risk their lives for a principle are not willing to spend a minute of their time or a dollar out of their wallet for the right to vote.

As an investment the effort required to nail down the right to vote is the best anyone will ever make. Our wages, our right to work, our insurance, our future and curiosity, even the chance of getting our poll tax repaid depend on paying that fee now and then voting.

The only way to protect our constitutional rights is by voting and electing those who care to protect our country and our community as we do—that is, those of us who DO pay our poll tax and then DO go to vote on election days.

So—let's pay that $1.75 at the Bailey County Clerk's office.... We have, HAVE YOU?

EDITH WILT

It seems several readers and friends of Edith Wilt were surprised to see she was running for "City" Treasurer.

Well, if they had just read on in the story, 'twas the office of County (Bailey) Treasurer. We apologize for the headline abbreviated CTY. turned out CITY. but do strongly hope that everyone isn't just a "headline reader." Pay your Poll Tax! There are several important positions, both county and district—as well as state offices, up this year for vote.

So—we'll see you at the Court-house....

Bailey County Had Six Traffic Deaths In '61

At the stroke of twelve midnight December 31, 1961, "Old Father time" quietly slipped away. But the resounding echoes and visions of his destruction of grinding metal bodies, crashing glass, torn and broken limbs and smash-torn and broken lives long in our memories. His record in Bailey County has been an expensive one.

For the entire year of 1961 in this county there were 64 crashes resulting in 6 persons killed, 29 injured and an estimated property damage of $35,610.00. In comparison of the year 1960 there were 60 crashes resulting in 9 persons killed, 26 injured and an estimated property damage of $44,610.00.

For the month of December the Texas Highway Patrol investigated 5 rural traffic accidents in this county according to Sergeant D. S. Lawson Highway Patrol Supervisor for this area.

These wrecks accounted for one person injured, and an estimated property damage of $1,595.00.

The veteran Patrol Supervisor cautions all motorists not to be guilty of negligence in permitting their windshields and window glasses to be covered with any form of frozen precipitation while driving. This enhances your chances of an accident many times.

Navy Accepting Three-Year Enlistments

Captain Paul George, Director Navy Recruiting, Seventh Recruiting Area, announced today that the Navy is now accepting three year enlistments for first enlistment and also personnel with prior Military training may now enlist for two-three, four or six years at their option.

This is an experimental program and will be in effect until June 30, 1962. This program has been placed into effect to meet the increased readiness posture of the Navy. This does not effect the Navy's "Stay in School" policy.

Writer Urges People To Write Congressmen

Dear Editor:

I am sending you an article that I have written urging the people to write their congressmen. Because our United States Congress is opening within a few days, I feel that this might be a timely article for your paper.

WRITE YOUR CONGRESSMAN

Every Congressman realizes that mail from his constituents is probably the most reliable barometer of the personal feelings of the voters he represents.

This doesn't mean that he personally reads and answers every letter addressed to him. In most cases, especially for congressmen from larger states, this would be impossible. Usually, about nine out of ten letters received are answered by staff members. All are carefully noted and passed on to the congressman.

WHICH LETTERS REACH HIS DESK? Generally, those from his own personal friends or government officials, invitations to speak, and honest, simply written letters. Congressmen rely on your letters.

When many letters are received on the same subject, a form reply is usually drawn up. Often a staff member keeps a tally of the opinions expressed (perhaps under a simple "yes" or "no") and hands it on to the congressman. And if you send a form letter rather than a personal one, you will probably get another form letter in return.

HOW ABOUT GROUP LETTERS? Congressmen differ about the influence of a group letter—a single letter signed by many different people. Some believe a single petition signed by many constituents has less impact than a large number of individual letters. All agree, however, that a single group letter will attract more favorable attention than any number of stereotyped form letters.

WHAT DO MOST PEOPLE WRITE ABOUT? Anything that affects them personally and directly—tax bills, labor legislation, international issues, farm legislation, education legislation, etc.

HOW TO ADDRESS YOUR LETTER? To be sure that your letter receives attention, follow this advice:

Address your letter correctly to your own senator or representative. Senators John G. Tower and Ralph Yarborough's addresses are Senate Office Building, Washington 25, D. C. Representative George Mahon's address is House

Office Building, Washington 25, D. C.

Give all the facts clearly and simply. When referring to a specific piece of legislation, include its name and number, if possible. Cover only one issue in each letter. Tell exactly what you think the problem is and state what action you think should be taken.

Write a personal letter in your own words. Any kind of form letter is far less impressive.

Include your full name and address (using Mrs., Miss, or Mr.) in the letter as well as on the envelope. Envelopes are often thrown away.

Generally you can expect a reply to your letter four to five days after it is received.

(Name withheld by request)

Warning Issued To Taxpayers Filing Returns

"Taxpayers who fail to report ALL taxable income for 1961 are liable to be called to account for it. In fact, they may be subject not only to the tax, but also to interest and penalties."

This warning came today from Ellis Campbell, Jr., District Director of the Internal Revenue Service, whose office is 2101 Pacific Avenue, Dallas, Texas.

Numerous types of income besides salaries and wages must be included in the preparation of federal income tax returns if received.

"While the forms themselves and the accompanying instruction booklets detail several of the most common types of income which must be reported," the IRS representative said, "taxpayers are reminded that interest on savings accounts and Series 'E' U. S. Savings Bonds, tips, and most dividends and profits on sales of real or personal property, are taxable income."

Farwell Marine Returns From Pacific Cruise

Will Farmers Go Along With Organized Labor?

What will be the next thing to be imposed on the farmers?

That is what the farmers themselves and everyone who as an eye to the future are wondering these days.

All of the concern has developed in recent weeks following the passing of Public Law 78, which made it unlawful for the use of Mexican Nationals for "employment to operate or maintain power-driven, self-propelled harvesting, planting or cultivating machinery after Jan. 1, 1962, except in specific cases found by the Secretary of Labor to be necessary for a temporary period to avoid undue hardship."

The law as it read was a bad enough blow to the farmers. But the interpretation that followed—wow.

Last week managers of area laborers societies received the Department of Labor's official "interpretation" of PL 78. It didn't help matters a bit.

As a matter of fact, it only added to the problems the farmers were already facing. The new "side dressing" to the law included the following:

—Braceros now may work only for a six-month (180 days) duration, and farmers, in turn, may use Braceros only 180 days out of the year.

—The National s will not be able to help with the function of harvest machinery in any way. (Indicating they may not be used in cotton trailers or around machinery used in harvesting vegetables.)

—Braceros will not be allowed to use power-driven machinery for any purpose, regardless of its seasonal value.

—Contract price has now been raised to $15 dollars, whereas farmers had been accustomed to paying $10 per contract.

This is the way it stands at present, but like we said, what next?

What area agriculturists fear, and what seems to be the sinister undertones of it all is ORGANIZED FARM LABOR.

Already, the Department of Labor has forced lettuce growers in Texas, California and Arizona to pay a minimum of $2 per hour to harvesters, ruling that Bracero labor had caused an "adverse effect" on domestic labor.

The lettuce men further are being required to guarantee an employee time and a half for Sundays and holidays, and must work at least 3 hours after he begins, & at least two hours if he is asked to report.

"Can they do that to us?" area farmers are asking. They can, and they will, as indicated by Public Law 78. UNLESS Farmers are willing to organize and let their congressmen know how they feel.

Americans (much less TEXANS) have never been known as a submissive breed.

We don't think that area farmers will accept these sweeping changes—at least without a fight. And if congressmen find out that West Texans—or Texans as a whole—don't give in too easily, then there may be some concessions made.

TODAY'S MEDITATION

Read Romans 8:22-30
 We know not what we should pray for as we ought; but the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us. (Romans 8:26)

In The Meaning of Prayer, Harry Emerson Fosdick says, "The traveler climbs the foothills of the Himalayas, and among the Khonds (a tribe) of North India hears the prayer: 'Lord, we do not know what is good for us. Thou knowest what it is. For it we pray.'"

Prayer is more than saying prayers; it is the deepest desire of the heart. In order to have spiritual life and energy, we must have constant contact with our heavenly Father. A natural place to do this daily is in the home.

Acceptance of God's love can cast out fear, thus dissolving our inner anxiety, and delivering us from outer pressure. True prayer gives us the fearlessness that brings rightness and brightness to the heart. What we are looking for the ease of God's presence was beautifully described many years ago when Jesus said, simply, "I am not alone, because the Father is with me."

PRAYER: O God, our Father, help us to walk with wisdom this day, looking unto Jesus. May His light be our guide, and His love our strength and inspiration. This we ask in His name. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY
 By prayer, faith is strengthened, hope renewed, love rekindled, life reborn.

News Medias Aid In Reduction of Holiday Deaths

Sergeant D. S. Lawns, Highway Patrol Supervisor for this area stated, "That the Texas Department of Public Safety closed its Operation Death-Watch holiday period of ten days at midnight January 1, 1962, with 77 traffic deaths, 11 fewer than the predicted 88 traffic deaths."

The veteran patrol supervisor said there was "No doubt in my mind but that the massive education campaign undertaken so willingly and wholeheartedly by the news medias of the State, the exceptional cooperation of law-enforcement agencies and the willingness of hundred of thousands who drove legally and defensively brought about this reduction of lives lost. I am sure this particular campaign and its results are clear and factual evidence of what can be done to save lives and reduce injuries in traffic."

Highlights & Sidelights From The State Capitol

"Escheat" is a word you'll hear often during the next 30 days.

With the fourth session of the 57th Legislature under way the most important item on the agenda is "escheat". Governor Price Daniel called this third special session because he believes the more than 1,500 banks and savings and loan associations should be subject to escheat.

But just what is "escheat"? It's a process, as ancient as Roman history; written in Old England's feudal law; described by Webster as, "Reversion of land to the crown, or to the state in the United States, by failure of persons legally entitled to hold the same."

Escheat provisions were incorporated in the constitution of the Republic of Texas, and enacted as a state statute in 1885.

Texas law always has stated that when anybody dies without heirs, or disappears and can't be found, his property shall be turned over to the state, after seven years. But the law has lacked a provision by which persons or institutions holding property of missing persons were required to report it.

Governor Daniel started pushing for a provision three years ago, and last summer the Legislature finally passed a reporting provision. But the bankers have fought it long and successfully. They are still exempt from the reporting law, although all other businesses and public agencies must comply.

During the interim between legislative sessions, a special house committee has been investigating enforcement of escheat laws applicable to banking institutes. Committee discovered that much of the $4,000,000 escheatable accounts lying dormant in Texas banks is being dissipated through service charges and recommended that:

1. The Legislature add banking institutions to the escheat enforcement law without delay, and require banks to advertise for lost owners after seven years.
2. That this matter receive prompt attention in the January session, because the committee estimates a year's delay would mean the loss of $1,000,000 through the procedure of service charges on accounts that don't receive service.
3. That the committee keep on working to see if there are any other considerations which should be brought to the attention of the 58th Legislature.

LOAN SHARK LEGISLATION

Although the Governor hasn't said he'll introduce loan legislation at the special session, it's considered a safe bet that the uproar over "loan shark" practices of sky-high interest rates will prompt him to place this issue on the January agenda.

The Legislative Council had a heated debate, and voted 9-2 to commend a loan bill backed by Representative Criss Cole of Houston.

Cole's bill sets a 10 per cent A lender would be able to charge more than 10 per cent on loans under $1,500 only if he got a state license, paying $200 for investigation and $200 a year license fee. To get the license, he'd have to hold $15,000 in liquid assets for each loan office, and post a $20,000 surety bond, plus $5,000 for each branch, plus the $200 annual fee for each office.

Cole's bill calls for creation of a Consumer Finance Commission which would examine each lender's books annually, at the expense of the lender.

Interest charges would be limited to: 10 per cent annum on the amount of cash advance; plus a "service and availability charge of 3-4 of one per cent per month for each $1 of the first $400 of the loan on loans over $100.00.

On loans under $100, the charge would be $1 for each $5 borrowed, with at least 15 days to be allowed to repay each $5 of the loan.

If excessive charges are made, the lender would have no right to collect principal or charges, and would be fined from $100 to $1,000, and confined to the county jail as long as six months.

The dissenting votes in the Legislative Council were from Senator Charles Herring of Austin, who calculates the minimum rate on loans of $1,500 to be 45 per cent, and Rep. Don Kennard of Fort Worth, who figures a $5 loan for 15 days would cost the borrower 464.4 per cent interest under the Cole bill.

It can—and does—happen here, with the flower of American youth on the block.

But in this century, there's a difference. Now it's all in a good cause. Members of the New March of Dimes Teen Age Program (TAP) auction their services to the highest bidder among local merchants. The money goes to support The National Foundation—March of Dimes attack on birth defects, arthritis and polio.

It's all part of TAP members' lively approach to volunteer community service. They also sponsor walkathons (shades of the Thirties) in which teams from rival schools move toward the finish line as dimes are contributed. They dance for dimes at casual sock hops and formal balls, man concessions at school sports events, and hold community car washes.

Through such ingenious fun-for-funds projects, TAPs raised nearly three-quarters of a million dollars during the 1961 March of Dimes.

For the 1962 New March of Dimes in January, tens of thousands of the youthful volunteers are literally "on TAP."

In more than 75 per cent of The National Foundation's 3,100 local county chapters, active TAP committees are determined to hit new highs in fun as well as funds.

Adult advisors who work with TAPs point out that underlying the outward frivolity of the teenagers' projects is a deep awareness of the need for increased research and progress in the fight against crippling birth defects—arthritis and polio. During the year, many youngsters assist in local patient services by reading to disabled children, writing letters for severely crippled arthritides or working as hospital aides.

A prime year-round responsibility of TAP members is distribution of information about the National Foundation—Health Scholarships to students in high schools and colleges. Each year, more than 500 four-year scholarships with a full value of $2,000 apiece are offered for study in medicine, nursing, physical therapy, occupational therapy and medical social work. TAP members know the desperate need to reduce the shortage of manpower in the health professions by encouraging students to undertake careers in these fields.

Leader of the Teen Age Program for the 1962 New March of Dimes is national chairman Katherine Anne Keith, 18, of Columbia, Mo. Blonde, brainy and born to be busy, Katie will handle her major responsibilities as top TAP while she pursues an ambitious freshman schedule at the University of Missouri.

On the basis of past performance, juggling scholarship and volunteer service won't intimidate Katie. She was 1961 Missouri state TAP chairman during her strenuous senior year in high school. Under her leadership, Missouri TAPs showed record gains in membership, services to chapters and funds raised for the March of Dimes.

At the same time, Katie maintained grades that ranked her third in her graduating class of almost 300 students. She was a National Merit Scholarship finalist and received the Kiwanis Good Citizenship award. She was business manager—and occasional sportswriter—for the school paper, treasurer of the National Honor Society, queen of the major social function of the school year, had a lead role in the school play, "Teahouse of the August Moon," and actively participated in math, history, English and French clubs.

She also teaches a Sunday School class at Missouri Methodist Church in Columbia. After a summer in Europe, including study at the Sorbonne in Paris, the energetic Katie began to plan for a banner year of TAP activity for the March of Dimes.

"Teenagers who are looking for a sense of satisfaction along with fun and friendship are missing a bet if they don't check TAP activities in their local March of Dimes chapters," she said. "A TAP committee isn't just another youth organization—it's not merely a club to serve youth. Instead, it gives us an opportunity to serve our communities."

IT'S THE LAW in Texas

WHY LAWYERS DEFEND
 If you do not provide for the proper defense of all who are accused of crime, then the innocent, when falsely accused, have no way to prove their innocence. So, under our law, we look on a man as innocent until he is found guilty under proper court proceedings.

From this, it follows that all of us have the right to be represented by a lawyer. Since the lawyer has a duty to represent you, much criticism of him for doing so is unjust.

Should a lawyer defend persons in court if he knows or thinks they have done the acts charged? Yes, the worst criminal has a right to a fair trial. This he cannot have unless a lawyer sees that he has a fair jury and that it hears only lawful evidence against him.

Sometimes the defense counsel arouses public feeling by his sincere efforts to see that his client has very proper legal safeguard. The public may misunderstand these legal moves. For the public they seem to be an unethical effort to defeat justice, by delay or by taking advantage of certain "technicalities."

Attorneys should tell people that it is one of our basic democratic rights to be considered innocent until legal evidence proves our guilt beyond a reasonable doubt.

All who are charged with crime have a right to an attorney's aid. An attorney swears to see that the accused gets each protective legal right to which he is entitled.

(This newsfeature, prepared by the State Bar of Texas, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variance in facts may change the application of the law.)

Warning Noted About Water Approval Signs

Travellers of Texas highways are familiar with the sign, "Public Water Supply Approved." These signs mean the water is safe to drink, but they do not necessarily mean that the water in any particular community is satisfactory for reconstituting nonfat dry milk.

Water may contain biological ferments or minerals, or both, capable of giving the milk an off-flavor, or preventing or delaying normal acid development for buttermilk, or of preventing normal curd firming when cheese is made.

Tests conducted by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station have indicated that these waters can usually be treated to avoid these defects. In some rare instances, where the off-flavor is caused by vegetation, the defects cannot be removed by treatment.

Water used in the tests came from seven small incorporated cities and towns and from private wells in two rural communities. The tests showed that when the waters from two sources were not heated the milks made from them were off-flavored after three days. In both instances, the occurrence of off-flavor was delayed when the water was heated before use.

In two other instances, heating was not completely effective. Water from most sources was definitely improved by heating.

Complete results of these tests are contained in Experiment Station publication MP-537, "Reconstituting Nonfat Dry Milk With Home Water Supplies." A copy of this publication may be obtained from the Agricultural Information Office, College Station, Texas.

Mice, Rabbits Aren't Funny In Real Life

Off the screen and in the back yard, cartoonland's endearing rabbits, meadow mice and ground squirrels are anything but gentle and lovable. They turn into unwitting tree killers when the coldest days of winter sweep in.

They're compulsive wood eaters and bring them with tidbits left on the ground will do no good. They'll still dine on the bark of trees and buds and twigs of shrubs. Without half trying, hungry rodents frequently can match the devastation caused by insect borers.

There are ways of making rodents obey ground rules. The most effective means of safeguarding the edible landscaping is also the most troublesome for the homeowner. It's building "iron curtains" around valuable trees and shrubs, especially the thin-barked and newly transplanted. Hardware cloth or wire screening should encircle tree trunks or stem plants high enough to discourage rabbits and deep enough to prevent burrowing.

Homeowners averse to arming woody pets may find chemical repellents the answer. A number of sprays on the market are

COOPERATION

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following is one of three articles sent to the Journal by T. C. Shepard of Plainview. His father, J. W. Shepard was dealer in Jacks and Jennetts two score years ago in Plano, Texas.

Mr. Shepard hopes the poems will be of interest to Muleshoe and these promoting the Monument to the Mule.

Two fool jackmules—say, get this dope—
Were tied together with a piece of rope.
Said one to the other, "You come my way,
While I take a nibble from this new-mown hay."
"I won't, said the other, "You come with me.
For I, too, have some hay, you see."
So they got nowhere—just pawed up dirt,
And oh, by golly, that rope did hurt.
Then they faced about, these stubborn mules,
And said, "We are acting like human fools!
Let's pull together. I'll go your way,
Then you come with me and we'll both eat hay."
Well, they ate their hay, and they liked it, too.
And swore to be comrades good and true.
As the sun went down they heard to bray:
"Ah, this is the end of a perfect day!"
—Selected.

gave the following information. "The new Hale variety was used in the test. The beans were planted on May 15 and harvested on December 20. They were irrigated with a preplant application of 4.8 inches in April; August 8; 4 inches, and August 31 with 2 1/2 inches.

The beans never suffered from lack of water. One shallow cultivation was made when the plants were small and three flame cultivations were used during the season to destroy the small weeds. Through the use of the flame method, the roots were not broken and the Alternaria spores had little chance to enter the roots and weaken the plant, possibly destroying it." The full data on fertilizer yields and methods used are covered in the report.

Fertilizer Tests Conducted Now

The fertilizer application on castorbeans producing the highest yield was a preplant application of 100 pounds of nitrogen and sidedressed application of 50 pounds of nitrogen. This is the second year that this method of fertilizer application has produced the top yield in the castorbean fertilizer tests conducted at the High Plains Research Foundation, Dr. Thomas C. Longnecker, Director and Chief Soil Scientist, stated in reviewing the report.

The nine fertilizer applications tested were compared with the non-fertilized yield of a surprising 2,447 pounds per acre. The highest yield was 2,796 pounds per acre. The other fertilizer applications were: 50, 100 and 150 pounds of nitrogen applied preplant only; 50 preplant and 100 sidedressed; 50 preplant and 20 sidedressed; 50 preplant and 25 sidedressed; 50 preplant and 50 sidedressed; the eighth application used 25 pounds nitrogen preplant and 75 pounds phosphate preplant with 100 pounds nitrogen sidedressed. All the above applications were significantly below the nitrogen application of 100 pounds preplant and 50 pounds sidedressed.

In making the report to the Foundation supporters, Delbert Lanford, Associate Agronomist, stated that there will be no governmental acreage restrictions on the 1962 crop of sugar beets.

The decision was based on a number of considerations. Late estimates indicate that sugar beet production from the 1961 sugar beet crop will be about 2,525,000 tons, or approximately 200,000 tons less than anticipated at the beginning of the harvest.

Secondly, the inventory of beet sugar at the end of 1961 will be close to 100,000 tons less than at the beginning of the year. Thirdly there are major uncertainties regarding the beet sugar quota which may be effective for 1963, the year during which most of the 1962 crop of beet sugar will be marketed. In view of these uncertainties and other considerations, the USDA said the maintenance of sizable stocks of beet sugar appears prudent.

And, they point out that available processing capacities of beet sugar factories limit production within reasonable bounds.

Although the present Sugar Act expires June 30, 1962, it is understood that preferred consideration will be given to sugar legislation when the next Congress convenes.

Sandhills Philosopher Wonders

What Would Happen To Government If Congress Operated Like A Bank?

Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm discusses a new scientific research problem this week, not too scientifically.

Dear editor:
It's amazing sometimes to find out what scientists are up to. For example, the other day I read that a group of scientists for several months now have been spending their time listening for radio signals from other planets, on the assumption there is life out there somewhere and if so maybe those people have discovered radio.

The result of the listening was "We listened for but did not find intelligent radio signals from other worlds."

It's not for me to be advising. Look at it this way: say there are similar scientists on some planet far out into space and right now they've hit on the same idea, trying to find out if there is life on some other planet too. All right. They've got their radios tuned in, they're switching back and forth on the dial, and suddenly they pick up a broadcast from this Earth.

Can you be sure it'd sound intelligent? What makes you think they wouldn't turn off their sets and report: "We listened for but did not find intelligent radio signals from other worlds?"

What if they tuned in during the last ten seconds of a professional football game? During a political campaign? What if they picked up one of Khrushchev's six-hour speeches? Or one of Castro's ten-hour jobs? Or a guitar player performing a singing commercial: Or right in the middle of an all-out war?

Man sometimes gets a little conceited about his accomplishments, but it's entirely possible, if there is life on other far distant planets, that those folks have already found out about us and are keeping it quiet, have pulled down the broadcasting towers, outlawed radio and are trying to keep away from us just as long as possible.

On the other hand, they may be in worse shape than we are and maybe we're the ones who ought to be keeping quiet. Sometimes people are a lot better off than they realize.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Continues Test On Fertilizers

Tests to determine the carry-over of fertilizer from year to year are being conducted at the High Plains Research Foundation at Half Way, Delbert Langford, associate agronomist is in charge of the tests directed by Dr. Thomas C. Longnecker, director of the Foundation.

In 1961 nitrogen was applied at the rate of 0, 50, 100, 150 pounds per acre on cotton land and 0, 50, 100, 150, 200 pounds per acre on grain sorghum land with half of the plots having 100 pounds of phosphate applied. These two crops will be grown on the same plots continuously until the original fertilizer application ceases to increase the yield.

These tests are being conducted to give answers to questions frequently raised by farmers and fertilizer dealers in planning their fertilizer programs to secure maximum results from fertilizer usage.

Several strains of sunflowers from foreign countries were included in an observation test at the High Plains Research Foundation in 1961. Several strains, some from foreign countries, that seemed to be better adapted to the soil and climate will be evaluated to determine their potential as a cash crop for the area.

Jack Seal of Amarillo, youngest mayor of any major city in the state of Texas, announced today that he will be a Republican candidate in the primary election May 5 for the United States representative of the 18th Congressional District of the State of Texas.

Farm Facts

American farmers last year set a new production record. The total for crops and livestock in 1960 was 29% above the country's 1947-49 average.

This report comes from Rex Daly, chief of the Farm Income Branch, Agricultural Economics Division, Agricultural Marketing Service.

Output was equal to that of Mainland China and almost 60% higher than that of the Soviet Union—the world's two other largest agricultural producers.

On a per capita basis, our production was double that of the Soviet Union. It was four times that of Mainland China.

Record output in the United States was accomplished with 30% fewer workers and about 5% fewer acres of crop land than in 1947-49. There was a 43% increase in yields per acre for field crops.

Production during the 1950's increased faster than population—27% compared to 19%. This resulted in big accumulations of wheat, feed grains, and cotton.

Farm output will continue to U.S. farm production in 1960 broke all records.

Texas Growth Steady: Formby

The growth of Texas is not boom and bust but a steady progress. That is the conviction of Marshall Formby of Plainview, candidate for Governor, and author of a new outstanding history of early Texas settlers, THESE ARE MY PEOPLE. The book points up Mr. Formby's contention that what our ancestors did, their present-day descendants can continue. Building on the solid foundation already laid down, he knows that Texans can develop their agricultural potential in order to create more jobs for a growing Texas population which he estimates will number 12 million by 1975.

Dedicated to the pioneers who struggled westward, THESE ARE MY PEOPLE, published in January by The Naylor Company of San Antonio, Texas, is a history that comes alive in the author's vivid portrayal of the characters who settled in Texas, their lives and the lives of their descendants.

Of particular interest are those chapters dealing with the settling of the Cap Rock country, a unique part of Texas where the plains join the brakes country. Early life here was hard and rough, it was throughout Texas. The first settlers found buffalo even Indian.

Beginning his political career as County Judge of Dickens County in 1936, Mr. Formby's public offices have included presidency of the West Texas County Judges' and Commissioners' Association in 1939 and 1940, State Senator for four years beginning in 1940, the latter part of his term while serving with the Army Corps of Engineers for four years, with 20 months' overseas service. By 1959 he had completed six years on the Texas Highway Commission, of which he was chairman the last two years.

A practicing attorney in Plainview and a farmer, Mr. Formby is also a business man and co-owner of four Radio stations in Texas.

Born in Hopkins County in 1911, Mr. Formby attended McAdoo and Spur schools in Dickens County; earned a BA from Texas Tech; MJ from the University of Texas; and attended Baylor Law School. He is married and has two children.

Psalm To The Welfare State

The Government is my shepherd, I shall not work. It alloweth me to lie down on a good job. It leadeth me beside still factories. It destroyeth my initiative. It leadeth me in the paths of a parasite for politics sake. Yea, tho I walk through the valley of laziness and deficit spending, I will fear no conscience, for the government is with me. It prepareth an economic Utopia for me by appropriating the earnings of mine own grandchildren. It filleth my head with false security. My inefficiency runneth over. Surely the government will take care of me all the days of my life. And I shall live in a fool's paradise forever.

The Fable
One-fourth of the nation's leading citizens think rural electric systems, financed by Rural Electrification Administration loans, pay no taxes. This erroneous impression was revealed in a recent national public opinion survey.

The Facts
America's rural electric systems, owned by the people they serve, pay local, state, and federal taxes running into millions of dollars annually. Many rural electrics are the biggest taxpayers in their counties.
Rural electrics, operating on a cost basis to bring member-consumers electricity, generally pay the same taxes as any other business. They do not pay Federal income tax because they do not make a profit. Monthly electric bills pay operating expenses, depreciation, and interest and principal payments on REA loans. Any over-payments are returned to members.

Decorator Tips On Fresh Ideas

Outdoor arbors make indoor room dividers, and ordinary fence gates made headboards in Montgomery Ward's collection of "fresh ideas" for today's budget minded do-it-yourself home decorator.

Ruth Briscoe, manager of the Montgomery Ward catalog store in Muleshoe said these are just a few of the many ideas now being displayed in the store and described in a major article in the January issue of a national home magazine (GOOD HOUSEKEEPING).

"Today's housewife needs only ideas and inexpensive materials to obtain the lush decorator look for her home. For instance, she can use flower fencing for a wall cornice, or a nuts and bolts cabinet for a coffee-table taboret and carriage lights for reading lamps.

The eight-page article in the magazine is entitled "Decorated To Order By Mail," and fully describes a variety of ideas that make ordinary home furnishings and household items into decorator's dreams. Two well-known designers (Lubliner and Himmel, A.I.D.) use basic Montgomery Ward merchandise and, with ideas and imagination, created the glamorous settings featured in the article.

"Today's home furnishings are particularly adaptable to this procedure," Mrs. Briscoe said. "Smart lines and quality construction assure lasting style and rugged wear. The new fabrics clean well and are tough. While our furnishings are excellent by themselves, our customers will be amazed to see what 'fresh ideas' will accomplish to give any room setting an entirely different and unusual flavor at a very small cost."

"Vignettes are becoming quite popular this year, also," she said. "Try using a three-drawer, sliding cabinet with a spray of artificial flowers, books, and a new mosaic tile wallpaper against an unused wall. It becomes a life-size still-life study."

Mrs. Briscoe suggested using another idea from the magazine for an unusual carpeting effect. "Piece together several narrow throw rugs and you'll have a multi-colored strip of carpeting for hallways or for a wall-to-wall effect in rooms. This helps produce an impression of length and expanse in rooms that ordinarily seem small. Besides, the color combinations that you can get by piecing are not usually obtainable in wide-width merchandise."

Fashion Experts Predict Fashions

By Jean Sprain Wilson
AP Fashion Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Fashion trends are no much of a secret despite the cloak and dagger intrigue dramatically surrounding Parisian and American couture collections.

The color dye industry informs the textile industry of the new approved hues for the forthcoming year. A year ahead the textile industry informs the couturier which will make new types of material, and therefore new styles possible.

The designer suggests fabrics he'd like to work with a few seasons hence, until nearly everybody has enough information to know a long time in advance as to which way the fashion wind blows.

The direction in 1962 is toward more conservative colors, classic style lines without radical changes in silhouette, executed in supple, figure-clinging yard goods.

Ruby Semler a textile expert, Madge Wilson, a color card association executive, and Bill Blass a designer, agree on this.

"Clothes will have to be more more romantic with supple, flowing lines because we are making even silkier fibers with much finer yarns for use tomorrow," Semler says.

"New colors for the fall of '62 are cherry red, true blue, hunter type green, clear colors but not as gaudy as they have been," indicates Miss Wilson.

accessory manufacturers are able to match coats and dresses with the appropriate hats, gloves, shoes and jewelry.

"It will be a period of more conformist colofes," Bill Blass says. He has finished his spring '61 collection and is now working on fall. "I'm expecting our First Lady's good taste to have a continuing good effect."

About these popular fashion terms for '61 Blass says: "NOTHING" DRESS— "It will become a 'something dress.' The purity of the Balenciaga with attention to the overall look of the appropriate hat, jewelry, bag and gloves should always be with us. The dress will be uncontrived, continental, natural looking next year."

—MORE MORE MORE WOMEN TAKING OVER

Various nominations and appointments showed appreciation of feminine ability: Dr. Janet Travell as President Kennedy's personal physician, State Atty. Gen. Anne Z. Alpern to the Pennsylvania supreme court; Eva B. Adams as director of the U. S. Mint; Judge Sarah T. Huesche to the federal bench; Miss Frances Willis ambassador to Ceylon. At the United Nations, four women were named delegates from the United States.

Texans In Washington
By TEX EASLY

Associated Press Special Service Washington (AP) Rep. Wright Patman, 68, of Texas, has succeeded the late Speaker Sam Rayburn as senior member of the Texas congressional delegation.

Patman, whose House service began March 4, 1929, is the only member of the Lone Star delegation whose tenure goes back to the time when presidents took their oath of office on March 4 and new congressional sessions started on that date.

Next Texan in seniority is Rep. George Mahon of Lubbock, whose service began Jan. 3, 1935.

"Patman, a stocky, hard driving man, currently is chairman of the House select committee on Small Business, ranking Democrat on the House Banking and Currency Committee, vice chairman of the House-Senate Defense Production Committee and chairman of the House-Senate Economics Committee.

His committee assignments indicate his deep interest in economics. Patman, probably as much as any member of Congress, understands the mysteries of high level money policies as determined by the Treasury Department and the Federal Reserve System.

A past president of the Texas State Society of Washington, Patman has been particularly active in pushing projects in East Texas. He also was largely responsible for the construction of the Daing field defense project during World War II, now an industrial complex operated by Lone Star Steel Co.

The "Biographical Directory of the American Congress — 1774-1961" records that Patman was born on a farm near Hughes Springs, Cass County, Texas, Aug. 6, 1893. He attended public schools there and was graduated from the law department of Cumberland University, Lebanon, Tenn., in 1916. It adds these facts:

"Assistant county attorney of Cass County in 1916 and 1917; during the First World War served as a private and later as a machine-gun officer in the United States Army 1917-1919; member of the state House of Representatives 1921-1924; district attorney of the 5th judicial district of Texas 1924-1929."

The directory gives this additional information on Patman: "Married Miss Merle Conner, of Winnsboro, Tex., Feb. 14, 1919 (they have three sons, all having served in World War II); he and all members of his family are affiliated with the First Baptist Church of Texarkana, Tex.; member of the Masons, Elks, Eagles, Shrine, American Legion, Disabled

American Veterans; associate member of National Press Club; member of State Bar Association and admitted to practice before Supreme Court of the United

YEAR END STATEMENT
By Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg.

As we start the new year, I am glad to report that all signs point to a further vigorous improvement in our economy. Employment situation which has troubled us throughout the year has improved significantly.

I think we can confidently look forward to a continued rise in the economy throughout 1962. I have no doubt, in fact, that we will continue to set job records in the immediate months ahead. An important aspect of the improvement thus far is that we have had a remarkable stability in prices so that the working man has not paid in inflation for the improvement in his economic condition.

I want to say to labor and management that it is tremendously important that each bear in mind that a recovery can be impeded by lack of restraint with respect to both prices and wages during crucial months.

We need sound collective bargaining; we need sound and responsible price and wage policies with respect to American industry and American labor. While we look forward to improvement in the employment situation, nevertheless I must also record to American industry and American labor. While we look forward to improve the employment situation.

ion, nevertheless I must also record that our unemployment situation, though significantly improved, is still not satisfactory. We owe the continuing obligation to them to restore, to the maximum extent practicable, full employment so that all people who are willing and able to work can find a job. And it is the determination of our Administration, in cooperation with labor and management, to afford these job opportunities to Americans.

Everywhere I go in America I find no desire on the part of any unemployed person to be on relief. I find every desire of the unemployed to get useful, constructive jobs. This must be our goal for the new year.

Driving Tips

BY NINA ED BOVEL
THE LITTLE GRIMLINS

Most people don't believe in gremlins and Leprechauns, but I honestly believe they exist. Leprechauns are supposed to be little men who go around doing good deeds. Gremlins are just the opposite. They do bad deeds. I believe they exist, maybe not in the form of little men, but in the form of little people in people's minds. Just think about it. Say one side of your mind was composed of leprechauns; the other of gremlins. The leprechauns always win out over the gremlins whatever you do. You are honest and courteous and safe, you think! But what happens when you get into a car? Then the gremlins have their chance and they take over! The roads are slippery, you have poor brakes, the road is rough, you have bad tires and there are a lot of hills. These conditions are bad enough without the help of the gremlins. Just one gremlin, high speed, can make the difference. Your stopping distance is increased, you hit the brakes, then...an accident. You can never get rid of those gremlins, but there is one thing you can do to combat them. Make sure the leprechauns win out. When driving under adverse conditions, make sure the little leprechaun, "slow down," wins out.

Plans for the forthcoming annual stockholders' meeting of the 36 Production Credit Association of Texas, to be held in Corpus Christi March 11-13, were discussed by the committee.

Others attending the Fort Worth conference were Chairman James Crouch of Burleson, T. G. Brooks of Jefferson, J. B. Chambers of Harlingen, L. P. Williams of Carrijo Springs, E. L. Carlisle of Ralls, Alton Stevens of McGregor and Ex-Officio Member D. G. Gault of Manor.
