Colonel Robert Gates, according to the Manufacturer's Record, in an address before the Tennessee Farmers' Institute at Nashville recently, showed. that the prosperity of that State depended upon the co-operation of great interests of production, carrying and consumption. Among other things he said:

"It needs no argument to demonstrate the fact that the co-operation of the railroads on liberal and practical lines is primarily necessary to any material development of resources or of agricultural improvement. They stand between the producer and the consumer, and they are the prime agents of enterprise. They must be reckoned as a prime necessity in the co-operative agency that is to advance the State. And their co-operation may be depended on in the future as in the past in the establishment of experimental farms, a State fair, in addition to the lines already established, because they have a common interest with all others in the upbuilding and prosperity of the State. But their cooperation may be weakened or rendered abortive by hostile and unjust policies, local and State, brought about by selfish or hasty agitation, misconception, perverted facts and blackmailing enterprises. The fact. however, that they are co-operating cordially and liberally to build up the State and spending about the only money that is being spent on that line, and spending large sums freely, notwithstanding that they are regulated by courts and commissions to the point of oppression, should go to their credit as evidencing their liberal public spirit and their faith in the people and the State."

Bunker Hill monument at Charleston, Mass., is to have an encircling row of electric lights near its top at night, if anybody can be found willing to pay the cost, estimated at $1200 a year. The monument association fuses to pay the bill, and some of its members while they will not oppose the project, are of the opinion that the garlish lights would cheapen the historic pile.

The low price at which Arbuckles' famous roasted coffee can be sold is made possible by its enormous sale. It should not be classed with the inferior imitations sold at a cent a pound less than Arbuckles'. It has a quality greatly superior to these imitations and makes many more cupfuls to the pound. No other firm in the world can buy coffee to so good advantage as the producers of Arbuckles' Coffee. No other coffee is cleaned, roasted or blended with such great care and skill. An Effort to Make the Hogg Amendment a Special Order Overraied--Senate Libel Bill Reported; Not as Desired, But Better Than None at All.

Austin, Texas, February 12 .- The house was not in first-class working erder this morning and had barely a quorum present. The session was spent in considering the bill to regulate the practice of medicine. There was a fusilade of amendments, but when the house adjourned the bill had not been materially changed, aside from the amendment adopted on Friday. That amendment gives anybody the right to appear before the examining board and does not limit the right to practice medicine to the graduates of reputable medical colleges. Representatives Shannon and Mc-Manus this morning endeavored to have the Hogg amendment made the special order for next Tuesday, but the chair sustained a point of order that no special order can be made under the rules while a special order is pending. Hence no action was taken on the Hogg amendment.

The senate committee on Constitutional Amendments will consider the Hogg amendments tomerrow. The railroad commission has about completed its answers to the senate's inquiries.

House committee on Finance has killed the bill to tax capital stock of telegraph, telephone and express companies. It was a part of the tax commission bill.

House Judiciary Committee No. 1 has decided to favorably report, with a slight amendment, the senate libel bill. Representative Greenwood, who introduced a libel bill in the house, says the senate bill as passed is not as liberal a measure as he desired, but he is willing to accept it because it is considerably better than no libel bill at all.

House committee on Commerce will favorably report Grigg's bill to amend the pilot law. This bill is opposed by the Galveston Pilot's association, and has the support of Houston interests. Arbitration Committee. Fort Worth, Texas, February 12 .---At the joint meeting of committees representing the Builders' club, union workmen and Business Men's association, held yesterday afternoon, according to previous arrangement, at the headquarters of the Board of Trade, a permanent committee of arbitration was chosen, consisting of Messrs. J. C. Lord, N. H. Lassiter, Glen Walker, Dr. George Jackson and E. B. Daggett. Mr. Lord is superintendent of a local light and power company. Mr. Lassiter is a prominent attorney and has charge of the legal department of the Fort Worth and Rio Grande railroad.

Mr. Walker is a real estate owner. Dr. Jackson is a large property owner and is one of the oldest citizens of Fort Worth, and well and favorably known. Mr. Daggett is also an old citizen and well known real estate owner and business man. This arbitration committee, in accordance with motions which were carried at the joint committee meeting, and agreements unanimously concurred in by the delegates there, is to serve until June 1, 1902, and have the settlement of all matters which may be referred. to it by the parties represented in that meeting, it being understood that it will take cognizance of all existing difficulties and endeavor to effect an adjustment of each and every trouble called to its attention by any of the parties at interest from now on until the expiration of the time for which the committee is chosen to serve.

Mrs. Maybrick to Be Freed.

Chicago, February 11 .-- A special cablegrom from London to the Record says: A well authenticated report reaches the Record correspondent tonight to the effect that Florence T. Maybrick will be released from prison tomorrow (Monday). At the United States embassy nothing is known about the matter and Ambassador Choate, when seen at his residence today, decined either to deny or confirm the rumor. Ever since Charles Thompson Ritche, the new home secretary, came into office last November, efforts to secure the release of Mrs. Maybrick have been active and have continued up to within a few days ago. The efforts of Mr. Choate, although made informally, have been unceasing. 'When Mrs. Maybrick was allowed the privilege of seeing her New York lawyer last summer, that gentleman told the Record correspondent that the chances for his client's release were more favorable than they had been during her twelve years' incarceration.

The authorities convensant with the attempts to secure the famous prisoner's freedom assert that if at last she is to get her liberty it may be regarded as due to the influence of King Edward and may be interpreted as a token of appreciation of American sympathy over the death of Queen Victoria.

Trial by Jury Denied

The president, in his instructions to the Philippine commissioners, is care-ful to exclude trial by jury from the blessing conferred upon the nation's oriental subjects. The omission is the more noticeable because the sixth smeadment to the constitution is amendment to the constitution is quoted entire with the exception of the chause guaranteeing trial "by an impartial jury of the state and district wherein the crime shall have been committed, which district shill have been previously ascertained by law." One by one the safe-guards of the constitution are being abandoned; one by one the doctrines of imperialism are being adopted. There is not a vital principle of government, heretofore considered sacred, which must not altimately be abandoned if this nation continues to tax subjects without rep-resentation and govern them without the consent of the governed.

The difference between a monarchy and a republic is that in a monarchy is people must acquiese in the mon-arch's.will, but in a republic the pub-lic officers are supposed to acquies, in the people's will. The king can do no wrong 'so long as he does exactly as he pleases. The public officer in a republic can do no wrong so long as he adheres to the constitution and the law. When he violates that con-stitution and when transresses that inv, he is in error, and it is just as much the people's duty to criticise him then as it is their duty to commend him when he sustains the constitution and upholds the law. Men who insist that this nation, in its dealings with its new dependencies, shall be governed by the same prin-ciples which he founders of this gov-ernment claimed for themselves; men who insist that the Declaration of lin-dependence was written for all time and provides a rule by which all men should be guided; men who insist that the prohibit, that the limitations in the constitution must limit, and that public officers and public bodies whose existence depends upon that consti-tution cannot ignore it and assume su-tion who insist that the limitations in the constitution must limit, and that

No nation has anything to fear from citizens who are willing to go down to political defeat in defense of what they believe to be the truth. No nation has anything to fear from citi-zens who can bring to the support of their cause the Declaration of Indepen-dence, the constitution of the United States, and the declarations of every great American in every great politi-cal party from the period of Washing-ton to the present day.

William Gallinger, the eldest son of Senator Gallinger, is to enter an Epis-copal monastery. He will be known as Brother Leo after January 25, when his novitiate will begin in the Order of the Atonement at the monaster; of Graymore. At the end of two years Bro. Leo can be formally ordained a priest and go out upon his chosen work as a missionary.

From old Dutch times New Year's day calls were an institution in New York, and other towns followed suit, but the feasting and drinking were carried to such an excess, and the rush to pay the maximum of calls in a minimum of time became so great that gradually a reaction set in that lod practically to abolishing the system.

Wetmore's Best

believe that the most men chew tobacco for the good of the tobacco and not for the sake of a premium. They are putting the value of the premiums all in the quality of the tobacco. The man who chews Wetmore's Best gets his money's worth in good tobacco. He notices the difference in flavor; in lasting quality; in satisfaction, and finds that all this goodness costs him less than cheap tobacco. Try a piece of Wet-more's Best and satisfy yourself that it's "all in the quality."

The street crossings on and near the public square in Crockett could be greatly improved on this muddy weather by having plank walks put down from one corner to another and across the streets in several places. We are informed that the awning in front of the shoe store will be extended to the corner at Baker Bros. and a firstclass side-walk put down. This will help matters on that side of the street a great deal.
