Reyal Weddings.

The wedding of an heir to the throne is generally a grand affair, and the marriage of the amir of Afghanistan's eldest son is very elaborate indeed. Criers were sent around Cabul desiring everyone to make publie rejoicing over the happy event, so the inhabitants have been fixing up shawls and mirrors to decorate the city for the wedding day. The amir himself sent for cooks, athletes and wrestlers from Turkestan to entertain the chief officials of the kingdom, whom Abdurrahman is feasting daily.
