Kitty's Korner

By Kitty Montgomery

My grandmother always called the last couple of weeks in August the "Dog Days." I grew up thinking she was more than just a little peculiar, but now in my old age I can see what she means. I can't think of a better name for the final days of summer. Surely this time of the year derived its name from the old saying "Not fit for a dog." That is truly an apt description of the weather these days. The only bright spot is the fact that fall weather is just around the corner.

If we have ever had a more miserable summer, I can't remember it, and I am not alone. I've heard several people older than me say the same thing.

Word has gotten around that the latest fashion news from Paris indicates that hemlines are dropping. Most of the newest creations shown there dropped hems to mid-calf or longer. Women with a closet full of mini-skirts are in a state of shock. Don't panic girls, there are solutions. When the new styles catch on here you can buy long skirts and use your old dresses for blouses. Most of the dresses women have been wearing the past few years are nothing more than long shirts anyhow.

If you are handy with a needle, you might figure out a way to put two mini-dresses of harmonizing fabrics together and make one dress with the new length. If all else fails, you can always add a wide ruffle or flounce.

The little IQ pins you are seeing this week on various men and women are not advertising a high degree of intelligence. The IQ means I Quit, quit smoking that is. The pins were made available by the American Cancer Society and presented by the local chapter's president, Jonesy Williams. She was very careful that her supply of pins went to those who really merited it.

One of her friends and a member of the local chapter asked Jonesy for one of the pins. She was smoking at the time, but vowed that she had every intention of quitting. Jonesy turned her down without a second thought. Before you get an IQ pin from this gal, you really quit. Rumor has it that she had every recipient investigated before she presented the pins.

Heard a cute story about a pioneer ranching couple who ranched southeast of here many years ago. It seems the couple decided to leave the ranch and go on vacation. They went to Del Rio and checked into the hotel there, preparing to really live it up.

The lady went down to do some shopping in the largest department store in the city at that time and heard several women talking about a matinee. When she discovered that the matinee was an afternoon show in the opera house featuring the new-fangled motion picture, she decided that she and her husband would like to go. They entered the large dark hall and were stumbling around in the dark. The old man was using a few choice cuss words and when he lost touch with his wife he called to her in a loud voice "Ma, lets get out of here, there ain't a dangd soul here 'cept us." About that time a hand touched him on the shoulder and a (Continued on Last Page)

53 Lion Grid Hopefuls Begin Daily Practice

A total of 53 high school boys were issued football equipment and have been working out twice daily at the football field this week. Next week the Lions will begin one-a-day practice after school.

Coach Rip Sewell and his staff are well pleased with the way the squad is shaping up. The boys must learn a completely different system of football than they have known. New plays and an entirely new defense is being used by Coach Sewell this year. However, the main problem is inexperienced players in various positions.

When asked about weight, Sewell replied that the team was big enough. He said he expected the new Lions to improve with each game and possibly come up with a surprising season. "Spirit is good and enthusiasm is high," Sewell said, and remarked that the boys were a hard-working bunch.

Assisting with workouts are coaches Jim Williams, John Richey and Bob Hinds. Hinds moved to Ozona last week with his wife and two children from Brackettville, where he taught and coached last year.

The Lions will see their first action of the season next Thursday, Aug. 28, when they journey to Fort Stockton for a scrimmage. Starting time will be around 6:30 p. m. Before their first game with Junction Sept. 12, the Lions will go to Robert Lee for another scrimmage.

Back To School Sadie Hawkins Dance Planned

A Sadie Hawkins Day theme will be used for the annual back-to-school dance to be held Saturday night at the Civic Center. All high school students are invited to dress hillbilly and bring their dates.

Junior high activity night will be held Friday night this week at the center. This weekend marks the end of summer youth activities, but the Teen Council has planned various activities throughout the school year.

Tickets for the dance will be $1 per stag or $1.50 per couple. A group from San Angelo will furnish music.

HAS ANYBODY SEEN HERBIE? Lisa Clayton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Clayton, holds her pet scissortail on her wrist shortly before he took off for places unknown. Lisa found the bird on the ground when he was a baby fed it and cared for it until he was half grown. Herbie lived in a tree in the back yard and greeted almost everybody by flying atop their head or shoulder. So, if a bird lands on your head, chances are it's Herbie. Please take him home.

Lion Booster Club Annual Banquet To Be Held August 29

The annual football banquet sponsored by the Lions Booster Club will be held Friday, August 29, on the high school grounds. A barbecue supper will be held at 7:30.

High school football players and coaches will be honored at the banquet.

Sikes said that many choice seats are still available and those coming to purchase tickets may have their pick of seats.

The first home game is with Sonora, Oct. 3. The Lions play Iran here Oct. 16, Big Lake here Oct. 31, and McCamey here Nov. 14. A season ticket entitles the holder to the same choice seat at all the games.

Funeral services were held at 10 o'clock Saturday morning in Sheffield Baptist Church for Mrs. Gertrude Scott Williams, 76, who died in John Sealy Hospital in Galveston Thursday morning from burns suffered near her home in Sheffield three weeks ago.

Mrs. Williams was burning trash in the yard of her home when her clothing was ignited. She was rushed to a hospital in Odessa where she received treatment, later being transferred to the John Sealy Hospital burn center.

Mrs. Williams was born July 8, 1894, in Tom Green County. The Scott family settled on the Pecos river in West Crockett County more than 60 years ago. Surviving are two brothers, Charlie and Jim Scott of Sheffield; three sisters, Mrs. Bertha Evans of Sheffield, Mrs. Minnie Evans of Comanche and Mrs. Maggie Martinez of Uvalde, and numerous nieces and nephews.

Threat Of Grass Fires Posed By Parched Ranges

Temperatures of above 100 degrees the past week and no measurable amount of rain for a month have created ideal conditions for range fires here and in the area.

Around 75 acres of pasture land was burned Friday on the Vaughn ranch north of town when a power line broke and set fire to the tinder dry grass. Ozona firemen managed to bring the blaze under control shortly after sending the truck out.

An Ozona fire truck was sent to Sonora the same afternoon to assist in bringing a large range fire under control.

Later Friday firemen were called to the Vic Pierce ranch south of town where a grass fire was burning in a pasture. They managed to douse the blaze before much damage was done, leaving only 10 acres charred. Fire chief Jim Marks attributed the blaze to lightning.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe L. Draper returned to their home in Oglesby Friday after a several weeks visit with their daughter, Mrs. Allie Lock, and her husband.

Mrs. Barbee Announces Sale Wool Warehouse

Ozona Wool and Mohair Co., has been sold to Bandera Wool and Mohair Co. of Bandera, Mrs. Beall Barbee, announced. Randall Brice of Bandera took over the management of the firm Monday.

Moe Barbee has managed the concern since the death of his father, Beall Barbee, four months ago. Beall Barbee bought the warehouse company from J. M. Lea over twenty years ago. They built and moved into the present building in the late 1950s.

Brice moved here with his family last week. He is a graduate of Texas A&M and has been manager of the Bandera Wool & Mohair Co. for the past year. He practically grew up in the wool buying business, getting his start in his father's wool house in Leakey at an early age.

Brice said that there would be no change in personnel here, and that customers could expect to receive the same prompt efficient service they have received the past 20 years from the Barbee family.

Crockett Canyon Gas Area Extended

The Ozona (Canyon sand gas) field of Crockett County was extended 3/4 mile west with completion of The Canyon Co. Gravity of the liquid was 62 degrees.

Production was through perforations at 6,378-6,514 feet, which had been acidized with 3,700 gallons and fractured with 50,000 gallons and 89,250 pounds of sand.

Drilled to 6,812 feet, where 4 1/2-inch casing was set, it is plugged back to 6,778 feet. Location is 2,320 feet from the north and east lines of 11-2-I&GN.

WISDOM AND CHAMPAGNE BUBBLES

We recently came across an article by Bandleader Lawrence Welk in a newspaper called Christian Economics. The piece was entitled "Guaranteed Wage and Human Dignity" and presented the musician's views on the guaranteed annual income. This is the proposal that would dole out a fixed sum of money to every family in the United States whether they work or not.

Mr. Welk cited his own childhood as an example of poverty and how he learned the value and satisfaction of working for a living. He wrote: "A human being is far too valuable to be paid off in money.

A human being grows and prospers through the dignity of work." He further stated the alternative to the guaranteed annual income: "Rather than give a man money, simply because he exists... let us educate him to the glory that can be found in work... and then bend every effort towards helping him find and hold a job."

Unfortunately, space will not allow the reprinting of the piece at full length, but we would like to share a few paragraphs with you that we believe provide good reasons for opposing a guaranteed handout. Mr. Welk wrote: "To my way of thinking this is a negative approach which does not solve the basic problem. Instead of inspiring and helping a man fulfill his potential by working to support himself and his family, it actually encourages him to sit back and do nothing, secure in the knowledge that the government will take care of him. This destroys his initiative and his will to succeed. It robs him of his natural human dignity, and even the right to direct his own life.

"I am also concerned about the effect such a guaranteed wage plan would have on our children. A child raised in an atmosphere of defeat and apathy, and taught to expect that his every need will be taken care of whether he works or not, stands little chance of developing a strong character. His own natural eagerness to learn and to grow and to excel is cut off at the very beginning of his life, and he may never know the thrill of achievement on his own.

Austin, Texas — Legislature is roaring through the final full week of a called special session with accomplishment of its major goals — adoption of a budget and a tax bill — in sight.

Senate scored a major breakthrough on its tax bill after a four hour floor debate and days of gloomy predictions of a deadlock.

Here are how tax bills passed by the House and Senate stackup, pending conference committee adjustment:

SENATE — An increase in the sales tax from three to 3.25 per cent with the levy extended, beer-liquor and telephone-telegraph services; fourcents a pack increase in the cigarette tax, from 11 cents to 15 cents;

50-cent raise in corporation franchise tax rate (to $3.25 per $1,000) with base for computing the tax expanded to include 25 per cent of out-of-state sales; boost in the natural gas production tax from seven to eight per cent and addition of a new documentary stamp tax of 50 cents per $500 value on land transfer documents.

HOUSE — an increase in the sales tax rate to 3.5 per cent; a new services tax of the same amount on telephone and telegraph, professional entertainment, auto, appliance and jewelry repairs, parking, laundry and dry cleaning; a five cents a pack raise in the cigarette tax and a 10-cent transactions levy on sale or purchase of stocks and other securities.

With announcement of the sale this week of the Ozona Wool and Mohair Co., we want to take this means of expressing our sincere appreciation to all our friends and customers for their loyalty and helpfulness when the burden of operating the business fell on us with the death of our husband and father.

Both of us are especially grateful to the many who offered their advice and shared their experience so that we were able to carry on and to continue to offer customers of the business the same type of service they had enjoyed under Mr. Barbee's management.

We are also deeply grateful to the customers of the warehouse who continued their patronage. Their loyalty was our inspiration to do our very best to serve them well and to carry on the traditions of more than twenty years in the business. To all who have been so nice to us, to all who have been patrons of the warehouse through the years, we are most grateful and hope that you will find the new ownership satisfactory in every way.

Mrs. Jeffery A. Kearney
... nee Vicki Lynn Montgomery

Miss Vicki Lynn Montgomery Bride Of Jeffery A. Kearney In Saturday Evening Ceremony

Miss Vicki Lynn Montgomery became the bride of Jeffery Allen Kearney in an impressive candlelit ceremony Saturday evening, August 16, in the Ozona United Methodist Church. Rev. John Berkley, pastor, performed the ceremony, assisted by Rev. Mark Deetino, pastor of St. Louis Catholic Church in Waco.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Beecher Montgomery and Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. Kearney of Waco.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown fashioned of imported ivory silk organza over taffeta. The moulded empire bodice of hand-run Alencon lace traced with seed pearls and crystal beads was styled with a bateau neckline edged with scallops of the lace and brief sleeves complemented by wrist length kid gloves. The slim A-line skirt enhanced at the hemline by appliques of the lace was complemented by a chapel length train accented by motif appliques of the jeweled lace.

Her veil of imported ivory silk illusion fell in tiers below her waistline from a bandeau of matching beaded lace. She carried a bouquet of tiny white roses.

Miss Lynn Cox was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Donna Moore, Miss Esther Williams, Miss Allison Kearney, sister of the groom of Waco; Miss Gay Brown of Austin, Miss Lynne Sayers of San Antonio, Miss Terry Mickley of Houston, and Mrs. John Arnold of Ft. Worth.

The attendants wore identical gowns of gold crepe. The moulded semi-empire bodice, enhanced by tiny tucks, was fashioned with a high ring neckline and long bishop sleeves. The slim skirt was floor length. Their headpieces were large self bows and they carried bouquets of yellow full blown roses and English ivy.

Ring bearer was Ira Childress. Candle lighters were Judd and Lea Montgomery, cousins of the bride.

Mickey Kearney of Waco, served his brother as best man. Groomsmen were Bryan Montgomery, brother of the bride; John Arnold of Fort Worth, Jimmy Long of Fort Worth, Mike Follett of Waco, Joe Don Jones of San Angelo, M. L. Nelson of Fort Worth and Ed Jarrett of Ft. Worth.

Ushers were David Richardson of Fort Worth, John Rasure of Midland and Steve Gunn of Stephenville.

Mrs. L. B. Cox, III, furnished nuptial music at the organ. Mrs. Joe Williams, soloist, sang, "A Wedding Benediction."

The altar was decorated with a large arrangement of white gladiolas and mums, flanked with six footed brass candelabums entwined with greenery and holding dozens of lighted white tapers.

A reception followed the wedding in the garden at the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. George Montgomery. Beds of yellow and white glads in full bloom dominated the garden. Music was furnished by Joe Krecklow of Eldorado at the piano.

The bride's table was laid with imported white linen over a flounce of white organza and centered with an arrangement of white flowers. Red roses centered the groom's table.

Members of the houseparty included Mrs. Charles Black, Mrs. Bill Black, Mrs. James Childress, Mrs. Bill Clegg, Mrs. Erby Chandler, Mrs. Sherman Taylor, Mrs. Bascomb Cox, Mrs. J. W. Henderson, III, Mrs. Oscar Kost, Mrs. W. H. Whitaker, Mrs. Arthur Kyle, Mrs. Jack Baggett, Mrs. Charles Williams, Mrs. Nat Read, Miss Stacy Dockery, Miss Shannon Dockery and Mrs. Tom Montgomery.

Others were Miss Lisa Mitchell, Mrs. Vic Montgomery, Mrs. Marshall Montgomery, Mrs. Bob Childress, Miss Lou Cox, Mrs. Bill Carson, Mrs. John Berkley, Mrs. Gene Williams, Miss Betty Jack Cooper, Mrs. J. T. Dockery, Mrs. Roy Henderson, Mrs. Dick Kirby, Mrs. Arthur Phillips, Mrs. L. D. Kirby, Mrs. Tom Mitchell, Mrs. W. T. Stokes, Mrs. Fred Hagemstein, Miss Sue Ellen Black, Mrs. J. C. Montgomery, Will M. Black and Jim Montgomery.

The couple's wedding trip to New Orleans was delayed due to weather conditions. They left for Fort Worth where they will be at home until next May when they both graduate from Texas Christian University.

The bride, a graduate of Ozona High School, is a senior student at TCU, majoring in Elementary Education. She is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma, a Kappa Sigma Starduster and a member of the Bryson Club.

Mr. Kearney is a graduate of Richfield High School in Waco, also a senior student at TCU, majoring in Business Administration. He is a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Bryant of Ft. Wedding Plans Of Miss Carson And Mr. Baldrige Told

Mr. and Mrs. William James Carson, Sr., announce the engagement of their daughter, Bonnie Melosent, to Buddy Bert Baldrige, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Edwin Baldrige of Lubbock, Texas. Bonnie is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ira M. Carson.

The bride is a graduate of Ozona High School and a Sophomore at Texas Tech University. The groom is a graduate of St. Steven's Episcopal School in Austin and received a BBA degree at Texas Technological College. He is a member of Phi Gamma Delta social fraternity.

The couple will be married October 18 in the First Baptist Church of Ozona.

that $1600 a year. At the same time, the committee may be able to devise a law which would minimize that possibility.

By initiating the conditional basic guarantee of $1600 a year, it can be expected that the so-called poverty cult will begin to beat the drums for an increase in that minimum. Already one organized welfare group has belittled the modesty of the guarantee and insists it should be $5,500 instead.

Washington News Letter

Congressman O. C. Fisher

President Nixon's new welfare program is now being scrutinized on Capitol Hill, with mixed reactions. A major hearing on the proposal will be conducted by the House Committee on Ways and Means.

Under the Nixon plan the number of welfare recipients would increase from 10 to 22.4 million. The initial cost would be rather heavy. A basic federal benefit guarantee of $1600 a year for each family of four is envisioned, provided the head of the family works when a job is available. If need be he would be offered government-financed job training. Ever a family of four earning as much as $3,900 annually would receive a portion of the $1600 — but not all of it.

OEO would be revamped and the name changed. The new agency would deal primarily with research in ways to induce low income people to become wage earners and be self-sufficient.

In addition, there would be a new manpower training plan to overhaul present jobs and training services operated by Uncle Sam. It would combine 30 existing programs into a single comprehensive system to be run by the states, mostly with federal funds.

Theoretically at least, the proposal seems to have some merit, particularly as it relates to the requirement that before any welfare recipient can draw aid he must accept employment when available. It is assumed that many of the pyramided welfare programs, now administered by scores of agencies, would be revamped into the one big project.

But in practice there would be a tendency by a good many of the able-bodied to avoid work by various pretenses and still draw

What makes them happy?

In our experience there is one place where you can be sure of seeing happy faces.

It isn't the bank—though certainly we have great respect for our banks. There people look intent, busy, serious with the financial responsibilities of life.

Nor is it at the ball game. There is no joy in Mudville when mighty Casey strikes out.

But when you go to church you see so many happy faces! It is as though people had left their troubles behind them . . . their fears . . . their worries . . . their little sadnesses and great sorrows.

Yet we know that no one can really leave these behind him. They are part of our life—and our life goes with us wherever we go.

But church is a place where men come to share their burdens with Someone Else . . . someone who cares . . . who helps . . . who strengthens.

And this kind of sharing—between man and God — has always been the root of true happiness.

Sensing The News

Executive V. P. Southern States Industrial Council
Unwise Subsidy Formula

President Richard Nixon has done a lot to clean up the mess in Washington since taking office last January, but he apparently listened to the wrong advisers when he gave his approval to the so-called "family security" plan. The plan, as announced by Mr. Nixon, would enlarge the dependent population in the United States and would gravely undermine the principle of self-reliance on which this country was built.

The Nixon administration is correct in thinking that the existing welfare system is hurtful. But the remedy consists in revising or abolishing the old plan, not in creating a huge new subsidy system. As outlined by the administration, the plan would provide an income floor — a subsidy, that is — for families below a certain level. For the first time there would be a federal minimum floor for welfare recipients — $1,600 for a family of four.

A pleasing feature of the Nixon administration's proposal is that a recipient of a subsidy would have to take a job when it is offered, if he were deemed qualified. But initial announcement of the plan does not reveal whether the family aid would be automatically cut off if the aid recipient did not accept the job.

The subsidy plan is disturbing from several angles. First of all, it would double the number of individuals receiving a federal handout. The total would rise to more than 23 million Americans. It is shocking to think that anyone would propose that more than 10 per cent of the U. S. population be subsidized by Uncle Sam. If these were dark, depression days such a burden might be understandable. But these are times of general prosperity and unequalled opportunity for gainful employment. No reason exists why 10 per cent of the country's population should be supported by the taxpayers.

Furthermore, as outlined by the administration, the "family security" plan would virtually double the cost of existing welfare programs.

This, in itself, suggests that the plan is without merit. The taxpayers are faced with increasingly heavy burdens of the city, state and federal levels. The last thing they need or want is a doubling of welfare costs.

Looking at the proposal from the standpoint of principle, the plan seems wholly wrong. The United States is an enterprise country. This means that each citizen has responsibility for bettering himself and making a place for himself in the world. A subsidized drone population simply has no place in the American scheme of things. It is a feature of a socialized society that holds each man must look to Big Government for his economic development and well being.

Considered from the practical aspect, the "family security" plan undoubtedly would lead to the emergence of a vast, new bureaucratic apparatus. Effective administration of the plan would require close supervision of aid, but this would seem almost impossible in view of the millions of people involved.

The administration has hit on a clever name in "family security program," but informed citizens will realize that it is simply the old guaranteed annual wage proposal in fancy dress.

Conservative opposition to the subsidy plan should not be described as being of the kneejerk type. Dealing realistically with the nation's drone population is a pressing problem. Many different approaches should be considered. But the truly sound approach, in the judgment of most conservatives, involves step-by-step cutbacks in welfare assistance to able-bodied poor people.

The existence of federal aid, whether of the existing welfare type or through a "family security" plan, is what encourages people to avoid gainful employment. The government should not plant the idea that it will assume responsibility for uplifting people. That responsibility must be assigned to the individual. Government can help communities develop industrial training but the taxpayers shouldn't be called on to give a subsidy to one class of citizens.

Subsidies for people with limited incomes simply create an incentive in them to demand continuing aid from Big Government. Poverty will never be eliminated by that approach. The administration had better rethink its proposal, which isn't in lines with the ideas and outlook of those who elected Mr. Nixon.

The President's legislative messages to Congress this week may possibly resolve some of these doubts.

TIPS For Gardeners

From The Ozona Garden Club
By Mrs. Bailey Post

Even though we haven't had a good rain to better condition the soil, you may want to begin planting.

Bluebonnets should be planted by the first day of September, so the seed will germinate before cold weather. If you live on a hillside, throw the seed into grass or rock crevices to keep the birds from eating them or keep them from washing away.

Ajuga is a perennial ground cover or border plant that grows well all over the South. It hugs the ground well, spreads rapidly and will grow beneath shade trees where grass will not survive. In late spring ajuga sends up 6 to 8 inch spikes with blue blossoms. Rich green leaves turn bronze in the fall. There is a new variegated pink-leaf ajuga being grown. However, I tried a few plants and they didn't do well.

Some of the ornamental vines are beginning to bloom and show their beautiful foliage and wealth of blossoms. August and September bloomers that I have noticed are Queen's Wreath and Clematis with a profusion of small white blossoms. Silver lace vine produces clusters of small white flowers.

Trumpet vine with orange scarlet blooms needs a strong support and rich soil. Boston ivy gives a dense flat coverage with leaves turning brilliant colors in the fall. One of the old favorites is the morning glory family. The native variety with white blooms grows well in our area and is now beginning to bloom. No vine makes a prettier showing than the beautiful heavenly blue morning glory. Later the showy and attractive jack beans cover fences and trellises.

Vines fill an important part in beautifying home grounds. They are of rapid growth and are valuable to attain quick effect or provide shade. They are indispensable in covering fences, providing background for flower gardens and shielding unsightly views.

Now that it is school time again, have you noticed how much the senisa around the school grounds have grown during the summer? Thanks to the school board and caretakers for helping with this beautification project. Members of the Garden Club sincerely hope this will help stimulate the desire of the students to have a part in the help of keeping the school area clean and more attractive to the whole community and the tourists who pass our way.

This Costs Texans $ 2 MILLION A DAY

YOU HELP PAY THE BILL

The way cars are being wrecked and the way folks are being injured and killed in traffic accidents, it looks like this year's Texas traffic toll will top $800 million. This figures out to be more than $2 million a day and that is a lot of money!

When you pay for your auto insurance you help pay this bill because most of your insurance rate is for the amount of money insurance companies pay for traffic accidents. Add to this the amount they pay for autos destroyed or damaged by collision, fire, hail, theft and pilferage. Lower these amounts and your insurance costs will go down. Raise these amounts that insurance companies must pay and your auto insurance costs will have to go up. It is as simple as that.

Here are three ways to cut your auto insurance costs.

1. Help reduce the number of Texas traffic accidents. You can do this by driving the very best you can and by insisting that traffic laws are enforced in your town, county, and state. Let your Mayor, County Officials and Governor Smith know that you want all traffic laws enforced.
2. Help cut down on car thefts and vandalism by locking your car and taking the keys whenever you park. Always try to park your car in a safe place.
3. Ask your insurance agent to show you how you can save money on your auto insurance by taking full advantage of the Driver Education, Two Car and other discounts now offered in Texas.

Auto insurance costs will be cut in Texas after accidents and their costs go down. You and other motorists of Texas can bring this about... if you really want to. IT IS UP TO YOU!

WASHINGTON AND SMALL BUSINESS

Skinny Hot Dogs

Thousands of dollars of high salaried bureaucratic help have been wrestling with a mighty problem.

The problem? How much fat should be in a hot dog. It seems inflation can keep on, interest rates can rise, Vietnam casualties can go their gruesome way, but the big question, the burning issue, is how much fat should be in a hot dog.

It doesn't seem to make much difference what the consumer prefers. The government is determined to give the consumer what the bureaucrats figure is good for them.

The Department of Agriculture is holding out for a fat content of 33 per cent. But Virginia Knauer, who is serving as the presidential advisor on consumer matters, is pretty adamant that 30 per cent should be the limit.

On the other hand, a consumer survey shows that 27 per cent of the consumers prefer a hot dog with 37 per cent fat, and 22 per cent favor one with 40 per cent fat.

But what the public likes and what it shall get are two different things. Virginia Knauer says it all tersely. "My conviction as a consumer and a representative of consumers is that we should try and reduce the fat intake of our citizens."

This seems to run somewhat contrary to the doctrine of one man, one vote handed down by the National Federation of Independent Business.

the United States Supreme Court. In other words, it appears that one bureaucrat outvotes some 50 per cent of the citizens.

On the other hand, this doctrine probably has honorable antecedents. For some time it has been suspected that a paraphrase of the Knauer statement is "we should try and reduce the take home pay of our citizens."

If this regulation is passed and made the solemn law of the land, perhaps it will open opportunities for a new enterprise, that of bootlegging fat hot dogs.

After all, during prohibition there were far fewer citizens drinking bootleg liquor than the 50 per cent that prefer fat hot dogs. And as everyone old enough to remember knows, fortunes were made in bootleg booze. Thus, bootlegging fat hot dogs might be an even better road to wealth.

In addition, such a regulation will undoubtedly delight the already harried housewives faced with climbing meat prices. As anyone knows any time the Department of Agriculture or any other bureau tampers with the economics of meat packing, meat prices go up.

But on the other hand, it may be that the housewives will be content to pay more to help the government protect them from their families craving for fat hot dogs.

Mrs. B. B. Ingham, Sr., has as guests in her home this week her daughter, Mrs. T. N. Boothe, and children, Ray, Tom and Bonnie, and Miss Jamie Edmiston, all of Weatherford.

Miss Mildred North returned to her home here yesterday from a San Angelo hospital where she had been receiving medical treatment since Saturday.

TIPS FOR OUTDOORSMEN

Emergency Grappling Line

If you lose something overboard, unsnap all the snaps on your fish stringer, tie it to a longer line if necessary and drag it along the bottom. There's a good chance one of the hooks will grab.

For A Dry Timepiece

You'll never get your watch wet as the consequence of an unexpected fall into the lake if you place the timepiece in a small plastic bag, seal the bag, and carry it in your pocket. The clear plastic keeps the watch dry, yet permits you to see what time it is.

Dandy Troline Reel

Ask your hardware dealer for an empty cardboard spool that rope comes on. Makes a dandy holder for a troline.

Bicycle Lock For Motors

An ordinary bicycle lock is good insurance against outboard motor thieves. Fits nicely too.

Kills Wild Game Taste

If you don't like the gamey taste of wild animals, try soaking the meat overnight in buttermilk. Helps temper the taste.

Mat Keeps Shelter Clean

A bath mat placed just inside your tent will help keep the shelter cleaner.

Rubber-eraser Removes Rust

A typewriter eraser will remove rust spots from guns, hooks, rods, etc.

Rubber Hose Prevents Scratches

Your boat will suffer no scraps and rust stains from the gas can if you'll split a length of old garden hose and fit it around the bottom of the tank.

Linseed Oil Preserves Net

Dip your new landing net in linseed oil and let it dry. Net will last three times longer.

Kills Fish Odor

To remove lingering fish odors on hands, wash them in lemon juice or toothpaste.

Patch Tent With Iron-ons

When camping take along a supply of "iron-on" patches. If clothes or tent tear or snap, heat a pot and use the bottom to iron on a patch.

Makes Aluminum Boat Quiet

Got a noisy aluminum boat? Have it sprayed inside with automobile undercoating. Makes all the difference in the world.

Old Nuts Make Good Sinkers

Oversized nuts available at any auto repair shop (the used ones that are given away) make economical fish sinkers.

Plastic Pillows As Camera Bags

One of those zip-closed plastic covers that goes on a pillow makes a perfect waterproof container for carrying fragile equipment like the camera near water.

New Life To Cork Grips

Freshen up "tired" cork grips on fishing rods with fine sandpaper. Just sand lightly and watch how they brighten up.

Cigarette Filter Ear Plugs

If the muzzle blast of your deer rifle bothers you as you tune up for the hunting season, improvise a couple of ear plugs from cigarette filters.

Fish Cleaning Made Easy

Keep things neat by scaling fish on an old copy of a magazine. Clean one fish, turn a couple of pages, clean another, and so on. You always have a clean place to work and very little mess to clean afterwards.

Quick Patching Fiberglass

You can make a quick, emergency patch on a fiberglass boat by soaking fiberglass cloth in plastic model airplane glue and putting it over the hole. After the glue hardens, it will create a strong temporary weld.

Wash Hands Periodically

Nothing will stop fish biting like getting gasoline and oil on your hands and transferring it to your fishing bait. Carry a plastic soap supplier with you. Use it to wash hands periodically.

SILICA Prevents Fogging

Silica cream, available at any Army-Navy store, rubbed on your glasses or scope or binoculars will prevent them from fogging.

Coffee Can As Worm Box

Make a handy worm container by cutting both ends off a pound-size coffee can and put one of the plastic lids over each end. Now it is a simple matter to retrieve worms no matter which end is up.

Is It A Furnace That Cools?
Or An Air Conditioner That Heats?

Both.

The magic of a Lennox heat pump lies in the fact that it both heats and cools-automatically. And you save! Lennox heat pumps get twice as much heat from the same amount of electricity as other types of electric heating units under average conditions. Air conditioning and heating in one economical package.
