Plane crash claims two

An Air Force pilot and an airman were killed in Crockett County on the afternoon of May 23 when their RF-4C jet crashed on the John Foley (Meadows) ranch 30 miles west of Ozona.

Clayton Kennedy was working cattle in a nearby pasture when he saw a large fireball caused by the accident. The crash occurred during a training mission from Bergstrom Air Force Base near Austin.

Victims of the 3:30 p.m. crash were Captain Mitchell A. Kfoury, 34, the pilot; and Airman 1st Class Russell A. Hunziker, 24, both stationed in Austin. The plane struck near a shallow, dry creekbed called Live Oak Draw, about three miles from Fort Lancaster.

Kfoury, a pilot instructor, is survived by his wife, Suzanne, and three sons. Hunziker is survived by his wife, Tina.

According to Bergstrom public affairs officer, Airman 1st Class Donald Swinscoe, Hunziker was aboard the fatal flight as a reward for outstanding contribution to his job. The Air Force has an incentive ride program to reward specific people who have made outstanding contributions in their field. Hunziker worked as a life support technician in charge of maintaining and checking out flight equipment, such as masks, helmets and oxygen.

Several planes had flown over the area, according to nearby rancher B. B. Ingham. One plane flew so low that "I rushed out of my house sure the plane would hit it," said Mrs. Ingham.

The pilot flies low, about 1,000 feet, as if it were a regular training mission. "They have several flight routes...and go on a low level to take pictures of various areas, towers and bridges," said Swinscoe.

Metal debris from the plane was spread over approximately 1,000 feet. Early investigators at the isolated crash site included Ozona DPS Troopers Sgt. Kenneth Hailey and Dale Taylor, Foley, Sheriff's Department personnel, volunteer firemen and Goodfellow Air Force Base personnel.

The RF-4C serves as a long range multi-sensor plane used for all-weather reconnaissance missions. Completion of the investigation of the crash is expected to take about six months. A board of officers from Bergstrom and Goodfellow will not make public the results of a preliminary investigation.

Survey reveals shoppers' preferences

Convenience, service and loyalty are the main reasons residents shop Ozona according to the results of a recently released consumer opinion survey. The survey was taken in early 1986 and tabulated for the Ozona Chamber of Commerce by James I. Mallett and Rachel O. Hall of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and Beth Boyd, Chamber secretary. Results were discussed by Mallett at a called meeting of the chamber last Wednesday.

Price, selection and quality were the primary reasons for shopping San Angelo according to the survey.

Four panels of consumers representing old timers, newcomers, business and professional people, and youth participated in the survey. Panels consisted of from five to eight individuals from selected areas of interest. The questionnaires related to spending patterns, buying habits and reasons for shopping decisions.

"I feel like he did a real good job," said Chamber President Steve Sessom of James Mallett who presented the results.

Areas covered included: grocery stores, eating and drinking establishments, general merchandise, clothing and shoes, furniture and appliances, garden supplies, hardware and building supplies, service stations, drug stores, recreation services, new and used cars, auto repair, miscellaneous repair, medical and dental, banking and finance, accounting and legal services and insurance.

While throughout the survey there were some suggestions for improvement, the overall attitude of the people in Ozona is a very high level of satisfaction with their community. They are proud of their school system, they enjoy their friends and neighbors, and they appreciate the friendly attitude of the town. The churches and religious activities are highly appreciated. The consumers in Ozona feel they have some outstanding community facilities, including the museum, the library, streets and lighting systems, sports facilities and high quality community services and facilities. The people of Ozona appreciate and want to support local businesses. They like the friendly services and attitude of everyone. Some of the shopping in San Angelo seems to be associated with the recreational and entertainment aspects of shopping out of town.

The survey indicates that the people of Ozona are proud of their Chamber of Commerce, they respect and appreciate public officials and are complimentary of the many community organizations that provide recreational, social and entertainment opportunities as well as public service.

Newcomers to the community are pleased with the friendly and helpful attitude and the quality and availability of public services. They particularly appreciate the schools and churches. However, newcomers have a different feeling about available housing as compared to the established citizens in the community. Part of this problem may be lack of communication about the availability of housing.

Suggestions for change included additional space for the museum, social activities and a meeting place for senior citizens as well as a combination of entertainment opportunities, particularly for the dating aged youth such as bowling, skating or a theater.

Gym, stadium improvements set

The Board of Trustees of Crockett County Consolidated Common School District, meeting in special session on Wednesday, May 21, approved two improvement projects to be performed during the approaching summer.

A lighting project at Lion Stadium will replace the existing lighting system. This became necessary when tests made on the existing wooden poles indicated that the poles were deteriorating beyond safe levels. The wiring system and the fixtures also have been giving operational problems for the past two years.

The system to be installed will produce a greater degree of illumination and will result in a 66 percent operational savings and decreased maintenance costs.

Voting for the Texas Silver Haired Legislature will be Friday, May 30, from 10:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m. at the Crockett County Courthouse (west entrance).

The Texas Silver Haired Legislature will be an elected, non-partisan body of persons 60 plus years of age. The Silver Haired Legislature meets in the fall of 1986 at the State Capitol. UP WITH PEOPLE

The international cast of Up With People brings their all new hit show "Beat of the Future" to Sonora Bronco Stadium on Sunday, June 7, at 7:30.

Sponsored by the Sesqui-centennial Committee and Sutton County Chamber of Commerce, Up With People's dynamic contemporary production features a talented cast and band of 120 from 14 countries. Cast members range in age from 18-25 and travel with the group for only one year.

Two members of the cast, Lisa Rousse of Buras, LA and Ivan DeKeyser of Belgium, are in the area to promote the event.

Up With People has five groups performing all over the world. The cast which will appear in Sonora will leave for Italy in September, tour West Germany for six weeks and visit other European countries before returning to the United States at the end of the year.

The International Educational/Cultural Organization of which Up With People is a part, was formed 20 years ago by J. Blanton Belk. The original purpose was to transform the negative energy of the '60's into positive energy, said DeKeyser.

Up With People performed at the Superbowl this year for the fourth time.

"Beat of the Future" is an entertaining but thoughtful look at life in the 21st Century - barely a decade away - where there are floating cities, interstellar travel, songwriting computers and the global community of mankind.

Tickets are available at the Ozona Chamber of Commerce for $5.00, adults, and $3.50, students and senior citizens.

Anyone interested in auditioning for the group will be able to do so after the Sonora concert. Selections are made on the basis of personality, not performance, said Rousse.

Message sets goals for graduates

by Cynthia Harrell Hodges

A start toward a new life, a life filled with honesty, interdependence, and justice, marked the 1986 baccalaureate service at the Ozona High School Auditorium May 25.

The evening started with the entrance of the 46 graduates, led by junior escorts Vickie Reagor and Rodney Beasley and Alma Gutierrez and Roger Flores, to the tune "Pomp and Circumstance" played by OHS secretary Barbara Burger.

United Methodist minister Ken Harrison gave the invocation after a brief welcome by OHS principal James Payne.

Following the invocation, the audience and the graduating class joined Katharine Russell in the singing of the hymn, "O-Worship the King," accompanied on the piano by Rosalind Williams.

"We congratulate you, we love you and we need you," Rev. Richard Altenbaugh of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Catholic Church, said in opening his address.

Despite the different roads and jobs taken by the graduates, "all of you need to be peacemakers. We need to work toward peace," Rev. Altenbaugh said.

Three virtues, honesty, interdependence and justice, help to cultivate peace. "We think of honesty as not lying, as telling the truth. A deeper honesty means not lying to oneself...knowing one's abilities and limits."

Interdependence also recognizes the difference between people and how these differences benefit others. Using the example of a football team, Altenbaugh noted that not everyone could be a quarterback. Everyone on the team is dependent on each other.

Justice represents more than justice in the courtroom. "It means rendering to each person his or her due. The fruit of justice is peace. Without justice, there is no peace," said Father Altenbaugh.

"We need peace in our homes, our state, our land. You must work hard at these virtues to obtain that peace."

A farewell hymn, "Blest Be the Tie", and a benediction by Rev. Jim Gray of the First Baptist Church closed the 30 minute service honoring the Class of 1986.

The soon to be graduates marched out of an auditorium filled with parents, friends, and school administrators to the familiar "Pomp and Circumstance."

Middle school graduates to be presented

Ozona Middle School students will be presented in graduation ceremonies May 29 at 1:30 p.m. in the high school auditorium. Principal Jack Probst will present the 65 candidates to their family members, friends and teachers. Home room teachers will present awards for outstanding achievers, honor roll students and the reading certificates.

The public is invited to attend the ceremony.

Suspect charged in shooting

John M. Dayton of Fort Walton Beach, FL remained in custody this week in Pecos County Jail after being charged in the May 23 shooting of a traveler on I-10.

Mark Scott Ellis, 21, of Hollywood, FL was shot to death at about 4:20 p.m. Friday at mile marker 325 on I-10 west of Ozona. Area officers were asked to assist with a road block, and the suspect was arrested in Pecos County at 4:53 p.m.

The shooting occurred at the overpass where I-10 turns to go to Iraan according to Pecos County Sheriff Bruce Wilson. Ellis and a passenger in his 1984 Pontiac Transam had pulled off the road and were talking to Dayton when the shooting occurred.

The suspect pulled a pistol from a duffle bag on the back of his motorcycle and shot Ellis, said Wilson.

"I don't connect him with any gangs," said Wilson, who said that no motive had been discovered in the shooting.

Dayton remains in Pecos County Jail in lieu of a $50,000.00 bond.

Kiddie Klub graduates 29

By Cynthia Harrell Hodges

Graduation day for 29 active five-year-olds ended their preschool careers at the annual Kiddie Klub spring program held at the Ozona Community Center May 23.

Each student entered and bowed or curtsied during the playing of the processional "Pomp and Circumstance" by Ozona Community Center board member Mrs. R. A. Harrell.

Songs sung by the students included: "Friends", "Jesus Loves the Little Children", "It is Spring Time", "One, Two, Three Song", "Ten Little Indians", "Rainbow Song", "The Shape Song", "The Robin Song" and "Spring".

Familiar songs from years past included "I'm a Person", "Love Makes the World go Round", "Green Grows the Leaves on the Apple Tree" and "Fuzzy Caterpillar". Showing off their bilingual ability was the Spanish song "Par-chis, Par-chis".

The singing portion of the program closed with the tunes "Playmates", "Welcome to the Spring", "Together", the irrepresible "Did You Feed My Cow?" and "We are the World".

Board member Virginia Cotton then presented the graduation certificates.

A play depicting the story of the "Three Bears" was presented to the delight of interested parents and friends. Cast members included Ricky Dominguez as Papa Bear, Misty Dawn James as Mama Bear, Mark Childress as Baby Bear, and Taylor O'Neal as Goldilocks.

Mrs. Harrell then recognized the efforts of head teacher Stella Valadez

Circle Bar Truck Corral provides services to travelers

Expansion and continuing growth have helped the Circle Bar Truck Corral business complex provide service for all parts of the traveling public.

The Circle Bar Truck Corral originally opened August 1977, and this phase of the business has been joined by the opening of a motel in January 1978. A convenience store opened in early 1980, as did a 50 spot mobile home park for the benefit of the growing number of employees. The newest phase of the complex, a 96 spot recreational vehicle park, including its own swimming pool and three laundromats, will open June 1.

Under the ownership of Crockett County rancher Tom Mitchell, the truck stop provides a resting and refueling place for truckers traveling between El Paso and San Antonio.

General manager Jeffrey Stuart noted recently that the complex had grown from employing 70 persons when first opened to more than 100 presently. "At one time or another, almost everyone in Ozona has worked here."

The R.V. park will enable the complex to service an ever widening part of the traveling American society. "This was basically the only aspect of the business we were missing," said Stuart. The park will serve R.V. travelers between San Antonio and Fort Stockton.

Future expansion at the Circle Bar may include a catfish farm and a duck pond for children. "We want people to stay here more than one night. We want Ozona to be a tourist center," said Stuart.

The retail store at the truck stop provides travelers and Ozonans with fashion styles for men, women children. The store has been open since the beginning, though it has been expanded in recent years to include fine jewelry, trucker's needs, shoes and souvenirs.

"The truck stop helps Ozona economically. We have the third largest payroll, behind the county and the school system. We are good for the community," said the nine year employee and manager.

Stuart started out as warehouse manager for the complex when it opened. Aside from the refueling aspect of the truck stop, mechanics also service the large 18 wheelers.

Also opening June 1 will be the antique car museum. The cars in the museum are ones owner Tom Mitchell built himself. Presently and parked in the museum, which will be open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily, are a 1947 Ford pickup, an Indianapolis 500 race car and a 1929 Roadster. The auto mechanics class several years ago assisted with the restoration on the 1929 Roadster. "The class won all the top awards." The museum will have rotating displays, including speed boats and other forms of transportation.

Managers at the industrial complex include: Stuart; June Meadows, motel manager; Don Kilgore, warehouse and welding supply; David Pagan, convenience store; Ed Reneau, fuel plaza; Bill King, R.V. park and museum; Linda Kramer, retail store; and Joe Tobar, who has leased the restaurant and steakhouse.

A sidelight to the operation of the business end of the operation has been the Circle Bar racing team, headed by driver Chet Phillip and crew chief Cory Phillip. For five years, the team raced in the Indianapolis 500. "The team presently races stock cars and is based in Kanapolis, N.C.

The racing team has qualified for all 20 races it has entered this year. Despite some mechanical difficulties encountered by the team, the drivers, are "getting ready for the major races now."

"We have a little town here. Approximately 40 families live here. If we had a post office, we would be a town. All facilities here are open 24 hours. Getting help is the hardest aspect of my job," said Stuart, who divides his efforts between work and presidency of the T-ball little league program.

The Circle Bar Truck Stop complex, with its look to the future, continues to grow and change with each passing year.

Though the 12 pump, four island truck bays provide the heart of the complex, the store, the motel (the most profitable part of the business), the convenience store, the museum, and R.V. park all contribute to the total growth of Ozona and the Circle Bar itself.

Members of the Levis and Lace Square Dance Club enjoyed a twirl around the floor at graduation Saturday night. The club will meet on the second and fourth Fridays throughout the summer.

Care Center makes push for residents

Crockett County Care Center is currently conducting a public awareness campaign, in an effort to improve occupancy levels.

Planned expansions and improvements of the main facility, plus recent additions of new equipment should make the Care Center more comfortable than ever.

The Hospital Auxiliary recently furnished the Center with a van for rides in the country and a Whirlpool tub with a built-in lift for easy accessibility.

An upcoming project for the Care Center is an extension of the dining room area for wheelchair patients.

The 42-bed facility features home-cooked, well-balanced meals served daily. Planned activities are offered daily with much input from the community.

Crockett County Care Center has a staff of qualified nursing personnel who give individualized care around the clock.

All night party honors graduates

The second annual all night graduation party, All Night Long - in Hawaii has been planned to provide Ozona High School teens with an alternative to accidents, drinking and drugs.

Sponsored by the Civic Center Board under the direction of Patti Jones, president, the Hawaiian party will start immediately following graduation ceremonies May 30 at the Civic Center.

Those attending the party must sign in and out, explained Mrs. Jones. "That way, if parents call, we can tell them where their children are." After 1:00 a.m., there will be a lock-in, and no one can sign out.

The all night party is based on the outlines sent by the Texas War on Drugs, but is not affiliated with that program.

Last year's party had 165 high schooler's partying, and 110 spent the night. The party honors the 1986 graduating class, but all high school age youth may attend.

Activities scheduled include a dance contest, live broadcast by KRCT, pool, snooker, ping pong, darts, football and other games. Drawings will be held hourly for door prizes, and persons must be present to win.

A surprise guest entertainer will perform after the 1:00 a.m. lock-in. Students who wish to watch movies may in the all night theater. An assortment of homemade snacks and treats will be served.

Assisting Mrs. Jones with the preparations and decorations are Civic Center board members Jan Miller, Camille Jones, Rosie Davis, Cliff McMullan, Rhonda Yarborough, Alice Lopez, Frances Denman and Carmen Sutton, as well as interested parents.

Rain, wind sweep county

General slow falling rains over the weekend provided local ranchers with a brief reprieve from drought conditions which have plagued this area of the state for the past four years.

The rains, which continued into Tuesday, provided the icing on the cake following last week's showers. Some draws and gulleys ran for the first time in recent memory.

All areas of the county reported some rain, with the southern portion getting the most generous amounts.

During the early morning hours Tuesday, thunderstorms struck with strong winds.

Steve Williams, manager of West Texas Utilities, reported a number of minor problems, particularly on the south side of town.

One breaker was tripped north of Ozona near the Crockett County Road Department, and power was out to that area for one hour. "All power has now been restored, but we had a late night of it," said Williams. At least it wasn't as bad as it could have been."

Telephone service was interrupted in part of the Ozona, and electricity and telephone service outages were also reported in the rural areas.

The Crockett County Road Department personnel reported widespread damage, especially to outlying county roads.

Tree limbs were broken all over town due to high winds late Monday night and early Tuesday morning. The city park was littered with limbs of various sizes. Limbs also blocked certain parts of Avenue C said Road spokesperson Pat Aiguier.

The north part of the county reported rain soaked roads but none closed. Toward the northwest, draws in Todd Field were running May 27.

By Tuesday morning, all crossings were running at Clayton's Big Mill Ranch, and the roads were impassable due to high water. The Vic Montgomery road had all draw crossings running.

There was some pavement damage to the Pikes Peak Road, but it remained passable.

The rains appeared heavier in the southern part of the County. Most of the windows at the Massie West ranch house were hailed out, and four inches of rain were reported there over a two day period. The Pancho McMullan Ranch received three inches late Monday and early Tuesday.

Johnson Draw adjacent to the Pierce and Acton ranches ran, and electricity was out for a brief time Tuesday at the Acton place. The Kincaid Road had heavy rain soakings and was impassable early Tuesday.

On the Baggett Road, the draws were up and parts of the road washed out.

East of Ozona on Taylor Box Road, the draw was running and it remained impassable early Tuesday morning.

Weekend rainfall reported included: John Childress, north, 1.2"; R. A. Harrell, south, 1.5 - 2.7"; Buddy Moore, south, 1.2"; B. B. Ingham, west, .5; Brock Jones, south, 2"; Bill Black, north, 1.2"; Amos Owens, west, .8; Wade Richardson, south, .2"; and Dempster Jones, east, .5.

Rainfall amounts for early Tuesday included: C&H Ranch, southwest, 2.2 inches; Jack Riggs, south, 2.4 inches; Brock Jones, south, 2 inches; Pancho McMullan, south, 3 inches; and Bill Baggett, 1 1/4 inches (three day total).

Why is it you never have time to do something right, but you always have time to do it over? -Anon.

It wasn't the first thing that happened this week, but we had a rain Sunday afternoon and another around midnight. An inch and four-tenths fell at the house. Some places on the ranch had more, some less. The J. S. Pierce ranch had more. Government Draw ran, and they had water gaps along the highway. Weldon Maness had a really nice rain above Bean Hill.

R & R Canoeing had a fish fry Saturday night down at the Pecos River Crossing. We had weekend guests and didn't attend.

Though we were down at the river Saturday afternoon so the kids could wade in the Pecos.

There were about ten camps set up on the rockbed of the river then, and as we came home, we met several more cars with various types of camping equipment. It was stormy in that direction all Saturday night and Sunday morning. About 1:00 p.m. Sunday there was quite a string of cars, pickups and such coming from that way with wet bedding.

Our visitors for the weekend were Mike and Janice Sherrod, Courtney and Hunter of Midland. We had a nice visit, a couple of cook outs and a picnic. The kids enjoyed a ride in the rough country and the wildlife in Dog Canyon. Mike and Janice played in the Scotch Foursome with Calvin. They didn't win, but they had a good time.

Incentive payments announced

Payment for the 1985 wool and unshorn lamb incentive amounted to $1,877,090.74 to 121 Crockett County producers. Incentive payments to 102 mohair producers totaled $869,122.26. There were 1,233,658 pounds of wool, 902,285 pounds of mohair and 72,047 head of unshorn lambs.

Many producers have heard that the Gramm-Rudman Act cut the 1985 incentive by a little over four percent. It was not the Gramm-Rudman Act, but the Wool Act itself. The Wool Act gives Congress the authority to freeze the support price at a previous year's level. Producers can expect to see the Gramm-Rudman cuts on their 1986 incentives.

LTA sign-up ends May 30

The sign-up for the Long Term Agreement (LTA) with the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service began May 19 and will continue through May 30. The LTA program allows land owners to draw up to $3,500.00 a year for a three to five year contract.

Practices that can be cost-shared under the LTA are: brush work, pipelines, water storage, water wells and fences.

The Soil Conservation Service has the technical responsibility for the program.

For more information, contact the office before May 30.

The Crockett County Committee requested a meeting of the County Emergency Board to review drought conditions. As a result, a request was sent in to implement the Feed Assistance Program.

Drilling reported

Rosewood Resources (POC) Inc., Dallas, will drill the No. 4 James T. Padgett, a 6,000-foot wildcat in Crockett County, 5/8 mile west of the dual lower Strawn oil and Connell gas opener in the Padgett field and eight miles northeast of Sheffield.

Location is 1,840 feet from the northwest and 1,825 feet from the northeast lines of 17-AZ-S.C. White Survey. Ground elevation is 2,346 feet.

The dual opener, the firm's No. 2 James T. Padgett, was completed June 17, 1984. From the Connell, it was finalized for a calculated, absolute open flow of 850,000 cubic feet of gas daily, with gas-liquid ratio of 324,585-1, through perforations at 6,434-44 feet. From the lower Strawn, it was finalized to flow 83.53 barrels of 35.1 gravity oil, plus 5.56 barrels of water, with gas-oil ratio of 2,550-1, through an 18-64 inch choke and perforations at 6,332-348 feet. The latter pay presently is shut in.

Dune Petroleum Corp., Midland, will drill the No. 1 Southland-Noble in Crockett County as an approximate 2.5 mile west outpost to the current three-well Queen gas area in the Donham multipay field and as an approximate three-mile west and slightly south outpost to San Andres oil production in the Wyatt multipay field, 17 miles northwest of Ozona.

Location is 1,800 feet from the north and 467 feet from the east lines of 32-WX-GC&SF, Abst. 4961. Contract depth is 1,600 feet and ground elevation is 2,470 feet.

Rangeland restoration is District's primary objective

By George Peacock Jr.

One of the primary objectives of the Crockett Soil and Water Conservation District is to assist ranchers in restoring their rangeland to its highest productive potential. To accomplish this, the development of some type of long range plan by the rancher is necessary.

The first step in developing this plan is for a rancher to inventory his pastures and compare the range plants present to the potential plants that would grow on that soil type. Certain plants dominate an area of land because they are best adapted to that soil, temperature, rainfall, elevation, exposure, and other ecological factors such as natural fires and grazing. This mixture of plants best suited to a particular site is referred to as the climax plant community for that site. Most generally, this is the most productive state of any plant community.

Through man's influence in this country over the past decades, most of our plant communities have deteriorated far below this highly productive state. Any type of disturbance such as continuous overgrazing, extended drought periods, or wildfires during hot, dry summer months can change the potential plant community from desirable, highly productive grasses to low producing grasses and often permits invasion of moisture robbing woody plants.

Once a rancher has completed his resource inventory and determined how his range condition compares to the climax plant community, he can then develop a plan to restore his range back to its highest productive potential. To accomplish this, a planned grazing system or some type of growing season deferment must be incorporated into the plan. Basically, managing animals to graze plants at the proper time and to the right intensity will stimulate plant growth, especially the desirable grasses. This managed grazing, coupled with proper resting of plants, will increase the vigor of the more desirable plants and allow them to better compete with less desirable plants for sunlight, moisture and plant nutrients. The plants that are best adapted and most competitive will begin to dominate the site once again.

Our grasslands developed under grazing conditions. Large herds of bison and other animals would graze an area of grassland and then migrate to another. This provided the grazed area with a rest period. Grazing and rest cycles stimulated the grasslands and kept them productive. For more information and assistance, contact the Soil Conservation Service in Ozona, assisting the Crockett Soil and Water Conservation District.

Rachel's reviews

By Rachel O. Hall

A new diet book called Fit for Life has been confused with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service "Fit For Life" weight control program. There is absolutely no connection between the two. The Fit for Life book written by Harvey and Marilyn Diamond, published by Warner Books, is based on untested theory. Nutritional advice does not meet the RDA for calcium, and if followed by a dieter according to A&M nutrition and health specialists.

centrated foods (everything else). And since eating two concentrated foods together will neutralize stomach acid and cause the foods to rot in the stomach, protein and carbohydrate foods cannot be eaten together.

Based on this theory, the authors prescribe a diet as follows: only fruit and fruit juice before noon, fruit and salad for lunch, vegetables and either a starch or a protein food for dinner. Nuts and nut butters, pasta, bread and grains are allowed in the lunch and dinner meals, but all dairy products except butter are off limits.

The authors do state that approximately 10 percent of users of this diet will experience some initial discomfort (diarrhea, bloating, running nose, etc.) but this is ascribed to the body doing its job of removing toxins. But the most serious problem with this diet is the lack of a significant source of calcium.

Fortunately for the public, the restricted eating patterns and unrealistic calorie reductions proposed by this diet will prove to be too much to maintain. Contrary to the authors' claim, diet requires unrealistic changes in eating habits that will be difficult for most people to follow.

This is fortunate since it is extremely unbalanced nutritionally and its use could increase the incidence of osteoporosis.

The authors base their advice on the concept of Natural Hygiene. According to this theory, the body has three natural cycles: appropriation, or eating and digesting (noon to 8 p.m.); assimilation, or absorption and use (8 p.m. to 4 a.m.), and elimination of body wastes (4 a.m. to noon). The authors attribute weight gain to the buildup of toxins from eating foods in inappropriate combinations and at inappropriate times in the body's natural cycle. Conversely, one loses weight by eating foods in appropriate combinations during each of the body's three cycles so that the body's natural energy will remove excess weight.

The authors claim that since the body is 70 percent water, the appropriate diet must be 70 percent water, hence the best diet is one composed of 70 percent fruits and vegetables and 30 percent con-

Leading the band

The Pride of Crockett County, the Ozona Lion Band, will march out this year lead by new and familiar faces. Senior drum major, Darla Judd, will head-up the front lines, along with returning head twirler, Jennifer Probst, senior. Twirling with Jennifer again this fall will be senior Peggy Knox and juniors Judy Flores and Sandra Ramirez.

The flag corps once again will be led by senior Captain Janette Diaz, and her troop of seniors, Shawna McCary, Tonya Carter, juniors Shawna Newton, Eileen Moran, Trebie West, Suzi King and sophomore Jo Ann Hohertz.

HOME DEMONSTRATION CLUB MEETS

The Crockett Heights Home Demonstration Club met May 13 at the Crockett County National Bank.

Those attending were: Polly Mayes, Kim Hager, Doris Karr, Roberta Schoenhals, Charlotte Trull, Marilyn Chalmers and Yvonne McPeak.

Ozona holds Hands Across America

Though local participants had to drive more than 300 miles to participate in the May 25 Hands Across America benefit to aid the homeless and hungry in the United States, they feel the effort was well worth it.

Petra Hernandez, Robert and Albert Longoria left Ozona at 4:00 a.m. to arrive at Kirkland, located in the Texas Panhandle near Childress. Kirkland was the nearest stop to Ozona for the program.

"It was something different to do, and we met a lot of people from Abilene, Corpus Christi and Childress," said Ms. Hernandez. "We each donated $40 to the program."

RETAIL DRIFT IS COSTING YOUR COMMUNITY MILLIONS OF DOLLARS

Retail drift is the technical term researchers use when dollars generated in a smaller community are spent in a large community or nearby city.

A recent major university study says: "Small town residents who leave their communities to shop in big-city malls are committing a form of economic suicide." The study concludes the retail drift is so severe that it could be the death knell for some communities.

Shopping at home is the only way to stop retail drift. Keeping your dollars at home helps keep your community strong and economically healthy.

It's simple logic. Your hometown businesses provide the same or equivalent goods and services at the same or better prices with less traveling time and expense.

SHOP AT HOME

Third graders ran 277 miles for Helping Hands as a fund raiser for the senior citizen group.

Fourth graders recorded 140 miles for Helping Hands during recess and lunch time runs.

The fifth grade classes totaled 195 miles during the recent Helping Hands fund raiser.

Fire at tank battery

A tank battery at the Wintershaw lease in Crockett County caught fire Sunday during a thunderstorm. Fire Department volunteers were called to the scene at 9:29 a.m. where they found four tanks on fire, each with a 350 barrel capacity.

The volunteers were back at the station after two hours, 2400 gallons of water and 30 gallons of foam were spent on the blaze.

No estimate of damage was available.

Another fire on the 25th, a car fire, called volunteers out of town. The 5:10 p.m. incident occurred at 5:10 p.m. near mile marker 354 west of Ozona. Six men used 700 gallons of water on the burning vehicle.

At the library this summer

The Crockett County Public Library will be open all summer at regular hours of Monday through Friday from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. and on Monday and Thursday nights from 6:00 to 9:00.

The Friends of the Library will be offering special summer programs for the kids. Story Hour will continue, but will move to a week day, probably Monday morning. Story Hour is for all three to five-year-olds. There will be a Celebrate Texas reading program with certificates and prizes for the number of books read for kids up to 10-years-old. Films, special programs and projects will be offered for the older kids. It's going to be a fun summer at the library.

"We are getting more new books in every day. Come check us out," says Librarian Louise Ledoux.

Retrieval of money sought by court

The San Angelo law firm of Webb, Stokes and Sparks was hired last week to represent Crockett County in an attempt to recover $600,000 confiscated here May 11. Commissioners made the decision to hire the firm during a called meeting.

State law mandates that money will stay in the county where it is found abandoned says Judge A. O. Fields. The funds in question were discovered during a routine traffic stop. Both the driver and passenger denied ownership of the money.

The Crockett County seizure was part of $2,467,460 recovered by officers in Texas since January. Pecos County officers confiscated more than one million dollars in suspected drug money May 21 during a routine traffic stop near Sheffield.

Mrs. Longoria was born November 6, 1910 in Ozona. She was a homemaker.

Sanchez tops West Texas

Danny Sanchez' third place win in the 3200m run at state with a time of 9:39.34 was enough to be the top time in West Texas in all divisions, says Coach Pete Maldonado. Sanchez, only a sophomore, has two more years to top this excellent performance.

Sanchez ended a very successful track season along with the track team.

In anticipation of the classification drop, the Ozona Lions' track team is looking for an even more productive year in 1987.

As you may know, my husband, Raymond Davee, recently passed away while serving as Justice of the Peace. I have been appointed to his position for the remainder of the term. His name will appear on the ballot for the run-off election. I respectfully request your vote for him.

A gym project has been under study for over a year, and the decision to complete the project will put all dressing facilities for basketball boys and girls inside the Davidson Gym.

Larry Williams, would be free to select anyone from the community willing to serve as a candidate, said Fields.

Incumbent B. W. Stuart and Jerry Hill are on the ballot for the Precinct 2 commissioner slot, and the names of Robert Longoria and Steve Kenley are down for county chairman.

Across the state, the positions of Railroad Commissioner, Justice, Supreme Court Places 1, 2 and 4, and the Court of Criminal Appeals, Place 1, are on the run-off ballot.

Survey

officials seem to be highly respected and appreciated in Ozona. However, there was a serious concern expressed about automobile safety for the youth. Other communities have been successful in dealing with this problem by involving the youth or representatives from youth groups in establishing rules and procedures and helping to monitor the situation. The survey comments indicated that however this problem is approached, it seems to merit further consideration by the community.

The retail business sector received high marks by consumers, particularly with regard to customer relations, reasonable prices and convenience. Desired areas include: additional fast food and family restaurants, appliance repair services, entertainment facilities and availability and information about housing.

Copies of the survey are available at the Chamber of Commerce for interested merchants. Comments by those surveyed will provide useful insight to businessmen, which could be beneficial as planning tools. Shopping trends and statistics are easy to follow on charts within the survey booklet.
