Local Church Sends 1600 Bibles In "Operation Worship" Campaign

First Baptist Church of Tahoka has joined with other churches and individuals across the United States to participate in an Operation Worship campaign to distribute Bibles to soldiers, sending 1600 Bibles for the program this week.

Operation Worship is a national not-for-profit ministry whose mission is to enrich the spiritual lives of military personnel. Operation Worship will distribute copies of the Operation Worship Bible, a special edition of the New Living Translation (NLT), to troops serving in the United States military.

"What better impact can you have on a soldier than to provide them with the Word of God," said Jeff Hilliard, cofounder of Operation Worship. "No matter how we feel about the war, our soldiers need our support. There is nothing more satisfying than being able to write a message of encouragement in a Bible and forwarding it to an active-duty soldier!"

The original goal of Operation Worship was to distribute 100,000 Bibles in the 100 days of summer to military personnel serving in difficult areas around the world. That goal was met within the first forty days and the goal has now been increased to 200,000 Bibles. Operation Worship has partnered with the Christian Booksellers Association, K-LOVE Radio Network, and Tyndale House Publishers to enable customers of Christian bookstores to provide the Operation Worship Bibles.

Richard Harbison, pastor of First Baptist Church in Tahoka, said, "When I heard about this tremendous opportunity to place the word of God in the hands of men and women serving our country in war zones, I knew we needed to be a part of this effort. Our original goal for First Baptist Church was 1000 Bibles but we quickly exceeded that amount. By the end of the campaign our church had purchased 1600 Bibles," he said.

"Each Bible has a word of encouragement written in the front. Studies show that people are most open to the word of God in times of crisis or in times of change. These young men and women are facing the most stressful situations of their lives and we feel privileged to be able to place the word of hope in their hands," added the pastor.

Operation Worship Bibles are still available for purchase at Mardel Christian Bookstore in Lubbock or by visiting www.operationworship.com.

Bibles for Soldiers ... First Baptist Church of Tahoka sent 1600 Bibles this week to soldiers through the "Operation Worship" campaign. Pastor Richard Harbison is shown with the Bibles in the church sanctuary. The Bibles are a special edition of the New Living Translation that is being sent to troops serving in the United States military. FBC joins other Christians nationwide with a goal of providing 200,000 Operation Worship Bibles to active-duty soldiers. FBC members wrote a personal word of encouragement in the front of each Bible.

New Home ISD Sets Tax Rate

New Home Independent School District Board of Trustees approved their 2008-09 budget and set a new tax rate for the district, slightly lower than the previous year's property tax rate. The new tax rate will be $1.24780, lower by about a penny from last year's $1.25668 due to a slightly lower I&S rate for paying bonded indebtedness in the district.

The rate includes $1.17 tax rate for Maintenance and Operating (M&O), and $0.7780 tax rate for Interest and Sinking (I&S).

WE NOW ARE a few days into the month of September, the ninth month of the year. The word September actually comes from the Latin word septem, which means seven, and if that confuses you, please be advised that September was the seventh month of the year under the early Roman calendar. It became the ninth month when the ancient Romans moved the start of the year from March to Jan. 1.

I don't know why they changed it. If you really want to know, ask any ancient Roman you know.

According to the World Book, on Sept. 22 or 23 we will have the autumnal equinox. The encyclopedia explains that this means on that day, the sun shines directly on the equator, and the lengths of day and night are nearly equal.

There are lots of historical events claimed by September, but since 9-11, 2001, the month is mainly known for the cowardly, murderous attack on the World Trade Center in New York City and the Pentagon building near Washington D.C. Next Thursday will be the seventh anniversary of the Muslim terrorists' attack.

September has long been a month for harvesting crops and today, many cultures still hold September harvest celebrations (like the Harvest Festival in Tahoka). Several religious holidays come in September, such as the Jewish New Year, and other celebrations in the month include Mexican independence day, the birth of Confucius (Chinese god of confusion?) and Labor Day.

Labor Day falls on the first Monday of September in Canada and the U.S. In fact, it fell last Monday, injuring several picnickers and golfers around here.

The World Book says flowers associated with September are the morning glory and the aster. I never heard of that last one, but my wife knows a lot about flowers and plants, so next time she's willing to talk to me, I'll aster.

SPEAKING of Sept. 11, I was not aware until this week that on that day in 1862, American short story writer William Sydney Porter was born. He wrote under the name of O. Henry.

I know that I read some of his short stories in high school, but I can't remember anything about any of them. I remember his candy bars, though. They were great.

Suspect In Custody: Sex Assault Reported

A suspect in the Aug. 21 sexual assault of a woman living north of Tahoka has been arrested and is in jail. Lynn County sheriff's officers reported this week. Charges in the assault have not been filed, pending the return of DNA evidence obtained in the case.

The suspect was arrested the same day as the attack, however, after the victim, the mother of two young children, named the suspect she said she recognized when he broke into her home early that morning.

The woman said the man broke into the residence about 7 a.m. just after her husband had left for work, leaving her there with the children. She was treated at Lynn County Hospital for a neck injury and other bruises which she said occurred when she was dragged by her hair. She did escape after the attack and ran to a neighbor's home to call officers.

In other law enforcement activity during the last week, police arrested an 18-year-old Tahoka youth on a warrant for burglary of a vehicle, and a 106th district grand jury returned several indictments, including one of burglary of a habitation against Lucas Gutierrez, 27, of Tahoka.

Jail population totaled 45 this week, after 13 persons were arrested, on these charges: assault/family violence, DWI plus false report to a police officer, application to revoke probation on DWI, APR on furnishing alcohol to a minor, failure to appear on theft by check charges, DWI third or more, possession of dangerous drugs, bond surrender on theft in Bailey County, driving while license suspended and possession of controlled substance.

During August dispatchers processed 316 calls, including 147 for the city, 128 for the county, 18 for O'Donnell, 18 ambulance calls and five fire alarms.

GIVE YOUR CHILD HEALTHY SELF-ESTEEM

A healthy self-esteem is a child's armor against the challenges of the world, according to Dr. David Sheslow of KidHealth.org. Kids who feel good about themselves seem to have an easier time handling conflicts and resisting negative pressures. These kids are realistic and generally optimistic and enjoy life more.

What Is Self-Esteem? Self-esteem is the collection of beliefs or feelings we have about ourselves - our "self-perceptions." How we define ourselves influences our motivations, attitudes, and behaviors and affects our emotional adjustment.

With the beginning of another school year underway as parents we need to be aware of how the added pressures will work on our children's self esteem. We need to make an extra effort to help keep their esteem healthy. How can you participate in promoting healthy self-esteem in your children?

These tips can make a big difference:

Watch what you say. Kids are very sensitive to parents' words. Remember to praise your child not only for a job well done, but also for effort. But be truthful. Reward effort and completion instead of outcome.

Be a positive role model.

Nurture your own self-esteem, and your child will have a great role model. If you're excessively harsh on yourself, pessimistic, or unrealistic about your abilities and limitations, your child may eventually mirror you.

Identify and redirect your child's inaccurate beliefs. It's important for parents to identify kids' irrational beliefs about themselves, whether they're about perfection, attractiveness, ability, or anything else. Helping kids set more accurate standards and be more realistic in evaluating themselves will help them have a healthy self-concept. Inaccurate perceptions of self can take root and become reality to kids.

Be spontaneous and affectionate. Your love will go a long way to boost your child's self-esteem. Give hugs and tell kids you're proud of them. Pop an encouraging note in your child's lunchbox. Give praise frequently and honestly, without overdoing it. Kids can tell whether something comes from the heart.

We will continue this discussion next week. But for now you can still play an important role in helping a child feel better about their self. When you hear someone make a negative comment about themselves, call attention to it and point out something that they should feel good about.

Dogs Ousted In Season Opener

by Ben Freitag
THS Journalism

After 45 minutes of weather delays, the Tahoka Bulldogs lost to the Crosbyton Chiefs 28-14 on Friday, Aug. 29.

Michael Gonzalez led the team in rushing yards with 142. During the third quarter, Gonzalez ran the ball to the one-yard line and was tackled, fumbling the ball. Seth Hawthorne recovered the fumble to score. Mitchell Chapa, who also had 50 passing yards, scored a touchdown as well.

Jamie Bingham kicked and made two extra-point field goals.

Defensively, Allen Henderson led the team in tackles with eight, beating Adrian Webster by only one. Webster also led the team in assists.

The Bulldogs will play Denver City on their home field on Sept. 5.

Hospital Capturing Lost Revenues

Lynn County Hospital District is now capturing revenues from procedures and services that are now billable under CMS guidelines, although a statement in last week's Lynn County News article attributed the savings to "a change in addressing a longtime omission in billing procedures," Hospital Administrator Jim Morris explained this week.

"It is a restructuring of the hospital's services provided by the hospital district," he said, noting that the implication in last week's article was that the billing department had made mistakes, or omissions in billing procedures.

The statement in the News article last week said, "The board noted that Morris had saved the hospital about $100,000 this year by addressing a longtime omission in billing procedures."

"That is a misunderstanding," Morris told The News this week. "We had a review conducted by an outside firm that updated our charge master in comparison to other hospitals comparable to our size, scope and location. This actually has nothing to do with our billing department, who are experienced and efficient at what they do, and actually go above and beyond to do their jobs well," he explained.

He added that this is an ongoing quarterly review due to the ever-changing environment of CMS policies and regulations and not a billing issue.

New Ambulance ... Lynn County Hospital District EMS has recently purchased a new Ambulance and it will be in service in the area soon. The new ambulance will be used as the primary emergency vehicle, with older ambulances staying in service to be used as backup if the need arises. Funds for the new vehicle came from money raised at the Fun/Food Fest held annually in April, donations to the EMS Memorial Fund and from a grant. "Due to the generosity of local folks we were able to order and purchase our ambulance quickly and we appreciate everyone who donated in any way," stated EMS Coordinator Jeanie Stone.

City-County Library To Be Closed Sept. 5 For Reorganization

The City-County Library in Tahoka will be closed Friday, September 5 so that the adult fiction section may be reorganized.

According to Library Director Claudia Guin, the library has undergone substantial growth in the 11 years it has been housed in the Life Enrichment Center. "Even with a massive weeding effort, there are certain sections of the library that are simply out of room," stated Guin. "We will be incorporating some sections that were previously separate into the regular fiction section."

The library will reopen for regular hours on Saturday, September 6.

"Are You Angry?"
Read Matthew 18:21-35
"If you forgive others their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you; but if you do not forgive others, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses."
– Matthew 6:14-15 (NRSV)
Mother and Dad were not together when I was growing up, and my dad was never around to nurture and encourage me. He never attended any of my football or basketball games or came to hear me play the French horn ... He was not at any of my graduation ceremonies. I never really complained to my dad about these things because I knew he had another family in another place. I just maintained a quiet resentment toward him.
God wanted me to forgive my dad and found ways of speaking to me. Once I bumped into a pastor who knew Dad and told me that he wanted to know how I was doing. When she noticed that I seemed cool at the mention of my father's name, she asked a question that began to change my life. "Are you angry at your father?" At that moment I acknowledged, for the first time, that I was angry with my dad. I had not forgiven him for not being around.
Through the faithful intervention of this pastor, God touched my heart and I saw the need to change. With time, I was able to get over my resentment. I had a relationship with my dad and was able to be at his bedside before he died. By God's grace, both of us were at peace.
THOUGHT FOR THE DAY: All people are imperfect, so we all need to receive and to extend forgiveness.
– Chauncey Stephen Nealy ... from The Upper Room
