ONE DOLLAR A YEAR.

From and after Jan. 1st, 1894, the subscription price of THE LEADER will be one dollar per year. We make this change in rates for several reasons. In the first place the two other papers published here are dollar papers and THE LEADER is always ready to meet competition with equal rates. Then again a dollar is worth more than it has been in the past. It requires more labor to get a dollar now than it has heretofore and consequently it is worth more to the people.

We will continue for the present year to publish the paper the same size as heretofore and will do the best we can to forward the interests of the people of the county.

We hope the building of a railroad in 1894 will bring better times to all of us and enable us to raise and improve our plant and give a much better paper. THE LEADER is a welcome visitor at the firesides of most of our people and we hope the reduced rates will enable all to take it in 1894.

LOST.

A bunch of several small keys on a steel knob ring; one postoffice key and several small keys. Finder will please return same to this office.

The LEADER scribe took occasion to look at the new school building one day last week and was agreeably surprised at the progress that has been made and highly pleased with the character of the work. The contractor is certainly doing a fine job for us and when it is finished it will be something for this and future generations to be proud of.

Personal Mention.

Judges Dyces and Kerr, two of Archer's most prominent lawyers, were in Graham last Saturday attending to legal business in our courts.

Mrs. Briscoe, wife of Rev. J. M. Briscoe, of Olney, died one day last week. THE LEADER extends its sympathies to the bereaved family.

Misses Maggie Starrett and Mary Graves both returned to their schools last Sunday. As they are both teaching up on the prairies we suppose they each took a bunch of good switches with them from the timber.

Mrs. J. T. Cunningham, of Waco, formerly Miss Lora Munerlyn, is visiting her mother, Mrs. J. M. Pritchard, of this place.

Mr. A. J. Martin, of McKinny, Texas, was visiting in Graham last week.

Dr. M. H. Chism went to Mineral Wells last week and had another operation performed on his eye. We hope it will result in a permanent cure.

We are offering 4 elegant premiums for cash trade. Call and see them. D. R. AKIN & CO.

J. C. Loving, of Fort Worth, was in Graham yesterday and called on THE LEADER and renewed his subscription for another year.

Mr. J. R. Harris and Squire Starrett are both up again but hardly able to attend to their usual business pursuits.

Mr. R. E. Taylor, a prominent attorney of the Archer bar, has been attending our county court this week.

The dollar rate puts it in the power of every man in the county to subscribe for every paper published in Graham and they are all worth the money.

BELKNAP.

Considerable sickness prevailing here now.

Bro. E. S. Tucker had quite a severe attack of "la grippe" but is better now. Also, his wife and daughters were attacked by the same disease.

Master Robert Profit is suffering from "Chille".

Spring must be coming, judging from the "movers." Bush Jones has removed to the "Man Johnson farm West of the Brazos; and Mr. James Johnson takes the Jones house here.

Mr. A. L. Hook, and Mr. Kirkin have removed to the McCan neighborhood South of here.

Charlie Woolford does not care whether the Brazos is bridged or not judging from the way he steps. The real cause is the arrival of a fine baby boy at his house holiday week.

The County Commissioners.

Last Thursday the County Commissioners Court met in adjourned session for the purpose of consulting the bridge agent and transacting other proper business. A petition was presented to the court signed by a large number of citizens of Belknap and the surrounding country praying for a change in the location of the Whiskey creek bridge and the Commissioners on Friday went out in a body to take in the situation.

When they came back they were pretty fully determined to make the change, if they can make suitable terms with the bridge company. "It will place the bridge below, instead of above the mouth of the creek, a distance of about half a mile. Mr. J. E. Whitley of Belknap, appeared before the court in the interests of the petitioners.

We also learned that a change of location was wanted by citizens of Elliasville for the Clear Fork bridge. The contract was let for a bridge at the Parrott crossing below Elliasville but parties desire it changed to Elliasville and cross just below the mill. There were other citizens living between the rivers who were here ready to contest the removal of the bridge. Nothing definite, of course, could be done in the absence of the agent, Mr. Horton, and the court adjourned on Saturday morning till Tuesday of this week when they expect the contractor to be present.

The court met again on yesterday and the County Judge being engaged holding County Court, Judge H. D. Williams was elected to preside. An order was entered accepting the McCan bridge and ordering bonds to issue for the same in the sum of $8,500 of the size of $500 each. The first cash payment of $2,000 was also ordered down from treasury in favor of the Bridge company.

There was considerable discussion in the court in regard to the Whiskey creek bridge and it was decided to move that bridge to below the mouth of the creek. The contractor agrees to it provided the county will take the two extra spans that will be left and the court is in a quandary as to what to do with these spans.

The court went out to Elliasville yesterday to personally inspect the grounds for the proposed change of location of the Clear Fork bridge.

We are anxious for cash trade. Call and see what inducements we are offering. D. R. AKIN & CO.

Street Commissioner A. G. Woods is doing some good work on the Public Square. It is badly needed and we hope the work will continue until all the streets are put in good shape.

We will make it to your interest to come and price our Xmas confectionaries, oranges, all kinds of fruits, nuts etc. We are head quarters for fire works.

We have been crowded with job work this week and have not been able to pay that attention to THE LEADER that we would like to have done, but we are out on time all the same.

We understand that the Graham Radiator firm has dissolved and that F. J. Schilling is succeeded in the management by Will Jeter. We welcome Will to the field of journalism and feel a special interest in him because he took his first lessons as a typo in this office.

A Slight Mistake.

He was a peoples party man and he had heard that there was a new peoples party paper in Graham, so he ambled into the Radiator office with a broad smile on his face and a big silver dollar—the peoples money—in his hand. Is this the new newspaper office? he inquired of a young gentleman at the desk. "Yes sir" was the response. "Well" said he as he held out the dollar. "I've been takin the Graham LEADER for nigh onto ten years. I ust be a democrat, but now I ain't, and I dont like the LEADER's politics." The Radiator man took the proffered dollar and handed him a copy of the first issue and put his name down for a year and 'tis said that man has read every word in the paper trying to find the "Ocala demands" without success and then when he struck the announcement that "this paper has no political principles" he fainted dead away and was only resuscitated by the free use of camphor and cold water. He was simply mistaken like all of us are sometimes.

City taxes not paid next Saturday will have costs added. Call and settle and save cost.

R. C. McPHAILL,

Deputy Marshal Jno. T. Cunningham returned from Haskell a few days ago and tells THE LEADER a good one on that city. He says that some time ago a preacher at the close of an unsuccessful revival service there told the people that they were just 35 miles from H—L and since that time the boys have put up signboards on all the roads leading into Haskell giving the weary and wayward traveler to understand as he nears the town that he is just so many miles from hell. They have taken great pains and marked the miles as to agree with distances on the regular mile-boards.

The Twin Mountain String Band was called to Jacksboro last Friday night to play for a ball. The boys came in Saturday very sleepy but reported that they had a good time.

La Grippe.

This is the proper name for a modern ailment which is just now interesting the people of Young county very much. It is said to be a new disease, a fresh importation, as it were, from Russia, where it started a few years ago. We do not believe it is so much a new disease, but a conglomeration of old ones mixed up and intermingled and dosed out in quantities to suit the most fastidious M. D.

It is a combination of ailments that reminds one of the rustic who when asked by his doctor how he felt said, "I feel squeamish-like and squish-like with a pain in the back and push-like." It hits you all over from the top of your head to the sole of your feet and down you go for an indefinite period of time while your doctor looks wise and says you have got the grip but not in any great danger. And yet you are in great suffering. By and by you get up again and imagine you are well, but you are not. La Grippe is deceitful above all things and desperately wicked. If you catch your breath too quick or leave the front gate open at night you will take a relapse and be assured by your doctor that if you had followed his advice you would be well by this time. After awhile you will recover sufficiently to get out on the streets and when you begin to tell how sick you were and how much you suffered you will find that every man you meet has had it or is just taking it and you will feel like kicking yourself for making so much fuss about it.

Everything is called the grip nowadays. A man in the flush of health will get a crumb of tobacco down his throat and when it makes him cough he will declare it is the grip. Others will stay up and attend to business and vow they have got it bad while the fact is that the genuine article always downs a man. Well, it is here and it looks like it is here to stay.

When to your interest, break off from old ties, save money, price the groceries, candies, fruits, nuts, and Xmas fire works, and finally buy of Educational Department.

J. N. JOHNSTON, Editor,
The Teachers of Young County,
Associate Editors.

Jan. 4, 1894.

To date the teachers have failed to send queries for answer in this department. The editor of THE LEADER is anxious to give two columns of the paper for the benefit of the teachers of Young county. Will the teachers avail themselves of the advantages offered?

Send in short articles on any subject. If you have not the time to write an article send in a few queries on any question connected with your school work.

The next meeting of Young County Teachers will be at Tonk Valley school house, Saturday, Jan. 27. Several teachers in the county have never visited the institute. It has been said that men sympathize with their co-laborers. If you have no professional zeal the children will be neglected.

Supt. Carlisle has issued and mailed to Superintendents and Co. Judges a pamphlet containing a "Suggestive Course of Study," preparatory for the Summer Normal in 1894. It includes outlines covering all the studies required for a first grade teachers' certificate.

He says: "If teachers will, in the manner just suggested, investigate the topics presented in this outline, it is believed that they will be benefited, not only in County Institute and Summer Normal work, and in passing the Summer Normal and the various county examinations, but also in extending their knowledge, broadening their scholarship, and laying the substantial foundation for enlarged usefulness and success." Every teacher should call at the county Judge's office for one of these outlines and read it carefully.

QUESTIONS.
Should teachers make regulations against smoking and chewing tobacco and then smoke and chew himself?

2. How long during the day can small children be kept busy and do successful work?

3. What studies should a child between six and ten years old, pursue?

4. Prof. Fowler will please tell why scolding should never be done in the school room.

5. Miss Mary Graves will please tell how much and in what key a teacher should talk while teaching a class.

6. Prof. Greer should state a few troubles the teacher has teaching a country school.

EXAMINATION FOR PROMOTION.
In our graded schools we too often find it the rule to promote only those pupils who have made a required percentage upon their examination papers.

Such a system often advances pupils who have nothing more to recommend them than the gift of "craming." Perhaps their work during the entire year has been very faulty but by the method named and a quantity of self-assurance they "pass" triumphantly.

Examinations doubtless possess many advantages, but to pupils of a highly nervous temperament they are a decided disadvantage; and they also give those so inclined an opportunity to practice any little unscrupulous acts.

A measure which is attracting general attention in the educational world was one recently adopted by the public school board at Cleveland, Ohio, which abolishes this system of examinations.

"The new method to be put into operation bases all promotion upon a careful system of daily workings which does away with all chance for dishonesty of any kind."

What a relief to both teachers and pupils, this will be. No longer will they have to anticipate the dreaded examination days.

Christmas passed off pleasantly; its festivities culminated in tearing down Mart McBrayer's cow pen; the moral supposition is the old maids did it out of pure spite.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. McBrayer have been in wretched health this fall and winter but are now improving.

Rev. W. M. Goode was the recipient of a nice present from his parishioners at Irvine's Chapel: an elegant copy of Macaulay's History of England; fine nicely bound volumes; the congregation also gave him quite a handsome contribution in silver.

Rev. E. W. Simmons preached to a large audience Wednesday night; a good religious sermon.

Rev. G. C. Calhoun has been with his brethren of the Bend; made a good impression; and was heartily welcomed by all of our citizens. The farmers are working with a vim since the rain getting their ground in order for the coming crop.

Mortuary.

Mr. Joe Porter, died yesterday about noon, after a long and lingering sickness. His friends dispaired of his recovery several days ago and his death was not unexpected. In the death of Mr. Porter Graham loses one of her most respected and most valuable citizens. He was loved by all who knew him and his cheerful companionship will be sadly missed by his friends and neighbors. THE LEADER feels the deepest sympathy for his bereaved son and daughters.

E. A. MAYS.

The persistent cough which usually follows an attack of the grip can be permanently cured by taking Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. W. A. McGuire of McKay, Ohio, says: "La Grippe left me with a severe cough. After using several different medicines without relief, I tried Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which effected a permanent cure. I have also found it to be without an equal for children, when troubled with colds or coughs—25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by The R. G. Graham Drug Co."

By authority vested in me a mass meeting of the Peoples Party is hereby called to meet at the Court House in Graham on Saturday the 13th day of January, 1894, at 11 o'clock, a. m., for the purpose of a more thorough organization of the party.

La Grippe has had a grip on this community for the last three weeks. Some families have all been down, while nearly all have suffered more or less, but all are now improving.

Mrs. J. M. Briscoe died on Tuesday night, the 2nd inst., of La Grippe and pneumonia.

Mr. John Groves has been very low, but is now convalescent.

Wheat generally looks well, and there has been a large acreage sown. The farmers have been busy this pleasant weather breaking their ground preparatory to big crops next spring.

Our school, under the supervision of Miss Mary Graves, re-opened this morning. Miss Mary has taught four months and has contracted with the trustees to teach six months longer. There is about fifty pupils enrolled, and everything is moving along smoothly.

I hope in grippe will not visit us again.

Rev. R. C. Farmer preached here Sunday and Sunday night to large and appreciative congregations.

County Court.

The January term of the county court of Young county began on Monday and will doubtless close today, making one of the shortest terms on record. The following cases have been disposed of at this term. State vs. Texas vs. Gabe Washburn charged with carrying a pistol; plead guilty and got a fine of $25 and costs.

State vs. Joe Wright A. & B., plead guilty and fined $25 and costs.

State vs. E. M. Eichelb, unlawfully fencing land; in default of appearance, cause dismissed.

State vs. Jim Wood, giving to a minor; dismissed by the court.

State vs. Floyd Lewis; dismissed by county attorney.

State vs. John Bennett; A. & B.; dismissed by county attorney.

State vs. Labe Abernathy, assault & B.; continued by the State usually.

State vs. Bill Frye; carrying pistol; dismissed by the county attorney.

CIVIL DOCKET.

H. R. Bratt vs. Joe L. Flint, dismissed for want of prosecution.

Morrison, Street & Co. vs. Ford Brothers; suit for trial of rights of property, appealed from Justice court. Jury verdict late last night for defendants. This last was the only case tried on its merits at this term of court, and the jury was discharged for the term, as it is understood that there will be no further business this term for a jury.

The attention of Young County Democrats is called to the consideration of the advice of the "Old Alcald," Ex-Gov. O. M. Roberts in this issue. Our populist friends are wide awake and organizing their forces. What will the democrats do? Shall we get together and present a solid front to the enemy? "United we stand, divided we fall."

Hon. John H. Cochran, of Dallas county, authorized the News to announce him as a candidate for governor last Thursday, subject to the action of the next democratic convention.

As Mr. Culbreth, who is also known to be a candidate hails from the same county we may look for some lively hustling after the Dallas vote.

It is said that the "Old Alcald" is saying nothing at all concerning the nomination of the governor, but all the people of the northwest have their eye on him. He is the man.

Col. W. L. McGough has said that he is a candidate for re-election to the office of land commissioner. Some ill-advised "friends" of the old man have persuaded him that he ought to run to "vindicate" himself.

The good old Col. has been very fully vindicated we think, and we would be perfectly willing for him to retire to his farm and enjoy that rest which sets so becomingly upon one of his age and honors: "Otan cum dignitate" he believe it is called that.

The governor of Florida is about to stop the proposed fight between Mitchell and Corbett by legal steps. It is to be hoped that American civilization will soon be above the prize fights and that laws will be passed in all the states making it a felony for men to engage in such brutal encounters.

The Call gently hints that "A person that is afraid to give an opinion on a subject had better get in their hole and have some one to stop it up for them afterwards."

The Call's grammar might be criticized by some big "hi-fa-lu-tin'" folks like the Dallas News or the Archer Dispatch, but it "gets there," all the same, and don't you get it. We heartily endorse the idea conveyed, at any rate. An opinionless man is a wart on the nose of creation.

The Call says that every community that has two populists in it ought to organize a populist club and go to work for new numbers. Such a club ought to be very harmonious. One would be chairman and the other secretary and treasurer and if they didn't fall out over who should keep the cash they would get along very nicely.

The Call spells it "Lillilak-alithie." Why? As you call her "Queen Lil'" in the crusade have the life of your type?

Part nine of the Book of the Fair, just received by us, is in some respects the most interesting part of this great publication we have yet seen.

It takes the reader through Machinery Hall and the Agricultural Building and shows him in the finest language and by the best engravings just what was there. This valuable book is published by the Bancroft Co., Auditorium building, Chicago.

About a year ago I took a violent attack of the cough. I coughed day and night for about six weeks; my wife then suggested that I try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. At first I could see no difference, but still kept taking it, and soon found that it was what I needed. If I got to feel better from one dose I took another, and it was only a few days until I was free from the cough. I think people in general ought to know the value of this remedy, and I take pleasure in acknowledging the benefit I have received from it. The Young county Farmers Alliance had an interesting meeting at Lower Tank Valley school house last Friday. Parties attending from Graham and Young counties were present and well represented.

The Old Alcald Speaks.

Ex-Gov. O. M. Roberts is taking a hand in politics just now, in the interest of true democracy. He made a speech at San Marcos one day last week, reviewing the history of the party and urging the two wings to bury their differences and get together. The meeting was attended by a large number of both Hogg and Clark democrats and at the close of his speech the audience unanimously endorsed the ideas he expressed and the plan he suggested. The following extract from Gov. Roberts' speech gives the outline of his plan for uniting the two factions.

There is believed to be no difficulty with the rank and file of the party to agree to unite. The difficulty, if any, will be with the leaders in the party organizations. That, however, may be much relieved by open expression by democrats on both sides all over the state in favor of uniting which should be done by organizing democratic clubs resolved to act together united. As in war, so in peaceful struggles, it is the place of the victor to tender the olive branch of peace to the defeated. It will be the old grandeur of nobility that makes the tender that reflects no abatement on the acceptance of it. We are furnished with a magnanimous example in the reconstruction of the southern states by President Johnson. He invited their citizens to a full participation in the benefits of the union as freemen, with no other pledge than to abide by the constitution. There was no degradation in their acceptance.

As a suggestion, and only as a suggestion, it is proposed that the executive committee of the succeeding side shall invite that of the other to a participation in the steps to be taken for the reorganization of the democratic party as a united body, without references to the differences of opinion about the measures that caused the division.

He also suggested that the basis of representation be the vote cast for the Cleveland electors.

Gov. Roberts says he is too old to become a candidate for governor and his wise suggestions are made merely to promote peace and reorganize the party.

We see nothing wrong in the proposition and we believe it will work if the people will only throw the hot-headed ones on each side and agree to run some neutral man for Governor.

A whole lot of nasty things have been said and they will have to be forgotten and forgiven before we can unite on any sort of a basis and both Hogg and Clark, with their immediate henchmen and first lieutenants, must be relegated to a back seat in the council of the party. If this is done, as the "Old Alcald" says, the rank and file will have no difficulty in getting together on the principles of democracy.

Then the next thing in order will be the nomination of some good honest man, who has taken no part in the split, for governor and the good old party will right herself like an ironclad after a storm and sail on to a glorious victory over republicanism, populism, or any other ism that does or may hereafter attempt to stand in its way; and in conclusion we might say that Lamkin is the very man to lead in the fight.

The Harrold Banner says:

The way to build up a town and keep it growing is to stay with your legitimate dealers, the men who help you pay taxes, support your public enterprises and who are reliable and do honest business. It pays in the end, and dealers, professional men and patrons reap a mutual benefit by so doing. Stay by your business men and they will stay by you.

That is good advice and something the people of Graham and vicinity would do well to heed. Every new business started in the town adds to its material wealth and commercial importance and the people should so divide their patronage as to keep them all alive and kicking it possible. There ought to be no one so hogish as to wish to monopolize the whole thing to the utter exclusion of competition and to the detriment of the town. We must stand together if we ever expect to build up either town or country.

HE HADN'T ASKED HER.
 Jones Was Crying, But He Drew The Line at Business.

A young lady who is really very popular in Washington society tells me the following on herself. "The summer she spent at a mountain resort in Virginia, where she was the recipient of a number of attentions from the men, both young and old, including one who was a young man whom I shall mention by calling Jones. He was very devoted. He took the girl walking and driving. He spent much time in reading candy and flowers, which cost high at certain seasons. One evening there was a hop at the hotel. Between the dances Mr. Jones proposed a promenade. The night was beautiful and the air balmy. The young lady consented. (Notice that the plot thickens and thickens.) Jones told her he thought she was the most charming person he had ever met; that she was everything that a man could desire for a wife. He even said he loved her. The young woman, not a little frightened, said: "But you know, Mr. Jones, I could never marry you."

He stopped short in his rhapsody, and replied: "I haven't asked you yet."

A Valuable Hint.
 It is claimed that at police headquarters at Wheeling, W. Va., is a precious relic in the shape of the remnant of an ancient pistol, which has been carried by Washington when he crossed the Delaware. To prove that it was the rust caused by getting in the water is still on it, after all these years. The fancy fact about it is that it has a percussion lock, which goes to show that the popular idea that percussion caps did not come into vogue till long after Washington's time is without foundation. In fact, this reminds a fellow, as the late lamented Lord Dunsyre might have put it of the fellow you know, that he is a headstrong and the air don't you know, and made such a blessed ass of himself.

Yachts Were Always Pleasure Vessels.
 The term "yacht" is derived from the Spanish word jaght, meaning a chase, hence yachting is the chasing of one vessel after another, and accordingly yachting and yacht racing are synonymous expressions. A yacht is a sail vessel, has been essentially a pleasure craft. History does not tell us where, when or under what circumstances yachts were first built, but it is certain that they are of ancient origin and were only owned by royal persons and great nobles.

Richard B. Sheridan has his appearance one day in a pair of new boots which attracted the notice of some friends, and occasioned some good-natured banter. "Now, guess," said he, "how I came by these boots."
 Many probable guesses were given by the company. "No," said Sheridan, "no you've not hit it, nor never will I thought them, and paid for them."

Whispering Notes of Popularity.
 I complain of your not having sent me word that you had whipped my son, for I desire and order you to whip him every time that he is obstinate or naughty, knowing well from my own experience that there is nothing in the world which does one more good. I know by experience what good it did me, for when I was his age I was whipped a great deal. — Correspondence of Henry IV.

LOST ATLANTIS NOT A MYTH.

A Terrible Professor Believes It Was the American Continent.

Ignatius Donnelly finds a supporter of his Atlantis theory in Mr. Daniel Wilson, president of the university of Toronto, who declares, after a great deal of search, that the lost Atlantis was not a myth, but that it was really the continent of America. He is anxious for its disappearance from view in a different way, but that is merely incidental.

Donnelly's theory was that the land was submerged by some great volcanic upheaval, and that from those who escaped to the continents of Europe and Asia came the tradition of the deluge. Sir Daniel rejects this explanation as being disproved by the fact that there are no traces of such volcanic action either on the continent or in the ocean bed. He believes that the ancient Egyptians, the most progressive and heroic people of ancient times, discovered the continent, but that in the decline both of their learning and power, it became lost in the ruined cities of Central America, whose origin he explains merely as a shadowy tradition.

It is his opinion that traces of the Egyptians of those days are to be sought in the ruined cities of Central America, whose origin he explains merely as a shadowy tradition.

WHILE THE DOCTORS ARE DOUBTING

Scientists have discovered the germs of many diseases, but, unfortunately, not as yet the means of destruction of those germs.

At present the "culture" and not the destruction of the deadly bacteria seems to absorb their attention.

However, they all agree that a well nourished body and plenty of ozone are decidedly unfavorable to their development.

While the doctors are in this state of uncertainty, and even longer would it not be well for the patient to have recourse to the well tried Compound Oxygen, which is both germicide and vitalizer?

During the last 23 years it has cured cases pronounced incurable, and this statement is substantiated by those who have tried it. It has witnessed the failure of "lymph" and "life elixir."

Investigate this matter for yourself. Send for our book of 800 pages. It will tell you about the remedy, and furnish you with many testimonials and records of surprising cures. Book sent free.
