Linda Barrientez, an election official during Early Voting, shows how to mark a ballot on the touch-screen system.

Polls Open Tuesday For General Election

Voting poll locations in Lynn County will be open from 7 a.m. until 7 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 7 for voting in the General Election. Early voting has been underway since Oct. 23 and continues this week through Friday, Nov. 3, during normal business hours at the Lynn County Courthouse. As of Tuesday morning, 247 voters had cast ballots during early voting.

All voters should bring their voter registration cards when voting.

Voters will mark paper ballots either by hand by filling in an oval space next to the candidate of their choice, or by feeding the ballot into an electronic voting machine which will mark the voter's choices on the ballot.

If voting electronically, a voter marks their choices by a touch-screen system that is easy to understand and offers directions in a step-by-step method. The marked ballot is then printed out for the voter, who will then hand-feed their marked ballot into an M100 ballot tabulator, which electronically counts all votes. Election officials will be available to assist anyone to help them use the new electronic system.

Voting will be conducted at eight locations throughout the county, although some voting boxes (Draw, Grassland, Hackberry, New Moore, Lakeview, and North Lynn County) are being consolidated with other boxes for this election. See a complete list of voting locations below.

Several local positions are on the ballot, although all are unopposed.

County positions on the ballot include Lynn County Judge, with H.G. Franklin seeking re-election; District Clerk, Sandra Laws seeking re-election; County Clerk, Susan Tipton seeking re-election; County Treasurer, Pam Miller running unopposed; Justice of Peace Pct. 1, Ginger Henry running unopposed; Justice of Peace Pct. 4, Ed Follis seeking re-election; County Commissioner Pct. 2, Mike Braddock seeking re-election; County Commissioner Pct. 4, Brad Hammonds running unopposed. A write-in candidate has also filed for the position of Lynn County Attorney, Donnis Scott, who is already serving in that position after being appointed by county commissioners to fill a vacancy left by the resignation of Brian Kingston.

There is a contested race for District Judge, 106th Judicial District, with incumbent Judge Carter Schildknecht seeking re-election on the Republican ticket, and challenger James J. Napper running on the Democratic ticket. The 106th Judicial District is comprised of Lynn, Garza, Gaines and Dawson counties.

Contested races are also on the ballot for U.S. Senator, U.S. Representative District 19, State Representative District 85, Governor, and others. A list of four declared write-in candidates will be posted at voting polls. To vote for a write-in candidate, a voter must write in the name of the candidate on the line provided and fill in the oval provided to the left of the line.

Flu Shots Available At Friday Health Fair

Flu shots and a variety of health tests and information, and even an opportunity to learn how to perform CPR at a quick training session, will be offered this Friday, Nov. 3 at a County-Wide Adult Health Fair at The Center for Housing and Community Development, located at 1400 Ave. K in Tahoka. The event is sponsored by Lynn County Hospital District, and healthcare officials will be on hand to answer questions and visit with attendees.

The Health Fair will begin at 9 a.m. and continue until 3 p.m., and admission is free. Flu shots will be available at a cost of $15, but all other health testing will be offered at no charge, including bone density tests, hemoglobin, blood pressure and oxygen saturation level tests, and glucose and cholesterol tests.

Take a few minutes to learn how to perform CPR at a quick training session, and fill out lifesaver cards to carry your medical information with you at all times. Get information about long-term health care, oxygen and medical equipment, and cardiac health.

Physical health and fitness specialists will be on hand, and there will also be information available about gun safety, fire prevention, smoke detector use, and electrical safety.

It's all free, with the exception of the flu shots (eligible Medicare beneficiaries please bring your cards for flu shots), and all provided by our local hospital and other area businesses.

Lynn County Hospital District is also planning to offer a Children's Health Fair at Tahoka ISD on Nov. 17.

Lynn County Jail Passes Annual Test

Lynn County jail was given full accreditation rating after the annual inspection last week by a representative of the Texas Jail Standards Commission, Sheriff Jerry D. Franklin reported this week.

Sheriff's officers and Tahoka Police handled mostly routine cases during the last week, primarily incidents related to traffic violations and liquor law violations.

Six persons were jailed during the last week in Lynn County, bringing the total jail population early this week to 41, including 14 held for Garza County, two for Gaines and one for Lubbock.

Two persons were arrested for driving while intoxicated, third offense or more, with one of these also charged with having no drivers license. Others were jailed for driving while license suspended, Potter County warrant, driving while license was invalid, and possession of marijuana and another controlled substance.

During the month of October, dispatchers at Lynn County Sheriff's Dept. processed 236 calls, including 113 for the county, 93 for City of Tahoka, 16 ambulance calls, two fire alarms and 12 calls for O'Donnell Police Dept.

woodwork by dalton

SEEMS TO ME that about the only people who don't have cell phones to use every day are the people who are locked up inside cells, where you would think these things originated. Well, let me back off that statement just a bit. A lot of older people don't have cell phones. Most of these don't have computers, either, and some have just now accepted the idea of using TV sets and microwave ovens.

Cell phones, like computers, are a mixed blessing. They are handy when you get used to having one with you all the time, and they're good for staying in contact with friends and family. But they often are misused, as by drivers who pay no attention to their driving while talking on the phone, and people who have phones ringing all the time in public places such as restaurants, meetings and even in church.

Your phone rings in church because you forgot to turn it off. You dash back to the foyer and whisper "Hello?" and you hear, "This is God. If you don't want to listen to the preacher, please turn off your phone so others can concentrate in My house."

Kids as well as adults use their phones constantly. I was standing in line at Furr's Cafeteria once when the person just behind me called someone at the front of the line to let them know they were back there. High school and college students do a lot of calling and also a lot of text messaging to each other, right in the classroom. Susie at the front of the room feels her phone vibrating and cautiously looks at the message from Mary Jo at the rear of the room: "What's the answer to No. 4? You know, the question about when was the War of 1812?"

Along with the convenience of having a cell phone comes some problems, like having to replace it sometimes (your provider then offers you a big discount on the price of a phone, but you have to sign up for a new plan or extend the one you have for the next 11 years). I had to pay full price of a hundred bucks on one of mine which quit working while I was on a trip far from home. All I did was accidentally drop it into the toilet.

I went out to the Lynn County jail and learned that the people locked up in cells out there mostly don't have phones. I thought that was where the name came from.

Jim Landtroop. Conservative West Texas Values. Integrity We Can Trust.

In West Texas, we want leaders who aren't afraid to stand firm for the values important to our region.

Jim Landtroop is just that person. He's a 5th generation Texan and a conservative Republican who will work to make state government more efficient. A Plainview small business owner, he believes in lower taxes, less government, educational excellence and traditional values.

As someone who led the traditional marriage campaign in his county, Jim Landtroop will strongly oppose gay marriage. He's the only candidate endorsed by Texas Right to Life, and Jim supports mandatory life sentences for sexual predators who prey on our children. He and his wife Cathy have three children: Braden, Kenneth, and Lauren Grace.

"Jim is dedicated to God, his family, and this region. With his experience, common sense, and West Texas values, we can count on him to be a strong conservative voice for us in Austin. Whether fighting for jobs, protecting our schools, defending agriculture, or standing up for pro-life, pro-family values, Jim will make us proud."

My name is James J. Napper and I am running for the office of District Judge. I am the son and grandson of Dawson County farmers and a proud sixth-generation Texan. I graduated from Lamesa High School, the University of Texas, and received a Doctor of Jurisprudence degree from U.T. School of Law. I have been practicing law for over 14 years with 12 years in this district, primarily in the area of criminal, family, estate and business law. I have also served as County Attorney for Lynn County for seven years, which gave me experience both in county government, and as a criminal prosecutor.

I am married to Gina Slover Napper, a graduate of Lamesa High School and Texas Tech University. She is a teacher in the O'Donnell Independent School District and a Girl Scout leader. We are the proud parents of a ten-year old daughter, Chesney, who is a fifth grade student at O'Donnell Elementary.

Thankfully, I have a successful law practice, and I enjoy my professional and civic commitments. Above all, I believe in our judicial system. It is the finest accomplishment that man has devised for handling problems and conflicts in a civilized society. However, for our judicial system to work, it must be fair, reasonable, and impartial. Furthermore the judges occupying the benches in our courts must not only be fair, reasonable and impartial, but they should not use their judgeship as a political tool or as a means to secure business for their own or other's private enterprises. Most importantly, the judge should not be above the law; and should obey the laws, including all traffic laws and regulations of the State of Texas.

I am a candidate for your District Judge because I believe in the impartiality of our judicial system, and I believe that all of us have the right to expect a fair, reasonable and impartial judge. If elected, my promise to you, the voters, is this: I will not use the office of District Judge as a political tool. I will not place myself, my family, or my friends above the law. Not only will I uphold the laws, I will obey the laws, including traffic laws and regulations. I believe a judge, in particular, must be very careful in his or her judgments.

The Bible speaks on this issue:

"Do not pervert justice; do not show partiality to the poor or favoritism to the great, but judge your neighbor fairly."
Lev. 19:15, NIV

Status of the various programs of the hospital was presented by Administrator Jim Morris. The only action requiring a vote, other than approval of minutes and payment of bills, was a motion to delay until the next meeting a review of the room rate structure at Lynnwood.

Board President Jerry Ford presided. Other members present were Dalton Wood, Billy Tomlinson, Regina Barnes, and Jannis Horwood. Absent were members Cal Huffaker and Joan Knox.

Anyone who knows me well knows that I enjoy a good competition. However, I do not enjoy or appreciate baseless insinuations, misrepresentations, or distortions of the facts. I am disappointed that my opponent has chosen to run a campaign that violates both the provisions of the Code of Judicial Conduct and the standards of common decency.

Please be assured that when making judicial decisions, I impartially apply the law to the particular facts in each case, and when making administrative decisions, I use my best business judgment to run our District Court as efficiently as possible.

It is my honor and privilege to serve you. I respectfully ask for your support and your vote to allow me to continue the work I am doing as judge of the 106th Judicial District. Thank you very much.

Maybe I Should Throw It ... Bulldog QB Damon Moore considers passing the ball as he is pursued by Edgar Garay (5) of Post in the final quarter of last week's game won by Tahoka 22-21 in overtime. It was the first win for Tahoka over Post in 16 years. (LCN PHOTO by Gary Jones)

Bulldogs' Gamble Pays Off

By KENT ELLIOTT

The Tahoka Bulldogs rolled the dice and came up big winners with a 22-21 victory over Post Friday night. Having seen Post score a touchdown in their overtime possession, the Bulldogs knew what they had to do, and Lance Murphy scored from the 1-yard line to set up the dramatic finish.

Rather than settle for the extra point try that would have tied the game again, Tahoka head coach Jay Hellums decided to go for the win. Lance Murphy scampered into the end zone on a play best described as "student body left" made famous at USC. With the 2-point conversion the Bulldogs broke out with a grand celebration enjoyed by their fans.

The Bulldogs improved their season record to 5-3 and notched their first district win.

Post dropped to 1-2 in district and 2nd 6 for the season. It was Tahoka's first victory over Post in a varsity football game in 14 years; the last time was a 16-12 win in 1992.

The Dogs broke out fast in the first quarter. Ja-vaen (Jay) Tillman tight-roped the right sideline for a touchdown from 11 yards out and added the kick to put Tahoka up 7-0. The highlight of the drive was a 30-yard run by QB Damon Moore. The Bulldogs added to their lead seconds later when Josh Hawthorne stripped the ball from a Post ball carrier and dashed 38 yards for the score. With Tillman's extra point, Tahoka was up 14-0.

Post proved to be a worthy adversary as the Antelopes came fighting back. In a surprise move, the Antelopes moved Wilson Cash to QB from his normal halfback position. Cash had played QB two years ago and his experience paid off as he tossed 3 touchdown passes to DJ Baiza. The first one was from 5 yards out and the second was from 11 yards, tying the score 14-14 at the half with extra points by Blake Nichols and Zach Sanchez.

There was no scoring in the second half so Tahoka played their second overtime in school history. (The first was against Seagraves a few years back.)

Post was on offense first in overtime and scored with Cash hitting Baiza for the hat trick and the 6 points. That, plus the extra point put Post up by 7.

Tahoka answered, though, as Lance Murphy, subbing for Tillman, who was injured early in the third period, scored a touchdown, setting up the exciting two-point try.

Tillman gained 81 yards in 16 carries despite playing in just three quarters. Moore, also gained 81 yards rushing, including a 49-yard gain, and Murphy carried 11 times for 40 yards. Britt Wuensche gained 26 yards in 11 carries, and also caught a pass of 29 yards. Tahoka's other pass completion was a 28-yard throw from Moore to Daniel Baker. Moore, Hawthorne and Baker all did well on defense, as did Kyle Preston, who recovered a fumble.

Next up for the 'Dogs are the D.C. Mustangs, playing in Denver City on Friday, Nov. 3.

Questions and Answers of the Day

John 13 (Foot Washing: An act of love, humbling, obedience, example.)

Question: As God's children how do you feel about foot washing?

In John 13 it was before the Passover feast, Jesus knew He was about to die. It says He loved His own which were in the world. Then it says the supper was ended, and Jesus stood up and did what probably seemed like an odd thing. He stood up, and took off His clothes. He got a towel and girded himself. He poured water into a basin and began to wash the disciples' feet. Simon Peter really had a problem with this. He told Jesus, "Lord, you will never wash my feet." I guess it was beyond Simon's fleshly comprehension that God, in the flesh should bow down Himself and wash his feet of all things. Simon didn't realize that Jesus was given a humble example to go by. Not unlike communion, foot washing is a symbolic gesture from God for us to do. Jesus told Simon that if he didn't wash his feet, he was not part of Him. Jesus knew one of these men would betray Him, but He washed all their feet. (Forgiveness). In verses 12-20, the thing He says is this, "Do you know what I have done to you?" He said "you call me Lord and Master and you say well: for so I am." Verse 14, "If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; ye also ought to wash one another's feet." Verse 15: "I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you." Verse 16: "Verily I say unto you, the servant is not greater than his Lord; neither he that is sent greater than HE that sent him." Jesus goes on to say that they who do these things will be happy. Don't be ashamed of this foot washing. You don't have to undress to do it. It is the will of God.

In Jesus name. May God bless you.

HER FUTURE COULD BE RIDING ON ONE VOTE.

STOP PRIVATE SCHOOL VOUCHERS!

Last year, the Texas House came within ONE VOTE of approving private school vouchers.

The bill would have taken money from Texas public schools to pay for children in big cities to attend elite private schools.

This year's election will decide who replaces our representative, Pete Laney, who championed our public schools and always said "No" to vouchers. Joe Heflin, like Pete Laney, opposes private school vouchers. But Heflin's opponent supports vouchers.

Don't be fooled. Private school vouchers anywhere in Texas mean less money for our public schools.

And the state's biggest advocate for private school vouchers, controversial South Texas billionaire James Leininger, has given thousands of dollars to Heflin's opponent and other candidates who support private school vouchers.

Here's one more fact: Heflin's opponent sends his children to private school.

If elected, Heflin's opponent will cast his vote for vouchers. The big city private schools would win and our children's public schools would lose – ultimately billions of dollars statewide.

There's only one sure way to guarantee a vote for our public schools. VOTE FOR JOE HEFLIN.

Tax Money

A previous advertisement reflecting the expenses of Judge Carter Schildknecht's office was misleading. First, the budget is the responsibility of the County Judge and Commissioners Court. They establish the boundaries on expenditures.

A comparison to Judge Hansard's expenditures may not be fair. During his final year in office, his health forced him to retire, and the expenditures of his office did not reflect a full year.

The County's District Court budget for Judge Hansard's final year in office (September 30, 2001) was $349,201. The budget for Judge Schildknecht's office for the year just ended was $386,692, reflecting an annual growth of 2.15%. Judge Schildknecht's actual expenditures for this year ended September 30, 2006 was $320,321, which was $66,371 under budget.

Laws have changed, expenditures and budgets have increased, but this office's expenses were $28,880 under the approved budget amount from five years earlier.

The $40,000 remodeling project mentioned in the ad was not for the District Judge's office. There was a $40,353.74 courtroom remodeling project during the year ended September 30, 2004 – nearly three years after Judge Schildknecht took office. This cost was for remodeling and updating the courtroom, the jury room and surrounding areas. The Commissioners Court is charged with maintaining Capital Infrastructure. This remodeling project was authorized by them and paid out of the General Fund as a normal cost of maintaining the Dawson County Courthouse. It was not an expense of the District Judge, nor should it have been.

I obtained this information from Public Records within the Dawson County Courthouse.

Old Mill Trade Days This Weekend In Post

Old Mill Trade Days in Post this weekend will feature the Buddy & Tina Wright Band performing at noon Saturday on the Rainmaker Stage. "Buddy & Tina Wright" were a big hit here last year. Rosa Latimer, General Manager of OMTD, said, "Their musical abilities are amazing and we are fortunate to have them in Post. They have toured the southwestern part of the United States and in Europe and have opened shows for Randy Travis, Keb' Mo. and Waylon Jennings. Because of their age (Buddy is 19 and Tina is 17), many are surprised when they explode with very traditional, technically precise bluegrass music."

The November 3-5 event at Trade Days is the first of three events leading up to the holidays. A special Thanksgiving event will be November 24-26, followed by the December event the next weekend, December 1-3.

New event hours at Old Mill Trade Days are: 11 am to 5 pm Friday and Sunday, 9 am to 5 pm Saturday. Admission on Friday is $1.00 for adults/free for Senior citizens. Saturday and Sunday admission is $2.00 for adults. Children under 10 are admitted free when accompanied by an adult and parking is always free. For more information, call 806-495-3529 or email okmilltradedays.com.

A Children's Art Contest is also being offered at Old Mill Trade Days. Entries for the "What I Love About Christmas" children's art contest should be postmarked or delivered by Saturday, Nov. 4. Artwork can be brought to the OMTD office, 318 So. Avenue F in Post, Monday – Friday, 9 am to 5 pm or mailed to OMTD, Box 898, Post, TX 79356. Entries can also be scanned and emailed, to tradedays@oldmilltradedays.com. For additional information, contact OMTD at 806-495-3529.

There will be a first, second and third place winner in each age group: Preschool & Kindergarten, 1st through 3rd Grade, and 4th through 6th Grade. All entries will be displayed throughout Old Mill Trade Days during the November and December events. Winners will be announced on the Rainmaker Stage at Old Mill Trade Days, December 2.

Wilson Students of Month ... Wilson ISD Students of the Month for October are Angel Lopez, 3rd grade; Peggy Jackson, 6th grade; and Yessica Gonzalez, 12th grade. "Students of the month demonstrate excellent work, terrific behavior, and leadership skills," says a Wilson ISD representative.

Recipe Corner

from Martha White® Kitchens

Sheet cakes are almost always baked in 13x9-inch pans, and there are several kinds — basic aluminum, non-stick, disposable aluminum or glass baking dishes. They will all work fine — just remember to reduce the baking temperature 25 degrees when using dark nonstick or glass pans. Dark surfaces and glass absorb heat, so they cook more quickly than a shiny pan. Oven temperature is important when baking a cake. If you don't have an oven thermometer, get an inexpensive one at the grocery store, and check the temperature of your oven.

Sour Cream Chocolate Sheet Cake

2 cups Martha White® All-Purpose Flour

2 cups sugar
1 cup wafer
3/4 cup sour cream
1/4 cup butter, softened
1 teaspoon soda
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon vanilla
1/4 teaspoon baking powder
2 eggs
4 oz. unsweetened baking chocolate, melted and cooled

Heat oven to 350° F. Grease bottom of 13x9-inch baking pan. In large bowl, combine all cake ingredients, beat on low speed 30 seconds, scraping bowl constantly. Beat on high speed 3 minutes, scraping bowl occasionally. Pour into prepared pan. Bake at 350° F. for 25 to 30 minutes or until toothpick inserted in center comes out clean. Cool.
