"Nice Work" ... "If You Can Get It"

"It's nice work, if you can get it..." and who wouldn't want a working vacation such as Joyce Adams, daughter of the J.K. Adams, and 21 other girls enjoyed. From June 13 to July 12 they toured Europe, along with eight adult women, mainly home economics teachers; as a part of a TCU sponsored trip.

By taking careful notes during the planned activities and listening during several briefing sessions, the girls will be able to write papers on interior design or fashion design and thereby earn three hours college credit for each of the papers written. In the case of graduate students, such as Joyce is, the hours would apply on a master's degree.

In view of previous work done, Joyce approached the study from the standpoint of architectural design or even history. To illustrate, in Rome they studied carefully the natural lighting and when and how sunlight was first used for indoor lighting in buildings. They noted original furnishings in famous buildings, coloring and learned the historical influences which caused certain styles in furniture or architecture. In Paris they visited couture houses where they watched famous models at work, where they were taken behind the scenes and shown fashion designers at work. Much of their traveling was done on their own bus but part of the time they travelled commercially.

Joyce thought it a real coincidence as she was waiting in line at customs office on the return trip that the officer noted on her passport that it had been two years to the day since she had passed through the gate returning home. Although the line waiting was long, he held it up to talk and renew acquaintance.

When asked what she most enjoyed of the whole trip (it was not all work), she thought the night the group had dinner at a restaurant on the second floor of the Eiffel Tower. Because there were so many, they were a curiosity even to the waiters and were given plush treatment.

Making allowance for the language barrier, Joyce said they sometimes were not able to understand all of explanations given the group and their sponsors reviewed these times with them later. A number of the girls were able to interpret for the group, depending upon the country they were in. Joyce found her knowledge of Spanish very helpful in both Madrid, Spain, where they first landed, and surprisingly, also in Italy.

From Madrid they went to Rome for three or four days and then to Florence, both of which she found so beautiful. In these cities they visited many museums, very large and very old ones, some as large as twelve stories.

From Italy they went to Salzburg, Vienna which Joyce found disappointing because she had expected it to be exactly like "Sound of Music", but still very beautiful. Vienna seemed to be the most utilized countryside of all they saw, every inch was used for harvestable crops. They went by bus through Bavaria and drove into Munich, a city very busy getting ready for the 1972 Olympics and very interesting, Joyce thought. Here the girls found the twelve-story museum and marvelled at the amount of artifacts and historical items collected. They particularly enjoyed the Grecian artifacts.

Berlin, the next stop, was so industrialized and 'enjoying bad weather' while they were there not one of the most loved places they visited. The girls were in East Berlin three hours, saw THE WALL and said it took fifteen minutes upon entering and leaving 'Check Point Charlie'. Joyce noted well the 'mirror on wheels' which was rolled under each car to prevent a refugee from escaping by clinging to the bottom of a car. One of the girls who was wearing a wig and whose appearance did not quite match the picture on her passport was also carefully scrutinized.

Joyce thought the English countryside particularly beautiful.

The briefing sessions, which were designed to insure sufficient learning to pass the course and enable them to write the required paper, were also often their most informative and enjoyable experiences of the tour. At the U.S. Embassy in Vienna, Douglas MacArthur III, son of world famed General spoke on the war in Vietnam and the ABM system and tried to give some idea of the typical attitude of the Austrian people toward America. He encouraged the girls to seek employment in foreign service for their country.

Of all the countries visited, Joyce liked Germany best and would like to revisit it. Perhaps she will, since it is possible to leave Paris at 1:00 p.m. and arrive the same night at 8:00 p.m. in Dallas, of course with the gain of six hours in time belts.

You may believe anything Joyce tells you about the trip... unless, she shows you a picture of herself holding up the Tower of Pisa.

Ellises Tour Japan

"I'm glad to be back in America where women are treated better than in the Far East", said Sallye Ellis, telling of how Japanese girls are beginning to tell their prospective husband they expect to be the only wife. Wealthy men are still able to have many wives, each housed in a separate mansion.

Sallye and Frank returned Saturday night from a three week trip to Japan, Hong Kong, Taiwan and Hawaii, which included touring with Lions International and attending parts of the Lions Convention in Tokyo. They spent as much time as possible in the home of Frank's brother and wife, Lyman and Du (Japanese for dew) Ellis.

It had been seventeen years since Frank and his brother had seen each other and the four enjoyed renewing family relationship. They were treated with typical Japanese hospitality—removed their shoes upon entering and were given slides and Japanese robes to wear instead of their Western clothing.

Of great interest to them was the Japanese custom of washing themselves, sponge style, before entering the very deep and very warm bath used for relaxing more than cleanliness. Japanese regard our way of bathing as uncouth.

Recalling the trip at random, Sallye said they had been warned against 'pedi cabs' in Hong Kong (they were not to use them except those from the hotels they stayed), so they carefully avoided, but talked with a woman who had picked up one in the street and soon found herself surrounded by menacing crowds and the ricksha operator demanding several times the named fare.

The tour group learned a few key words to help in conversation with cab drivers, etc., such as "Star Ferry", which enabled them to go from the Hong Kong Island to the mainland.

No beggars were seen in Japan or Taiwan or Hawaii, Sallye said, but in Hong Kong it seemed a way of life for so many, particularly children. Children seven or eight years old were seen everywhere carrying younger brothers or sisters on their backs and begging. The worst of such scenes in her memory was of the day they toured the sampans and junks of the Bay area where as many as 17,000 persons conduct business and live their lives. Here small children and even old women clung to their tour boat like leeches begging when it seemed other sampans or junks would brush them into the filthy water to be drowned. Tourists were encouraged to ignore the beggars but they found it hard to do. Sampans, incidentally, are built of three boards, two for the sides and one for the bottom.

The Ellises spent five days in Hong Kong and except for the time spent with the Lyman Ellises, they found this the most interesting part of the trip.

Trying to understand the historical background of the city, they learned that the Island of Hong Kong was ceded to the British in 1840, and Kowloon, on the mainland ceded to the British in 1860, and the "New Territories" were leased by the British from Red China in 1898 for 100 years. When asked if they worry about what may happen to the country when in 1998 the lease is up, the natives in Hong Kong reply they do not worry—they are too concerned with present day problems.

Red China depends a lot upon the economy of Hong Kong and the city of Hong Kong depends upon Red China for its fresh water, therefore Sallye feels any differences will be worked out for their mutual benefit.

Frank and Sallye went by accident, in Hong Kong, into a bank of Red China and asked to exchange American money to Japanese and were refused, coldly and firmly. The walls of the bank were decorated with large pictures of Mao Tsung, the Red China leader.

Of interest to the tour group were the workers known as "spider people". All of the buildings getting a face lifting were covered with a maze of bamboo poles, from bottom to top, and construction of such scaffolding is a specialized work for these people.

Another typical Japanese or oriental sight was the huge floral arrangements on the building fronts which were used along with signs to announce weddings or funerals. For those able to afford it, the flowers were fresh, and for others they were paper flowers.

Tour guides for the Lions Club travelers were mainly young Chinese women, very personable, and in the main, Christians. One of them was a graduate of Wesley Middle School in Taipei, a Methodist supported school. Christianity is a minor religion in Japan, Buddhism and Shinto being the leading and national religions.

The Hong Kong area has no snow, a blessing to the thousands who live in huts on the hillsides. A continuous process of levelling the hills tops and filling low places goes on in an effort to provide more living space for the teeming population, with rice paddies extending right up to the back doors.

The tour group was there during the monsoon season but were not rained on until they reached Japan where rains interfered with sightseeing. The Ellises were disappointed that rain prevented them from seeing the famed Mt. Fuji and Sallye thought the only experience she had of anti-American feeling which seems on the rise in Japan was one day she and her sister-in-law were riding a bus and the woman driver asked Sallye to remove her wet raincoat to protect the seats (and everyone else in the bus was allowed to wear their wet coats, including the sister-in-law.)

They saw a number of demonstrations by students, some demonstrating against the war in Vietnam and others protesting against universities.

In Kyoto 1000 students were just across the street from their hotel, chanting and running in protest to a law on immigration. In Tokio they saw a demonstration in front of the Diet building and police with riot shields and water ready for use.

On the other side of the coin, many many, refugees from Communism were huddled in government compounds in the slum area, where they were not required to pay rent but did have to pay for utilities.

Sallye was amazed at the sight of laundry hanging from every window, as thick as possible, in the slum area, with the garments threaded onto bamboo poles— and no such thing as clotheslines.

With as many as 2,500 people living in one tenement house, the dread of fire is very real, particularly in colder weather when people are heating their homes with inadequate stoves. One such fire in 1953 in Hong Kong caused the loss of 50,000 homes. The suicide rate is very high in Japan and the front pages of newspapers filled with such reports, probably due to living conditions, it is thought.

Dope addiction is a serious problem in the orient. In Taiwan they saw the Thailand Addiction Center provided by the government where those who go voluntarily for the seven treatment are rehabilitated. There is an estimated 50,000 persons addicted to heroin, many as young as eleven years of age.

There is no farm machinery such as we know visible in Japan. Women work from early in the morning until late at night, often following water buffalo, and it incensed Sallye that the men did not appear on the scene until later, in the cool of the day.

In contrast are the 600 year old wall built to protect the mainland from Mongolian invasion and the plan to build a tunnel under the Bay to the mainland, with the cost of contract expected to exceed any ever let. Inside the walled territory life has not changed since it was built and is very primitive. Tourists were told not to take pictures of the Chinese people there without offering pay, otherwise they might expect to be spat upon.

To watch an old woman in a Shinto temple throw the "fate wood" (Brazilian nut shaped pieces of wood) thirty times, seeking the good favor of the gods, is a pitiable sight. The group also saw a Confucian temple in Taipei and learned something of the philosophy.

While there they saw an attack against the mainland made by the people of Taiwan with the approval of the government. They felt they were seeing a bit of "their own" when they saw Soo Chow University at Taipei, Methodist sponsored, Madame Chang Kai-Chek is beloved in her country since the women feel she has improved their lot as result of her American education, and her Christian religion.

The Ellises heard the Emperor of Japan address the Lions Convention and were told that he seldom appears before his own people, is just not nearly so accessible as our President.

The last two days of the tour proper were spent in Hawaii where Sallye and Frank were greeted with the traditional orchid leis at Honolulu by Rev. and Mrs. Don Murray. The Murrays treated them to a tour of the island, including seeing the National Cemetery of the Pacific (known locally as the punchbowl cemetery), where they found the name of a hometown boy Sallye knew, the monument to the ship "Arizona", pineapple fields, a fellowship dinner at the Murray's church and a dinner at the rotating restaurant La Ronda. They also enjoyed seeing Mrs. Walter Buice while there.

The Ellises came home with a better understanding of the countries visited, but they also have a deeper appreciation for their own.

Police Chief Honored On Birthday

Chief of Police Harrold White was tendered a surprise birthday party Saturday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Albro by members of the Muleshoe City police department.

Homemade ice cream and cake was served at the informal party and the honoree was given a handmade birthday card signed by the guests. Gifts of money were wrapped in a rolled up towel, tied at each end with string and which was then placed in a grocery sack, tied with frayed ribbon.

Attending were Assistant Chief and Mrs. Ray Cline and daughters; Mr. and Mrs. Forist Williams and Gary; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Milburn; E.C. Kelly Cleta Williams, Mr. and Mrs. White, Melita and Karen; Terri Jo Smith, and Mr. and Mrs. Albro and Melissa.

Mrs. Holt Returns From Philadelphia

Mrs. H.C. Holt returned to Muleshoe last week after spending three weeks in Penbrooke, N.J. (just across the Delaware River from Philadelphia), visiting her daughter and son-in-law, Paul and Helen Gardner, and their children.

While there they were joined by another daughter, Mrs. Lester (Mary) Garth and Glenda Ykiah, Calif. (near San Francisco, in the foothills of the redwood forests).

Mrs. Holt toured Independence Hall and saw the world-famous Liberty Bell and all the historical spots in Philadelphia and accompanied her family to the docks at New York where Glenda embarked on a tour for six weeks' study of drama in Europe. She saw the Statue of Liberty from a distance but found New York too tiring to "do the town".

Mrs. Holt flew and returned alone. She was reluctant to tell of the pleasure of the trip she felt "everyone else but me had been there long ago". (Anyway when we saw her Sunday morning she was radiant and it must have been wonderful.)

This Is... My Story

Gary Little

BY GARY LITTLE
As a Christian, I have an investment in the greatest organization on earth, and I would like to tell you a little about it. The price of a share in this company is your life, and the dividends you receive are based upon what you contribute with your investment. There is nothing like working for Jesus Christ. He offers you work dealing with the lives and souls of men, which is the most important job a man can have. For your labor, He is willing to give you security in a troubled world, and assurance in times of worry. Before I became active in Christ, I was spending too much of my time making a living, going to school, and doing the things I wanted to do. Even though I was saved when I was nine years old, I was not working for Christ. It was not until I began to spend some of my time witnessing and living for Jesus that I received Christian joy!

Perhaps, if you are not happy today, you should consider the amount of time you spend making a living and doing other things, and see if you need to invest a little more of yourself in Jesus Christ. Perhaps the approaching Youth Led Revival, July 27 through August 3,

Bruns — Relatives Play in Texas

Two of the delightful singers in the "Texas" production which plays in the Palo Duro Canyon State Park are nieces of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Bruns of Muleshoe. They are Vicki Autry who plays Grace Sheffy, one of the Texas girls of the surrounding territory, and Jan Autry, who plays Tonasy, the young wife of Quanah Parker, the Comanche chief.

The full house of the "TEXAS" performance on July 4th had some extra entertainment in addition to the fireworks last Friday. The helicopter which came to Canyon to carry the fireworks to the top of the 600 foot bluff behind the stage where they are set off, also carried a photographer, Bill Rhew, who took pictures of the theatre and the audience assembling as the whirlbird swept from the top of the cliff, down over the theatre.

Boy Scouts Go A Camping

Boy Scouts of Muleshoe are attending camp here and there and collecting merit badges galore.

Earl Ladd III and Tim McCormick attended an aquatics camp at Post June 20 through June 27.

June 29 to July 5 Troop 633, led by Roland McCormick and Marshall Cook, went to Tres Ritos. Attending the camp and winning awards as follows were: Earl Ladd III, Life Scout; Tim McCormick, Star Scout award; Gary Wood, safety; Glen Edler, second class and camper merit badge; Tim McCormick, Star badge, geology and camping; David Cook, forestry and geology; Kelly St. Clair, first aid and forestry; Charles Madrid, forestry; Mike Tibbetts, forestry; Gary Wood, safety; and eight boys winning camping badges; Charles Madrid, Arthur Madrid, James Cook, Larry Puckett, Walker Estes, Gary Wrinkle, Mike Tinney and Tom Ladd.

Six Scouts of Troop 634, led by Owen Jones and Lawrence Blaylock will attend a five day camp at Post, July 20 through July 25. They are Mike Jones, Danny Blaylock, Paul Bell, Lynn Dearing, Gary Merriott and Hector Leal. They will be participating in life saving, swimming, first aid, nature, shot gun and rifle, cooking, camping and canoeing. Camp Post will be at peak capacity during this week, Jones said. Hall Tibbetts and Billy Wimberly will attend Phillmont Camp, near Cimmaron, New Mexico July 20-August 2. These boys will spend thirteen days and nights on the trail, carrying all their belongings and all their foodstuff on their backs and will hike approximately 67 miles.

ARTHRITIS FACTS

About 13 million Americans report that they suffer from some form of arthritis. Osteoarthritis is estimated to afflict 80 per cent of people past 50 and 90 per cent of those past 60, in varying degrees. Although there is no cure at present, medical treatment by a reputable doctor can bring about remarkable improvement. The single drug most widely used in the treatment of rheumatoid arthritis is pure aspirin.

High collars and large sleeves were seen on some jackets.

YOUNG TOURISTS OF THE WEEK--Two college youths were quite surprised last Friday afternoon when they were stopped by Muleshoe Police Chief Harrold White. Although there was no violation, the duo had been tabbed as tourists of the week. After being presented gift certificates from several local merchants and Muleshoe literature, the boys posed at the Mule Memorial site. Pictured from left is Muleshoe Ambassadors Kathy McCormick, Donald Lee and Steve Halliburton, Ambassadors Devona Bradley and Chamber of Commerce manager Jerry Hutton. ### Square Thru's Square'em Up

By Gall Wilcox

The Muleshoe Square Thru's squared up and away we went for a night of fun and excitement Monday night, July 14th. Things really cracked when caller, Eddie Gunnels, got things wound up. I don't think I have ever seen a bunch of Square Dancers more lively than our own hometown bunch or for that matter, a caller that keeps them that way more than Eddie. All in all, everything was fast and furious and we all had a ball.

Looks like we are going to have a real good group taking this set of lessons. We are all very pleased with this, but we would like even more people to come and enjoy square dancing, more people, more fun. There are never too many. As it looks, our lessons will try to start on the 22nd of July. There were several young people signed up for these. Square Dancing is good clean fun for everyone and is a whole family entertainment. Many people have the wrong idea about this sport. Anyone is welcome to read our bylaws and any club member can get a set. We hope square dancing will become a standing thing here in Muleshoe. We have some great dancers and some great callers. They are among the best you will find anywhere. So anyone that couldn't make it out to sign up for lessons, it isn't too late. Get in touch with one of our officers, Jimmy Pressley, Henry Stoneham, Curby Brantley, or Ike Wilcox. These names are all in the phone book.

The Square Thru's who attended the Portales club graduation dance were: Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Pressley, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Monty Dollar, and Mr. and Mrs. Ike Wilcox. We had a ball over there.

We had visitors from all over last Monday night, and we mean all over. The Merry Mixers, of Lubbock, came in full force and took our banner home with them. They are having a special salad supper dance the 26th of this month to celebrate their 6th Anniversary. We were told we could have our banner back and bring their banner home with us, if we attend their special dance with two squares and ... our club caller, Eddie Gunnels. So we are going after this club banner and ours. We accept the challenge.....

THE VIRGINIAN is losing one regular and gaining another. Tim Mathes on will play a cowboy in the fall series but David Hartman will be seen on a new NBC series.

BOB HOPE will have another "Roberta" special this coming season. It was thirty five years ago that Mr. Hope starred on Broadway in "Roberta." He later made a T.V. adaptation of the story and now we will have another chance to see this delightful play.

THE ALAN KING-BUDDY HACKET special was rather raucous and crude in spots.

Those here from the Merry Mixers were: Muriel Earl, Ed and Mary Barbee, Nell Rowe, Blant Hanks, Oren and Avilene Kirk and Lonnie Kirk. Lonnie is the 13 year old caller for the "GUYS AND DOLLS" club of Lubbock, a club of young people. Lonnie called one for us and so did our own Ann Gunnels, the 10 year old daughter of Eddie.

Other guests were our callers Mother and Father, Mr. and Mrs. A.E. Gunnels, of Clovis, N.M., Mr. and Mrs. L.L. Davis, Phenix City, Alabama, James Harding, Las Cruces, N.M., Mrs. Sue Yoder, Longview, Texas, Mrs. Ruth Tauch, Mobile, Ala. Mrs. Lee Brown, Seale, Ala., Mrs. Eugene Davison, Snyder, Tex., Mrs. Harold Bynum, Spokane, Wash., Ron Bynum, Spokane, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. George Wheeler and sons, and Rick Wilcox of Muleshoe.

Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stoneham and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Shaw to these club members; Mr. and Mrs. Hilbert Wisian, Mr. and Mrs. Curby Brantley, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Roming, Mr. and Mrs. Monty Dollar, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. Don Seales, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Pressley, Mr. and Mrs. John Bickel, John McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Gunnels, Elaine and Leigh Ann and Liz Seales.

Our door prize was won by Monty Dollar. A short business meeting was held after the dance, presided over by club president, Jimmy Pressley, Becky Stoneham, club treasurer, gave a financial report. Donna Shaw reported on our reservations and accommodations at Ruidoso Downs, N.M. Twelve couples plan to attend the big "SQUARE DANCE" there on the 9th and 10th of August. This should prove to be quite an experience for all of us.

In the second game of the day for Tuesday Plainview downed Dumas, 6-5, squeaking by after a run in the bottom of the seventh inning broke the 5-5 tie.

Wednesday night, Dumas and Pampa were to tie up again and Plainview was to play the winner of the first game for the championship.

tire state to speak out and vote out in favor of the Texas Water Plan.

The Texas Water Plan is supported by all groups, political, Chamber of Commerce organizations, civic clubs and others, said Clayton.

Numerous countywide membership drives are being held with new members for Water, Inc. being sought, Clayton said. A membership in Water, Inc. is $25. The membership fee is used for study and legislation. He said anyone who would like to become a member of Water, Inc. may contact the local Chamber of Commerce office for information.

Absentee voting on Amendment Two, which is the Texas Water Plan, started Wednesday, July 16, and concludes on Friday, August 1.

Clayton concluded the meeting with the fact that water is vital, necessary and must be procured in order to continue the vast agricultural operations on the High Plains of Texas, growth of the cities, industrial movement into the state and the general population increase of the state.

Low Accident Toli Talled During June

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated two accidents on rural highways in Bailey County during the month of June, according to Sergeant Thurman Keffer, Highway Patrol supervisor of this area.

These crashes resulted in no persons killed, no persons injured and an estimated property damage of $500.00.

The rural traffic accident summary for this county during the first six months of 1969 shows a total of 21 accidents resulting in no persons killed, seven persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $26,265.00.

During the first six months of 1969 in Texas there were 1,470 traffic deaths, or two less as compared to the 1,472 traffic deaths for the same period of 1968. However, if past trends continue the last six months will probably far exceed the first six months; as a matter of fact, the last six months of 1968 there were 2,009 traffic deaths.

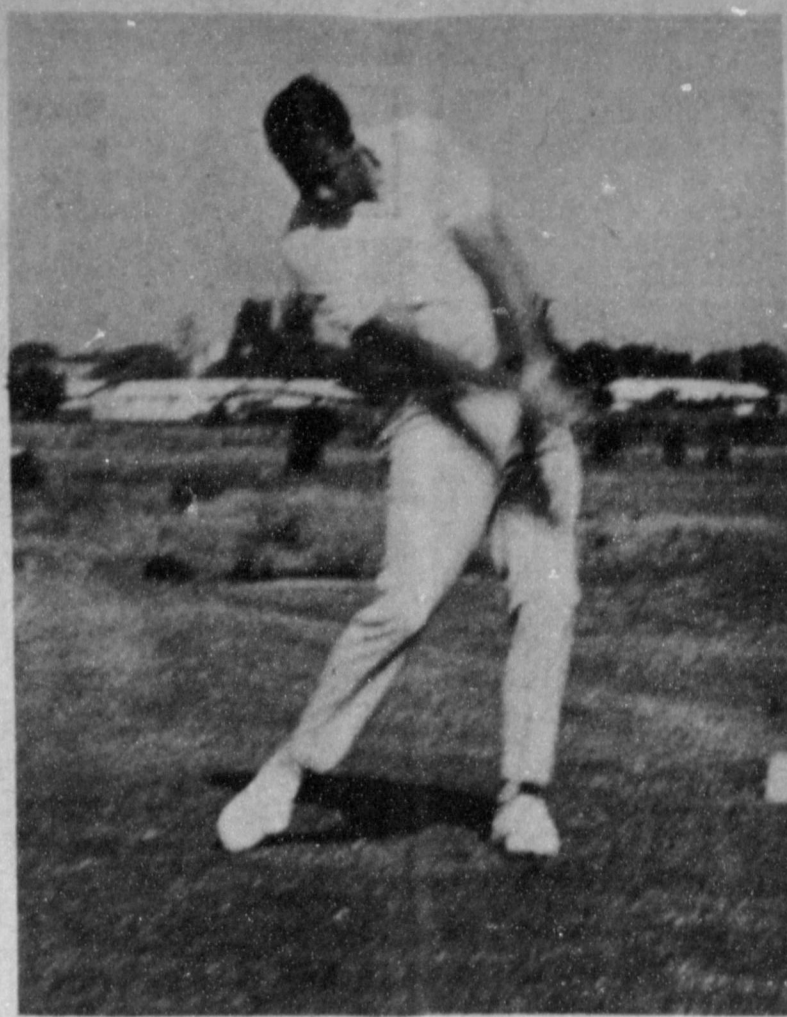

The Sergeant stated, "With an all time record of 49 traffic deaths over the 4th of July weekend, we are not only well ahead in comparison to the beginning of the second six months in 1968, but well on our way to establishing a record year in 1969."

How Conservation Serves the Farmer

The S.C.S. has several functions in Bailey County. Expansion of original concepts of soil and water conservation has resulted in our total involvement in the use, conservation, and enhancement of renewable natural resources. This is done in cooperation with soil and water conservation districts and with State and Federal agencies. The major workload of the S.C.S. in Bailey County and the Blackwater Valley Soil and Water Conservation District is the preparation of the conservation plans and administering the Great Plains Conservation Program.

Conservation plans are prepared by district cooperators with technical assistance from SCS, considering: (1) soils capability; (2) needs of the land for protection and improvement; (3) cooperators' desires; (4) latest technology in applicable scientific fields, such as agronomy, biology, engineering, others, and (5) alternate treatments.

When the cooperator has decided on sound adequate treatment needed on every acre of his farm or ranch and when SCS technicians have recorded these decisions with soils information, engineering data, maps and other pertinent material, the plan is said to be a basic conservation plan. Such plans are vital for sound technical assistance.

SCS administers the Great Plains Conservation Program in portions of ten States, including Bailey County, Texas. Technical and financial assistance is provided landowners and operators in making needed land-use adjustments and applying needed conservation treatment. Farmers and ranchers with GPCP assistance achieve a more stable agriculture by carrying out conservation plans on their entire operating units. These plans are designed to minimize climatic hazards, protect land from wind and water erosion, and to prevent deterioration by natural causes.

School...

Muleshoe High School, resigned. He could not take necessary college work this summer to renew his teaching permit.

Also resigning was Ronnie Jones, junior high teacher and coach. He will move to Lubbock to teach at Atkins Junior High. School board members studied in detail the new local fund assignment from the state; the new laws affecting the Minimum Foundation Program and State Revenue; the new salary schedule; the debt service obligation for 1969-70; the estimated income from local sources and voted to set the 1969-70 tax rate at $2.04 which is a four cent increase over last year.

Texas Grain Is Important To Economy

COLLEGE STATION--Grains account for almost 25 cents of each dollar from Texas agricultural commodity sales. In 1968, cash receipts were second only to those for livestock and livestock products, reported John J. Siebert, Extension grain marketing specialist at Texas A&M University.

By grains, grain sorghum was the leader and contributed more than $320 million; rice cash receipts were $142 million; wheat $106 million; corn $29 million; soybeans $19 million; flaxseed $2 million and broomcorn production was valued at $1.4 million, Siebert said. Thus, he noted, total cash receipts for these grains exceeded $620 million.

The livestock, dairy and poultry industries of the state are heavy users of grain, but Siebert points out that human and industrial consumption also utilizes very large quantities of Texas produced grain. Some grains, he adds, are stored for reserves.

Export markets are also important to grain producers. During fiscal 1968, Siebert said, Texas' share of grain exports exceeded $180.6 million. Feed grains accounted for almost two thirds or $118.6 million of that total, he said.

CAN THO, VIETNAM--Army Specialist Five Lonnie D. Dent (right), 24, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lavoyd H. Dent, Earth, Tex., receives the Bronze Star Medal during ceremonies near Can Tho, Vietnam, June 14.

Congratulating him is General R. Wetherill, commanding general, IV Corps, Delta Military Assistance Command.

Spec. 5 Dent received the award for outstanding meritorious service while serving as an administrative specialist and interpreter with the corps.

His wife, Nancy, lives at 206 Barton, Hearne.

New Premium List For So. Plains Fair

LUBBOCK -- Approximately 5,000 copies of a handsome new catalog listing a record $37,235 in premiums is being distributed for the 1969 Panhandle South Plains Fair.

The premiums, boosted some $2,652 over last year, includes some $3,900 for three horse shows.

An open horse show is being added along with the Quarter Horse and Appaloosa shows on the last three days of the exposition, slated Sept. 22-27.

Red and White dairy cattle--once the black sheep of the Holstein breeders and now one of the most popular strains--replaces Guernsey cattle in the livestock judging events, according to the catalog listings.

The center layout highlights the country and western variety spectacular that will be presented in Fair Park Coliseum during the weeklong run.

Marty Robbins, Charley Pride and Buck Owens and his Buckaroos will be presented in two-day runs while Roy Clark and other attractions will be on stage for all six days.

The Panhandle South Plains Fair is one of the top exhibitions in the world. Of about 3,800 fairs in the United States and Canada, only 48 have large attendance, and most of those are state fairs or other special expositions which run eight to 16 days. The Lubbock event runs only six days.

Attendance has been increasing steadily, and hit an all-time peak of 276,028 last year.
