RESOLUTIONS PASSED.

A VERY SHORT SESSION IN BOTH HOUSES.

The Senate and House Pass Resolutions Expressive of the Sorrow and Sympathy of Congress and the People with the People of France and Adjourn.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—The death of President Carnot was the sole theme about the senate yesterday, and was recalled by a prayer marked by deep feeling delivered by Rev. Dr. Milburn, the blind chaplain of the senate. After the opening prayer, Senator Morgan, chairman of the committee on foreign relations, offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the senate of the United States unite with the American people in expressing the people of France their sorrow and sympathy in the national bereavement they are suffering from the cruel blow from an assassin, which was aimed at the peace of France and fell upon the heart of President Carnot; and as a mark of respect due the memory of the wise, virtuous and patriotic president of the French republic, the senate will at the close of this proceeding stand adjourned until to-day at 10 o'clock.

Resolved, That the president of the United States be requested to communicate this communication to the government of the republic of France and to Mrs. Carnot. Adjourned.

Message from the President.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—When the house met yesterday a message from the president of the United States was announced, and Clerk Fruden appeared at the main door bearing a large envelope containing the president's announcement to the senate and house of the death of President Carnot. Mr. McCarty, chairman of the committee on foreign affairs, thereupon arose and offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the house of representatives of the United States have heard with profound sorrow of the assassination of President Carnot, and tenders the people of France sincere sympathy in their national bereavement. That the president of the United States be requested to communicate this expression of sorrow to the government of the republic of France and to Mrs. Carnot, and as a further mark of respect to the memory of the people of the French republic, the house of representatives do now adjourn.

Income Tax bill.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—The half hour usually devoted to miscellaneous business in the senate was occupied Saturday by Mr. Call's report on the report providing for a committee of five senators to investigate the election and control of senators and representatives by corporations. He made a brief speech on the subject, in which he said he was willing that investigation should be allowed so far as Florida was concerned, but he did not think it was just to make it so broad and sweeping as in the case of Texas, including the whole country. The resolution went over and the tariff bill was taken up. The income tax feature being the chief subject of discussion. Several amendments were offered, but voted down by the Democrats, and pending further discussion the senate adjourned.

A Short Session.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—The house held a short session Saturday and after considering the deficiency appropriation bill for 1894, adjourned. There was a very small attendance of members on the floor and there was a manifest lack of interest in the proceedings. The speaker, Mr. Cannon, held the session in a brief but lively debate on pensions, in which the commissioner of pensions and the committee on appropriations were severely criticized. The speaker was in the chair after an illness of about a week.

Anti-Option Bill.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—The anti-option bill occupied the attention of the house all day yesterday, and an agreement was made that the debate should close at adjournment to-day, and a vote be taken on Friday morning after the morning hour. Speeches were made against the bill by Representatives Goldizer (Dem.), Walker (Rep.), and Harter (Dem.), while Mr. Richardson (Dem. of Michigan) spoke in favor of it. The speaker was still confined to his room by sickness, Mr. Bally performing the duties of speaker pro tem.

Will Not be Presented.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—A rumor has been in circulation about the capitol that it was the intention of the civil service commission to prosecute all federal office-holders who attend political conventions. This was denied yesterday by Civil Service Commissioner Roosevelt, who said the commission had no authority to take such action. The rumor, he explained, probably had its origin in the resignation of President Cleveland's famous order of 1888, relative to politics in the administration of government offices.

Treasury Statement.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—The cash balance in the treasury yesterday was $1,354,666, of which $62,000,293 was gold. One hundred million dollars was taken from the New York treasury, and with Saturday's deposits in the subsidiary this makes the total amount of the reserve $64,490,293.

To Improve Mail Facilities.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—Senator Lindsay proposed an amendment to the postoffice appropriation bill appropriating $100,000 for the improvement of mail facilities between Louisville, Nashville and Memphis, fast mail being intended.

Railway Pensions.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—Railway pensions is expected to be the main subject for discussion before the house during the coming week, the admission of New Mexico to statehood and the taxation of greenbacks as incidental questions.

MEEK'S MURDERERS.

THEY ARE UNDER ARREST AT LITTLE ROCK.

Both Steadily Deny Their Guilt, and Say They Fled the Country from Fear of Mob Violence—After ex-State Treasurer Burke's Bondsmen.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., June 26.—William H. Taylor, a banker of Brownsville, Mo., and his brother, George Taylor, a farmer, who are charged with having murdered the Meek family, near Brownsville, Mo., on the night of May 10 last, and for whose arrest rewards aggregating $8000 have been offered, are registered at Gleason's hotel, this city. They are nominally under arrest, being in charge of Hon. Jerry South, ex-member of the state legislature, who arrested the men at Buffalo City Saturday and brought them here. The men admit their identity, but claim to be innocent of the atrocious crime with which they are charged. They are willing to return to Brownsville and stand trial, as they fled to avoid mob violence.

An unusual feature in the case is that their captor, Mr. South, being a delegate to the Democratic state convention, which convenes here next Wednesday, proposes to remain in this city with the Taylors until the convention adjourns.

Burke's Defeat.

BATON ROUGE, La., June 26.—Senator Avery offered in the senate yesterday a resolution bearing upon the Burke defalcation. The preamble recites that four years ago he was elected since the defalcation, and that the people are entitled to a full statement as to the amount of the defalcation and whether or not any steps have been taken to recover from the bondsmen of the treasurer the amount of his bond. The resolution requests the governor to furnish a full statement to the senate and to explain any necessary what legislative action is necessary to enable the state to proceed against the bondsmen.

Stabbed by His Employer.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 25.—Dr. C. F. Simmons, president of the Simmons Medicine company, and superintendent of the Centenary Methodist Episcopal Sunday school, the largest in the city, was stabbed yesterday by John McInnis, a laborer, who was employed by the Simmons medicine company. He was stabbed in the back, and the wound is serious. McInnis was arrested and held for trial.

Arkansas Lynching.

MAZOLLA, Ark., June 25.—Henry Capus, the negro who was the assassin of President Carnot, was caught near Homer, La., and brought back to the neighborhood in which he had attempted the assault on the president. He was swung to a limb and shot by a mob of whites. The incident has caused a great deal of excitement in the neighborhood.

Populist Condemns Tariff.

DENVER, Col., June 25.—An immense mass meeting was held in Lincoln hall Sunday evening to take action on the Tarney affair. Fully 5000 people were present, all of them being employed or unemployed Populists. Speeches condemning the tariff and the Tarney affair were made by a number of Populist leaders, among them being Gov. W. H. Taft and Congressman Belford. Resolutions condemning the act and its perpetrators were adopted.

Asked to Retract.

CHICAGO, June 22.—J. M. Townsend, president of the Anti-Lynching league, has written a letter to Miss Frances Willard asking her to retract or defend statements she is alleged to have made regarding the negro while in England. Miss Willard was quoted as having spoken disparagingly of the negro and stating that she thought the lynching sometimes justifiable. She is expected to appear before the league and defend her position on the question.

Double Tragedy.

MACON, Ga., June 25.—News was received here yesterday of a double tragedy in Crawford county, West Dent and O. P. Wright had a difficulty in Dent's store. Wright cut Dent across the abdomen. Friends interfered and Wright went across the street, when he was followed by Dent, who, with entreaties prostrating, plunged a pitchfork into Wright's breast, and broke the fork to pieces over his head. Both men will die.

Fatal Whitewash.

BANGOR, S. D., June 21.—A severe cyclone struck northeast of this place yesterday afternoon, bringing with it very heavy rain, which fell generally throughout this section. The whirlwind totally demolished fourteen houses, killing the little children of John Samford, and leaving the remainder of his family in a severely injured and critical condition. A man named John Long was also killed.

Prisoner at Court.

CHICAGO, Ill., June 21.—Assassin Pronger was taken before the bar of the criminal court again yesterday to be tried for insanity. Pronger made one of his rambling speeches and asked the court to dispense with a jury. He objected to his counsel and said he had authorized no one to represent him.

Cedars at Lincoln.

LINCOLN, Neb., June 25.—This city was visited by one of the worst storms in its history Wednesday night and the taxation of greenbacks as incidental questions.

LADY'S UNDERTAKING.

SHE STARTS TO WALK FROM WESTBROOK TO CISCO.

With Her Baby in Her Arms—A Milan County Cuckoo That Looks Like a Snake—Boy Found Dead Near Log-View—An Elopement.

WESTBROOK, Tex., June 26.—Sunday when the west-bound Texas and Pacific passenger train arrived in this city a neatly dressed little woman alighted from the train and equipped Baggage-master Oates and inquired of him the distance to Cisco. She said to him that she would have to leave her trunk in the baggage room for a few days. The next that was seen of her she was walking up the railroad carrying her baby and a dog in her arms. She was followed by a man who had started by this time and Mr. Oats could not make known her situation, or the money could have been made up in a moment to pay her fare to her destination. Her name was not learned.

A Shooting Affair.

HOUSTON, Tex., June 25.—Saturday night about 10 o'clock there was considerable excitement on Washington road, a mile west of the city, by the shooting of a negro named Henry Jenkins. Jenkins and another negro were walking along the road when they met two white men in a buggy. Just as the buggy passed one of the men, whose name was not learned, turned about and shot him with a shotgun. As soon as the first shot was fired the negro ran and was followed by the second charge, but the latter missed. He ran for some distance and was shot through the back of the head and the chest. He fell from the buggy and was killed. The shooting was reported to the police and they are investigating the matter.

FRIDAY, JUNE 29, 1894.

Such leadership as the T. P. has will bust any party in the world.

Now for a full, big vote in the primary. Let every work for this.

Let every democrat go to work to get out the vote in the primary. We want a good vote in the primary.

When Wash LaRue gets to the senate—Pshaw! What is the use of speculating about what he will do? He will never get there.

All reports concur in the statement that the lines of the Third Party are weakening in this county. Old fashioned love feasts are reported in some places.

It is the duty of every good citizen interested in good county government to go into the primary and vote for his choice. It is then his duty to go to work for such ticket and elect it.

With biennial promptness Marion Martin steps forth the very spectre of dire disaster. He will bring any party whose ticket he is on over bad luck than all the black cats in christendom.

The county contest is one for good government. There are no party principles involved. All interest in defeating the Third Party should go into the primary and help to select the ticket to win.

Local pride is very good but it doesn't prevent a county from jumping over three next-door-neighbor candidates for congress and by the unit rule virtually endorse a man for congress two hundred miles away.

Anderson county has had three opportunities to support a Houston county man for congress. Has she ever done so? Doesn't this show deep ingratitude since Houston supported an Anderson county man for forty years or longer?

The Third Party are lusty advocates of an increased per capita of money. When the bill to remove the tax on state banks of issue was up in congress a few days ago, the last mother's son of them voted against its passage.

It is very easy for Mr. Beasley to assert that some or even certain governments own railroads, and that the passenger rate is one cent per mile. But when Mr. Beasley is called on for his authority he can't give any except the ipse dixit of some Third Party writer. The fact is as Judge Reagan states it:

DEMOCRATIC CAMPFIRE are blazing on every hill-top and in every valley of Houston county. The good work goes on and many a democrat who in the honesty of a good purpose followed the phantom of Third Partyism is returning to his first love. Let the wayward brothers return, resume their place at the party altar and no questions asked.

The Third Party platform at Waco declares in favor of "making eight hours a legal day's work except for domestic and farm laborers." And this is the party that is friendly to the laboring man. According to them eight hours is long enough for all laboring men to work except those who work around houses and in the fields. They must work ten or longer.

Tom Terrall and Joe Gilbert and Jim O'Keefe and Johnny Childs and Wm. Mills and Ran Wherry and Billy Driskill and J. J. Cooper are the boys that the T. P. has put up to be licked. With one exception this is the same crowd that a divided democracy whipped two years ago. And this is the crowd that the democrats will whip this year. They are the ones "what can do it" and will do it.

A. D. LIPSCOMB was the author of the paragraph which called forth the long article printed elsewhere from J. H. Beasley. Mr. Lipscomb replies in this issue in an able manner. It is an easy matter, as Mr. Lipscomb says, for Mr. Beasley to sustain any wild assertion by Third Party authority. We don't know of any literature, in the ancient or modern classics, or other school unless it be that of which Baron Munchausen was the exponent, as reckless of truth when it comes to statistics etc. as this same stuff sent out by the Third Party Bureau.

Local pride is very good in politics when "all the cats jump" your way.

The people are beginning to think and when you get a man to thinking he quits the Third Party.

When Wash LaRue With his awful bazoom—to be continued in our next.

How does "Woman Suffrage" strike the Third Party people in this state? The Third Party has just adopted such a plank in their Kansas platform.

PARSON WASH LARUE is a candidate for the State Senate on the Third Party ticket. Platform, wind and a powerful vocal organ.

THREE precincts in Anderson county busted "local pride" into flinders. Elkhart instructed for Lantham, Liberty for Culbertson and Kickapoo against Reagan.

The Third Party of precinct No. One on Saturday last nominated T. J. Hall and Henry Kent for best officers. The term "beat" will fit their cases better after the votes are counted out in November.

Our Third Party neighbor, the Sentinel, will move to Palestine. We wish it a full measure of success in everything except in its efforts to induce innocent and patriotic citizens to quit the old land marks and chase Third Party rainbows. In the latter, however, we feel sure it will accomplish but little.

The Reagan club that was organized at Elkhart! What became of it? The last we saw of it was that it was composed of three, one, chairman, one, secretary and "one, to get out and rustle." Judging by results the Elkhart rustler led a forlorn hope and those who imposed such a burden on him were guilty of great inhumanity.

There is Reagan and Jowers and Reeves and Parker and Rainey and Word and Saddler and Gammage and Gill and others, all Anderson men, that the democracy of this county have supported cheerfully and loyally, at times running through a period of forty years or more. Does this show "political enmity" on our part? Dosen; such puerile complaining show an inadequate appreciation on the part of Anderson?

CHEEROKEE has two candidates for congress and Houston has one. Anderson county is contiguous to both. Anderson county believes in the consideration of "local pride" when the consideration comes her way. There are several counties intervening between Anderson and Cooper's home county, but that didn't prevent Anderson county from ignoring those candidates living next door to her and virtually instructing for a Tyler county man.

EARL ADAMS is a candidate for congress and has the endorsement of his county. Anderson county's six votes would be a valuable lift to Adams. He is a next door neighbor to Anderson county, and on considerations of "local pride" which, it is claimed in Anderson, should obtain, ought to receive the support of Anderson. Yet we see a delegation selected which by the unit rule becomes a solid Cooper delegation. This shows reciprocal appreciation with a vengeance.

The democrats of Houston county must contest every foot of ground. It is not policy to yield up to the third party any office on the assumption that the fight is hopeless because they carried it two years ago. Those precincts that have no candidate for constable and justice of the peace should agree upon men to carry the party banner and make the fight. We can whip the third party on every part of the field and while we are at it let's make a clean sweep. Democrats of Lovelady, Colthart and Webber precincts should get out men for justice of the peace and constable.

The attitude of Anderson towards this county recalls a remark which we once heard an astute Tyler politician make. It was during the famous contest in 1887 between Reagan, Maxey, Ireland and Terrel for the senatorial succession. The contest was a stubborn and complicated one and had been protracted beyond periods usually taken for such contests. Reagan's friends and workers, among them the writer, had been up night after night, conferring, caucusing and scheming for the benefit of their favorite. In their zeal to exhaust every resource for Reagan's aid they applied to the aforesaid Tyler gentleman to join with them and help. His reply was: "I tell you, boys, my experience in politics is that the fellow you work for forgets you and the fellow you work against never does. Excuse me."

The third party is simply trying to get on the shady side of the road.

The doctrines of the Third Party lead either to a strong centralized government or governmental chaos.

The harvest is ripening for a glorious victory against the Third Party in Houston county in November.

When the calliope voice of Wash LaRue begins to ring in the "remote sections" of Angelina, the people will flee in terror.

NGENT is a soured democrat. As long as he could get an office in the democratic party he was a democrat.

Has Anderson county got anybody who has his eye on a railroad commissionerhip in the event of Reagan's election?

The Houston County Democratic Convention turned the Tiger loose. Third Party Thomas Cats will hunt the smallest saplings they can find.

The Third Party state convention in Kansas comes out in their platform in favor of Woman Suffrage. We thought the "Old Thing" was loaded to its full capacity before. This last plank will sink it in fathomless depths.

Let the good people of Houston county look at the spectacles presented in Kansas, Colorado and other states which have Third Party governors. Government there is but little better than anarchy. Are you prepared for such state of things in Texas?

For forty years there has not been an election at which the democrats of Houston county have not had to vote a ticket with at least one, and not infrequently two, Anderson county men on it. And yet "Houston county has a political enmity to Anderson."

CULBERSON FOR GOVERNOR. More than half the vote of the state has been recorded and Culbertson leads all opposition. It is not possible now for any combination to defeat him. He will hardly go into the convention with two thirds but he will finally get it.

A JONAH. MARION MARTIN, the Swamp Fox, was nominated for Lieutenant Governor by the Third Party convention. If there is a political platform that Martin never stood on we never heard of it; if there is a ticket he has never run on we never read of it; if he was ever elected to an office except as a demagogue, furnished the material for more political funeral processions, been chief ululator at the interment of more hopes and more frequently worn the black shroud of defeat than any man in all the thirty-four states of the Union. Such a man would sink the good Ship of Zion if he were on it, to say nothing of the rotten, leaky, water-logged old thing that the Third Party has shipped out.

SOMETHING TO THINK OF. When the democrats undertake to nominate officers they have a primary election and give the people an opportunity of expressing their choice. Did the Third Party do this? Did they? We ask again, did they order a primary election to determine whom their followers wanted to go on the ticket for county offices? They most assuredly did not. How did they make their nominations? By Convention? Not exactly. How then? Well, they did have a county convention and that convention appointed a committee and that committee retired to a room and, presumably, locked the door and there in the innermost seclusion and privacy of that room they fixed the ticket. And yet these same fellows, who love darkness better than light, are great at talking about cliques and cabals and such things.

If they wanted to give the members of the Third Party a voice in fixing the ticket, why didn't they have a primary election?

TO THE COLORED PEOPLE. The colored people are more interested in good staple government than any other class. When anarchy and lawlessness prevail what class is it that suffers? Will it be the white man or the negro? The Third Party that seeks to use the negro vote to elevate themselves to office would not be able to protect them in the enjoyment of their rights. Suppose those states that are controlled by the Third Party, like Kansas and Colorado, had the negro population of Texas. Could they, if they would, protect the negro from lawlessness, and would they if they could? It is time those colored people who can think should think and do it quickly. The colored people are interested in having a government which is able by its strong arm to protect them in their rights of property and against violence of any kind. The Third Party can't give them such government. They have failed to do so in those states where they have had control.

THE DEMOCRATIC RECORD. A democratic congress has passed a Tariff Bill which reduces the tax on the necessities of life nearly one third, besides placing many of them on the free list. Reform one. They have repealed the odious Force Bill. Reform two.

They have reduced the amount appropriated in the General Appropriations Bill thirty-five millions dollars, thus demonstrating by practice their faith in an economical government. Reform three.

They have cut down pension allowances twenty five millions dollars a year and made the pension roll one of honor. Reform four.

They have reported favorably the bill for the construction of the Nicaragua Canal which will pass. Reform five.

This is a good record and one the party can stand on. The money question is the only one of any magnitude that has not been settled. If the people will only be patient, that, in due time, will come round right.

WELDON. Ed. COURIER: I notice in the Sentinel published in Crockett a letter from Weldon signed "Voter" in which he tries to describe the material of which the democratic club at Weldon is composed.

He would have the people believe that there are not 57 democrats at or near Weldon box. The democratic club organized at Weldon is composed altogether of white citizens of Houston county and are all qualified voters at the November election and have pledged themselves to support the nominees of the democratic party at the general election. "Voter" refers to some of them as "hangers on" at the J. B. Jones convict farm.

It is a fact that some twenty or twenty-one of those belonging to the club are engaged in the convict business on Jones' farm and if "Voter" sees fit to call them "hangers on" because they stay at home and attend to their own business and hang on to the old democratic party and because they do not attend third party speaking at night, whoop hard times, "eues" Cleveland and the democratic party then they are "hangers on."

Now, "Voter," allow me to say that I do not know of any law governing elections that disfranchises a citizen simply because he refuses to follow such wretched leaders as "Voter" into the third party camp. "Voter" seems greatly alarmed or offended because the democrats in convention assembled had the audacity to send 14 delegates to the democratic convention at Crockett.

Do not be alarmed, dear "Voter," the democrats are always willing to be represented by a large body of the citizens so that a majority of them may be heard and their advice and counsel accepted. How did you and your party make nominations, dear "Voter"? Did you give the common and humble voters of your ranks a chance to help make the nominations and pass on matters of party interest? Or did some of your bosses run the thing to suit themselves without consulting the common voter and then adjourn with unfinished business before them?

Before you have the cheek, dear "Voter," to abuse the minds of the good people of Houston county against the grand old democratic party which is sure to triumph at Weldon you should have the manhood and moral courage to try at least to get your party to make pledges to your colored people in convention that you have been making to them so often in your owl meetings.

Trusting that before you write such articles, dear "Voter," you will investigate and get as near the truth as is possible for a man of your calibre.

I am devotedly, A DEMOCRAT

HIGH PRAIRIE.
EDITOR COURIER:
We have had plenty rain; hence crops like democracy are booming. Miss Lillie Webb spent last week with friends on High Prairie. The patrons of High Prairie school community met and elected Arch Adams, M. V. Johnson and Aaron Crowson trustees.

Mr. B. F. Gardner and friends were out driving for deer last Saturday and killed two or three deer so I have been informed.

Mr. B. F. Gardner wishes to know something pertaining to mulberry and strawberry culture. First the straw-berry is a beautiful, dark red, when ripe is very delicious, grows on small vines that have straw resembling dew-berry vines.
The mul-berry grows on trees; they are black and white (white just before and black just after ripening.) Will not make good pies.

Although pie is a favorite dish with some of the T. P.'s, so give them the mul-berries, please. Inform your Weldon correspondent that Washington City is in the District of Columbia. He says he is sorry for any man that puts on the party collar and doesn't think for himself. I admit that all such characters are to be pitied but do not sympathize with him at all. He should have absented himself from their owl meetings and objected when the populist leader made the effort to place the burdensome collar upon his sturdy shoulders. But, no, he stood like a lamb until the clasp was fastened and now he has only to tug on with his load of stuff.
Z. S. ADAMS.

GRAPELAND.

You can say to everybody that we have the best crops this county ever produced and if no accident happens to it between now and harvest time there will be great rejoicing among the people.
Mr. W. F. Brooks' little boy, Claude, while climbing a tree after a squirrel last week fell about 30 feet breaking his arm and otherwise injuring him.
Messrs. Frank Owens and Lee Clewis returned last week from Leon county where they have been selling tomb stones. They say certain kind of crops are fine in that county.
Bill Smith (col) laid a grown cotton boll on our table this last week which is unusual for this time of the year.
Miss Jessie Meriwether of Dalv, is visiting in our city.
Miss Cain, sister of our Methodist pastor, is visiting in town.
Dr. F. C. Woodard will deliver the Masonic address at Elkhardt this week during the public installation.

There is getting to be considerable sickness now.

KEYSTONE.

GOVERNMENT RAILROADS.
The Hon. Jim H. Beasley of Trinity Chapel had the hardihood to confess in a recent issue of the Third Party Bazaar that it was he who has been stuffing the ignorant ones among the Third Party with promises of railroad fare at the rate of one cent for four miles. It is a great and crying pity when a man has to become his own accuser. The COURIER would have continued to withhold in charity his name in this connection, but his guilty conscience will not let him rest; small as it is it is still more than a match for his weak mind. It is plain that his conscience is pained, because it is content to confirm itself by quoting statements and statistics from the careless and unauthoritative sources usually resorted to by the most unscrupulous third party people, viz: The publications issued by the Economist Co., in Washington, a firm headed by the notorious Macque, whose reliability can best be appreciated by the swindled members of the farmers' alliance and he uses these statements without bona fides enough to give the source in his article. He states that in Hungary, "where the roads are state owned," a man can ride six miles for one cent. Now, Hungary is a long way from home. We do know of that country that it is the land from which the Gypsies originated and it is most probable that if the government really does own the railroads the gentle inhabitants of that tramps' paradise ride their wooden shoes at the rate mentioned. In a country so paternalistic it is more than likely that the people have to pay to walk. He states that in Germany "where the roads are state owned," you can ride four miles for one cent. Another of his statements is that in Australia you can ride 2000 miles for $6.50. Then the Hon. Mr. Beasley adopts the suggestion contained in the article of THE COURIER, which called forth his effusion, and advocates the carrying of human passengers in postal cars. I don't ask anybody to believe this on my statement, merely; let those who have any doubt read his article in the Third Party Bazaar of the 6th inst. That is the paternalistic notion pure and simple, to treat human beings as if they were so much baggage, without thought or feeling.

Let us have some common sense and conscience in these matters of politics. Heretofore we have not demanded it of the third party, but now its increased respectability renders such a demand probable of recognition. Let us suppose that the government did own the railroads. Would it not cost something to run them, and could not almost any amount be spent in operating them? And would they not have to be run for a little less than the amount of their receipts, or else become a burden upon the tax payers of the country? And would anybody be so cautious in expending the government's money as the present owners are in expending their own? Would not be run by third party statesmen, at present out of jobs for various reasons, prominent among which is incompetency for all things? And would not these statesmen, in order to hold their jobs, have to give unnecessary employment and pay unnecessary salaries? In other words who would manage a business best, the one who stands the risk of loss and has the chance of gain, or some one else who has nothing to gain or lose by the success or failure of the enterprise, and who can maintain his own comfortable position most easily at the expense of the enterprise?

Chesness of railroad fare in this country and everywhere else is altogether a relative phrase. On Pullman cars a man can go from New Orleans to San Francisco, a distance of 2500 miles, for about $90; on the ordinary coach for about $75; on immigrant cars for about $35; and he could doubtless charter a freight car and take himself and friends at a pro rata of about $5. Here is a letter from Judge Reagan in regard to this matter. To be fair with you than Mr. Beasley, his signature shall be appended. He probably knows more about railroads than any other politician in the country.

AUSTIN, TEX., June 8, 1894.

A. D. LIPSCOMB, Esq.,
Crockett, Texas.
DEAR SIR—Your letter received, in relation to the reduction of passenger rates on railroads to one cent for four miles. No such rates exist in any part of the world.

In the densely settled countries of Europe passenger rates on some classes of cars, possibly on all, are lower than such rates in this country, and lower than in any country where the population is less dense than in Europe.

There is no country in the world where the government owns all the railroads. In some of the countries of Europe the governments own a part of the railroads. And on a very poor grade of cars such as third and fourth class cars, there is scarcely more comfort than on our flat cars. There is no difference in rates growing out of government ownership. Passenger rates in the United States are as low, and possibly lower than in any other country in which the population is not more dense than here. And they are much lower than in Mexico and other American governments.

The idea that rates anywhere are as low as one cent for four miles is too absurd to answer.

Very truly and respectfully,
JOHN H. REAGAN.

A man can get statistics to support almost any position that he chooses to assume; the above is offered as the direct and positive statement of a responsible and authoritative gentleman, well informed on this subject, and whose worst political fault is that he leans too much toward the paternalistic views of the third party.

A. D. LIPSCOMB.

Trinity Chapel.
May, 29-1894.

Answer to the Crockett Courier passenger fare four miles for one cent &c.

Mr. Editor of THE COURIER see the freight rates in the following countries owned and controlled by the government. In Australia you can ride a distance of 1030 miles across the country for $0.50, first-class toll, while working-men can ride six miles for 2c, twelve miles for 4c, thirty miles for 10c, etc, and railroad men receive 25 to 30 per cent more wages for eight hours of labor than they are paid in this country for ten hours of toil.

In Victoria where the above rates prevail, the net income from the roads last year was sufficient to pay all the federal taxes.

In Hungary, where the roads are state owned, you can ride six miles for one cent and since the government bought the roads wages have doubled. Belgium tells the same story, fare and freight rates cut down one-half and wages doubled.

Yet the roads pay a yearly revenue to the government of $4,900,000.

In Germany you can ride four miles for one cent on the government owned lines, yet wages are over 120 per cent higher than they were when the private corporations owned them, and during the last ten years the net profits was $25,000,000.

If our government owned the railroads we could go to San Francisco from Boston for $10. Look at the proof.

Uncle Sam pays the railroad not quite $275 to transport a loaded postal car from Boston to San Francisco. A passenger car will carry fifty passengers, which at $10 each would be $500, or a clear profit of $225 a car, and this too after paying 54 per cent on watered stock which is fully 100 per cent on the cost of the roads.

To show how our railroads have watered their stock I point to the New York Central & Hudson River road which, when the Vanderbilts obtained control in 1869, was capitalized at $49,000,000. They at once watered it up to $90,000,000, more water has been added until the present capital stock is $146,000,000, all but $45,000,000 being water.

I have another estimate from a nonpolitical paper which was published in Connecticut, which gives about the same as the above. I also see in the Scientific American that the United States furnished material to help equip the railroads in three of these countries in 1890. There was shipped from the Baldwin works of Pennsylvania, fifteen locomotives at one time to one of those countries. We make or can make all the material to equip our roads. Mr. Editor with the above facts, the most ignorant will have to admit that if the government owned the railroads we could carry passengers just as cheap as those nations.

I did say at Wesley's Chapel in a talk to those people that this government ought to carry (should they own the R. R.) passengers four miles for one cent, and cotton from Grape land to Galveston for 50 cents and not exceeding $1.00 a bale.—J. H. Beasley.
(We regret that we can't publish all of the article. Want of space forbids. We give, however, all of it that pertains to the railroad feature. The rest is not pertinent to that.—E.O.)

FOLLOWING PRECEDENT.
One Bill Botta found the Chinese not so good as he was supposed to be. A good, honest fellow in his way was Bill Botta, but he had never had an opportunity to study moral philosophy as taught in the colleges and universities of his country. Bill Botta was in Devon, and very likely some of his ancestors had helped Drake "wallop" the Spaniards. He had followed in their footsteps by enlisting in the navy's fight for his country whenever called upon to do so.

When he returned from a voyage to China he brought with him a present for a gentleman who had been "very kind to his old mother, and during his absence. It was a curiously fashioned Chinese garment made of bits of a species of straw string together.

"What, sir, you call that an 'easy'?" he had said bashfully, when he presented it. "The Chinaman wouldn't part with an easy."

He had run across a Chinaman wearing it in the streets of Hong Kong, and the unfortunate celestial not understanding his summary request, to "hand that over here," he had simply yanked it off him.

To the suggestion that his conduct had hardly been consistent with strict honesty he replied: "The 'easy' you pardon, sir, he was only a haythen, and I never heard that taking things from a haythen counted as stealing."

"Well," replied his friend, "if many illustrious Englishmen had not acted on that assumption I don't know where the British empire would now be, so I'll keep the haythen's garments."

THE MANDOLIN GIRL.
She Was a Fraud, of Course, But None the Less Interesting.

In the corner of a New York cab was sitting a charming girl, she was beautifully gowned, faultlessly gloved, bore a most becoming hat on her pliant little head, and on her lap rested a mandolin case. Of course she was the object of intense interest to the other passengers, and a man who had seen her nearly every day in the car and always carrying the mandolin case to get her done as the most devoted student of that musical instrument he had ever encountered. Behind him sat two shopgirls and they were discussing the interesting unknown.

"There is that mandolin girl again," said one of them. "I can't bear to look at her."
"Why not, asked the other girl, "I think she is beautiful."
"So she is, but she is such a fraud. She clerks in a store downtown, and doesn't want people to know she is a musician, but she carries her mandolin about with her, and when she is in a society girl out for a music lesson. I have known of her little dodge for more than a year, and am tired of it. I wish she would carry a tennis racket or a paddle for a change."

The mandolin case is very convenient, however, for another girl told me that she carries her lunch, her overshoes, a comb and brush and lots of other things in it. It is not honest, though, and I feel contempt for her."
