Demand For Cotton and Onions

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 19.—One of the unexpected ways in which the war has made itself felt on the Pacific coast is the pronounced activity in the onion market.

Eastern buyers are in the field and within the last few days the price per sack has risen 15 cents. Yesterday 10,000 sacks were billed for the East via the Panama Canal.

Cotton is another brisk, but cheap, commodity. Japan and China are buying, and the quantity they seem willing to purchase is measured only by the amount of vessel space they can engage. Their mills are reported running to capacity. Eight cents is the price per pound being paid. One expert estimated that if the war were to end tomorrow cotton would advance 3 cents over night. Germany is understood to be bidding from 18 to 20 cents, with practically no orders being filled and her own stock near the vanishing point.

The future of the cotton crop in California, where it had only recently been developed, is held good for those who can be tided over the present depression, but is generally believed the acreage here, as in the South Atlantic States, will be reduced at the next planting.

Oklahoma Man Looking After Interests

John H. Throckmorton, president of the Muskogee Paint & Glass Company, of Muskogee, Okla., and owner of two well improved farms in the Woodward section of the county, was here Wednesday on business. Mr. Throckmorton is down on one of his periodical trips looking after his farm interests and says he finds conditions in tip top shape, and to show the boys that he hadn't forgotten the days when he was a boy on the farm, pitched in and helped gather corn for a couple of days. Mr. Throckmorton says he has his farms in charge of thoroughly capable men this year and is preparing to plant an increased acreage next spring. Land breaking will commence on his places next week.

Frequent Overflows Makes Road Bad.

Farmers on the South side of the river say that it is nearly impossible for them to get to town with a load as the road is in very bad condition. In the first place the road was laid out on ground too near the river and on many parts of it water backs over the roadway in high rises. This has occurred several times the past few months and has soaked the road until apparently there is no bottom to it. Some steps are being taken to change the road at some of the worst places.

First Real Wintry Blast.

The first real cool spell of the winter arrived last Monday. The thermometer did not get down to the freezing point, but did not miss it many degrees. Farmers have been waiting for several weeks for favorable weather to cut their fall forage crops, but about the time it dries up sufficient another cloudy and rainy spell comes up, and it is feared that unless the opportunity comes soon, frost will catch the crop.

New Boiler Installed At Ice Plant.

The new boiler has been installed at the ice plant. The smoke stack was raised this week, and soon this will take the place of the old boiler in connection with the plant. Work has also been completed on the cold storage plant. Roy Campbell of San Antonio, who had the cold storage house built, was here last year and received the building from the contractors.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

By virtue of an Alias Execution issued out of the Honorable Justice Court of Precinct No. 1, La Salle County, on the 6th day of November, A. D. 1914, in the case of F. B. Earnest versus L. C. Ross No 500, and to me, as Sheriff, directed and delivered.

That I do hereby sell, on the 25th day of November, A. D. 1914, and will, between the hours of 10 o'clock a. m., and 4 o'clock, p. m. on the first Tuesday in December, A. D. 1914, at the Court House door of said La Salle County, in the town of Cotulla, proceed to sell at public auction, to the highest bidder for cash in hand, all the right, title and interest which L. C. Ross had, on the 25th day of May, A. D. 1914, or any time thereafter, of, in and to the following described property, to-wit:

Situated in La Salle County and being sub-divisions Nos. 90 and 91 in section No. 769 of the Altito Ranch lands and lots Nos. 90 and 91 in block No. 4, in the townsite of Altito, said property being levied on as the property of L. C. Ross to satisfy a judgment amounting to $73.35 in favor of F. B. Earnest and costs of suit.

Given under my hand this 6th day of November, A. D. 1914.

T. H. POOLE,
Sheriff, La Salle County, Texas.
By B. Wildenthal, Jr. Deputy.

Commissioner Kerr went up to Millett yesterday to inspect some road work. He said some of the best work in the county was to be found leading in and out of Millett along the railroad.

School to Re-open Monday Morning.

Public School will re-open Monday morning after a suspension of one week on account of diphtheria. Up to this date there has been a total of fourteen cases since the infection first appeared six weeks ago. There has been no new cases since last Sunday, and with the precautions that have been taken, and with these continued precautions, the probability is that the infection will be completely stamped out. The school building has been thoroughly fumigated.

Out of the fourteen cases about seventy five per cent were mild cases. There were only one or two cases in which the patient's condition was dangerous.

Stores to Close Thanksgiving Day.

The following stores have entered into an agreement to close Thanksgiving day, which is next Thursday. The stores will not open at all Thursday but will remain closed from Wednesday night till Thursday morning.

Comment on League Work.

The Civic League of Cotulla, according to the Record, is going to look after the mental and moral welfare of that town's kids this winter. The League will provide recreation rooms for the boys, fitted up with tables for games, a reading room, etc., and hopes by this means to keep the youngsters off the streets' nights. The Crystal City Civic League might go also and do likewise.—Crystal City Chronicle.

Reading Matter for State Convicts.

All friends wishing to contribute to the shipment of reading matter we are collecting to ship to the inmates of the Huntsville Penitentiary, kindly send same to K. Burwell store between this and Tuesday, as we are desirous of closing the box for shipment Wednesday. All high grade reading matter is acceptable regardless of age. Presbyterian Missionary Society.

Sunday School Children Donate to War Sufferers.

The children of the respective Sunday Schools of Calvert have decided to deny themselves the pleasure of their usual Christmas trees and instead to donate the money to the orphans of Europe. In this way they have raised over $150.00 with no work and very little trouble. Instead of counting this a sacrifice, our children have given this money with eagerness and joy. Could not such a movement be inaugurated in your town?

Think what it should mean if the cost of every Christmas tree in Texas could be sent to the little ones across the ocean. We will send our donations to Pres. Wilson, Chairman of the American Red Cross Relief Committee.

Negro Shoots; Kills Ranchman.

A tragedy occurred about 20 miles West of Dilley last Sunday afternoon in which Ives New, a young ranchman lost his life. His slayer was a negro employe known as "Nigger Bill."

It is said the killing was the result of a dispute over an account. It seems that New had stood good for a grocery account amounting to about eight dollars, and the negro had decided not to work for New any longer and the ranchman had let him have the use of a wagon to move his family. In order to settle the account that New had stood good for he proposed to the negro a trade of a pistol and a pair of trousers for the account.

The negro, however, refused the trade and instead shot New in the chest. The negro was seen to flee the scene and a reward of $500 for his capture is being offered.

The body of the slain man was shipped to Beeville for burial.

Woodward Notes.

G. Newman of near Millett was visitor here Tuesday.

Chas. Vesper was in Woodward on business Monday.

Next Winters formerly of Woodward was here from Jourdan. He is thinking of farming here again this coming year.

Messrs Dowd of Chicago and Daley of Muskogee, Okla., have returned to their respective homes after several weeks stay on their farm near Woodward.

C. F. Binkley and family were visitors in Woodward Sunday.

Mrs. C. A. Obets went to Crystal City Saturday to visit her sister and mother. She returned Sunday morning.

Rev. Donohue of Dilley is here visiting in the home of J. J. Ferguson.

Saturday evening J. B. Ownby, Robt. Gardner, J. J. Ferguson and Howard Guinn, went out hunting on the Gardner ranch. They returned Sunday morning. They saw quite a few deer but failed to get any.

Howard Guinn, wife and baby, went to Cotulla Tuesday morning and came back Wednesday.

After a week or ten days of bad weather we are having a little sunshine which is welcomed by everybody.

GERMAN SCOUTING PARTY IN BELGIUM

HAD HAPPENED BEFORE

EXPERIENCE THAT WAS NOTHING NEW TO GALLUP.

Being Thrown Out of Places by Men Smaller Than Himself Seemed Somehow to Be Matter of Pride to Him.

"Some men," observed Caleb Peaslee, critically, "c'n get a lot of comfort out of things that I couldn't find a mite of satisfaction in. Ain't you ever noticed it, Hyne?"

Mr. Hyne regarded Caleb narrowly, and shuffled his feet in some irritation. "Er p'ty sake, Caleb," he remarked, petulantly, "if you've got anything to say, whyn't you begin at the beginnin' and say it? I get all out of patience with you sometimes!"

"Trouble is with you, Hyne, you don't always agree with me about where the beginnin' is, but in this special case, I shouldn't be surprised if you was in the right of it. I guess mebbe I did begin wrong end to. Well, to begin right, then, I was down to Bennoch's store last evenin' when that big Gallup critter came in after suthin'." You know him—that big feller from over Dilmouth Centre way. Either he was mad when he came in, or else suthin' didn't go to his likin', but before long we heard him and the clerk have a fuss over in the back part of the store. That is, Gallup was fust in, and the clerk was tryin' to pacify him. You know that clerk—the new one that's only been there a week?"

Mr. Hyne nodded his head assentingly. "He ain't much bigger'n a bunch of radishes," he observed. "He'd stan' about as much chance in a fuss with Gallup as a sneeze in a gale of wind!"

Mr. Peaslee smiled, but offered no remark. "That's the fellow," he agreed. "I thought you'd seen him. Wal, as I said, there they was disputin', and Gallup gittin' madder every minute, and the clerk seemin'ly tryin' to get him out of the store peaceable like.

"Wal, we all of us crowded over there to see what 'twas all about. The crowd seemed to hearten Gallup up a mite, and give him courage—he ain't much more'n half as big agin as the clerk, you know,—so he up and makes a motion as if he was goin' to cuff the clerk.

"'Twas all done so quick, Hyne, that I can't tell you the particulars, but the clerk went into that big gump like a cooper going round a barrel. I was standin' right by the back door, and it was a little ajar, and when I saw the trouble comin' my way I fetched the door a kick, and stepped outside. I hadn't more'n got out before some-thin' that looked like one of these saw-legged sawhorses—all legs and no body—came through the door, and when it struck the ground and came to a stop, I saw it was Gallup. Yes, sir, that little clerk had thrown that big lummock out through the door, and had securely turned a hair doin' it.

"Wal, Gallup sat there on the ground, kind of goin' over himself to find out where he was and what had happened, and watching the crowd that was slappin' the clerk on the back, tellin' him how neat he'd done the job. Finally Gallup made up his mind what to say. He let go of his nose, that he'd been trying to twist back into shape, and spoke to the clerk kind of contemptuous.

"'You needn't feel so sot up over throwin' me out of there,' he says. 'You ain't the fust man that's ever thrown me out of places. I've been throwed out by smaller men than you be, time 'n agin,' says he, and he looked at the clerk as if he'd reduced him to powder.

"'And so,'" concluded Mr. Peaslee, "I c'nclude that Gallup thought he'd come out of the affair with full as much credit as the clerk. And that was what I was thinkin' when I remarked that some men could get satisfaction out of what seemed to me there was mighty little satisfaction in. Don't it look that way to you, Hyne, now that you've heard the whole on't?" And Mr. Hyne grunted an assent.—Youth's Companion.

Something From Nothing.

You know that peculiar air that come o'er a tram-load of passengers on a wet day when someone endeavors to find an extra seat.

You could have cut it with a knife when a hale and hearty courtesan, laden with her market purchases, squeezed past the conductor into the interior of the car.

Regardless of the freezing stares she deposited her vegetables, etc., about her feet. One dried-up looking man gazed irritably along the seated line, and then, seeing no one else inclined to move, offered the buxum lady his seat.

"Nay, lad," she said, with a broad smile, "tha'd better sit down agen. Ah cannot see where's tha's gotten oop from!"—London Answers.

Surely a Wise Guy.

A teacher in a West side public school reports to us this actual incident: On the first day of school a new little girl joined the class. The teacher asked the children what caused the great European war. The new little girl held up her hand. "Do you know what it was, teacher?" The teacher said, "Oh, yes." Whereupon the budding scholar replied with crushing veracity: "Well, you're the wisest guy I've seen anywhere." We are unflatteringly with the new little girl.—Chicago Post.

CALOMEL IS MERCURY, IT SICKENS! STOP USING SALIVATING DRUG

Don't Lose a Day's Work! If Your Liver Is Sluggish or Bowels Constipated Take "Dodson's Liver Tone."—It's Fine!

You're bilious! Your liver is sluggish! You feel lazy, dizzy and all knocked out. Your head is dull, your tongue is coated; breath bad; stomach sour and bowels constipated. But don't take salivating calomel. It makes you sick, you may lose a day's work.

Calomel is mercury or quicksilver which causes necrosis of the bones. Calomel crashes into sour bile like dynamite, breaking it up. That's when you feel that awful nausea and cramping.

If you want to enjoy the nicest, gentlest liver and bowel cleansing you ever experienced just take a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tone. Your druggist or dealer sells you a 50-cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone under my personal money-back guarantee that each spoonful will clean your sluggish liver better than a dose of nasty calomel and that it won't make you sick.

Dodson's Liver Tone is real liver medicine. You'll know it next morning because you will wake up feeling fine, your liver will be working, your headache and dizziness gone, your stomach will be sweet and your bowels regular. You will feel like working; you'll be cheerful; full of vigor and ambition.

Dodson's Liver Tone is entirely vegetable, therefore harmless and cannot salivate. Give it to your children! Millions of people are using Dodson's Liver Tone instead of dangerous calomel now. Your druggist will tell you that the sale of calomel is almost stopped entirely here.

SOME TERRIBLE WAR BILLS

That of the United States Government Heads the List in Point of Size.

The wars of Napoleon in 13 years cost France $1,000,000,000 writes Wendell Phillips Dodge in Leslie's. Our Civil war expenditures of the Civil government: amounted to $3,400,000,000, or nearly thirteen times as much a year as Napoleon's. The Franco-German war cost France $1,580,000,000, besides an added war indemnity of $1,000,000,000. This same great war, which lasted only 190 days, cost Germany $450,000,000 for an average fighting force of 1,250,000 men. The other big European war of the past half century, the Russo-Japanese war, cost Russia $786,140,000, but she had two years fighting for her money. The war in the far East cost Japan $650,000,000 and Russia $723,000,000, not counting lost ships. Only toward the end had either side anything like a million men in the field. Italy's little war with Turkey cost $400,000 a day, allowing for a mere 60,000 fighting men; and the Boer war, in which England's army averaged 200,000, cost $1,055,000,000 in two and a half years.

Likes Sensible Women.

A REBELLION Food Demanded.

The human body will stand a lot of abuse, but sometime it will surely rebel and demand proper food in place of the pasty, starchy, greasy stuffs on which it has been made sick. Then is the time to try Grape-Nuts, the most scientific and perfect food in the world.

A lady of Washington says: "Three years ago I was very ill with catarrh of the stomach and was given up to die by one doctor. I laid in bed four months and my stomach was so weak that I could not keep down medicine or hardly any kind of food and was so weak and emaciated after four months of this starvation that my daughter could easily lift me from bed and put me in my chair.

"But weak as my stomach was, it accepted, relished and digested Grape-Nuts without any difficulty the first time that wonderful food was tried.

"I am now strong and in better health than for a great many years and am gradually growing still stronger. I rely on Grape-Nuts for much of the nourishment that I get. The results have certainly been wonderful in my case and prove that no stomach is so weak it will not digest Grape-Nuts.

"My baby got fat from feeding on Grape-Nuts. I was afraid I would have to stop giving the food to him, but I guess it is a healthy fat, for his health is just perfect." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

If Christ Came to the Court House.

A journalist, lawyer and legislator Mr. E. G. Senter has fought long and vigorously to take waste and nonsense out of court procedure. In the series of articles lately published by him in Farm and Ranch under the title, "Bread and Butter Issues," he forcibly exhibited the need for reform in the courts, and declared that the time has come for the people, as a whole, to take this subject in their own hands; that lawyers would never originate or join in making the needed reforms. In the state senate, when bill after bill proposed by him—most of them based on recommendations that had been made by Chief Justice Brown of the Supreme court, at meetings of the State Bar association—was defeated, he then told the lawyers who defeated them, in a speech upon the floor of the state senate, that he intended to carry the fight up to the people themselves. That fight he has renewed, and he will make his appeal to the body of the people through Farm and Ranch, and afterwards, as a committee of one, representing Farm and Ranch, before the next Legislature. He has a specific remedy, and will appeal to the people to instruct their representatives in the senate and house of the next legislature to enact this remedy.

He expects to confront the opposition of representatives of the several organizations of county officials, as he did when in the legislature. Then he was handicapped. Now his hands are untied. He will maintain that every dollar spent in the court house represents 80 cents of waste; that nine-tenths of the things required to be done in every lawsuit are unnecessary and bear no relation whatever to the merits of the case; that the mirror mazes, delays, uncertainties and vexations of the law are mainly due to the system of legalized graft by which court procedure is encumbered, which has converted the court house from a temple of justice to a harbor for pensioners upon the enforced bounty of taxpayers and litigants; that a stenographer who is unable to earn more than $60 per month in private business should not be permitted to charge litigants at the rate of from $500 to $1,000 per month; that the stenographers' bounty law should be repealed in its entirety; that the system of farming out the feeding of prisoners to sheriffs is barbarous, and as unjustifiable as the plan of farming out taxes pursued in the middle ages; that a judgment of five dollars payable to the state, and $50 costs, payable to the officers, is a disgrace to civilization; that litigation, and all other business of the state, should be conducted upon business rules, and subject to the law of common sense; that under regulations looking solely to the public welfare and not solely to the production of fees, under ordinary conditions a lawsuit could be begun anywhere in the state and pushed to final judgment in the appellate court within three months, at a cost of not exceeding $25, instead of requiring an average of about five years and an expenditure, if hard fought, at from $250 to $5,000.

His plan requires that the ax be laid at the root of all forms of court house graft, which Mr. Senter terms the "Johnson grass of the law." His remedy is not new or untried. He maintains that the present system is new, and has been fastened upon the common law by the fee grabbers. He proposes not to prune the law, but to put the fee grabbers out of the temple of the law.

Any one who can read can understand his remedy. He believes that if the attention of the people can be had, the groundswell which will strike the next legislature will make it useless for the fee grabbers to appear there.

This series of articles will be entitled, "If Christ Came to the Court House," and the general text will be, "Woe unto you, lawyers, for ye lade men with burdens grievous to be borne, and ye, yourselves, touch not the burdens with one of your fingers." (Luke 11:46.)—Editorial in Farm and Ranch Nov. 21st.

New Nightwatch System.

A new Nightwatch system was installed in Cotulla this week, which will no doubt prove to be satisfactory to the business men. Under the new regulations nine stations have been established, located so that the entire portion of the business blocks must be covered systematically. The watchman must register at each of these stations once each hour. The clock system was purchased by the City and the watchman will be subject to the orders of the City Council, that body having the right to discharge or employ, although the greater part of the salary is contributed by the business men. This arrangement was agreed upon recently at a meeting of business men with the Council.

Under the new system service is a certainty. There is no getting around the case. The time is recorded at each station as the watchman registers, and located as the stations are, at places where fire is liable to break out, the danger from this source is cut down to a great extent. The Council will probably appoint the watchman, Fire Marshall, and Cotulla will then be entitled to a reduction of 10 cents in the insurance key rate, which will mean a saving in insurance sufficient to cover the amount contributed to the nightwatchman's salary.

Sudden Deaths in a Silo.

A recent fatal accident in Ohio calls attention to a danger to farmers which cannot be too widely circulated. Since 1875, when the first American silo was built by Dr. Manley Miles, this method of preserving forage for livestock has been generally adopted. Although the Department of Agriculture has frequently called attention to the danger of carbon dioxide gas accumulating in silos under certain conditions, no fatalities have been reported heretofore. On the morning of September 19, four workmen on the farm of the Athens [Ohio] State Hospital ascended the ladder on the outside of a silo to an open door about twelve feet from the top and jumped down one after another onto the silage, the top of which was six feet below the door. About five minutes after two other workmen following them found them unconscious. Although a large force of workmen were immediately summoned and the bodies of the four men removed at once through a lower door, the physicians of the hospital who were at once on the ground were unable to resuscitate any of the four men. Evidently the carbon dioxide gas had accumulated during the night, filling the silo up to the level of the door and forming a layer of carbon dioxide gas six feet deep. Such accidents, says The Journal of the American Medical Association, might easily be repeated on any modern farm. Agriculture journals should call the attention of the farmers to this danger and should urge that silos be carefully ventilated before being entered.

IF HAIR IS TURNING GRAY, USE SAGE TEA

Don't look old! Try Grandmother's recipe to darken and beautify faded, lifeless hair.

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray, streaked and looks dry, wispy and straggly, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't bother to prepare the tonic; you can get from any drug store a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," ready to use. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color, thickness and lustre of your hair and remove dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair.

Everybody uses "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy, lustrous and abundant.

THE WORLD'S RECORD.

The world's record has again been broken by a Tyler Commercial College student, Mr. J. J. Ayo of Bowie, La., entered the Tyler Commercial College for a course of shorthand on Aug. 17, 1914 and twenty three days after entering, won the world's record by writing 150 words per minute, unfamiliar matter, for five consecutive minutes, making a grade of 100 per cent on his transcript.

Why attend any other school when you can enter the Tyler Commercial College, complete your course and go in a good position in half the time required by any other school teaching any other systems besides the Byrne Simplified Shorthand and Practical Bookkeeping. The Tyler Commercial College owns the copyrights on these famous systems.

Here is the time required by a few of the students who completed these courses: Mr. J. G. Dunagan of Donie, Texas, finished shorthand in one month and twenty-two days; Mr. J. S. Drew of Monroe, La. one month and twenty-eight days; Mr. Olin Roberts of Terrell, Texas, one month and twenty-six days; Miss Alice Wallace of Winona, Texas, in two months and five and a half days; Mr. J. J. Ayo of Bowie, La. in twenty three days, Mr. W. W. Beeson of Malvern, Ark. finished bookkeeping in two months and eight days; Mr. Asa Boles of Garrison, Texas, two months and six days; Mr. E. M. Cain of Fairchild, Texas, one month and eighteen and a half days; Mr. B. Sherrod of Ralls, Texas, finished the combined course of bookkeeping and shorthand in three months and fifteen days; Miss Maude Thompson of Goldwaite, Texas, in two months and thirteen days.

This shows how quickly these young people prepared themselves for a good salaried position by attending the Tyler Commercial College where they could get advantage of the famous Byrne Systems. We easily save from three to five months time on a course of bookkeeping and shorthand. Conceding that we only save the average student three months time, his salary after completing should be at least $50 per month for the three months. This would make a saving of $150 in time and his board at $12 per month, would be $36, making a total saving of $186 to say nothing of the fact that a student of our school gets three months experience while the student of the other schools is just finishing his course and has no experience. Our work is the most thorough to be found in any school in the U. S. as in shown by our students holding the very best positions to be found in the various lines of business throughout this and other countries. You may enter with us at any time Our work is practically all individual instructions. Thorough preparatory work in English branches is given free with either Bookkeeping, Shorthand, Telegraphy, or Business Administration and Finance. Write for free catalogue. Make your arrangements to enter at once that we may have the pleasure of placing you in a good position at an early date. TYLER COMMERCIAL COLLEGE, TYLER, TEXAS.

Why Should Light Come From the Left Side

The well known fact that, when using the eyes for any near work, the illumination should come from the left side rather than the right is often disregarded. Let any one who considers the matter of little importance once demonstrate to himself the difference and he will never forget it. Take a pencil and paper and try to write while in such a position that the light will fall from the right side. The shadow of the hand or pencil or both is thrown on the paper in such a way as partly to cover the characters one is making. This necessitates a closer viewpoint and a conscious strain on the eyes. Now let the position of the writer be reversed so that the light falls on the work from the left side. He will notice that the shadows fall away from the work he is doing and leaves the field unobscured. In making the change he cannot help but notice the feeling of ease that immediately is experienced by the eyes. This applies to any other kind of near work in which the fingers work under the guidance of the eyes. This fact should be remembered in planning schoolrooms, workrooms, offices, and any places where steady close work is to be performed. — American Medical Journal.

KATE.

There's something in the name of Kate
Which many will condemn;
But listen now while I relate
The traits of some of them.
There's deli-Kate, a modest dame,
And worthy of your love;
She's nice and beautiful in frame,
As gentle as a dove.
Communi-Kate's intelligent,
As we may well suppose;
Her fruitful mind is ever bent
On telling what she knows.
There's intri-Kate, she's so obscure,
'Tis hard to find her out;
For she is often very sure
To put your wits to rout.
Prevari-Kate's a stubborn maid,
She's sure to have her way;
The cavilling, contrary jade
Objects to all you say.
There's alter-Kate, a perfect pest,
Much given to dispute;
Her prattling tongue can never rest,
You cannot her refute.
There's dislo-Kate, in quite a fret,
Who fails to gain her point;
Her case is quite unfortunate,
And sorely out of joint.
Equivo-Kate no one will woo;
The thing would be absurd,
She is so faithless and untrue,
You cannot take her word.
There's vindi-Kate, she's good and true,
And strives with all her might
Her duty faithfully to do,
And battles for the right.
There's rusti-Kate, a country lass,
Quite fond of rural scenes;
She likes to ramble through the grass
And through the evergreens.
Of all the maidens you can find,
There's none like edu-Kate;
Because she elevates the mind
And aims at something great.

SALTS IS FINE FOR KIDNEYS, QUIT MEAT

Flush the Kidneys at once when Back Hurts or Bladder bothers—Meat forms uric acid.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidney pores so they cannot filter out the waste and strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders. Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which all regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

UGH! CALOMEL MAKES YOU SICK. DON'T STAY BILIOUS, CONSTIPATED

"Dodson's Liver Tone" Will Clean Your Sluggish Liver Better Than Calomel and Can Not Salivate.

Calomel makes you sick; you lose a day's work. Calomel is quick-acting and it salivates; calomel injures your liver. If you are bilious; feel lazy, sluggish and all knocked out, if your bowels are constipated and your head aches, if your stomach is sour, just take a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tone instead of using sickening, salivating calomel. Dodson's Liver Tone is real liver medicine. You'll know it next morning because you will wake up feeling fine, your liver will be working, your headache and dizziness gone, your stomach will be sweet and bowels regular. You will feel like working. You'll be cheerful, full of energy, vigor and ambition.

Your druggist or dealer sells you a 50 cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone under my personal guarantee that it will clean your sluggish liver better than nasty calomel; it won't make you sick and you can eat anything you want without being salivated. Your druggist guarantees that each spoonful will start your liver, clean your bowels and straighten you up by morning or you get your money back. Children gladly take Dodson's Liver Tone because it is pleasant tasting and doesn't grip or cramp or make them sick.

I am selling millions of bottles of Dodson's Liver Tone to people who have found that this pleasant, vegetable, liver medicine takes the place of dangerous calomel. Buy one bottle on my sound, reliable guarantee. Ask your druggist about it.

German Spy Spends Three Weeks in Camp at Paris.

Poses as Joubert, French Military Air Pilot and Seeks Aviation Work, But Is Finally Exposed and Arrested.

Paris.—A German aviator has been arrested in the Boulevard des Italiens after having remained three weeks in Paris, posing as Joubert, a French military pilot, and successfully defying detection by the French aviation authorities.

Paris.—An aviator in Paris told an acceptable story of his escape through the German lines and showed his papers, which included a French pilot's certificate of identification belonging to the real Joubert.

The engineer had doubts of the man's identity and became confident that he was merely masquerading as Joubert while the two were riding in the Boulevard des Italiens.

Paris papers reproduce a letter, published in Le Petit des Deux Mondes, written in 1870 by Emile Ollivier, who was French premier at the beginning of the war of 1870.

Artillery Is the Chief Factor in the European War.

German Officer Describes the Fearful Effect of the Big Howitzers—Admits That French Cannoneers Are Skillful.

Berlin.—"Artillery is trump in this war," says a wounded German officer interviewed by the Tageblatt. He continues:

"Our German shells are wonders. In addition to their destructive effect, the moral effect of their detonation is plainly to be observed. The enemy is not a little affected by the dull, uncanny noise. The showing of our field howitzers is a complete success. They are actually equal to the heaviest field pieces of the French, the Rimalho (150-millimeter) howitzers. The effect is an effective protection, except that they do not always explode."

"In our advances we have had opportunity to observe on the French dead and wounded the effect of our shells, and it was very great. At the beginning of the war the percussion point of our projectiles is said to have lain too high, and it is interesting to note that we first learned this from letters captured from the French."

DEFENDS POPULAR REMEDIES

Speakers Says Newspaper Should Investigate Merits of Medicines Before Barring Advertisements.

That an organized attempt has been made to blacken the reputation of the popular family remedies of this country, and to mislead the newspaper publishers into rejecting the advertising of such medicines, was the charge made by Carl J. Balliett, of Buffalo, N. Y., at the convention of the Advertising Affiliation at Detroit.

Mr. Balliett is a director of the Proprietary Association of America, which includes in its membership two hundred firms which make the popular prepared medicines of America.

Mr. Balliett pointed out that it is the duty of the newspaper publisher to refuse the advertising of any fake or fraudulent medicine, just as it is his duty to refuse any fake or fraudulent advertising, but it is not right to shut down on all medical advertising because there have been some fakers, any more than it would be right to refuse to publish all department store advertising because certain stores have made a practice of lying about bargain sales.

Disease and death are mysteries. People who are perfectly well are skeptical. They laugh at the time-worn patent medicine joke, just as they laugh again and again over the many variations of the operation joke.

Mr. Balliett refuted the idea sought to be spread about that patent medicines are unpopular by showing that from 1900 to 1912 the amount of prepared medicines consumed in America increased from $100,000,000 to $160,000,000 annually.

There has been spread the idea that a clever faker can mix a few useless ingredients and, by smart advertising, sell tons of it and win sudden wealth; whereas, as a matter of fact, the medicine business is notoriously difficult, and, where there has been one success at it, there have been a hundred failures.

In conclusion Mr. Balliett declared that no newspaper is doing justice to its readers in the matter of medical or other advertising, unless it investigates, not only the wording of the advertisement offered for publication, but the merits of the article advertised.

Put That Pain to Use

The network of nerves in your body, like the network of wires in a burglar alarm system, gives quick warning when anything is going wrong inside. Looking at it in this way a pain is a useful alarm. Now, kidney weakness is a dangerous thing—a condition not to be neglected—and it is wise to know and pay attention to the early alarm signals of sick kidneys.

Backache is a common warning of congestion or inflammation in the kidneys. It may be dull, nagging pain, or a sharp twinge when stooping or lifting. There are likely to be disorders of urination, dizziness, headaches, and drowsy, hesperant, tired feelings.

As a special medicine for weak kidneys, Doan's Kidney Pills have been used for years all over the civilized world, and surely are considered reliable. The patient can always help the medicine immensely, however, by dieting lightly, using little or no liquor, tea or coffee, keeping regular hours and drinking lots of pure water.

As to Doan's Kidney Pills, read the following enthusiastic endorsement by one who has tested them.

COULDN'T DO A DAY'S WORK

In Bad Shape with Backache and Kidney Trouble

E. C. Sanders, Elmore St., Yorkam, Texas, says: "For years I had suffered from kidney disease and was unable to find anything that would help me. I don't know what caused the trouble, but it began with pain through my back and sides. When I stooped over I had difficulty in straightening and after sitting or lying in one position for awhile, I could hardly move."

Guest Who Didn't Care for Salmon Was in Fair Way to Have Hot Breakfast.

In some parts of the Canadian back country the recurrence of boiled salmon, broiled salmon, salmon cutlets, and salmon steak at every meal becomes, after a few weeks, a trifle monotonous. To the native palate, brought up on it, this constant reappearance of the selfsame dish is a matter of course; but to the newly arrived tourist it grows at last into a feebly joke.

"Nothing else!" replied the host, in surprise. "Why, there's salmon enough there for six, ain't there?" "Yes," responded the guest, mildly; "I don't care for salmon."

SOCIETY

Mrs. C. B. Jones, Editor.

The last program given by the Mothers Club was a success in every particular. The net proceeds of the entertainment amounted to nearly $25.00.

The Mothers propose buying a Victrola for the school, and they should be helped and encouraged. It is impossible for just a few women to accomplish much in the way of buying needed equipment for the school unless they are aided financially by all the patrons.

Good music, good books, flowers and copies of the true works of art are the essentials of beauty that are necessary to build up the ideals that are invariably an inspiration to the child's aspirations and a potent influence in the formation of character. As a man thinketh so is he, has been said by some wise acre, but we say, "that as a child seeth, as a child heareth, then so is he."

The Victrola is needed in the school, for through the Victrola the children can be taught to pitch their voices correctly in harmony with the singer and through such practice learn time, while singing with the master voice some of the most beautiful sentiments in the English tongue. The patriotic songs as arranged and sung by the master, "in voice," can be taught to the whole school while in chapel congregation, or on Friday afternoons. The leaflets bearing the words of all patriotic songs can be had for a very small sum.

There is no reason why Cotulla parents should not help to provide the school with the proper equipment, and the best possible surroundings, for in the school room our children spend two thirds of the day, every day of two thirds of the year. And again we say "as a child seeth and heareth, so is he."

Miss Renick is having the Primary room revarnished and some demonstration screens put in the two East windows, thus cutting off the cross lights, and giving the little tots the benefit of the proper lighting, which comes from the four large Southern windows falling on the desks over the left shoulders of the children. This prudent young teacher is trying to meet the needs of her room and to place the proper conditions about the children under her care without calling on the trustees for help. The trustees and parents appreciate Miss Renick's interest and efforts in behalf of the school.
