Ozona Greeted And Dines Bevy of Miss Wool Contestants

Girls Introduced And Given Gold Charm Ozona Souvenirs

Ozona pulled out all the stops Wednesday morning in entertaining the twenty-one beautiful contenders for the title of Miss Wool of America, plus the reigning Miss Wool of America, Carolyn Barre of Yoakum, Texas, and the reigning Miss Mohair of Texas, Nancy Friend of Ozona, and a several dozen carload caravan of chaperones, drivers, judges and Miss Wool pageant boosters.

The caravan arrived here at 11 a. m. and stopped in downtown Ozona for a brief introduction. The beauty caravan was greeted with music from the Ozona High School band and a good crowd gathered in the park and across the street.

Arriving behind screaming sirens on police cars, the Miss Wool contestants, each riding in a white Oldsmobile convertible, (Miss Barre rides in a Chevrolet) parked their cars in a double row opposite the park where Oscar Kost, president of the Ozona Chamber of Commerce, was on hand to greet them and to introduce Miss Nancy Friend, Miss Mohair of Texas, who welcomed the visiting beauties and caravaners.

Twenty-one young Airmen from the Ozona Air Force station, who were lined up along the park wall as the girls arrived, marched smartly, each to a separate car, and each to introduce himself to the young lady he was assigned to escort to the platform. Each girl then passed across the platform, introduced herself and her escort, and each was presented with a souvenir gold charm, a map of Texas with Ozona engraved on it, a gift of the Chamber of Commerce.

Following the downtown introductions, the girls and members of the caravan were guests of the local unit of the Woman's Auxiliary, Texas Sheep & Goat Raisers Assn., at a luncheon in the fellowship hall of the Methodist Church. Mrs. J. M. Baggett, local

Ozona Volleyball Team Wins Title Of Own Tourney

Girls Edge Big Lake In Overtime; S.A. Central Is Third

By Ernie Boyd

Ozona High School girls volleyball team had to stave off a late Big Lake rally after staging a strong second half rally of its own to win by 22-20 margin in an overtime and capture the title in their own invitational tournament the week end.

Big Lake jumped into a commanding lead in the first half, going to the intermission with a 14 to 8 lead, but Ozona stormed back to take what appeared to be a safe lead 20 to 17 with just over a minute to go. But Big Lake tied up the game with 5 seconds left and the game had to go into overtime before Ozona won by scoring two consecutive points.

Ozona gained its way into the finals by winning easy decisions over London Friday night and Sonora Saturday morning.

San Angelo Central captured third place in the meet by winning over Iraan in the losers bracket having defeated London in play Saturday morning.

The all-tourney team announced after the tournament, named Barbara West of San Angelo Central, Margaret Friend of Big Lake and Diana Faye Coates of Ozona as spikers, with Pauline Maness of Ozona, Maria Valadez of Ozona and Jo Hicks of Big Lake set up wit hAlma Sanchez of Big Lake the most valuable player.

MISS WOOL OF AMERICA, Miss Carolyn Barre of Yoakum, Texas, who will place the crown she has worn the past year on the head of a new Miss Wool to be selected at the annual Miss Wool of America pageant in San Angelo Saturday night. Miss Barre was hostess to the 21 contenders for her crown when the group stopped in Ozona for a luncheon stay Wednesday on their way to Del Rio and a dinner in Mexico.

Ozona To Host District Track Meet Saturday

Eldorado Eagles Rank As Favorites; Ozona, Big Lake Threats

By Ernie Boyd

Lions Stadium will be the site this week of the District 8-A track meet to be staged in both junior high and high school divisions Saturday.

Eldorado, with a balanced squad of able athletes, will be heavy favorites to cop the district title again this year. Chief competition will come from Big Lake and Ozona, neither of which appears to have the squad strength to overcome the defending champions.

The Lions will be counting on versatile Pete Montgomery to bring in the "Lions share" of their points and the fleet senior could well be a tripple winner with both hurdles, an dthe pole vault as well as points in the board jump a relay and perhaps one sprint.

Robert Cox has been improving steadily this spring and will be favored to place in the hundred as may newcomer Brent Moore, who has but recently joined the Lion track squad.

In the field events, the Lions will have Penn Baggett and Robert Cox in the shot with those two being joined by Rodney Stewart in the discus.

Stewart will also enter the half mile and run a leg of the Lion relay.

In the distance events, Pablo Diaz and Jesus Arredondo will be the Lion's chief hopes in the mile while Ramon Sanchez will join Stewart in running the 880.

In the pole vault, in addition to Montgomery, the Lions will be counting on Scott Mahon to place.

Coaches Chick Womack and Sonny Cleere will throw their entire squad into action Saturday and some additional entries will be made as well as the entry of some of the boys listed in other events.

Big Lake will have weight man Tommy Franklin, who might well win the shot and discus but will get strong competition from MacDonald of Rankin and perhaps others.

Mike Holmes, the state winner in both the 220 and 100 last spring will return and will be heavy favorite in those two events as well as a strong anchor on the Owl 440 relay.

Charles Milwee is the defending winner in the mile run and with strong entries in both the high and broad jump, the Owls figure to score pretty well.

Iraan will be appearing in Ozona for the first time in a num-

Producers Asked To Sign Wool Incentive Payment Applications

Claude Russell, office manager of the Crockett County ASCS, called attention of county ranchers to the approaching deadline for signing applications for payment under the 1962 wool incentive program.

April 30 is the deadline for signing payment applications for wool an dpossibly mohair this year, and on sale of unshorn lambs, Russell said.

The office this year needs some additional information not required in previous years. The producers will be required to provide date of shearing and number of sheep shorn and the amount of freight paid in getting wool to the warehouse. On mohair sales, only the amount of freight paid is required.

Ranchmen are urged to go by the ASCS office at once and sign payment applications.

Gas Explosion Under Boiler In School Building Injures One, Damage Is Extensive

Quarter Horses On Parade At Annual Show Here June 1

Record Number Entries Expected At 11th Annual Show

Ozona's 11th annual Quarter Horse Show and Performance Contest, sponsored by the Ozona Roping Club, has been scheduled for Saturday June 1, it was announced this week by Carl Appel, general chairman of the show.

A record number of horses is expected to be entered in the 1963 Ozona show. By collaborating with the Sonora show, which will be held the day before the Ozona show, May 31, quarter horse breeders from all over are expected to take advantage of the convenient show circuit.

Ozona's show was class D up to 1962 but last year it lacked only 18 entries of being Class B, the 1962 entry list showing 132 horses entered. Class B rating is given shows having at least 150 entries.

Carl Appel is this year's show chairman, with P. C. Perner chairman of Performance classes, Sam Perner secretary, Oscar Kost, publicity chairman and James Childress, parade and kid classes chairman. x

The show will be judged this year by Johnie Rex McClellan of McLean, Texas. Sonora's show is to be judged by Weldon Rogers of Breckenridge, Texas.

The Ozona show is approved by the American Quarter Horse Association and the Quarter Horse Association of West Texas. There will be 22 championship trophies and 249 ribbons and rosettes awarded to show winners.

In addition to the halter classes, there will be performance contests including cutting horse contests, roping, reining and Western riding. Team roping, with registered mounts only, will be an added feature of this year's show.

Defending champion of the show will be Sam Perner's Comet Hancock, a chestnut sorrel gelding, judged best of the show last year. Perner's horse will be entered in all the performance classes except cutting horse.

Entries for the show close May 30.

Intra-City Grade School Track Meet Here Tues. Afternoon

Ozona High School track coaches announced this week that an intra-city grade school track meet will be held at Lion Stadium next Tuesday afternoon beginning about 4 p. m.

The meet will pit the fourth grade against the fifth and the sixth against the 7th and is the result of a great deal of interest shown in the last two years by many of the grade school age children in track.

Each day during the track season dozens of the young track hopefuls have been taking part in helpful coaching from the high school team and at times receiving helpful coaching from the high school and Jr. High staff present at the work outs.

The public is invited to the meet. There will be no admission charge.

Mrs. John Hobaugh left Ozona this week for Mineral Wells where she is with her father, Walter Daniel, who is reported to be seriously ill.

staff, to the hospital suffering from serious burns and possibly other injuries.

The explosion happened at 6:40 a. m. Tuesday and there were no children in the building.

Injured was Donaciano (Chano) Torres, veteran employe of the schools, whose job it had been for many years to light the pilot lights under the school boilers when the weather necessitated heating the buildings.

Torres escaped possible instant death or much more serious injury from the flying pieces of iron and steel sent hurling around the room by the force of the explosion. He had opened one of the six cast iron doors on the front of the boiler. When he applied the torch to light the pilot, the accumulated gas exploded with such force that the iron doors were blown off the front of the boiler, gas and water pipes ripped out and snapped like matches and the windows and one door to the boiler room shattered. The door leading into the hallway from the boiler room was open as was the door to a classroom directly across the hall. The concussion from the explosion knocked out a window pane in the west wall of the classroom across the hall.

A round steel cover to one of the dampers behind the boiler which was directly over an opening into the firebox was hurled in some manner through one of the side windows, either caroming off something or taking off in horizontal flight from its position.

The injured Torres, who is under treatment in the Crockett county hospital, where his condition is reported as serious, staggered from the building and walked to the high school building where he was met by Charlie Gotcher, maintenance superintendent for the schools. Mr. Gotcher, who had heard the explosion, ran to the building and cut off the gas supply and water after summoning another assistant to aid the injured man. Torres was rushed to the hospital where doctors said extent of his injuries could not be determined for several days.

The fifty-year-old boiler, which supplied steam to radiators to heat the classrooms, was a total wreck. A special meeting of the school board probably will be held to determine replacement plans.

Crockett Co. Ranchers Gave Total Of $53,700 To Screwworm Program

One hundred seven Crockett county ranchmen and interested citizens gave a total of $18,693.30 in the second campaign for funds to assure success of the screwworm eradication program in the Southwest, Pete Jacoby, county agent, and secretary of the local drive committee, reported this week.

Latest contributors to the fund not previously listed include Max Schneemann, John Childress, A. C. Hoover, and Ralph Jones.

Crockett county contributed $35,006.70 in the first fund collection, 73 contributors making up that amount. Producers and others in this county contributed a grand total to date of $53,700 toward elimination of the pest which annually costs livestock men of the southwest more than two million dollars in losses.

Area stockmen are being urged to continue their vigilance in looking for screwworm infestations and reporting them promptly so that any such outbreak may be quickly stamped out with a concentrated drop of sterile flies.

WILL POWER WINS

Americans everywhere should be grateful for the impressive and timely reminder from the wintry wastes of the Canadian Northwest that there is still no earthly force comparable to the human spirit.

Among the bush pilots of the North, it would have been a fairly routine flight on which pilot Ralph Flores, 42, of San Bruno, Calif., and his passenger, 21-year-old Helen Klaben of Brooklyn, N. Y. set off on February 4th from White Horse in the Yukon Territory to Seattle. Blown off course they crashed hours later on a heavily-wooded 4,000-foot mountainside.

What could they do? Injured in the wilderness, 20 miles off an air lane, in 40-below-zero weather, they had no sleeping bags, no rifle, not even an axe. Their food supply consisted of two cans of sardines and two cans of fruit salad. Yet 47 days later, 19 days after hope of finding them had been officially abandoned, they were brought out in amazingly good condition, will soon be home and well!

Despite his injuries, Pilot Flores rigged a shelter against the driving snow, painfully tramped out the SOS that another flyer finally saw. He cut firewood with a hammer and chisel. And in the 47 days, he read his Bible aloud to Helen, from Genesis to Revelation.

Their food lasted one week. In calories, the total supply added up to less than a single day's allowance under the most stringent reducing diet. Thus, despite the fact that, according to the Maine Sardine Council, the 384 calories in a four ounce can of the little fishes are entirely fat and high-nutrition protein, with thiamin, riboflavin, niacin, pyricoxine and all the B-complex vitamins in large supply, their meager rations can not explain their survival.

Plainly, it was the courage of this pair, and their firm belief in God that nourished an unquenchable will to survive. "We never gave up at any time," Flores told his rescuers.

Their demonstration of indomitable spirit may now help to rescue dispirited fellow citizens from the listless, defeatist hedonism into which we seem to be slipping—perhaps through lack of inspiring example.

"We never gave up at any time," — is a braver banner than: "Eat, drink and be merry, for tomorrow we die."

THEY WON'T STOP

Again, as in the case of the St. Patrick's Day hit-and-run attack of Cuban refugee freedom fighters on a Russian freighter in a Cuban port, the State Department has expressed its official disapproval of the second such attack. The March 26th attack, said the Department, "is equally deplorable, equally irresponsible and equally ineffectual as a means of dealing with the unsatisfactory situation which now exists in the Caribbean."

Fidel "Prime Minister" Castro was also upset. He charged the US with sole responsibility not only for these past incidents, but for any which may arise in the future. And if we didn't stop, he said, he would go get some long range bombers and naval vessels "to escort our merchant ships, protect our supply lines and repel aggressors."

Taking up Fidel's wounded cry, the Soviets quickly penned a diplomatic protest charging us with backing the raids and by violating President Kennedy's promise not to invade Cuba. In view of the sort of backing we gave the Bay of Pigs invasion, the Russians might be excused perhaps, for thinking we gave the exile commandos that five-foot rubber boat, even the 45 pounds of explosive, that they ysent against the Red freighter. And it could also be argued that the President has not been too emphatic in pointing out that they sent against the Red jeoted the anti-invasion pledge by their refusal of on-site inspections.

The refugee leaders, however, have vowed to strike "again and again." And so will Fidel and Khrushchev — at us. Even though the combined force of the State department, the Justice Department, the FBI and the Coast Guard, presently arrayed against the freedom fighters, manage to subdue these patriots, they are not going to silence Castro or the Kremlin. They are enjoying far too much their delicious opportunity of needling a great nation humbled.

James A. Farley, FDR's first campaign manager, told the Executive Club in Chicago the other day that we may have to risk World War III to remove the Communist menace. "I urge President Kennedy to act firmly on a free Cuba. . . .", he said.

Later, in New York, he predicted a Kennedy landslide in '64 that the President will do better

A Creek In My Back

By Allan R. Bosworth

Author of "New Country" and other historical & fictional works

April, April,
Laugh thy girlish laughter;
Then, the moment after,
Weep thy girlish tears.

— Sir William Watson

April is a pretty word anywhere you hear it, and it may be even prettier here in the Blue Ridge after a hard winter. The daffodils were out in time to hear April mentioned, the buds were swelling on every bough, and the little creeks were chuckling about how they simply went underground and kept running all the time.

We got the name from the Latin Aprilis, and I like to think that perhaps the noblest Roman of them all was the man who first thought it up. Which brings up an old question: is a word lovely because of its sound, or because of its meaning? Some day I shall ask an etymologist about this.

Von Humboldt said, "Thanks to Language, Man became Man," but I am sure he meant, by Language, the ability to speak and communicate. Today, thanks to Language, Man can get all fouled up. Meanings suffer or are even drastically changed by translation, and translations can be cumbersome. I remember an example in the Solomon Islands during World War Two, when the natives at best could communicate only in beche-le-mar, or pidgin. One Melanesian with the name "Charlie" tattooed on his left breast referred to the "big feila box, you beat 'im, 'e cry out," and I was mystified for a whole day. Turned out he was talking about the missionary's piano.

His own language was an impoverished and limited one, and yet, who knows? Perhaps it had some of the Nature poetry found in his second term than the first, and be rated "one of America's greatest Presidents".

In other words, Mr. Farley expects Mr. Kennedy to act firmly.

in the language of the American Indians and if the Melanesians had invented the piano they doubtless would have coined a musical sound for its name.

Etymology is a fascinating study, but one that would take a lifetime. Words change. The word "daisy" conjures up a pretty image, and therefore has a pleasant sound, whether you think of the flower or the girl on a bicycle built for two. But did you know that it was originally "day's eye"?

Or that "babe" once meant "doll" so that Babes in Toyland would not refer to the pretty girls behind the toy counter at Christmas time, unless you are in the Runyonesque habit of talking about Guys and Dolls. Look at Spencer's "The Shepherd's Calendar":

But all as a poor pedlar did he wend,
Beating a truss of trifles at his back,

As bells, and babes, and glasses in his pack . . . and you can see that we have new meanings for "babes", "trusses", and probably even "glasses".

"Blackguard" was once simply a scullery servant, who rode with the "black guard" when the household was on the move. "Hoyden" used to be another form of "heat-en." And in Shakespeare's time, if you gave someone a "union" for Christmas, your present was a splendid pearl. It says in Hamlet:

And in the cup an union shall he throw
Richer than that which four successive kings

In Denmark's crown have worn. And anyone who has been to Paris without knowing any more French than I did is likely to get the idea that DeGaulle's Defense Department is a tremendous organization, indeed. "Defense" signs everywhere. Took me several days to find out that they meant "Prohibited," or "Keep Out."

Well, puny, insignificant Man had a supreme audacity, in the first place, when he invented Language. Imagine being the first to give a name to something as infinite as the sky, or to say, "We will call this Ocean," or "That is a Star."

There is no accounting for such naming. As well tell the old story about the Italian who invented spaghetti (actually, Marco Polo brought it back from China) and was asked why he called it that. He said, "Because it looks like spaghetti, it feels like spaghetti, and it tastes like spaghetti." As good an answer as any.

Ozona Delegation To PTA Dist. Conference

Mrs. S. L. Canterbury, Jr., of Kilgore, state vice president of the Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers, was the featured speaker at the 42nd Annual Spring Conference of District Six. The meeting was held in the Sarah Bernhardt Theatre on the Central High School Campus in San Angelo. There were 212 registered delegates.

Mrs. Arlice Brooks of San Angelo presided at both the morning and afternoon sessions.

Two student presentations, one by Central High speech students dealing with the conference theme, "Community Strength Through Good Citizenship", and a panel discussion on "Why Is America Great," by Central government students, highlighted the morning session.

The eighth grade girls chorus of Lee Junior High gave special music and the Edison ninth grade speech department gave "Ballad of America". These were followed by the workshops for all of those attending.

Those attending from Ozona were Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Bland,

Clubwomen Express Thanks For Community Help With Convention

Spokesmen for the three Ozona Federated Women's Clubs who were hosts to the Heart of Texas District Convention here last week have asked that the thanks of the entire membership be expressed to all who assisted in making the convention an outstanding success.

"It was an undertaking that needed the cooperation of the entire community and we had it," said Mrs. Marshall Montgomery, general chairman of the convention planners. "Without the help of everybody we could not have successfully staged the convention. We are grateful to all who assisted, especially the merchants who contributed to the kits for the delegates, the schools and churches for the use of their facilities, the telephone company for making a phone available at convention headquarters, to Bill Cooper and Oscar Kost for their help with the loudspeaker equipment, to the staff at the church and to everybody else who in any way contributed to the success of the convention."

Ozona Garden Club Wins State Award For Development Of Live Oak Park

Live Oak park, the little triangular park area between 11th street and Highway 290 (Sheffield Road) as the highway curves away from the through town street, won a statewide award for its sponsors the Ozona Garden Club.

The Norma Barton Civic Beautification Award, offered for the most outstanding beautification project of two years or more duration, was awarded the Ozona Garden Club at the recent state Garden Clubs convention in San Antonio.

The first place carries a cash award of $25.

The rules governing this competition provide that the project must be from 2 to 5 years old and be of a permanent nature. The report on the project was submitted in scrapbook form and contained news stories and progressive pictures of the park's development. The project had to be of importance to the community and be approved by city or county authorities.

The little roadside park was started more than two years ago and under the guidance of the Garden Club and with the cooperation and assistance of the county road department and the State Highway Department maintenance crews, it has been developed into one of the beauty spots in town. Much of the actual labor of developing the park was done by club members over the years, specified days being set aside in which members donned slacks and sunbonnets and wielded hoe and rake and with the use of native plants an grasses turned the drab little spot into an attractive park.

Sheffield Airman Is Assigned to Reese AFB

Reese AFB, Texas — Master Sergeant Thomas L. Casey of Sheffield, Texas, has arrived here for assignment with an Air Training Command unit following a tour of duty in the Philippine Islands.

Sergeant Casey, a jet engine maintenance technician, is married to the former Anna C. Burkite of Waynesburg, Pa. He is a graduate of Iraan (Texas) High School.

HIGHLIGHTS AND SIDELIGHTS From State Capitol

Austin, Texas — Texas' Padre Island National Seashore project is getting closer and closer to reality.

Already approved by Congress, it now is waiting for financing by the U. S. and approval by the State of Texas. Project could become a vast tourist attraction for Texas.

Final version of the bill giving the state's submerged lands in Laguna Madre and the state's approval of the project was worked out in conference committee. It won Senate approval. House endorsement virtually is assured.

Bill Killed — Legislators appear to have killed some hot proposals.

One is the effort to abolish the state tax on property. Senate voted 23-4 to kill a proposed constitutional amendment to do away with the smallest part of that tax — that which furnishes cash for state office buildings and pensions for old Texas Rangers and Confederate widows.

House killed a bill to prevent city councils from saying that employees of their cities must live in the cities.

Also, House killed a proposal by Rep. "Red" Berry of San Antonio to allow 18-year-olds to vote.

Another bill to regulate companies which sell funerals in advance on the easy payment or "lay-away" plan was killed on a point of order.

Faster Speeds — The long talked-about proposal to allow 70 miles an hour speeds on open highways went to Gov. John Connally for signature. Rep. Forrest Herding of San Angelo was the sponsor.

Proposal sets top speed at 70, but gives State Highway Department the power to reduce that speed limit where it is not safe.

Home-Town Treatment — A program aimed to save money and do better job on treating mental illness went to Governor Connally for signature.

Rep. Malcolm McGregor of El Paso and Sen. Don Kennard of Fort Worth sponsored the plan. It allows the Board for State Hospitals and Special Schools to contract with local city or county hospitals to treat mentally ill or tuberculars in their home counties.

Candy Barr — Governor Connally approved recommendation of the Board of Pardons & Paroles to parole Juanita Dale Phillips, known as Candy Barr, who has been serving a prison sentence for narcotics violation.

Short, Short Snorts

Governor Connally urged Congress to reject the changes in oil and gas tax laws proposed by President Kennedy — Atty. Gen. Wagoner Carr said he will send an assistant to help in the Jim Wells County grand jury investigation of last November's general election. Rep. Charles Wilson of Trinity wants to outlaw professional boxing in Texas, as an aftermath of deaths of fighters. A Senate committee killed a bill which would have prohibited the state or local units of government from discriminating against anyone because of sex, race, creed, color or national origin. Vote was 12-4. Flying while intoxicated will be against the law if Governor Connally signs a bill to that effect by Rep. Stanford Smith of San Antonio.

Mrs. W. P. Conklin returned this week from Albuquerque, N. M. where she has been visiting her son, Ben Conklin, and family.

CHRYSLER / AMERICA'S NEWEST PACE-SETTERS

Sports spectacular — with a 5-year or 50,000-mile warranty†

When the Chrysler 300 sets out to do a performance job, it does it with flying colors. It's been chosen (with complete justification) to pace the field at the famed Indianapolis "500" on May 30th. It's already known as the No. 1 American rally car. Successes include top awards in the Continental Divide, Daniel Boone and Abominable Snow rallies.

With a 300—crisp, custom styling, bucket seat luxury plus the power and handling of a true performance car are all yours to enjoy. And, there's the most surprising extra of all—your Chrysler dealer's 5-year or 50,000-mile warranty. Little wonder Chrysler's setting the hot pace wherever performance cars are being talked about.

Value spectacular — with a crisp, custom look

When Chrysler sets out to pack a full-size Newport with value, others take a back seat. Here's value that surprises many who figure the crisp, custom beauty of Chrysler ought to be priced much higher. Consider the solid way this beauty is built. The complete way it's powered and equipped with a Firebolt V-8 that performs on regular. Torsion-bar suspension that levels the roughest roads. Expensive decorator fabrics. Six-way adjustable seats. Thick, door-to-door carpeting. Then there's America's longest and best new-car warranty, 5 years or 50,000 miles. Chrysler Newport—only $2964.* See your dealer today.

*Manufacturer's suggested retail price of Newport 4-door sedan, exclusive of state and local taxes, if any, and destination charges. White wall tires extra.

†Your authorized Chrysler Dealer's Warranty against defects in material and workmanship on 1963 cars has been expanded to include parts replacement or repair, without charge for required parts or labor, for 5 years or 50,000 miles, whichever comes first, on the engine block, head and internal parts; transmission case and internal parts (excluding manual clutch); torque converter, drive shaft, universal joints (excluding dust covers), rear axle and differential, and rear wheel bearings, provided the vehicle has been serviced at reasonable intervals according to the Chrysler Certified Car Care schedules.

EDITORIAL

By Carleta Hedrick

As six weeks exams week approaches, many students become concerned about their grades.

Some who are just below the passing mark or near it, try to think of ways they can make a C- or a C.

Others who have a fairly good chance of passing just give up with, "Oh, what's the use; I'll never pass anyway."

There is still a third group that has been studying from the first day of the six weeks. These students have a good average because they have studied their notes and have done their homework.

Although we would like to be in the last group, some of us are in one of the first two. By studying our notes often and doing outside assignments, we may improve our grades.

If we have done our best from the first day of the new six weeks, we should not have to worry the week before exams about how to pass.

The team as a whole took first place in the Plant Identification and Range Management contest and placed second in the Wool and Mohair contests.

Keith Mitchell, placing individually first in Plant Identification and Range Management and obtaining a third-high score in Wool and Mohair, was high-point-man for Ozona.

In other individual placings, Moe Barbee placed third; Carey Pitts, fourth; and Hugh Coates, sixth, all in Plant Identification and Range Management.

Due to the fact that Mr. Barber was attending a Board of Directors meeting of Vocational Agriculture Teacher's Association in Austin, Mr. G. K. Mitchell accompanied the boys.

SPRING BRINGS RESEARCH PAPERS

Spring is spring, and too seniors spring means research papers! These papers provide a major interest for the families of seniors as well. Everyone from grandma to the family pet is conscious of the topic of the year.

In these seniors' households we find the following subjects of current interest: Penn Baggett's, "Medicare"; Gracie Chandler's, "Modern Music"; Cheryl Clayton's, "Angkor, Lost City of the Jungle"; Robert Cox's, "Uses of Atomic Energy"; Sossenes De Hoyos, "Uses of the X-Ray"; Lucia Diaz's, "History of Hawaii"; Kathy Doran's "History of Silverware"; Arlene Gotcher's, "Furniture: Traditional and Modern"; Matias Gutierrez's "The Monroe Doctrine"; Ernie Hanson's, "Castro"; Ronnie Houston's, "Federal Bureau of Investigation"; Gail Johnson's "The Moving Picture Industry"; Robin Jones' "The Appaloosa Horse"; Pauline Maness' "Greenwich Village"; Pete Montgomery's, "History of the Olympics"; Brent Moore's "Radio Astronomy"; Floydine Moss' "Labor Laws and Legislation"; Helen McClab's "Leukemia and Similar Blood Diseases"; Sherrie Oakley's "Mormons and Mormonism"; Jann Smith's, "Influence of Mary Stuart on Elizabeth Tudor"; Priscilla Shields' "Historical Attractions of Texas"; Kathy Padgett's "India's Political Life." Besides gaining knowledge from reading about the subject, the seniors learn patience and perseverance from the many hours spent typing and re-typing.

The unfamiliar Latin expressions of Ibid; Op. Cit; and Loc. Cit; so often associated with research papers have found their ways into the senior's vocabularies.

ARLENE GOTCHER AND PENN BAGGETT NAMED TO ALL-DIST. CAST

Arlene Gotcher and Penn Baggett were named to the All District One-Act Play Cast for their outstanding performances in Sparkin; a hillbilly comedy directed by Mr. Leath. The play was given Friday at the district meet in Big Lake.

The two seniors have had previous acting experience, both having been members of the cast for the Jr.-Sr. play last year. Arlene is in the cast for the Jr. Sr. play this year, also.

CHEERLEADER TRYOUTS TO BE HELD MAY 1ST

Cheerleader tryouts will be held May 1st and the elections for cheerleaders will be held May 2nd. All freshman, sophomore, and junior girls are eligible to try out for cheerleader.

FFA TO GO TO ALPINE

The Ozona FFA chapter will send teams to Alpine next Saturday to compete in the Sul Ross Invitational Plant Identification, Range Management, and Livestock Judging contests.

Although the members have not yet been chosen, chapter competition is being held this week to determine who will make up the teams.

GARDEN REMINDERS

Peonies should be disbudded as the buds come. Some have buds now. Roses are the same.

Buy caladiums now while the selection is plentiful and hold until warmer weather.

Mulching of sweet peas is beneficial and will prolong the bloom.

Weeds are coming up in lawns at a rapid rate. Use weed killer for large areas.

Continue to plant gladiolas and dahlias.

Divisions of carysanthemums may be done for a month or more.

Prune forsythia and japonica immediately after bloom.

In pruning nandina, take out the oldest of the canes to get new low growth. Some badly grown plants may need cutting of all canes to about six to eight inches above the soil line.

Marketing Year For Wool - Mohair Changed

College Station — Texas sheep and goat producers are reminded by Ed Uvacek, extension livestock marketing specialist, that the marketing years for wool and mohair have been changed from an April 1 — March 31 year to a calendar year basis.

In order to make the transition from the April-March base to a calendar year, the 1963 marketing year will consist of only nine months — April through December. The first full calendar marketing year, therefore, will be 1964, explains Uvacek.

These changes are important to sheep and goat producers, says the specialist, since the selling time of their clips and the amount of incentive payments they receive are involved. The incentive payment rate, he explains, is based on the difference between the national average price received by producers and the incentive prices announced by the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

The incentive level for wool in the marketing year 1963 — April-December — is 62 cents per pound while that for mohair has been set at 76 cents per pound, Uvacek says.

TSTA Unit Hears Association Official Names New Officers

Over one hundred Ozona teachers and their guests were present Monday night at the Crockett County T. S. T. A. spring banquet held at Ozona High School cafeteria.

Charles Hamilton, a field representative of the T. S. T. A. from Austin was the principal speaker, outlining the role of the T.S.T.A. in the advancement of Texas education.

The local unit also heard the report of the nominating committee for officers for the 1963-64 school year and elected Frank Janes president of the unit for the next year.

The speaker for the night pointed out that not only did the T. S. T. A. have to work for the betterment of Texas education but also had to defend against those who each year would attempt to undermine the Texas education system. In reference to advancements made this year, Mr. Hamilton pointed out H. B. 9, sponsored by Representative George Hinson, had gained concurrence by the House and Senate and would be signed by the governor in a few days providing an immediate increase in benefits for more than 4,900 retired school teachers.

The cost of the increases will be borne by the retirement system itself through its investment program and through growth. No additional state funds will be required to sponsor the program nor will extra funds be needed from the members of the retirement system.

Tables for the banquet were decorated with the April shower theme, each place having its own sequin-decorated umbrella.

Other officers chosen for the 1963-64 school year were Hack Leath, first vice-president; Mrs. Lowell Littleton, second vice president; Miss Diane Billings, secretary, and Mrs. Jody Jones, treasurer.

Notes From The County Agent's Office

By Pete W. Jacoby

According to the March report of the Western Livestock Reports, stock sheep numbers on January 1, 1963 were at their lowest point since record-keeping began in 1867. A total of 26.1 million head were on farms and ranches at the beginning of this year, almost 1 percent less than the previous low in 1950 and 3 percent less than a year ago. Inventories of total sheep stood at 30.2 million, down 4 percent from last year. This included a 5 percent drop in the number on feed.

The number of ewes in the United States dropped 3 percent during 1962 and a 3 percent reduction also occurred in ewe lambs. The sharpest cut took place in weather and ram lambs — down 8 percent from last year. Texas had 110,000 fewer head of ewe lambs on hand this year because of a smaller lamb crop and dry ranges.

According to the Department of Agricultural Economics and Sociology at Texas A&M College, we are spending less to day for meat than back in the older days. About 7% of our total income was spent for meat in the 1920's, but only 4 1/2 is now spent on meat. We are getting better meat than before because we have more grain fed animals and more consumer grades available in the store to choose from. Most of our store bought meat in the beef line comes from the grades of Choice, Good or Standard.

Gas Explosion —

school system are given annual inspections by a boiler expert from insurance companies issuing policies on school property. They are inspected for safety and tagged annually to show such safety inspection.

An insurance company inspector summoned after the explosion said the explosion probably resulted from gas seeping into the firebox through a safety valve which failed to close completely because of a chance sliver of rust or residue from inside the pipes being wedged in the valve seat.

A two-inch gas main to the boiler was broken but the force of the explosion evidently snuffed out the fire immediately and the escaping gas was not lighted. The gas was cut off a few minutes after the explosion by Mr. Gotcher.

The several boilers in use in the local school buildings for heating, and particularly the ancient one in the junior high building, had recently come under scrutiny of the school board and the advisability of replacing them with more modern heating methods had been discussed. The problem was simplified for the board, at least as far as the junior high building is concerned.

The boiler in the Junior High building, Ozona's original high school building, was installed shortly after construction of the building in 1910. It was first fired by coal, then later was converted to fuel oil and still later to natural gas. An adjoining room, now used as a classroom, was originally the coal bin for storing coal for use in the boiler.

ber of years and will appear with a great deal more strength than has first been thought they had. Buddy Lanehart will give the Braves strength in the hundred and in the broad jump and the Braves have in recent meets shown some strength in the field.

Rankin will be led by footballer Charles McDonald, who is almost certain to place in the shot and discus and could be the winner in either event. The Red Devils too have been showing surprising strength and can not be counted out.

Finally, the Eagles from Eldorado will have strength in almost every event, even though only in the 440 relay and in the half mile will the Eagles have performers that rate as real favorites.

The Eldorado squad has depth and enough talent to contend in every event, thus placing them at the top of the list of point getters, even if they fail to win many of the first places. The Eagles could very handily win both the 440 and mile relay and then even if they win only the 880 could place enough men in each event to run away with the point totals.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Archer and four children have moved from San Angelo to Ozona where Mr. Archer has become associated with the Elliott Electronics as radio and TV repairman. Mr. Archer has been in the radio and TV service work in San Angelo for the past ten years and is well qualified to give service.
