CONGRESSIONAL NEWS.

Mr. Allen introduces a Resolution in the Senate Asking for Important Information.

THEY WANTED TO REST ON LABOR DAY.

Joint Resolution Passed Making September 12 the Centennial Anniversary of the Laying of the Capital Cornerstone.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—In the senate yesterday Mr. Allen submitted a resolution directing the secretary of the treasury to furnish information whether that department had at any time redeemed any silver or certificates in silver coin as provided by the Sherman act; second, what amount, in coinage value, of bullion remains uncollected and why such bullion has not been collected and paid out in accordance with the provisions of the act and whether any part, and if so what part, of the paper money redeemed in gold by the treasury treasury department since March 4, 1893, was cancelled after redemption or in any manner without from general circulation. Referred to the finance committee.

Johnson's Currency Bill.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—The Johnson currency bill, which briefly is to allow the owners of bonds, individuals, as well as banks, to deposit them, and get currency on them, has been under discussion before the committee on banking and currency, and the idea in the bill meets with a good showing of approval. It is generally believed that it will ever be reported favorably and even if it is to be beaten. The weakness of the bill is that it does not have the approval of the administration. The fact may as well be known now as at any other time that any measure which is disapproved of by the administration will not succeed in this congress. A strong silver man with long experience remarked a day or two ago: "If you want to outlive the policy of this congress, its work, etc., you can say this: 'Mr. Cleveland may desire something done by this congress which he may not get, but the congress will do nothing in law-making that he does not want done.'"

Sherman's Speech.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—After routine morning business yesterday, the senate bill for the repeal of the Sherman act was taken up and Mr. Sherman addressed the senate. He said if the repeal of the act of July, 1890, was the only reason for the extraordinary session, it would seem to him as insufficient. It was, however, justified by the existing financial situation. On one side, he said, congress and the people are agreed, and that was that both gold and silver should be continued in use as money.

Wanted to Rest on Labor Day.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—In the senate yesterday Mr. Allen, the Populist senator from Nebraska, made an able attempt to secure an adjournment in honor of Labor Day and was ably seconded by Messrs. Peffer, Irby and others. Mr. Voorhes warmly opposed the proposition and insisted that no higher compliment could be paid labor than to proceed at once with the consideration of important legislation before the senate. This position was supported by a vote of 41 to 8.

Gave Notice.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—Saturday Mr. Voorhes, chairman of the senate finance committee, said: "I give notice now that on Monday I will ask to take the sense of the senate on the question of meeting at 11 o'clock. I give that notice in order that senators may consider that I have an old-fashioned idea of the will of the majority being carried out. I do not expect to control matters except through a majority of the senate." Mr. Hale of Maine said he was very glad to hear the senator give that notice.

Fisher's Resolution.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—In the senate Saturday Mr. Fisher of Illinois submitted a joint resolution proposing an amendment to the constitution of the United States providing for the election of a senator by a direct vote of the people. The resolution together with one on the same subject heretofore submitted by Senator Mitchell of Oregon, which was on the table, was referred to the committee on privileges and elections.

Fell of the Senate.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—The opening of the senate finds increased interest in the financial situation in congress and senators are being sharply called upon by the public to indicate where they stand. The roll of the senate on the repeal bill has been given out as one submitted to President Cleveland for personal information, and shows 47 for repeal, 20 against, and 5 doubtful.

Centennial Anniversary.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—Yesterday immediately after the senate met Mr. Voorhes asked unanimous consent for the immediate passage of the joint resolution from the house making September 12 the centennial anniversary of the laying of the corner stone of the capitol a holiday in Washington. The resolution passed.

Cabinet Meeting.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—The cabinet meeting yesterday discussed several questions, with reference to the chances for repeal of the Sherman law. The president said he was satisfied his recommendation would be carried out.

Paper Payments Resumed.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—The treasury department yesterday resumed the payment over the counters here of paper money. For the past ten days only gold has been paid for treasury checks.

Three Marshals and Three Citizens Are Dead as a Result of the Late Monday Encounter at Joplin, Mo.

GETTIE, Ok., Sept. 5.—Officers coming in from the chase of the Dalton gang of outlaws report that no further trace of the fleeing men has been found since Saturday night a doctor at Stillwater was called to see a sick woman, but when he arrived a short distance from town, two armed men took charge of him and after swearing him to secrecy under penalty of death, they conducted him many miles to the outlaws' camp, where he dressed the wounds of the injured man. He was gone nearly twenty-four hours and refused to say anything that would give any clue as to the whereabouts of the gang. He states, however, every member who was in the Ingalls fight was badly injured and three will die. Bill Dalton has a broken arm, a bullet in his leg and a whole clear through his groin and cannot survive but a day or two. Bill Doolin was shot twice through the body. There are now three marshals and three citizens of Ingalls dead and two more in a serious condition. John Nix, Sherman Sanders, George Ferrin, Sam Murray, Mr. and Mrs. George Hanson, George, John, Sam and Frank Case, all citizens of Ingalls, were lodged in the United States jail here last night charged with aiding the outlaws.

Some More Bill a Law.

LONDON, Sept. 2.—Gladstone's long home rule fight has ended. The bill passed this morning at 1 o'clock by a vote of 301 to 167. It was hurried to the house which gave the first reading and adjourned. The galleries of the house were filled long before the sitting opened. A large number of ladies were present. As Gladstone with his bare head passed through the crowd, and entered the house, he noticed that his face was very pale. A number of Irish priests prominent in the crowd in front of the house lifted their hats as the prime minister passed them. The prime minister was loudly cheered by his followers as he entered the house and walked to his seat. Scenes in front of the house were exciting. When the announcement was made that the house had passed the bill the crowd went wild. They cheered, shouted, sang, embraced one another, smashed hats and did other absurd things to show their appreciation of the action. Gladstone's carriage, containing the prime minister and his wife, entered at ten minutes after 11. It was stopped twice, notwithstanding the presence of the police. The coachman was enabled to proceed after a few minutes, but the entire crowd left their position and started after the carriage. A mob of about 500 men followed the carriage, and it was stopped and detained while the crowd cheered and sang "The Conquering Hero Comes." Gladstone was greatly touched by the fervor of the people.

He was not permitted to answer his own question. With one voice 300 or 400 people yelled, "From Ireland," and the laughter that followed nearly derailed the bishop's speech. To repeal a part of an act approved July 14, 1890, entitled, 'An act directing the purchase of silver bullion and the issue of Treasury notes thereon, and for other purposes.' Be it enacted, etc., that so much of the act approved July 14, 1890, entitled 'An act directing the purchase of silver bullion and the issue of Treasury notes thereon, and for other purposes,' as directs the Secretary of the Treasury to purchase from time to time silver bullion to the aggregate amount of 4,400,000 ounces, or so much thereof as may be offered in each month at the market price thereof, not exceeding $1 for 371.25 grains of pure silver, and to issue in payment for such purchases Treasury notes of the United States, be, and the same is hereby repealed; but this repeal shall not impair, or in any manner affect, the legal-tender quality of the standard silver dollars heretofore coined; and the faith and credit of the United States are hereby pledged to maintain the parity of the standard gold and silver coins of the United States at the present legal ratio, or such other ratio as may be established by law.

GIVE US QUICK ACTION.

Free coinage was not defeated in the House yesterday. Free coinage got into the bad company of the Sherman act and suffered no more than a temporary postponement. There was a surging pressure upon Congressmen to take some action in behalf of business. Business had about decided to let its faith rest upon a change from bullion purchases. The pressure from the States whose trade is highly organized was for an end of the purchase clause.

That is all there is in the votes of yesterday. The silver advocates made a manly if not entirely wise fight, and the country knows a great deal more about the principles of money science than before. The use of gold and silver, without discrimination, will come.

Now the question goes to the Senate, and the best course for all concerned is to make the debate as brief as possible. Nobody there will add much to what has been said heretofore, and not a vote will be changed if the talk goes on for six months.

Let us have it over. If the free coinage members are strong enough to pass a bill, they can do it in a week, or even in a day. If they are not, talk will not add to their strength. Mr. Bland insisted on putting everybody on record. Most of the Senators are already on record and they can get in a vote all the records the people care to see.

Mr. Cleveland's advice is not always good in currency matters, but his hope that whatever is done may be done quickly is echoed from every State.

Filibustering and unnecessary speech-making will only hurt the cause in whose behalf they are employed.

HIGH PRAIRIE.

The patrons of our school, district No. 3, met pursuant to call and after some discussion decided to secure material and build a more spacious and comfortable house for our school purposes; nearly every one to a man took an active interest. Nineteen wagons went for lumber the first day. Among us was selected a foreman of boss workman and every one went to work and at the end of two weeks we have run up a substantial building 30 by 50 feet, under a good roof. One was sent out to Lovelady to solicit help; result our friends at Lovelady responded quite liberally, nearly enough to furnish windows and plenty of nails, for which we return our sincere thanks.

Gospel Tent Meeting.

The Rev. Thomas Leitch of Charleston, S. C., preached his farewell sermon on Sunday night, (Sept. 3rd.) For two weeks Mr. Leitch has labored in the Master's vineyard, day and night, and never did a servant of the Lord manifest more zeal for the cause, nor enter more ardently into the work assigned to him. The large Gospel tent was crowded to its utmost capacity every night, and the good accomplished by these meetings will only be revealed in eternity. Hundreds of both sexes and all ages, went boldly to the altar and on bended knees confessed their Savior, and pledged themselves to reformation. Old members of the church, who had become cold and indifferent, were greatly revived and renewed their promises to God with earnestness and humility. There was an unmistakable outpouring of the Holy Spirit, and the approbation of God was plainly manifested.

Mr. Leitch is no stranger in our community, and those who know him best, love him most. The reverend gentleman was assisted in the meeting by the Rev. Mr. Marshall, whose sweet-voiced and able leadership of the large choir, contributed greatly to the enjoyment of the congregations. Personally, Mr. Marshall is one of the most lovable men the writer has ever met, and Mr. Leitch is to be congratulated on having an assistant who is a delightful companion, as well as devoted Christian. The reverend gentlemen, during their visit, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Hall, whose hospitable mansion is always open to the stranger.

Unfortunately, the evangelist came at a time when money is very scarce, and the testimonial presented to him by our citizens was much smaller than it otherwise would have been. This is the more to be regretted as Mr. Leitch had the misfortune to lose all his earthly possessions in the tornado which recently swept the Atlantic coast. He has the heartfelt sympathy of our citizens. Never was the true piety of the man more clearly demonstrated than in the cheerful, childlike manner in which he received the news of his misfortune. Only a true Christian could submit as he did, to the dispensation of Providence. About between 50 and 60 joined the different churches. About 125 professed religion, and a large number of old church members renewed their vows. May God grant that all may remain faithful to the end.

LOVELADY.

Lovelady school will open this morning, Prof. Christian in charge, assisted by Miss Poe from Longview. The outlook for our school is first rate and if the special tax is carried we will have a nine month free school. This is hardly appreciated now, from the fact of there being such a disposition of late years to complain about everything, until our people can hardly appreciate a good thing when they have it thrust upon them.

The sick about town are all on the road to health again and Dr. Collins can now find time to devote to his goober patch and squirrel dog.

Mr. N. J. Mainer, Miss Mertie and sons Clyde, J. and Nelms are to be off for the World's Fair on the 8th. Nick says he is going out to take in the fair and if his money will hold out he don't know how long he will stay.

We are having lovely weather to gather cotton and our farmers are making good use of it, but owing to the low price there has been but little offered for sale yet.

Office of J. F. GREER, COUNTY JUDGE, GREEN COVE SPRINGS, CLAY CO., FLA., May 23d, 1891.

Twenty-three years ago I was attacked with inflammatory rheumatism. I was attended by the most eminent physicians in the land. I visited the great Saratoga Springs, N. Y., and the noted Hot Springs of Arkansas, and always consulting with the local physician for directions; finally came to Florida ten years ago.

About two years ago I had a severe attack of rheumatism, was confined to my room for twelve weeks and during the time I was induced to try P. P. P. (Prickly Ash, Poke Root and Potassium), knowing that each ingredient was good for impurities of the blood, after using two small bottles I was relieved; at four different times since I have had slight attacks and I have each time taken two small bottles of P. P. P., and been relieved, and I consider it the best medicine of its kind.

Respectfully, J. F. GREER. RHEUMATISM. It is emphatically a blood disorder caused by inability of the kidneys to throw off certain poisons which accumulate in the tissues about the joints and muscles.

ADVICE TO WOMEN.

If you would protect yourself from Painful, Profuse, Scanty, Suppressed or Irregular Menstruation you must use BRADFIELD'S FEMALE REGULATOR.

CANTONVILLE, April 26, 1893. This will certify that two members of my immediate family, after having suffered for years from Menstrual Irregularity, being treated without benefit by Physicians, were at length completely cured by one box of Bradfield's Female Regulator. In effect it is truly wonderful. J. W. BRADFIELD, REGULATOR CO., ATLANTA, GA. FOR SALE BY ALL DRUGGISTS.

A Great Success.

The Galveston-Dallas Weekly News stands pre-eminent as a journalistic success. It does nothing by halves. It believes that whatever is worth doing at all is worth doing well. It is ever on the alert for matter that will interest, instruct and benefit its readers.

Last spring the editor of The Weekly News organized a Columbian class, known to the youthful readers as 'Mr. Big Hat's Summer School.' The object of which was to awaken in the mind of the young an interest in the early history of America and her discoverer. The scheme has proven wonderfully successful, and hundred of children have been led to investigate with renewed interest historical works bearing upon the subject; and their well written letters to The Weekly News bear unmistakable evidence of great benefit and mental improvement to themselves.

The Weekly News also contains an exceedingly interesting department for it's lady readers. The articles on fashions, housekeeping and general miscellany are unsurpassed in interest to intelligent lady readers everywhere, and to farmers' wives in particular, who enjoy a good, practical, homelike paper.

To the farmers themselves The Weekly News devotes a great deal of space, giving many valuable and timely articles on practical agriculture in the south, a page of interesting 'news notes,' all the leading political and general news of the world, and well written editorials on all leading questions of the day.

No intelligent farmer in Texas can afford to be without The Weekly News. It costs but one dollar a year, or less than two cents a week. The Dallas or Galveston Weekly News and The Courier will be sent to your address one year for only $2.25.
