

OZONA LL STARS TAKE BIG LAKE AND CRANE IN PLAYOFF SERIES; NOW HEAD FOR WICHITA FALLS

By Ernie Boyd

Trailing 4 to 1 in the fifth inning the Ozona Little League All-Stars blasted their way into the regional tourney at Wichita Falls, Thursday night by rallying for five runs in the fifth inning to win over the Crane All-Stars 6 to 4.

Five hits, a fielder's choice that failed to get a runner, and one error, were enough for five runs and the ball game for the locals after it appeared the game was lost.

Left hander Lynn Merritt started on the mound for Ozona and pitched superb baseball for three and two-thirds innings before a home run by Steve Thomas with one man on, gave the visitors their first base hit. Milton Colquitt came on to pitch the last two innings getting into real trouble before getting out without damage on a strikeout with the bases loaded in the sixth.

Crane took the lead in the third inning on two Ozona miscues and a fly ball. Opposing pitcher Benito Molina led off the inning with a tap to short that was not handled and moved to second on a wild pitch. Thomas grounded to third and Colquitt threw wide to first, with one run scoring and the batter going to second.

Thomas scored on one of the game's better plays as the next hitter dumped a short looper to right, which looked like it was sure to be in for a hit, but Ronnie Mason made a falling catch to break up the rally, even though a run scored on the play.

Dubbie Scrivner got the Ozona team back into the contest when he walked, stole second and then scored on Merritt's first hit of the night, a single to left.

Merritt walked his first batter of the night to start the fourth but made a nice play to throw out the lead runner on a hard chance back to the box, by the next hitter, Molina. Then Thomas came through with a solid shot over the right field wall to send Crane ahead 4 to 1.

That looked like the game as the Ozona team, up to that time, had managed but one hit and had seen nine of its hitters go down swinging on Molina's sweeping curve ball.

The big rally started rather strangely as Scrivner beat out a scratch to first base. With a runner at first, Pon Seahorn hit a weak bouncer back to first base and the Crane first sacker tried for Scrivner at second. The throw (Continued on Last Page)

Crockett Co. SCD Approved For Work In Great Plains Program

The Secretary of Agriculture has approved the designation of the Crockett Soil Conservation District to participate in the Great Plains Conservation program, Dick Ketchum, local SCS Conservationist, announced this week.

The program will be developed on the county level prior to getting the program under way. Cost-share figures and specifications must be developed to fit the needs in this area.

The Great Plains Conservation program is a voluntary one. Its core is a complete soil and water conservation plan, based (1) on the soil, the plant conditions, the available water, and; on the problems and needs of the rancher. The Great Plains Conservation program is geared to the going program of the Soil Conservation District. It makes use of help from other programs, agencies, and organizations at county, state, and Federal levels.

Ranchers interested in the program may contact their Soil Conservation District Supervisors or the Soil Conservation Service Technician assisting the Crockett District.

8-2 Win At Big Lake Gives Ozona LL Stars Chance At Crane Crew

A six run uprising by the visiting Ozona Little League All-Stars propelled the Ozona team to an 8 to 2 win over Big Lake last Thursday night and set the stage for the district finals in Ozona Friday night.

The final margin failed to give a picture of the tight contest that took place until the fifth and sixth inning uprising by the Ozonians.

Milton Colquitt was the hero for the local team as he cracked two home runs during the contest with the second one breaking up an air tight pitching duel.

Joe Garcia started on the mound for the Ozona team and everyinning proved to be a hair raising one for Ozona fans. Garcia, who is usually a pitcher with a lot of control, on two occasions walked the bases loaded, and then struck out the side, and in every inning in which he worked he got himself into trouble with free passes before getting himself out again with strikeouts.

Garcia finally yielded to Dubbie Scrivner who finished the game in a breeze after the fifth inning.

Ozona opened the scoring with two runs in the first but Big Lake got one back in the same frame and then tied it up in the fourth before Colquitt's first home run with one on in the fifth.

Ismael Ramos started for Big Lake and went fine until the roof fell in the fifth and he was relieved by Vernon Buchanan.

Ozona picked up its 8 runs on 9 hits and committed no errors while Big Lake had 2 runs on 3 hits and committed 4 miscues.

Nine Former Patients From Ozona Invited To Reunion At Gonzales

Nine persons from Crockett County are among the 3,000 Texans who have been invited to the most unusual reunion in the United States. The annual event, to be held August 7, is a get-together for former patients of The Texas Rehabilitation Center, Gonzales Warm Springs Foundation.

Former patients gather for a full day of activity, to meet old friends from their stay at Warm Springs, and to make new ones that share their same handicap or a similar one.

Last year, more than 300 disabled Texans came to Warm Springs, located between Gonzales and Luling near Palmetto State Park, for the August gathering. This year marks the fourth time the reunion has been held.

Cooperation of Ozona Parents Sought in Curbing Wave Of Juvenile Vandalism In City; Windows, Streets Lights Broken in Gun & Rock Campaigns

Juvenile vandalism, citywide in scope, and involving the persistent breaking of street lights with air guns, pistols and rifles or with rocks, and the breaking of window glass in vacant buildings and residential property has drawn official attention in Ozona and a stern warning to parents and youngsters before measures are adopted to stop the practices.

After receiving numerous complaints from residents, Sheriff Billy Mills, County Attorney Dixon Mahon and County Juvenile Officer, Judge Houston Smith, held a conference early this week and decided that a public warning to parents of the consequences should their children be apprehended in the practice of such vandalism and to the children themselves be issued before steps are taken to put a stop to the vandalism by force.

Reports from West Texas Utilities Co. officials indicate that a citywide campaign is being waged by a group or groups of youths to shoot or knock out street lights in all parts of the city. Not only is this expensive to the company but a nuisance to residents who are interested in well lighted streets in their own neighborhoods. Windows panes have been broken out in school buildings and other unoccupied buildings.

Sheriff's department officers have reported youngsters seen in the act of such vandalism and in a number of cases the offenders barely eluded apprehension at the hands of officers.

Judge Smith pointed out that parents will be held responsible for loss to property and for penalties assessed their youngsters who are caught in such vandalism. Parents should take measures at once, he said, to check up on the activities of their children, especially if they have access to guns of any type, or if they may be in the company of others known to seek such destructive entertainment.

If local officers can secure the cooperation of parents in talking over with their children the seriousness of such practices and to keep close check to be sure that their children are not among the guilty ones, it may save some families some heartaches and expense, Judge Smith said.

65 YEARS TOO LATE — Californian Requests Copy of 'Ozona Courier' Vintage About 1895

The editor of the Stockman received a letter from a Californian this week requesting a copy of the "Ozona Courier."

The Ozona paper was called the "Courier" prior to 1900 and then under the editorship of Claude Hudspeith became the Ozona Kicker. In 1913 the paper became the Ozona Stockman, so named by Judge Chas. E. Davidson.

The letter writer appeared to have a feeble hand but gave no details of previous association other than to sign Martin Neel.

Funeral services were held at 11 o'clock Tuesday morning from the Ozona Methodist Church for Mrs. E. H. (Gene) Linthicum, 58, of Barnhart, who was killed instantly at 11:10 a. m. Sunday in a car-train collision at a crossing on the Linthicum ranch just east of Barnhart.

1960 Football Finds New Faces In Dist. Schedule

Eldorado Replaces Menard In 8A; Bronte Is New on Lion Slate

By Ernie Boyd

The 1960 Ozona High School football schedule was released last week and revealed a number of changes both in district and non-district play for the approaching season.

District 8-A will have a new member this season even though one that has been on the Ozona schedule and in Ozona district play about as much as anyone. Eldorado, after several years in class B will return to class A competition this season and in so doing will take over Menard's place in the league as last year's district champions go down to class B play for the coming season.

The Ft. Stockton Panthers, who seem to be decidedly on the upswing in football and who will be nearing 3A size shortly, will not be on the scheduled list fall having been replaced by Bronte.

Rankin will remain on the schedule but this year will be a class A school, in the district with Sanderson, Iraan, Wink, and Fabens. Wink will also be a new class A school while Marfa will advance to 2A and leave the district.

Early indications are that Big Lake, Junction, and Eldorado, are all expected to be strong with Junction being particularly loaded with returning linemen.

Fall practice for the coming season is scheduled to get under way Monday, Aug. 15. Coaches Fred Hickman and Sonny Cleere expect to have the nuclei of a good (Continued on Last Page)

THE ALPHABET CAMPAIGN

The great family daily which reaches our desk each morning seems destined to have few problems from now until Nov. 8 in determining its headline makeup. So far, since the Los Angeles convention, banner heads sprinkled with JFK's and LBJ's have jumped out from almost every page from the first to last.

But we wonder if the readers of this gfd can thus be lulled into overlooking the stated purposes behind the campaign utterances from the JFK-LBJ camp. We wonder if the thousands of West Texans, oil operators, oil field workers, land owners, royalty and lease owners, whose livelihood depends on a healthy oil business can be lulled into overlooking the Democratic party's pledge to destroy the 27½ percent depletion allowance for tax purposes granted the oil industry to encourage the high risk search for new oil reserves.

We wonder if the many more thousands who shouldered arms to fight for the "home of the free"; those who still believe that constitutional America is a federation of sovereign states, delegating certain powers to a central government and retaining to themselves those powers not so specifically delegated; those who would abhor a police state such as that proposed in the vicious civil rights plank in the Democratic platform, could overlook the implications of this document.

We wonder if hard headed West Texas ranchmen and other thinking Texans can't see behind the black headlines the unmistakable hand of the all-powerful labor bosses in the Democratic pledge to undo the already pitifully inadequate laws to curb labor abuses and to outlaw by federal legislation the right to work laws of several states.

We wonder if the tricky initialing, so reminiscent of FDR, HST, NRA and WPA, can blind our eyes to the socialistic aims, the complete welfare state of the do-everything-for-everybody platform of the radical, left-wing element which now controls the Democratic party in this nation.

One thing seems certain at this stage, that the pinko press and broadcasters have marshalled their resources for a steady drum of biased reporting, of glorifying the inglorious, of belittling America's strength and magnifying that of her enemies, and of promising us everything, even to a hammock on the shady side of the moon, all without costing a cent more in taxes.

GLIMPSE OF SALVATION

"Along with a number of my more erudite friends," writes John J. Synon in Human Events, "I have sat in the petulant's corner wondering what difference there is between the Republican and the Democratic parties; why should I support either?"

Now this Conservative has learned, he says, through a study of the ACA Index, published by Americans for Constitutional Action and revealing the voting record of every Senator since 1955 and every Representative since 1957. Its 79,500 entries record every vote of record on every crucial issue. He has learned that "the Republican party — as a party — has lent little aid or comfort to the collectivists and is little to be damned for constitutional principles for our plight. Republicans are not responsible; it is the lack of Republicans."

This Index, based on votes cast for constitutional principles gives a 100 percent rating to those who have never voted otherwise. Of the 437 members of the House, 13 have achieved that score. All are Republicans. No Democrat has made this score. Of the 277 Democratic members, 200 scored 29 percent or less and only 58 rated above 50 percent. All of the 151 Republicans were above this median. In the Senate, Barry Goldwater scored 98 percent, John J. Williams 99 percent, John M. Butler and Roman L. Hruska 93 percent. The only Democrats with comparable records are Virginia's Senators Byrd and Robertson with 92 and 81 respectively and Ohio's Lausche. Presidential nominee Kennedy scored 11 percent and his running mate, Lyndon Johnson, often thought to be a Conservative, only 10! Of all Republicans in the Senate, 31 out of 33 were above the 50 percent median, and 47 of the 65 Democrats below it.

Mr. Synon is now convinced, he says, that "the Republican party has held true to constitutional principles. While the Index doesn't say this in so many words", he adds, "the implication is clear and if the five million Conservatives who have 'taken a walk' can be made to appreciate this fact, they can of themselves make of their party a majority party and reverse our movement to collectivism."

WHAT ARE YOU DOING NOVEMBER 8?

It is hard for the thoughtful citizen to decide — even in retrospect — whether he should be angered or saddened by the national convention spectacles he has been seeing and hearing electronically.

These were probably the most efficient conventions ever conducted in free America. In fact they were so efficient they seemed rather superfluous. The nomination of Senator Kennedy had been settled long before the expensive trek across the hot sands to Los Angeles, Republicans had known since President Eisenhower expressed approval to his Vice President in a press conference in March that they would convene, not to consider candidates for the Presidency, but to confirm Mr. Nixon.

Another striking feature is that despite predictions of bitter battle over both party platforms, the Democratic platform was accepted calmly after a minority report and a few speeches of protest over civil rights planks and the Republican platform was adopted without incident. Another switch from traditional politics is that both candidates, rather than assuring their followers of victory, have warned that this fall's campaign will be the hardest-fought and the closest in American history.

Yet, out of all the weary hours of the two conventions, the conduct, statesmanship and ringing advice of Arizona's Senator Barry Goldwater inspired new hope, new confidence and new courage in those who have sought to stem America's drift into socialism — and those who have merely watched in growing alarm.

After his name had been put in nomination for the Presidency, and after a spirited ovation, the Senator asked that his name be withdrawn and his supporters give their fullest support to Mr. Nixon. He then called upon all Conservatives to do likewise. They might not agree, he said, with every plank in the platform or with every thought of the party leaders, but he pointed out that the record of the Republicans in Congress, compared with that of the Democrats represented the best hope of the nation's survival. And Republicans, he said, had suffered defeats, not because there were too many Democratic votes, but because Conservatives had stayed home and not voted.

If the words of Goldwater are heeded as they deserve to be, if those who have been disgusted with the creeping liberalism within the GOP will study the voting records of Republican senators and congressmen, they will satisfy themselves that his advice is good — even if it means voting for the lesser evil.

PRESSURE GROUP RULE

Have pressure groups taken over America's political parties? One of the nation's most respected political columnists apparently believes they have to a large extent.

New York Times Columnist Arthur Krock, writing from the Democratic National Convention, implied the charge when he reported that two controversial groups had been allowed to dictate party policy on issues affecting the whole nation.

"The most controversial issues in the Democratic party and in the nation — Federal enforcement of equal rights and a national labor policy — were assigned in effect to the N.A.A.C.P. and the A.F.L.C.I.O. for drafting into the convention platform," Krock wrote.

"Each pressure group phrased in all its demands, and both the Platform Committee and the Convention accepted them practically without modification."

Ozona-Brownwood Concho Basin Game Off, Players Scattered

The Ozona Merchants and the Brownwood Colts postponed their scheduled Concho Basin game until a later date Sunday when conditions made it hard for either club to meet its obligations.

The Ozona team, resting in last place, will go to Robert Lee next Sunday to meet the Rabbits and then will be back home for a league game with Goodfellow the following Sunday, Aug. 14th.

As an added attraction the Merchants will engage the Eldorado team in Ozona Friday night, August 12th.

The Friday night game will be the first night appearance for the Ozona team at home even though the team has held most of its work-outs at night this season.

A fire department fishing trip, a Radar Base softball tourney, the Texas High School Coaching school and a few other varied things took most of the Ozona team while the Brownwood team could not come Saturday night, and would have been greatly extended to have come Sunday afternoon.

Notes From The County Agent's Office

By Pete W. Jacoby

Fading-out is a common summer disease of lawn grasses in all areas of Texas. It most often occurs on grasses that have suffered from lack of soil moisture in mid-summer. Fading-out is sometimes called "melting out", "going out" or "gray leaf mold."

Irregularly shaped dead leaves occur in the lawn, says Harlan E. Smith, Extension Plant Pathologist, of Texas A&M College. Isolated, scattered sprigs of living grass are usually found in the disease areas. Leaves die back from the tip end. Runners or stems of the grass may have dead spots. These spots may or may not enlarge and girdle the stem. Roots may be rotted.

The disease is caused by a complex of Helminthosporium, Curvularia and Fusarium species of fungi. These soil molds are most active following a heavy rain or watering on grass that has previously been weakened by drought. There is an indication that soil nematodes may be associated with fading-out in some cases.

Fading-out is controlled by proper management of the lawn. Proper watering, fertilizing, mowing and aeration are important.

In lawn areas that respond to proper management practices in the summer, zineb or optan fungicide drenches may prove helpful. Use the above fungicides at the rate of 2 to 4 pounds per 100 gallons of water. Wet the grass with the solution down to the soil line. Use a sprinkler can or hose on sprayer for small areas. Apply drench right after mowing. Also, drench the healthy grass beyond the disease area to a width of several feet.

The National Safety Council recommends that to guard against heatstroke—you must slow down a bit on these hot summer days. Overexposure to the sun, prolonged heat or hard physical labor in a hot or stuffy place can bring heat exhaustion quickly.

In heatstroke, body temperature rises, skin becomes hot and dry, face reddens and headache develops. Heat exhaustion works just the reverse. The patient's body becomes cool, perhaps clammy, with sweat. The best treatment for both conditions is preventative.

The following precautions are recommended by the Safety Council:

Increase salt intake to offset excessive loss of salt in the body through perspiration. Salt intake can be increased by adding more salt to food, by drinking salted water, or by taking salt tablets.

Avoid overexertion and over-exposure to direct sun rays or extreme indoor temperature and high humidity.

Wear a hat out-of-doors; wear light, porous clothing.

Eat nutritious food, but avoid over-eating. Drink water often through the day, one glass at a time. Avoid ice water and alcohol.

When heat stroke or heat exhaustion occurs, get a doctor at once and apply first aid treatment.

Susie and Judy have had a wonderful experience in fixing flats. Dressed in their best, heels included, they changed a tire. Janet North, Janet Mason and I just watched.

Road work in Crockett county can be speeded up considerably by delay in construction of new right-of-way fences wherever possible, E. H. Gallenkamp, assistant to Exline Martin, State Highway Department resident engineer, said here. Where fences are built in advance of construction, it hampers contractors in building drainage ditches and grading close to the fences.

Miss Lillian Shick of Big Spring and M. S. Decker of St. Louis are house guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Word and daughters.

President Hoover has announced a policy of rigid economy in Federal Government expenditures. He has incurred the anger of minor officials by ordering them to spend no money not necessary to the public welfare, to incur no further obligations to be paid for in the future, and to cut their estimates of their department needs for next year down to the bone. (Ed. Note—Next year the New Deal was born and frugality in government went out the window for all time, it seems.)

A Reo truck belonging to Elmo Taylor and loaded with approximately 6,000 pounds of coal for the Flowers Coal Co. here, was destroyed by fire of unknown origin between Ozona and Barnhart last Friday.

Opening New Cattle Building At Santone Stock Yards Aug. 10th

The grand opening of the new cattle auction building will be held Wednesday, August 10, at 9:00 a. m., at the Union Stock Yards, San Antonio. This announcement was made by the San Antonio Livestock Market Institute.

Beginning August 10th cattle auctions will be held at the Union Stock Yards on Wednesdays and Thursdays, until further notice. The cattle auction will begin on Wednesday at 9:00 and continue until about 5:00 p. m. On Thursday the cattle auction will begin at 9:00 a. m. and continue until all cattle offered for the auction have been sold. This new schedule will continue until further notice. This schedule has been adopted for the convenience and at the request of shippers and buyers here at the market. Since more cattle will be offered for the sale than can be sold in one day through the cattle auctions it was felt advisable to have the auction on two days during regular business hours when all the buyers would be present and insure the producer the maximum number of buyers and the best possible price at the auctions.

was late and both hands were safe. Ronnie Mason then became the man of the hour again as he slammed a line drive back through the middle to score Scrivner. Merritt then followed with a line drive double to score two more runs and tie up the game.

With the score tied, the Ozona team got its first break as Colquitt singled and Merritt was trapped between home and third and tagged out, but the Crane third baseman lost the ball in the collision and Merritt jumped up and scored.

Two more Ozona hits produced another run before Lynn Shelton came on to retire the side for Crane, but it was too late.

All the thrills were not over, however, as Crane was to launch one more effort before the game ended.

Milton Colquitt came on in the bottom of the fifth to relieve Merritt, who went to short and had little trouble retiring the side and striking out two of the three batters. Ozona went out in order.

Then came the bottom of the sixth. After getting three balls and no strikes on the first hitter Colquitt got a called strike on the hitter and then made him pop up to right field. He then walked Molina and hit Thomas to put two on base with one out. A strike out put two away and things looked good before the most hair raising play of the day started Ozona fans chewing their finger nails again.

On the first pitch Shelton popped to the third base area and the Ozona third baseman, the shortstop, and the pitcher, all rushed to the spot in plenty of time, no one called, and no one caught, all three thought the other had it.

With the bases loaded, and only a two run difference, the game was up for the taking again, but this time Colquitt fanned the batter for the third out and the game.

The summary showed Ozona with 6 runs on 6 hits and 2 errors and Crane 4 runs on 3 hits with 3 errors.

Joe Jacobs, Former Ozona LL Star, Clouts Winning Homer at N.M.

Joe Jacobs, former Ozona Little League Star, was chosen recently as a member of the all-star team from his league in Hobbs, New Mexico.

Jacobs barely became eligible since it was necessary for him to play in half of his team's league games in order to qualify.

In the playoff game between the two leagues all-star teams in Hobbs, Jacobs hit a three-run homer that proved to be the winning margin for his team. The blow not only won the game but touched off a protest that carried all the way to Williamsport, Pa., before the ruling that he was eligible became final.

The Hobbs team has since played and defeated Roswell in the state playoffs.

The home run was Joe's 14th round tripper this season. He hit twelve in Ozona this year before leaving for Hobbs, and was the top long ball hitter in the local league.
