FARMER TAKES OVER POSTOFFICE

N. S. Farmer received his postmaster's commission Monday and took charge of the office. He has been very busy this week getting acquainted with the details of the office and is making rapid progress in that direction. However, it will be some time before he will be thoroughly efficient in the work of handling the mails and making reports. He is doing remarkably well as a beginner.
J. T. Cunningham, who has been postmaster in Graham for the past sixteen or eighteen years, has made a host of friends and he has been in the Government service and he retires with good will and well wishes for the patrons of the office. He is the satisfaction of knowing that he has been as faithful and as pleased as many people as one possibly could in the public service.

Will Serve Refreshments

The Daughters of the Confraternity announce that they will serve sandwiches and ice cream on the house lawn on next

168 Defendants in Civil Suit.

A suit styled John E. Morrison, et al, vs. Ginnery Mutual Underwriters Insurance Company of San Angelo, was filed in the District Court here this week.

The suit is a sequence of the burning of the Wylie House in Jack county several years ago. House sued the insurance company and secured judgment. The case was appealed and the judgment of the lower court sustained allowing House damages for amount of policy.

John E. Morrison, A. H. Jones and N. F. Foxhall, who were members of the mutual insurance company, paid the judgment and these gentlemen are now seeking judgment against the other defendants, 168 in number, who also were members of the company, for their prorata part of the original judgment.

The case will likely be tried at the next term of District Court and will be watched with interest by members of all mutual insurance companies.

LOST COAT—A black worsted whip-cord No 40 coat was lost last Wednesday on the Graham and Newcastle road. Finder will please return to the Leader office and receive reward.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Ribble returned last Saturday from a visit to Mr. Ribble's old home in Parker county. Mr. Ribble says crops are very poor in Parker county this year and that the creeks are dryer than they have been since 1864.

New Well Finished

Work on the well at the High School Building has been completed and the machinery has been removed.

The well is 103 feet deep and will afford plenty of water for the school, it is stated, it being much stronger than the old one. Arrangements are being made to build a brick house around it and a sanitary drinking fountain will then be installed.

When all the improvements now under way at the High School Building are completed it will be one of the best arranged and most complete school buildings in this part of the country and will be a credit to the city.

Sustains Broken Hip.

Grandma Woods, mother of J. L. Woods, the jeweler, fell on the back porch at her son's home early last Thursday morning and sustained a broken hip, and has been unconscious since the accident. Mrs. Woods is sixty-one years old and has been in feeble health for some time. She arose Thursday morning and went on the porch to wash her face when she fell in some unaccountable manner with the above result.

S. A. Pritchard and Dave Higgins, of Paducah, are here this week on a visit to the latter's relatives. Mr. Pritchard has two hundred acres of cotton near Paducah and states that it was fine when he left home a few days ago. He says early feed crops were cut short but all other crops are doing nicely.

Mrs. Mattie Rike and Mr. Willard Rike, of Farmersville, came over in their car Thursday and were the guests of Mrs. E. H. Morrison, who is a niece of Mrs. Rike. They returned home Monday.

Rev. Gaines B. Hall closed a successful meeting at Tonk Valley Monday night and left for Eliasville Tuesday to assist Rev. C. M. Dellinger in a meeting this week. He will return to Graham Saturday.

Mrs. Cornelia Timmons, of Lubbock, Texas, came in Monday to attend the Median Chapel Association and visit friends and relatives.

An Informal Dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Rose entertained with a delightfully informal dinner on last Friday evening. Mrs. Elliott received the guests in her own charming way. After a delicious dinner served in the roses' imitable style, several voice numbers were given and a very pleasant evening was spent on the cool porch. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Kay, Mr. and Mrs. Hudson, Mary, Marjorie and Dorothy.

Misses Anna and Eva Owen returned from Eliasville Tuesday and were guests of their cousin, Mrs. Ragsdale. They left yesterday for Fort Worth to visit the family of Rev. J. E. McLean for several days before returning to their home in Sherman.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Widmayer, Mr. and Mrs. Evans Mabry, Miss Eula McCain, Messrs. Scarborough Mabry and Mabry Short returned from Galveston Tuesday night and report a delightful trip.

J. A. Parsons, of Roosevelt, Oklahoma, who is visiting relatives, accompanied by his brother Geo. F. Parsons, was a pleasant caller at The Leader office Saturday.

C. B. Hill, foreman of the Stovall Plantation, and his family left Tuesday morning for an extended visit with relatives in Dallas county.

The John E. Morrison Company has installed a Bowser Sidewalk Gasoline Filterer and Filler in front of its place of business.

ADDITIONAL BOND ISSUE CARRIES

The school bond election held here Saturday passed off very quietly, the issue carrying by a majority of 33 votes. There were only six votes polled on the negative side of the question.

The bond issue is for $3,000 and will be added to the recent Graham Independent School District $10,000 bond issue against the tract. It was found that the first bond issue was insufficient to finish the addition to the school building and install a new heating plant, and the old one would not furnish enough heat for the main building and the annex. The additional issue will relieve this situation and enable the school board to finish and more fully equip the building.

Work on the annex has been suspended for a few days to await the arrival of building iron which is being shipped from Oklahoma City, and just so soon as this material arrives, work will be resumed. The board and the contractors are impatient because of the delay, as it is desired to have the building completed before the beginning of school, but it was unavoidable, it seems. The brick work has been completed to the top of the windows of the lower floor.

The man who will install the heating plant will arrive soon, it is expected, and that end of the work will be taken up and carried right along until everything is ship shape and complete.

Postmaster General Burleson has issued an order lowering the parcel post rates within a radius of 150 miles of the shipping point and increasing the weight limit from 11 to 20 pounds.

Official circles are a little worried over statistics which have been submitted showing that there are now more than 100,000 Japanese in Mexico and that about 20,000 of these are in or near Mexico City.

The unloading of a big long interest in August cotton which had been accumulated in anticipation of a repetition of the July advance last month, caused a break of 31 points in New York last Thursday.

Every presidential postoffice in the United States will be a postal savings bank on September 2, when 174 presidential post-offices will be added to the list by an order of Postmaster General Burleson last week.

The farmers of Young county are anxious to have a fair in Graham this fall and The Leader believes that they should not be disappointed. Quite a number of the more prosperous and progressive counties of the State are preparing to hold fairs and we believe it will be just as profitable for Young county to hold a fair as it will be for any county in the State to hold one.

An irreparable break has occurred between Gov. O. B. Colquitt and Col. Jake F. Wolters, according to friends of both men. A sore feeling has existed between the men since the last state election when, it is stated by Wolters' friends, he was swapped off in his race for Senator in order to strengthen the Governor's political aspirations. This feeling was brought to a head last week by remarks said to have been made by Colquitt regarding Wolters' method of campaigning. Col. Wolters has resigned from the Governor's staff and it is stated he and his friends will oppose the Governor in everything he undertakes from this time forward.

Decatur suffered a $40,000 fire early last Thursday morning when the Lillard Flour Mill was destroyed.

The Childress Post has recently installed a new Babcock press and folding machine to its newspaper equipment.

Mr. J. Kisinger, one of our prosperous and best read farmers, of the Finis community, was in the Leader office Saturday looking up data on the Palo Pinto county fair. Mr. Kisinger believes in fairs and in conversation with the Leader man stated that he would like to see this county hold a fair this fall. In fact he seems to think, with us, that the county ought to have one. There are quite a number of our prosperous farmers who think the same thing, and if Young county misses having one this fall, she will miss the finest opportunity she will ever have. Let's put on one.

At Baltimore, Maryland, last week a new treatment for cerebro spinal meningitis was tried with marked success. A cure was effected by injecting carbolic acid into the muscle. This remedy has been used in the treatment of tetanus with success.

A deep sensation was caused in San Jose, Costa Rica, July 24, by a private cablegram from Washington stating that Secretary Bryan projected a "United States protectorate over the Central American states." Protests were printed in the press and a public meeting of general protest has been held.

The Leader suggests that the Second Monday in September would be an ideal time to hold a County Fair in Graham. A number of farmers have expressed their willingness to co-operate in the matter and it is now up to the business men of our city to take it in hand. We have, heretofore, suggested that the commercial club take the matter up, but if the organization does not get busy at once the business men of our town should take it in hand. We are in earnest about this believing as we do that a County Fair would be one of the greatest drawing cards for Young at this time that could be played. Not to put ourselves forward, nor for pretige, but to show our sincerity in the matter, we will furnish all the newspaper advertising for a County Fair for Young county free of charge and will print circulars at cost advertising it.

WITH OUR EXCHANGES

Clarendon News.

Judge W. L. Davidson has resigned from the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals, on account of being deposed by his associates as Chief Justice. Governor Colquitt will name his successor, and at this writing there seems to be no idea prevalent as to whom it will be.

Mrs. Ferry, living just outside the town of Floydada, shot at Harry Snodgrass with a pistol one day last week, the trouble arising over some hogs belonging to Snodgrass which had trespassed on the Ferry property. The shot took effect in the horn of his saddle, and he discreetly took himself out of range of a second shot.

Archer County News.

On account of all our printing rollers returning to syrup and bran on a hot day there was no News printed last week. If you are a paid subscriber we will credit your account with two cents; if you are behind you have no kick coming.

Burglars, or a thief, entered the Robinson General Merchandise store at Scotland Monday night and secured about 100 men's hats, including every Stetson hat in the stock about 25 number. Other hats taken were of the Lion Special and Bear brands. A box of gloves and about 100 pocket knives are missing, and the cash drawer was emptied of its contents, $3 or thereabouts.

Henrietta Independent.

Judging from the actions of the people as we observe with reference to revival meetings and bond elections, we are led to believe they are in much more fear of tax than they are of death and the hereafter.

Defeat by a good safe majority was meted out to the 15c special road tax proposition by the voters of Clay county on last Saturday. And it is a little curious that the four largest towns in the county, Henrietta, Bellevue, Byers and Petrohia, each sent in a majority against the tax. Each of these towns harbor citizens in considerable number who own automobiles and there was a campaign rumor that the tax was for the special benefit of owners of automobiles. The vote was light, and if more people had voted the majority might have been larger so we will not quarrel with the people for not going to the polls.

These bridges are all steel bridges and will be substantially built.

Mineral Wells Index.

Word received here today is to the effect that seventeen hundred pounds of this year's seed cotton was ginned at the Howard gin at Grafrod on yesterday. The cotton was raised on the O. D. Yarbrough farm, four miles south of Grafrod.

A. L. Jackson who killed C. P. Yeary last week himself was seriously hurt by a handax thrown by Slim Tallaw is slowly recovering at the Mackechnek sanitarium. At first it was not thought he could live on account of the internal injuries. He is now, however, much improved and may recover sufficiently to stand trial. One of the ridiculous phases of the law is going to be brought out by this situation.

Baylor County Banner.

The twenty odd silos in Baylor county are being filled with the feed crop which is just maturing. Some have bought cutters, which are passed around among the silos. The process that is used in filling the silos is quite interesting and is being witnessed by a good many people from town and country. The feed is cut and blown into the silo at a remarkable rate, about 75 tons per day. It is mixed with water and tramped down.

Commissioners court was in session Tuesday for the purpose of canvassing election returns: It was agreed at this session that Baylor county would abide by the new law as to road working. Hands will be paid $1.50 per day of 8 hours, or 18 3/4 cents per hour. A team will get the same amount.

Anxious for the Middlebuster

Baker Richmond, the game warden, who is here for the summer, says our people here have no idea of the importance the coast people attach to the building of the Middlebuster. At present they feel themselves throttled by adverse railroad interests, and look upon a north and south railroad as their only savior. President L. E. Walker was in Rockport a few days ago, and told how the railroad company had to give Cowper-Thwaite and associates further time till January, for this English syndicate saw no chance to get up the money for railroad building in Texas, while the war in the Balkans is keeping the whole of Europe in a turmoil.—Quanah Tribune Chief.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY

GIVES OUT OPINION

In reply to a query from one of our citizens, Hon. Edgar Scurry, district attorney of this district, hands out the following in regard to the new liquor law, but adds that in case of a violation, he might, upon investigation, change his opinion:

"Section 4 of what is known as 'Intoxicating Liquor Law' prohibiting the intrastate shipment of same into prohibition territory' says: 'Nothing in this Act shall be construed as relating to interstate shipment and transportation of intoxicating liquors, or to the delivery of same to any person, firm or corporation within this state on this interstate shipment or transportation.

"Now as I interpret this law, it only means that interstate shipments can be made to points in dry territories, but after the interstate shipment enters the dry territory and is received by the consignee, then thereafter the same rule would apply as to intrastate shipments. That is to say that you could not again ship or dispose of said shipment in that dry territory any more than you could if you had shipped it from some intrastate point.

Section 6 says: "Nothing in this act shall make it unlawful for any person for the use of himself or the members of his family residing with him to personally carry intoxicating liquors from any point within the State to any other point within this State." I think that section means just what it says, that people living in a dry section cannot have liquor shipped to them or sent to them through any one else, but can only take it into dry territories themselves for the use of themselves and the members of their family residing with them. They cannot give it to friends in their homes or any where else.

Edgar Scurry

About 3 p. m., last Friday Mrs. A. B. Barnett, who lived a mile east of Huntsville, was shot and killed by a negro man. It is stated the negro had been annoying the Barnett family and when Mrs. Barnett attempted to notify the officers she was overtaken and killed by the negro. The negro has been arrested and is in jail.

Texas in World's Sulphur Trade.

Freeport, Texas, July 30—The Geological Survey recently issued a report showing the 1912 sulphur production of continental United States to be 303,472 long tons valued at $5,256,422. The production in 1911 was 265,664 tons with a total value of $4,787,049. The greatest event in the sulphur industry of the world in 1912, according to the report, was the opening of the Texas mines, near this city, last November. These mines are owned by the New York banking firm of S. M. Swenson and Sons and associates and are now in constant operation. The report advances the prediction that with the opening of the Panama Canal United States Sulphur will replace the foreign product in the trade of the Pacific Coast. Japan has heretofore handled the bulk of this trade, having furnished ninety-one per cent of the total exports to the country last year. Owing to natural advantages, Texas is more than likely to get her share of this new trade.

Reduction For Farmers

Fort Worth, Texas, July 30—Secretary Smith of the Farmers' National and Co-operative Union of Texas has received word that the railroads have reduced convention rates from all points in Texas to San Antonio for the State Convention of the Farmers Union. Secretaries at Mineral Wells

Mineral Wells, Texas, July 30.—The Texas Commercial Executives Association held its Eighth Annual Institute in this city July 15th to 19th inclusive. Over a hundred secretaries, editors and commercial agents were in attendance, coming from all sections of the State to participate in the discussions on subjects of vital interest to the delegates. Agricultural experts, Good Roads advocates, Publicity men and others versed in constructive movements addressed the secretaries. J. C. Travilla, Engineer Tarrant county delivered an illustrated lecture on Good Road construction, showing actual building operations.

Prof. R. J. Poits, of the A. & M. College, read an interesting paper on the legal side of road bond issues. The association passed resolutions favoring a State Highway Commission and also a State building at the World's Exposition at San Francisco in 1915. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: L. M. Ward, Sherman, president; Wm. M. Woodall, Temple, Vice-president; B. B. Buckridge, Secy-Treas. The meeting place for the next year will be decided at a later date.

Merchants as Educators

The merchant has one of the highest and most useful callings. He is a builder and educator as well as a dealer. As a rule he does more to promote the general welfare of the community and to support its public institutions than any other class of citizens. Through the columns of the press the merchant teaches us how to live economically and keeps us informed of the progress of modern business and science in providing means for our care and comfort. The merchant is an indispensable business educator and he diligently studies our needs.

A merchant who has no message for the public is not keeping abreast of the times. The prosperous merchant must create the desire to buy goods and then supply it.

Attention Veterans

At the next regular meeting of Young County Camp U. C. V. on the first Saturday afternoon in August all members of the Camp are requested to be present. Two prominent citizens of our county will deliver addresses to the Veterans at this time, to-wit: Hons. Jerry Stinson and John Spivey. The public at large is invited to be present, especially the daughters of the Confederacy. Respectfully,
F. Herroon, Adjt.

Card of Thanks.

Murray, Texas, July 28.
 Editor Graham Leader,
 Dear Sir and Friend: Will you please allow me a short space in your valued paper in which to thank our many friends in Young, Throckmorton and Stephens counties for their present help in time of need.
 On the 18th of this month our house, with its contents, was destroyed by fire. The next day our friends had us housed and well equipped for housekeeping in a neat little cottage on Mr. Charles Donnell's place, and the pantry was filled with food and we received a purse sufficient to provide necessary clothing for the family.
 We can hardly realize passing through the fire, but for the loss of valuables in the way of mementoes of loved ones gone, which cannot be replaced by friends.
 We haven't the language to express our gratitude to our benefactors, but will say we thank them very much and hope they will live long and prosper.
 W. H. Ardis and Family.

Lightning struck the Halsel depot last Thursday night, completely wrecking and burning the structure.

Seven sticks of dynamite which John Evirett was carrying in a basket from a shed in the heart of the town of Hopoeye, New York, exploded blowing him to pieces. The shed was also destroyed and the entire town was rocked.

THE HISTORY OF YOUNG COUNTY, TEXAS

By JUDGE P. A. MARTIN.

To the men of iron nerve and dauntless courage, who opened up the wilderness of the west and made possible the civilization we now enjoy, this series of articles is respectfully dedicated.

CHAPTER XXIV.

The day after the burial of the lamented Wallace, the county commissioners' court was called together in special session and after due deliberation they appointed Thomas B. Collier, chief deputy under Wallace, to fill the unexpired term. No man ever entered into the performance of the duties of any office in the county under more difficulties than did Collier at this time. The county was greatly excited and the jail was filled with prisoners, for not only were the Marlowes there, but there were also one John Frank Speer, charged with theft of horses, one Cummings, charged with burglary and two other Federal prisoners, Cliff and Burkhardt, charged with offenses in the Indian country. On the outside, in the shadows of night and by the fireside of the people conditions were discussed. A guard was constantly kept at the jail some days, but at last everything seemed to quiet down.

Some good citizens of the county began to believe that some operation of the law was coming in February and that every prisoner would have a fair and speedy trial for some days, but at last everything seemed to quiet down.

Some good citizens of the county began to believe that some operation of the law was coming in February and that every prisoner would have a fair and speedy trial for some days, but at last everything seemed to quiet down.

of January, 1889, in addition to the guards at the jail, placed there by the sheriff, the county judge and the county attorney thought it advisable to go and stay in the jail and they slept there in the guard-room. Note: The sixteenth passed without noteworthy event. But at about midnight on the night of the seventeenth, the jail was attacked by a mob of disguised men; the guards were compelled to surrender to superior force and the mob ascended the stairs to the cell-room and demanded Charlie Marlow.

It is thought he is the only one they contemplated doing violence to, yet the facts will doubtless never be fully known. Of what occurred there we are driven to accept the statement of the prisoners that they managed to get hold of a piece of iron pipe and defend themselves in the close quarters of the cell and that the mob were thus repulsed, yet it is hard to believe that a number of determined, well armed men could have been thus defeated by unarmed prisoners. These facts have always caused a doubt as to the purpose and determination of the mob of the 17th of January. Of course those who were in it told not tales about it and the stories of the prisoners were the only ones to be had as to what occurred upstairs.

In the meantime, Marshal Casbell, hearing of the condition of affairs from his deputy at Graham, ordered Deputy Johnson to remove all the Federal prisoners, six in number, from Graham to Weatherford for safe keeping. The Marlowes were both State and Federal prisoners and after a conference between Deputy Johnson and Sheriff Collier, it was decided to take the six men from Graham on the night of the 19th, slipping away as quietly as possible and going as far in the direction of Weatherford as possible before the break of day. So during the 19th day the officers were busy making up their party and getting things in readiness. The writer was requested by Mr. Johnson to make one of the party and did so. John B. Giraud and Sam Criswell were also selected by Deputy Johnson. Among those selected by Sheriff Collier was M. A. Wallace, then Collier's field deputy and who has since served several years as sheriff.

At the appointed time the party gathered with the necessary vehicles near the jail and the prisoners were brought out securely ironed in pairs, by the ankles: all six were placed in a strong hack, Cliff and Burkhardt in front and the four Marlowes on the two rear seats. It was agreed among the party that they would take turns in driving the team and it fell to the lot of the writer to take the first, (and last), turn driving, so he got in on the same seat with Cliff and

On the night of the fifteenth

Burkhardt drove out on the westward road. A back load of guards followed closely behind and others behind them and, in close array and very quietly, the cavalcade journeyed on to the east bank of Dry creek where a mob lay in wait. Someone had divulged the plans of the party. Somebody had betrayed a confidence. There were there in force and array on both sides of the roadway a fearful and a wonderful fight ensued; a fight that rivaled in its deadly combats of the times and one that struck to the very hearts of the people of the country far and wide. It was not very long but it was a deadly and unarméd, but he tried to persuade until that was of no avail and he got out of gunshot after one man fall dead and we were flying fast.

After the battle was the first on the scene of the Marlowes and Cliff Burkhardt were gone with the Charlie and George Marlowe out the feet off their dead bodies, Alf and Epp, to release the bodies of Alf and Epp lay roadside. Near the gate south side of the road lay of Bruce Wheeler outside of the pasture on a lay the body of poor Frimmonson. Sam Criswell's body was in the north side road. Deputy Marshal Johnson, with his only hand to pieces, was trying this way back toward the stable was seriously injured. The mob had silently and the five corpses were to Graham and an incident that night in the court Squire J. S. Starrett coroner.

George and Charley and Cliff were all wounded. Burkhardt escaped and managed to get away in Indian Territory. The mob and Cliff surrendered the second day thereafter. Morton, a deputy marshal, Dallas, and was taken to the place, where the Federal then in session.

NOTE: Those of our who are familiar with the dence brought out in the "mob trial" will note that the writer avoids, as possible, the statement of things but the uncontroverted facts of this horrible affair. Much of it was contradicted in the numerous trials of the that we are almost confined to the bare statements of rather than details which be construed to be unjust reader, for the reason that body else told a different about it.

A BEAUTIFUL PARK FOR GRAHAM

Would be a most valuable acquisition to the City and would afford more genuine pleasure and healthful recreation for the people than any other enterprise.

In response to the question recently asked: "What is the most highly prized of anything in your city by your people?" a leading Waco citizen replied: "Wm. Cameron Park." And such is the sentiment of most all progressive places.

Immediate action by Graham citizens, looking to securing an ideal site, is urged whilst same can be had adjoining the city, in all its virgin beauty and at the present low price: Such a location is now available in a 330-acre tract northwest of town on Salt creek, possessing every necessary qualification, such as deep pools of everlasting, pure water, groves of immense elm, pecan, oak, cottonwood, and other forest trees; places for picturesque, winding drive-ways, lookout points, rustic bridges, flower gardens, ornamental shrubbery, grassy plats, etc., with an abundance of water for all purposes. Plenty of upland and rich bottoms for all requirements. With its natural resources this could be made one of the most inviting and attractive spots in the west.

It is our intention to sell this property soon and already we are having applications for purchases in small blocks which would mean destruction of the beautiful timber and of the location for Park purposes. Before doing this, however, we wish to allow the Graham citizens the chance of its purchase as a whole, if desired.

We suggest that this question be agitated at an early date and active steps taken in the matter.

EXHIBIT SPACE FREE.

Exhibit space is absolutely free to all exhibitors at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition in San Francisco in 1915.

All the capital that is being put into the great Exposition and all the efforts that are being made to attract the millions of visitors who will view the Exposition are at the disposal of the exhibitors without any cost whatever to the exhibitor, except the cost of transportation, installation and maintenance.

Every state in the United States will be represented at the Exposition. In most of the states the legislatures have made direct appropriations for participation. In the few that have not done so commercial interests are co-operating to raise large sums in order to have their states represented. This is being done in Iowa, Oklahoma and other commonwealths which feel that as they bore a part of the expense of building the Exposition they should also participate in the celebration of the Exposition that is being held in San Francisco.
