Kitty's Korner

By Kitty Montgomery

The rains came, and stayed and stayed and stayed, and washed away everything but the web worms which have invaded Ozona and threaten half the tree population in town. The first frost or freeze will probably take care of them for this year, but if something isn't done before next fall, there won't be a leaf left on a tree. They seem to thrive on rain. I've never seen so many of them, but then I've never seen this much rain either. Nothing seems to help much. Insecticide spray gets rid of them for awhile, but a week or so and they are back tenfold. I think the county should call in a "web worm eradicator," not that I have the vaguest idea where you might find one, but it's just too much for the individual tree owner.

When the Travis County grand jury issued an opinion to the effect that some Texas lawmakers, elected by the voters of Texas, were too busy granting political favors and being influenced in exchange for turning a fast buck to be concerned about good government for the people, and called for reform, it was without a doubt the understatement of the year. However, the jury, after investigating the stock fraud scandal, only returned indictments against two duly elected Texas officials.

It is doubtful that the two indicted could have gotten the controversial legislature passed on their own without sharing their part of the fast buck with other officials. It is common knowledge that many others and even higher officials made a killing in deals concerned with the affair, so real reform is not likely while the same old clique runs Austin. Texas politics is "something else" as the kids say, and will no doubt remain so until Texas voters begin to think in terms of a two-party system for Texas instead of checking the little box marked Democrat above that party's state of officers on the ballot.

Texas for the most part are proud to vote for a "Conservative Democrat," and labor under the illusion that their state government is run by good conservative democrats. I'm not saying that there are not plenty of good conservative men in elective offices in Austin, but recent events have made obvious the fact that they are well outnumbered by the self-seekers.

Of course, this is not a recent thing. The scandal just brought it to light. For years poor old country boys have managed to get elected to state posts in Texas and then get rich overnight. In this case, the bribery and under the table dealings just happened to come to light.

Don't forget the local sorority's spaghetti supper Friday night. Take the whole family before the Sonora-Ozona football game. There will be no need to rush home after the game and clean the kitchen. If the Lions win, you'll probably want to celebrate and if not, you certainly won't be in the mood to wash the dishes you left as you rushed to be on time for the kick-off. Besides, it's mighty good.

Junior Varsity Host Big Lake

The junior high and junior varsity games with junction were cancelled last Thursday due to rain and will not be made up during regular season.

Tonight the Junior Varsity will host the Big Lake Junior Varsity. Game time is 6 o'clock at Lion Stadium. The Cubs will be in Big Lake for a double header with the Big Lake junior high, according to the schedule.

Mrs. George Montgomery is in Shannon Hospital in San Angelo this week for medical treatment.

WESTERN GAL WINS ENGLISH RIDING EVENT -- Kay McMullan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank McMullan, Jr., is shown attired in her English habit and atop her mount Light Up Red, just after winning the fourth place trophy for the English Pleasure event at the State 4-H Horse Show last week in Fort Worth.

Kay, an active Crockett County 4-H Club member, entered four events in the State Show. She was eligible for State after placing in the many events during the Divisional meet in Andrews earlier this year. Kay was one of 315 4-H Club members entered in the State competition.

Lions Host State Champ Sonora Broncos In Home Opener Friday

Ozona Lion football fans will see the Lions in action for the first time this season on their own home ground tomorrow night (Friday) at 8 o'clock.

The Lions will host Class A State Champions, the Sonora Broncos. Excitement will be at fever pitch, since last year's Lions handed the Broncos their only loss of the year and the last loss suffered by the Sonora crew since then. The Broncos will be out for revenge and the Lions will be trying for a repeat performance.

The Broncos took an easy win over the Class AA Reagan County Owls in Big Lake last Friday night, while the Lions lost a squeaker to Coleman, 7-6, on the rain-soaked Coleman gridiron.

Competition is keen between the two schools, although the Lions have only managed two wins in the past eleven years. In 1964 the Lions downed the Broncos 21-17 and last year the Lions managed a 14-12 win in an exciting contest.

A large crowd of Ozona fans was on hand in Coleman Friday night despite the rain. The game was a defensive battle for the most part and the Lions were plagued by penalties most of the night.

The Bluecats scored in the first half and the PAT was good. Halftime saw the Lions trailing 7-0.

The Lions managed a most unusual score in the third period. The Lions' big tackle Mike Jenkins fell on a Coleman fumble on the enemy 22 yard line. On the first play from scrimmage, Ruben Tambunga made it to the five yard line before a fumble saw the ball literally squirt into the end zone. Jenkins was on hand to cover it and was credited with the Lions' only score of the night, and his first touchdown of his varsity career. David Sewell tried to tie the game with a kick for the point after, but the ball hit the goal post and the kick was no good, ending the scoring for the night.

Both teams were hampered by the rain and the wet field, but penalties at crucial moments no doubt robbed the Lions of the victory. The Lion defense did an outstanding job of containing the heavier, more experienced Coleman team.

Mrs. Joe Pierce, who has been ill in Shannon Hospital for several weeks, is reported sufficiently recovered to return home by next week.

4-Day Rains Bring Record Fall Soaking

Heavy rains in the area over the past week soaked dry range lands to the saturation point and water was literally standing everywhere by week's end.

Draws, dry creek beds and even ditches were sent running bank to bank, and there was one death due to drowning in the county. Gustavo Sarola drowned Thursday afternoon after he drove his pickup off into Johnson Draw two miles south of Ozona. Several ranchmen in the county found themselves stranded due to high water and many waited hours before being able to return to their homes or dry land.

The largest rainfall reported was ten inches on one of the ranches in the southwestern part of the county, where six inches was common for the three-day period.

The steady downpour began late Wednesday night and by 7:30 a.m. Thursday morning the official gauge at the Water District office contained 1.31 inches. A constant rain all day Thursday saw the gauge reading 2.30 inches at 2:30 p.m., for a total of 3.61 inches in a little over 12 hours. Intermittent rain Thursday night and Friday morning totaled .92 of an inch at 8:00 a.m. Friday, and throughout the day another .65 of an inch fell, for a 3-day total of 5.18 in the city. Some gauges around town measured more than the official gauge, and falls were heavier to the west and southwest, but the county enjoyed generally, a soaking rain all over.

A brief drizzle fell Tuesday morning with heavy cloud cover before the sun came out around noon. The forecast was for more rain this weekend and cooler weather.

CUB SCOUT PACK TO FORM
All boys and parents interested in Cub Scouting are asked to meet for an organizational meeting of Cub Scout Pack 153

Monday evening at 7:30 at Ozona Intermediate School, formerly North Elementary. An annual Round-up will be held.

An adult leader for the Webelos is badly needed for older boys to continue in the Scouting program. Anyone interested in this post should attend the meeting.

Gas Plant Employee Is Drowned In Rain Swollen Johnson Draw

Gustavo Raul Sorola, 49, drowned in rain-swollen Johnson Draw last Thursday afternoon about two miles south of Ozona.

Sorola, janitor at Ozona Gas Processing Plant, was crossing the draw about 2:15 when his pickup stalled in the high water. His cries for help brought other employees to his aid. He was attaching a cable to the stalled vehicle when the water shifted the pickup and Sorola lost his footing and was swept downstream. He was carried to a wire fence at the crossing and managed to hold on until the pickup hit him as it too was swept downstream. Employees at the plant reported that Sorola caught hold of some brush at the edge of the draw and they rushed back to the plant to get a rope.

Secured the rope around his waist and was going to wade into the water to get to Sorola while the others pulled them to safety. However, when they returned to the spot where they had left Sorola apparently secure, he was gone.

One of the onlookers felt that Sorola had been added by the blow from the pickup and was just unable to hold on.

An alarm was sent out and members of the Ozona Volunteer Fire Department, along with other men in town rushed to the site. Sorola's body was found around 7:00 p.m. about 50 yards down the draw.

Funeral services were held Saturday in Saragosa, Mexico. James Funeral Home transported the body to Eagle Pass where a Mexican Funeral Home completed arrangements.

Sorola was born in Mexico November 14, 1921. He had lived in Ozona the past 10 years.

Survivors include his wife; two sons, Gustavo Sorola, Jr., and Mario Sorola; three daughters, Magdalena Sorola, Teresa Sorola and Refugia Sorola, all of Ozona; five brothers, and his mother, Mrs. Refugia Sorola of Rocksprings.

Kay McMullan 4th In State 4H Horse Show

Kay McMullan, Crockett County 4-H Horse Club member won the fourth place trophy in the English Pleasure event at the State 4-H Horse Show last weekend in Fort Worth.

Kay was one of 315 4-H Club members from all over the state competing in the show which was held at Will Rogers Coliseum Thursday through Saturday. Kay qualified for the State finals at the District meet in Andrews earlier in the year.

Kay, riding her father's steer roping gelding, Light Up Red, was selected for semi-final competition and then was judged in top ten finalists to ride again during the English Pleasure championship. Placing fourth in the event was quite an accomplishment for Kay, who only had one lesson in English riding from a Midland instructor, and this was her first show.

Kay also showed at halter her black gelding Flicka's Glo, and participated in the barrels and pole-bending events having also qualified for these events at the District Show.

Kay is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank McMullan, Jr., and the granddaughter of Mrs. Frank McMullan.

Also attending the show were Kay's maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Hankins of Rocksprings.

Funeral services for Mrs. J. B. (Minnie Dee) Melton, 58, were held Saturday in Corsicana, with burial there.

Mrs. Melton died Wednesday, Sept. 22, at 7:30 p.m. in Shannon Hospital in San Angelo. She had undergone surgery the day before.

Mrs. Melton was a long-time resident of Ozona. Her husband preceded her in death about seven years ago. He was with an oil company here. Since his death, Mrs. Melton had traveled extensively, but maintained her home here.

Survivors include a son, J. B. (Dude) Melton, Jr., of Phoenix, Ariz.; a daughter, Mrs. Dortha Dee Radar of Rockford, Ill., and one grandchild.

ANNUAL SORORITY SPAGHETTI SUPPER TO BE HELD FRIDAY
The Beta Sigma Phi spaghetti supper will be held at the Civic Center Friday before the Sonora ballgame here.

Serving time is 5 until 8 p.m. Tickets are $1.25 for adults and 75¢ for children under 12. The public is invited.

Sheriff Warns Vandals Against Damaging Church
Vandals who have been breaking windows in the Jerusalem Baptist Church were given stern warning this week by Sheriff Billy Mills. All outside windows in the church have been broken repeatedly, apparently the work of youngsters, using air rifles and rocks, the sheriff said.

A watch has been set up and any person caught breaking windows or otherwise damaging the church premises will be dealt with severely, Sheriff Mills warned. Several stained glass windows have been broken by the vandals and the church has been put to a great deal of expense in repairing the broken windows, the pastor Rev. E. L. Rios declared.

Two men were arrested at a local motel Saturday after an abandoned Greyhound Scenic Cruiser aroused suspicion after being parked overnight in front of the Ozona United Methodist Church.

The two, Gary Lynn Jacobs, who gave California as his home, and Thomas Devine of South Carolina, both 27 years of age were on their way to California in the stolen bus when they decided to stop in Ozona and get a "night's rest."

The bus was stolen last week in Nashville, Tenn. and had covered several hundred miles, with refueling done on bus company credentials. The pair were on their way to California they told local law enforcement officers. Devine insisted he was merely a hitchhiker and indeed, at midweek Sheriff Billy Mills said no reason had been found to hold him.

Jacobs was released Monday to the custody of the F. B. I. under the Dyer Act.

As for the bus, there is some doubt that anyone knew it was missing. When asked about it Saturday, a bus company official, here from the San Antonio Division of Greyhound Bus Co., the reply was "no comment."

THEY TOOK A BUS in Nashville, Tennessee, but they didn't "leave the driving to us." Instead, they drove it 800 miles across four southern states and wound up in jail in Ozona, Texas, several days later, charged with theft of the vehicle, possession of stolen property and violation of federal laws against interstate transportation of stolen vehicles. The $75,000 Greyhound bus, pictured on the DPS building grounds here after its seizure by Sheriff Billy Mills and his deputies, was stolen in Nashville and parked overnight in front of the Ozona United Methodist Church while the driver and another man spent the night in a nearby motel. Charged with theft of the big bus was Gary Lynn Jacobs of California. Held for investigation was Thomas Devine, who claimed he only hitched a ride on the bus. The FBI entered the case and took custody of Jacobs on federal Dyer Act charges. Officers said Devine probably will be released if investigation proves he is not wanted for any crime.

WE WANT OURS FIRST - This bunch of seventh grade girls unpack a box of purple and gold pom-poms, which are being sold by the Ozona Lions Football Booster Club. The pom-poms may be purchased by fans at many downtown and village stores for 50¢ each, or from Booster Club members. CASTRO BUILDS A WALL

On August 31 of this year Fidel Castro halted the airlift of Cuban refugees to the United States. Thus the Communist satrap in Cuba followed in the footsteps of his Soviet mentors and erected a wall between the island country and America. The Berlin Wall was started on August 13, 1961.

Castro acted for the same reason that the Soviet-directed Germans erected the Wall: to stop the outflow of many thousands of people, including engineers, technicians and other skilled and professional workers. In the five years of the flights, paid for by the United States Government, 245,805 Cubans have been brought to this country. They are only a part of the more than 780,000 Cubans who have been driven into exile by the Castro Communist regime, nearly one-tenth of the people of that nation.

The Communists wall people in, and they wall them out. But somehow the walls don't work. They create mounting frustration within the walled-in country, and increasing disrespect from the walled-out peoples. Daring and desperate persons have breached the Berlin Wall, and have threaded their way past the electrified barbed-wire and mine-field barriers that separate East and West Europe. They will continue to do so, just as Cubans will go on finding ways to flee their prison country today.

THE AGONY OF SOUTH VIETNAM

Never in our history have Americans witnessed the spectacle of the national news media making fun of the agony of another country, which also happens to be an ally of the United States. The situation in South Vietnam, psychologically damaged as a nation by many years of one of the most cruel wars, is hardly a matter for laughter. Some newspapers speak of the Thieu-party system, and so forth. Yet when Great Britain had no elections whatsoever for 9 long years during World War II, no one complained. Nor was Britain new to democracy, nor overrun by the Vietcong.

It would be better for Americans to try to understand the problems and difficulties of the South Vietnamese. Millions — yes, millions — of North and South Vietnamese, Americans, Thais, South Koreans, Australians, New Zealanders, and Filipinos have been killed or wounded in the war. More than 60,000 South Vietnamese civilians have been murdered, and about 150,000 more kidnapped.

Now the South Vietnamese are faced with the loss of United States military support, while the enemy will continue to have the aid of Communist China and Soviet Russia. President Thieu is rattled. But so was General George B. McClellan when he was muttering against President Abraham Lincoln during the American Civil war. When the American elections were held in 1864, McClellan was swamped, 212 to 21, in the Electoral College.

All the wisdom of South Vietnam and the United States is required to deal with this critical emergency.

HOW COME RUSSIA IS A STRONG-WEAK NATION?

It is one of the great mysteries of the world that the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics has a much greater fleet of submarines than the United States. But the situation is much worse. Representative John G. Schmitz of the Whittier, Calif. area, the President's Congressman, says:

"There is now little doubt in the mind of any informed person that the United States is inferior to the Soviet Union in practically every aspect of military power. What is worse, this disparity in strategic forces is growing worse due to a combination of executive restraint in hopes of progress at the SALT talks, Congressional criticism, and growing pressure from numerous disarmament lobbies chanting about 're-ordering priorities.'"

The question arises, why is it that the Russians cannot build a mass production automobile or truck plant, while they can build warships, freighters, atomic bombs, missiles, tanks, artillery and the ammunition to fire big guns? While they are helping the North Vietnamese, the Egyptians and the Cubans and others to make war, and are sending them large quantities of food and war material, the Russians themselves often find that they have not produced enough bread grains for their own country.

Obviously the Russians are engaging in a crash production of armaments while neglecting other areas of needful output. They are depending upon foreign nations, their prospective victims, to build their auto and truck plants and sell them grain when they fall behind. In the meantime they do what they can to spread disorders within the helpful capitalist countries in order to keep us off balance and to prevent us from thinking straight. What dupes we be!

COOPERATIVE PLANNING IS NEEDED!

SENSING the NEWS

By Anthony Harrigan
EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

ATTICA AND THE RADICALS

Gov. Ronald Reagan of California supplied the essential background to the bloody riot at Attica prison in New York when he said that revolutionary forces in the United States have shifted their attack from university campuses to prisons. Having been largely thwarted in their attempt to turn university campuses into bases of revolutionary action, the New Left now is depending on a savage prison population to trigger enormous violence and undermine the official and public will to maintain law and order.

The first major outbreak of revolutionary violence came last month at San Quentin prison in California, where a weapon was smuggled to George Jackson, one of the infamous "Soledad Brothers," criminal revolutionaries. Jackson's death in the escape attempt served the revolutionary forces, for they have turned him into a martyr of the New Left. Tom Wicker, the New York Times columnist, eulogized Jackson as a "talented writer, a sensitive man, a potential leader, and political thinker of great persuasiveness."

The second outbreak came at Attica prison in upstate New York. New York officials have suggested that the prisoners received aid from the outside in organizing their reign of terror. Fortunately, Gov. Nelson Rockefeller finally ordered an assault on the prison, but only after long delay and disgraceful negotiations with revolutionary prisoners who demanded amnesty and transportation to "non-imperialist" countries.

One of the most astonishing developments in the Attica story is that New York officials permitted so-called "citizen observers," to confer with the inmates. This cadre of "observers" included hardcore radicals such as William Kunstler, the attorney for communist revolutionaries; leftwing congressman Herman Badillo, Ali Kenyatta of the Black Muslims, Tom Wicker of the New York Times, whose eulogy of George Jackson apparently won him the admiration of the militant prisoners at Attica; and others of that ilk.

It is hard to imagine what New York authorities had in mind when they allowed this radical group to meet with the prisoners. It seems safe to say that the "observers" encouraged the militancy of the inmates.

What was predictable in the situation was that the radical-liberal elements in the media would convict the State of New York, state police, guards and surrounding community of guilt -- and downplay the violence of the prisoners. The Washington Post, in a typical example of radical-liberal coverage, headlined one story: "Outside Attica Walls, A City of Hate." That's the way the radicalized media handle such stories; law enforcement agencies are portrayed as reckless; law-abiding citizens are described as prejudiced, and the criminal elements are characterized as mistreated and long-suffering. The radicalized media ignore the fact that prisons such as over the deaths of imprisoned barbarians and condemn the police who attempt to maintain law and order.

The more radical elements know precisely what they are doing. They envision prisoners in the role of a revolutionary class, men who will not hesitate to terrorize a community as a means of transforming it. Thus the radical leadership encourages Marxist political consciousness among hardened criminals.

Decent citizens should demand that agencies of government adopt a much tougher line in dealing with politicized criminals and their supporters. The Attica rebellion demonstrates the need for restoring the death penalty. Hardened criminals such as the Attica ringleaders don't hesitate to undertake new, bloody deeds because they are confident that capital punishment is a dead letter in the United States. If the electric chair had been in use in New York State, the Attica uprising might not have taken place.

Beyond that, state authorities must screen prison populations more carefully, isolating politicized criminals bent on revolutionary activities behind prison walls. And states most certainly must refuse to permit New Left "observers" to negotiate with or represent prisoners.

Prison reforms are needed in the United States. Thousands of inmates, incarcerated for minor crimes, can be rehabilitated. But much tougher security measures must be applied to Black Panthers and similar types now operating inside prisons, stirring bloody rebellion against lawful authority. And federal and state authorities, including grand juries, should probe for links between politicized prisoners and revolutionary groups on the outside.

INTERSTATE 10 THRU OZONA -- Posted on the walls at the local Texas Highway Department offices of the Resident Engineer, as a part of the display during open house in honor of Texas Highway Week last week, was this engineering drawing of the interstate system as it will be constructed through Ozona. The new highway section through Ozona, believed still far in the future, will parallel 14th street in south Ozona, with that street forming the north side service road, and crossing Gurley and Johnson draws, over the old Powell athletic field, the present Little League park, and coursing just south of the J. B. Miller & Co. and Early Chandler pens, thence west. In the drawing, 14th street is at the top and the Highway 163 underpass is at left and Gurley draw and Ave D underpass at right. Gurley draw will be bridged and Avenue D will cross under the structures. Note the two access roads, both from 14th Street and from the new service road to be built on the south side of the interstate.

WASHINGTON AND SMALL BUSINESS AS HEARD BY HEARD

Credibility Gap

The late President Calvin Coolidge is reputed to have once said "If you have a great many people out of work, you have unemployment".

This was probably an overly simplistic statement, yet there was no room in that statement for a credibility gap which seems to widen as American political life goes on.

About four years ago the Department of Labor announced it was no longer going to count as unemployment those not seeking work because they felt that no jobs were available.

In a recent statement Congressman Wright Patman, coming from Texas where the folks have a penchant for calling a spade a spade, commented that in June "the number of unemployed people who are so discouraged at their inability to find a job that they stopped looking" reached an estimated 1.5 million. What gives this figure national significance is that the government has also dropped these people from their reports.

And while it perhaps cannot be said that Congressman H. R. Gross and Congressman Patman see eye to eye at all times, the Iowa solon is also known for calling a spade.

He also commented at about the same time saying, "the welfare mess in this country, fostered by the ultra liberal do-gooders and now feeding on itself, goes on apace. The Department of HEW reported that in February 14,200,000 Americans were on the dole. This figure is an increase of 22%".

The Iowa Congressman goes on to point out that for too many people welfare has become a way of life. But while some people undoubtedly prefer welfare to working, many others are on welfare through no fault of their own.

When the last increase was passed in the minimum wage, the constant field surveys conducted by the National Federation of Independent Business revealed that somewhere around a million handicapped, either mentally or physically, plus elderly people, were forced out of jobs onto relief.

In addition, the survey at that time showed, and continues to show, that over a million potential job opportunities for raw, unskilled teenagers are closed because of this Federal edict.

Now, it perhaps creates enough of a credibility gap if a government bureau can determine that an unemployed person is not really unemployed because he or she has given up all hope of finding a job.

But what is more incredible is that in the face of all the evidence there is a determined drive in Congress to further raise the minimum wage.

What makes it even more incredible is that in one Department of Labor report, the Washington office, probably influenced by the politically appointed officials, could not determine, they said, whether or not the minimum wage laws eroded teen-age employment.

1970 County Economy Gets $44 Million Boost From Petroleum Production

Petroleum production continues to play a significant role in the economy of Crockett county with a direct input of $44,135,579 last year.

According to the latest compilation of Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Assn., the county in 1970 produced 8,328,967 barrels of crude oil valued at $27,485,591 and 114,041,013 thousand cubic feet of natural gas valued at $16,649,988. It ranked 34th in value of petroleum produced.

In addition, the county received the stimulation of $5,516,947 in royalty payments to landowners and others with mineral interests.

"Crockett was one of 187 Texas counties that had petroleum production valued at more than $125,000," says Kenneth E. Montague, Texas Mid-Continent president. "Its ability to produce helped Texas meet a record demand with record production of both oil and gas in 1970. This demand has again diminished Texas petroleum reserves as additions failed to offset withdrawals. In Texas, we only drilled 8,114 wells -- the smallest number since 1946."

Texas state government benefited from the county's petroleum, receiving $1,264,337 in production taxes on crude oil and $1,248,749 on natural gas.

Drilling expenditures in the county totaled $12,155,369 with $956,858 being lost on dry holes. Eight wildcats were drilled with five of them dry. Also adding to the economy were the county's six natural-gasoline processing plants with 147 million cubic feet daily capacity.

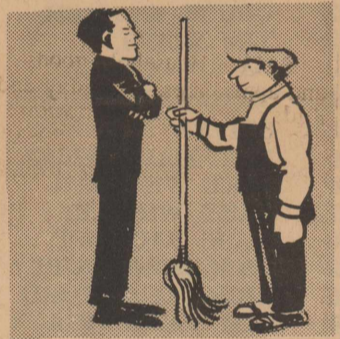

The Texas Employment Commission shows 234 persons were directly employed by the oil and gas industry in the county with an annual payroll of $1,726,108.

Refusal to Work

Out of work? To millions of people in that predicament, unemployment compensation has been a Godsend. But in order to collect those weekly checks, you have to be willing to take another job if one turns up.

This raises problems. How willing do you have to be? If the job is good but the hours are bad, must you accept anyhow—or lose your right to compensation? Generally speaking, the law makes reasonable allowance for hardship cases. For example:

An unemployed woman was offered a job on the night shift at a nearby factory. When she refused to take it, her unemployment compensation was cut off. But in a court hearing, she told the judge that she would have had to walk home in the dark through a tough neighborhood—and that she had been terrorized twice by nocturnal assailants.

The judge decided that her refusal to take the job was justified, and ordered her compensation payments reinstated.

That does not mean, however, that you can wait serenely until the perfect job comes along. Another case involved a restaurant worker who, accustomed to working from 6 a.m. to 3 p.m., turned down a job that started two hours later in the day.

"Frankly," he explained, "it's just too hard for me to change my hours. I'm used to the old way." But this time, a court denied his right to unemployment compensation. He was out of work, noted the court, more by choice than by necessity.

Suppose a job that is offered would create religious conflicts. A number of cases have arisen involving Seventh-Day Adventists who were not willing to work on Saturday.

Almost invariably, the courts have accepted this as a legitimate reason for rejecting a job, with no effect on the person's right to collect unemployment compensation. "Work which requires one to violate his moral standards," said one court, "is not suitable work."

HELPFUL HINTS ABOUT INFANTS

WHERE TO GET VITAMINS

Proper nutrition is regarded by the majority of physicians as being the most important single factor for health and growth during infancy. But, the need for sound nutrition doesn't end there—it's also essential throughout a child's early years, and necessary for good health in adult life.

Additionally, one of the most important factors in assuring sound nutrition is adequate vitamin intake each day. Here, then, are some common food sources of major vitamins to help you plan nutritious meals for your family:

- Vitamin A... Liver, whole milk, milk fat products, egg yolk and fortified margarines.
- Thiamine (B<sub>1</sub>)... Liver, meats (particularly pork), milk, whole grain or enriched cereals, wheat germ and nuts.
- Riboflavin (B<sub>2</sub>)... Milk, cheese, liver, meats, eggs, fish, green leafy vegetables and whole or enriched grains.
- Pyridoxine (B<sub>6</sub>)... Meat, liver, kidney, whole grains, soybeans and peanuts.
- Cyanocobalamin (B<sub>12</sub>)... Liver, kidney, milk, salt-water fish, lean meat and oysters.
- Ascorbic Acid (C)... Citrus fruits, tomatoes, cabbage and green vegetables.
- Vitamin D... Vitamin D fortified milk and margarine, fish liver oils, and exposure to sunlight.
- Vitamin E... Vegetable oils.

wheat germ, green leafy vegetables and nuts.
Folic Acid... Leafy green vegetables, meat and food yeast.
Panthenol... Eggs, broccoli, liver and nuts.
Vitamin K... Green leafy vegetables, and pork liver. Generally speaking, a well-balanced diet of fruits, meats and vegetables taken in suitable amounts daily will provide sufficient levels of vitamins to prevent vitamin deficiencies. Your physician, however, is the best counsel.

Tips For Gardeners
 From The Ozona Garden Club
 By Mrs. Bailey Post

With all the abundance of rain we have had, it's almost unbelievable that this is really Southwest Texas. It's great to go into the fall season with plenty of moisture for garden preparation, planting and growth on all plants, trees and grasses.

To keep ahead of the enormous weed crop everyone is urged to act now, and accept the challenge of a real clean-up to beautify our environment. Several have mentioned trouble controlling nutgrass in flower beds and lawns. The best way is to learn what it looks like, so you will know to remove any you may have at once, or before it becomes a real problem. Nutgrass can be treated with a weed killer, but will take several seasons. If in the lawn, keep pulled out until the turf is thick, and the nuts will become inactive.

Perhaps you have Youpon hollies and have berries on some while others have none. The Youpon, like other hollies, has male or female flowers, but never both kinds on one plant. The male plant does not produce berries. If your plants have yellow leaves, this may indicate a nutritional deficiency caused by the heavy demand of a large berry crop. Fertilize now with a light application of a balanced commercial fertilizer such as 8-8-8 or 10-10-10. In future years if there is a heavy bloom or fruit set, fertilize in the spring and again in early summer. If this does not solve the problem, chelated iron should help.

At this time of the year, leaves of trees and shrubs tend to fade out to a yellowish color, sometimes brown on the edges. This is caused by heat of summer, and shortage of soil moisture. We shouldn't have that problem now. Nature uses late summer and fall to prepare woody plants for winter so they should not be growing vigorously in the fall so that early cold spells could injure them severely. After the soil dries out, hoe or spade lightly to provide a better condition for water penetration.

The Garden Club will have two fall programs and demonstrations on table setting, featuring functional and exhibitional segment tables, and then a table section in the spring flower show. The book, "The Art of Table Setting and Flower Arrangement," which will be used for the background reading and demonstration is in the high school library. It contains many beautiful pictures of tables with correct place settings. Perhaps the Table Tips from the yearbook may be of interest to you in your home or party entertainment.

Table Tip - The decorative background consists of the walls, lighting fixtures, furniture, drapes, pictures, paintings and other exposed accessories. These set the scene to guide you in selecting your table appointments.

WASHINGTON NEWS LETTER
 By Congressman O. C. Fisher

By a cliff-hanger margin of only 5 votes, the House last week blocked, at least temporarily, a move to give unprecedented authority to the Great Society's Equal Employment Opportunities (EEOC) Commission.

That agency, which now has authority to investigate alleged discrimination in employment and then seek voluntary solutions by persuasion and mediation, sought cease-and-desist enforcement powers -- an authority normally exercised only by courts.

EEOC also sought power to run herd on employment practices over state and local employees and those who work for schools.

As proposed, the agency would have been empowered to dictate to employers whom they can or cannot hire, whom they can or cannot fire, and whom they can or cannot promote. It would give to this bureau in Washington authority to act as complainant, investigator, prosecutor, judge and jury -- all racked up in one package. And the unfortunate victim -- whether it be an employer or an employee -- would be accorded no right of trial by jury.

The bill now goes to the Senate which, judging by past actions on the subject, is expected to restore the powers sought by EEOC.

Thus, there is a real and present danger that this grab for bureaucratic power will eventually be approved. This move, if enacted, would delegate to an unelected federal bureau life-and-death control over freedom of employers to use their own best judgement in choosing employees on a basis of merit and productive capacity.

All of this in the face of concern by many Americans that they are already over-regulated, over-controlled, and over-regimented by Big Government. The time is overdue for a reversal of this trend.

Frightening, isn't it? You see a picture like this and suddenly you feel you are standing at the edge of a chasm in the dark. You are confronted with the threat of the unknown, and you don't like it.

Why, you wonder? Why can't men live together in peace?

We all need the courage to face the future unafraid. We need to find and develop love, understanding and peace of mind. But to attain our goal, we need Faith. That help can be found in church.

On Worldwide Communion Sunday -- millions of men and women will unite in one of Christianity's holy sacraments. There will be new faces at thousands of altars, men and women who have only recently begun to realize where man's Hope is to be found.
