A Happy Man.

It is asserted by many that the average farmer is the happiest man on earth, and that he has nothing to do but to enjoy life.

That when winter comes and the temperature drops to zero, he toasts his feet before a big fire, reads his local paper, and the only thing that disturbs him is the three calls per day to the banquet of hog, hominy, mince pies and other things. But this is a mistake.

The industrious farmer beats the guineas up, and, with his soul clouded in gloom, proceeds to build a fire and soften his boots with oil and a sledge hammer. He then takes a torch and finds his way to the barn, feeds his hogs, and by this time the new born calf needs his attention, and delights in butting a pail of milk over the tiller of the soil, until he only needs to be stamped to pass for a bundle of whitewash. He then crawls through a barb wire fence, leaving the rear of his trousers to dangle in the winter breeze, buries a few frozen chickens, chases a 25 ct pig four miles to catch it and then fails, drenches a sick horse, freezes his fingers, gets kicked by a one-eyed mule, and when the glooming comes and broods over the earth, he has just 15 minutes left in which to say his prayers and wonder how he is going to pay his taxes. So all that glitters is not gold; this is a self evident fact and leaves no room for doubt, but there are some doubting Thomases who, after they are dead, will require the oath of several of their best friends before they will believe it, but not so with me. I took the profitable advice of Uncle Hiram, and upon repairing to the spot to which I was directed, I there found the things of which he told me, and the values far above the prices.

After prying through this mammoth stock, I saw that I was in the road traveled by Uncle Hiram, and that if he did not make some tremendous strides up the ladder of success, I would soon warm his trail. These people had the bargain ammunition and I followed Uncle Hiram's advice.

Ever since Adam coaxed Eve to eat the green persimmon, the eating problem has been in vogue and I soon solved that problem, for I got so much for $3.85 (and it wasn't salt, either) that I had to throw up my hands and holler "Stop." I bought a general supply of every thing, and found that Uncle Hiram had not told me half about this firm, for everything was even better than he represented, and below was a few of the items I purchased.

54 in. all wool water proof at 35 cts per yd; extra heavy A. C. A. feather tick at 12½ cts; good heavy outing in 10 to 20 yd pieces at 6 cts per yd; Standard 10-4 sheeting at 25 cts; extra heavy full size bed comforts at $1.00; real heavy 10-4 blankets at 90 cts per pair; men's medium weight underwear at 40 cts per suit; extra heavy fleeced lined underwear for boys at 50 cts per suit; boy's cheviot shirts at 25 cts each; all leather shoes, with tongues that speak for themselves, from 40 cts to $4.00 per pair, and everything else in proportion.

I almost forgot to mention about buying a No. 8 stove with a 17 in. oven and enough tin ware, pots, kettles and other stuff to open up a small hardware store, all for $15.00.

I now know that it is very expensive for me to do my trading elsewhere, and I am under lasting obligations to Uncle Hiram for his profitable advice, and to all my friends, wish to say that if you value your hard earned money at anything you will find it to your interest to spend it with MOORE & SHIVERS, the general merchants, and you will be, like me, Happy.

So don't act rash, but spend with them your cash, for it will save you many a dollar, and make a mash much quicker than a standing collar.

As we are a citizen of Houston county and also of the 13th senatorial district, and as we have two candidates—Mr. Townsend of Lufkin and Mr. Fowler of Palestine—who are aspirants for the office of senator to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Hon. C. C. Stokes, we feel an interest in the welfare of our country, and we believe every man should. We believe every man should lay his Baileyism and all other isms aside that is worth no more to the country than that, and vote for the man we honestly think can do us and the country the most good and do it in the right way. It was our privilege to hear the candidates speak in Grapeland yesterday. They spoke to a large crowd who listened with great interest. While we had been somewhat thrown off the track by reports and a circular that had been handed around in this section, after hearing the two candidates we found ourself on the right track again. We realize that both are men of talent and courage, but after hearing them we had no difficulty in making a choice. Mr. Townsend is a good orator and we feel that our district would be fortunate in getting such talent to represent us in the senate.—Correspondent in Grapeland Messenger.

No More Credit.

Beginning on the first day of October, 1910, we have decided to discontinue selling our products on credit. This will apply to all alike, and no orders for hulls, meal, etc., will be filled after that date except on a cash basis.

We regret exceedingly to be compelled to do this, but it becomes absolutely necessary. For convenience of our customers around town, our wagon will continue to deliver and collect at the time delivery is made. We believe this will be of benefit to our customers as well as to ourselves, as we will be able to sell on a closer margin.

We thank our friends for past favors, and trust we may be still favored under the new regime.

Yours truly,

Fowler or Townsend?

Editorial from the Palestine Daily Visitor.

Ordinarily the Cherokee County Banner is reasonably fair and impartial, but its editor must have been on a vacation or else nursing a very sore thumb judging from the editorial in last week's issue under the above heading.

The Banner states that the people of the county will be influenced largely by the prohibition issue regardless of the fact that the party platform instructs for submission as also did the primaries throughout the District. Whoever is elected State Senator from this District will be in honor bound to vote for submission and Fowler pledges himself not only to vote for submission, but in case it passes to do everything he can to frame effective legislation. The Banner also says that a contrary impression has been given out, but it does not inform its readers that that impression is due solely to the efforts of Jacksonville newspaper men, who had the positive information that the facts were not as they published and sent out. The Banner owes it to its readers to so inform them, but it has never done so. The Banner calls on the Anderson County Herald to answer some questions, entirely ignoring the editor of the Visitor, who has been here ever since Capt. Fowler was born. The Visitor knows that Capt. Fowler has always favored submission; but as he was county chairman at both elections, and as this was a question of personal belief on a principle instead of men seeking office, he did not deem it proper to interfere or dictate. The Banner refers to a letter from Judge Townsend dated August 24th, in which Mr. Townsend says that he will vote for statewide prohibition. In his printed platform mailed out to the district at that time Mr. Townsend says:

"I expect to vote for and urge the submission of a constitutional amendment to prohibit the sale of intoxicating liquors within this state, to enable the people to vote upon this question at an early date. I favor the retention of our present prohibition laws and favor strengthening them where needed, to make prohibition more effective in the precincts and counties of the state where adopted by the people." Mr. Townsend does not say in this that he will personally vote for prohibition. In other words, he tells the editor of the Banner privately what he will do, but he does not tell the people of his district; on the contrary, he states in substance that he is both in favor of statewide prohibition and the present law; as complete a straddle as a man could be guilty of.

The Visitor is informed by most reliable citizens that Mr. Townsend explained the ambiguity in his printed platform by saying: "That there were a lot of anti-prohibition votes in this County and that he did not want to drive the anti-prohibition votes away from him." In other words, that he was playing politics.

Mr. Townsend has never answered any of the questions propounded to him on the stump as to whether or not he had ever made a prohibition speech; had ever contested a local option election or if he expected to actively assist the statewide prohibition movement next year, or if he believed in, or would vote for strict regulation of saloons. If Mr. Townsend is a prohibitionist, why won't he declare himself and why does he not want to drive away the anti-prohibition votes?

Mr. Townsend was one of the principal figures in the movement looking to the holding of a prohibition convention to indorse a prohibition candidate; he gave those who were associated with him to believe that he would abide by the action of that convention. Before that convention could meet he declared that he would not be bound by it and announced before it could act. He privately gave as his reason for that, that his friends had advised him that it was best not to submit himself to that convention and that he expected to get the anti-prohibition vote in his county. Now, if Mr. Townsend is a prohibitionist, why does he expect to get the anti-prohibition vote in his county.

After it became known that the leading prohibitionists of the district decided to indorse a third man, Mr. Fowler made the offer to Mr. Townsend that both withdraw and let the best man of the District select a suitable candidate. Mr. Townsend gives as his reason that that was not a representative convention. Mr. Townsend cannot thus stultify his own acts because he himself was one of the leaders in having that election called and was represented at the convention by his law partner, his brother-in-law and other relatives.

If prohibition is an issue in this race, why does not the Banner state the facts?—Adv.

"It Beats All."

This is quoted from a letter of M. Stockwell, Hannibal, Mo. "I recently used Foley's Honey and Tar for the first time. To say I am pleased does not half express my feelings. It beats all the remedies I ever used. I contracted a bad cold and was threatened with pneumonia. The first doses gave great relief and one bottle completely cured me." Contains no opiates. Will McLean.

Get the genuine Foley's Honey and tar in the yellow package. It is safe and effective. Contains no opiates. Refuse substitutes. Will McLean.

The Senatorial Race.

The senatorial combat took place as scheduled, last Monday night—if combat it could be called. Really, some will suspect your scribe of undue partiality, but candidly—not candidly—the combat was all one way. Mr. Fowler was no match on the rostrum for the little Judge from Angelina. The Judge produced some very convincing reasons why he should have the office; the most forceful of all was unspoken but painfully evident to every hearer, namely, the overshadowing personality and force of the Judge over Mr. Fowler.

Some of the other reasons were: First that Angelina deserves it. Anderson has eaten all the pie heretofore, Angelina deserves a slice at least. Again, Mr. Fowler's record as a legislator was bad. He stated from the record that Mr. Fowler missed 150 roll calls in one legislature. Mr. Fowler denied this, but his opponent named the pages and offered to lend him the record to disprove it. He was unable to refute it.

Again, Judge Townsend has the same views as the lamented Stokes, and would justly inherit his senatorial toga. To elect Fowler would offend the shade of that gentleman. Stokes was a prohibitionist in the full sense of the word. Mr. Townsend is so by his emphatic declaration time after time. Mr. Fowler is not. He stated clearly and distinctly that he would not vote for the amendment for State-wide prohibition. He would vote for submission because the people in election and convention had declared for it. Any democrat would.

We are sorry that Mr. Madden, of prohibition fame, has stained his white garments by entering the contest in support of an anti. His pro friends will not be disposed to appreciate this desertion in the heat of the contest. They will attribute it to personal animus and other ulterior motives. Personal friendship doesn't demand that a man forsake principle. This is where a leader falls. No more will the pros of Houston county follow his leadership. The magic name of Madden loses its spell.—Lovelady Correspondent in Houston County Times.

Mr. Madden Replies.

Editor Courier: In looking over your last week's issue I notice an "ad" from a little "weasel-legged" fellow who resides in the eastern part of this county and who is said to be the editor of a paper over there. It MAY be that you have heard of him.

Well, he very kindly gives me to understand that my "advice" is not needed in the pending senatorial contest. I very clearly see that he has misunderstood me and wants to think that I had undertaken the task of "advising" him. No, sir, not I. I never assume the impossible. When I give advice at all it is intended for SENSIBLE people only, and I never try to put an idea where I know it can not ENTER. People affected with "brainstorm" never get any advice from me.

Capt. Bogardus again hits the Bull's Eye.

This world famous rifle shot who holds the championship record of 100 pigeons in 100 consecutive shots is living at Lincoln, Ill. Recently interviewed, he says:—"I suffered a long time with kidney and bladder trouble and used several well known kidney medicines, all of which gave me no relief until I started taking Foley Kidney Pills. Before I used Foley Kidney Pills I had severe backaches and pains in my kidneys with suppression and a cloudy voiding. On arising in the morning I would get dull headaches. Now I have taken three bottles of Foley Kidney Pills and feel 100 per cent better. I am never bothered with my kidneys or bladder and again feel like my own self."

Doan's Kidney Pills cure the cause of disease, and that is why the cures are always lasting. This remedy strengthens and tones up the kidneys, helping them to drive out of the body the liquid poisons that cause backache, headache and distressing kidney and urinary complaints. Crockett people testify to permanent cures.

E. L. Simpson, of Crockett, Texas, says: "A few months ago my back became so lame and painful that I could not stand, and often had to go around with my hands pressed tightly against my loins. I was also annoyed by a frequent desire to pass the kidney secretions. When a friend advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills, I procured a box from I. W. Sweet's Drug Store and they helped me so much that I obtained a further supply. Since using the second box I am feeling like my former self. It gives me pleasure to endorse such a splendid remedy as Doan's Kidney Pills."

A Muckraking Campaign

We regret that the friends of Capt. G. R. Fowler have so far forgotten their duty as citizens as to drag slanders and falsehoods into the campaign for the purpose of electing their candidate and effecting the defeat of his opponent. We need not go into details to make you acquainted with these campaign slanders, but suffice it to say that we have faithfully inquired into both of them and found them wholly without foundation, and utterly untrue. We call attention to them merely for the purpose of letting you know that if you should hear of them that you have our word for it that they are false.

JUDGE TOWNSEND.

As supporters of Judge Townsend we have made a diligent inquiry into his character and standing in his home county. We find that he is an upright Christian gentleman. He is so regarded by his neighbors, and is without doubt the most popular and highly esteemed man in Angelina county. He has never been defeated for office when offering for one, and it is a common saying among his neighbors that he could easily win any office within the gift of the people of his county. This could not be true if there were any truth in the slanders that his political enemies, who are inspired by prejudice and disappointment, are hurling at him in the counties where he is not known and where people might be deceived.

CAPTAIN FOWLER.

What are the claims of Capt. Fowler for this office? He hails from Anderson county and that is almost equivalent to saying that he is an office seeker. If Anderson county is not satisfied with the political favors she is now receiving we would be glad to know just what would satisfy her. Anderson county men are filling the following offices: Governor, judge of Court of Civil Appeals, financial agent of penitentiaries, congressman, district judge and district attorney. The only other district office with which she is connected is the senatorial district and she is asking for the senatorship, too. Is she greedy, or is it possible that the other counties of the several districts have no men suitable for these offices? The strange part of it is that men are now supporting Fowler, who is from Anderson county, who have heretofore decried the fact that Anderson county wanted everything in sight.

WHAT THE MEN STAND FOR.

But the principal reason that we are for Judge Townsend is that he stands for principles and policies that commend themselves to us. He is an openly avowed prohibitionist. In his public speeches he declared that he was in favor of prohibition from a foot square to world wide. He is for prohibition in every form that it can be presented. He has always and uniformly voted for prohibition. But what can we say of his opponent? We have heard men claiming to be prohibitionists say that Fowler was a prohibitionist and that he was as good a prohibitionist as Townsend. This is not true. It is not true by the facts in the case. Fowler does not even claim to be a prohibitionist in the true sense of the word. In his speeches he tries to juggle with the question by saying that he does not know whether to call himself a pro or an anti. We never knew a true pro who was doubtful about such a question. A so-called pro who is at heart an anti may do so, but never a true pro. A true pro will always know what he is and will declare his position in such terms that there will be no room for doubt. But Fowler is an anti. When he says that he will vote against the prohibition amendment to the constitution if submitted he defines his position and that means that he is an anti. Anybody can be for submission now, for even Jake Wolters is for submission, and every saloon man in Texas claims to be for submission. That is no longer an issue. But the test is whether a man is for state-wide prohibition. Fowler is against it. He is also opposed to the quart law and other measures to regulate the saloons. If the amendment fails to carry it will be important to have a true friend of prohibition in the senate. The pros need every senator that they can get and then it will be doubtful if they will have enough. We cannot afford to have any but pros in our legislature and for a pro to support a known anti at this crisis is a betrayal of his highest duty to his country.

TOWNSEND CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE,

in the pursuit of happiness.

I would be glad to support such men as Hons. Hayne Nelms and John B. Peyton of Trinity county, Judge Madden and Judge Aldrich of Houston county, and Hon. J. J. Strickland and Judge Greenwood of Anderson county, but they are not in the race, and we must select from those in the race the man who represents the best morals, and the highest ideals of citizenship, and the man who stands for the open saloon can not represent the best morals or the highest ideals of citizenship. Respectfully, Geo. B. Terrell.

Townsend a Prohibitionist.

Jacksonville, Tex., Oct. 5, 1910.
To the Voters of Houston County:

I have known Judge W. J. Townsend Jr. from his boyhood. I have understood his attitude toward the liquor question to be that of a straight out prohibitionist, notwithstanding his residence in a county where a majority of the people held different views. I have during recent years often heard his attitude mentioned and have never heard his position on this issue brought into question until after his announcement for the state senate.

Fowler Was Not Negligent.

Advertisement.

The Herald has not taken an active part in the present senatorial race. Its friends know why. Yet it believes in fair play. Capt. Fowler served this county as its representative in the Texas legislature, and did good service. It is being told on him by some, in order to take votes from him, that he was negligent in his duties; that the Journal shows he was absent a great number of times on roll call. He may have been absent on roll call, but he was not negligent in the business for which he was sent to the legislature. This his friends will never believe, for Fowler was not that kind of man. He was an active member of the legislature, and served on some special committees; and the work of these committees absented him from the hall. He was busy; you can count on that, and was not wasting his time on pleasure, etc. Fowler is a man who practically takes no recreation, except to change from one kind of work to another, and he is a man of activity and energy. He will do what he considers is right, regardless of the consequences; and this is to be admired.

Fact is, the Herald claims this very privilege itself, and because it does not believe politically about some things as Fowler believes, and because it knows Fowler is a man who stands by his convictions, and will do what he considers is the right thing to do, and because some things he would under conviction do that the Herald does not stand for, the Herald is not active in presenting his candidacy, even though he is a home man and a friend of the Herald men. And Fowler knows this, and respects the Herald men for it.—Palestine Herald.

Keep the Record Straight and Vote for Townsend for Senator.

(Advertisement.)

In an issue of the Alto Herald, Sept. 23, and other weekly papers, appeared a statement from Adam Cone of Palestine, chairman of Capt. Fowler's campaign committee, in which he quotes from an advertisement appearing in the Herald, Sept. 15, the following language: "Vote for Townsend." "This senatorial district has been created for 18 years, during which time Cherokee county has had the senator 8 years, Anderson 4 years and Houston county 6 years. Angelina county has never had a senator."

Mr. Cone does not deny the truth of this statement, for it is absolutely correct, but in reply he uses the following language: "Anderson county was in the senatorial district with Angelina county for several years, during which time Anderson county never asked for the floater, always giving the benefit of her population to Angelina county, in order that that county might have a representative."

This is quite generous, if it were true, but the facts are that during the ten years spoken of Anderson county gave a majority of her votes to N. B. Barbee of Houston county for two terms, 4 years, and to Jas. I. Perkins of Cherokee for one term, or two years, making 6 years in all, and Angelina county only had the representative four years out of the ten. This is mentioned to keep the record straight.

Again Mr. Cone says: Capt. Fowler was an ardent supporter of Mr. Colquitt for Governor. He stands on the Democratic platform adopted by the late Galveston Convention, and would not be an impediment to the incoming administration. He is an enthusiastic supporter of Senator Bailey, and will vote for the Constitutional amendment for submission." Yes, he will vote for submission, but the anti's fought submission and defeated it in the last legislature, notwithstanding it was a Democratic platform demand, and they never declared they would vote for submission until two thirds of the Senatorial and representative districts in the State declared for it in the recent primary election, and now Col. Jake Wolters and the whole "shooting match" are for submission, provided they can't buy enough Senators and Representatives to defeat it again.

Mr. Cone commends Capt. Fowler because he is a supporter of Mr. Colquitt and Mr. Bailey, and will not "embarrass" the incoming administration. All democrats should stand upon the platform, and this should not "embarrass" the administration, or anybody else.

In addition to the support of the platform, we need men of ability, of integrity and of good morals, who have proven their faith by their works. Mr. Townsend fills the bill. He bears the Jeffersonian test, he is honest and he is competent. He is making an honest and fearless campaign, and is not trying to ride into office on anybody's coat tail. I know him intimately, I went to school with him, and I know he will do to trust. He made an able and faithful County Attorney, and a splendid County Judge. He voted for prohibition in all the local option contests in Angelina county, and any man who can live in Lufkin and vote for prohibition will do to trust as a prohibitionist, and we need him to assist in the passage of laws to control the evil influences of the saloon in case State wide prohibition should fail.

Angelina county has never had a Senator during the 18 years she has been in the District, and she is justly entitled to it, especially when she presents a man who is eminently qualified and thoroughly in sympathy with the great moral movement that is destined to control the government of this country.

I am nobody's campaign manager, and have no interest in this matter further than as a citizen, who desires to see the best men elected to office, and the best laws enacted for the suppression of crime, and for the upbuilding of our state, and for the protection of the citizen, in life, liberty and

Obituaries, resolutions, cards of thanks and other matter not "news" will be charged for at the rate of 5c per line.

Arthur Brisbane, who is said to draw a salary of $78,000 a year as an editorial writer, once in a while treats the advertising fraternity to his views about advertising. It is a healthy sign of the times when great editors give cognizance to what is going on in the advertising world. Recently, Mr. Brisbane printed a two column editorial on the value of the country paper to advertisers, which was well written, as is everything he writes.

The man that can't see that good roads leading to his home will advance the value of his property ten times more than the cost of them, to say nothing of the wear and tear on vehicles and the additional big loads that can be hauled over them, thereby saving your horses, not only has "moss" on his back, but it has been allowed to grow so long that it has grown over his head and fallen down and hid his sight. Brush it away and see for once and vote for the betterment of your county, her people and yourself on the 26th.—Big Springs Herald.

Saturday is special primary election day. A successor to Senator Stokes is to be nominated. This senatorial district is composed of five counties—Anderson, Cherokee, Angelina, Trinity and Houston. Two counties have each a candidate. Anderson county, now wanting further honors, has the governor, the congressman, a judge of the court of civil appeals, the district judge, the district attorney, the assistant superintendent of the penitentiaries and perhaps other state and district officers. During Senator Stokes' campaign for congress these facts were frequently used in the interest of Houston county's candidate. If it was then right that Houston county should have a division of the honors, it is now right that Angelina county should have a division and Angelina could not ask less of the district.

U. D. C.

Saturday, September 24th, was the occasion of one of the most pleasant meetings of the year when Mrs. Mary Douglass was hostess to the D. A. Nunn Chapter at Park Hill. It is always a treat to visit this lovely home, typically southern in architecture, and surrounded by giant old forest trees, the foliage of which now reflects the golden glory of autumn, mellowed by the sunshine of Indian summer.

The guests were greeted at the door by "meh lady" and escorted to the cool recesses of the parlor, where the chapter was called to order by Mrs. W. C. Lipscomb, who presided in the absence of the president, Mrs. Adams.

The following order of business was observed:

Invocation.

Reading of minutes of the last stated meeting by Mrs. Julia Barbee, secretary pro tem.

Report of the treasurer, also the report of $10.50, money received for "Book of Old Songs."

The following expressions of sympathy for members of our chapter and family, prepared by Mrs. Nunn in behalf of the chapter, were read by the secretary, who was instructed that a copy of same be spread upon the minutes:

Again sorrow has fallen upon members of the D. A. Nunn Chapter, and it becomes our duty to express to them our sincere sympathy in this, their great affliction, their bereavement and their sufferings.

To Mrs. Collins, Mrs. Stokes, Mrs. Cunyus, Miss Annie Stokes, and the fair young bride, Mrs. Collins Stokes, and other members of the family, our friends and honored Daughters of the Confederacy, who have been called upon to pass under the rod of their most crucial suffering, we ask to be permitted to give our love and sympathy, believing that the existence of love is the proof positive of Heaven, and that sympathy often helps to bind the broken heart; remembering that "the Lord loveth whom He chasteneth;" that He alone can give comfort to the bereaved; that He is ever a present help in the time of trouble, "the friend whose love and mercy endureth forever."

That their loved ones passing from this life to the eternal are connecting links between this brief human life and that immortality which is everlasting; that their loved ones are not dead, but have only gone before, to join the innumerable hosts of immortals that were not born to die, for—

"There is no death!
Ever near us, tho' unseen,
The dear, immortal spirits tread:
For all the boundless universe
Is life—there is no death."

To the regret of her many devoted friends Mrs. Nunn was unable to be in her accustomed place owing to her recent illness. A motion was made and carried that a letter expressing the love and sympathy of the chapter be sent Mrs. Nunn, and the secretary instructed to convey this message.

Several papers were read, including a character sketch of Gen. Hood read by Mrs. Gail King, also a sketch of Mrs. Goodlett, who organized the first chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy. An invitation was extended the chapter by Mrs. Jas. Langston for the next meeting, which was gratefully accepted, said meeting to take place October 29.

This concluded the business for the afternoon and the chapter was adjourned.

Delightful refreshments of brick cream and cake were served by the hostess, who was given a vote of thanks for her gracious hospitality by the departing guests.

One Negro Kills Another.

Word reached Crockett Saturday morning that a negro had shot and killed another negro about seven miles southeast of town Friday night. Constable R. J. Spence and Deputy Joe Lacy went to the scene of the reported killing Saturday and learned that Green Burton had shot and killed Nelson Hathorne. Failing to find Green Burton in the community they returned to Crockett and found him in town, having come in and given himself up, claiming self-defense. He is now in jail. The Courier is informed that the negroes had fallen out over the use of a horse and the killing was the result. We have also heard that they had had previous trouble. Both negroes were about 35 years of age and had families.

Attracted Much Attention.

Jones Brothers' Buffalo Ranch Wild West Advertising Car No. 1, a seventy-foot Pullman style palace on wheels, attracted much attention at the depot recently. It is conceded to be the most perfectly equipped advertising car in the business, and is under the management of J. W. Campbell, a manager of exceptional ability with whom it is a pleasure to do business. The car laid over for a day here, while the crew, an unusually strong one of thirty men, billed the city, country and surrounding towns in the vicinity. From reports this crew has broken all records this season for excellent and rapid work all along the line; a credit to the big show, now by the way, from reports, one of the biggest and best on the road.

McLean's Drug Store.

It is none of our business who a certain element of prohibitionists (?) in Houston county support for state senate, but we cannot refrain from saying that it does look strange to us that men who have always posed as true-blue prohibitionists should at this critical hour desert the cause and go over to the enemy. Many things have been said to justify their position, even going so far as to grossly misrepresent Judge Townsend's position on the whiskey question. But their contention that Judge Townsend is a local optionist will not hold water! He declared in his speech here Saturday—and we understand he said the same thing at Crockett—to be a full-fledged pro of the statewide variety. In view of these things it seems to us that the prohibitionists of Houston county should take warning and be on their guard, and be careful in the selection of men to lead their cause.—Grapeland Messenger.

Go By the Name.

The way to buy paint is to go by the name. There is a name never seen on sham paint or weak paint or short-measure paint: Devoe.

There are a hundred different names in paint. Some are sham; some weak; some short-measure; and some all three.

If there is another such paint as Devoe lead-and-zinc, we don't know it. There are a few fairly good paints; a few; only one Devoe. A gallon Devoe is worth a gallon-and-a-half of those few.

Mr. Aaron Higgins, of Plainfield, N. J., always used 15 gallons of mixed paint for his house. Last spring he bought 15 gallons of Devoe and had 4 gallons left. The Murchison-Beasley Drug Co. 22

A GOOD SHOW IS HERE

Jones Brothers Buffalo Ranch Gives Excellent Parade and Creates Good Impression.

From the Portsmouth Times.

Jones Brothers Buffalo Ranch favored Portsmouth today with a visit. This is the first time this show has ever been in the East and the impression created was most favorable. The show paraphernalia is all new and clean and the employes are uniformly courteous and obliging. In this connection it may also be in order to add that the absence of all gambling devices from in and around the grounds is a feature worthy of note.

The parade this morning was a very attractive one and the spectators were one and all pleased with the Indians, Cowboys, Cowgirls, Mexicans and other representatives of various races. The clowns also came in for their share of attention.

The opening performance of the day was in the annex and this was above the average. Wolfscale's minstrels and the girl who Floats in the Air being the big features.

The big show doors on the opening were greeted with a crowd of townfolk who sat for over two hours laughing and applauding. The performance is a varied one composed of only the best Wild West acts and one or two high-class circus features.

The fancy roping, bronco busting, steer riding and roping, and reproductions of Western scenes were all well done and took well.

A feature of the performance is the exhibition of the Royal Tokio Japanese troupe. This is the largest group of japs in the world, and the best. Their feats are simply wonderful. They must be seen to be appreciated.

The doors will open this evening at 7 o'clock, and the performance will start one hour later.

Coming to Crockett, Monday, Oct. 10.

Applauds Judge Kittrell.

Judge Norman G. Kittrell of Houston has started a reform that ought to meet with the approval of district judges and court officers everywhere, and that is, he will not permit pistols to be worn in the court room, even by policemen and deputies, unless a very dangerous case is being tried. Yesterday he warned a policeman who was in court with a big pistol strapped around him that, unless the pistol was removed, he would have him sent to jail, as he did not propose to have his court room converted into an arsenal.

All honor to Judge Kittrell for his stand. Nothing is more disgusting than to see officers strutting around in the court room and among the people with guns strapped around them that almost drag to the ground, and it should not be permitted. One of the best city marshals Orange ever had never wore a pistol except when on a dangerous mission, and always said he didn't require a gun to handle the majority of the arrests, and when he did need one he had it handy where it could be found; but he didn't wear it strapped around him all the time. —Orange Leader.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure the cause of disease, and that is why the cures are always lasting. This remedy strengthens and tones up the kidneys, helping them to drive out of the body the liquid poisons that cause backache, headache and distressing kidney and urinary complaints. Crockett people testify to permanent cures.

E. L. Simpson, of Crockett, Texas, says: "A few months ago my back became so lame and painful that I could not stand, and often had to go around with my hands pressed tightly against my joints. I was also annoyed by a frequent desire to pass the kidney secretions. When a friend advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills, I procured a box from I. W. Sweet's Drug Store and they helped me so much that I obtained a further supply. Since using the second box I am feeling like my former self. It gives me pleasure to endorse such a splendid remedy as Doan's Kidney Pills."
