Commissioners hear hospital proposal

Commissioners listened to a proposal by Dr. Bill Bass of San Angelo regarding operation of a medical facility here when they met Monday. In short order, Bass told the court that Shannon Hospital would send a doctor to Ozona on a part-time basis when needed, still wanted to operate a facility here as previously proposed, and that Shannon is looking at a helicopter evacuation set-up which would benefit area communities. Bass commented that Crockett County has the "highest fatality rate after accidents in the state".

Ozona was recently without a doctor for 10½ hours while Dr. Don Carlilse was hospitalized in Shannon and Dr. R. M. Owensby was away. Medical coverage which had been arranged did not materialize, and alternatives had to be found without notice. Dr. Carlilse's concern over the situation was expressed to Bass, prompting his comments to the court. Bass also told his listeners that Carlilse is now out of the hospital following skin graft on his leg and is expecting to be back at work November 1.

Later in the morning, the court invited Bass to outline the Shannon proposal for operating a medical facility in Ozona, information which has been presented before in the community and The Crockett County News.

Shannon Hospital would establish a family practice clinic here for routine, non-emergency care and put in an emergency room comparable to the one at Shannon. Management of the clinic would be through Shannon-Shamrock with contract doctors available at the clinic 10-12 hours a day and on call the remainder of the time, Bass said.

The Shannon proposal would upgrade the Crockett County Care Center to a skilled nursing facility which would have to be Medicare approved. Skilled nursing facilities can be reimbursed by Medicare for recuperative care of patients brought in after being hospitalized elsewhere for three or more days.

Bass told the court the administration of the Care Center is alright, but Shannon would supervise if desired. Shannon would also operate the ambulance service if the county wished. Bass praised the local EMS for the number of highly trained personnel.

Shannon would operate an emergency room - family practice clinic out of the present hospital building and take care of all in-county treatment of indigents for $250,000 per year. Crockett County would be responsible for maintenance of the building and insurance with Shannon to maintain and upgrade medical equipment as needed.

A cancellation clause could be put into the contract, Bass said, after being asked by commissioners.

County population should generate 40 sick people a day needing medical treatment according to Bass.

Hospital Administrator Don Hopkins told the court that use of the hospital had dropped 80 percent in the past two years compared to two percent elsewhere. Total patient days during the past month were 47 with 30 attributed to one individual. Percentage of occupancy was 7.83. Total cash deposits for the hospital were $49,485.03 and total cash disbursements were $85,474.17.

The situation comes down to "what does the community want, and what are they willing to pay for," said Hopkins.

J. W. Johnigan and Dee Keilers presented plans for the new wastewater plant and requested a letter of approval from Judge A. O. Fields. The official sanction is part of the process of state approval.

Johnigan also asked about the status of $20,000 in Revenue Sharing funds allotted for new sanitation equipment. Instructions were given to issue the check to be used toward a later purchase of a trash truck.

County Road Supervisor Eddie Moore reported that the maintenance crew is back on caliche roads which have "taken a beating from rains".

Moore was instructed to put a water tank truck out with other equipment which is to be auctioned.

A request by Onecimo Ortiz for motor replacement or repair to a 1979 GMC pickup was granted. The court agreed to a new Target engine for the truck. Ortiz also told commissioners that the street sweeper is giving trouble. Bryon Stuart was instructed to make inquiries regarding overhaul of the machine.

Youth Center Director Garland Young told the court that there were 28 bookings last month at the Civic Center. The Youth Center has the highest membership ever with 176 high school students, said Young. Pool tables at the Center will be covered this week, and card tables are scheduled for repair and replacement.

Beth Boyd appeared on behalf of the Chamber of Commerce to request funds for replacement of holiday decorations. An order

Bennett rites

Zelda Atchison Bennett of Ozona died in Fort Stockton at the home of her daughter October 8, 1985. She was 82. Mrs. Bennett had been ill for about a year and one-half.

Funeral services were Thursday, October 10, at 2:00 p.m. in the Ozona church of Christ with burial in Cedar Hill Cemetery under direction of Sizemore Funeral Home.

Mrs. Bennett was born April 4, 1903 at Sagerton in Haskell County. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Atchison, and family moved to Stanton in 1907. She was the next to the youngest of eleven children of which five still survive.

She married Raymond A. Bennett of Fort Stockton and Ozona. He preceded her in death in August of 1962. Their children are Ellis Ray Bennett of Houston, Betty Carroll Hickman of Fort Stockton and Dr. John Terry Bennett of Richardson.

Mrs. Bennett lived in Midland for a time and returned to Ozona in 1964 to make her home there. She retired as manager of the Crockett Hotel in 1980 at the age of 77. She was a bright spot in the lives of many friends and relatives and a faithful member of the church of Christ from the age of twelve. Her philosophy of living is summed up in her own words, "The true end of life is to prepare so at the end of life we are ready for the life that never ends."

Survivors include her three children, 10 grandchildren and 2 great-grandchildren; four sisters, Alta Henson, Elvie Henson, Stella Kelly, Noma Blocker; one brother, Foreson Atchison of Stanton; numerous nieces and nephews.

Pallbearers were grandsons, Terry and Grant Hickman, Chris, Michale, Hiram and Eric Bennett.

Music, progress reports and encouragement will be provided by KRCT Radio.

Bearcats defeat the Lions 56-0

Ballinger simply out personned and out manned the Ozona Lions during a 56-0 rout in Ballinger Friday night. Ballinger has a winning tradition, especially at homecoming games, and "once they get you down, they won't let you back in the game," Head Lion Coach Jim Green said. "The team was even better than on film."

Ballinger was up for this homecoming game, and defeated the Lions on all fronts -- running, passing, defense and kicking.

Preparation after a game, whether it is a win or loss, starts the next day. "When you win, you celebrate one night. When you lose, you put it behind you," Green explained.

Colorado City journeys here to attempt to extend its district record to 2-0 Friday night. The Colorado City Wolves will not overwhelm Ozona size wise. There will be a 10-15 pound per man advantage to the Wolves, but this should not be much of a factor. Colorado City defeated Coahoma last Friday, and has a 3-3 season record. Though picked to finish fourth or fifth in the district, the Wolves currently share the district lead with Crane and Ballinger (all have 1-0 records).

"The Wolves are a passing team. They try to spread you out defensively with passing, so they can run. The Lions try to run, so we can pass." The Colorado City quarterback, Mike Ligon, throws well, and he had good receivers.

Board has short meeting

The Ozona Board of Trustees completed agenda items in record time during their regular monthly meeting on Tuesday, October 8.

After approving the minutes and the accounts payable, the members accepted insurance proposals from the Baggett Agency for school property and casualty insurance, automobile liability and physical damage insurance and worker's compensation insurance.

Superintendent Garland Davis presented a proposed local school policy which allows school principals, subject to the approval of the superintendent and within State Board of Education guidelines, to shorten class periods for the purpose of conducting an abbreviated school day. The procedure would be used no more than six times per year and would allow principals more flexibility in planning staff development sessions, faculty meetings and school activities. The policy was approved as presented on a motion by Van Miller seconded by Gary Buck Mitchell.

The trustees approved the district's participation in a math/science cooperative cooperative program sponsored by the Region XV Education Service Center in San Angelo on a motion by Cecil Buckner seconded by George Ybarra. They also approved additions to the substitute teacher list for the district on a Mitchell motion seconded by Buckner.

The second reading of guidelines for removal of problem students from the classroom was given by Assistant Superintendent Ted Cotton. Acceptance of the guidelines was approved by the board on a motion by Van Miller seconded by Hank Sellers.

Board members acknowledged a philosophy position paper on the girls' athletic program from Coach Ronda Yarborough and discussed repairs needed for school housing.

Trustees went into executive session to discuss personnel.

The meeting was adjourned after President Jeffrey Sutton gave members a report on the Texas Association of School Administrators - Texas Association of School Boards Fall Conference which was attended by board members Gary Buck Mitchell, Joe Couch, Jeffrey Sutton and administrators Ted Cotton and Garland Davis.

Senior rushing back Sammy Rivera provides the Wolves' rushing threat.

"There will be no wholesale changes in the lineup. Two junior varsity members, Sub Fierro, wearing #23, and playing wing-back, and Ben Rios, an offensive lineman and defensive guard, have been elevated to the varsity squad permanently." Nine junior varsity players saw action in the Ballinger game. All nine, George Wall, Fierro, Rios, Bret Hood, Oscar Payne, Danny Sanchez, Rene DeLa Rosa and Jimmy Etheridge, played well and helped provide replacements to a tired defensive unit.

During the first quarter, the game seemed to be a defensive struggle, with neither team moving the ball consistently.

In the second quarter, the Bearcats got untracked, and Stan Neff capped a scoring drive with a six yard touchdown dash. Brad Matschek kicked the PAT at the 6:59 mark of the second quarter, to give Ballinger a 7-0 lead in the game. Ballinger got its second score less than a minute later, when all district 186-pound

Moving day at the Library

The long-awaited shelving has finally arrived at the Crockett County Public Library. Frank Vargas with Central Freight delivered 32 boxes containing the book shelves last week. They were a welcome sight to Librarian Louise Ledoux.

The opening of the library had been delayed due to a manufacturer's delay in shipping the metal shelving. They were manufactured by a firm in Montreal, Canada. J. C. Schroeder and his side-kick Gary are now in the process of assembling the book shelves and placing them in the book rooms. A big thank you goes out to J. C. and Gary from the Library Board and the Library staff.

Plans can now go ahead for the move into the new building. Moving day has been scheduled for Saturday, October 26. All Friends of the Library are urged to be there and lend their support. There are many more ways to help out than just by physically moving the books. Refreshments and lunch for the movers need to be supplied, drivers, packers and un-packers are needed. It's going to be a fun day of work and community fellowship.

Anyone interested in joining in to help can call the library at 392-2185 or 392-3563 to pledge your support. Moving will start about eight o'clock Saturday placed by Wednesday is guaranteed delivery in time for this holiday season said Mrs. Boyd. She commented that her many pleas for donations from the community had, for the most part, gone unanswered. A total of 55 decorations are needed, but 40 will suffice for this year according to Mrs. Boyd.

Commissioners guaranteed a minimum purchase of 25 decorations at $4,530.50. Mrs. Boyd was asked to seek donations for the other 15. She said that the only money the Chamber had on hand for decorations was a donation of $100.00 received three years ago from the late Doris Moore.

The decorations have not been replaced since 1963.

Bids were opened at 11:00 for purchase of two one ton trucks and a half-ton pickup and 25 ton lowboy trailer. Jim Bass Ford was low bidder for the vehicles. Aztec trailer sales was awarded the bid on the trailer.

Judge Fields announced that the Meals on Wheels program in Crockett County will be terminated October 31 unless another place is located for preparation. The program is 90 percent funded by the Department of Human Resources and Concho Council of Governments with the remaining 10 percent provided locally.

The hospital kitchen and Civic Center were discussed as alternative locations with commissioners favoring a trial period at the Civic Center.

Ken Boling of American Benefit Hospital Corporation presented an insurance plan to the court Monday afternoon designed to provide the same benefits for health, dental and life as the current carrier, Blue Cross. Boling said his plan would guarantee a $66,000 savings to the county this year.

Approval was given for improvements to a road department building to increase storage area for tires and equipment.

County Extension agents Rachel Hall and Billy Reagor provided a special report to the court requesting that the Extension budget be amended to take care of increased travel requirement expenses. The amendment was approved with no increase in funds to the Extension program.

Vitela to Eldorado store

By Cynthia Harrell Hodges

The closing of the Foxworth-Galbraith Lumber Company ended 46 years of service to Crockett County and the surrounding area.

"The economy in Ozona had been on the decline for the last two years," 22-year bookkeeper and manager of the yard, Nip Vitela, said. Vitela, who lacks three years until retirement, plans to commute to Eldorado and work at the Foxworth-Galbraith yard there. "We have no plans to move away from our friends and home."

The closing of the store did not surprise Vitela. "I had been a bookkeeper most of my years with the company. When Larry Petron, former manager of the store here, left and I was elevated to manager, I knew what was going on."

The closing of this store is "just an isolated incident". The company, which operates 58 stores, has bought nine other yards this year.

The unsold merchandise is being distributed to other stores in the chain. The company is also attempting to sell a company house.

Economic predictions by the company for this area forecast a downward trend for several more years, Vitela said. The company normally only closes those stores which were very old and dilapidated.

The closing of the store means the end of competition between yards. "It was just not viable to keep the store open any longer," said Vitela.

He enjoys being with his wife, Maria, and their daughter, Sylvia and her family, as well as fishing. "We have not been too happy about all this, but at least I still have a job. The company has taken care of me."

O'Bryant resigns from EMS

Crockett County EMS held the regular monthly business meeting Monday, October 14, at 8:00 p.m. in the Care Center dining room. Members present were David Cooke, Zoe Green, John L. Henderson, Carol Hunnicutt, Dee Keilers, Doug Meador and Tina Moran.

Vice-president Carol Hunnicutt announced the resignation of organization president Dub O'Bryant who is also ambulance co-ordinator, and read a letter of appreciation from him to all those present. Dub is being transferred by his company to another location.

More touches were put on the plans for a booth at this year's Halloween Carnival. All those present volunteered to help in some way, but still more volunteers are needed.

It was also announced that on October 28 at 7:00 p.m., Safety Education Instructor Charlie Ramirez will present a special program at the Ozona Civic Center. A movie titled "Room to Live" will be shown by Trooper Ramirez, and he and members of the EMS will be present afterward to answer questions that may arise.

The film was recently shown to second and third graders in Ozona schools.

Everyone is invited to come out to see this move and visit and enjoy refreshments afterward.

Hoover awarded contracts

John Temple Hoover, owner of Educational Recording Service of Ozona, received state and national contracts last week. Educational Tour Consultants of Winchester, VA awarded exclusive recording rights for the following music festivals: Mid-America M. F. - St. Louis, Mo., Greater America M. F. - Chicago, Ill., Six Flags Over Georgia M. F. - Atlanta, GA, Six Flags Over Texas M. F. - Dallas, TX, and Astro World M.F. - Houston.

The state contract was awarded by the Texas Music Educators Association Board of Directors. The contract includes recording all the all-state organizations, guest university groups, honor groups, and all clinics. Events will take place throughout the 1985-86 school year.

Brent Scott - art teacher and more

By Cynthia Harrell Hodges

"Everyone needs to open their eyes and see how things are made -- see things they have never seen before," art teacher Brent Scott said recently.

"Art is everywhere, in everything we touch, feel or see. All man-made objects are some type of art. A student can use art his entire life by becoming more aware of everything around him," said the former Brownfield carpenter.

Scott taught in Brownfield for 11 years before entering carpentry for six years. "I missed teaching and am glad to return to it."

Carpentry and art are inter-related. "Persons often asked how something would look when it was finished. I could draw a picture of what a kitchen nook or a remodeled bath would look like. Art can be used in any field," said the versatile Scott.

"The hardest thing to give students is self-confidence. Everyone can go to his own height in art. I have to dig each student's height out. We are our own worst critics. If a student will quit criticizing his own work, if they will stop trying so hard for perfection, they can develop their own style."

Learning under different art instructors is advantageous. A person can learn each instructor's techniques, but eventually return to his own particular style. "Everyone has a particular style. New techniques merely enhance a person's own style."

Scott admits that it is difficult to grade art. At an art show, for example, three different judges will judge each piece, based on their own likes and dislikes.

"I try to grade not only on how nice the drawing is, but also how much time and effort the student puts in the work, as well as how involved he was in the project. If students try, they will receive a B. It is hard to get an A plus -- there is always room for improvement."

"I am not trying to make everyone who takes the course an artist. I just want to push a student as far as he wants to go. It is entirely up to the student. Sometimes, you can push a student further than he wants to go. We are often so busy we never see things," he explained.

The state has not set curriculum for teaching art. There are just some guidelines. "House Bill 72 has made teachers more aware. We must teach essential elements. We must cover more areas of art, have more variety in the course. Instructors can no longer just teach in their particular field of interest."

The course is divided into two levels, but most of his students are enrolled in the beginning Art I level. The course will include various craft areas, such as ceramics, leather crafting and latch hooking. Crafts widen the teaching scope. Many students are more craft oriented. A new kiln, bought last year by former art teacher, Mary Helen Parks, has just arrived this year. "We hope to do slab coil work, where we build and design our own work, as well as some green ware work with molds."

Since this is his first year here, Scott said he is learning about the students and how to develop the course. "We hope to work toward one or two art shows each year, and have some competition among the students."

"There is no cost to the students except for a 10 cent pencil. If a student really wants to explore a particular phase of art, then the school will not provide expensive materials. The student must, for example, buy his own set, if he wishes, of watercolors."

Scott entered the world of art in a round about way. Lacking running back Terry Strambler rushed 23 yards to make the score 13-0 Ballinger over the Lions. Cory Lee kicked the PAT.

A Bearcat interception thwarted the Lions' next offensive effort. The Bearcats promptly moved the ball from their own 45 yard line to the Lion 45 with a pass reception from Lugo to Jason Sedco. Strambler gained much yardage, including a 15 yard rush during this third scoring drive. Lugo passed to Grant Teplichek for the third Ballinger score with 1:52 left in the first half. Lee kicked the PAT to make the score 21-0.

The Lions gained their only first down of the first half on their next possession, but were unable to sustain the drive. The Bearcats ended the first half scoring attack with a 12-yard run by Timmy Kozelsky. The two point conversion was not good and left the halftime score at 27-0, Ballinger.

"It took a lot of heart and courage to play in the second half as hard as we did," Green said. "We never did quit scrapping until the end."

The second half started ominously for the Lions. Strambler returned the second half kickoff 60 yards for a touchdown. The PAT by Lee was no good, and the score stood at 33-0.

The Lions then mounted their only offensive drive of the night. Starting on their own 33 yard line, Ozona moved to the 49 yard line of the Bearcats. An interception stopped this drive on the Bearcat 37 yard line.

Ballinger promptly took advantage of the Ozona error. An 18 yard pass to Lee and a 20 yard dash by Strambler set up a 15 yard touchdown run by Neff. The PAT by Lee pushed the score to 40-0.

The next Ballinger drive was stopped on the 37 yard line of the Lions. Bearcat Cory Lee showed how strong his foot was with the first of three field goals. This 43 yarder made the score 43-0.

An interception stopped the next Lion drive and set up a 46 yard field goal by Lee early in the fourth quarter.

The last Bearcat touchdown came on a three yard run by Kozelsky, with 2:55 left in the game. The PAT by Lee was good, and made the score 53-0.

Ballinger had everything bounce its way. The next Lion possession ended with a Bearcat fumble recovery of a mishandled Lion ball. The Bearcats marched down the field to the Lion 37. After a penalty, Lee kicked a 56 yard field goal with 2:39 left in the game to end the night's scoring and make the final score 56-0.

During the tough game, the Lions suffered two injuries. Bret Thompson sustained a shoulder injury and may not play in the Colorado City game. Brian Morrow received an ankle injury and probably will not play Friday night against the Wolves.

Time to prepare for Pecan Show

The annual Crockett County Pecan Show will be held December 9 and 10 according to County Extension Agents Rachel Hall and Billy Reager. The show is sponsored by the Crockett County Extension Program Building Committee. Beth Boyd is chairman of this year's show. Buster Deaton, Chairman of Processing, and Janet Hill, Chairman of the Food Division.

The pecans will be processed at the Chamber of Commerce on December 9 and judged in Ozona National Bank on December 10. The food will be judged in the Chamber of Commerce. The pecans and winning food entries will be displayed in Ozona National Bank on December 10.

Annually some of the winners from the County Show place at the regional and state shows. Last year, June Henderson's Kincaid was first at regional and state. Lou Deaton's Stuart was second at regional. Her Mahan was first at regional and state.

This year homeowners have a good crop of pecans, so there should be a good pecan show. Now is the time to start planning for the show. The early maturing and heavy nuts are beginning to fall. They are usually superior to the ones that fall off the tree later.

Rules are much the same as in the past. Those entering should select 45 nuts of the same variety, large, uniform, free from cracks and blemishes, and put in a bag labeled with their name. Only one entry per variety per exhibitor will be appreciated.

In order for a variety category to be judged, there must be two or more entries in the same variety. All varieties with less than two entries will be classed as "others". Pecans must be exhibited in their natural state with no artificial alterations. Pecan entries may be left at the Chamber of Commerce or County Extension Office. The deadline for entering is Monday, December 9, at 3:00 p.m. the processing will begin at 5:00 p.m. on Monday in the Chamber of Commerce. The pecans will be judged Tuesday, December 10.

In the Food Division, rosettes and ribbons will be distributed in all food categories. The chamber adult food entry will receive a pecan plaque. Three age divisions include: adult, 13-19 (school student), and 12 and under. Categories include cake, pie, candy, cookies, bread and miscellaneous. Pecans must be in all recipes with the entire recipe submitted, or in case of cookies, three dozen. Food should be wrapped in clear plastic wrap with name and food category on each entry. Recipes must be submitted with food. Foods will be judged on appearance, flavor and texture. There is no limit to the number of entries. All food entries should be submitted December 10, 7:30-10:00 a.m. at the Chamber of Commerce and picked up by 6:30 p.m.

Any primary or intermediate student is encouraged to participate in the poster contest promoting the use of pecans. Posters will be judged on originality, appearance and promotion of pecans. Ribbons will be presented. Posters should be registered Tuesday, December 10, 7:30-10:00 a.m. at the Chamber of Commerce.

Everyone in the community is encouraged to participate in this year's pecan show.

one-half credit in junior English literature from graduating from high school, he laid out of college for one and one half years. Scott then entered Sul Ross as a business major, transferred to the industrial arts division, and finally settled in the art department. "It is so very hard to make a living as an artist. I didn't want to teach because I was too introverted. Two girl cousins convinced me to try teaching, so I received my teaching certificate, along with my art degree." Scott's wife, Joy, is a native of Alpine, so they both were familiar with this part of Texas. The Scotts both enjoy the outdoors, rock hunting, hiking and just watching the wonders of nature. They have two sons, Ronnie, a junior, and K. C., a freshman, in Ozona High School.

Care Center News

By Ann McCartney
Director of Activities and Social Care

It seems to me that we might still be in the "dog days of summer" even if fall has already arrived. The weather keeps changing back and forth. I believe the lucky ones are those who are working outside.

We began a new program this week. We are going to try our reading and "Down Memory Lane" program at 11:00 on Monday mornings. Residents Bertha Miller, Hilda Dysart, Ola Mills, Juana Hernandez, Pauline Clinton and Moriana Perez all enjoyed our first session. Elvira Martinez assisted with this program.

Vivian Hughes, Dorothy Doll, Mattie Cooper, Earline Jones and Janet Wilson all conducted our birthday honorees, Virginia Hoover and Phil Schneemann, with their birthday celebration this week. Polly Mayes donated the cake and Maxine's Flowers sent both ladies a corsage.

A big congratulations is in order to our own Stella Munoz whose daughter Zelda was named Homecoming Queen for Ozona High School.

Many thanks to Maudie Couch for making six dozen new bibs for our residents, to Louise Taliaferro for sending a big dish of cookies, and to the Senior High School Class of the Catholic Church for bringing our residents a basket of fruit.

Tuesday and Friday bingo game winners included: Ventura Sanchez, winner of the gift certificate for two dinners from El Chato's, Tomasa Ramoz, winner of the gift certificate from The Teacher Store, Jesus Hernandez, second place winner. We welcomed back Bonnie Warth as our Tuesday caller and Lelia Tambunga as our Friday caller. Other volunteers included Mattie Cooper, Dorothy Doll, Teresa Sanchez, Elodia Zapata, Anna Bell Patrick, Gwen Nelson, Sophia Tijerina, Alice Ross and Minnie Karr.

Tuesday afternoon we were host to a van load of residents from Reagan County Care Center. As soon as our van arrives, we plan to return their visit. In fact we expect this to be an ongoing event since we both have vans. Big Lake residents visiting included Tom Workman, Odessa Edwards, Mae Donham, Letha Chesnut, Maude Pettit and Paul Cavin. Staff members Viola Gatewood and Nancy Leifeste accompanied the group. Some played dominoes while some visited with old friends. All were served ice cream and cookies by volunteers. Dorothy Doll, Mattie Cooper, Vivian Hughes and Clara Byrd.

Marie Pierson and Ruth Hester (welcome back, Ruth!) assisted residents Juana Hernandez, Tomasa Ramoz, Hilda Dysart, Ola Mills, Moriana Perez, Emma Taylor, and Virginia Hoover with ceramics on Wednesday.

Clara Byrd and Vivian Hughes conducted our musical program Wednesday afternoon. One cannot help but have a good time with these two.

Clara played the piano again on Thursday morning after the ladies all had their hair fixed. Helping Clara fix hair were volunteers Vivian Hughes and Alena Faye Hokit.

Bible study was brought this week by Charles Huffman and three fellow church members of the Faith Lutheran Church.

This was followed by Spanish Hour of Praise brought by Maria Vitela, Carmen Vargas, Felipa Munoz, Mariana Hernandez, Norma Flores, Victoria De La Garza, Isabel Molina, Heriberto Gutierrez and Lorenza Gutierrez of the ladies' group of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Catholic Church. Edward Gibbon, who lived in the 18th century, knew more about human history than anyone else at that time. You may not recognize the name, but have probably heard of his most famous work: The Rise and Fall of the Roman Empire. Once he was asked if he could sum up the wisdom man had learned on earth in one book. His answer was this: "I think I can sum up the lessons of history in one sentence, and here it is - 'The mills of God grind slowly, but they grind exceedingly fine'!" What does that mean? Here we are handed the accumulated wisdom of the human race, and we can't understand it. Maybe it's because you've never been to a flour mill. First, the wheat is sifted, and then forced air blows most of the chaff away. Next, it goes through large tumbling drums lined with sandpaper. Then it is sent through a half-dozen rollers of stone or stainless steel, which look like the wringers of an old fashioned washing machine. Next, the wheat is sifted again, which is now like powder and looks like flour. But, it is still not ready! It must be "bolted". It's called bolting because it is sifted with bolts of cloth, each piece finer than the one above. After shaking and sifting the wheat, all that's left at the very bottom is like talcum powder, which a slight breeze would blow away. The point of the history professor is that "The Mills of God" produce only the finest grade of flour, that is to say, what goes through the Mills of God gets pulverized completely.

But this is not just some history professor's opinion. The Bible shows us it's God's own truth. In the reading above, Jesus tells a parable the point of which is that God doesn't leave sin unpunished this same Catholic church accompanied Father Richard Altenbaugh for our Sunday afternoon services. This group brought an enjoyable program.

forever. Jesus tells the Jews that God would take His Church away from them and give it to others. Those who heard this said "That must never happen!" In answer to that statement, we read that Jesus looked directly at them and said: "The Stone the builders rejected has become the Cornerstone. Everyone who falls on that Stone will be broken into pieces, and if that Stone falls on anyone, it will scatter him like dust."

The Mills of God are the long-term consequences of our actions. What does the grinding is life. What goes through the rollers and crushers and gets "sifted like wheat", are those who ignore the warnings of God. There are many things which remind us of God's power and His displeasure with sin. For example, any sickness or disease can remind us of the curse of disease and death that followed upon Adam's sin. So, in this age of so-called free sex we see the breakdown of family and various diseases. Other things that show us God is still the One who decides what is right or wrong in this world are alcoholism and cirrhosis of the liver, drug addiction and suicide, fornication and herpes disease, abortion on demand; and of course, homosexuality and the latest disease of AIDS. Of course, ANY sin should cause us to think of God's will for our lives as put forth in His Word.

Again, Jesus says: "The Stone the builders rejected has become the Cornerstone. Everyone who falls on that Stone will be broken into pieces, and if that Stone falls on anyone, it will scatter him like dust". Rejection of Jesus, open disobedience and defiance of God will put you through the mill, alright, and that mill grinds men and nations to finest powder and scatters them like dust. Going through a literal flour mill couldn't be more unpleasant. But, thank God, there is another alternative! In His unspeakable grace God sent His Son into the world to "break" things. By His life of perfect obedience to the Word and will of the Father, Jesus Christ broke the curse and condemnation of the law that was against us. By His innocent suffering and death on the Cross, He broke the power of sin and the devil that held us captive. And, by His glorious resurrection from the dead, our Lord broke the bonds and fear of death. The benefits of Christ's redeeming work are ours by grace, through faith. In his first letter, chapter 2, the apostle Peter says that if we

Debbie Phillips hosts Xi Sigma Omega

The Xi Sigma Omega chapter of Beta Sigma Phi met Monday, October 14, at 7:30 p.m. in the home of Debbie Phillips. A business meeting was held. Members who attended the West Texas area convention in San Angelo reported on activities and events at the convention. The program was presented by Mrs. Phillips, who led discussion on believe in this Cornerstone, Jesus Christ, we will never be disappointed.

Everyone who falls on that Stone will be broken in pieces. If you turn to him, Jesus will break you - but that's GOOD! If a bone is crooked in the first place, the Doctor has to break it so he can heal it. As people are sinful in the first place, the Son of God has to break you so He can heal you. We are all sinners, there are places where we are not perfectly straight and there are places where we have sinful rough edges which need to be ground off. In 1 John 1:8-9 we read: "If we say we have no sin we deceive ourselves, and the truth isn't in us. If we confess our sins, we can depend on Him to do what is right - He will forgive our sins and wash away every wrong." Fall on Jesus and He will do that for you. The process may not be the most pleasant in the world - but it beats going through the mill! In His grace, God calls us to daily repent, to fall on Jesus, so He can continue to break us and remake us in the image of His Son. When the sinner comes to the point where he prefers being broken by Jesus to that of being crushed by the Mills of God, he's in for a pleasant surprise! The surprise is that Jesus is totally different than anyone else. Everyone else says: "First you change, then we'll love you". But Jesus says: "First I'll love you, then you'll change". And the Lord tells you and me to be the same way. We should never give the impression we approve of sin - we hate it - but it is equally important that Christians express God's love for the sinner. How else will they know Christ's love, except through us? How else will they ever be able to change, except through His love? We are to express the love of Jesus, even for the most unlovable people.

We, who have fallen on Jesus, who have experienced His changing love and found forgiveness have come to know that He never gives up on the sinner and that He never writes us off as a "bad job". We are never hopeless! The Mills of God not only remind us of His power and displeasure with sin; they also provide us with opportunities to share the Good News of the other alternative - that often rejected Stone who has become the Cornerstone, Jesus Christ.

Introducing the Ozona Lions

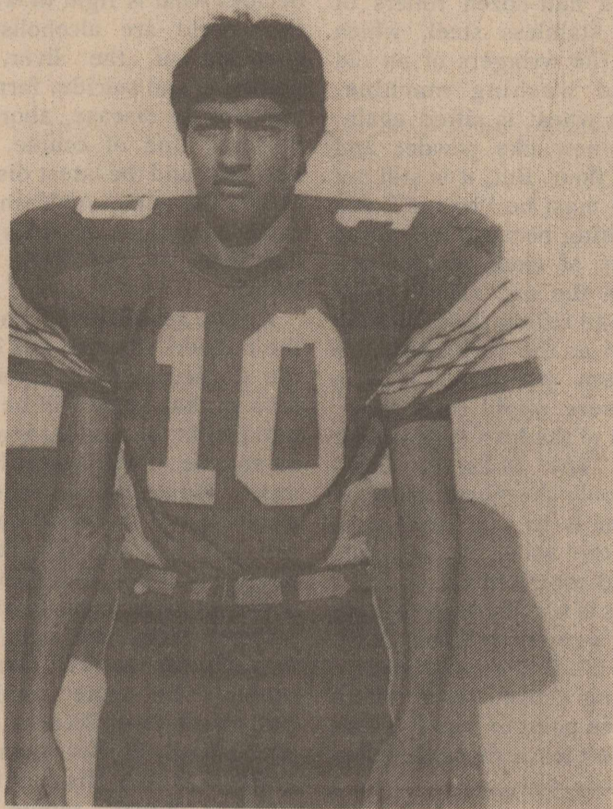

CHUY HERNANDEZ

Senior running back Chuy Hernandez has participated in the football program "Because I like the sport. Football will help me to do better in my classes."

The son of Marcelo and Maria Hernandez serves as president of the VICA club and plans to attend UTI in Houston and become an automotive technician.

Hernandez also participates in track and hopes to win the 300 meter hurdles in district and go to regional and "have the best time there. I also want the Lions football and basketball teams to win district.

Academically, Hernandez plans "To do the best possible in every class." He enjoys listening to music, being with friends and riding around in his spare moments.

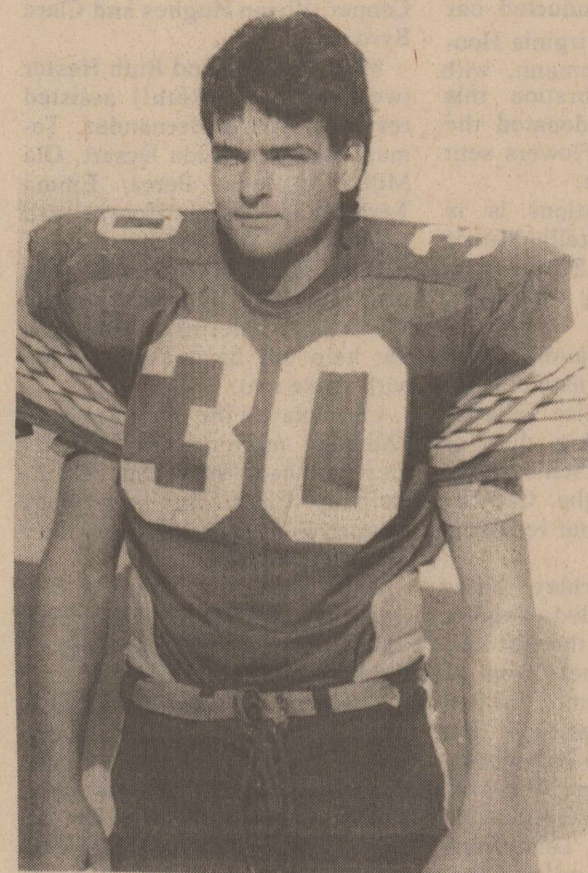

HARVEY FIERRO

Senior wingback Harvey Fierro excels not only on the football field, but also in the classroom.

The National Honor Society member and football captain plays football because "I enjoy it, and it helps me become a better person physically and mentally. I want to lead the team to the playoffs."

The gifted athlete has played football for six years and also participates in baseball, basketball and track. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Fierro hopes to graduate with honors from high school. "I then plan to go to college and study law."

Working with computers, spending time with friends and riding around fill Fierro's idle moments. He also serves as vice president of the Student Council.

DAVID ADAMS

"I just love sports," is the simple reason senior running back David Adams has participated in the football program for the past seven years.

The football captain wants to "become the best possible athlete I can be. I believe that if you want something great (like a great team), everyone should participate."

Going to college and eventually studying law are the long range career plans of Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Adams. The future lawyer enjoys hunting, traveling and lifting weights in his spare time.

The extroverted Adams also enjoys helping his family and others when ever possible.

Goliath tramps Ozona 30-0

By Copie Davis

The Ozona J. V. traveled to Mertzon last Thursday to take on the Irion County Hornets. Irion County, armed with their version of Goliath (6'4", 240 pound Jason Burleson), embarrassed the Lions 30-0.

Burleson, who scored two of the Hornets' four touchdowns, took a pitchout on Irion's first possession and rumbled 55 yards for the first score of the game.

On Ozona's ensuing drive, quarterback Copie Davis threw the first of three interceptions, giving the Hornets the ball. Davis went one for seven, two yards passing and three interceptions.

The second Hornet score came on a 30 yard scoring pass early in the second quarter. The two point conversion was successful, making the score 14-0. With a little over 2:00 minutes left in the first half, Irion County scored again to close first half scoring and to give Irion County a 22-0 lead.

Cubs pound Iraan 46-0

By T. C. Tucker

Oscar Gutierrez returned the opening kick off for a 58 yard touchdown in Thursday's seventh grade game against Iraan. The Cubs led 8-0 after Lonnie Martinez ramled in for the two-point conversion.

"I feel that we played our best game of the season Thursday night," said Coach Don Payne. "I'm extremely proud of them."

The outstanding hitting of the Cubs' defense intimidated Iraan on their first possession. Led by Ruben Borrego with eight tackles, Jason Vitella and Albert Talamantez each with six, the Cubs' defense would go on to hold Iraan to only 54 yards total offense.

"Albert Talamantez had an outstanding night defensively," said Coach Payne. He also said that Talamantez will begin to play fullback some in the upcoming games.

With Iraan unable to move the ball, the Cubs usually started each of their offensive drives in Iraan territory.

The Cubs' next score came when L. Martinez shot 42 yards to help him end the night with 55 yards rushing.

On the Cubs' next possession, starting at the Iraan forty yard line, Gutierrez hit Mingo Perez for a 40 yard touchdown. The Cubs led 20-0 after the two-point conversion failed.

The Cubs, who would end the night with 335 yards total offense, took control of the ball with 1:09 left in the first half. They Ozona rose up and bit back in the second half as they held the Hornets to one score but could not cross the goal line themselves. The Hornet defense held Ozona to 104 yards total offense in the game and took advantage of the absence of leading Lion rusher Harvey Dominguez. Dominguez was injured against Junction last week and will be out for two to three weeks. Picking up that slack for the Lions was Landon Duncan, who churned out 70 yards rushing on 13 carries for a 5 1/2 yard rushing average. Davis ran for 14 yards on six carries, and Johnny Lumbrana had 10 yards on four carries.

Defensively, Duncan and Lumbrana teamed up for seven tackles apiece. Richard Gray had six tackles, five of which were in the fourth quarter. Wolv Rutherford and Oscar Galindo both came up with a turnover and seven tackles between them.

Next week the Ozona freshmen will play Colorado City, and the remaining J.V. will take on the Colorado City J.V.

started at the Iraan 45, but were forced back to the 50 after a penalty.

Then R. Borrego sped 50 yards off left sweep. However, the Cubs were offside, and the play was called back. Now the Cubs faced a first and twenty, but Borrego took the ball and scored off the same play. None of the Iraan players came close to him as he racked up his only yardage of the night.

Brad Bollier, who came in as quarterback late in the second quarter, completed only one of his six passes. However, the one pass that was completed was the first score of the second half. Bollier hit Shane Pridemore for a 25 yard touchdown.

The next Cub score was early in the third quarter, when Danny DeHoyos bulled his way in from one yard out.

Martin Urbino, who had 56 yards rushing, was second only to Gutierrez who had 59 yards. Urbino scored with two minutes left in the game. Bollier fumbled the ball on the two-point conversion attempt, but fell on it in the end zone.

Other defensive leaders included Gutierrez, Cody Morris, and M. Urbino with three tackles apiece.

Both Cub teams will play Colorado City here this coming Thursday beginning at six p.m.

Coach Payne is optimistic about the upcoming district games. "They will be tougher," he said. "But we will prepare for them each week and be ready by game time."

Rachel's reviews

By Rachel O. Hall

Crockett County has long been known as one of the major sheep producing counties. However, lamb in the local meat market has been limited. Many consumers feel confident in preparing poultry, pork and beef, but feel somewhat limited in preparing lamb.

In order to prepare a variety of tasty lamb dishes, it is important to understand the many cuts of lamb and preparation methods. On Monday, October 21, 7:00 p.m. at the Civic Center, there will be a lamb seminar concentrating on cutting, preparation, cooking and serving of lamb. Anyone may attend this seminar. Orlando Vargas, meat manager at Thornton's Supermarket, and Charlie Frazier, chef at Inn of the West, will be presenting this seminar. Lamb cuts will be available at both Thornton's and T & T's meat markets for a limited time.

There are six basic methods of cooking lamb and two basic classifications of these methods. Dry heat methods of preparing lamb include: roasting, broiling, panbroiling and panfrying. As the name implies, the meat is cooked by dry heat, which means using open pans. Dry heat methods are best for tender cuts of lamb such as loin chops, steaks, leg or sirloin roasts.

Moist heat methods rely on moist heat to cook the meat. Moisture can result from sealing the pan with a lid or cooking the meat covered with a liquid. Less tender cuts of lamb such as shanks, breast, and neck slices are tenderized through moist heat methods. When cooking lamb, regardless of the method used, remember that low heat produces the best results. Slow cooking is more uniform and keeps in juices.

HONEY-MUSTARD GLAZED LAMB

- 1 leg of lamb
- 1/2 cup prepared mustard
- 1/2 cup honey
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon pepper

Place lamb fat side up on rack in open roasting pan. Roast in 325 degree oven for 30 to 35 minutes per pound or until meat thermometer registers 175 degrees to 180 degrees, depending upon desired degree of doneness. Combine remaining ingredients and blend. About 1 hour before end of roasting time, pour honey-mustard mixture over lamb.

PARMESAN BROILED LAMB

- 4 shoulder or loin chops (about 1" thick)

1/4 cup grated Parmesan cheese
2 tablespoons butter or margarine, softened
1/8 teaspoon salt
1/8 teaspoon pepper
Broil chops 3 to 4" from the source of heat for eight minutes or until lightly browned. Turn; broil five more minutes or to desired degree of doneness. Meanwhile, combine remaining ingredients and blend well. After broiling second side, spread cheese mixture on chops; broil two to three minutes longer or until cheese is lightly browned.

Bohannons have visitors from Germany

Berry cobbler proved to be a hit with both a German and an American this last week.

Visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Bohannon were their grandson, Ernest Gill of Hamburg, West Germany, and his friend, Ulrich Klein, 27, of Cologne, West Germany.

Gill, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gill of San Angelo, and Klein, a modern dance and ballet teacher, enjoyed "many helpings of my special cobbler," Mrs. Bohannon reported.

Gill, a 1972 graduate of Angelo State University with a major in journalism and a minor in German, worked for the San Angelo Standard-Times from 1969-1972 reporting on high school and college activities. He had been editor of the Rebellaire at Lee Junior High School and a member of the Campus Corral staff at Central High School. The 35-year-old Gill also worked for the Corpus Christi Caller-Times, the Middlesex News in Framingham, Mass., and the Boston Patriot Ledger.

He presently works as a translator and rewrite editor for the German Press Agency, DPA, the equivalent of the Associated Press or UPI, and as the Hamburg correspondent for Deutsche Welle - a short wave radio service.

Gill recently wrote a guest column for the nationally syndicated New York Times columnist

Party for Amanda

Amanda Joy Hignight, daughter of Sara and John Hignight, celebrated her fourth birthday Monday evening with a party.

Joining her for the festivities were her parents; grandparents, J. B. and Mary Stringer of Mansfield; Jamie, Ty and Kelley Porter, brother Jason, and Harrell, Christine and Cynthia Hodges. A special guest at the party was her new Cabbage Patch Preemie, Fayette Mindy.

Guests were served Cabbage Patch cake and punch.

William Safire.

Klein, who is on his first visit to America following his certification as a dance instructor, graduated from a Hamburg dance academy.

"They are used to walking great distances," Mrs. Bohannon said. One afternoon in San Angelo, Klein disappeared and was gone for many hours. "Our grandson finally called the police who found Klein taking pictures and enjoying the West Texas scenery. I guess we just don't take time to walk a lot."

Ozonans participate in tourney

Six Ozona couples were represented at the West Texas - New Mexico Senior Golf Association Tournament October 7-10 at Lakeway Resort near Austin.

The local couples attending the tournament included: Pete and Jimmie Jacoby, Demp and Katy Jones, Charles and Jonsey Williams, Pleas and Geneice Childress, Bill and Ella Clegg, and Bud and Marilyn Cox.

The 400 participants played golf on three courses - Liveoak, Yaupon and The Hills of Lakeway which was designed by Jack Nicklaus.

Mrs. Jacoby was a member of a second place scramble, composed of three men and one woman.

Marilyn Cox and Charles Williams also were members of a second place scramble team. Their team tied with four other teams for second place.

"We all did well and had a wonderful time," Mrs. Jacoby said. While at the banquet the last night, the Ozonans were joined by former residents Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Simon. They were able to see the former Martha Simon and her family. Dr. Simon presently practices in El Paso. Martha Simon and her family live in Austin.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor:

Saying "Thank You" has always been easy for me, but in a few days I'll also be saying the hardest two words in the world for me to say. I will be saying "Good-bye" to two very special people. They have not only been fellow workers, but very close friends. Whether it was a problem on the job or at home, I knew who I could look up to. These two people have served this community in more ways than one. They have touched many lives besides ours. They came into our lives when we were weakly trying to recover from a very tragic loss. They have been with Crockett County Ambulance Service for many years, sometimes being the only ones on call because there was no one else.

Dub and T. K. O'Bryant, thank you for coming into my life when you did. We'll miss you very much. Good-bye and good luck in your new home and on your new job.

Love,
Tina Moran
