Record Shows Profit From Carnival Stand

Awards were given for the best costumes and to the store manager with best personnel participation for the annual Sidewalk Sale held Friday, June 28, were presented during the regular meeting of the Businessmen's Activities Committee held Tuesday at 10 a.m. in Muleshoe State Bank.

Mrs. Delma McCarty was awarded a $25 bond for having worn the costume judged "best" by a group of individuals and Mrs. C. W. Goss was presented a check for $10 as second place prize winner on costume. Mrs. McCarty is employed by Anthony's and Mrs. Goss is employed at St. Clair's. The store prize went to Cobb's for having the best personnel participation and a plaque was presented to Roger Albertson, manager.

Honorable mentions for prizes were Lindal Murray, Roger Albertson and Royce Harris. Burrows told the business owners asked for a return engagement here for the month of September. This is to be considered further by the businessmen.

Presentations were made by Mrs. J. Pat Wagon on behalf of Sidewalk Sale Chairman John Leyba, who was unable to attend the meeting.

Mrs. Wagon explained that the judging was done by individuals who did not know who the other judges were, and each turned in the names of persons selected by themselves as winners. The choice of the individual judges were compiled to get the final results.

Olan Burrows, presiding during the Tuesday meeting, gave a profit report of the Sonny Stafford Carnival which was here last week, noting that it was successful and $438 went into the fund to promote Muleshoe as a result of the revenue from it.

Local businessmen worked in the ticket windows and received 20 percent of the money plus $5 per concession.

Mr. and Mrs. Micky Rai Wilson and young daughter, RaiLynn, Rundell, were houseguests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Coffman, over the weekend. Mrs. Wilson is the former Jeanine Coffman.

Donald Barnett, Hanford, Calif. and Richard Barnett, Saigon, Vietnam, are arriving in Lubbock Thursday and Friday to be at the bedside of an aunt, Mary Barnett, who is seriously ill.

PROFIT MADE—Curtis Wellborn served as carnival chairman during the Businessmen Activities Committee-sponsored appearance of the Sonny Stafford Carnival here last week. He is pictured here handing more than $400 in cash to Olan Burrows, chairman of the Businessmen Activities Committee of the Chamber of Commerce. The money is to be used for various activities for the community. Wellborn worked at the carnival each night during the week-long stand and arranged for other workers to help in ticket windows.

AWARDS PRESENTED—Judges went about town last Friday, neither knowing the other judges' identity, and viewed persons dressed in costume in keeping with the "Gay Nineties" theme of Friday's Sidewalk Sale. As a result of the individual votes, Mrs. Delma McCarty was first place winner of the $25 Savings Bond; Mrs. C. W. Goss was second place winner and was presented with $10 in prize money and Roger Albertson, Cobb's manager, was presented a plaque for store personnel participation. Mrs. J. Pat Wagon pictured at right, made the presentations to the winners due to Sidewalk Sale Chairman John Leyba being out of town. Mrs. Wagon is president of the Muleshoe Area Service Women's Organization.

Today- July 4 - Independence Day Patriotism Freedom

Courageous men came long ago to this virgin land, and it blossomed under their hands. They contended with the greatest tasks of human society and government, and a great republic was reared. They cherished noble ideals, and their commonwealth reached out to lead and influence the world.

They built upon supreme, universal, eternal principles. They saw in their small domain weakness, but they made it into goodness. They beheld enemies without fear, opposition without despair, problems without evasion and sacrifices without cowardice.

So long as the principles of our forefathers remain, no storms of destruction shall prevail. Out of every strife we have grown stronger, until we are welded into one irresistible unbreakable nation.

We celebrate the ideals of our great republic — ideals of freedom and justice, and equality of opportunity, to which the founders dedicated our nation. These are the thoughts which should come to our minds on Independence Day.

FREEDOM IS NOT an American invention; it was found in the folk-lore of the ancients, in the resistance of the caveman, in the philosophies of Greece and Rome, and wherever men fought the tyranny of other men.

But the American Declaration of Independence was the great symphony of human freedom, the revolutionary etude of all the hopes and dreams of humanity. Never had man-kind been deemed worthy of so many duties and responsibilities: "All men are created equal." "Governments derived their just powers from the consent of the governed."

Then came the greatest oratorio of all political history — the American Constitution. Those early settlers of the eighteenth century, those implacable lovers of freedom, knew that in order to defend their ideas, it was not sufficient merely to protect their land and possessions, but to defend spiritual things like liberty and justice from those who would destroy them, they must erect a temple, impregnable as the eternal hills. Drawing inspiration from the sages and prophets of all history, Washington, Jefferson, Adams and Franklin created a monument that towers above panics and parties, wars and confusion. May it stand as timeless as the stars in the Heaven above.

Twenty Students Attending Summer School

Twenty pre-school age Latin American students are enrolled in summer school classes being taught by Mrs. Robert Sanders.

For some nine years, Mrs. Sanders has taught this type of orientation classes for students who will be in the first grade with the fall term beginning.

During this eight week period, many things are taught the youngsters to prepare them for public school classes.

Something new has been added this year. A teletrainer, provided by General Telephone Company, is being used to teach the pupils to carry on a telephone conversation.

Mrs. Sanders outlined that when these classes start, many of the Latin students do not know the parts of the body as such. For instance, they do not know the left hand from the right hand. These are some of the basic things which are taught and benefits the children when they enroll for regular classes. During this training period,

LAST TRAIN

Passenger Service Era Closes

Muleshoe during the early morning hours July 5. There is no definite release of information from the Santa Fe headquarters.

Mail which was one of the train's main attractions to those awaiting special letters from a loved one, is now traveling cross country by truck.

There is no longer a mail train through this city which is the county seat of Bailey County. This has changed with the changing times . . .

The Texas Railroad Commission has approved application by Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway to discontinue four passenger trains after a 30-day waiting period. That time has expired.

This ends an era . . . an era of service which will be recorded as fact for a time, then entered in the dusty pages of history for coming generations to read about, more than likely.

There seems to be some question as to whether this service will remain on the discontinued list. Again . . . time alone will tell. . . just as it has for the present state.

Independence Day and the celebration of the Golden Anniversary of Bailey County calls for the dual observance of two important events within this county today . . . July 4, 1968.

Committees have been working long and hard to formulate the plans of this day to make the special occasion it should be for these two important days.

Along with the schedule of plans for events, there must always be some restrictions pointed out in order that the day-long celebration may be carried on without incident and without accident, if possible.

Derrell Oliver, manager of the Chamber of Commerce points out that the barbecue to be held in city park must be restricted to those guests who participate in the parade and their families. Oliver said plans were made for a family picnic for a get-together for old and new settlers alike and the barbecue is a courtesy for those who come in to make the parade a success.

Meat for the barbecue is being donated by John Fried and prepared by Don Cihak and L. B. Hall for the guests. To complete the meal, other menu items will be supplied by the Women's Clubs and service organizations. Food is being prepared for approximately 250 parade participants and guests.

Another request made by the planning organizations is that bottles and cans not be taken onto the football field during the family picnic and night of entertainment.

Oliver stressed that anyone wishing to take drinks onto the field purchase them at the concession stands being operated by the Rotary Club and being served in paper cups. He added that strict compliance with this request will save possible severe injuries to football players this coming season.

Another request of the committee is that no one take their firecrackers to the football stadium. Members of the Bailey County Volunteer Fire Department will set off a series of fireworks for the entertainment of the young and old alike at the conclusion of a program of other entertainment and those who have firecrackers are asked not to bring them to the celebration.

To commemorate the celebration of the dual-purpose day a Wells-Fargo Pony Express ride will originate at Needmore at 5:30 a.m. for the purpose of bringing a copy of the Declaration of Independence into the city just prior to the Ride-in Breakfast.

The Pony Express ride will be made in half-mile to mile relays by riders for the distance. Then, all riders and mounted countians will proceed to the football stadium to join the crowd for a pancake breakfast. Riders have been signing up for the kick-off in unique fashion.

Keith Hansen, manager of Muleshoe Wildlife Refuge for the past two years, has been transferred to the Kirwin National Wildlife Refuge at Kirwin, Kansas.

Hansen and his family left June 26 to make their home in Kansas.

Acting Manager Edd Ary said, "During the past 20 years which I have been at the local refuge, there have been 10 managers train there and taken larger Refuges to manage.

"When the state sends in a new man, he will be number 11. This is a place where the younger managers train and this is the reason for the transfers," Ary concluded the explanation.

Farmers to Fight For Shares

"Cotton farmers obviously are determined to fight for a greater share of the expanding market for fibers," George C. Cortright Jr., chairman of the Cotton Board, said today.

As evidence, the Rolling Fork, Miss., cotton producer cited the collection to date of almost $7 million for research and promotion from the small 1967-68 cotton crop.

Cortright said funds now in transit to the Cotton Board will push the collections to well above the $7-million mark. A total of $6,792,000 had been received as of June 27.

"The extremely low level of refunds -- only three percent of collections -- strongly emphasizes the great value which cotton farmers place on research and promotion and certainly shows they are determined to compete with other fibers for markets," Cortright said.

Established under the Cotton Research and Promotion Act, the collections are on cotton sold prior to June 1, 1968.

The total represents about 95 percent of the 7,366,000 bales of upland cotton ginned during the 1967-68 season as reported by the Department of Commerce, Cortright explained.

He said most of the small differences between ginnings and collections have been accounted for as: (1) in transit Cont'd on Page 3, Col. 4

Member-Guest Tournament

Irvin St. Clair and C. A. Rodgers, Lubbock, were first place winners of the second annual Member - Guest golf tournament held at Muleshoe Country Club.

For second place, a tie was recorded between Jim and John Young with a total score of 123, and Dudley and Wayne Malone with the same total score. The Young brothers were winner in a sudden death play-off for second place title, Cont'd on Page 8, Col. 1

Minor All Stars Named

All-Star players have been selected by respective managers of each team for the Muleshoe Little League Minors.

Four boys were chosen from each Minor League team with one of the four acting as alternate.

Alternates play in the game when and if an All-Star regular is injured or cannot play.

A series of three games for the All-Stars have been set for Thursday, July 4; Friday, July 5 and Saturday, July 6. The first game on July 4 will be played at 5 p.m. at Diel Field, Roger Miller Park.

Games on July 5 and July 6 will be at the same park at 6 p.m. each day.

Ray Campbell was named coach of one of the teams which has been named the "Hornets" and Elmer Davis will coach the "Mules" team.

League sponsors and coaches urge the general public to attend these three games and watch the "cream of the Little League Minor crop" in action.

Babe Ruth All-Stars

For some 55 to 60 boys the suspense had built up to become almost too much by the time the second game of a final night double-header had been played at Babe Ruth Park on Tuesday night.

And . . . the reason for all the suspense . . . it had been announced that the Babe Ruth All-Stars would be named following the games.

Finally, that time came, just after 11 p.m. First to be named by announcer Wayne Williams was Bill Darnell, who had been chosen manager for the All-Star team. This was followed by the two coaches chosen by him. They are Bill Taylor and Bobby Burge.

Then . . . the Babe Ruth All-Stars for 1968 . . . Don Heathington, Mike Riley, Bobby Hays, Randy Field, Lee Wayne Clodfelter, Ed Samis, Keith Turner, Jerry Putman, Johnny Hays, Ricky Seaton, Loy Dale Clark, Terry Gunter, Ronnie Meason, Bucky Taylor and Leroy Medlock.

Also named was Ricky Faver who will be unable to attend the games in Pampa next week due to an eye injury received last week.

The manager of each team selected a list of boys from the five teams playing in Babe Ruth . . . and the boys received town, facilities and labor were supplied the prospect. This is one of 17 cities being surveyed for a possible location site.

Also, information has been supplied a feed processing plant which would use much corn and maize in their product. MAIF has given facts and figures concerning yield, water and quantity of the crops grown here which would be in major demand by this industry.

Elliott has been in contact with cannery industrialists in Springdale, Ark. concerning the test plots of vegetables being grown here for them.

This report shows that the Spinach test plots are being planted behind the wheat crop which has been harvested; sweet potatoes are up and in good shape as are the test plots for peppers and the large acreage of tomatoes being grown for the Arkansas company.

For the purpose of giving prospects of industry a clearer picture and a true picture of Bailey County, MAIF is taking agriculture pictures and pictures of interest and benefit of the city to be compiled as a film story of the county and town and its assets.

This will be a portion of presenting the Muleshoe area to a prospect. Elliott asks the public to call him at Muleshoe State Bank, Derrell Oliver at the Chamber of Commerce, or contact any MAIF member should they see something in the agriculture line which would add to the film story of the area.

Derrell Oliver, manager of the Chamber of Commerce, gave a resume of plans for the July 4 celebration, stressing the points of each event set. (See July 4 story)

Robert Hooten explained that the District Area "A" Little League Tournament would be played in Muleshoe July 15, 16 and 17. Merchants were urged to decorate store windows and welcome signs be erected for the team members and their families who would be in Muleshoe for the first time for district Little League competition.

He added the low operational cost points up the fact that an effective system for handling the program has been established in the first year, and commended the staff of the Cotton Board for their role in accomplishing this objective.

He stated that an additional report, giving a breakdown of collections by states, will be issued when the first year's program is more substantially complete.

Muleshoe Outsiders Continue Winning Streak

Saturday night, a team from Clovis who had never been defeated came to Muleshoe to play the Muleshoe Outsiders.

Now, this team had heard the Outsiders were good . . . but they are a good team, too, so . . .

the game was on. There was no score in the first inning, then in the second inning Clovis scored. In the third time up, Jose Triana made it home for Muleshoe's first score in the book.

In the fourth, there was not a run made for Clovis, but the game was young yet. When John Agee came up to bat for Muleshoe, with him leading off the batting order in the fourth, he hit a long, hard home run almost straight back over center field for Muleshoe's second run.

The Clovis Roadrunners made their second and final score . . . for them . . . of the game in the fifth inning.

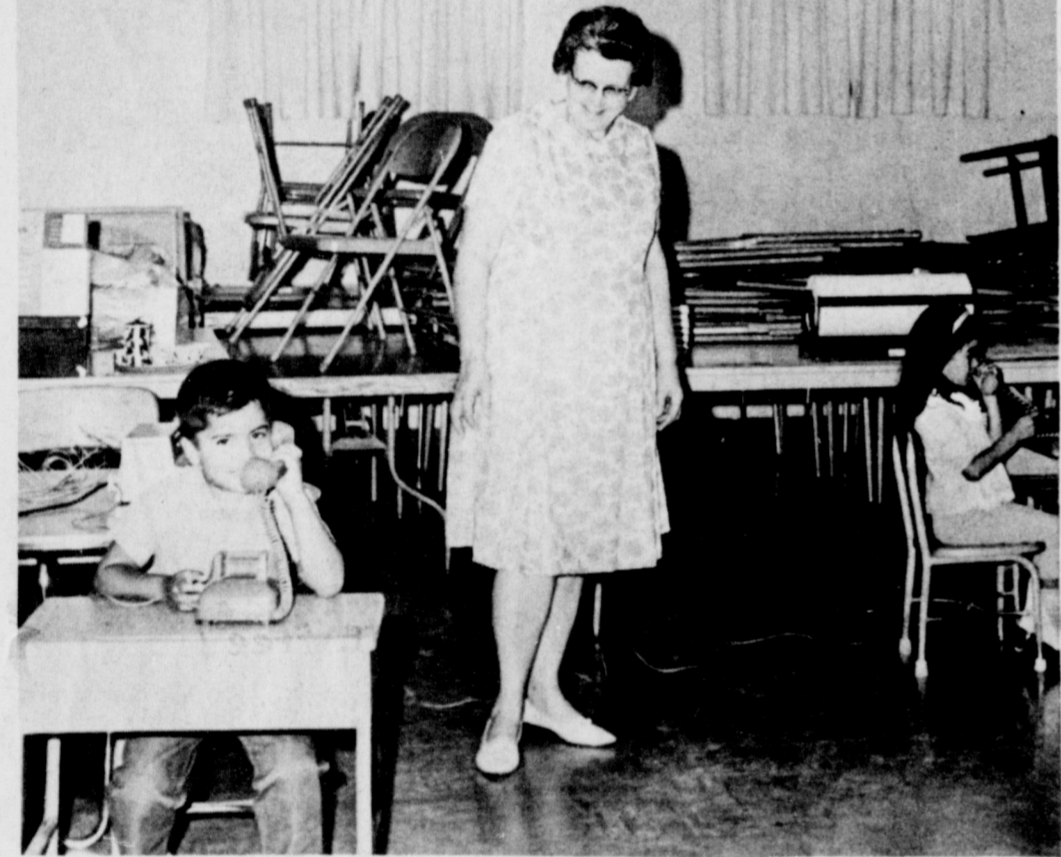

There was no scoring in the sixth and in the seventh Larry Calvert made it home for the Outsiders third run. Then in the eighth Doyle Meadows made one score, John Agee scored and Kenny Heathington scored.

The Roadrunners were defeated for the first time! Now, they were real sportsmen . . . no problems about the game. . . but, not being satisfied with being beaten finally by a small-town team, they have asked for a rematch and the game is scheduled for Saturday night, July 6 at 9 p.m. in Muleshoe Babe Ruth Park.

Eugene Shaw was winning pitcher for the Muleshoe Outsiders, giving up only three hits to Clovis in the game and Robert Wauford was losing pitcher for Clovis. Wauford gave up seven hits to the Muleshoe team. Sunday afternoon at 2:30 p.m. Muleshoe's Outsider baseball team won by a score of 3-1 over the Brownfield Astros.

Scoring for Muleshoe were Bobby Burge, Sammy Gonzales and Kenny Heathington.

Doyle Meadows was winning pitcher in the Brownfield-Muleshoe game. He gave up only two hits during the entire game and three base on balls.

June Wedding Ceremonies Unite Area Couples

Mrs. Gerald Foster
the former Ginger Anderson

Miss Anderson Married to Gerald Foster

Miss Ginger Anderson became the bride of Gerald Wayne Foster in an impressive double ring ceremony Saturday, June 15, 7:30 p.m., in the First Methodist Church of Quitaque. Rev. Billy Foster of Knox City, uncle of the groom, read the service. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Anderson of Quitaque. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Foster of Farwell. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of Summer crepe designed with the high-rise bodice flowing free from a yoke of scalloped lace, fitted with lace sleeves, extending over the hand. The gown had a sanctuary train of Venice lace, trailing from the shoulders. The French imported veil fell from a crown of orange blossoms, Venice lace and high-lighted with seed pearls. She carried a bridal bouquet of orchids and chrysanthemums atop a satin covered Bible, a gift from her late grandfather. The maid of honor was Pat Hoey of Brownfield. Bridesmaids were Nedda Foster, Farwell, sister of the groom and Lynda Keisling of Sunray. They wore floor length gowns of princess style blue satin and carried cascades of daisies. Their headpieces were of daisies and blue nylon net. Lyndon Foster served his brother as best man. Groomsman were Gary Foster, Fort Wolters, brother of the groom; D. A. Foster, Farwell, brother of the groom and Rex Anderson, Quitaque, brother of the bride. Candlelighter was Reta Spencer, Fort Worth, cousin of the bride and ringbearer was Tim McWilliams of Quitaque. Kelly Hawkins of Quitaque was flower girl. Seating guests were Royce Barnes, Lazbuddie and Andy Andrews of Dumas. Pat Herrington of Quitaque rendered wedding selections as Larry Byrd of Amarillo sang, "Love, I Come To You," "Twelfth of Never" and the "Wedding Prayer." Completing her ensemble of tradition, the bride wore a blue garter, for something new, was her gown, her Bible was something old and she wore pennies in her shoes for something borrowed.

Immediately following the wedding, a reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the church. Cake and punch were served by Mrs. Cynthia Elevens of Amarillo and Miss Sandra Brown of Wheeler. After a wedding trip to Dallas, the couple will be at home at Hereford. The bride is a 1965 graduate of Quitaque High School and attended West Texas State University for two years. The bridegroom is a 1963 graduate of Lazbuddie High School and received his B.S. degree in Business in May of 1968 from WTSU and is presently employed by Taylor-Evans Company in Hereford. It is warm weather to talk about furs but they are being shown at this season for the fall. There is variety in the new coats, dresses and stoles. Different shades of mink are used to fashion garments a darker mink may bind a jacket or be used around the hemline or as a collar. Stoles are still popular and the three-quarter length coat is good. Short jackets are smart.

Miss Jan Mitchell Bride of Ray Phipps

Miss Jan Mitchell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Euel Mitchell of Lazbuddie, became the bride of James Ray Phipps Friday evening in the First Baptist Church of Lazbuddie. Officiant for the double ring ceremony was the Rev. Johnny Tims, pastor of the church. Mr. and Mrs. James Phipps of Muleshoe are parents of the groom. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal length wedding gown of re-embroidered lace, fashioned bodice, petal point sleeves and scalloped neckline. The skirt was fashioned of lace tiers. The tiers formed the chapel-length train. A pearl leaf coil secured her pearl edged veil of silk illusion. She carried a cascade bouquet of orchids, ivy and stephanotis, with white satin streamers, love knots and lily of the valley, atop a white Bible covered with lace and pearls. She wore a formal length princess style gown of taupe de soie and carried a colonial nosegay of 'Forever Yours' roses and pom poms, satin bows and streamers. The bridesmaids Christi Ivy and Charlotte Davis, both of Lazbuddie, wore identical dresses. Junior bridesmaids were Sharia Seales and Denise Graham, cousins of the bride, from Littlefield. The candles were lighted by Ginger Johnson of Muleshoe and Wesley Barnes Jr. of Lazbuddie. Ringbearer was David Graef of Dimmitt. Best man was Thomas Dearing of Muleshoe, cousin of the groom. Bears Enjoy After-Game Party

The Little League "Bears" enjoyed ice cream and cake after their game Friday night. The coaches, David Suddeth and Vic Benedict, were honored with plaques and Melvin Griffin was given a "Thank You" trophy. Two members were given birthday cakes. They were Dwayne Shafer and Danny Wilson, who celebrated their eighth birthdays June 30.

Evelyn Northcutt wrote a poem and dedicated it to the members of the Bears. It had a miniature flag and firecracker glued to it.

The poem reads as follows: We're each a Little League Bear, and can even climb a tree.

We've all learned several rules and numbers - even 1-2 and 3. We haven't won all our games, but we've had lots of fun; Pitching, catching, yelling and when we hit a run!

We appreciate and love our coaches, Mr. Dave and Mr. Vic. Guess they sometimes wondered just - what makes us tick! Now the season's over and a trophy we don't have to show;

Jeweled necklines and cuffs on cocktail dresses are favored by some designers.

Colorful shoes with medium heels continue to be popular.

HEALTH AND BEAUTY

You doubtless want to be happy and live a useful healthy life. If you follow the plan pursued by a large number of our population, you will utterly fail in obtaining such results. Two of our worst enemies are hurry and worry. We have learned that those two vicious twins, when they become our constant companions, generally succeed in destroying health and happiness and precipitate us into untimely graves.

Angina pectoris which comes on with an agonizing pain in the chest is often brought on by anger, worry, irritation, and disturbing emotions. They cause spasm of the circulation of the chest which is for the time being deprived of blood. This causes the pain, because the blood supply to the heart is temporarily interfered with.

Circulatory diseases are a leading cause of death in the United States. To hear that a busy man or woman has suddenly been stricken by death has ceased to cause surprise.

our side, we'll be a "Bear" Go-Getter! This is the story of our Little League Gang; We hope to see you all next season, and start off with a Bang!

30 Years Ago

Among the millions of birthdays occurring each year here and there on the earth's face, there is one which is absolutely unique. It is the Fourth of July which millions of Americans celebrated last Monday.

Unlike the proverbial actress, the United States is proud to give its right age. The more than one hundred and fifty years of existence it can boast have all been passed as a democracy, under one type of government and one Constitution. Only the government of England can boast a longer existence. France, Germany, Russia, Japan and the rest have changed their political structures so often that they seem like youngsters compared to us.

But the United States has enjoyed the liberty and justice that comes only under democracy for over over a century and a half now. Every additional birthday becomes a cause for greater rejoicing, for it helps to prove that freedom is the only enduring ideal in a changing world.

It is hard to realize that America has had so many birthdays. Democracy does not show its age. Today, when reactionary systems of all kinds are running wild over half the globe, this country of ours seems by contrast younger than ever for it has the vitality and the strength that goes with youth.

And the Fourth of July - the most important birthday in the world - which was commemorated and celebrated last Monday, should be our reminder that democracy is the only way of life that insures happy birthdays for all of us who live and enjoy our freedom under it.

Dairy Foods Are 'Big' With 4-H Gourmets

SPECIAL--Wine tasting is an indulgence of gourmets the world over. Teenage gourmets in the U. S. are promoting cheese tasting parties. As a matter of fact, they taste and then recommend all kinds of dairy products.

These apprentice gourmets are 4-H members engaged in the national 4-H Dairy Foods program which emphasizes the high nutritional value of dairy products. The program is supported by the Carnation Company.

Arranging cheese tasting parties is only one of the ways 4-H is acquainting girls and boys with the many varieties of cheese and its use in dairy dishes.

Another aim of the 4-H Dairy Foods program is to help youngsters form good eating habits, and influence other members of the family to do likewise. About a half million 4-H'ers are participating in this program, according to the Cooperative Extension Service which supervises 4-H.

"These versatile youths are bound to improve their own diets and acquire a taste for dairy products as well as milk and ice cream," one 4-H leader observed.

Nutritionists recommend four or more glasses of milk daily for teenagers. Carnation provides annual awards for outstanding projects. They are six $600 scholarships; 18 educational trips to the National 4-H Congress in Chicago, a handsome wrist watch to each state award winner, and a dairy foods medal to the four top members in the country.

Pineapple Topsy Turvy

This handsome pineapple pie turned upside down comes out looking more beautiful than right side up. Make the refreshing filling with a can of pineapple tidbits - sweetened and thickened - and a little lemon juice to accent the natural flavor. For an interesting and unusual glaze, coat the pan bottom with butter, brown sugar and pecans before lining with pastry. When friends are invited for coffee and dessert, serve this handsome creation with ice cream.

PINEAPPLE UPSIDE DOWN PIE

1-(1-pound, 4-1/2 ounce) can of pineapple tidbits
Water
3 tablespoons cornstarch
2 tablespoons lemon juice
3/4 cup brown sugar (packed)
6 tablespoons butter
1/2 cup pecan halves
Pastry for double 9-inch crust.
To syrup drained from pineapple, add water to make 1-

1/4 cups liquid. Combine with cornstarch, lemon juice and 1/4 cup brown sugar. Cook, stirring, until clear and thickened. Blend in pineapple and two tablespoons butter. Cool slightly. Melt remaining 4 tablespoons butter in 9-inch pie pan. Sprinkle with remaining 1/2 cup brown sugar and 1 tablespoon water. Arrange pecan halves, rounded side down, around bottom and sides of pan. Carefully line pan with pastry. Spoon in pineapple mixture. Cover with pastry; seal and flute edges. Prick top. Place pie on foil to catch drippings. Bake in hot oven (425 F.) 25 minutes, until browned. Turn out on serving plate immediately. Cool. Makes 1 (9-inch) pie.

ABOUT YOUR HOME

Not many home gardeners know that humus or organic matter made from leaves, weeds grass clippings and different forms of manure and chemical fertilizers do two entirely different things for a garden.

Both types of fertilizers are important because they complement each other. Humus mainly promotes the proper texture of the soil, thus allowing air to come into it, making the soil easier to cultivate. Humus also increases the water-holding capacity of soil and prevents the washing and blowing away of topsoil.

Chemical fertilizers, on the other hand, provide the elements for plant growth that are lacking in the soil. Just which ones are needed can easily be discovered by asking the State Agricultural Stations of almost every state.

Every time a flower is picked or a radish used from a garden a certain amount of phosphorus, potassium, calcium or nitrogen is being removed also. Since these are essential for normal growth in a garden, it is easy to see how necessary it is to replace the reservoir in the soil.

After an 11-year absence from Broadway, Shirley Jones will star in a musical, "Maggie Flynn." Opening date is planned for October for this musical with a Civil War background.

Washington Report

From Congressman

BOB PRICE 10TH DISTRICT, TEXAS

1323 LONGWORTH OFFICE BUILDING, WASHINGTON, D. C. • 225-3706

Since President Johnson limited bombing of the North last March 31, the Communists have renewed their attacks on Saigon civilian centers as well as military and supply centers and added massive rocket attacks. They have, according to Department of Defense estimates, infiltrated more than 29,000 troops into the south during the month of May alone, the highest of any month since the war began.

Some American officials had hoped for evidence by now that the North Vietnamese were actively considering moves toward de-escalation to match President Johnson's limitation on bombing over much of North Vietnam. But now the evidence is only that Hanoi is holding out for further U. S. concessions as the talks continue in Paris.

A U. S. Naval commander said that from a purely tactical military viewpoint, he saw no point in resuming the bombing as before, under the same target restrictions. "Of course, if we were allowed to take out Haiphong, that would be a different matter," he added, "But that is a political decision."

And that is a decision I advocated more than two years ago and still do. Haiphong is North Vietnam's principal port and main supply point for Soviet and Red Chinese war materials entering the country. As a fighter pilot in the Korean war, I know the frustration of allowing the enemy a sanctuary for supply and troop concentrations.

A recent paper drafted by the Republican Task Force on National Security headed by Neil H. McElroy and Thomas S. Gates Jr., both of whom served as Secretary of Defense in the Administration of President Eisenhower, is titled "Gradualism -- Fuel of Wars." The paper said of U. S. policy in Vietnam:

"Ironically, gradualism -- designed to prevent intensification of war -- does the very opposite by preventing timely use of force against aggression. While 'flexible response' blunts our first reactions, gradualism assures the aggressor that our subsequent reactions will also be cautiously phased to prevent over-application of force. Skillfully and patiently applied, the process can hardly fail to nourish a skirmish into a major war."

"Moreover, after each carefully restrained escalation, gradualism dictates a 'pause.' This ingenious stratagem is in effect a one-sided military recess during which the enemy is importuned to recalculate his risks and contritely review his indiscretions as his own deprecations continue. The 'pause' occurring when the aggressor's force has been at least temporarily stalemated by our military effort, actually enables the enemy to recoup his strength at his most vulnerable moment. Thus rejuvenated by successive pauses, the struggle continues and intensifies.

"America's laboratory for testing the gradualism experiment has been Vietnam. There it has failed -- it has prolonged and escalated the war. It has permitted North Vietnam to acquire the weapons, supplies and training from the Soviet Union and Communist China needed to maintain and expand its war-making capability and to withstand punishing attacks. It has preserved the sanctuaries in which the Communists can safely regroup and reinforce. It has long delayed interdiction of the flow of supplies to the South. It has denied our own military the strength and decisiveness the circumstances have required... America's overwhelming power has been fended off, not by the enemy, but by our own hand."

President Eisenhower has repeatedly voiced his opinion that when a nation applies force as we have in Vietnam, then the force should be overwhelming. We have the capability to apply such force which we should know by now is the only language the Communists understand or respect. It is long past time that we did so.

VETERANS Q's and A's

Q -- I made application for a G. I. home loan before the new 6.75 percent interest rate went into effect. However, VA approval of the loan did not come through until after the higher rate became effective. Must I pay the higher rate or does the fact that my application was dated prior to May 7, 1968, entitle me to the previous six percent rate of interest?
 A -- The 6.75 percent rate can be charged although the loan application shows a six percent interest rate and was received by the Veterans Administration before the effective date of the new rate unless a lender made a commitment to lend you the money at six percent.

Q -- I am now going to college under the G. I. Bill. Will I be permitted to take a summer vacation without losing my entitlement to VA assistance allowance or must I undergo continuous training?
 A -- Under the current, or Post-Korean, G. I. Bill, continuous training is not required. You may take a summer vacation or interrupt training any time during the year without losing your entitlement to educational assistance from the Veterans Administration. Of course, while you are on vacation you will not be paid any educational assistance allowance by V. A.

Q -- My son is due to be transferred from a military to a VA hospital for further treatment following his discharge from service. Will he still be eligible to convert his Servicemen's Group Life Insurance (SGLI) to a commercial policy while he is undergoing treatment in a Veterans Administration hospital? If so, must he convert this policy within 120 days after being discharged from the military hospital?
 A -- Your son will be eligible to convert his SGLI policy to a policy offered by any of the more than 570 commercial insurance companies approved by the VA to handle this insurance. He must do so within 120 days after his separation from service.

He should apply to the VA for $10,000 Government Life Insurance (RH) which is available to veterans being discharged from service with a service-connected disability. This insurance is in addition to the SGLI.

Depending on the nature and severity of his disability, he may be eligible for waiver of premiums on this insurance. Veterans Administration representative at the VA hospital where he will be treated will be happy to give him all of the information and assistance he needs in this matter.

Q -- I receive a monthly compensation check from the Veterans Administration. I have recently had a change of address. Should I report the change to the VA or the Treasury Department?
 A -- Your change of address should always be reported to the VA regional Office where your records are located.

Just A Suggestion
 A lot of motorists could afford to be a little more superstitious -- believe in signs, you know.

Pvt. Loafman Sent to Korea

U. S. ARMY, KOREA -- Army Private Numan D. Loafman, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. Loy W. Loafman, Route 1, Friona, was assigned May 31 to the 2nd Battalion of the 2nd Infantry Division's 38th Infantry in Korea as an infantryman.
