

THE GRAHAM LEADER.

Entered at the Post Office at Graham, Texas, as Second-Class Matter.

VOL. XVII.

GRAHAM, TEXAS, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 29, 1893.

NO. 35.

The Leader.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY
J. W. GRAVES.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.
One copy, one year, $1.50
Six months, .75

ADVERTISING RATES.
One inch, first insertion, $1.00
Each subsequent insertion, .50 A reasonable reduction made to regular advertisers. Terms furnished on application.

Local notices 10 cents per line first insertion, 5 cent per line each subsequent insertion. A special reduction made to regular advertisers.

Church Directory.
Methodist Church—Preaching every Sunday morning and evening, prayer meeting very Thursday evening. T. E. Smith, Pastor.

Baptist Church—Teaching 1st and 2nd Sundays in each month, morning and evening, prayer meeting every Tuesday evening. G.
H. Black, Pastor.

Presbyterian Church—Preaching 1st, 2nd and 4th Sundays in each month, morning and evening; prayer meeting every Wednesday evening. Rev. J. V. Hunter will hereafter preach on the 4th Sabbath in each month at the Presbyterian Church in Graham.

Episcopal Church—Preaching 2nd Sunday in each month. Rev. Francis Moore, Rector.

SOCIETIES.
MASONIC.
YOUNG COUNTY LODGE No. 289, A. F. & M., meets on Saturday evening at 8 o'clock in the hall moon of each month. J. W. AKIN, W. M.

BOLKNAP LODGE No. 550, A. F. & M., meets on the first Saturday night in each month. W. B. POPE, W. M.

M. N. HARVEY, Sec'y.

L. O. O. F.
ADELPHI LODGE, No. 201, meets in Beckham Hall every Saturday night.
E. E. HARRIS, N. G.

J. H. WOOD, R. S.

K. O. F.
KING'S MOUNTAIN LODGE No. 222, Knights of Honor, meets on the 1st and 3rd Tuesday nights in each month.
R. B. GARRITT, Dictator.

E. JACKSON, Reporter.

K. O. E. P.
Co. of Honor Lodge No. 118, Knights of Pythias, meets at 7 1/2 o'clock every Friday night. Visiting Knights in good standing are invited to attend.
H. L. MORRISON, C. C.

W. A. BOSTON, R. S.

G. A. O.
ROSSIAH POST No. 69, G. A. O., meets on the first Saturday in each month.
Jas. F. CANNON, Com.

Geo. Wright, Adjutant.

Saturday will be the day of destiny for the town hog. If he is not penned by that time it will be the duty of the marshal to impound him—Graham is a hog ranch no more, thanks be to the prompt action of the city council. What about the dogs?

Ladies Model.
Pat's trimmed hats. Latest patterns. Call and see at JEWELL'S.

The cloven foot of selfishness has been shown by many people during the presidency of the great bridge question. Every man wants a bridge at his door.

A complete new stock of Dry Goods to arrive this week. The largest ever shown in Graham.
Goods all selected with the greatest care, both in regard to style and quality. Call and see styles.
MORRISON, STREET & Co.

It was reported last week that spinal meningitis was raging in the vicinity of Bryson, but the report lacks confirmation.

A very large line of Millinery Goods to arrive soon. All are invited to examine them.
MORRISON, STREET & Co.

J. C. Casburn's fine race mare,
"Nellie C." foaled a bay colt by "Long Mack" on the 20th. He looks like he will make a record breaker. Mr. Casburn has named him E. S. Graham.

V. F. Gorrisen has a fine lot of Trot lines and Hooks.

In the report of the Tonk Valley concert last week the LEADER got some of the ladies mixed a little.
We apologize, but such errors in a big program are almost inevitable.

Flows, hoes, planters, farmer's supplies at
THE WADLEY IMPLEMENT Co's.

J. L. Payne returned last Saturday from Buckner Orphan's home, where he has donated a lot of work to the orphans. We honor Mr.
Payne for his charity.

Ladies.
Call and see my new stock of Spring and Summer goods.
G. B. JEWELL.

We understand that Mr. Wadley's of Dallas, is now purchasing stock for a first class music store at this place.

TANK BUILDING—Beighton & Hightower are prepared with good teams and scrapers to do any kind of Tank work on short notice and liberal terms. Give us a trial.
6 miles N. E. of Graham.

Three or four Indians from the territory were in Graham last week, having business with the U. S. marshal.

Quite a "quaint, queer and q-rions"

marriage occurred in South Bend a few weeks ago. The LEADER found it difficult to get particulars, but we have at last got it down pat.
It seems that a Miss Holcomb was engaged to a Mr. Williams, of another county, and also to a Mr.
Harold, of South Bend, in this county. Mr. Williams came to Graham got his license, got the girl and started off, but was intercepted by the girl's father, and the marriage was prevented. The girl was kept under surveillance to keep her from running off with Williams until Harold came to town and got his license to marry her.

Harold's suit was favored by the girl's father, and they were successfully married, Mr. Williams and his friends being "stood off" by Mr.
Holcomb and his son.
The marriage caused quite a sensation in the Bend at the time, but all agree in the hope that the marriage will prove a happy one in the end.

Bed Room Suites.

No light flimsy affairs, but a large size, heavy, massively carved suite, as follows: Bedstead 4 1/2 feet wide and 6 feet high, with finished slats. Dresser, top 3 1/2 feet wide and 20 inches deep, with bevel plate glass 2 feet wide. Wash stand, combination included, with high back and towel rack; drawers all have patent equalizers which makes them run easily and smoothly. 16th century or antique polish finish, complete with casters.

By a car-load spot cash purchase
I can sell these suites for only $25, and to the first person buying one I will make a present of an English white granite wash bowl and pic-cher and soap dish. Call and see for yourself.
W. S. MURPHY.

Braids.
Crochet trimmings, feather stitch, assorted colors, rick-rack, etc. at JEWELL'S.

P. A. Martin's youngest child was quite sick with pneumonia last week.

Best cheap and most complete stock of dress goods, including, Organdies, Pricese laws, Chailtes, Barette, Marjorie stripes, Vernise suiting, French Mull, Mattresse Valenciennes Linnon, etc., etc., at
G. B. JEWELL'S.

We understand that Mess. B. S.
Doty and Jo Akin have invested in an Edison phonograph and intend to travel with it this summer, and also that John T. Cunningham and M. S. Handy are going into the same business. We wish them all much success.

Many of Apples, Oranges and Bananas—in fact, everything in the line of confections. Now on the road.
MRS. SADIE PARKER.

Wills, Copeland, Bob Williams and Jack Washburn were in town two or three days of last week on business.

Misses hats in different styles from 25 cents up at
G. B. JEWELL'S.

Sunday School mass meeting at the M. E. Church next Sunday afternoon. There will be a very interesting Easter service.

A nice line of Ladies Trimmed Hats at, SHUMAKER & Bros.

We have anything you want in Groceries, all fresh goods. Prices guaranteed to be the lowest.
MORRISON, STREET & Co.

SHUMAKER & Bros are receiving a nice stock of Shoes and Boots this week.

We are receiving a large and well selected stock of dry goods, boots, shoes, hats, etc., bought direct from manufacturers. It will pay you to get our prices and see our stock before buying.
SHUMAKER BROS.

Just Arrived.
Jewell's Spring Goods. Call and examine before purchasing.

D. M. Howard of Mineral Wells, keeps the largest and best selected stock of Dry Goods and Groceries in that town. He solicits both the wholesale and retail trade.
Give him a call when you happen to be at the Wells.

The best one dollar button shoe in town at SHUMAKER & Bros.

If you want Colony land call on C. P. Bohson and get price and terms direct from the owners.

Make a small cash payment on certain fine prairie lands and I will divide the balance into annual installments, running for ten years, if desired.

Jo Akin and B. S. Doty will start north with their phonograph tomorrow.

To Corporation Voters.

The election for municipal officers will be held next Tuesday and a few suggestions to the voters may not be amiss.

It is very important that the people elect a good board of aldermen, men who will carry out the intents and purposes of the corporation and see that the ordinances are strictly complied with.

In this connection it may not be out of place to notify the people upon authority of current report that an effort is going to be made to elect men who will agree to do absolutely nothing. We hope there is no foundation for this report, but it behoves us to be careful and watch closely the movements of the enemies of the corporation.

It would indeed be a very low and mean man who would thus attempt to do by unfair means what cannot be done by an appeal to the ballot or to the courts of the country, and a man who would allow himself to be elected upon such consideration would indeed be worthy of the contempt of the people.

Our idea is that we should elect men who have the interests of the town at heart—men who own property here and are permanently located, and men who believe in good order and strict sanitary regulations, and, above all, men who have the backbone to do their duty regardless of the grumbling of the few old cronies who will kick at anything.

The present board is a good one and have so far done their duty well, but unfortunately they all reside in the second ward, so we cannot re-elect them all, and none of them desire to be re-elected.

The position will not be a very remunerative one, but somebody must serve and those who do will certainly be entitled to the gratitude of the people. We believe the proper men with public spirit can be found and not let us cast about for them and elect them.

New Watches.
If you want a new watch and have an old one call and see my new stock
I take old watches in part pay.

Repairing neatly done. All persons will please call for and get their work in three months after repaired, as that is my limited time to hold work without a special contract. I solicit your patronage.
L. D. BRANNON.

From newspaper reports it seems that Capt. Benedict is winning big money and making a good record with Lofton Jr., at the races in New Orleans. We are glad to see the genial captain successful, and proud of such a record for a Young County horse on the New Orleans turf.
Young county is rapidly taking the lead for fine stock.

The Wadley Implement Co handles the Standard Buggy, the best made.

Mrs. T. D. Twait was back in Graham last week and took her property here off the market. She says the Rock Island is coming this way and she is going to move here right away.

FOR SALE: A good six-room residence in Graham, good barn and stable, well and cistern, two lots, garden and orchard, beautifully situated, reasonable terms. Call on or address
P. A. MARTIN,
Graham, Tex.

Col. P. B. Hunt was in town last Friday and left for his headquarters at Dallas on Saturday.

FARMER, March 18, 1893.
EDITOR LEADER: Please announce in the LEADER that Young County Farmers Alliance will meet with Belknap Alliance on first Thursday in April 1893.

W. L. ARHART,
Sec. Young Co. F. A.

A recent letter from Congressman Cockrell to a citizen of Graham states that there will be no change of postmaster here until Mr. Parker's term of office expires in June.
He did not state for certain that there would be a change then.

V. F. Gorrisen has just received a full line of Fishing Tackle and fishing poles.

Z. M. Sherry is soon going to move back to Kentucky, we understand.

L. J. Bower was in town one evening last week. He is still weak but gradually gaining strength and vigor.

Now is the time to insure your fine horses. For full particulars apply to
G. H. CROZIER,
Insurance agent,
Graham, Texas.

Salt Creek Siftings.

Salt Creek is still at the front.
We have had a light rain, and wheat and oats look fine. Corn is coming up, and a good rain with a river and a Salt Creek bridge is all we need at present.

Mr. Elias Putman's baby has been very sick the past week. Mr.
Jim Long was very sick Sunday.
Our old friend and teacher, Mrs.
Thornton, was visiting on the creek Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Harvey Stewart went up on the prairie to see his brother Pick, who has been quite sick, but is getting along now.

Mr. Will Heard went over to the river Sunday.

Jim Johnson and Geo. Mayes attended church in Tonk Valley Sunday. We wonder why the boys will go so far from home while Salt Creek has the prettiest girls in the county.

There was preaching at Need-more Sunday morning and night by the Rev. W. M. Higgins. Quite a crowd of young folk attended the singing at Mrs. Mayes Sunday evening.

Mr. Frank and John Knight was visiting on the creek Sunday.
ELBERT MEG.

Percheron Horses.
All lovers of Percheron draft horses will please look at H. S.
Eichelberger's black before breeding.

HONOR ROLL.
Johnnie Norman, Augusta Beard, George Hollinsworth, Bobbie Wallace, Arthur Thomas, Theo. Hud-man, James Black, Maude Case, Eddie Trene, Crawford Harris,
Britain Mays and Willie Parker.

It is to be regretted again that some of my best pupils failed to make the required grade on account of non-attendance.

MARY MILLIS.
Don't forget to call and make our house headquarters while in Graham whether you want to buy anything or not. You are always welcome. Room for all.
MORRISON, STREET & Co.

Pauper Kids Wanted.
It is ordered by the Commissioners Court that bids be advertised for, for the keeping of the pauper of Young county—bid to be received and opened at the regular time of this Court on the second Monday in May, 1893. The Court reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

N. J. TIMMONS,
County Judge.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.
THE BEST SALVE in the world for Cuts,
Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever
Blisters, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblain Gleets, and all Skin Eruptions, and positively cures Piles, on no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box.
For Sale by The R. G. Graham Drug Co.

The chronic town kicker is up on his ear, his talk on street corners we constantly hear. He's tooth and toe nail again pounding the logs, and thinks it is right for the boys to can dogs. He says it is useless to keep the town clean, and thinks the town council infernally mean. He says that the people are paying too much in taxes already for free schools and such.
He never agrees to majority rule and is as hard headed as a government mule. He thinks it is right to prevent, if he can, the enforcement of law and the good rights of man. His heart is so selfish it reaches its center and forbids all good impulses to enter. His name now is Legion, we're sorry to say, but death and old Satan will remove him some day. And the progress and thrift for which we now sigh, will come when the kicker is dead
—bye and bye!

Call and see the stock of the Wadley Implement Co.

The bridge men began to arrive last Friday, and by Sunday there was a full force of them. The hotels were crowded.

Buy your Dry Goods and pay cash. Cash is cheaper than credit.
Long time begets large interest.
Cheapest cash prices at JEWELL'S.

Chas. O. Joline, of Wichita Falls, came down last Saturday and his old friends here were all pleased to see him. "Jo" never grows older.

Laces.
Point D'Irlande, Valenciennes, Torehous, etc., etc. at JEWELL'S.

Mr. Burton's little boy died last Friday night and was buried in Oak Grove cemetery on Saturday. The LEADER extends sympathy to the bereaved family.

Net on lumps and horses and all animals cured in 30 minutes by Wadley's Sanitary Lotion. This never fails. Sold by The R.
G. Graham Drug Co.

Go to V. F. Gorrisen's for Base Balls and Base Ball Bats.

From Ellisville.

News items some what scarce over this way.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwards have returned from an extended visit to Eastern Texas.

Grandpa Hepburn died a few days since. He was interested in the cemetery here after appropriate funeral service, conducted by Bro.
Rodgers.

Bro. Smith, of Graham, filled the pulpit here last Sunday and Sunday night. He preached two good sermons. We always look forward to the third Sunday with some degree of pleasure. Our S. S.
has come through winter quarter all right and is beginning to increase in numbers and interest.

Dr. Price, of Miss, is expected here very soon to visit relatives and look at the country.

Ed. Hunter who has been very sick with pneumonia is improving so reports the attending physician —Dr. Newell. The Dr. says they have had him "stretched out" for some time and he's enjoying "a little" of a well earned rest.

There are a lot of fellows over here who say, I wish it would rain and muddy the river so we can catch some fish; reckon they are not interested farther than a mess of fish.

Julius Ardis was appointed road overseer during his sojourn in East Texas and now he's mad about it, but the great State of Texas hath put its hand on you, old fellow, so go will ya.

Mr. Ed. they had a stock show here yesterday and none of our citizens knew anything about it till the stock began to come in. Mr.
Donnell complains that they did not treat him right in the matter for if they had given him a chance, he could have made an exhibit of as fine a pack of hounds as any one.

No more this time. SYDAD.
March 23, 1893.

Good Looks.
Good looks are more than skin deep, depending upon a healthy condition of all the vital organs. If the Liver be inactive, you have a Bilious Look, if your stomach be dis-ordered you have a Dyspeptic Look, and if your Kidneys be affected you have a Frothy Look. Secure good health and you will have good looks. Electric Bites is the great remedy and acts directly on these vital organs. Cures Pimples, Blisters, Boils and gives a good complexion. Sold by The R.
G. Graham Drug Co., 25c per 3-4ths.

To the Lady Teachers of Young County.

Ladies: We had an interesting and pleasant teachers meeting in Tonk Valley on Saturday the 18th inst. It would have been more enjoyable had you been present.
Only two lady teachers were present. Will you not attend our next meeting at Belknap on the 15th proximo?

If the committee on programme will excuse me, I will add the following work for ladies:

How to Teach Reading—Mrs.
Johnston, Graham.

The Value of Drawing and How to teach it—Miss Huey, Graham.

How to Teach Numbers—Miss Milling, Graham.

Respectfully,
R. LISNAV, Pres.

All Free.
Those who have used Dr. King's New Discovery know its value, and those who have not, have now the opportunity to try it Free.
Call on the advertiser Drug list and get a Trial Bottle Free. Send your name and address to R. E. Bucklen & Co., Chicago, and get a sample box of Dr. King's New Life Pile Cure, as well as a copy of Guide to Health and Household Instructor, Free. All of which is guaranteed to do you good and cost you nothing. The R. G. Graham Drug Co.

The Percheron Horse.
In a letter of the Hon. Samuel Dysart, President of the State Board of Agriculture of Illinois, and chairman of the committee, to the Hon.
Eugene Tisserand, Director of Agriculture of France for the past twenty-five years, said of Percheron horses. The Percheron horse was considered as an animal possessing great excellence and capable of traveling long distances at a trot, drawing heavy loads. He is a model draft horse, energetic and a quick worker. It is the type of a draft horse for carrying weight with great rapidity.

English Spain Liniment removes all Bar's, Soft or Calloused Lumps and Blemishes from horses, Blood Spavins, Curbs, Splints, Sweeney, Ring-Bone, Stiffles, Sprains, all Swollen Throats, Coughs, etc. Save $50 by use of one bottle. Warranted the most wonderful Remedy Cure ever known. Sold by The R.
G. Graham Drug Co.

The famous "Harrison" wagon is sold by the Wadley Implement Company.

Mrs. Tom Braz has been quite sick for some time.

Back Blatherskite.

on BRIDGES, etc.

Mr. editor: I have got out the roshun or ever wimin the hart of Jinny Pettus. I see a dead dog so far as that is concerned, and I have turned my attention to plowin and plantin and buildin bridges across the Brazos river. I don't mean to say that I am buildin any myself, but just thinkin and talkin about it with paw and the nabors.

Paw see hit will bust the county to build a bridge across the river, and he is ded set agin it from the very start. He see he will have ter leave the county or go broke payin bridge tacks, or tother of brigs air to be bilt. More'n that, see he, they cant bild a brige that will ever stand across sich a stream, and he is agin throwin away money on such foolishness. But he see if the wust to the wust and they air to be bilt ennyway, he thinks the best plan is the most plain to the Blatherskite farm.

I am not particular whair they put one now, for hit looks like the jit is up so far as me travelin over to Pettuses is concerned. That gander-shanked, neck-deed ood of a skool teacher, has got me bard out in that quarter now, and I see a gonter look clew hair for consortin and sich. Their is as good fish in the see as wuz ever cat outen bit," as the sayin is, but the next gal that ties her aprun strings onto the hart of B. Blatherskite is gonter be a daisy and has got ter git up and sift. Don't forget that.

But "to reason," (as the parson are when he gets outen sayin) he say had wuz ter keep on takin jist fur to hear it rattle, I am in good or brigin erything brigable from whisky creek and jin anderson branch down to the may Brazos.
Bridges is good things to hav. They air good to plant simes on and they air first-class things ter hav.

But to get into the newspaper they air good when you hav got to go to town after the doctor and the water coarages up. You can read the sines on the bridges and always
no whair to go wh air you get town. They allows ter whair the only 1st class hotel is and whair
the best whiskey is kept on tap,
and such. They air mity useful in these respects as well as ter crossin hither and yan. They make a feller feel like he cum from sm whair and is on the ritc role to somewhair else. Whenever you see bridges you see good roads and fruit em on both sides. They make the people talk sm pride in the roads.

Bridges that run across brigs
adverts to put into the newspaper.
They air good when you hav got to go to town after the doctor and the water coarages up. You can read
the sines on the bridges and always
no whair to go wh air you get
town. They allows ter whair the
only 1st class hotel is and whair
the best whiskey is kept on tap,
and such. They air mity useful in these respects as well as ter
crossin hither and yan. They make
a feller feel like he cum from sm
whair and is on the ritc role to somewhair else. Whenever you see bridges you see good roads and
fruit em on both sides. They make the people talk sm pride in
the roads.

Bridges that run across brigs
adverts to put into the newspaper.
They air good when you hav got to go to town after the doctor and the water coarages up. You can read
the sines on the bridges and always
no whair to go wh air you get
town. They allows ter whair the
only 1st class hotel is and whair
the best whiskey is kept on tap,
and such. They air mity useful in these respects as well as ter
crossin hither and yan. They make
a feller feel like he cum from sm
whair and is on the ritc role to somewhair else. Whenever you see bridges you see good roads and
fruit em on both sides. They make the people talk sm pride in
the roads.

Me and paw disagrees on the subject as well as erything else. Paw see they cost in ferry botes and canons in the good ole days, and that they air good enuff for him.

Mister editor, I wish you wud see sheriff Williams and see if he cant mark me a deputy or sumthin so I can tute a B shooter or a razer or sumthin. Mi life is in danger or been tuck. I received a letter last week and I will give you a copy or it ter prove what I say.
Hit reads as follows:

Mr. B. Blatherskite: You must quit usin ml darter's nam in your confidential letters to the LEADER, on pain of a sudden and most horrible death. Yours truly, SMOY PATTES.

I also got it this week which see:
"No more or you 3 quarter

Graham Leader.
W. GRAVES, Proprietor.
 W. M. W. & N. W.
 RAIL ROAD TIME TABLE.
 No. 1 Leaves Weatherford 11:00 a. m.
 Arrives Mineral Wells 12:22 p. m.
 No. 2 Leaves Weatherford 6:52 p. m.
 Arrives Mineral Wells 8:52 p. m.
 No. 3 Leaves Mineral Wells 7:00 a. m.
 Arrives Weatherford 8:52 a. m.
 No. 4 Leaves Mineral Wells 8:00 p. m.
 Arrives Weatherford 10:22 p. m.
 Making close connection with Texas & Pacific train at Weatherford; also connecting with Santa Fe Railway.
 W. C. FORBESS, F. & P. A.

The Fort Worth Gazette of last Tuesday, (packery edition) was a dandy. It contained twenty-four pages of good reading and was a credit to Texas journalism.

The Dallas News keeps on saying that Col. Belo is not a candidate for office under the present administration. This is one way to attract attention and boom a man for office.

The Fort Worth packery deal is one of the most important moves in this State for years. It means a ready market for Texas cattle in Texas, and a consequent saving of an enormous freight rate to cattlemen. Fort Worth can and will successfully compete with Chicago and Kansas City as a beef market.

"Uncle Billy" McGaughey is in trouble and is likely to be impeached by the legislature. A legislative investigating committee has unearthed a whole lot of irregularities in his office arising, we think, more from incompetency than dishonesty. But we will not pass judgment too soon. Let him have a fair trial and if guilty fire him out and put in a better man, and if innocent let the people who elected him know it.

The Dallas News, doubtless with great reluctance, admits that Col. McGaughey says that Gov. Hogg did not advise him to make the illegal sale of school lands. It is a thousand wonders that the News failed to lay the whole blame on Hogg and the Tyler gang.

The Cuero Star says it makes it a rule "not to exchange with any paper in whose columns nothing is ever found worth reproducing—and there are some of these; not that their editors are not smart enough to publish good matter, but because they are too diffident to do so."

The old Del-Gal. suit holder is posing before the people as a 50-cent administration organ, strictly in line with the views of President Cleveland. We fear that it is rendering the president very unpopular with the people of Texas thereby. We all know the News is a bag of muzz wumpery and the fact that it is singing such unmitigated songs of praise to our president causes stalwart democrats to pause and consider. But perhaps the News is only trying to get a fat job for Col. Belo who is "not a candidate for anything." Lord, help us!

Attorney General Culbertson withdrew his answers in the commission case last week and appealed on his demurrers and questions of law. He knew the court was "cut and dried" and did not care to waste the time and money necessary to lay all the evidence before the court. Judge McCormick entered a final decree in substance the same as the temporary injunction hitherto granted, but perpetuating the same. Thus it is decided, by the man, that one of the best and most useful laws of the state is null and void, and we are left with only the hope of a reversal on appeal. But the most serious question decided is the right of the Federal court to thus render our laws nugatory. If one man can set aside the work of a whole state in one instance, how many laws that may not, by some hook or crook, or by a stretch of the constitutional authority of the Federal courts, be declared void. It seems to us a man up a tree that the time has about arrived for the decision of this vexed question. If states have any rights we ought to know what they are.

Will some one please tell us why it is that a man of good mind, and qualified to transact almost any kind of business and could be a valuable member of society, an honor to himself and his country, will let the demon "drink" blast their lives, destroy their usefulness, deplete their reason; stop the very fountain of life itself, and at last lead them down to a drunkard's grave and a drunkard's hell? And why is it that some men who claim to be christians, will offer the accursed cup, and even beg persons to drink when they know that that person after once getting a taste of the accursed stuff will never stop short of deadly drunkenness. Such a one had better be warned in time by the following scripture, found in Heb. 9. 13. "Woe unto him that giveth his neighbor drink, that putteth the bottle to him, and maketh him drunken also."—Moran Argus.

Reducing Cotton Production.
 An organized effort has been put forth in Texas and other southern states to reduce the production of cotton and thereby increase the price. The effort promises to result in a dismal failure, on account of the lack of a more complete organization of the farmers. If they would all join in it would succeed, but many of them will put in larger crops of cotton than usual because they think others will reduce their acreage and increase the price. Like a balky team, when one pulls the other will fly back, and the chances are that there will be a larger production of cotton this year than ever before.

The farmers of the country lack organization and they will never succeed in increasing the price of their produce without it. Unfortunately their efforts so far, to perfect such an organization have met with failure, principally on account of the machinations of political tricksters who worm their protective unions into politics and there they find an early grave.

If the farmers of the south would combine and decrease the cotton acreage to one-half of its present extent they would be rewarded by an enormous increase in the price of the fleecy staple, but there is on use for Texas farmers to do so while those of other states continue to put in their usual crops. It would simply be "cutting off their noses to spite their faces" to do so, and upon the whole, we believe it would be the part of good policy for our people to plant all the cotton they can cultivate until the perfection of a better organization.

I'd like to be a boy again without a woe or care, with freckles scattered on my face and hayseed in my hair; I'd like to rise at 4 o'clock and do a hundred chores, and saw the wood and feed the hogs and lock the stable door; and herd the hens and watch the leas and take the mules to do, and teach the turkeys how to swim so that they wouldn't sink; and milk about a hundred cows and bring in wood to burn, and stand out in the sun all day and churn and churn and churn; and wear my brother's cast-off clothes and walk four miles to school, and get a licking every day for breaking some old rule, and then get home again at night and do the chores once more, and milk the cows and feed the hogs and carry mules before and then crawl wearily upstairs to seek my little bed and hear dad say: "That worthless boy! He isn't worth his bread!" I'd like to be a boy again, a boy has so much fun; his life is just a round of mirth from rise to set of sun; I guess there is nothing pleasanter than closing stable door, and herding hens, and chasing legs and doing evening chores.—Seymour Monitor.

REPORT OF THE CONDITION OF THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK.
 At Graham, in the State of Texas, at the close of business, March 5, 1893.

Assets	Liabilities
Loans and discounts $30,232.13	Capital stock paid in $50,000.00
Overdrafts, secured and unsecured 891.88	Surplus fund 4,000.00
U. S. Bonds to secure circulation 12,500.00	Undivided profits 2,355.19
Due from approved reserve agents 1,183.92	Reserve for contingencies 11,229.81
Due from other National Banks 8,292.97	Dividends unpaid 20.00
Due from State Bank and bankers 516.21	Individual deposits subject to check 3,458.89
Banking houses, furniture & fixtures 12,226.79	Due to other National Banks 4,122.42
Current expenses and taxes paid 1,582.62	Total $107,757.47
Due to other National Banks 1,500.00
Checks and other cash items 69.20
Bills of other banks 250.00
Fractional paper currency, notes and coins 386.00
Legal-tender notes 5,100.00
Redemption fund with U. S. Treasurer (5 per cent. of circulation) 352.50
Total $107,757.47

REPORT OF THE CONDITION OF THE BECKHAM NATIONAL BANK.
 At Graham, in the State of Texas, at the close of business, March 5, 1893.

Assets	Liabilities
Loans and discounts $128,167.22	Capital stock paid in $100,000.00
Overdrafts, secured and unsecured 1,412.58	Surplus fund 5,000.00
U. S. Bonds to secure circulation 35,000.00	Undivided profits 4,071.35
Due from approved reserve agents 4,122.42	National bank notes outstanding 22,500.00
Due from other National Banks 3,801.81	Individual deposits subject to check 50,829.88
Banking houses, furniture & fixtures 12,459.99	Time certificates of deposit 5,622.00
Other real estate & mortgages owned 6,574.93	Due to other National Banks 801.88
Current expenses and taxes paid 821.36	Total $194,029.71
Due to other National Banks 1,500.00
Checks and other cash items 193.81
Bills of other banks 20.00
Fractional paper currency, notes and coins 1.55
Redemption fund with U. S. Treasurer (5 per cent. of circulation) 1,125.00
Total $194,029.71

Crystalized Lenses.
 Pure! Brilliant! Perfect!
 USED EVERYWHERE AND ENDORSED WHEREVER USED.
 The Most Popular Glasses in the U. S.
 They are daily worn and are warmly praised by the able Representatives Men of this country, many of them being of National fame. The list embraces Bankers, Merchants, Lawyers, Governors, Senators, Foreign Ministers, Mechanics, Preachers, Men Eminent in all Professions and Trades.
 PHYSICIANS RECOMMEND THEM.
 They cannot be bought at your residence as they are not supplied to peddlers at any price.
 Buy None but the Genuine.
 These perfect Glasses are accurately adjusted to all eyes at
 V. F. GORRESEN'S.

LUTRELL and Carlisle, who stand convicted of the murder of Sharrin in Denison, Texas, have been sentenced to hang on Friday, May 10th.

THE ARABIAN HORSE.
 WILL make the present season at my stable, 14 miles east of Graham, on Jacobs road, and will serve mares at $10 to secure a living foal. Care will be taken to prevent accidents but no responsibility should any occur.
 DESCRIPTION AND PEDIGREE.
 CRAIG NOMAD is a red sorrel Stallion, 15 1/2 hands high, foaled April 7, 1883, bred by Dr. W. E. Bailey, of Paris, Texas, sired by Nomad; dam Shripes Daley, a beautiful blood bay, noted for her saddle gait; she by Black Hawk. Nomad was a bay stallion 13 1/2 hands high, foaled May 31, 1871; bred by R. E. Coleman, Harpersburg, Ky., sired by Ahmad, son of Alexander's Abdallah, dam Mary Coleman, by Gray's Marbrino Chief, second dam by Toronto, son of St. Lawrence; third dam by Kookki; fourth dam by Stambone, imported Arabian.
 These siphing to breed will do well to call and see Craig Nomad before going elsewhere. He has no equal under the saddle, moves all the gait and is very fast in all.
 J. W. CORNELIUS,
 Graham, Texas, March 20, 1893.

JENNY LIND.
 Why she left the stage at the Height of Her Success.
 One matter which must be of interest to every lover of dramatic art, and which has been an enigma to many people, is now for the first time dealt with by one with authority to discuss the question. Why Jenny Lind quit the stage at the moment of her greatest glory, and many years before her unrivaled powers had begun to suffer and decay? Some have perhaps reluctantly accepted the widely prevalent idea that she had come to regard the dramatic profession as an unwholesome thing which no pure-souled woman could remain in without contamination. Happily this notion can be entertained no longer, says the Century. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: "Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact is that to appreciate her motive for leaving the stage is to understand the whole character of the woman. Her distaste for it seems to have begun with her first great success in the stage. Her intimate friend Froben von Steudling with reference to it says: 'Many suppose this resolution to be the result of pletisim. Jenny Lind is an God-fearing, as she is pure, but had pletisim been the cause, she would not herself have gone to the play, which she declared she liked to do, to see others act. The fact