Industry Follows Training, Speaker Points Out

"Industry is going north of the South Plains area and will continue to go north if communities throughout this area do not take advantage of training programs which are available for their residents," Mrs. Irma Dora Haile told Rotarians and guests at the meeting held Tuesday at noon.

Mrs. Haile is with the Texas Educational Department in Plainview.

She gave an overview of new vocational bills enacted since 1964. "These programs," she explained, "are to train inschool students for industry and vocational courses."

The Vocational Education Act of 1964; The Opportunity Act of 1964 and the Elementary and Secondary Act of 1965 are considered to be the most beneficial to communities such as ours, it was explained.

The Vocational Educational Act provides vocational and technical training such as electronics, trades, welding, auto mechanics, photography, office occupations, business education and most important of our particular area, agri-industry.

"Also," she outlined, "pre-employment is available in laboratories for the trainee to learn the operation of farm machinery and maintenance."

"The field of education available right in your community is spectacular," she said.

"The cities who have utilized the available programs for training are the cities who are reaping the financial reward of industry and trained people must be available in any locale before industry moves in."

"An upgrading in overall education of a community means just that... the upgrading of the community itself as the people actually are the community."

"There are also five major education training programs, which are considered the most outstanding for adults. They are 'Manpower Development Training,' 'Training for Migrants,' 'The Veterans Program,' 'Civil Defense' and 'Work Study.'

Money for these special programs is federally granted for community use.

To obtain them and the money to carry out the teaching programs, any groups such as Chamber of Commerce, civic clubs, social clubs or non-profit organizations of any type may form an advisory board to determine the needs, submit the needs request to the state and obtain the money allocated to

Rain Halts Field Work: Legislation Fever High

Cotton planting on the Plains was going full speed ahead until it was brought to an abrupt halt with rains which lashed the area Monday night.

Cotton specialists were looking over crops in Bailey County Monday prior to the rain and predicted that what the crops which had been planted needed was plenty of sunshine.

Excellent sub-soil moisture and early planting had given high hopes for near 1.7 million bales of good quality cotton from about 1.65 million acres over a 23-county area, according to Plains Cotton Growers.

Legislation is still the hottest cotton subject. Hopes have improved for getting the bill passed by this session of Congress, but indications are that many hurdles are yet to be cleared.

Senate House Ag Committees have completed hearings. House Committee is now in executive session building a bill.

Chairman Poage expects to get the bill out by the end of the month and perhaps sooner, then begin work to get it on the floor.

The move is to extend the present program. PCG says that "everyone would like to see changes they think would improve the bill. But hardly anyone wants to jeopardize chances for passage this year by insisting on alterations. So if it comes to that, a 'simple' extension of the current law will have broad support throughout the industry and across the belt."

Odds are that Poage's committee is being urged by party leaders to oppose anything over one year. Aim is to give them an earlier and better shot at developing their own programs after elections.

Administrations, through Secretary Orville Freeman, has agreed to go along with the simple extension if it appears impossible to get the changes they want.

But Secretary Freeman has suggested modifying present law to give him authority to reduce the domestic allotment percentage, to about 55 or 56 percent of effective allotments at current consumption levels (minimum domestic percentage is now set at 65 percent.)

Also to reduce price support and diversion payment raises; set without restriction and time period when allotment transfers could be made; make full diversion payments to farmers desiring to grow no cotton and then let them lease the balance of allotments; set export market acreage at anywhere up to 250,000 acres and allow producer to export equivalent quantity of cotton produced rather than identical bales and not reduce projected yields for any state or county more than five percent in any one year.

PCG legislative policy is directly opposed to cutting producer income. Not only would payment be cut, but minimum national allotment from 16 to 14 million acres and PCG policy spells out retention of 16 million acre minimum allotment.

All other cotton producer organizations in Texas are also opposed to cutting producer income, therefore vigorous attempts are being made to prevent such provisions getting into the new law.

Hal Newsom Plans Sojourn

"Some people say I am nutty and others say I am just in a hurry to get to heaven," Hal Newsom said as he began to tell of an early June trip planned for going to South America.

Four young men will leave New Orleans aboard a banana boat in June and plan to spend four to six weeks in the South American jungles, likely around Nicaragua and perhaps deeper into South America.

Newsom is the youngest of the four going on the trip and the only one from this part of the States. Two others are Floridians and another from Harvard University. The eldest is 21 years old.

Thunderstorms Prowl Area: Damage Forms Sporadic Course

Little League baseball players cast a watchful eye skyward Monday night as did wary farmers when thunderstorms loomed in the north and east.

The baseball games beat out the rain, however, the rain, accompanied by hail and wind beat out some of the farmer's crops and some were washed out.

The 10 p.m. storm hit Muleshoe with driving rain followed by marble-size hail and some wind.

N. C. Moore reported a wash-out of his crop on one farm located two miles north of Baileyboro with 2 inches of rain and considerable amounts of hail. However, another farm owned by Moore not far away only received .06 inch of rain and no damage.

This is a true picture over the county. While Muleshoe received about one-half inch of rain, it fell quickly and highways and city streets were running with water. Hail covered parts of the highway for a time. Pleasant Valley community farmers report only sprinkles while the Oklahoma Lane community farmers were hammered by damaging rain and hail.

The Lubbock Weather Bureau reports that a belt of thunderstorms built up in the north-west portion of the South Plains dropping the 'unwanted' moisture on the county.

Both rain and hail were heavier west of Muleshoe and Sudan was next hardest hit in the area.

West and south of Sudan, farmland was pelted with hail and about an inch of rain fell. Sudan received only a trace.

Monday night contained a series of storms which erupted along the Texas-New Mexico border in the Muleshoe and Morton locales and traveled southward.

The area from Hereford to Lubbock remained under a severe weather alert for several hours.

Morton reports moderate hail in scattered areas and about one inch of rain.

The storm was 'hit and miss' type, leaving some parts of the county and surrounding county farms washed out and other parts high and dry.

Judge Explains Certificates of Deposits Purchase

Bailey County Commissioners Court purchased two certificates of deposit from the First National Bank of Muleshoe during the May 13 meeting.

One is for the sum of $200,999 and will draw interest at the rate of five and one-half percent per annum, Judge Don Chak said. The funds for the purchase were from Road District 1-A interest and Sinking Fund.

"According to figures from the County Treasurers office, Bailey County owes the sum of $224,031.26 on all bonds and interest coupons bonds of Road District 1-A. We now have the sum of $200,280.25. The money in the interest and Sinking Fund may not be used for any purpose except to pay off the indebtedness.

"Bailey County will make $11,000 interest from the Certificate of Deposit in the coming year, and this is the real

Farm Leader Asks TV Time To Refute Story

A Lower Rio Grande Valley farm leader has requested equal time on the NBC "Today" Show to refute what he termed "distortions, half-truths and misrepresentations" made by the director of a farm workers' union on the May 17 program.

In a telegram to Hugh Downs, host for the "Today" show, M. F. Frost, McAllen, said farmers in the Lower Rio Grande Valley "strongly resent" statements made by Cesar Chavez,

Mary Woodall Named Nurse of the Year

Mary Woodall, West Plains Hospital, has been named "Bailey County's Nurse of the Year."

This distinction was conferred at a meeting of the Bailey County League of Vocational Nurses last Tuesday when they met in the Conference room at West Plains Hospital.

Mrs. Woodall said "You have to love nursing to be a nurse, like people who are ill and enjoy seeing them get well."

"The most rewarding experience of my 22 years of nursing happened not too long ago, it all began when I encountered a patient, 95 years young, who had not walked in over a year. The patient was in Morton Hospital where I took a portion of special training. There, I began to encourage him to attempt to walk again and through

Absentee Voting Underway: Runoff Election June 1

Absentee voting for the June 1 Democratic Party runoff started at 8 a.m. Wednesday, May 22 and ends Tuesday, May 28 at 5 p.m.

Those persons who wish to vote absentee may do so at the county clerk's during this time.

Eligible voters are reminded that Memorial Day, Thursday, May 30 is only one day away from election day and those who plan to be out of town may vote for the candidate of their choice by absentee.

Voters are to note that an announcement has been made that those persons who signed petitions for George Wallace during the first primary are eligible to vote in the runoff, since the American Party did not actually hold an election as such.

Also, anyone (Republican or Democrat) who did not vote in the first primary, can still cast a ballot in the runoff. Only those who voted in the Republican Primary on May 4 may not vote in the runoff.

State-wide, interest is focused on the governor's race in which a Democratic candidate will be selected for the November ballot.

In this race, Preston Smith, Lubbock, opposes Don Yarborough of Houston.

James A. Joy, Plainview and Jack Hazelwood, Amarillo, are pitted against each other for the office of Judge of the Court of Civil Appeals.

Locally, commissioners for two separate precincts within the county are spotlighted.

For Precinct 1-1A, Commissioner candidates are Matt Dudley and Sherman Inman.

Precinct 3 candidates are W. H. Eubanks, incumbent and Wayland Altman.

son the tax levy to pay bonded indebtedness on Road District 1-A was cut from 40 cents per $100 valuation of 12 cents per $100 valuation, because we did not want the people of this County to pay a tax that is not needed.

"The levy of 12 cents per $100 valuation will bring in approximately $13,000 and with the interest of $11,000 this should be enough so that the County will have enough funds to pay off the bonds and interest on Road District 1-A. After the year 1969, no more tax money should be needed for Bonds in Road District 1-A.

"The second Certificate of Deposit in the amount of $58,487.47 drawing interest at five percent per annum, was purchased from Highway 84 Improvement Fund.

"We had received notice from the Resident Engineer that the State had accepted the new Highway, consequently this money in the Improvement Fund may be put to use earning more interest than the Bonds require, and in a few years the amount of money in the Interest and Sinking Fund of Highway 84 will equal what we owe on these bonds, and the County Tax Levy may then be lowered another 20 cents," Judge Chahk concluded.

Recipe of Week

Rice Pudding For the Family

Rice pudding rates as an all-time favorite family dessert. Couple it with chocolate and add a coffee-flavored meringue and the pudding has instant glamour and additional family flavor appeal.

The creamy rice pudding base of this "new look" dessert is a simple combination of cooked rice, milk, sugar and egg yolks. The egg whites are whipped to make a meringue, then flavored with instant coffee. The chocolate layer of the dessert is simply squares of milk chocolate which melt and glaze the rice custard while the meringue browns.

Rice is one of the convenience ingredients that requires no special preparation before cooking. And, if you cook a large batch of rice at the beginning of the week, you can have the ingredients for a meat accompaniment, a quick luncheon salad, or a simple family dessert at your fingertips. Simply store the cooked rice in a covered container in your refrigerator and use as needed.

MOCHA MERINGUE PUDDING
3 cups cooked rice
3 cups milk
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/3 cup sugar
1 teaspoon vanilla
3 eggs, separated
4 bars (7/7 oz. each) milk chocolate, cut in squares
3 teaspoons instant coffee

METHOD
Combine rice, milk, salt and sugar. Cook over low heat until thick and creamy. Add vanilla. Stir a little pudding into beaten egg yolks; stir all into rice mixture and cook 2 minutes longer.

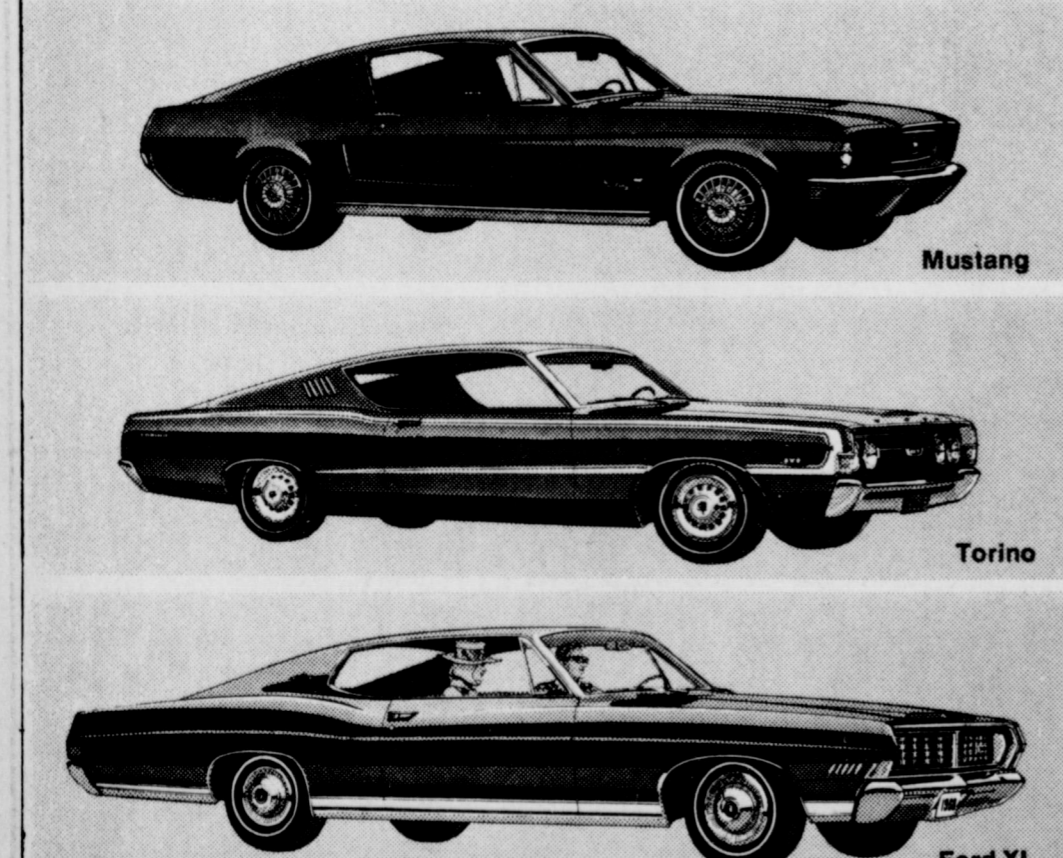

Turn into buttered 9 by 9 by 2 inch baking dish. Arrange chocolate bars over pudding. Make meringue from egg whites using favorite recipe. Remove beaters from meringue and using rubber spatula, fold in instant coffee. Spread meringue and cover pudding. Bake at 350 degrees for 12 to 15 minutes. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

Horticulture

Popular with 4-H

SPECIAL - The nation's 3 million 4-H Club members are versatile as well as dedicated to make the best use of "head, heart, hands and health." Dozens of projects are offered by the Cooperative Extension Service. They are designed to develop confidence and skills. Learning by doing leads to home and farm projects that benefit the youths and their families as well.

One such project is horticulture. Its broad scope covers ornamental gardening, raising produce for home use and for sale, architectural landscaping, and keeping up the home grounds.

To encourage the young gardeners in their work, Allis-Chalmers, the national 4-H Horticultural program sponsor, offers annual awards including six national scholarships, and trips to the National 4-H Congress in Chicago.

Examples of what some of last year's top 4-H'ers did were to earn money to school by marketing fruits and vegetables at roadside stands and local grocers; experiment with soil and cross breeding of plants, and plan long-range landscaping projects to enhance value of their homes.

Improving and beautifying their own neighborhoods has long been a practice of 4-H Club members, and those enrolled in the horticultural program make a great contribution in these efforts, observe 4-H leaders. Community projects also are undertaken such as landscaping church grounds, small parkways, memorial gardens and the like.

Any boy or girl between 9 and 19 years of age interested in starting a 4-H Horticultural project should contact the county extension office.

Dear Louisa,
My only daughter is in her teens but she upsets our whole family by her acts and disposition. She is very critical of me and doesn't like the clothes I choose for her. She talks back to me and almost explodes over things that we won't allow her to do.

What can we do with a child like this?
Mother-Inf.

Answer:
The adolescent age is a trying one in many cases for both parents and children. The girls and boys are leaving the childhood stage but are not quite mature enough to be considered adults or allowed complete adult privileges.

The parent is smart who will try to understand just what the girl is going through. The mother will not hold too tight a rein on her daughter but one strong enough to keep her out of danger.

I notice that you say she doesn't like for you to choose her clothes. I think she should be allowed to do most of the selecting of things she has to wear. There should be suggestions from you and certain rules as to vulgarity and price but teen-age girls and boys should be allowed to make decisions such as that for themselves.

You should have rules as to dates and times to be in the home and require that these things be observed.

Young people rage and rant over parents' rules but I think that the majority of them really appreciate firmness on the part of their parents if it is coupled with understanding and love. If the child realizes that what you require of her is because you care for her and not because you are trying to punish her. She may "act up" but in her heart she feels protected and cared for.

Try to have patience and gain the confidence of your daughter. This stage doesn't last too long if one doesn't take it too seriously.
Louisa

In Fashion

Cottons are being shown in the shops and pique is one of the favorites. Many of the new clothes have very high waistlines. Some are belted. Others have short bodices over the high waisted skirts.

The short jacket is also used over the long skirted cottons for summer evening wear or for resort wear.

THE FRENCH CHEF which has been on the air for five years has as its star, Julia Child. Renuns are being shown but they are most interesting. Men seem to like this cooking program as well as the women do. We heard one woman say, recently, that her husband always listened in when Julia Child was on the air.

State Legislators Will Return to Austin: Tax Bill Due

Drive a Buick Bargain and get a Bargain Buick.

Now. At your Buick dealer.

AUSTIN---State legislators will return to Austin on June 4. This time to complete the budget-writing chore they put off last year . . . and to pass a new $125,000,000 tax bill.

Indications are strong that the bulk of the funds will come through the sales tax route, Gov. John Connally told reporters he is "fairly certain" he will suggest raising the two percent sales tax rate to three percent, then refund the increase to the cities on the basis of their 1960 populations. This would replace the present local option city sales levies adopted by 267 cities since last September.

Proposal would provide incorporated cities with $125,000,000 a year overall in state aid. State would gain $35,000,000 to $40,000,000 from the increased rate due to sales in unincorporated areas.

Other recommendations expected in Connally's sales tax package include: removing of some sales tax exemptions; taxing of services like laundry and haircuts; and increasing the auto sales tax rate to three percent.

Governor also stated he might suggest a liquor-by-the-drink bill as part of his tax program. Legislative sources say he will suggest local option authority to sell liquor in small, one-drink-size bottles under stiff state tax and strict regulation.

Connally told reporters that overall revision of the liquor laws also may be proposed. He intends to submit no other business until financial necessities are handled.

He expressed confidence that the budget and tax bill can be passed within the 30-day limit. If lawmakers vote the same way their constituents did on the liquor-by-the-drink referendum (May 4) the governor may have a chance with the small bottles bill. At least 82 of the 150 state representatives and 17 of the 31 senators live in districts which voted for mixed drinks, with varying enthusiasm.

COURTS SPEAK-Texas' law banning mass picketing in labor disputes withstood another State Supreme Court test when lower court rulings in favor of the statute were affirmed. High court agreed with Intermediate Fourth Court of Civil Appeals, however, that the display of Mexican strike banners in a Laredo dispute should not be enjoined.

Question of whether voter registration applications must be submitted individually has been taken to the Texas Supreme Court.

High court said Texas statute which allows unlimited damages to survivors cannot be applied to fatal accidents involving Texans in other states.

An Abilene man should get a full trial on his $185,000 malpractice suit against two doctors, Supreme Court held. Court of Criminal Appeals ordered a new trial for wealthy Houston tobacco wholesaler Mair J. Scheppe, who received a seven-year prison sentence on a charge of counterfeiting tax stamps.

Third Court of Civil Appeals affirmed a district court decision denying a $98,626 sales tax refund to a New York firm which claimed it received notice of deficiency more than three years after the date the taxes were due.

GREYHOUND SPRINTERS---Long and lanky like their canine mascot, these Eastern New Mexico University Greyhound sprinters will end regular season track action Saturday (May 18) at a Clovis High School meet with New Mexico State University before the NAIA national track and field championships in Albuquerque June 1. They are (left-right) Fred Sandoval, Cuba, N.M.; Wayne Pollard, Clovis; George Ross, Albuquerque (standing); Barry Coffman, Portales; Charles Gilmore, Riverside, Calif.; and Jerry Harrison, Muleshoe.

DRAFT QUOTA CUT---Texas draft quota for June has been reduced by nearly a third, says Selective Service Director Morris S. Schwartz.

State quota of 1,416 men has been trimmed to 961 on the basis of a new order by Lt. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, national draft director. National quota, all for the Army, was reduced from 29,500 to 20,000 at the direction of the Department of Defense.

Call for July is expected to be only 15,000, meaning a Texas share of 700 to 750. May call was increased 4.3 percent late last month (to 2,233) in order to provide some manpower for the Marine Corps, as well as the Army.

Draft boards will forward 8,500 men to examining and entrance stations next month for pre-induction physical and mental examinations. May total is 9,000.

SPEIR HEADS DPS---Texas Public Safety Commission officially designated one-time high school principal Wilson E. (Pat) Speir as acting director of the Texas Department of Public Safety.

Speir succeeds the late Col. Homer Garrison Jr., who headed the DPS for nearly 30 years. He had been Garrison's top assistant for six years.

Speir is a veteran of more than a quarter of a century of service with the state police. He was born and attended school at Gilmer, graduated at East Texas State College in Commerce and was principal of Harmony High School for a year.

PARK SITES ADDED-Parks and Wildlife Commission has accepted 85 acres of land containing four early military posts which played important roles in the development of Texas.

Sites include Fort Leaton near Presidio, Fort McKavett near Menard, Fort Lancaster near Ozona and Fort Richardson near Jacksboro.

PWC Chairman Will Odom says the sites will be added to the state park system and facilities will be restored and preserved as a historical heritage for future Texans.

Odom also announced that a $14,275 federal grant has been approved for development of recreational facilities at Fort Griffin State Park 15 miles north of Albany. PWC will match the federal grant for a 503-acre park.

POLICE TRAINING SCHOOL---House Speaker Ben Barnes says he will ask Governor Connally to include in the special legislative session agenda a bill to create a statewide police training school to be called the "Homer Garrison Jr. Law Enforcement Academy."

Barnes believes the school is needed and "would be a fitting memorial to the late Homer Garrison who did so much to build a fine state police system."

ATTORNEY GENERAL RULES---School boards can order a trustee election recount if the candidate was defeated by less than five percent of the votes cast even though a district court will order a recount under a different law (as in Starr County case), says Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin.

In another recent opinion, Martin said that Bee County commissioners must provide for competitive bids on the purchase of a new electronic voting system that costs more than $2,000.

ALLOWABLE REDUCED A-GAIN---Texas Railroad Commission slashed the statewide oil allowable for the third month in a row.

June factor was set at 45.2 percent of potential, permitting top production of 3,485,366 barrels a day. This compares with 3,512,874 barrels during May when 45.7 percent market demand factor applied.

Major crude oil buyers submitted written nominations to purchase 3,025,126 barrels a day during June, a decrease of 46,143 from May. This was slightly more than forecast for June demand as submitted by the Bureau of Mines.

CANDIDATE TALK---Runoff campaign between Lt. Gov. Preston Smith and Don Yarborough is warming: Smith boasts of his long service and slams at Yarborough's liberal record. Yarborough counters he offers new leadership and specific, progressive programs. Voters still show little interest.

CAMPAIGN COSTS---Top spenders in the governor's race, Dolph Briscoe ($696,179) and Eugene Locke ($678,063) finished fourth and fifth. Leading candidate Yarborough reported he spent only $162,854. Runner-up Smith reported spending $385,537.

SHORT SNORTS

Railroad Commission placed a production limit in the East Texas field on an old order permitting transfer of oil allowable from one well to another.

Some 3,866 Texas anglers were cited last year for failure to have a $2.15 fishing license, reports the Parks and Wildlife Department, and were subject to fines ranging from $10 to $100.

State Securities Board issued permits to 74 corporations to sell $105,800,000 worth of securities last month--a gain of $61,000,000 over April, 1967.

Fiber Analysis, Spinning Test Results Upcoming

A summary of fiber analysis and spinning test results on 11 varieties of cotton grown on the High Plains in 1967 will soon be published by Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., according to PGC Executive Vice President Donald Johnson.

A similar report has been compiled each year since 1963 on major Plains varieties, primarily as one of the tools used in marketing the Plains crop to textile mills both here and abroad. It covers varieties that make up a major portion of the area's production plus newer types being developed in cotton breeding research, much of which is supported by PGC grants-in-aid.

The report is titled "A Summary of Manufacturing Data and Testing Results Obtained from an Evaluation of 1967-68 High Plains Cotton Varieties." Distribution will be to textile mills, cotton merchants and seed breeders.

Producers may obtain a copy on request for use in selecting varieties that are likely to find better markets at higher prices.

"This information," Johnson said, "is developed on mill-size equipment under closely simulated mills conditions and serves as a valuable guide to spinning industry management in choosing varieties that can be expected to meet specific mill requirements."

Cotton breeders use the report in evaluating the practical results of their breeding work from a spinning performance standpoint and in helping to determine the direction of future breeding efforts.

Full scale testing is done on each variety in the Textile Research Center at Texas Tech. Under the direction of Harry Arthur, TRC Assistant Director and PGC Textile Consultant, TRC has a completely modern fiber laboratory and a 100 spindle pilot spinning plant.

The summary contains carding and spinning performance data and an indication of the yarn quality that can be expected from Plains cotton of staples ranging from 1 inch to 1-5/32 inches. Previous reports have given testing results on shorter staple varieties.

Through a continuous educational program with growers and through grants-in-aid for variety breeding, testing and other research PGC is encouraging the development and growth on the Plains of longer stapled, stronger cottons that conform to trends in textile mill requirements.

Dramatic progress in this respect is already being seen. Cotton stapling an inch or longer in 1967 accounted for almost 40 percent of the area crop as compared to less than four percent in 1964.

Pressley, or fiber strength, went from an average of 73,000 to over 79,000 pounds per square inch in a single year from 1966 to 1967.

Arthur said these factors, plus micronaire, are important to mill men seeking a suitable cotton for specific end products, "But many mill men in this country and overseas are finding that conventional quality measurements do not always tell the whole story and that knowledge of the variety is a definite aid in predicting the spinnability of a bale.

"Consequently we find these variety tests are a worthwhile and highly appreciated service to our customers in the textile industry."

The continuous efforts of Plains Cotton Growers Inc. to get adequate research on utilization of "discount" cottons produced additional results last week when the Department of Agriculture announced a research grant of $160,795 to the Textile Research Center at Texas Tech.

The study is to discover mechanical processes and blending techniques to increase utilization of cottons discounted in the market because of short staple and micronaire either below or above the most desirable 3.5 to 4.9 range.

Chief investigator for the project will be Harry Arthur, Assistant Director of TRC and Textile Consultant for PGC. "We are highly pleased to see this study get underway and to know that it is to be done at Texas Tech where such capable people and adequate facilities are available," said Donald Johnson, PGC Executive Vice President.

"We are making tremendous strides toward varieties and cultural practices that will diminish the significance of our short staple, low micronaire problems," he stated, "but our growing season and climate are such that in any given year we can expect to produce a considerable amount of 'discount' cotton.

"The purpose of this study is to develop information on use of these cottons in blends with other cotton or in some other way that will improve their marketability and minimize the discounts they suffer in the marketplace."

The first formal move toward getting USDA to step up its investigation of the problem was taken in December, 1966 when representatives of PGC, Texas Tech, the Cotton Research Committee of Texas and the Southern Regional Research and Development Laboratory met in Lubbock at PGC's request.

"We think there is a very real possibility that markets for this type cotton can be increased and that prices can be improved," Johnson concluded, "and if these things can be achieved substantial and continuing benefits will accrue to the High Plains cotton industry."

Bula News

by Mrs. John Blackman

Mrs. Janeria Kessler was honored Friday afternoon in the homemaking room with a surprise party, with the sophomore girls as hostesses.

The serving table was covered in white lace over white, centered with a pyramid of red roses, an arrangement made by Mrs. Owen Young, homemaking teacher. Punch and white cake squares and nuts and mints were served. Mrs. Kessler was presented a beautiful package which contained a duster and a pink, blue and apricot gown and also some money.

Mrs. Kessler has been school cook for several years and is to enter the University Hospital in Lubbock Sunday, May 26, and have surgery on May 28.

Attending were all of the high school students and the eighth grade students and Mrs. Edd Crume, Mrs. Jack Tharp, Mrs. Dovie Angel, Mrs. Carolyn Snitker, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hedges, Mrs. Nettles, Mrs. Hawkins and Mrs. Kessler's mother, Mrs. Thomas.

Baccalaureate services were held Sunday evening in the school auditorium with a large attendance. Professional and recreational were played by Miss Patricia Grusendorf. Invocation was by Rev. Leo Buschur and benediction by Rev. Harvey Whittenburg. Harold Fleming, high school English teacher, gave the address.

He has done much preaching for the Undenominational Church, especially in Amarillo while he was teaching school near there. Fleming, feeling very close to the seniors after being with them for the past year, stressed the fact that "they were now launching out into the world on their own and making money was very important, but was not near as important as walking with Christ as your partner. Temptations of the world would be great, but with Christ as your companion, you will be strong enough to withstand these temptations."

Rev. and Mrs. Harvey Whittenburg are spending part of this week in Amarillo for the Northwest Texas Methodist Conference which convenes at 3:30 p.m. Wednesday afternoon.

Rev. Whittenburg will be ordained as minister for the Methodist Church at this conference. Clinda and Shawnee Snitker, children of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Snitker, spend the weekend with their grandparents, the C. C. Snitkers while their parents were fishing.

Mrs. Lura Rhodes, who makes her home at the West Plains Nursing Home, Muleshoe, spent Saturday night and Sunday with her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bogard.

The freshman class was host to a swimming party Thursday evening at the Crescent Park Swimming Pool. They invited the entire high school and eighth grade class as their guests. Coach and Mrs. Flankin were sponsors for the group.

The seventh grade class enjoyed a hayride and wiener roast at the Morton Park Friday evening. The eighth grade class was their invited guests. Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Newton chaperoned the group.

Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Woodard of Fort Worth spent Monday with his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Thomas. On Tuesday, both families drove to Falls to visit two more brothers, Jess and Corts Woodard.

At 2 p.m. Monday, in an award assembly program, Gordon McDaniel, sophomore student at South Plains College, received the plaque award for the most outstanding student in math and engineering of the sophomore class.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon McDaniel will be leaving May 30 for Bryan, where he will enter Texas A&M June 3.

Mrs. Lula Harlan spent from Tuesday until Saturday in the Amherst hospital for medication.

F. C. Snitker of Muleshoe, formerly of Bula and Enochs, is a patient in the West Plains Hospital, Muleshoe, after falling and breaking some ribs Friday of last week.

Several relatives met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Monty Berry of Littlefield Sunday for a family get-together. From Bula were Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Archer, Bryan, Melony and Timothy Roberts; Rev. and Mrs. Harvey Whittenburg; Mr. and Mrs. Gene Autry and children.

Also, Larry Archer, Mrs. Berry's brother, and small son, Scott, and another brother, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Archer and baby, Shelly of Dallas; also Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Johnson and children of Bovina.

Larry left Monday morning by plane for an army base in the state of Washington for tests and shots before being flown to Korea.

Fifth and sixth grades enjoyed a hayride, wiener and marshmallow roast Friday night at the game reserve. Mr.

Tharp accompanied the group and drove the pickup that pulled the trailer of hay.

CARRYING ON TRADITION Soil Stewardship Week

Soil Stewardship Week, beginning with the fifth Sunday after Easter, is set aside nationally each year to call attention to everyone's moral responsibility as a steward of the soil and other natural resources provided by God.

The National Association of Soil and Water Conservation Districts with the guidance of an interdenominational soil stewardship advisory committee sponsors this observance.

The theme for 1968 is "A Time for Initiative." The theme is developed with the idea that never before have there been so many reasons for so many people, with their organizations and institutions, to become involved in resource affairs. Clearly this is a time for initiative -- for action, innovation and exploration. It is a time to recognize and re-state with fresh vigor the obligation we have to our Creator for the care and wise use for the earth he has entrusted to us.

Churches of most faiths hold special soil stewardship services. The national association of soil and water conservation districts provides sermon topics and other related materials to ministers, priests and rabbis through local soil and water conservation districts.

The idea behind Soil Stewardship Week has ancient roots. The concept of man's stewardship for the land appears in many religions, many cultures.

The custom of setting aside special days to give thanks for the precious gifts of soil and water, air and sunshine, began more than 1500 years ago, in Vienna, France in 452 by setting aside three days preceding Ascension Day for prayers and penance.

Other communities took up the observance and the custom of Rogation Day spread throughout Europe and eventually came to Colonial America. The custom recognized that food was provided by neither the earth alone nor the industrious hand of man. It came also from the bounty of God.

In more recent years, the first "Rural Life Sunday" in the United States was launched at a meeting in 1929 of the International Association of Agricultural Missions. During the 1930's, various church services, in their own way, recognized the importance of soil stewardship.

as low as 40 cents per hour. This is absolutely false," Frost said.

"Fruit and vegetable growers in the Lower Rio Grande Valley pay the federal minimum wages, of $1.15 per hour; some pay above this minimum set by Congress. Workers often earn much more than this on a piece-rate basis," he explained.

The farm leader said farmers are concerned about a healthy agricultural industry in the area that will enable both the producer and the worker to earn a "decent living." He added that increased costs of production, caused in part by federal farm labor laws, plus the consequent increase of imports from Mexico have forced many growers of perishable crops out of business during the past five years.

"In the interest of fairness to growers in this area, we urge that you give a spokesman for Valley farmers a chance to present their side of the case," Frost said.

Delano, Calif., director of the United Farm Workers Organizing Committee, AFL-CIO. A fruit and vegetable grower and processor, Frost is vice president of the Texas Farm Bureau.

his determination, and mine, we accomplished this.

"Not long ago, here in the halls of West Plains Hospital, I met an elderly man. He grabbed me, kissed me and said 'I knew that someday I would get to Muleshoe to see you,'"

"He is still walking," the nurse added.

Mrs. Woodall began working at Sherman as a nurses aide at the age of 16 years.

"My inspiration to be a nurse must be from a childhood experience of caring for my mother who was ill for 10 years, coupled with the fact that the trait is somewhat inherited. My father was a medic in World War I and I have a sister and other relatives who are nurses."

Mrs. Woodall came to work at West Plains Hospital in 1962 and received her training for Licensed Vocational Nurse taught here by Jo Ann Head at the hospital.

She and her husband, Clarence, have one daughter, Jean Marie, 13 years of age. Woodall is employed at the Lubbock Water Pumping Station at the Bailey-Lamb County line and is retired from the Air Force.

The family are members of the Richland Hills Baptist Church.

Officers for the coming year were also elected. They are: Sue Nesbitt, president; Margaret Epting, vice president; Mary Woodall, secretary-treasurer; and Lorena Stigallde, reporter.

Announcement was made the dues for both state and local levels are now due.

Henry Malone, West Plains Pharmacist, presented a program including a discussion of the subject of drugs.

Margaret Epting won the door prize.

Javits warns party on ultraright-wing.

Soil stewardship observances held Sunday, July 21, 1946, were referred to as "Soils and Souls Sunday" sponsored by Farm and Ranch magazine. When Soils and Souls Sunday was observed on June 29, 1947 the magazine provided literature and references to assist ministers in preparing sermons. During these sermons the term "Soil Stewardship" kept appearing, so in 1950 the day was renamed Soil Stewardship Sunday. By 1954, the movement was so widespread that Farm and Ranch magazine felt that it should be taken over by a national organization. The National Association of Soil and Water Conservation Districts offered its sponsorship in 1955, and in 1956 the observance was changed from one day to the present Soil Stewardship Week.

the four will live off the land and the main purpose of the trip is to study wildlife there. They are members of the Florida Herpers Society.

Newsom met the other wildlife enthusiasts while in the swamps in Florida last year on a nature trip. They told him of their trip which had been in the planning stage for two years and invited him to join them, so he accepted the invitation.

Newsom hopes to bring home a Boa and a baby Jaguar.

"The Jaguar," he explained, "will have to be put in isolation for a certain length of time before it can be brought into the states and the Boa can be brought on in after it is dipped in a solution to rid it of any parasites it might have.

"We will be taking Quinine with us, have had to take 10 shots . . . I dreaded every one of them' . . . our packs weigh about 80 pounds and we are taking M1 carbines and cameras to photograph wildlife.

"We know that we will have to boil out water and we will find out when we get there what the land will provide in the way of food."

The four will work their way over and back on banana boats.

Newsom plans a career as a game warden.

Seniors Close Year With Special Events

A whirlwind of events has kept the graduating class of Muleshoe High School going at a fast clip during the past week . . . with the highlight of the week yet to come.

The big night is Friday, May 24, when all who are graduating will cross the stage and receive their diplomas.

From there, many will attend a dance at the Youth Center where Jerry and the Pacemakers will provide the music.

At the same time, those who do not wish to attend the dance may take advantage of the party being given at the Country Club. All seniors are to gather at 2 a.m. at the Country Club for breakfast.

Parents of graduating seniors and their sponsors are to chaperone both after-graduation events.

On Tuesday, all seniors were guests at the Lyma Pitts home when she and her parents were hosts for a recreation party and refreshments.

A sandhills outing was held Tuesday for the seniors at Horseshoe Bend. The outing originated at the school grounds with a hayride to the sandhills where they played outdoor games and had a wiener roast.
