Webster defines intolerance as "the inability to bear, or endure." I define it as the inability to tolerate anyone of another color, of a different religion, or of different opinions.

Suppose my skin is whiter than others. The difference is in the skin pigment and not in the person. Some of the smartest people have been colored, such as George Washington Carver and William L. White. The Chinese civilization is hundreds of years older than ours. So being white doesn't give us the right to be intolerant of colored people of any race.

In India and Palestine people are killing each other over religion. It is hard to believe that people can't worship their God peacefully and in their own way. I have seen a new boy or girl start to school. Because of his or her clothes we would snub them or ignore them. Don't let first impressions keep you from liking someone; give them a chance. People even you, are not always at their best.

If each of us would resolve to "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you," intolerance would vanish and this world would be a better place in time.

(By Louise Newman)

Meetings of home demonstration clubs for the remainder of April have been scheduled as follows: Louise Newman, county home demonstration agent has announced: Friendship club at 2:00 p.m., April 16; Tonk Creek club in the home of Mrs. Bruce Miller at 2:30 p.m., April 20; the Fannie Smith club in the home of Mrs. Rice Alvis, at 2:30 p.m., April 23.

The District III meeting of the Texas Home Demonstration Association will meet in the First Methodist church in Quanah at 10:00 a.m., April 22. Representatives from this county include the county delegates, Mrs. E. B. Calloway of the Fannie Smith club, Mrs. Jim Perrin, Jostelet club and Mrs. Raymond Astin, Blue Bonnet club; the council chairman, Mrs. A. M. Bird of Center Point club; the county T.H.D.A. chairman, Mrs. A. C. Denson of Blue Bonnet club; the scholarship contestant, Novis Alben of Rule 4-H club; the 1947 Gold Star winner, Jean Diers of Saperton 4-H club; and the home demonstration agent.

Club meetings on April 26, 27, 28, have been changed because of a district meeting for home demonstration agents to be held at the Community House at Iowa Park.

A good recipe for refrigerator rolls might not be news, but it will certainly provide material for conversation. In addition to the good keeping quality of the dough, it may be made into any type of dinner roll from cloverleaf to a fancy twist and not lose any of the flavor. Club leaders using it in demonstrations during March were scored in the blue ribbon class by their club members. So, here is the recipe—1 cake yeast, 1/2 cup lukewarm water, 1/2 cup fat, 1/2 cup sugar or substitute, 1 egg, 2 cups scalded milk, 2 teaspoons salt, about 8 cups sifted all-purpose flour. Soften the yeast in lukewarm water. Add the fat and sugar to the hot milk, cool and combine with the slightly beaten egg, yeast and water. Stir in the sifted flour and salt until the dough is stiff enough to knead. Follow the straight dough method as in making bread. At the end of the second kneading cut off as much dough as needed, shape as desired, and put in a warm place to double in bulk. Bake in a hot oven (425 degrees F.) for 12 to 15 minutes. Grease the surface of the remaining dough, cover, and put in the refrigerator. This dough can be kept satisfactorily for rolls for at least a week.

Maybe it is just because it is spring, but the home demonstration clubs are changing. The Pinkerton club blossomed out in a new name—the Fannie Smith Home Demonstration club in honor of Mrs. Jesse B. Smith, a leader in the movement to obtain extension work in Haskell county. A new club, the Friendship Home Demonstration club, was organized at an all-day meeting in the home of Mrs. Frank Garrett, April 2. It began with 12 charter members.

Rule Book for Civilization

Like thousands of other Americans in 1941 I bought a new car. I got an Oldsmobile. I am still using the car and getting good service out of it, and I believe I know why. A book of instructions came with it, and because I believed the people who made the car could tell me a great deal about how to run it, I studied that book carefully. I got excellent service from the automobile throughout the entire war, and am still using it.

I believe that happened because I followed the instructions of those who made the Oldsmobile. Doing that, I could expect to get good service. The whole idea seemed like good logic to me. May I submit an application for this home-made parable? If this principle works with automobiles, it should have some merit when applied to things larger and more important. Will you follow me in this application?

Handbook for Mortals

The Bible is the book of instructions from the Creator who made the world and the fullness thereof. It is the book containing the laws, rules, and advice that we mortals should read and study in order that we may know how to proceed. It is the instruction book on how to operate that part of the Creator's handiwork with which we are involved. Careful study of this instruction book will bring great dividends.

I am glad to live in a land where a National Bible Week finds enthusiastic support. This year October 20 to 26 has been so designated. Did you know that twelve of the thirteen little colonies planted along the Atlantic seaboard were founded by people who came to America seeking religious freedom? Their lives were guided and dominated by the Bible. But perhaps even they did not visualize the kind of America to come—the America to come because of what they did.

Bill of Freedoms

Later, when our Constitution was framed, the men who wrote it were men who believed the Bible and who looked upon it as God's "instruction book." These men desired to maintain for their descendants, and for posterity, the kind of individual freedom which they believed the Creator had decreed for every individual. To them, that was one of the instruction rules out of the book.

That Constitution, when adopted and amended in 1789, carried with it the greatest bill of individual freedoms that any nation has ever enjoyed. Under these freedoms, America developed the greatest measure of well-being and prosperity that any segment of mankind has ever developed on this earth. It may be said, without any doubt, that the freedoms and liberties which brought our prosperity grew directly from the religious foundation laid by our forefathers.

I am glad to feel that we Americans are so dedicated to the basic concepts of law and practice as they are found in the Bible. If we will look to God's instruction book for guidance at all times in the future, making it our source book for living, then our future is secure. Only in that way may America preserve liberty and freedom — and even civilization, through the coming decades and centuries.

VISITOR FROM MEXICO CITY IS SPEAKER AT MEETING OF MAGAZINE CLUB

The Magazine club met in the clubhouse, Friday, April 9, with the Fine Arts committee as hosts. Mrs. Carol Dean Bledsoe greeted the guests and members. Decorations were Mexican serapes on tables and over the doors and windows. Mexican pottery, pictures, baskets, trays, tinware, lacquerware, silver, inlaid wood, jewelry, purses, perfume and many trinkets made brilliant color splashes throughout the clubroom. Piano arrangement was a vivid display of Mexican flags, tinware and pottery.

After a brief business session Mrs. T. M. Diggs presented Mrs. John Banks as program director, who introduced her sister, Mrs. Jack D. Dickson of Mexico, D.F., for the afternoon entertainer. In her own inimitable manner she took her guests on an imaginary trip to Mexico, D.F., and welcomed them in her hospitable home. Her house is furnished mostly in handmade mahogany furniture. She described minutely the making of pottery, copper, tin, silver and lacquerware, serapes, costume jewelry, embroidered costumes, holding each object up for inspection. She narrated the pathetic story of the Virgin of Guadalupe and why the Mexicans pay homage to her instead of the Virgin Mary. Mrs. Dickson and Mrs. D. E. Maury of Dallas conducted a raffle game and many lovely gifts were won by lucky ticket holders.

Mrs. Dickson, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Wallace Cox, very capably interpreted the famous Spanish dance, "El Oachito". Mrs. Dickson thrilled her audience by dancing in a handsome embroidered Mexican net costume, and by dancing with perfect abandon, interpreted women's emotions during a party or festival occasion. Mrs. Banks said she had always believed that her sister could do most anything, but they both owed what they had learned through their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Burchard of Temple, Texas, who were present for this remarkable program.

A refreshment plate was served to guests and members: Mesdames Diggs, Fields, John Couch, Carlton Couch, R. C. Couch Jr., Tomm, Reid, R. L. Wichita Valley and Denver Railroad Vacation Trips In Contest

Contest, with a 10-day escorted Colorado trip as the prize to each winner, has been announced by Fort Worth — Denver in observance of its 75th anniversary. The subject of the essays submitted in this contest is to be "The History of Fort Worth and Denver City Railway (or The Wichita Valley Ry.) in My Home County."

It is pointed out by the railroad that a wealth of material on early history of Fort Worth, West

Texas, and the Panhandle is tied closely to the history of the railroad itself, and that all historical data is acceptable for the essays submitted, such as county records, stories or incidents recalled and related by old settlers, old newspaper articles, supported by early day photographs of the railroad's construction or operation.

Detailed information relating to the contest rules and all of the features of this Diamond Jubilee celebration are to be shown in a series of advertisements to appear in newspapers throughout the West Texas area served by the railroad, during the next six weeks.

Five contest districts have been designated, and the counties in which these railroads operate have been allocated to each district. They are: Fort Worth District, Wichita Falls District, Amarillo District, Lubbock District and Abilene District.

The Abilene District embraces the counties of Knox, Haskell, Jones, Taylor, Stonewall, Kent, and Dickens.

The winning essay in each district is to be adjudged by a competent, impartial team of three local judges in each of the towns named; the judges to be announced later.

Each district winner will be brought to Fort Worth for an entertainment.

"This contest should be particularly appealing to high school, college, and university students, and any others interested in winning a 10-day vacation trip to Colorado's mountains," said Robert L. Hoyt, General Passenger Agt. All agents and representatives of these railroads will be in position to give information and answer questions.

All essays submitted must be delivered to a ticket agent of Ft. Worth & Denver City Ry., or The Wichita Valley Ry., or sent in by mail, address as follows:

Abilene District, which includes Haskell; Burlington Lines General Agent, 719 Mims Building, Abilene, Texas.

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain
Cardui, many women say, has brought relief from the cramp-like aches and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion, thus help build resistance for the "time" to come. Started 3 days before "your time", it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes. Try it!

 County ***
Agricultural Agent
Texas A. & M. College
Extension Service
(F. W. Martin)

If you are a poultryman who has been wondering just what the egg production your flock is, here is your chance to find out. F. W. Martin, County Agent, announces a ten month egg laying contest beginning October 1, 1948, and running until July 1, 1949, sponsored by the Texas Extension Service.

nounced at this time so Texas poultrymen will have a chance to purchase their baby chicks now, and have them in production when the contest gets under way next October.

The rules and regulations of the contest as well as application blanks for entering and monthly report blanks may be secured at the office of the county agent. These monthly report cards are filled out at the end of each month and sent to the county agent's office. Since the contest is based on a record of the number of eggs per hen, and not on the number of eggs per flock, hens that die or are culled from the flock during any one month will not interfere with the progress of the contest.

The five big objectives of the contest are to get higher egg production in Texas poultry flocks, to demonstrate the value of record keeping in the poultry business, to put poultry production on a sound basis, to demonstrate the advantages of good feeding, breeding, and management and to market eggs on a quality basis when it is possible to do so. If these objectives are reached, then the contest will have been a complete success.

The contest is open to all poultry producers in Texas who own and manage 100 hens or more of not more than two breeds or varieties. However, to keep the contest on a fair basis, the R.O.P. breeders will not be allowed to enter the contest, since they are on a professional standard.

Each contestant must tell how many chickens he expects to enter at the beginning of the contest, and all pullets over four months old and all hens on the farm must be entered.

All poultrymen who expect to enter the contest must have their entry blank turned in by Sept. 15; each contestant will be visited by the county agent between September 15 and October 15 in order to get everyone off to a good start.

When the contest ends July 31 of next year, all the records will be counted to find out who the state wide winner of poultry egg production is. The first prize is $100. The second prize is $75, and the third prize is $50. Fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh place winners will receive cash awards ranging from $25 down to $15, and the next eight high place winners get $10 each.

"You can feel sure that the extension poultrymen and the county agents will assist you any way possible with this program in your county, and if you have any further questions please write us for more information," says the extension poultry specialists.

Fish Food For The Farm Pond

It is not too late to start fertilizing the farm pond this year. But it is a good idea to get it done before the hot months of July and August, says F. W. Martin.

Fish live on the tiny plants and animals in the pond commonly referred to as "the bloom" or the plankton. The production of plankton is the first step in the production of food for the fish, since an abundant supply of plankton means more pounds of fish per acre. Fertilized ponds will grow more plankton than the unfertilized ponds, and consequently more fish.

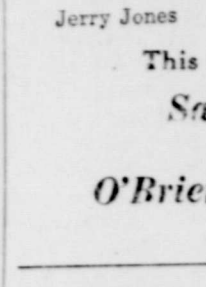

A good fertilizer to use in the farm pond or lake is a mixture of 400 pounds of cottonseed meal and 200 pounds of 20 percent acid phosphate—a total of 600 pounds of fertilizer per acre of pond area. Scatter 300 pounds of this broadcast around the edge of the pond in the spring; then at 30 day intervals apply the rest of the fertilizer 100 pounds at a time. This means that the fertilizing program for each year covers a three month period, and should be carried out so that the last application does not run into July and August. It is better to have the first application—the 300 pounds—around the first of March, then by the end of May the fertilizing program is complete; giving the plankton a good, long growing season.

Other high grade fertilizers may be used at the rate of 400 to 500 pounds per acre of pond area at monthly intervals. If the farm pond owner carries out a fertilizer program each year, he will have plenty of fish food in the pond. New ponds properly fertilized and properly stocked should be ready for fishing in 12 to 18 months. That's when the fun begins.

Cotton Insect Control

Since the 1947 cotton crop was produced several new insecticides have appeared on the market.

These new insecticides are better than anything that has been used in the past. The following are recommendations for some of the cotton insects:

Cotton Fleahopper

The following dusts at 10 pounds per acre are recommended for the most effective fleahopper control: 10% chlorinated camphene plus 40% or more sulfur, 5% RRT plus at least 75% sulfur, 3% gamma BHC plus 40% or more sulfur. Cost of material and presence of other insects should determine which of these insecticides is used. The new insecticides give a much quicker and more effective kill of fleahoppers than sulfur alone or than 1:2 mixture of calcium arsenate and sulfur.

The first application should be made when 25 fleahoppers are found per 100 terminals (plant tips) or when it is evident that small squares are blasted before they are "set." In most instances two applications at weekly or 10-day intervals have been sufficient to control the fleahopper.

Bollworm

The most effective dusts are 20% chlorinated camphene, 5%

Uncle Sam Says

What did the Secretary of the State of Wyoming say to the Banking Commissioner when they met in Cheyenne in 1937? "I'd like to find a plan to assure a comfortable retirement for myself and my family," said the Secretary of State. "Why don't you do what I am doing, buy Savings Bonds regularly out of income?" his friend replied. Today they have begun the second 10 years of their retirement plan. The Secretary of State is now Governor Lester C. Hunt, and the former Bank Commissioner is the present director of Savings Bonds sales. You, too, can emulate their example. If you invest $18.75 each month in a Series E Savings Bond of $25 maturity value over a period of 20 years and hold ALL the bonds to maturity you will receive an average yearly income of $70 for the ten years following.

plants should be watched for eggs and small worms which usually appear about the time corn silks begin to dry. Begin dusting immediately after eggs and 4 or 5 small worms are found per 100 terminals.

To control the bollworm you must apply the dust at the right time and keep the plant well covered with it throughout the period of injurious infestation.

Boll Weevil and Fleahopper

In some areas, particularly in southern Texas, fleahoppers and boll weevils often occur together in injurious numbers early in the season. When cotton first begins to fruit, dusting with one of the following insecticides, at approximately 10 pounds per acre, at weekly or 10-day intervals, is recommended: chlorinated camphene (10% or 20% concentration, depending upon whether fleahoppers or boll weevils are more injurious), 3% gamma BHC, or a mixture of 5% DDT and 3% gamma BHC.

Later in the season, when the boll weevil is more injurious than the fleahopper, materials should be applied at 5-day intervals.

To supply eggs and poultry products for a family of five, an average of 30 layers should be kept.

The first report of the Trustees of the Willow Cemetery endowment Trust was made to the board on April 4, after only six months of operation, according to R. C. Couch Sr.

To date the present members of the Trust are Mrs. Carrie Williams for the R. E. Sherrill estate, Walter Rogers, F. L. Peavey, Courtney Hunt, F. T. Sanders, Mrs. Beatrice Maples, R. C. Couch, Mrs. Henry Alexander, Fred Monke, Bertha McNeill, Mrs. D. Scott, C. F. Oman, W. E. Kirkpatrick for S. A. Hughes estate, Frank C. Scott, Mrs. P. R. Bettis, Mrs. P. R. Bettis 2nd lot, Ethel A. Irby, Mrs. Henry Johnson, Mrs. J. G. W. Pace, Layton W. Robertson, T. W. Flenniken, T. G. Carney, D. G. Carney, Juliana McGregor, Jno. A. Couch Sr., Mrs. Roy Shook, Mrs. H. R. Jones, C. J. Jones, Beatrice Weinert.

"With but very little solicitation we feel that the response has been very generous," Mr. Couch said.

Continuing, he explained: "The idea of endowment is to pay for the maintenance of your grave space for all time to come. Otherwise your space will go unkept when your children pass away and usually before that. This endowment is a trust agreement to copy of which is filed for record in the County Clerk's office of Haskell for your information. All money paid in by the participants are invested in securities approved by the Trust laws of the State, but at the present time only Gov't Bonds are being bought.

"The Endowment has two funds. One is the General fund to which go all gifts are placed, and the income from this is used in general way about the cemetery, such as keeping the streets, alleys, fence rows and other general purposes. The other is the Special Fund into which fund are placed the sums as paid in by the various lot owners taking part in the trust. At the present time the first fund mention has $4,000.00. The second fund mentioned has $5,050.00 or a total of $9,050.00. The cemetery cannot be kept without a permanent plan."

We are beginning to get worried. Our neighbors seems to be slow in planting their garden.

Flattery is one way to pave the walkway of life, but it often costs more than it is worth.

Yes—a Quiz!

on something new and fascinating—

Golden-hued Dirilyte

- Q. What is Dirilyte?
- A. It's a wonderful new metal alloy, the color of polished gold.
- Q. How is it being used?
- A. It's being made into excitingly beautiful knives, forks, spoons and dishes that bring a dazzling new sunshine to the table.
- Q. How does it compare with silver in durability?
- A. It's harder than sterling, and very scratch-resistant.
- Q. How does it compare with plate?
- A. It's solid, not plated — with Dirilyte there's nothing to wear off!
- Q. What do stylists say about it?
- A. They're mad about it. It makes possible such dramatic new color schemes. And it harmonizes with gold-decorated china and crystal — the only flatware that does!
- Q. Can it be used in both period and modern settings?
- A. Yes! The Regal pattern, with curved handles, is lovely with period china. The Empress pattern, with straight lines, is stunning for modern tables!
- Q. Is it expensive?
- A. No. It costs no more than good plate!

Didn't we say at the start that Dirilyte is fascinating? Come and see it — discover the dazzling glory of a table set with Dirilyte — discover the beautiful color harmonies you can plan with Dirilyte and your present linens, china and crystal — and discover its amazingly moderate cost!

NFLA Executives Attend Meeting Of Land Bank

J. L. Bell of Rule, member of the Board of Directors of the Haskell County National Farm Loan Association of Haskell attended the Federal Land Bank of Houston's Annual Stockholders meeting in Houston recently, as the association's representative. He was accompanied by W. H. McCandless, sec.-treas. of the association.

Mr. Bell said that the Federal Land Bank of Houston, which is owned entirely by the 144 National farm loan associations in Texas, is celebrating its 30th anniversary this spring. Local farmer and rancher-owned national farm loan associations "Are the foundation of the Land Bank System and the meeting in Houston was featured by discussion of the operations of these organizations which are set up for providing safe, long time credit at low cost, to suit the needs of land owners."

Reports at Houston showed the Texas bank to be one of the outstanding banks of the system, having served the Texas farmers and ranchers during the past 30 years by lending to them approximately $500,000,000 to about 180,000 borrowers, many thousands of these farmers have paid their loans in full and now own their homes debt free.

At this meeting the 20 secretaries of National Farm Loan Associations operating in Texas who produced the largest volume of business and had the better collecting records were honored with a special banquet at the Rice Hotel in Houston. The Haskell County National Farm Loan Association was 7th from the top of the list, Mr. Bell said.

The Federal Land Bank of Houston is now in the best financial condition of its history which condition reflects that sound loans have been made to real Texas farmers and ranchers who have that quality and perseverance to meet any and all their obligations. Mr. Bell said that there is no better security on any note than the name of a real Texas farmer.

in her clothes in her kitchen

The smart woman of today entertains at tea in a delicate lace blouse and full taffeta skirt—entertains with ease for her automatic gas range built to "CP" standards bakes the delicate tea accompaniments she serves.

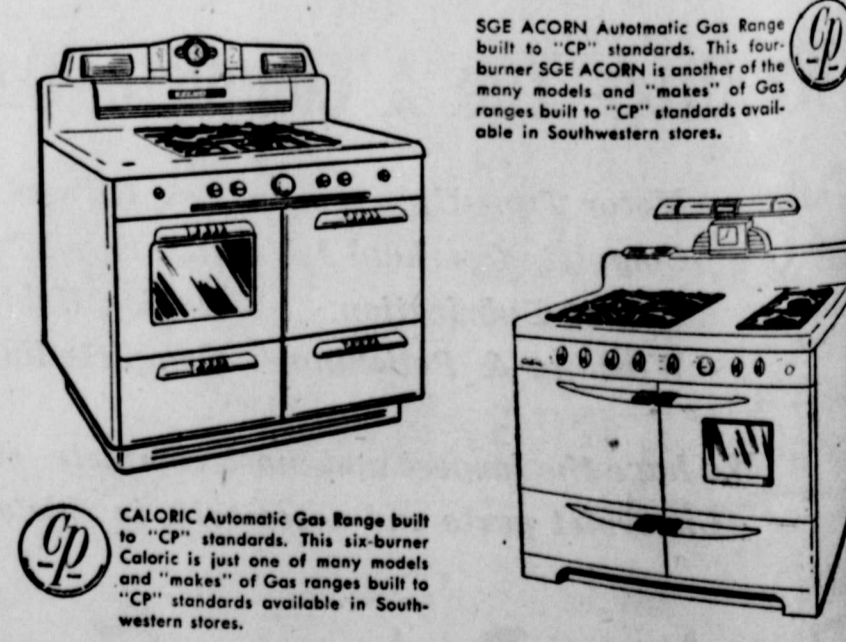

Without watching or guessing tiny cream puffs, golden cheese straws, rich toasted nuts and delicious hot cookies are baked to a tasty doneness in her range's accurate, automatic oven.

And, like her clothes... her range is by designers who know importance of style to her. Fine lines and harmonious fittings moulded with lustrous porcelain and sparkling chrome are blended into smart and distinctive beauty.

Automatic gas ranges with the ideal combination of beauty and convenience are distinguished by the "CP" symbol from dozens of models now available in many different brands.

It's Cheaper with a Cleaner!

IT IS, TOO, when you figure in time and energy and general wear-and-tear! As a matter of fact, with one of the new electric vacuum cleaners now available at your local dealer, one cent's worth of electric service will clean a large rug and five others like it in less time than it takes to drag them into the yard for beating! Let Reddy Kilowatt, your electric servant, lighten the work of your spring housecleaning.

FOR ONE PENNY, YOU CAN

- Light a 100-watt bulb almost 3 hours, or
- run a radio for a whole evening, or
- have the correct time for about a week, or
- wash 3 full tubs of laundry.

Reddy does dollar duty for penny prices, not only for rug-beating, but for countless other household tasks. It costs much more to make and deliver today, but the average family still gets twice as much electric service for its money as it got 20 years ago.

Yes, the rate for electric service is still low—but not by accident. That's because you're using electricity for more and more tasks. Moreover, the people at your service company have used their skill and experience to make electric service the biggest bargain in your budget.

London Teacher Writes: "Strict Rationing Make Food Parcels Doubly Welcome to British"

Although the war has been over almost three years, food is still strictly rationed in England, and the people of that country "have to eat what there is, rather than what they would like," according to Dorothy A. Loton, teacher in an Essex, England, school.

This information was contained in a letter received recently by Mrs. J. U. Fields of this city, in which Miss Loton expressed her gratitude for a food parcel sent her by Mrs. Fields several months ago. Text of her letter to the Haskell woman follows:

Essex, England, March 28.
Dear Mrs. Fields:
I received your letter a week ago, and your parcel arrived last week, in very good order. It was a most pleasant and welcome surprise. I do not quite know how you came by my name and address, but I appreciate your generosity and the kindly thought that goes with it. Yes, we are still strictly rationed, and we have to eat what there is, rather than what we would like, so that any variation to our diet is just what we like.

I live at home with two sisters and my parents. The latter are now elderly, and it seems a pity that life is not pleasanter for them, although they do not complain. We have no friends or relatives abroad to send us anything extra, so that yours was the first parcel we had received. Owing to the labor shortage, it is most difficult to get help in the house, so that we all have to help.

My school is on the outskirts of London, and is in an area that suffered from air raids. I evacuated into the country with the children the first year of the war, but then returned to keep the school open for those children still at home. Now we are back to pre-war numbers, with over three hundred children, all under nine. Women teachers, too, are very short, so my classes have forty to fifty children in each. I am now on holiday, having a good rest, ready for another term.

Our winter has been much better than last, and we are all very glad, for with food, fuel and clothes rationed, it would have made it very hard for some people, if the weather had been really severe. Now the spring is here, and England is beginning to look green and beautiful. We have been down to the lanes gathering primroses.

So, once again, many thanks for your kindness, and I hope winter has now finished with you.
Yours sincerely,
Dorothy A. Loton.

Grass Seeding Is In Progress On Area Farms

The supervisors of the Wichita-Brazos Soil Conservation district held their regular monthly meeting Friday, March 26. The application of Richard T. Carney's place north of Knox City was approved. The following plans were approved: J. M. Howell of Knox City and B. F. Payne of Gore.

Grass seeding is progressing with Bush and Burnett planting twenty acres to weeping love grass, Arthur Smith near Munday planting ninety-five acres to adapted native grasses, Scott Hutchins near Rochester planting five more acres of weeping love grass.

Putting steep eroded land back to grass is not only soil conservation, but profitable, says Arthur Smith. A person might occasionally make a good crop on this land if left in cultivation, but over a period of years it is much more profitable and wise land use to put each acre to the use to which it is best fitted. This land should not be put into cultivation, but since it has it is up to us to put it back to a productive cover of adapted native grass. This is part of the conservation plan worked out between the district and Mr. Smith, with the help of technicians of the soil conservation service.

T. A. Holcomb of the Judd community plans to retire from cultivation several acres of steep eroded land. He plans to plant adapted native grass in a protective cover of close drilled sudan grass or sorghum. Getting a stand of grass in most cases is a two year proposition. The first year you should get your land ready for grass seeding by planting a close growing crop and key is from going to seed by mowing just before it starts to head. Allowing the stalks of sorghum or whatever crop it is to serve as a mulch will give valuable protection to grass seedlings when they first start up, also it prevents crusting. Grass may be put in rows if a seed crop is desired, or it may be drilled in. If drilled in, it should be moved once or twice the first year to keep down the weeds.
