KEEPING COWS PLAIN DUTY OF EVERY FARMER

By J. L. Thomas, Dairy Specialist Extension Service A. and M. College of Texas.

In this day of diversified farming and better living conditions on farms, a farmer, whether farm owner or tenant, is not doing his full duty toward his family, his community and the nation, if he fails to keep enough dairy cows to supply all the milk, butter and cottage cheese his family can consume.

Do you know that where milk and its products are used extensively, there is little need or desire for meat? That dairy products are the most healthful foods that can be used and at the same time the most economical.

The dairy cow will produce more pounds of digestible human food per hundred pounds of feed consumed than any other animal on the farm.

Babies must have milk to live; older children must have milk or they do not develop normally. Children that do not have milk in their diet are in most cases under weight and the adult will have better health if a liberal amount of milk is consumed than if not.

An otherwise very meager and tasteless meal can be completely rounded out and made both appetizing and satisfying by the use of dairy products.

Milk and butter should form a part of every meal. Other fats cannot take the place of butter.

There are over a hundred receipts for combining milk and its products with other foods, to make them more palatable and nourishing.

For health, economy and appetizing meals, every farm should have sufficient cows to supply dairy products without stint for all members of the family.

After the needs of the home are supplied, it is always found profitable to have butter or cream for market. This gives a weekly cash income to take care of the current expenses.

When butter is made or cream is sold, the by-products (skim milk) becomes available for use in the feeding of such livestock as pigs, chickens. When these are both found along with the cow, the farm operations will be found to be nicely balanced and many of these people have money in the bank.

LOOK AT "THE FACE AT YOUR WINDOW"

It is with great pleasure the announcement can now be made of the appearance of that great picture, "The Face at Your Window," at the Baker Theater in Crockett on Wednesday, June 29, matinee and night.

It should be the pleasure as well as the duty of every one to see this great American picture. It will probably suffice to say that the American government has been instrumental in the production of this picture in which the American Legion plays the principal role. But aside from that it depicts and portrays the sinister influences and propaganda being constantly used for the overthrow of the institutions, ideals and even morals of a free people.

Out of the darkness and confusion you will see the mighty and irresistible force which will eventually banish "The Face at Your Window." I earnestly urge a full house at each performance.

This is a very expensive picture which the Baker Theater has been induced to exhibit to our citizens for their enlightenment, courage and pleasure, and I hope the fifty-cent price of admission will keep none away. The price is necessary by reason of the cost of the great production.

To those of you who understand I am sure the above simple announcement is sufficient, but I hope you will induce others to come to learn a lesson of "100 per cent Americanism" in this great school.

Yours for "Americanism" always, and a government of the people, for the people and by the people,
J. W. Young.

FORT WORTH PIKE SCENE OF FATALITY

One Killed, Two Seriously Hurt, When Speeding Car Overturns.

Dallas, Texas, June 16.—"Death's curve" on the Fort Worth pike, between Grand Prairie & Arlington, claimed another victim at midnight Wednesday when a big touring car overturned, killing one man and injuring four other persons, two of them seriously.

Baker V. Wiley of Wichita Falls, a salesman, was almost instantly killed. The injured are: Mrs. Loraine Craine, 18 years old, living at Atlanta, Tex., internal injuries; Mrs. Ada Rolaster, 36 years old, 3005 Gaston avenue, severe bruises on face and arms; T. H. Lively, 35 years old, Whiteright merchant, internal injuries; Will V. Bennet, Dallas chauffeur, severe injuries on face and neck.

Bennet, the chauffeur, was charged today with negligent homicide in connection with the death of Wiley. The car was going at an unlawful rate of speed, according to the complaint filed in Justice of the Peace S. J. Barnett's court. Sheriff Dan Harston has in his possession a half empty bottle of corn whiskey which officers picked up at the scene of the wreck. County Motorcycle Officer Jack Shankles was among those who pulled Wiley's body from the wreckage.

Both Wiley and Lively are well known in Crockett, Wiley having made Crockett regularly as a travelling salesman and Lively having conducted the Steinlein-Lively Dry Goods Company in Crockett.

Oil Well News.

Crowds go out daily from Crockett to witness the drilling of the well being put down by the Aurora Oil Company. Good progress is being made and the drillers are said to be the best that could be found. The work is very interesting to those who go out for sight-seeing. It is expected that four months will be required in completing the well.

In order that Aurora Oil Company may not be confused with some of the other companies prospecting around Crockett, the personnel of some of the company is herewith given as follows: L. A. Townsend, Frank H. Riddle and James T. O'Hara are the trustees. Eric Winters of Chicago is the general attorney for the company while the local attorney is Earle Adams Jr. of Crockett. Myron R. Schmah of Aurora is one of the company's largest investors.

James T. O'Hara is the drilling contractor.

GOVERNOR CALLS SPECIAL SESSION TO MEET JULY 18

Appropriations for Government and State Institutions to Be Made.

Austin, Texas, June 17.—Governor Neff issued the call late Friday for the special session of the Thirty-seventh legislature to convene in Austin at 9 o'clock Monday, July 18. The governor had formerly announced that he would call it for July 11, but after a conference Friday with certain department heads he issued the call for July 18.

In his proclamation he gave seven reasons for convening the legislature in special session, and the bills that he would submit, which are as follows:

First, to make appropriation, within the available revenue, for the support and maintenance of the State government and State institutions.

Second, to provide additional revenue and make appropriation out of same for the better support of the free schools of the State.

Redistricting of State.

Third, to enact legislation providing for the repeal of the suspended sentence law, and amending the State prohibition law so as to make same more effective and easier of enforcement.

Fourth, to provide an effective law for the removal of officers who wilfully and corruptly refuse to perform their official duties in the enforcement of the law.

Fifth, to provide for the consolidating of overlapping departments and the abolishment of useless offices and positions, for the purpose of securing to the people of Texas a more efficient and economical administration of the government.

Sixth, to redistrict the State into senatorial and representative districts, as provided by the constitution and as recommended by our party platform.

Seventh, to consider and act upon such other matters of vital importance as may be presented by the governor, pursuant to section 40, article 3, of the constitution of Texas.

The third and fourth named reasons constitute the governor's "law enforcement program." The amendment to the Dean prohibition law, included with the suspended sentence repeal bill, is the measure which caused the break between the governor and the legislature at the regular session, the house resenting his criticism given to the press, condemning their action for killing the bill.

The fourth named item is the Johnson enforcement bill, giving the governor more power to remove officers in Texas. It is also a part of his program. The second item is the rural school aid bill, which he vetoed after the regular session had appropriated $4,000,000 for that purpose.

Advertising a Sale

☞ You don't leave your rig in the middle of the road and go to a fence-post to read a sale bill do you? Then don't expect the other fellow to do it.

☞ Put an ad in this paper, then, regardless of the weather, the fellow you want to reach reads your announcements while seated at his fireside.

☞ If he is a prospective buyer you'll have him at your sale. One extra buyer often pays the entire expense of the ad, and it's a poor ad that won't pull that buyer.

☞ An ad in this paper reaches the people you are after. Bills may be a necessity, but the ad is the thing that does the business.

☞ Don't think of having a special sale without using advertising space in this paper.

Nineteenth Cutting.

While the negroes were celebrating June 19 with a baseball game at Crockett Monday afternoon, Burlee Clark was cut with a pocket knife in the hands of Harry Cherry, another negro. Cherry, who is married, accused Clark of interfering in his domestic affairs, which Clark resented, when it is said that Cherry used the knife. Cherry made bond in Justice of the Peace Callier's court.

County Quarantined.

On account of failure to dip cattle according to government regulations, Houston County is now under quarantine and no cattle can be shipped from the county. As to what action will be necessary to get the quarantine raised the Courier has no information, but it will have to be raised before cattle may be sold for shipping. On inquiry of County Judge Patton by the Courier editor, the editor was informed that the county's finances had not justified the expense of dipping the cattle and for that reason the dipping had been discontinued. He further stated that if all the cattle in the county were rendered for taxation, the county would be financially able to carry on the tick eradication work. As to what action would now be taken looking to the lifting of the quarantine, he was unable to state and did not know what further steps, if any, the government would take, or what the requirements would be.

For Lower Prices.

In keeping with the times and believing that it is unjust to make a profit of 25 per cent on a commodity such as gasoline, and so it cannot be said that Crockett is the only town in Texas that does so, I did on June 10th cut the price of gasoline to 18 cents per gallon, or 2 cents per gallon profit.

From the way my business has increased it is needless to say that the public appreciate the cut.

It has been charged that I give short measure. This only goes to prove that old "high price" is dying hard.

My measure has stood and will stand the government test, and I certainly would not lay myself liable to prosecution (which you may rest assured would be done) if I attempted to steal in such a manner.

We have free air and water and it will only be a pleasure to serve you at any time. Yours for pre-war prices. 1t.

TO THE WAYWARD.

We can see our mistakes after it is too late to correct, the injury they have done. It is a wise man who avoids them, and blessed is he. During the fat times few of us escaped the awful debauch of extravagance. Here is an example which actually occurred, and there are thousands like it. A young man accumulated from the sale of his cotton sufficient money to purchase a farm. His friends begged him to take advantage of his good luck and invest his cash in a home. He took the money, contrary to this advice, went to Dallas, bought a fine automobile and for a while kept the road between that place and Shreveport hot, at forty miles an hour. Finally he wrecked it, and by that time he had spent what he had over the price of the car. So the wreck left him carless and penniless. He is now out of employment, and as poor as a church mouse. The history of the extravagance that ran riot here for a few years would contain thousands of cases as foolish as the one above related. It was useless and high priced clothes, useless and high priced everything that was offered for sale. Men actually hauled logs arrayed in $12 silk shirts, $15 hats, $20 shoes and other articles proportionately high. It was constant buying of useless things that caused many persons to fall into total and irretrievable bankruptcy. It is now too late to help the unfortunate spendthrifts, but their examples should be an abiding warning to all young people to steer clear of extravagance, regardless of the times, and the plentifulness of money, because it is foolish to spend lavishly and those who do it will sooner or later come to want, and often disgrace. "As you sow so shall you reap." If there is anything truer than that, it is not in the books.

A religion that does no one any good except the individual who happens to have it is the kind the devil likes.

THE U. S. USCO TREAD

Here is the U. S. Usco Tread, with a long-established standard of service among motorists who have an eye to value, as well as to price. While selling for less than the other tires in the U. S. Fabric line, the Usco has earned a reputation for quality and dependable economy which is not exceeded by any tire in its class.

Which one of your neighbors gets the best mileage out of his tires?

EVERY once in a while you hear a motorist say as he kicks a rear tire with an admiring foot, "there's a lucky tire!" Give him a chance and he'll tell you all about it. And then you'll find that what he calls "luck" is simply his first experience with a quality standard tire.

It all comes to this—buy a U. S. Tire anywhere in this country and you get definite, predictable value for your money no matter what weight car you drive.

The man who has been guessing his way through "overstocks," "discontinued lines," "job lots" and the like, will find it refreshing to talk with the local U. S. Tire dealer who is concentrating on a full, completely sized line of U. S. Tires.

For the first time he will hear some straight quality tire facts—and get the difference between chance and certainty in tire buying.

The U. S. Tires he sees in stock are fresh, live tires. They come direct to the dealer from his neighboring Factory Branch.

There are 92 of these Branches established and maintained by the U. S. Tire makers.

OPEN WARFARE IS STARTED ON ACTS OF ADMINISTRATION

Republicans Have Failed to Keep Promises, Is Democrat Charges.

Washington, June 14.—Senate democrats discarded their policy of "watchful waiting" and declared war on the republican administration Tuesday. They began hostilities at once with a broadside led by Chief Gunner Pat Harrison of Mississippi, supported by half a dozen of his colleagues, in which they assailed everything the Harding administration had done so far and scolded it for many things it hasn't done.

Following closely upon the visit of George White, democratic chairman, the democratic outburst Tuesday may be regarded as a clear forecast for other warfare. The tendency among the democrats to "give Harding a chance" is to be abandoned; the post-inaugural truce is over and administration acts are to receive partisan criticism with a view to clearing the decks for the congressional campaign of next year.

Republicans Silent.

Republican senators smiled good naturedly at the democratic attacks and refrained from retort. Their policy for a time at least will be to engage in a "conspiracy of silence," ignoring the democratic shafts while they proceed with the program of legislation which they believe will win them the support of the country in the 1922 election.

Senator Harrison taunted the republicans particularly for their failure to bring the country to a state of peace.

"I am wondering," he said, "what the senator from Massachusetts, Mr. Lodge, and the senator from Pennsylvania, Mr. Knox, now think of their baby. It was demolished over in the house. The house has offered an insult to you republican senators. Yet, if reports are true, they had the co-operation of the president. I am wondering what you will do with the resolution when it comes back here.

"In view of the magic power of the president to change the sentiment of distinguished republican senators on the Columbian treaty, does not the senator from Massachusetts believe that when this new peace resolution comes to the senate, republican senators will accept it?" inquired Senator Wolcott of Delaware.

"Oh, I have no doubt that we will witness another strange acrobatic performance," answered Senator Harrison. He proceeded then to berate the administration for opposing disarmament proposals.

"It was no secret that the president was opposed to any resolution touching the disarmament question," said Senator Harrison. "The president, from his actions, has no sympathy with the movement for disarmament in this country."

Senator Harrison found fault with the republican failure to solve the railroad problem, while Senator Wolcott remarked on the continued delay in revising the tariff.

"Don't worry," said Senator Harrison "the best minds will get together."

Senator Gerry of Rhode Island criticized the delay in revising taxes and called attention to remark attributed to Senator Smoot of Utah, one of the republican leaders, to the effect that taxes might be increased instead of decreased.

Pretty Home Wedding.

An event of much interest was the marriage of Mrs. Ada Shupak to Mr. Joseph Riser of Dallas, which occurred at eight thirty o'clock last Saturday eve, June the fourth, at the pretty two-story brick home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hobson, Mr. and Mrs. Hobson and Mrs. Shupak having been born and reared in the same town. There were about seventy-five guests from Dallas and a like number from Fort Worth present when Rev. F. L. Meadow of Sagamore Hill Methodist church performed the ring ceremony. The beautiful new home of Mr. and Mrs. Hobson was a bower of loveliness. The spacious library, hall and dining room were artistically decorated in evergreens, while cut glass vases, filled with roses and sweet peas, were placed throughout the house. An improvised altar of ferns and potted plants were arranged between the colonades that separate the library and dining room. Miss Ruth Tackaberry, accompanied on the piano by Miss Myrtle Bennett, sang "I Love You Truly." Miss King, accompanied by Miss Gregory on the violin, played the wedding march. The first to enter were the two little flower girls, Emilee Riser and Christine Shupak, dressed in white organdy and carrying baskets filled with pink sweet peas, and took their places on each side of the altar. Then came the bride and groom. The bride was never more lovely than on this occasion. She wore a beautiful light blue taffeta and georgette crepe and carried an arm bouquet of bride's roses and sweet peas, tied with a large pink malene bow. After the ceremony Mrs. Hobson, in her own charming manner served the guests with pink and white brick cream and cake. Delicious punch was served throughout the evening, presided over by Miss May Whitley. Mrs. Hobson was ably assisted by Mr. Hobson, Miss Whitley, Miss Eula Fuller, Miss Tackaberry, Ritts, Master Nolan Hobson and Frank Mead-

Theford's Black-Draught Highly Recommended by a Tennessee Grocer for Troubles Resulting from Torpid Liver.

East Nashville, Tenn.—The efficiency of Theford's Black-Draught, the genuine, herb, liver medicine, is vouched for by Mr. W. N. Parsons, a grocer of this city. "It is without doubt the best liver medicine, and I don't believe I could get along without it. I take it for sour stomach, headache, bad liver, indigestion, and all other troubles that are the result of a torpid liver."

"I have known and used it for years, and can and do highly recommend it to every one. I won't go to bed without it in the house. It will do all it claims to do. I can't say enough for it."

ow in entertaining the guests. The bride comes from one of the oldest and most highly esteemed families of Houston county, while the groom is a prominent business man of Dallas, being president of the wholesale credit men's association and vice-president of Boren-Stewart Company of that city. Mrs. Shupak has been officially connected with the affairs of the county for the past three years, serving as deputy county clerk and working in the courts from time to time. Many are the friends that congratulate the groom in winning such a prize. Mr. and Mrs. Riser left on the seven-forty-five Monday morning for a trip through Colorado and California. They expect to be gone about six weeks, after which time they will be at home in Dallas. Many handsome gifts of cut glass, silverware, hand-painted china, etc., were received, attesting the popularity of the bride and groom.

What the Former A. & M. President Writes in the Rusk County News.

TO THE WAYWARD.

We can see our mistakes after it is too late to correct, the injury they have done. It is a wise man who avoids them, and blessed is he. During the fat times few of us escaped the awful debauch of extravagance. Here is an example which actually occurred, and there are thousands like it. A young man accumulated from the sale of his cotton sufficient money to purchase a farm. His friends begged him to take advantage of his good luck and invest his cash in a home. He took the money, contrary to this advice, went to Dallas, bought a fine automobile and for a while kept the road between that place and Shreveport hot, at forty miles an hour. Finally he wrecked it, and by that time he had spent what he had over the price of the car. So the wreck left him carless and penniless. He is now out of employment, and as poor as a church mouse. The history of the extravagance that ran riot here for a few years would contain thousands of cases as foolish as the one above related. It was useless and high priced clothes, useless and high priced everything that was offered for sale. Men actually hauled logs arrayed in $12 silk shirts, $15 hats, $20 shoes and other articles proportionately high. It was constant buying of useless things that caused many persons to fall into total and irretrievable bankruptcy. It is now too late to help the unfortunate spendthrifts, but their examples should be an abiding warning to all young people to steer clear of extravagance, regardless of the times, and the plentifulness of money, because it is foolish to spend lavishly and those who do it will sooner or later come to want, and often disgrace. "As you sow so shall you reap." If there is anything truer than that, it is not in the books.

A religion that does no one any good except the individual who happens to have it is the kind the devil likes.

THE U. S. USCO TREAD

Here is the U. S. Usco Tread, with a long-established standard of service among motorists who have an eye to value, as well as to price. While selling for less than the other tires in the U. S. Fabric line, the Usco has earned a reputation for quality and dependable economy which is not exceeded by any tire in its class.

Which one of your neighbors gets the best mileage out of his tires?

EVERY once in a while you hear a motorist say as he kicks a rear tire with an admiring foot, "there's a lucky tire!" Give him a chance and he'll tell you all about it. And then you'll find that what he calls "luck" is simply his first experience with a quality standard tire.

It all comes to this—buy a U. S. Tire anywhere in this country and you get definite, predictable value for your money no matter what weight car you drive.

The man who has been guessing his way through "overstocks," "discontinued lines," "job lots" and the like, will find it refreshing to talk with the local U. S. Tire dealer who is concentrating on a full, completely sized line of U. S. Tires.

For the first time he will hear some straight quality tire facts—and get the difference between chance and certainty in tire buying.

The U. S. Tires he sees in stock are fresh, live tires. They come direct to the dealer from his neighboring Factory Branch.

There are 92 of these Branches established and maintained by the U. S. Tire makers.

Giving your dealer a continuous moving stock of new, fresh tires built on the certainty of quality first every time

OPEN WARFARE IS STARTED ON ACTS OF ADMINISTRATION

Republicans Have Failed to Keep Promises, Is Democrat Charges.

Washington, June 14.—Senate democrats discarded their policy of "watchful waiting" and declared war on the republican administration Tuesday. They began hostilities at once with a broadside led by Chief Gunner Pat Harrison of Mississippi, supported by half a dozen of his colleagues, in which they assailed everything the Harding administration had done so far and scolded it for many things it hasn't done.

Following closely upon the visit of George White, democratic chairman, the democratic outburst Tuesday may be regarded as a clear forecast for other warfare. The tendency among the democrats to "give Harding a chance" is to be abandoned; the post-inaugural truce is over and administration acts are to receive partisan criticism with a view to clearing the decks for the congressional campaign of next year.

Republicans Silent.

Republican senators smiled good naturedly at the democratic attacks and refrained from retort. Their policy for a time at least will be to engage in a "conspiracy of silence," ignoring the democratic shafts while they proceed with the program of legislation which they believe will win them the support of the country in the 1922 election.

Senator Harrison taunted the republicans particularly for their failure to bring the country to a state of peace.

"I am wondering," he said, "what the senator from Massachusetts, Mr. Lodge, and the senator from Pennsylvania, Mr. Knox, now think of their baby. It was demolished over in the house. The house has offered an insult to you republican senators. Yet, if reports are true, they had the co-operation of the president. I am wondering what you will

SOUR STOMACH INDIGESTION

Thedford's Black-Draught Highly Recommended by a Tennessee Grocer for Troubles Resulting from Torpid Liver.

East Nashville, Tenn.—The efficiency of Thedford's Black-Draught, the genuine, herb, liver medicine, is vouched for by Mr. W. N. Parsons, a grocer of this city. "It is without doubt the best liver medicine, and I don't believe I could get along without it. I take it for sour stomach, headache, bad liver, indigestion, and all other troubles that are the result of a torpid liver."

"I have known and used it for years, and can and do highly recommend it to every one. I won't go to bed without it in the house. It will do all it claims to do. I can't say enough for it."

Many other men and women throughout the country have found Black-Draught just as Mr. Parsons describes—valuable in regulating the liver to its normal functions, and in cleansing the bowels of impurities.

Thedford's Black-Draught liver medicine is the original and only genuine. Accept no imitations or substitutes. Always ask for Thedford's.

do with the resolution when it comes back here.

"In view of the magic power of the president to change the sentiment of distinguished republican senators on the Columbian treaty, does not the senator from Massachusetts believe that when this new peace resolution comes to the senate, republican senators will accept it?" inquired Senator Wolcott of Delaware.

"Oh, I have no doubt that we will witness another strange acrobatic performance," answered Senator Harrison. He proceeded then to berate the administration for opposing disarmament proposals.

"It was no secret that the president was opposed to any resolution touching the disarmament question," said Senator Harrison. "The president, from his actions, has no sympathy with the movement for disarmament in this country."

Senator Harrison found fault with the republican failure to solve the railroad problem, while Senator Wolcott remarked on the continued delay in revising the tariff.

"Don't worry," said Senator Harrison "the best minds will get together."

Senator Gerry of Rhode Island criticized the delay in revising taxes and called attention to remark attributed to Senator Smoot of Utah, one of the republican leaders, to the effect that taxes might be increased instead of decreased.

Pretty Home Wedding.

An event of much interest was the marriage of Mrs. Ada Shupak to Mr. Joseph Riser of Dallas, which occurred at eight thirty o'clock last Saturday eve, June the fourth, at the pretty two-story brick home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hobson, Mr. and Mrs. Hobson and Mrs. Shupak having been born and reared in the same town. There were about seventy-five guests from Dallas and a like number from Fort Worth present when Rev. F. L. Meadow of Sagamore Hill Methodist church performed the ring ceremony. The beautiful new home of Mr. and Mrs. Hobson was a bower of loveliness. The spacious library, hall and dining room were artistically decorated in evergreens, while cut glass vases, filled with roses and sweet peas, were placed throughout the house. An improvised altar of ferns and potted plants were arranged between the colonades that separate the library and dining room. Miss Ruth Tackaberry, accompanied on the piano by Miss Myrtle Bennett, sang "I Love You Truly." Miss King, accompanied by Miss Gregory on the violin, played the wedding march. The first to enter were the two little flower girls, Emilee Riser and Christine Shupak, dressed in white organdy and carrying baskets filled with pink sweet peas, and took their places on each side of the altar. Then came the bride and groom. The bride was never more lovely than on this occasion. She wore a beautiful light blue taffeta and georgette crepe and carried an arm bouquet of bride's roses and sweet peas, tied with a large pink malene bow. After the ceremony Mrs. Hobson, in her own charming manner served the guests with pink and white brick cream and cake. Delicious punch was served throughout the evening, presided over by Miss May Whitley. Mrs. Hobson was ably assisted by Mr. Hobson, Miss Whitley, Miss Eula Fuller, Miss Tackaberry, Ritts, Master Nolan Hobson and Frank Meadow in entertaining the guests. The bride comes from one of the oldest and most highly esteemed families of Houston county, while the groom is a prominent business man of Dallas, being president of the wholesale credit men's association and vice-president of Boren-Stewart Company of that city. PORTER RESOLUTION PASSES HOUSE BY VOTE OF 305 TO 61

Democrats Unable to Recommit
Bill Join G. O. P.
Majority.

Washington, June 13.—By the overwhelming vote of 305 to 61, the house Monday passed the Porter resolution declaring the war with Germany and Austria terminated.

The democratic opposition went to pieces in spectacular manner, 49 democrats joining the republican majority on the final roll call. The negative votes were cast by 60 democrats and Representative Kelly of Michigan, republican.

How long it will be before peace is formally declared remains to be seen. A conference committee will endeavor to harmonize the differing resolution of the two houses, the senate having provided for the repeal of the declaration of war, while the house proposes merely to declare the war terminated. The house objected that the senate resolution would repudiate the declaration of war.

If a deadlock should develop in the conference committee the declaration of peace would be delayed and it might become necessary for President Harding to effect a compromise. The president has been in no hurry up to date, however, to obtain a declaration of peace and the house leaders have furthered his purposes. The senate leaders have been chafing at the delay but will now find they can obtain speedy action only by yielding and accepting the house resolution.

When peace is formally declared the question of a treaty with Germany settling war accounts and providing for future amicable relations will come to the fore. Whether this shall be done in a separate treaty with Germany or through ratification of the Versailles treaty with reservations is a matter of policy to be determined by the president. While the president has definitely scrapped American participation in the league of nations, he has indicated in his first message to congress that he regards other parts of the treaty with reservations as affording the most feasible basis for a peace settlement. The irreconcilable senators strongly opposed any ratification of the treaty and even Majority Leader Lodge recently pronounced such action impossible.

Mr. A. M. Rencher Is With the Dead.

Mr. A. M. Rencher died at his home in this city last Saturday afternoon, June 11, 1921, after an illness of several week's duration. In fact he had been in poor health for several years.

His remains were laid to rest in the City Cemetery Sunday afternoon, funeral services being conducted by his pastor, Rev. B. C. Anderson, pastor of the Methodist church. At the grave Col. N. B. Barbee of Crockett, and Mr. J. J. Brooks of this city delivered talks, on the life of deceased, all being ex-confederate soldiers, and up until June 3 last Mr. Rencher was Adjutant of the Houston County Camp of Confederate Veterans. A large number of veterans attended the funeral.

Mr. Rencher was born in Green county, Alabama, March 5, 1845. He was therefore 76 years, 3 months and 6 days old. He came to Texas in 1880, living in Texas and Houston county 41 years. Most of this time he lived near Crockett, but three years ago he removed to Grapeland to make his home.

Deceased is survived by his wife and four children. His children are Mrs. J. E. Lipscomb of Easterly; G. J. Rencher of Columbus, Miss.; Mrs. Roy Brewton of this city, and A. M. Rencher Jr., of Houston, all of whom attended the funeral except the son in Mississippi, who was ill and could not get here.

UNIVERSAL COTTON STANDARD URGED BY U. S. DELEGATE

Uniform Method Would Tend to Highest Ethics, Says
W. R. Meadows.

Liverpool, June 14.—Adoption of uniform classification of cotton for the world was urged Tuesday before the world's cotton conference by W. R. Meadows, a delegate from the United States department of agriculture.

"Universal standards would not only simplify methods of handling cotton, but would tend to higher standards of ethics in the cotton business," said Mr. Meadows. "Knowing definitely what is expected of him, a shipper would be more likely to make serious effort to meet his obligations on shipments by supplying the grade and staple stipulated in the contract.

"A most important advantage of universal standards would be the reduced number of arbitrations that are necessarily held in the cotton business each season.

"Trading on the future exchanges in both Europe and America would be more nearly on the same basis, future quotations would be more readily comparable, and better hedging facilities would result when material discrepancies exist in the terms of the future contracts."

Difficulties In Way.

J. H. Ziegler of Liverpool said that a uniform set of standards for the world was desirable, but that there were difficulties attending the adoption of such standards which perhaps have not presented themselves. The merit of the Liverpool standards was that they were time honored, he declared, and he did not believe they had ever been altered. Liverpool was a port where all kinds of cotton was concentrated, he declared, and hence Liverpool was a port second to none. He said, he would be extremely loath to see any change made in the Liverpool standards which had stood the test of time.

E. F. Busby, Liverpool man, said that any alteration in the standards would mean the destruction of all decisions that had been obtained in the past. E. B. Orme, also of Liverpool, held that the conference should accept the Liverpool standards, market the American and Liverpool standards, come absolutely together and fix the resulting standards as those of the world. It was decided by the conference to refer the matter to a committee.

A paper on "Financing Cotton for European Use" by M. Booth of the Guaranty Trust company of New York was read. The paper advocated a credit scheme, mentioning the Leer-Meulen system and the American "hedge" law. It was, the paper said, going to require an extended investment in all business so that not only the cotton business but the economic structure of the world would be rehabilitated.

After the reading of the paper, Sir James Hope-Simpson of the Bankers' institute, referring to the Leer-Meulen system, said public opinion of every kind must be given that system if it was to be operated. He declared it would have to be supported not only through the banks but through the league of nations.

NOTICE OF TRUSTEE'S SALE.

THE STATE OF TEXAS,
County of Houston.

Whereas, on the 19th day of April, A. D. 1919, Arthur E. Owens executed a certain deed of trust to Andrew Kingkade, Trustee, which is recorded in Book 16 page 361 of the Deed of Trust Records for Houston County, Texas, for the purpose of securing the payment of one certain promissory note for the sum of $100.00, more fully described in said deed of trust, executed by the said Arthur E. Owens payable to the order of the Oklahoma Farm Mortgage Company at its office, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, due on the 1st day of January, 1921, bearing interest at the rate of ten per cent after maturity, payable annually, interest to become as principal when due and bear the same rate of interest, and also providing for the payment of an attorney's fee of Fifty Dollars if placed in the hands of an attorney for collection, said deed of trust being upon the real estate hereinafter described; and

Whereas, the said Oklahoma Farm Mortgage Company, a private corporation, is the holder and owner of said note and the said Arthur E. Owens has made default in the payment of said note which was due on the 1st day of January, 1921, and the same is now due and unpaid, principal, interest and attorney's fees now aggregating the sum of one hundred, fifty four and 20-100 dollars, and

Whereas, the said Andrew Kingkade has in writing resigned the said Trusteeship and has refused to execute said trust; and

Whereas, the said Oklahoma Farm Mortgage Company did on June the 1st, 1921, in writing appoint A. A. Aldrich, of Crockett, Houston County, Texas, substitute trustee as provided in said deed of trust and the said A. A. Aldrich has accepted said appointment; and

Whereas, the undersigned A. A. Aldrich has been requested by the said Oklahoma Farm Mortgage Company to execute said trust, I, the said A. A. Aldrich, will offer for sale between the hours of 10 o'clock a. m. and 4 o'clock p. m., at public auction, to the highest bidder, on the first Tuesday in July, A. D. 1921, the same being the 5th day of July, A. D. 1921, at the court house door in Crockett, Houston County, Texas, the following described property, to-wit: 106 3-10 acres of land out of the John M. Box League about 8 miles North from Crockett, Texas, fully described in a first Deed of Trust executed by said Arthur E. Owens to Andrew Kingkade, Trustee, and recorded in Book 16 page 358, et seq., of the deed of trust records for Houston County, Texas, to which deed of trust and records reference is here made for a more complete description of said land, with all the rights, members, appurtenances there-to in anywise belonging.

Witness my hand this the 4th day of June, A. D. 1921.

A. A. Aldrich,
St. Substitute Trustee.

Cotton association complained that American bankers demanded too heavy security. He thought the signature of the Italian spinner and Italian bankers should be enough, but in some cases, he asserted, American bankers demanded a profit on exchange also. R. S. Hecht of the Hibernia Bank and Trust company of New Orleans said that what worried the average American banker was the political risk, and the American banker required as much protection as he could get against such risk. Sir James Currie of the Empire cotton growing committee said there had been a conspiracy of exaggeration regarding social conditions obtained in Italy.

Tomato Shipments.

Below we give the number of cars of tomatoes that have been shipped out of Alto and Redlawn up to Thursday of this week, also the price at which they were sold:

- June 6—Two cars; price $2.
- June 7—1 car; price $2.
- June 8—2 cars; price $1.75.
- June 9—2 cars; price $1.50.
- June 10—2 cars; price $1.50.
- June 11—5 cars; price $1.25.
- June 12—1 car; price $1.00.
- June 13—10 cars; price $1.
- June 14—3 cars; price $1.
- June 15—5 cars; price $1.
- June 16—6 cars; price 90c.

The above totals up to 39 cars, and Mr. Hoover, who has charge of the Alto and Redlawn shipping, is of the opinion that the crop is just a little over one-third harvested, and it is more than likely that something like 100 cars will yet be shipped from these two points. He figures that next Monday will be about the peak of the shipping and that will be the biggest day these two shipping points will have.—Alto Herald.

PUBLISHER'S NOTICE.

Obituaries, resolutions, cards of thanks and other matter not "news" will be charged for at the rate of 10c per line.

Parties ordering advertising or printing for societies, churches, committees or organizations of any kind will, in all cases, be held personally responsible for the payment of the bills.

In case of errors or omissions in legal or other advertisements, the publishers do not hold themselves liable for damage further than the amount received by them for such advertisement.

Any erroneous reflection upon the character, standing or reputation of any person, firm or corporation which may appear in the columns of the Courier will be gladly corrected upon its being brought to the attention of the management.

THE PRICE OF ADVERTISING

Some years ago a job printer in a city in Michigan became interested in a proposition, and decided to send out some advertisements to local newspapers to run for two weeks, and to have all bills sent direct to him.

He prepared the advertisement, had the type set in his plant and some proofs printed and sent the proofs to the newspapers as copy. The advertisement was four inches single column.

When the bills began to arrive for the advertisement from the newspapers, he received an insight into the newspaper game that certainly opened his eyes.

In most of the cases he was billed about a dollar for running the ad for two weeks, and one or two sent bills for seventy-five cents. A few sent bills for $1.50, and one or two for $2.00.

As he got the bills, he turned to his cost records to find out what it cost him to set the advertisement, without any printing—just the bare cost of setting the ad.

In each case the publisher had to set the advertisement, and run it in the newspaper, as the plates were not furnished.

As this was some eight years ago when cost of composition was much lower, he found that it had cost him $1.10 to set the ad in his own shop, and there had been no change or alterations.

Naturally he began to figure where the country publishers got off at, and came to the conclusion that they did not get "off at" any place. Also the mystery of why country publishers were not making money was very satisfactorily explained to him.

On the first page of The Business Printer is reproduced an advertisement that was sent to a great many country newspapers in New England during the last holiday season.

The majority of the papers sent in bills for this ad at about 20 cents an inch, or $1.60 for the advertisement. This was for setting the ad, printing it in the paper, and all for $1.60.

A good swift compositor might set the advertisement in three hours, as the matter is rather intricate, and it takes time to set the boxes, etc. At the present price of composition, this would be $8.10 for composition alone, to say nothing of running the advertisement in the paper. Suppose he set the ad in two hours, that would be $7.40.

Take it another way. The average compositor today gets about 80c to $1.00 an hour. Take two hours, or three hours of his time at regular pay, no overhead or anything else, and figure out where the newspaper gets off at that sells such an advertisement for $1.60, which several newspapers of circulation from 1500 to 2500 did, and thought nothing of it.

Just handing out that much good money to the advertiser,—that is all. The publisher is rich, he can do that. He is working for the good of the community, and is a great power in the land, so why should he bother about money.

THOSE WHO WOULD RIDE FREE.

The so-called press agent is facing hard sledding in Texas, and justly so, for he has been a source of annoyance and trouble to newspaper publishers for these many years.

Take the case of the Herald for instance: There is hardly a day in the week when this office does not receive from twenty-five to fifty appeals from concerns throughout the country for free space in our columns. About half of the stuff offered is of no interest to anyone except those promoting it, and the other half is advertising in the interest of some concern that should offer it as advertising and accompany it with a check to cover publication. None of this stuff ever finds its way into the newspapers, but day after day, week after week and month after month it continues to come. Just one illustration: The Herald has received a weekly letter for the past three or four years from one automobile concern, telling of the wonderful mileage on gasoline this car is making, and we are told politely that we are privileged to use the news letter without cost to us. Think of the nerve. And this concern never spent a dollar with the Herald in its life, and probably never will. And yet this weekly letter could be of no earthly value to anyone except the makers of the cars, and is a selling talk for the concern.

The nuisance of the press agent is very largely of the publicity man's making. He hires himself to some concern or to some institution or some organization with the promise that because of his cleverness he will be able to slip by his ads without cost. He never does, but he holds his job. His employers do not read the papers and do not know that he is wasting time, paper and postage, and at the same time getting a salary.

The Herald is glad the Texas Press Association has drawn the line against this free publicity stuff. This paper drew the line on it a long time ago, and unless the matter presented is of real news value to the public it never finds its way into the these columns. And then we usually have our own and direct way of getting such facts as we need, without the assistance of the publicity man, who nine times in ten is a rank amateur who wouldn't know how to present the news side of a matter if he had all the facts.

The best way to get publicity is to buy it. That is the way people supply their own needs.—Palestine Herald.

WORRYING.

Worrying is a real and exceedingly injurious bad habit, a habit that is acquired and grows on the victim.

Who hasn't seen or known dozens of women and some men who were chronic worriers, and many of them react in their physical health to the vice of worry.

A fit of anger or a spell of worry, envy or jealousy—which are forms of worry—often will cause more physical fatigue than a hard day's work, for the mind has a strong influence on the health of the body.

"Take it easy" mentally, no matter if your problem is a hard one. When the pressure gets too much for you, drop the problem for a while and turn to something else.

"Forget it." It's hard to do, but you can learn to do it just as you learned to read and write.

Hurry is worry. Start early enough to do what is before you without the strain and uncertainty of hurry and rush, if at all possible. You'll not be fagged out and can do better work all along the line.

Don't rush home in the evening after work. Take your time and you'll eat a better supper and sleep more soundly.

Above all, for the sake of physical fitness, don't brood over your problems and troubles. Don't indulge in self pity. When you feel this "coming on" get out in the open, take a walk or get in some game that will set the blood circulating, and your mind will be that much better off to solve the problems.

THE MOSQUITO.

Few communities and localities are fortunate enough to be free from the mosquito, which announces his advent by his peculiarly unpleasant "song" with the opening of early summer and continues his career until far into the fall in many places.

Mosquitoes are disease spreaders and those maladies known to be carried by this insect are malaria, yellow fever, dengue fever and filariasis. Breeding places, especially for the domestic mosquito, are in any small collection of water that may be present in tin cans, bottles, flower pots, pools, gutters, sewers, etc. The malaria mosquito usually prefers the margins of ditches and lakes, swamps and low bottom lands.

All buildings in localities infested with mosquitoes should be screened. No water should be allowed to stand in containers around the house. The grass should be kept cut short so it will not serve as a hiding place for mosquitoes. Low places should be drained by ditches. Oil may be used as a measure to prevent breeding. It should be placed in a fine film over the surface of the water, a light oil being best adapted for the purpose. It requires an ounce of oil for each 15 square feet of surface and must be renewed several times a month.

Itching and irritation from mosquito bites can be relieved by a lotion of carbolic acid. To make this lotion, add a level tablespoon full of boric acid powder and 20 drops of pure carbolic acid to a half pint of hot water. Stir well and shake until the boric acid is dissolved. Cool before using and apply by daubing on with a wad of cotton or spraying on the surface with an atomizer.—Red Cross Health Information.

TO THE GOOD CITIZENS OF CROCKETT.

The Aurora Oil Company came into your midst for the purpose of developing some of your natural resources — by the drilling of an oil well.

We are grateful, indeed, for the cordial spirit in which we have been received by those interested in our mutual welfare. The well is now in course of drilling, and there are matters relative thereto concerning which we would like to have a cordial understanding. It is but natural that everyone would like to know all the facts concerning the drilling of this well, as the work proceeds. However, it is impracticable and might be detrimental to our interests if such information were given out. The facts concerning this well are costing us an immense amount of money and they constitute a large part of the Company's stock in trade.

To be sure, there is nothing offensive in an honest inquiry concerning the progress we are making, though it might be impossible hereafter to make answer. We prefer not to make even an evasive answer; therefore, we make this statement in the hope that we will be spared as much embarrassment of this kind as possible.

We have found it necessary to erect a sign at the well, which we trust will be respected by all.

Yours very truly,

AURORA OIL COMPANY,

Hon. Clay Stone Briggs, congressman from this district, has sent the following letter and information to the Courier:

"Dear Sir—The enclosed copy of letter from Hon. H. H. Billany, fourth assistant postmaster general, will advise you of the award of a definite contract for six-day a week star route service between Crockett and Ratcliff and Kennard.

"Although I succeeded in having arrangements made for temporary service some time ago, yet this announcement conveys the information of a definite contract now having been made for regular service at least during the period of suspension of operation of the Eastern Texas railroad.

"Assuring you it is a pleasure to have been of service in the matter, I beg to remain sincerely yours,

Clay Stone Briggs.

Washington, June 16.—Hon. Clay Stone Briggs, House of Representatives: My Dear Mr. Briggs—Referring further to your letter of March 29, 1921, relative to providing supply for the postoffices at Kennard and Ratcliff on account of the suspension of service on the Eastern Texas railroad, I beg to inform you that an award of contract has been made to William A. Daniel of Crockett for star No. 50,848, Crockett by Kennard to Ratcliff, Texas, six times a week, effective July 1, 1921, at the rate of $1499.50 per annum. This route will provide the offices at Kennard and Ratcliff with the service desired. Sincerely yours, (signed) H. H. Billany, fourth assistant postmaster general."

Rev. S. F. Tenney, the venerable and beloved pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Crockett for more than forty years, on being asked by the Courier editor for information regarding the life of that well known and greatly loved woman who passed from us last week, gave the Courier the following statement, which is reproduced as written by him:

Mrs. Taylor was born in Blount county, Tennessee, near Knoxville. Mr. Wilson Hall's family came also from the same state. Naturally there was a strong friendship between the families, and after her husband's death she made her home with them, and after Mr. Wilson Hall's death she lived with his son, Mr. J. W. Hall. As she remarked to me, she was not dependent upon that family only for kindness and affection. She regarded herself as blessed in having such a home, and the Halls regarded her as one of their own relatives, the parents and their children calling her "Grandma." She could hardly have had more considerate, kind attention and affection anywhere than in the home she had chosen. In all her afflictions she received the best medical care and nursing. She remained in that home nearly fifty years, and saw the children of the family grow up around her as if they were her own grandchildren. Her own children—three daughters—died when they were quite young. Her husband was considered in Crockett as a splendid citizen, and beloved not only by Crockett, but highly honored by the Masonic fraternity throughout the state, he being regarded as a high authority on the principles of Masonry. He died about fifty years ago, when absent from home, and was buried in Baltimore. She had much experience in sorrow, but especially felt deeply the loss of her husband. She also had many afflictions, having been thrown out of a carriage twice and badly crippled, besides several falls she had while walking on crutches. Yet she never appeared gloomy—was ready to enjoy a joke and always ready to brighten "the corner" in her home life and to greet her friends who visited her with smiles and pleasant conversation.

While not having had in her early life high educational advantages, yet she was a cultured and refined woman, bright and genial and interesting in conversation. She was in the highest sense a graceful woman—graceful in her form, her features, her conversation and manners and in her Christian character. Her Bible and her Prayer Book were her close companions, and she was familiar with the old hymns, such as Amazing Grace and others, and loved them.

Mrs. Taylor was a niece of General Sam Houston, and her features bore a marked resemblance to her distinguished uncle, her mother's brother. She had many noted ancestors and kinsmen among the distinguished families in Virginia. Her Scotch-Irish ancestry explains why she was so blessed in her early family training. Her father was an elder in the Presbyterian church, and her early training associations were with that denomination, and she never forgot the church she was brought up in, though after her marriage she became an Episcopalian with her husband, and loved all Christians.

Mrs. Taylor was born October 28, 1826, and died June 15, 1921, thus spanning a period of nearly a hundred years—the most interesting century of the world's history—the period when all the great inventions comprising railroads, steam boats, electricity, etc., came and when the great political revolutions of the world were brought about. Her sight and hearing and her beautiful, black hair continued almost to the last with her, and she took pleasure in reading the Galveston News and keeping up with the events of the day until her last sickness. She had stored up in her memory a valuable library of interesting information about the early citizens of Crockett, a history that has gone with her—no small loss to Crockett.

It is needless to add that Mrs. Taylor trusted in Christ as her Savior—not to her own goodness, but expected to be saved by grace through the atoning sacrifice of Christ, and when her body wasted away she expected to abide in a house not made with hands, but eternal in the heavens.

Baptist Notes.

Our Bible School attendance fell down to 180 last Sunday morning. We ought to have 250 to 300 each Sabbath studying the word of God. Two many adult Baptists self-satisfied. No place in life to quit the study of God's word. Set a good example for your children and be at Bible School next Sunday.

The Baptist church at Humble, Texas, has called Rev. L. L. Sams to pastorate. His resignation will be offered to First Baptist Church of Crockett next Sabbath.

We have spent three and a half years in Crockett and none of us regret the Lord leading us this way. We hope to meet in the after whiles many souls from this section who have become acquainted with the Savior as their personal Redeemer since we first visited this city. We have received many favors at the hands of these people and pray the un-failing grace of God to rest upon the homes and hearts of all through the years to come. May the Lord of the churches guide this body in selection of a pastor and may great spiritual prosperity be the share and joy of this church.

Baptists have some forty-five separate church organizations in Houston and Trinity counties. We have a most excellent missionary evangelist in the person of Brother Willingham. His labors are numerous and his aptness to teach and to preach the gospel of Christ makes him a most efficient and helpful worker. He deserves the prayers and hearty support of all good men and women. Invite him to your special section if you need a word.

Dr. Clifford of London is perhaps the greatest English living Baptist preacher and Loyd George the most famous English Baptist citizen. Doubtless Chas. Haddon Spurgeon was the greatest gospel preacher since the day of Paul. His sermons still live and abound with the abundant life and power of God's mighty word.

L. L. Sams, Pastor.

Avery One-Man "Road-Razer"

Rough Roads Shaved Smooth

Are your country roads rough and rutty—perhaps impassable part of the year? If they are, there is no need of your putting up with this inconvenience and financial loss further. You can keep your roads "all-year-round" roads with the Avery One-Man Motor "Road-Razer"—a machine that enables you to shave rough roads smooth, do the work better, in less time, and at less cost than any other machine on the market.

Everywhere one of these machines has been delivered it has resulted in the sale of additional machines—positive proof of its success.

Its speed, its ability to turn instantly in its own tracks, its easy steering feature, its wonderful adaptability in correctly shaping the road surface, make it the greatest time and money saver ever offered for road work. Does the work of two or three men with teams and maintains better and more satisfactory roads.

Its long blade is swung directly in front of and below the operator—right where he can watch his work. The blade is in three sections, each section adjustable for the depth of cut and curvature of the road. Has 12-ft. blade cutting 9-ft. 6-inches—powerful six-cylinder motor.

Urge your community to get one of these machines and have better roads at the lowest possible expense. Write for Special Circular or ask for the complete Avery Catalog, showing line of Avery Road Tractors and Motor Farming Machinery.
