SIX-YEAR-OLD

Rites Conducted For Snakebite Victim

Six-year-old Adran Salas, victim of a rattlesnake bite, was buried Sunday in Muleshoe Cemetery.

Young Adran died last Friday afternoon at 2:30, less than 24 hours after being bitten near his home two miles east of Needmore on the Fred Hall farm.

David Shepherd Is Member Of Drama Society

Plainview (Special) — Ernest David Shepherd, son of the Rev. and Mrs. E. K. Shepherd, former Muleshoe resident now in Broomfield, Colo., has been initiated into Alpha Psi Omega, national honorary drama society, at Wayland Baptist College, Plainview.

Shepherd, senior English major and speech and journalism minor, has acted in several productions including "Emperor Jones", "First Date", and "JB". He is currently portraying the part of Louises, Jr., in "It Happened in Athens", an original play by two Wayland faculty members.

Shepherd, an active leader on campus, was recently named to "Spinning Wheels", one of 12 chosen for the honor. Based on participation and roles in dramatic productions, membership in Alpha Psi Omega is invitational, and eligibility includes sophomore standing and a 1.0 grade-point average.

"We want to urge all our stockholders to attend their annual meeting," Alexander said. "This is the one time each year they have the opportunity to gather and to conduct the business of their association."

The association provides agricultural credit in Farmer, Castro, Swisher, Briscoe, Bailey, Lamb, Hale and Floyd Counties. Offices are operated in Plainview, Dimmitt, Floydada, Friona, Littlefield, Muleshoe, Tulia and Silverton.

The youngster was bitten by what was described as an "extra large," snake. Doctors theorized that the snake probably was just out of hibernation, and its venom stored up all winter.

Parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Salas, said they had the boy at the West Plains Hospital some 45 minutes after the snakebite occurred, around 4 p.m. Thursday.

One rattler was killed near where young Salas had been playing, but when shown to the boy, he said the snake that bit him was much larger.

Funeral services were conducted at the Immaculate Conception Catholic Church, with Father Clifton J. Corcoran officiating. Services were under the direction of Singleton Funeral Home.

Survivors besides the parents were a brother, George Salas, Jr., and six sisters, Nellie, Linda, Anna and Sarah of the home, and Mrs. Martha Garcia and Mrs. Nina Castanuela, both of Muleshoe.

SHERRIFF SOUNDS WARNING

Property Damage Is Main Result of Break-In Series

Burglars got very little money, but did considerable damage in four break-ins Monday night in Muleshoe.

Businesses broken into were the Dinner Bell, Cox's Fine Food, Baker's Farm Supply and Patzer Clinic.

At the Dinner Bell, the burglars gained entrance by prying open a back door. Change was taken from coin machines and did damage amounting to around $56.

At Cox's, the intruders broke a window valued at around $100, and all that was missed in the way of cash was a roll of pennies—50 cents.

A window was also broken at Baker's, through which the sur-glass were able to throw the door latch. Only small change was taken, but here again property damage was the main loss.

A hole was made by the burglars in the wall between Baker's and Patzer Clinic.

Bailey County and city officials investigated the break-ins, and had made no arrests as of Wednesday, but were checking out leads.

AUTOS STOLEN

Tuesday night two automobiles were stolen from the Tri-Co Bowl parking area. A 1960 Chevrolet belonging to Mr. Rainwater of Lariat was taken and a 1957 Ford belonging to Harold Cowan also was stolen.

Officers located the Chevrolet shortly after it was reported around 9 p.m. Tuesday, and the Ford was located about 1 a.m. Wednesday. Both cars had been abandoned.

Sheriff Dee Clements said the thefts "could have been pranks pulled by some youngsters," but warned that if so, the law didn't put much stock in such "pranks."

"Should we catch the ones responsible, they will be prosecuted to the full limits of the law," Clements said.

IN DALLAS MEET

Finance Officers Investigating Elements Of Tank Financing

DALLAS (AP) — Top echelon officers of a group of lending companies prolonged Wednesday their investigation of some elements of Southwest agriculture financing into today.

They promised to issue a statement Wednesday, postponed it and then said a statement probably will be forthcoming today.

Precise details of the talks remained unrevealed as the 32 officers and attorneys of 10 companies conferred behind closed doors in their unusual sessions.

Talks Center On Tanks

Guarded reports by a spokesman for one of the companies, Hardin Bishop of Pacific Finance of Los Angeles, indicated the talks centered on the financing of anhydrous ammonia tanks used

FARM LABOR DAY

Farmers, Workers Are Asked To Attend Meet

A special Farm Labor Day to assist farmers in this area to obtain needed farm workers is planned for Friday, March 30 between 1 p.m. and 5 p.m. at the Texas Employment Commission.

According to its announcement at 322 West 2nd, according to an announcement by Mr. Dick Poteet, Manager of the Muleshoe T.E.C. Office.

"We are experiencing an increasing demand from local farmers for farm hands and particularly tractor operators," stated Poteet.

"This need for tractor operators has increased within recent weeks and is expected to become acute with the approach of the planting season because of recent amendments to the law governing the importation of braceros and the ruling that braceros cannot operate tractors or other power-driven planting, cultivating, or harvesting machinery," said Poteet.

According to the announcement the Farm Labor Day to be held this week has been preceded by intensive recruitment to local and assemble all experienced farm workers desiring jobs.

Farmers who need hands are invited to visit the TEC office on this day because it is the best way to find the kind of workers needed. Attendance by both farmers and farm workers will permit a personal interview between the farmer and a worker whose experience and skills most nearly match his needs without the usual loss of time in trying to contact each other.

NO CHARGE

It was pointed out by Mr. Poteet that there is no charge for this service and there is no farmer to hire anyone. "There is complete freedom of choice on the part of both and farmer and the worker," stated Poteet.

It was further pointed out that it might not be possible to fill all orders placed by farmers with local workers. "In such case," said Mr. Poteet, "we will, if the employer desires, take an order for recruitment in other sections are reported to be available and of the state in which workers who might be interested in jobs in this area."

For those employers desiring to recruit in other sections of the state a representative of the office will be available to discuss this possibility.

WEEK'S REPORT

Weather In Muleshoe Typical West Texas

Someone once said, "If you don't like Texas weather, just stick around awhile, it's bound to change." This statement was certainly proven true last week-end in Muleshoe.

From Friday afternoon through Sunday night temperatures ranged from a low 25 degrees to a warm high of 75 degrees. Weather conditions ranged from snow and sleet to sun and sand.

Muleshoe's 33-day drought was broken by .08 inches of moisture Saturday and .42 inches Sunday, bringing the year's total rainfall up to 1.65 inches as compared to the average for this time of year, 1.63.

TEMP HITS 84

On Wednesday of this week the thermometer reached a high of 84 degrees according to official weather recorder, R. J. Klump. This leaves Muleshoe residents wondering what the rest of 1962 will be like, since in the one week that spring has been official, there have been signs of Fall, Winter and Summer weather.

Official temperatures for the week are as follows:

Thursday, March 22	68	30
Friday, March 23	70	25
Saturday, March 24	75	33
Sunday, March 25	44	29

The other speaking dates will then read: April 6 at the Progress Methodist Church, April 29 in the Needmore Community Building and April 27 in Muleshoe at the American Legion Hall.

County Judge Glen Williams said that candidates for state and district offices would undoubtedly make some of the speaking engagements, as well as candidates for county offices.

The Earth Lions Club has scheduled an "Ole Fashioned" Political Rally in the Agricultural Barn at Earth Friday, April 7 at 6 p.m.

Candidates from all over the state have been invited to speak in behalf of their candidacy, and a large crowd is expected.

to store fertilizer heavily used in West Texas and other parts of the Southwest.

Bishop said "some conclusions may be reached by the finance companies today."

Company officers temporarily ended their sessions in midafternoon and lawyers held a separate session.

The Dallas News said in its Thursday edition that it had learned that the mortgage loans are also being checked by Federal Bureau of Investigation agents.

Estes Is Absent

Billie Sol Estes, the West Texas financial giant sometimes called the largest distributor of anhydrous ammonia in the world, was not present at Wednesday's session although he spent two hours with the finance company representatives Tuesday.

Estes is known to have signed leases for many hundreds of the fertilizer tanks, which had been purchased by the hundreds by some farmers who signed mortgages for them.

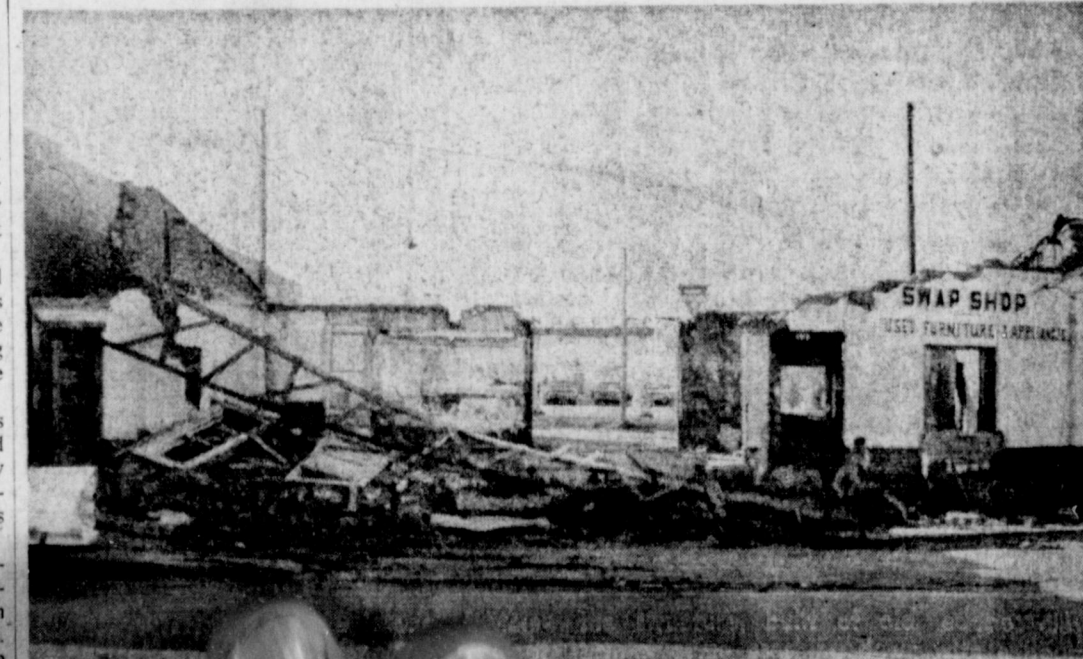

Bishop said Wednesday that an estimate of $22 million would be a reasonable figure of the amount of money the finance companies have invested in the tanks in the Southwest.

Worry Over Collateral

"The thing that is worrying everybody," he said, "is the validity of the collateral for the mortgages."

Asked pointedly if the tanks exist, Bishop replied, "You can't

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Roy L. Ritchie, Jr. of Muleshoe. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Followill of Lubbock. Melvinda Kaye Ritchie, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Clifford Tuttle of Lubbock served as best man.

The new Mrs. Ritchie carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations. Her bridal gown was of white lace over taffeta fashioned with a fitted bodice which flowed into a bouffant skirt with a large bow in back. The silk illusion bridal veil was gathered to a crown of pearls and sequins. She wore a double strand of pearls belonging to her maternal grandmother. She was given in marriage by her father.

The maid of honor wore a dress of pink nylon organdy styled with bateau neckline, cap sleeves and full skirt. She carried a colonial bouquet of pink and white carnations and wore a white lace hat.

Ushers were Delton Wilhite, cousin of the bride, and John Followill of Lubbock, brother of the groom. Wiley Baker, Mrs. Charlie Felts, Mrs. Boone Allison and Jacque Baker provided the wedding music.

Outstanding Program Presented On Facts Of Texas Heritage

"Texas Heritage" was an outstanding program at Muleshoe Study Club Thursday evening, March 22. Mrs. W. Q. Casey, president, directed the program and Mrs. Carroll Pouncey was hostess.

Roll call was answered by interesting places in Texas one would like to visit, and guests participated in naming their favorite spots in our State.

Special guests were Mrs. Effie Bray and Horace Blackburn, mother and husband of our honored member chosen Teacher of the Year; Lynn Lenau, high school Study Club in the GFWC Hallmark Card Art Contest, and her art instructor, Mrs. A. J. Black; Mary Wedel, high school senior, winner of the Bailey County pioneer family essay contest, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Wedel.

Mrs. Pouncey gave many interesting facts about Texas gleaned from the Texas Almanac, a book she recommends for your constant reference. She presented those present with a Climatological Summary of the weather station of Muleshoe, which has been prepared by the Chamber of Commerce and the U. S. Weather Bureau, giving the average temperature and total precipitation by months from 1931 through 1960. These are available to the public at the Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce Office. A new 1962 Texas Official Highway Travel Map was given each one so that a historical trip through Texas might be planned.

Mrs. Glenn Dunn reviewed excerpts from the diary of deVaca, who in his own handwriting set down the story of his travels with his men all along the Gulf of Mexico. This account of America by deVaca presented to the Spanish throne has been one of the outstanding historical references down through the years. Mrs. Dunn, who always makes her characters come alive in her reviews, "had deVaca and his men right among us," commented members who were present.

Mrs. S. L. Benfield's description of the Missions of Texas was an exciting visit to these historical spots, which are so much a part of our Texas heritage.

Mrs. Gil Lamb gave a resume of the club's heritage projects—contributions to the Mule Memorial Association, Girltown at Whiteface, the Pioneer Family Essay Contest, Teacher of the Year, a proposed idea for a Bailey County Museum, and history of Muleshoe Study Club in the Federation. Mrs. Lamb on behalf of the club, presented the ten dollar prize to Mary Wedel, and gifts of cologne to Mrs. Black and Lynn Lenau for their great assistance in preparing the brochure on Muleshoe

Teacher of the Year to present to Caprock District of Texas Federation of Women's Clubs.

A display of Texas relics and family heirlooms was exhibited following the program. Mrs. Bray had a silver combed her mother had worn in her hair in mid-locks and watches. Mrs. O. N. Jennings displayed her father's watch, which winds with a key. Mrs. Dunn showed a package addressed to Old Hurley, Texas in 1910, containing a friendship calendar of that year. She also displayed a large key found in 1880 along the Canadian River; this key, said to signify a note of authority, was worn by early Spanish explorers. Another item of interest was the newspaper file of "The Star State Patriot," the first newspaper published at Marshall, Texas. The publisher was Thaddeus A. Harris, great grandfather of Mrs. Lamb.

Mrs. Pouncey served strawberry short cake and coffee to the guests and members Mmes: W. Q. Casey, Horace Blackburn, Wynnie Dunn, S. L. Benfield, J. G. Arnn, W. T. Andrews, O. N. Jennings, Horace Hutton and Gil Lamb.

Mrs. Jennings and Mrs. White completed the 1961-1962 Pressbook on Friday. These ladies hold high hope for a first place winner this year. Mrs. Jennings has been Chairman of the pressbook for the past three years. The past two years her press-book has taken second place in the district, and this year's is even better. Mrs. Jennings deserves all the credit possible from the club. Another reason the club expects to win first place this year is because of the excellent coverage given to Muleshoe activities by our home town paper, The Muleshoe Journal.

The Muleshoe Study Club wishes to express its appreciation to the Muleshoe Journal for the wonderful coverage of activities and the many pictures.

It has been indicated that ten members will attend Caprock District, TFWC Convention, in Plainview on April 9 and 10.

AMERICAN ANGELUS an oil painting by Lynn Lenau brings to mind the wide scope of the American way of life from busy activities within the towering skyscrapers to the products of the small seeds on the farms and foremost, the need to hesitate for a moment of reverence to the creator of this universe.

Painting By Local Art Student Entered In Women's Club Contest

Muleshoe High School art student Lynn Lenau has been invited to enter the 1962 art talent contest of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, Mrs. Harold Green of Tahoka, chairman of the fine arts department for the Caprock District, Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, has announced.

Sponsoring Lynn and her art work is the Muleshoe Study Club. Lynn completed her painting in oil last week and Monday mailed her entry in the contest, which has for its theme, "America Today."

INTERPRETING THEME

The theme was interpreted by Lynn as a composite of America Today—the agricultural, industrial and spiritual aspects, in a 20 by 24 inch natural framed landscape painting. Depicting the industrial side of America in the background in the skyline of a metropolitan city, while the rolling swaying wheat field in the foreground presents the agricultural aspect. A barearmed farmer stands with his head bowed in prayer—representing the spiritual desires of a busy world stopping for meditation of the greatness of this country.

Lynn named her oil "American Angelus."

Three scholarships of $600 are being provided by the Hallmark Company. The first place entry will be sent to the general federation art chairman for national judging by May 1. The state awards will be made during the convention in San Antonio May 8 to 10. The GFWC awards will be presented during the national convention in Washington, June 25 to 29.

Lynn, a senior at Muleshoe High School, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lenau, 313 East Fir. She has studied art under Mrs. A. W. Black and at Elgin Academy, Elgin, Ill.

LIONS BENEFIT Crowd Entertained By "Little Nell"

By CAROL ELLIS
Journal Staff Writer

Tense drama held the audience spellbound as the hero and villain exchanged death dealing blows on-stage for the honor of a fair damsel.

The event was the local Lions Club benefit production of "Little Nell," staged last Friday evening in the High School Auditorium before a near capacity crowd. A cast of heretofore undiscovered local talent amused the participating audience with what might be called a "comedy of errors" complete with off-stage wisecracks, misuses, untimely entrances and (purposely) forgotten lines.

CAPTURES HEARTS

Karen Jones, starring as Little Nell, captured the hearts of the audience with her pathos. Hero Hector Skyscraper, portrayed by Frank Ellis, brought enthusiastic cheers from the audience as he deftly untangled the plot woven by villain, Carleton Bainbridge, played by Truman Lindsey.

As in every great dramatic production, right must win out over evil in the end. "Right" in this case, was assisted by the audience's boos and hisses at each entrance of the surly, wicked villain.

ENHANCES PLOT

The plot was enhanced by the plight of the aged parents of Little Nell. Pa Wilkins, bent and balding, was portrayed by W. F. Birdsong. Ma Wilkins, wrinkled and gray, was played by Virginia Gholson.

In addition to the play, the audience enjoyed musical selections by High School Choir and quartet, Bill Claybrooks Band, Fran Powers, a dance by Irvin say a lot of tanks." are a lot of tanks."

The Pecos Independent - Enterprise said it found $34,400,000 in mortgages secured by 32,310 anhydrous ammonia tanks in 11 West Texas counties alone. A farmer needs only one or two tanks for his own farm use and any fertilizer company will loan him all he can employ.

Shot heeking indicated

Bishop was asked if the lending companies were seeking to determine the location of the tanks on which they hold mortgages.

He said spot checking of collateral "is the standard method of operation for any installment transaction where collateral is involved."

Bishop added, "There is a helluva lot of general verification going on," but again stressed that spot checking of collateral is normal procedure.

None in Default

"None of the stuff (mortgages on the tanks) is in default," Bishop said, except in some very isolated instances.

Then asked why the finance companies called their extraordinary meeting, Bishop replied it was set off by "comparing of information" about their mortgages.

"These are perfectly bonafide contracts (mortgages) by substantial people," Bishop said.

The public information officer for Pacific Finance said the officers of the several companies largely have spent their time in Dallas in comparison of notes.

"This is a meeting," he said, "of a group of companies involved with a group of individuals and it is not all the same," explaining that a number of varying mortgages exist.

'Comparing Notes'

"They are comparing notes on the joint extension of credit, evaluating their position," Bishop said.

Attempts to reach the dark-haired, Bible-quoting Estes in his suite in a downtown hotel were fruitless. An official of one of his companies said he was not here.

Estes, a Pecos resident, has far-flung interests in distribution of the anhydrous ammonia, which is a liquid when under slight pressure but turns into a gas when exposed to air. Farmers in effect plow the fertilizer into the soil with nozzles.

Contained in Tanks

It is contained in bullet-shaped tanks, which cost about $1,000, each.

Estes, 37, a farm boy who said he made his first million before he was 30, also is a major owner of grain storage tanks, storing the grain under federal farm programs.

In addition he owns about 30 other businesses and in 1953 was named one of the top 10 young men of the nation by the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Estes' only public statement about his session with the lending companies was that he was there to "discuss business matters of mutual interest."

Bishop said the company representatives gathered here included Mrs. Finley Pierson, Mrs. David Anderson, and a number of nieces and nephews, all of Muleshoe.

Fortune is for all; judgment is theirs who have won it for themselves.

AT HIGH SCHOOL Farm Bureau Names Eight Directors

Eight directors were elected by the Bailey County Farm Bureau at its annual meeting Monday night at Muleshoe High School.

They are: Eugene Black, Morris McKillip, Loyd Stephens, Joe Ferris, Dale Nichols, Cecil Davis, Ralph Beasley and Robert Claunch.

Farm Bureau secretary Eugene Black reported that the county has the highest membership now than in several years.

Mrs. A. R. Floyd was the lucky winner of the $50 prize.

Mrs. Morris McKillip, chairman of the ladies committee, gave a very comprehensive report of the Conference on Education for Adult Migrant Farm Workers held in Austin on March 8.

She said, "We learned a great deal from our meeting in Austin. We learned that very few, if any, people other than farmers, understand our problems with labor. We learned that we need to promote understanding of our problems in relation to the migrant worker and the people who sincerely want to help both of us. No one is going to do the job for us! If we are not understood; if unfair legislation is passed; we will have only ourselves to blame. We feel that our time and trouble to attend the conference was justified in presenting our view."

"We were told that this conference was very little support now, because most of our representatives in Austin are farm legislators; but we were warned that when our districts are re-divided (Note the U. S. Supreme Court's ruling this week) our farm representatives may be a minority, not a majority. Any sympathetic legislation that we may get will have to be passed before the re-division of the districts."

City Council Approves Budget In Tuesday Meet

The Muleshoe City Council approved the budget for the 1962 fiscal year in its regular meeting Tuesday morning.

The proposed budget for 1962 is approximately $240,000, as compared to 1961's total expenditures of around $238,000. Some minor adjustments in the budget are yet to be made.

City manager Albert Fields reported to the council on the progress of the city's sewage and water improvements, as well as the storm sewer work.

Fields said there had been several complaints of trash cans being in other people's yards as a result of recent high winds. He asked that people inspect their garbage cans, and see if they can be secured in any manner, as well as the lids properly affixed.

The national purpose is not political or tactical. Leading a decent life is the seed-bed. Everything that is free and enduring comes from that.

Don Berry Is Back With Force

A new member of the Muleshoe City Police Department is Don Berry, who was formerly with the department. Berry has been in a business in Littlefield.

It is estimated that at least half of those who develop cancer could be saved through earlier diagnosis and prompt treatment. The 1962 Crusade of the American Cancer Society urges you to "Fight Cancer With a Checkup and a Check — To Cure More, Give More."

MULETTES PLACE SECOND IN DISTRICT MEET

The eighth-grade volleyball team of Muleshoe went to Olton, Saturday, March 24; to compete for district championship. The first game was to be against Lockney, but for unknown reasons Lockney forfeited the game.

The second game was won by Muleshoe against Floydada. The third game against Olton, however, was a "toughie" and Olton won by a narrow margin, shifting the Mullettes into second place.

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP) — "O'Donnells" and "18s" are magic names and numbers in Yale Wrestling.

John R. O'Donnell resigned recently as varsity wrestling coach after 18 years at the helm.

He had succeeded his brother, Edward, who also held the wrestling reins for 18 years.

And before Edward came Izzy Winters, who also coached the Eli grapplers for 18 years.

BE PROTECTED AGAINST HAIL

AN IMPORTANT MESSAGE TO THE FARMER FOR 1962

The PANHANDLE MUTUAL HAIL ASSOCIATION has paid back to the farmers an average of 84¢ of each premium dollar over the last 3 years for HAIL LOSSES. The loss benefits is the important and simple crux of any insurance policy, and much sweeter than any token dividend or deviation.

TEN REASONS WHY PANHANDLE MUTUAL HAIL ASSOCIATION IS ONE OF THE LARGEST CROP HAIL WRITERS ON TEXAS CROPS:

1. All Texas policies are reinsured by the LLOYD'S OF LONDON with billions of dollar assets.
2. All liability is mapped and limited by section and township.
3. Approximately FOUR AND ONE-HALF MILLION dollars paid to West Texas farmers for losses the last five years.
4. A-PLUS (EXCELLENT) RATING BY "DUNNE'S FIRE AND CASUALTY REPORT."
5. Required legal reserve (policy holders surplus) maintained at all times and deposits are kept in LOCAL BANKS throughout the West Texas area.
6. The PANHANDLE SPECIAL cotton policy DOES NOT have the REPLANT clause and we DO NOT use the PLANT POPULATION adjustment at any time.
7. We do offer the FB-10 and FB-5 cotton coverage (with replant) at reduced rates for late cotton.
8. The PANHANDLE Wheat Policy is the only policy with the "Extra Harvest Expense Award" benefits, also with the 10% credit on Tascosa and beardless wheat, only 48 hour waiting period instead of 120 and a premium saving in most counties.
9. Free cancellation on crop failures (See Dates) . . . arbitration clause.
10. Your PANHANDLE MUTUAL HAIL ASSOCIATION wants to serve you with "THE THINKING MAN'S HAIL INSURANCE."

Be sure and talk to your PANHANDLE MUTUAL AGENT now to compare and study the coverages and rates, because of the many coverages that are now being offered, you need to know which policy fits your West Texas farming conditions the best.

AT HALE CENTER

Mules Hit Season Peak; Score Impressive Victory

Running in ideal weather, and coming up with their top performances of the season almost all the way down the list, the Muleshoe Mules captured the championship of the Hale Center Relays Tuesday, beating out 10 other class AA teams for the title. The meet, which was postponed on Saturday due to adverse weather, got a break the second try.

It was the Mules first meet win of the season and an impressive one. Muleshoe scored 129 and 7-12 points, to 79-1-3 for second place Canyon, a good 50-point margin. This gained a measure of revenge for MHS, which was edged by the Eagles earlier this season by less than a point.

Area To Be Well Represented At Women's AAU Cage Tourney

By DAVID SHEPHERD
Wayland Public Relations

Plainville (Special to the Journal)—The Muleshoe area will be the best represented area in Texas at the National Women's AAU Basketball Tournament in St. Joseph, Mo., April 3-7.

The final, and are among favorites to take the title this year. Miss Cooke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Cooke, Littlefield, has led the Bees in scoring. The Bula graduate was an All-District and All-Regional player with Bula High School. The Flying Queens finished their regular season last weekend with games against Pepsi Cola of St. Joseph. Their first tourney game will be played, as will the first Silvertown match, on April 3. Twenty-four teams are entered in the 1962 tournament, representing nearly 20 states.

Five outstanding women's basketball players representing Bula, Sudan, and Muleshoe will be on teams playing in the tournament, including the team that is the defending national champion, the Hutchinson Flying Queens of Wayland Baptist College. Playing with the Flying Queens will be 1961 All-America choice Glynna Masten, a 6-0 guard who is a 1959 graduate of Sudan High School, and Opal Bogard, a 5-9 guard who graduated from Bula High School in 1960. Members of the T. F. & R. Teens, Silvertown, will be Janie Sanders, 5-7 rover and a 1961 Muleshoe High graduate; Wanda Powell, a 5-8 guard who graduated from Sudan in 1961; and Carol Cooke, a 5-9 forward who finished high school at Bula in 1960. Both teams have had successful years, thanks to the Muleshoe area coaches, and have made names for themselves in previous tournament play. The Flying Queens won their sixth national championship in eight years in 1961, beating Nashville Business College 39-29 in the finals.

Lazbuddie In Sixth Place At Hale Center

The Lazbuddie Longhorns placed sixth in the Class A-B division of the Hale Center Relays Tuesday, scoring 37. O'Donnell won that division with 106 1/2 points. Jimmy Seaton and David Keolzer picked up wins for the Longhorns. Seaton was first in the high hurdles in 15.0, and Keolzer won the pole vault at 11-3. Seaton was second in the low hurdles, and Mike Bean tied for second in the high jump at 5-5. Cooper Young was sixth in the 440-yard dash, and the Longhorn 440-yard relay team was sixth.

Aggies' Rule Makes It Hard On Sportswriters

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Southwest Conference has a gag rule that prohibits a coach or athletic official from criticizing publicly the work of the men in the striped shirts. It also prohibits a member school from allowing pictures of controversial plays or incidents to be published.

The member schools themselves have their own gag rules. One is designed to prevent the players from making any remarks that might cause a controversy or hurt somebody's feelings. There is the "cooling off period" the coaches insist upon—that is, newsmen can't talk to the players until they have been given an opportunity to frame their answers.

The result is that all the interviews after football games fall into one pattern—the boys tell how good their opponents are, what fine sportsmen they are, what a wonderful game their teammates played, etc. There isn't much news to it since it's all the same and tells nothing the fans haven't thought they saw in the first place.

FEW CRITICISMS
Actually, there have been few incidents where a player criticized the opposition or made derogatory remarks about the officials. The coaches themselves usually get into trouble with heated remarks, if anybody does.

Anyway, Texas A&M appears to have gone the gag rule of the conference and the other schools one better. Athletic Director Hank Foldberg has issued a letter to sports writers telling them all information pertaining to athletics must be cleared through him or Tommy Blake, the sports information director. Assistant coaches cannot be interviewed, football players can not be talked to unless the interviews are arranged through Foldberg or Blake.

The situation last fall of sports writers investigating reports of discussions on the football team by talking to the players apparently is out. The only folks who could give the true story won't be available.

FOLDBERG WRITER?
To get a story on athletics at Texas A&M a sports writer must ask Coach Foldberg about it. Apparently this does not include reporting a football game—or does it? Coach Foldberg might be able to write a better story than the sports writers but he couldn't do it quickly enough to meet the deadlines, since he would have to spend some time getting his players ready to be interviewed.

Those who conduct intercollegiate athletics naturally want only the good things said about their program. There is no one that wants controversies or rubarb or the sleazy side of their business aired. The trouble is that there is a sleazy side and should be publicized so the public may be informed on what's happening in the things they pay their money to support. Their ideals of sport might not be so imposing if they found out how those ideals conducted themselves.

FACTS BEST
Another thing the intercollegiate people should learn: little can ever be covered up and taken away from the bright eye of the newspaperman. It is better for the fact to be told in the first place so that there will be no harmful rumors and inaccurate reports.

Also, for anybody to tell a sports writer he can't have the news—the news is his business—is like a sports writer telling the coach how to coach. The coach tells the sports writers to mind his own business and justifiably so.

In recent years it has become very difficult to get all the sports news out of Texas A&M. Foldberg's news plan might furnish more news than has been obtained in the past anyway. But it still might not be enough. If the controversies can't be reported there will be little news.

Taxpayers Should Be Irked At Spending

The taxpayers who now shell out better than 30 per cent of their income to various levels of government, much of it going to pay for "benefits"—most of which should be tended to by the individual or at the local government level—should have every possible reason to kick at further needless growth of government.

The federal budget director has said that no one should be surprised to see the annual budget hit the $100 billion mark—we don't have far to go. A good part of the increase will continue to be for welfare state schemes which have nothing to do with essential governmental functions or national defense. One thing is sure. Further needless venturing of government into purely commercial business enterprise should be stopped in its tracks.

Here's a case in point: In 1960 the four investor-owned electric companies in Kentucky paid 14 times as much taxes as the TVA, 28 rural electric cooperatives, and 22 municipally-owned systems in Kentucky combined. The figures were $26 million for the private utilities—$1.8 million for all the public outlets. The savings invested in the taxpaying private utilities and the public money (taxes) put into tax-exempt, government power projects were about the same.

The editor of the Malheur, Oregon, Enterprise sums it up this way: "If we are to turn the tide there is only one method. A strong protest at the polls and turning out of office of those lawmakers who are more interested in maintaining their own privileged place in politics than they are in the welfare of the people. We view a hundred billion (dollar) budget with alarm. But even more we view with alarm a populace of voters that will allow such continuing waste and inefficiency."

County Jail Inadequacies Seen In Juvenile Case

How badly does Bailey County really need improved jail facilities?

Last week a 15-year old boy was jailed in connection with a break-in at the City Recreation Club and spent four days and nights in the ladies and juvenile's ward (partially described in Journal issue of March 15).

When a woman was arrested and jailed for drunkenness on Saturday afternoon, the boy was moved into a small inner cell in the ward, which does not have toilet facilities, heat, and very little more than four walls.

Rather than have the boy spend the night under these circumstances, county officials released the youngster to his parents for the weekend and asked them to return him at 7 a.m. Monday.

This seems to be quite a testimonial to the inadequacies of present jail facilities. Nor is it the only instance in which special arrangements have had to be made. Sheriff Dee Clements says that any time the officials are obliged to jail a woman and a juvenile at the same time, something has to be done.

On occasion, one of the prisoners has been moved to nearby towns, and some have been released earlier than their sentence called for, on payment of a fine where possible, or released to parents in the case of juveniles.

In the case in question, the boy had access to the "runabout" off the cell proper, and at various times called down to students who gathered on the court house lawn.

This was a shameful situation, and another that could be avoided by better jail facilities.

When the facilities (or lack of them) hinder the proper administration of justice, it's time for action to be taken.

The county Commissioners Court recognizes the need for improved facilities, in a recent joint meeting with a committee from the Chamber of Commerce.

The commissioners are also aware of the fact that the county jail does not meet minimum health requirements and would not be passed by any examining officer.

Some have said that they are hesitant about starting a drive for a bond issue because of the cost to the taxpayer.

We believe the average citizen would be willing to see that his county jail facilities are at least humane. And as to costing him a little money, most people these days realize that you don't get something for nothing.

We think those running for commissioner in the primary, rather than shy away from the question, should make it a plank in their platform.

Personally, we'd hate to vote for anyone who would not be in favor of this vitally needed improvement.

Alcoholism Hurts More Than The Drinker

Editor's Note: The following article is provided by the Texas Commission on Alcoholism, Austin, Texas.

There is no such person as a happy alcoholic, and there can be no happiness for any person whose life is closely related to an alcoholic. Alcoholism is a problem which is not confined to the alcoholic alone. Ask family, friends, neighbors, or employers of alcoholics if there is anything happy, normal, minor or simple in their association with them. The answer will be that misery and trouble follow the alcoholic wherever he moves.

There are over 5,000,000 problem drinkers in this country out of some 70,000,000 users of alcohol. If each victim has only four members in his immediate family, then, at least 20,000,000 more people are seriously affected.

But, this is not all. Each alcoholic causes, at one time or another, some injury or loss to fellow employees, employer, friends and even strangers. The figure mounts at every turn. In industry alone, it is known that alcoholism cost in excess of a billion dollars a year.

Normal, temperate people avoid giving much thought to alcoholism unless it is brought home to them sharply by the addition of someone near to them. But when one stops to realize that 1 in 15 drinkers is an alcoholic, it would seem wise to have some understanding about this affliction. Prevention must begin with understanding—not only for alcoholism, but for anything else.

Too often the plea for understanding alcoholism goes begging in vain. Then when the affliction hits home, the blow is staggering and the suffering great. How could it have happened? Why did it have to happen? What can be done to slow down the onslaught of the malady? These and many other questions run riot through the minds of the distraught family.

And, more often than not, the family unwittingly adds fuel to the fire by saying and doing things that make something bad even worse. Understanding costs nothing and may save much.

The medical profession views alcoholism as an illness. Whatever one wants to label it, however, one thing is certain—the alcoholic is anything but a normal person. He is completely out of step with the world. His troubles, and there are many, are products of inner conflicts.

Not so many years ago tuberculosis and cancer were diseases which one scarcely ever discussed in public. But once they were removed from the realm of secrecy, understanding came about and treatment as well as prevention has been astounding.

Alcoholics, too, once considered beyond hope, have been helped back to sobriety, contentment, and usefulness through understanding treatment. Alcoholics Anonymous has proved to a skeptical world that this affliction requires no more nor less than is needed in treating any other illness. An intelligent attitude combined with understanding, proper treatment have proven successful in reclaiming thousands of alcoholics. Punishment for the sick is ridiculous. Punishment for the alcoholic shuts the door to recovery.

No one wants to become an alcoholic, and no one thinks he could become one. At one time practically every alcoholic felt that alcoholism was something which happened only to others. In any event, the give-away sign of loss of control over alcohol soon can be seen. To spot these danger signs and symptoms early and to resolve to do something about the drinking problem is the major challenge for the alcoholic.

These figures could be fearful, but they need not be this way, because of the help that you and others have given. 173,000 Americans will be saved from cancer this year. About 87,000 patients will die of cancer because they were not diagnosed early enough and could not receive treatment in time.

Won't you give again this year more of your time and money to fight this dread disease? Help your neighbors and yourself by contacting Mrs. L. B. Hall, Crusade chairman of your local cancer unit. There is a job that you can do.

Sincerely yours,
Carl F. Page, M.D.
Medical Director,
District 3-South Texas Division,
American Cancer Society

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Friends:

On behalf of the Texas Division of the American Cancer Society I would like to take this means of expressing to you the people of Bailey County the sincere thanks and appreciation of every victim of cancer in our state as well as in our nation for the help you gave them during this past year. Without your prayers, your work for the Cancer Society, and your donations many people of our community who are alive today would not be. Your help provided dressings for those who were unable to buy them themselves, new drugs were found through research to stop new kinds of cancer, new methods diagnosing cancer at an earlier stage, new methods of treatment both through surgery, x-ray, and chemical means by which more people with cancer may be saved. Your donations also help greatly in producing educational materials which were and have been distributed throughout the country telling the people of the seven signs of cancer. It is imperative that this educational program continue at an ever increasing rate in order that every person in your community and throughout the country may know what to look for as signs and symptoms of cancer. It is not the purpose of the Cancer Society to scare anyone. Just the reverse, the entire purpose is to get information out to you the people so that if a symptom of cancer should develop you would recognize it and go to your doctor immediately. As you know, most cancer is cured when the patient gets to the doctor early. These people will not get to their doctors, however, unless they recognize the signs and symptoms suggestive of something being wrong.

In case you have forgotten cancer's seven danger signals are as follows: 1. Unusual discharge. 2. A lump or thickening in the breast or elsewhere. 3. A sore that does not heal. 4. Change in bowel or bladder habits. 5. Hoarseness or cough. 6. Indigestion or difficulty in swallowing. 7. A change in a wart or mole. If you have one of these symptoms and it lasts for two weeks, you should go to your doctor to learn if it means cancer. Granted most of the time it will mean something much less serious than cancer, but you have no way of knowing this without an examination.

One of the most important things that you as an individual may do in order to find cancer early, and thus cure it or to prevent it, is to go to your physician once each year for a complete physical examination. This physical should include examination from head to toe and a chest, x-ray, a blood count, and a urinalysis as a minimum of small amount that it would cost you to have this examination done may save you many fold dollars in the years to come.

Did you know that cancer can strike anyone at any age? It can affect children as well as adults, but it strikes with increasing frequency with advancing age. One in four persons according to the present rate will develop cancer sooner or later. This would mean approximately 45,000,000 Americans now living will eventually have cancer. It is predicted that approximately 275,000 people will die of this disease in the year 1962. Of every six deaths from all causes in the United States, one is caused by cancer. Last year more school children died of cancer of some form than any other single disease.

IN THIS WORLD

THE ROSE, CLOSELY LINKED TO THE CULTURES OF MANY CIVILIZATIONS, IS CONSIDERED THE QUEEN OF FLOWERS. HORTICULTURISTS LIST NEARLY 200 SPECIES AND OVER 5,000 VARIETIES.

PLANT BREEDERS CREATE MANY COLORFUL NEW ROSES EACH YEAR. THE BEST AND MOST POPULAR ARE CITED AS ALL-AMERICAN VARIETIES...

ROSES ARE POPULAR WITH INSECTS ALSO... TO CONTROL DESTRUCTIVE PESTS LIKE JAPANESE BEETLES, TENT CATERPILLARS, ORANGE TORTRIX AND OTHERS, ENTOMOLOGISTS RECOMMEND THOROUGH TREATING WITH INSECTICIDES, ESPECIALLY UNDER THE LEAVES WHERE BUGS HIDE.

IN HOME GARDENS PESTICIDE SAFETY IS IMPORTANT. SCIENTISTS HAVE DEVELOPED A NEW BROAD-RANGE INSECTICIDE, SEVIN, THAT COMBINES EFFECTIVENESS AGAINST MANY INSECTS WITH GREATER SAFETY TO HUMANS AND PETS THAN MANY OTHER INSECTICIDES. THIS MODERN CHEMISTRY HELPS GARDENERS BANISH INSECT ENEMIES FOR BUG-FREE GARDENING.

Philosopher Wonders If Friendship Can Be Bought

Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm discusses foreign aid this week, without coming to any positive conclusions.

Dear editor:
Lots of candidates throughout the country, I've noticed, whether they're running for justice of the peace or Congress or what not when they can't find anything else to run against, sometimes run against Foreign Aid.

Why give all this money away to foreign countries, they demand pointing out that regardless of the billions of dollars we've spent, the world is in possible worse shape than it was before we started.

I don't know anything about Foreign Aid, except that any new President that gets elected, whether he's a Democrat replacing a Republican or a Republican replacing a Democrat, and after he's been there long enough to get familiar with his job and the shape of the world, comes out for the necessity of Foreign Aid, and I'm not one to question a President on the stake the U.S. has in the welfare of the rest of the world. I believe in the division of powers. He runs Washington and I run this farm, and we both have our hands full.

But what brought this to mind was a statement I read last night by a college professor who's an expert on foreign affairs. He said it has been proven impossible to buy friendship and the United States ought to stop trying it.

Now a statement like that ought to be proved. How does this college professor know friendship can't be bought? I'm not saying it can, but the question ought to be put to a test, a scientific test, this is 1962, not 1963.

Consequently, I am offering my services. If Washington will start sending me $250 a month, I will allow a group of scientists to come out to this Johnson grass farm once a month, wire me up with all those scientific gadgets they use on astronauts, and test my friendship reactions to that $250. They can even televise my pulse rate, the warmth of my face and the increase in my appetite when I cash that check, if they want to.

Now this thing shouldn't be any snap test. To be completely scientific in really finding out if my friendship can be bought, a big stack of data ought to be built up, over several years. I'd say eight or ten at the least, keep the number of Muleshoe through more than one administration.

Earl Ladd, chief of Muleshoe's Volunteer Fire Department, reports the department has answered calls to 52 fires during 1962, with 22 of the calls being made in March.

"This is too many fires for this windy country," Ladd states. He urges area residents not to burn grass around their homes or farm buildings, as the majority of the 52 fires have been caused from grass burning too close to buildings.

"Although there have been no extensive insured losses so far," Ladd reports, "we mustn't press our luck too far. One of those little grass fires can get mighty big in a hurry." He asks the co-operation of the townspeople to say eight or ten at the least, keep the number of Muleshoe fires to a minimum.

Every Farmer should ask these questions about insurance...

What are my special needs?
What's my biggest loss exposure likely to be?
How can I be sure I have adequate insurance?
Am I getting the most for my money?

For the answers to your protection problems... see us for a Farm Insurance Check-up!

Kids, Parents, Press Acclaim Capt. Kangaroo

The "Captain Kangaroo" Children's series on the CBS Television Network recently celebrated its sixth anniversary. To the accompaniment of overwhelming mail response, from children and parents alike, and unanimous critical acclaim accorded it by the press, "Captain Kangaroo" brings to the youngsters unusual games and toys, simple how-to-do-it projects, live baby animals, music and special cartoons, with Bob Keeshan acting as the kindly grandpa leading his youthful audience through a delightful wonderland.

Parental reaction to the show indicates they feel they can relax in the knowledge that this is a program that is carefully designed not only to entertain and stimulate youthful imagination, but also to teach good behavior habits through proper example. Keeshan has always given much thought to the content of his program. He not only wants to present a good show, but a good show that is good for his viewers.

Keeshan describes "Captain Kangaroo" this way: "We talk the same language as the children do. We meet them in a never-never land where they find reality. We give them fantasy and we give them education—learning things about the world they are growing up in—all as part of a simple, wonderful hour of entertainment that happens to carry with it simple lessons in manners, safety and bits of knowledge children are curious about. There's no stapsick, no terror, no matter how innocently such things

Kinnie Working On Tactics In Philippines

Ronald M. Kinnie, seaman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Kinnie of Sudan, is serving aboard the attack transport USS Bexar, a unit taking part in the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization's exercise Tulungan, sponsored jointly by the Republic of the Philippines and the United States, through April 2.

The exercise, whose name means mutual assistance, is the 20th undertaken by SEATO nations and the first in the 1962 series. It simulates a situation in which a member nation seeks assistance from SEATO to combat aggression committed against it.

Troop embarkation assembly, and movement of forces and amphibious landings by "vertical envelopment" helicopters and beach assault are features of the exercise.

Aside from observers from 8 member nations, Tulungan is using some 30,000 men and 60 ships from U. S. Navy Marine Corps and Air Force; Philippine Navy and Army, and the Royal Australian Air Force.

Bailey County's Total Bond Sales For 1962 Reported

Savings Bonds sales in Bailey County totaled $4,031 during the month of February, according to Inez F. Bobo, Chairman of the Bailey County Savings Bonds Committee. Total sales in the county for the first two months of 1962 were $11,295.

In Texas, bond sales were $13,560,394 in February, and sales for the first two months of the year were $28,871,026. This figure represents 17.5 per cent of the state's sales goal for 1962.

At a recent meeting in Washington, Secretary of Treasury, Douglas Dillon, pointed out "Our ability to meet aggression in the world... will depend to a large extent upon the power of our economy. Buying bonds is a way in which every American can contribute directly to his nation's economic strength. For those who ask what they can do to help their country, here is a beginning step — an important step... The person who buys a bond is both thrifty and patriotic".

"These words spoken by the Secretary of Treasury re-emphasize the need for the purchase of Savings Bonds by all Americans" Mrs. Bobo pointed out.

Enlistment Tea Held By Trinity Baptist

Members of the Trinity Baptist church WMU were hostess for an enlistment tea last Thursday at the church.

They presented a one act play, "Shadow in the Doorway" which depicted a WMU member visiting other ladies explaining the purpose and benefits of the organization.

Members of the cast were: Mmes. Lorine Hatch, Ann Oyler, Minnie Redwine, Donnie Teague, Willie Reeder and Etta Walters. The play was narrated by Mrs. Dorothy Bowers, and background music was furnished by Mrs. Pat Walker.

Refreshments were served to those attending from a table covered with a lace cloth and centered with a bouquet of gold mums in a blue vase, carrying out the WMU colors.

Church Slates Spring Revival

The First Baptist Church of Progress will begin their annual Spring Revival Friday night March 30 at 8 p.m.

The evangelist for the revival will be Rev. Fred M. Chapman of Midlothian. Brother Chapman is a native of Tennessee and a graduate of Hardin-Simmons University of Abilene and Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. Prior to going to First Baptist Church of Midlothian, Bro. Chapman was pastor of First Baptist Church of Dawson.

The evangelistic singer will be J. G. Leverett of Lubbock. Brother Leverett is formerly a school administrator, having at one time been associated with the Muleshoe schools many years ago.

The services for the revival will be at 10 a.m. and 8 p.m. for the evening services. All those who live in the community are invited to attend any and all of these services. The pastor, Bro. Earl D. Hord and the church membership have been intensive preparation for several weeks and do urge each one to consider the services as being of utmost importance in our times.

"Reality" Is Topic Of Christian Science

The power and permanence of the Word of God will be stressed at Christian Science services Sunday in a Lesson-Sermon on the subject of "Reality."

Among the Scriptural passages to be read is this verse from Psalm 107: "He sent his word, and healed them, and delivered them from their destructions." From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy this citation will be read (p. 335): "Reality is spiritual, harmonious, immutable, immortal, divine, eternal. Nothing unspiritual can be real, harmonious, or eternal."

The Golden Text is from Isaiah (40): "The grass withereth, the flower fadeth: but the word of our God shall stand for ever."

Social Security Representative To Be Here Wed.

Heading the slogan, "Don't delay, check today", could very well put some social security payments in your pocket, according to John G. Hutton, District Manager of the Lubbock Social Security Office. This slogan was made especially meaningful by Congress when it passed the new retirement test law.

Basically, this law allows many persons over 65 to receive some social security payments even though their earnings are substantially in excess of $1200 a year. The new provisions are effective with 1961 and provide that $1 of the total social security benefits payable to a family during the year will be withheld for every $2 the old-age beneficiary earns between $1200 and $1700.

Deductions for earnings in excess of $1700 will be on a dollar for dollar basis. Perhaps an example of how this works will explain it better.

Let us suppose that John earns $3000 a year. He has had this job for years at the same salary and wants to continue. On the basis of a $3,000 a year salary his monthly social security check at 65 will be $85. His wife at 65 benefits on $47.50—total monthly will receive 1/2 of her husband's benefits to both—$142.50.

In this example, if John retired and kept his earnings under $1200 a year, he and his wife could receive checks for all 12 months of the year, or $1710; but John wants to continue his $3000 a year job. Can he receive any social security payments? We'll apply the test and see.

Step 1. Since John is earning over $1200 a year, he and his wife will not be able to receive the full $1710.

Step 2. For the first $500 he earns over $1200, a deduction of $250 must be made ($1.00 for each $2.00 earned). Subtracting $250 from the $1710 leaves $1460.

Step 3. Since his total earnings are $1300 over the $1700, we must subtract an additional $1300 (dollar for dollar) from the $1460 remaining from Step 2. This leaves $160, the amount of social security payments due John and his wife for the year.

John and his wife received some social security benefits for the year. Maybe you can too. Head the slogan "Don't delay, check today" with your nearest social security office.

Every employed person over 65 who has not already done so, should visit his social security office to find out if he can collect some benefits.

A representative of the Lubbock Social Security Office will be in Muleshoe on Wednesday, April 4 in the courthouse at 9:30 a.m. and will be glad to assist in all matters pertaining to social security.

Intercollegiate Rodeo Scheduled For Levelland

The forthcoming event of the National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association rodeo, which is being sponsored by the South Plains College Rodeo Club, is to be held on March 29, 30, and 31, at the fair ground in Levelland, Texas.

Nine rodeo teams including boys and girls from Texas Tech, Lubbock Christian College, West Texas College, Hardin-Simmons University, Oklahoma State University, New Mexico Western University, and Sul Ross College will compete in the various events. Stock will be furnished by the Ratjen Brothers from Happy, Texas, and used for bareback riding, saddle bronc riding, bull riding, roping, ribbon roping, bull dogging, barrel racing, and goat tying.

PIONEER DAY HELD
Starting the exciting week was Pioneer Day, March 27. On this day, awards were given the best dressed boy and girl in pioneer clothing, the student with the longest beard, and the best tobacco chewer. A dance was given to conclude the day's activities.

The Rodeo Parade will begin Thursday, March 29, at 4 p.m. All business establishments and clubs in this area are urged to submit floats for the parade. The best float conveying the pioneer spirit will be awarded a prize.

Tickets for the rodeo are now on sale and can be purchased from any Rodeo Club member at South Plains College.

Join the fun and excitement! Attend this NIRA rodeo all three days, March 29, 30, and 31, and the dance each night with music supplied by Jimmy Mackey.

ELECTION APRIL 7

Board Candidates Give Statements

Muleshoe Independent School District voters are to elect two new members to the board of trustees Saturday, April 7.

Eight candidates, the largest field in recent years, are seeking the two seats being vacated by Jack Lenderson and Harold King. Special absentee voting, which began March 19 in the County Clerk's office, will end Tuesday, April 3.

Voting on the election day will be held between 8 a.m. and 7 p.m. Voters are reminded to bring their new poll tax receipts or exemptions in order to be able to vote.

The eight candidates were asked by the Journal to submit a statement of their behalf for publication. The Journal wishes to thank the following for complying with its request:

Cecil Rundell

As a candidate for your school board, may I say I am not sponsored by any group, or any organizations. I announced on my own, because I am a parent and interested in better education for my children and yours.

In appreciation of your support to this important position, I will stand at all times to better our school.

John Smith

I am a native of Muleshoe, a business man, and a patron of the Muleshoe schools. I started to school in Muleshoe in 1929 and completed my high school education here.

It is with pride that I look back over the years and view the vast improvement made in our school system. These great forward strides have not been made easily, nor cheaply, for either the patrons and tax payers or for the many who have served as teachers and trustees.

We have never seen, nor will we see a school so efficient but what its efficiency cannot be improved. I realize the importance of a good sound board of trustees, for upon many of their decisions lie the very destiny of our children.

I don't claim to know all the answers to the many problems that confront our schools. I have always been taught that there is nothing that can be sliced so thin but what it will have two sides.

I believe this is true of school problems, and that they need to be investigated thoroughly on the basis of merit, and then by the American way of doing things, let the majority rule.

I feel this way: Education isn't a matter of millions of dollars, millions of pupils or millions of parents. It is a first grader, learning to read, write, spell and do arithmetic; to become a good citizen in a community larger than the family. It is the high school senior, proud of a chemistry experiment or history theme, outwardly confident, but inwardly uncertain of what is ahead in college and life.

A good athletic program is not only important, but necessary in our schools. Athletics develop individual talents, and good sportsmanship in our young people. It is true that many students are able to attend college only through scholarships granted for unusual athletic ability. But we must guard against putting athletics, or any extra-curricular activity ahead of the basic purpose of schools—education of our children.

Our schools must give attention to learning, and also to personality development, character building, arts and music.

I earnestly solicit your vote on my behalf in this campaign, for I seek the office solely from a desire to be of service. I am an independent candidate. Regardless of whom you support, I urge you to go to the polls and exercise your privilege of voting.

Remember: A person who does not vote is no better off than a person who hasn't the privilege of voting.

John W. Smith
Independent Candidate

Ralph Douglas

I have been asked by friends to consider placing my name on the ballot as a candidate for member of the Muleshoe School board. This has been done because I feel my experience could be of value to the school system of Muleshoe.

For more than fifteen years I have worked for and with many city commissions and county commissioners courts. Through these associations I have become familiar with tax problems such as evaluation and tax rates, as well as bonding procedures. Maintenance has been one of the many problems with which I have been confronted in dealing with cities and counties and is a problem which also confronts school systems.

The following is taken from the Handbook for Texas School Board Members and will be somewhat my policy should I be elected to serve in this capacity:

Experienced school board members agree that a board should: Confine its time and energies to policy-making and evaluation of those policies;

Delegate the detailed and technical duties to a trained administrative staff with a single executive (superintendent) at its head; Require, and make available to the public, frequent and thorough-going reports from the executive regarding management and operation of the institution.

My desire is for a well balanced program to be available in our schools, with all departments receiving their fair share of facilities available. If elected I will work for the continued improvement of our school system.

Ralph Douglas
James Wedel

In making my announcement for the school board of trustees, I do so with the sincere desire to be of service to the school and to the community. Friends and neighbors have urged me to run for the office and I have consented to be a candidate.

I want to say that I do not represent any particular group or individuals. I stand on my own and will make my own decisions. I will have an open mind and be open to any suggestions to the improvement of our school system.

I think we have an excellent school system and it is my desire to keep it that way because I have six youngsters in my family and I want to see them get the best basic education possible.

I have served on the board of directors of the Bailey County Farm Bureau. I am now a director of the High Plains Station at Halfway, and an a community chairman of the A.S.C., as well as on the official board of the Progress Methodist Church.

I sincerely solicit your vote and influence in the coming election.

I want to urge everyone to exercise his voting privilege regardless of whom you are for. Get out and vote!

James P. Wedel

Lonnie Bass

Lonnie M. Bass with his wife "Polly," one daughter Sonja, an eighth grade student and one son, Delton a fourth grade student resides at 114 West Avenue H. and has been a Muleshoe resident for the past eight years. As candidate for school trustee he believes in the following:

The school board determines the success or failures of a school system. An efficient school board assures a better school program, better facilities, better teachers, and guarantees a better learning environment for our boys and girls.

Our school system handles approximately 3/4 million dollars a year, which makes it BIG business. The board must, therefore, delegate divisions of labor within the system as follows:

1. Confine its time and energies to policy-making and evaluation of these policies.

2. Delegate the detailed and technical duties to a trained administrative staff with a single executive (superintendent) at its head. Therefore, a successful educational program in any school system is related directly to the understanding, and cooperation between members of the board and the superintendent of schools, with a desire to work together for the best interest of the school system.

At no time should a board member forget that, as an individual, he has no authority to act or to promise board action. He must exercise his right only at official board meetings by casting his vote.

Major sports has been accepted in modern schools by many as very important. With over 800 pupils in our school system, all cannot and do not have the desire to participate in major sports. Therefore, I believe equal consideration should be given non-academic courses such as band-chorus, vocational agriculture, and etc.

I will support and defend the Constitution and Laws of the United States and the State of Texas, but will oppose Federal Aid to Education as an individual or in any capacity I might hold.

Lonnie M. Bass
R. O. Gregory

R. O. Gregory believes in a balanced school program run in a business-like manner that will provide the finest educational opportunities for our children possible with the tax dollars spent.

O'Dean Heard

In announcing my candidacy for a school board trustee, I wish to state my belief that to be a good trustee, you have to work for all departments of the school for the betterment of education, not just one department, so that when our children leave Muleshoe

Bovinan Serves On Destroyer

Condra D. Cruse, fireman, USN son of Mr. and Mrs. Marion D. Cruse Jr. of Bovina, is serving aboard the destroyer USS Trathen which participated in Exercise Pot Shot off the coast of Southern California, March 12-23.

schools they will have enough basic education to successfully carry on college work or vocational training.

I have been a resident of Muleshoe for the past ten years and have been employed as meat market manager at Piggy Wiggly for eight and one-half years. I have three children enrolled in Muleshoe schools and am deeply interested in our school as a whole.

I will appreciate your vote in the coming election.

O'Dean Heard

Wiley Baker

To the voters of Muleshoe Independent School District: Because of a feeling of concern and responsibility for the Muleshoe school system and the welfare of our youth, I have announced as a candidate for a place on the Muleshoe school board.

If elected I will endeavor to work harmoniously with the other members of the school board. I will not align myself with any group or individual. I will do all I can to keep our school system on a high plane and will work for economy.

My decisions will be based on what I believe to be right and fair for all and in accord with the principals of God.

Qualifications Listed For Board Member

With the approaching school board elections, when Texans will elect several thousand school board members on April 7, members of the Texas State Committee on Public Education have drafted a list of qualifications. These include:

"A good school board member is one who has a strong belief in public education —its importance to the individual, the community, state and nation —should be sincerely interested in children—should understand the difference between policy and administrative or classroom procedure and should understand but not usurp the teacher's or the superintendent's duties.. should never forget that the public schools belong to the public and should represent all the people of a community.. should be informed of and sincerely interested in the instructional program and other facets of the school system and willing to accept new developments in each area.. should be able to judge the strengths and weaknesses of the school and should endorse improvements or changes only after open-minded consideration of all the facts.. should be able to work with fellow board members, support board decisions, and have moral integrity and courage to accept criticism.

"A good board member should be able to think independently, objectively and soundly and should always remember that he is a school official only in official board meetings.. should be able and willing to give the necessary time to board service to insure he is an informed and effective member..should do his work without desire for personal consideration or gain.. should be willing to study current literature on school boards, and should be able to recognize the delicate balance between excellence in public education and the expenditure of public funds."

TAX TIPS.

Some Personal Expenses Are Deductible On Tax Returns

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press Staff Writer

YOU CAN DEDUCT — in making out your 1961 income tax returns last year. You may save by checking them.

A deduction of about 10 per cent is allowed everyone filling a return. You don't have to itemize to prove you had that much expense.

This standard deduction is already allowed for in the tax table the under-$5,000 people can use to find their tax.

The under-$5,000 people can use figure their own tax but—if you are single or a married couple filing jointly—you take your deduction this way:

Just knock 10 per cent off your income up to a limit of $1,000. A married couple filing separately can also knock 10 per cent off their income but only up to a limit of $500 each.

If your expenses ran more than 10 per cent, you can claim them in full but then you must itemize them all. If you're going to itemize, you'll have to use form 1040. You can't do it on 1040A.

Just remember: when a husband and wife file separate returns, if one itemizes, both must itemize. Both then must use form 1040.

The list of things you can deduct is long, too long for full treatment here. If your problem isn't covered in this story, or covered in enough detail, here is a suggestion:

Consult the 14-page instruction sheet which the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) sends taxpayers or, better yet, for 40 cents buy "Your Federal Income Tax," a 144-page booklet put out by IRS.

This goes particularly for people deducting medical care and drugs and people puzzled about their pensions and annuities.

Here's a list of some expenses you can deduct:

Contributions to charitable, religious or educational organizations; such as the Community Chest, Salvation Army, churches, Red Cross, heart and cancer associations, tuberculosis societies, and gifts—but NOT duties—to YMCA, YWCA, YMHA, YWHA and American Legion.

NOT exceed 30 per cent of your income. But 30 percent is allowed if one-third of your contributions went to churches and tax-exempt hospitals and educational institutions.

You can deduct for: State income taxes, real estate NOT federal gasoline taxes, personal property taxes, auto license and registration fees, poll taxes and most retail sales taxes.

This may help you if you don't know how much you paid in sales tax in 1961 but still want to deduct something for it.

The IRS has figured out what generally can be considered a reasonable deduction, without the necessity of proof, for people who have to pay a sales tax in 35 states and the District of Columbia.

If you're in a state with a sales tax, you can obtain one of these forms, applying to your state from the nearest IRS office.

Also, you can deduct for: Union dues, dues in professional societies, alimony payments by the person making them, fees to employment agencies, club dues if they are needed for business reasons and books or newspapers bought for use in your profession.

And you can deduct for these: Interest on your house mortgage, on a life insurance policy if you pay the interest in cash, note to a bank or individual, and bought on the installment plan.

Further, you can deduct the net amount of actual property loss from fire, storms, theft or accidents. These may or may NOT be business losses.

Some other deductibles: Expenses for your education but only if it was to help or improve you in keeping up with the skills in your job. You can't deduct if the education was for personal reasons or to help you get a better job.

You can't deduct for: Federal income taxes, federal Social Security payments, estate and gift taxes, state inheritance

REV. MOORES SPEND WEEKEND HERE
Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Moore of Abilene were in Muleshoe over the weekend. They are former Muleshoe residents, having resided here for many years. He was pastor of the Trinity Baptist Church just prior to moving to Abilene where he is pastor of the Steth Baptist Church.

Many of his old friends enjoyed their visit here.

TOP SCORER
BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP)—Bill O'Connor, a 6-foot-5 forward, is the first player in Consensus history to top 1,000 points in two years. With a year's eligibility remaining, O'Connor has scored 1,012 points.

AUSTIN, Tex.—Capital newspapermen quizzed candidates for lieutenant governor at the Sigma Delta Chi dinner and found wide variety in the answers.

At a prior meeting the professional journalism society had quizzed the gubernatorial candidates.

Big news of the session was the unanimous opposition to legalizing pari-mutuel betting on horse races. Texas voters will have an opportunity to express their own views on this subject at the May 5 primaries.

Rep. V. E. "Red" Berry of San Antonio got this issue listed on both the Democratic and Republican primary ballots by presenting both political party headquarters with petitions signed by more than 200,000 persons. Petition asked the legislature to give the people an opportunity to vote on pari-mutuel betting.

Further questions to the candidates at the newsmen's dinner revealed diverse opinions on repeal of the poll tax as a prerequisite for voting. Four favored repeal; two opposed it. Senator Preston Smith and Bill Hayes were the opponents.

Candidates present at the meeting were Senator Preston Smith, Jarrard Secrest, Crawford Martin and Robert Baker, all Democrats, and Bill Hayes and Kellis James A. Turman, the seventh candidate, was absent.

Former Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey moderated the discussion. He closed the session with a comment that most people underestimate the importance of the job of lieutenant governor. Because all state policy is made by the Legislature, the lieutenant governor is of prime importance. He presides over the Senate, names the Senate committees, and decides which committees will handle bills. Thus he has almost absolute control over the course of legislation—which is state policy-making.

POL LISTS HIGH — It seems like there's a record number of candidates running for state and national office this year. There also appears to be a record number of potential voters.

A recent count showed 2,373,857 Texans paid poll taxes or filed for exemptions this year. That's 218,212 more eligible voters than last year.

With 15 county totals still due at the State Comptroller's office, including some big cities, the list may exceed the record-setting 2,594,254 who paid to go to the polls in the 1960 presidential election.

All poll-tax payers who show up at the May 5 primaries will answer the big question: Do they want to keep the poll tax as a voting requirement?

Their answers on primary tickets of both parties should be a representative decision on the long-battled subject.

ATTORNEY GENERAL RULES —Angelina County Attorney Dan Brazil asked Attorney General Will Wilson whether a precinct chairman who is elected in a May primary can take office immediately.

He was told that even though a man becomes precinct chairman without a run-off, he must wait until the Saturday after his county run-off election before he assumes his new duties.

Attorney general also ruled that the "banking escheat" law calls for bankers to advertise for missing depositors in May of this year. He also interpreted the criminal code to read that a justice of the peace cannot collect a $4 trial fee if the case at hand is dismissed.

EGG STANDARDS UPGRADED —Benefits of the crackdown on egg grade violations in 1958 were repeated by Texas housewives. Number of below-quality or inedible eggs reported for the last quarter of 1961 was only 1.2 per cent.

Agriculture Commissioner John White said this incidence is "the lowest in history for Texas and probably as low a level as ever attained by any state."

When the Egg Law became effective in 1958, violations were uncovered at the rate of 16 per cent. State Department of Agriculture spent $39,902 in fiscal 1961 to see that the law was enforced.

At a meeting of the Texas Egg Advisory board, White commended the state's egg industry for its cooperation in the egg "clean-up."

Board includes G. F. Siebel of Burton; Marvin Gilbreath of Welmar; Jack Dubose of Gonzales; T. D. Craddock of Hamilton; Tom Boothe of San Antonio; D. W. Rensu of Seguin and F. Z. Beamblosson of Texas A & M.

SCHOOL — Texas Education Agency clocked school bus mileage, in the state's 1,438 districts. They found that 8,240 bus drivers drive almost a half-million miles daily to take 420,000 children to school.

Some West Texas school buses travel as far as 229 miles a day.

INDIAN RAID ON CAPITOL —Dressed as Ani-Waya, Latonka, Tonkawa, Neep, Caddo, Kiva, Sotso, Po-Hebeto-Quasho and Ogilevanagi Indians, some 50 school children raided the Capitol.

Whooping it up for the Brenham Indian Festival to be held April 14, the youngsters danced and chanted to the beat of a giant drum for 30 minutes around the Capitol rotunda. Then they invaded Gov. Price Daniel's reception room to invite him to their April show.

Brian W. Schenk, Austin school teacher in charge of "Indian Affairs," said the children came from Dallas, Houston, Mexico, Denton, Port Arthur, San Antonio, Snyder, Lubbock and other points. They're members of an organization that's trying to preserve old Indian traditions. Some have visited tribes all over the Southwest.

TEXAS DAY AT THE FAIR —Seattle World's Fair officials have invited Governor Daniel to come to the fair on April 27. Billed as "Texas Day," the state will be saluted in a special program in which college, high school and other units can take part.

Schools that are interested in sending representatives should contact the governor's office. The Choralettes of Lamar High School in Houston already have been booked to sing April 26-29.

LITTLEFIELD VISITORS
Mrs. Ollie Davis from Littlefield visited with her daughter and family, Mrs. Raymond Purdy, last Thursday.

Few shoes into which envious men would step indicate how hot and hurt are their wearers' feet.

20 YEARS AGO

Muleshoe has two families with 3 sons each in the service. First on the list is Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Alsop whose son, Lt. E. H. Alsop is serving with an artillery brigade. He is brigade staff officer and artillery outfit, and Bill is a cadet at Shepherd Field in Wichita Falls. Another son is James, had had two examinations turned down both times. However, he is still trying to make some branch of the service.

Official notice was received this week that Chester Atchison has been promoted to the rank of Staff sergeant at the Air Corps Advanced Flying school at Stockton Fields. Sergeant Atchison is a son of Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Atchison of Muleshoe, and they have two other sons in the service. They are Edwin, a sergeant in an infantry company and Charlie who is in the U. S. Navy, stationed at a training base on the West Coast.

For the first time in many years a real, old-time parairie fire threatened the ranch country in south Bailey County. The fires started near the New Mexico line on the VVN Ranch and soon racing before a strong wind and within a few minutes was out of control.

People from all over the country gathered to help fight the blaze. Fortunately, no cattle were lost. Fire fighters started that over 100 new fires broke out and the shifting wind swept sparks in all directions.

Twenty thousand acres of grass was destroyed before the fire was brought under control.

Looking backward 15 years to March 25, 1927, I. W. Haney has purchased the grocery business from J. L. Alsop in the Brooks business building. Mr. Alsop will remain with the business for awhile.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hope and sons of Shallowater were Sunday guests in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Barney Smith.

R. L. Barber and children of Bovina spent last weekend visiting in the home of his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Barber and family.

The Muleshoe Senior Class presented their Play "Only Sally Ann" Friday night. In the cast were: Lorene Spence, Ralph DeBoard, Kenneth Burton, Lester Markham, Marie Sutton, Ruth Evans, Rosie Needham, Ruth Burkhead, and Ray Eckler.

March 25, 1937 — The Red Caboose Cafe, operated by Arvil Stone on Highway 7, was damaged by fire early Monday morning when a generator broke on a gas burner.

Welcome You

CALVARY BAPTIST CHURCH

REV. H. J. WREN, Pastor

It indeed is a joy to be privileged to speak a few words to you about the Calvary Baptist Church and it's only head, The Lord Jesus Christ, who said, Ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free. St. John 8:32.

All people seek some form of freedom, but in this world of chaos, when the devil is walking about as a roaring lion seeking whom he may devour 1st John 5:8 and to keep everyone bound by his chains of darkness, there can be no freedom found outside of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

He said, "I am the way, the truth and the life, no man cometh to the Father, but by me." John 14:6. It is our purpose in life to show people the way, and teach them the truth, that will lead them to everlasting life and set them free.

My friend, in order to be free, you must know Jesus Christ the Son of God in the free pardon of your sins, by faith, for by grace are ye saved through faith and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God. Ephesians 2:8. If the Son therefore shall make you free ye shall be free indeed" John 8:36 In the behalf of the Calvary Baptist Church and our Lord Jesus Christ.

TATES FLY IN

Dr. and Mrs. Howard Tate flew to Muleshoe last Sunday from their private plane, a Tri-Pacer. Mrs. Tate remained here this week and is teaching kindergarten classes in the absence of Mrs. Cecil H. Tate who was in Fort Knox, Kentucky visiting Second Lt. Gaylord Tate.

Howard flew back to Ruidoso Sunday night. PASSENGERS Paul Scott, a commercial pilot who has recently resumed flying had Luther Hall, Bill Harmon and Ronald Scott as passengers on a local flight Sunday.

Hal Anderson, seventh grade student, his father, David Anderson and Anderson's nephew, Allen Towery of Los Angeles, California made a sightseeing flight over the Plains Sunday afternoon.

H. C. Elliott is a new student at the Muleshoe Flying Service this week. He is flying a Piper Super Cub and is being instructed in basic flight maneuvers.

HEATHINGTON EARNS HIGH EXAM SCORE

Willard Heathington was notified by the Federal Aviation Agency in Oklahoma City that he had passed the written examination for a Private license with a grade of 92 which is an exceptionally high score for this test.

Heathington is the first to take the test from the large group enrolled in an eight week ground school course conducted by instructor Fred Boyd. The course was completed March 6.

CHARTERS COMANCHE

Herb Griffith chartered the Flying Service Comanche Friday, March 16, and flew to Manhattan, Kansas to attend the basketball games between Texas Tech and Colorado and Creighton College and Tech.

Taking off from the airport, Griffith was accompanied by Artis Barton of Earth. They flew to Abernathy and landed briefly to pick up Golden Ferguson of Abernathy and Stan Greswald of Lubbock, then resumed their flight.

Griffith said he made the cross-country flight by Omni and that they had a very enjoyable trip with smooth air and smooth flying. They returned Sunday afternoon.

CROSS COUNTRY

Making a cross country training flight Sunday was Hugh Yeates, accompanied by instructor Fred Boyd.

Upon leaving Warren Field at 8 a.m. they flew visual navigation to within 20 miles of Hobbs, N.M. where Boyd instructed Yeates on radio flying. Yeates tuned the radio to Hobbs Omni then as they neared the airport, switched to tower control for identification and landing instructions.

After landing, Yeates filed a flight plan to Roswell and some 15 minutes later was ready for take off on the second leg of the flight. Yeates contacted the tower for time verification and clearance, then after climb out and clearing the traffic pattern, he intercepted Hobbs outboard Omni which he continued on until the beacon was longer audible.

He then tuned to Roswell in-bound, 103 airway and continued the flight to the airport which lies northwest of the city.

Upon landing, Yeates closed the flight plan and after a brief visit with pilots there, they began the last leg of the flight, on Omni for a time then again by visual navigation. The trip took three hours.

Boyd said Yeates did real well on the flight and with familiarizing himself with flying by omni radio signals, tower control airports, filing of flight plans and visual navigation of cross country.

BARBOUR LANDS HERE IN NEW BONANZA

50TH BIRTHDAY

Area Girl Scouts Participate In Lubbock Pageant

Approximately 3,000 visitors and parents looked on as 3,500 girl scouts in Caprock Council staged a pageant and display of projects Saturday in Lubbock Municipal Coliseum in celebration of the 50th birthday anniversary of the youth organization.

Attending the meeting from Muleshoe and being honored as a founder was Mrs. Thurman White, accompanied by her Brownie granddaughter, Debbie Waggoner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Pat Waggoner.

The program depicted growth and advancement of the Girl Scouts from 1912 to the present. Girl Scout troops presented the growth, purposes and program of scouting in the hour-long program.

Highlighting the program was the recognition of groups which contributed to the growth and success of the program, including churches, town, city, and county governments, schools, civic organizations, news media, youth agencies and United community fund raising organizations.

In District I, in which Muleshoe is located, the founders who were honored included Mrs. White who established the Muleshoe Girl Scout organization in 1946, and founders from Anton, Friona, and Olton.

A parade of flags, representing 35 of the 51 nations in which Girl Guides and Girl Scouts are organized, climaxed the program. Girl Scout troops from Crosbyton, Friona, Olton and Brownfield, along with scouts from Parsons, Maedgen, Ella Iles, Carroll Thompson and Junior-Senior high neighborhoods in Lubbock participated.

CHARITABLE CONTRIBUTIONS AND INTEREST

You may deduct contributions made by you in cash or other property for religious, charitable, literary, educational or scientific purposes. This is one of the itemized personal income tax deductions available to you. However, you cannot deduct contributions which you make, no matter how worthy your intentions, to needy relatives or other individuals, social clubs and political organizations.

If you are on the cash basis and report income as you receive it and expense as you pay it, your contribution must be paid before it can be deducted from your tax return.

You need not make a donation in cash in order to obtain a charitable contribution deduction. In fact, you can often afford to make a larger contribution to charity because the law permits you to deduct the fair value of the property you donate to charity, whether or not this amount exceeds the price you paid for the property, with no requirement that you report the increase in value as income to yourself.

For example, if you have a share of stock which cost you $50 and is presently worth $100, you can give the share to a charitable organization and take a $100 deduction. If you sold the stock and gave the cash as a charitable donation, it would be necessary for you to pay an income tax on the $50 profit. By giving the stock to charity you get the $100 deduction and pay no tax.

You also are entitled to deduct as a charitable contribution the other articles which you gave to charity and also expenses which you incur for travel and transportation in serving a charitable organization. You cannot, however, deduct as a charitable contribution the value of your time which is donated.

On your Federal return, your 20 per cent of adjusted gross income. However, where one-third of the total charitable deduction is for donations to churches, educational organizations and hospitals, you are entitled to deduct a maximum of 30 per cent of your adjusted gross income.

Interest expense is deductible in full from your tax return. This expense is often a substantial part of your monthly mortgage payments on your house.

If you are buying a car or other property or appliances on time, a portion of your time purchase price and monthly payment will normally be interest expense. Where the amount of interest expense is not clear or fair value of clothing, toys and where the time carrying charge includes other charges such as for insurance on your life, you may estimate the interest charge by determining your average monthly balance during the year and multiplying this amount by 6 per cent. It is, of course, preferable to obtain the actual amount of

WITH CHAMPION BLOOD

County Durocs Have A Promising Future

A. W. Copley recently purchased a young Duroc boar from O. H. Rahlf's of Happy, which has a fine background of champion blood. Copley's male was sired by R. Texas Torch, the Grand Champion male of the 1961 National Barrow Show in Austin, Minnesota. Copley male, is also sire of the dam which recently won Grand Champion over all breeds at the Louisville show in a field of 702 barrows of all breeds from 15 states.

Royal Headliner, 1959 male champion of the National Barrow Show, is the grand-sire of the Copley Male and Grand Champion barrow for 1961.

The first and second place gilts in the Bailey County Junior Stock Show, owned by Kearney Scoggin and Joe Adams, carry exactly the same blood as the Grand Champion at Louisville.

County Agent J. K. Adams believes that some top-notch show hogs should result from this combination of stock with excellent breeding histories.

FRIDAY NIGHT

Farmers Invited To Sesame Meet, Supper

Muleshoe area farmers are invited to a steak supper and special Sesame meeting to be held in Muleshoe Friday, March 29 at 7:30 p.m. Meeting place is The Cox Fine Foods Restaurant, on the Clovis highway. Texas Sesame Growers, Inc. and Gilbreaths Seed Co. will sponsor the meeting.

All farmers who are interested in growing Sesame are invited to attend.

Advance reservations for the steak supper should be made by phoning Bill Wimberly or Ray Hodges at 2310 in Muleshoe, or by leaving word with Texas Sesame Growers, Inc. in person or by mail.

One of the highlights in the Sesame movie will be pictures of the self-feeding combine attachment. This attachment being developed by Texas Sesame and Roy Wrinkle's Welding Shop at Muleshoe, has created much interest, not only with Sesame Growers, but also with farmers who harvest millet and sudan from shocks.

PRICE STABILIZED

"The price for Number 1 quality Sesame seed has stabilized at 10 1/2 cents per pound for the past two years," reports Robert L. Parker, Executive Vice-President of Texas Sesame Growers, Inc. "Prospects for the 1962 crop are even better because the supply of good quality imported seed has been limited. This limited supply is resulting in increased prices for both USA grown and imported Sesame seed," said Parker.

Many farmers may want to take advantage of the provision in the Feed Grain and Wheat laws that permit growing of Sesame on their retired land. Others who have a low feed grain or wheat base, or limited acreage allotments for other crops can grow Sesame, since no federal acreage control has been imposed on this crop.

County Agent J. K. Adams will be in charge of the meeting, and Parker will be the principal speaker.

All farmers in the Muleshoe, Earth, Sudan, Amherst, Nedmore, Lariat, Farwell and other nearby areas who are interested in growing Sesame are invited to attend the meeting, and are urged to make your reservations in advance, so your steak will be ready for you.

Cotton Producers Institute Making Gains In County

The Cotton Producers Institute is going great, but plans are under way to make it even greater.

That's the way the Bailey County Organizational Committee for the Institute summed up the present status of the voluntary growers plan to increase markets and profits.

The committee met this week to map plans to complete sign-up and collection on last year's crop and to increase grower participation during the coming season.

"We know growers are really behind the idea of increasing markets and profits through stepped-up research and promotion," said D. S. Anderson. "Funds for this are coming in every day, and we are confident the first one million dollars for the western areas of the Belt will be more than doubled."

"But this is just the beginning. Present participation by growers in this county gives us a solid base from which to bring all growers into the program. We believe they will see the Institute offers them a hard-headed business proposition that will pay off well in the years ahead."

Anderson pointed out that in promotion and in many vital areas of research, the grower must look primarily to himself to close the large gap between the programs cotton has and the program it needs.

The importance of closing this gap, he said, has been pointed up in recent months by the fact that cotton has suffered competitive market losses to rayon and other synthetics. Also, there has been a tendency for foreign cotton producers to increase their acreages.

"I believe growers in this county and in other areas of the Belt want cotton to get its share of the expanding fiber market. That's why I say participation in the Institute will continue to grow," he stated.

Farmers Should Get Classification Applications

College Station — Growers who wish to have their cotton classed by the U. S. Department of Agriculture under provisions of the Smith-Doxey Act should apply for these services as soon as their cotton is planted, says Fred Elliott, extension cotton specialist.

The Smith-Doxey Act provides for one free classification for each eligible bale of cotton. Samples must be submitted by a bonded sampler or by a public warehouse which issues negotiable receipts, explains Elliott.

Each cotton improvement group, except those in southern Texas, must file an application with the cotton classing office serving its territory not later than August 1. Those in counties south of a line from Dimmitt to Karnes to Matagorda must file an application by June 1.

Prompt application filing is necessary because time is needed for each group to arrange for submitting samples by an approved sampling agent to the proper classing office, says Elliott. At least 15 days are required to process applications and deliver sampling supplies.

Application forms for these services may be obtained from county agents, cotton classing offices of the Cotton Division of the AMS or from the area office in Dallas.

Rev. Walker Reports Successful Revival

Rev. Troy Walker, pastor of the Trinity Baptist Church, reports a good revival at the First Baptist Church, Floyd New Mexico. Ten people accepted Christ as their personal savior and four joined the church by moving their church vices each day for eight days.

Rev. Walker preached two sermons. He believes the church was strengthened spiritually and the revival spirit will live on.

Rev. Walker wants to say "thanks" to each of his members who were faithful and carried on the church work while he was away. Rev. Billy Hatch preached both Sundays. Brother W. D. Nicewarner was in charge of the Wednesday evening prayer services.

SOIL CONSERVATION NEWS

Several cooperators with the Blackwater Valley Soil Conservation District have recently done some land leveling to increase irrigation efficiency.

Land leveling has been completed on Mrs. Nellie Dean's farm about four miles west of Muleshoe. W. C. Maxcey of Earth, who owns a farm eight miles west of Muleshoe has leveled about eight acres that had a gully through it, due to an old stream bed of the Blackwater draw. This area was leveled so that it could be watered west to east or north to south.

Riehl Williams, who lives across from roadside Park, has leveled nearly all of his farm. This will permit him to use his water

Parmer County Farm Bureau News

By RAYMOND EULER

We thought we had one of the best kick-off banquets last week that we have ever seen in this county. Tables were nicely decorated by Mrs. Joe B. Jennings and Mrs. Raymond Martensen.

The meal, arranged for by Earnest Kube and Calvin Meissner, was real good, and the Enrioma Male Quartet was enjoyed by everyone, we believe.

Warren Newberry, AFBF staff member made a very good talk to inspire the people. President Hamilton handled the meeting well and Vice President Meissner got his workers lined up in good shape.

DOES MUCH

Of course, a lot of the work that made the success possible was done by your good secretary, Nell Davis. We will give a report on the membership drive in next week's column.

In discussing Farm Bureau's National Farm Program, Bill Wedemeyer, director of research and promotion for TFB said in part, "The surest way to guarantee low prices to farmers is for the government to establish a support price above what the market will pay.

The present Secretary of Agriculture made the statement in 1961 that the price of soybeans was increased to prevent them from advancing in price. Prices cannot be supported above what the market will pay unless the government pays the difference between the established "fair price" and the "market price."

FABIAN ESSAYS

Fabian Essays on Socialism explain how Socialism (or Communism) eliminates free enterprise by "due process of law" this way: "The government owned industries, operating with government credit behind them, will begin to choke off private enterprise.

After while the private producers will disappear, not because there will be any law against individualist production, but because they will not pay. Do these ring a bell for you? Farm Bureau opposes, by resolution and action, socialism and communism wherever they and whenever they may appear.

Your membership strengthens this opposition. Farm Bureau is for free enterprise in farming or industry, large or small operations.

CONSIDER THIS: As the cold of snow in time of harvest, so is a faithful messenger to them that send him: for he refresheth the souls of his masters. Proverbs 25:13.

Lazbuddie People Attend National Farm Union Meet

Those attending the convention were: Mrs. O. D. Spitzer, Mr. and Mrs. Wyle Bullock and Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Lesley, all of Lazbuddie.

The meeting which ended Thursday, March 22, was highlighted by addresses from the Secretary of Agriculture, Orville Freeman; the Secretary of Labor, Arthur Goldberg; Peace Corps Director, Sargent Shriver; G. Mennen Williams, the assistant secretary of State for African Affairs; Mrs. Margaret Price, Vice Chairman and Director of Woman's Affairs, Democratic National Committee; Wayne Darrow, editor of the popular Washington Farmletter and John A. Baker, Director of Agricultural Credit Services for the Department of Agriculture.

NFU President James G. Patton set the tone of the significant meeting with a stimulating address in which he called for the United States to take the driver's seat now in the "race for Peace."

Some 1,000 delegates and guests from throughout the country were on hand for the convention. Highlight of the meeting was the presentation of the Farmers Union award to Secretary of Agriculture Freeman for "outstanding service to agriculture" during the past year.

GOOD FARMING IS MORE THAN BUYING A LOAD OF FERTILIZER

THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN PROFIT AND LOSS MAY DEPEND ON EFFICIENT USE OF FERTILIZER

Follow the fertilizers recommended by your state agricultural experiment station.

Remember that fertilizers are used to supplement the natural fertility of the soil and plant food obtained from farm manure and crop residues.

Consider the requirements of the rotation as a whole, as well as the plant food needs of the particular crop. Remember that fertilizers do not take the place of organic matter, good seed, proper cultivation or good crop rotation.

Fight Weeds, insects and plant diseases.

Select an analysis containing all the plant foods which your soil will not supply in adequate quantities to the crop that is to be grown.

Use adequate quantities of recommended fertilizers to obtain the most profitable yields of high quantity crops.

Apply fertilizers at the right time and use an approved method of application to obtain the best results for each crop.

Fertilizers can be used most efficiently when the farmer knows the strong points and weaknesses of his soils and can choose the fertilizer grade that fits his particular needs.
