John Worm, proprietor of Mecca Cafe No. 2, is in a hospital at Fort Worth. He underwent an operation three weeks ago but is now doing very well and will soon be able to return home. Mrs. Worm has been very busy during the absence of her husband.

W. A. Gallaway returned recently from Arkansas. He started last summer but after he had traveled in his wagon a half day returned but later persuaded Mr. Phillips to make the trip with him. They made the trip safely but claimed they were too old to learn the Arkansas language and returned to Young county.

The law firm of Hinson and Ricker was dissolved last Friday by mutual agreement. Mr. Hinson will continue to practice here and Mr. Ricker will go to Mexia where he will engage in the practice of law. Mr. Ricker has interests here and will continue to claim Graham as his home. He plans to return here some time. Graham regrets to lose Mr. Ricker even temporarily.

Mrs. S. E. Pritchard, of the Flat Rock community, was in to see us last Saturday. She has just returned from Wichita Falls where she has been visiting relatives and friends. She reports a new boy for her granddaughter's, Mrs. W. E. Huns, at Wichita Falls. This makes Mrs. Pritchard's second great grandchild.

Mrs. J. A. Allen returned last week from Altus, Oklahoma, where she had been visiting her daughter, Mrs. George Singletary, several weeks. Mrs. Allen states that has a new grandson in Altus named George Allen-Singletary. The young man plans to visit his grandparents here soon.

NOVEL PARADE HERE

TUESDAY MORNING The citizens of Graham were treated to a rare parade Tuesday morning. Posters were distributed early in the morning apprising our citizens that a prominent young couple would be married at 10:30 and that a parade would follow immediately.

A Ford truck had been decorated in a manner which indicated that some one was moving to a far country. An old bed, stove pipes, etc., were tied on. A chicken coop on the rear of the truck showed that their livestock was being moved also. Marion Burkett stood in a truck in front and explained to the large crowds on the sidewalk about the couple having just been married and that they were preparing to move to Oklahoma.

Space forbids our giving all about the parade but suffice it to say that it was satisfactory to the crowds on the sidewalk.

Their friends had planned to properly decorate the car in which they were preparing to take their trip but Mr. and Mrs. Scroggs eluded them and were soon on their way to Mineral Wells from which place they sent back a message to their friends.

AMERICAN LEGION NOTES

When do we eat? November 11. The Ligon-Daniel Post had an enthusiastic meeting last Monday night. Every member present had a part in the meeting.

The Post is anxious for a large delegation to attend the National meeting in Kansas City October 31, November 1 and 2. This will be a great meeting and the expense will be small as a rate of one cent a mile has been granted by the railroads. Any one interested in going should see Claude Bloodworth at the First National Bank.

A call meeting will be held next Monday night, October 17 to complete plans for November 11. Every member of the Legion should be present. November-11 should be a great day this year. An editorial will be found in this issue of The Leader which everybody should read. Every ex-service man in the county with his lady should be on hand for the banquet in Graham November 11.

AMERICAN LEGION PLANS BIG DAY ON NOVEMBER 11

The Ligon-Daniel Post of the American Legion is planning a big day for Graham, November 11. The program committee has not yet completed the program for the day but an effort is being made to have Hon. Lucian W. Parrish here on that day. Services will be held at one of the churches in the forenoon, a parade in the afternoon and a banquet at night.

The committee will be able in a few days to announce the program for the day in full but the Post asks the hearty cooperation of every, ex-service man in the county in order that the day may mean the most.

Watch The Leader from time to time for information about the big day, November 11.

NATIONAL MEETING AMERICAN LEGION IN KANSAS CITY

The National Convention of the American Legion will meet in Kansas City October 31, November 1 and 2. This will be the greatest meeting of the ex-service men since the Armistice was signed and every man who was in any line of service should make a determined effort to attend.

The Ligon-Daniel Post is anxious for a large delegation and insists that the boys plan now to be present at the convention in Kansas City. The railroads have granted a rate of one cent a mile on the certificate plan and arrangements have been made whereby it will not cost the boys much to stay in Kansas City.

Everyone interested in attending this great convention should see or write Claude Bloodworth at the First National Bank for particulars about the trip. The best thing to do is to get a few dollars together and plan to go with the crowd.

Additional information about the time of departure of trains, etc., will be given in this paper next week, but in the mean time be making your plans to go.

SAM GOLDWATER MOVES TO BUNGER

Graham loses temporarily one of her best citizens. Sam Goldwater has purchased an interest in a store at Bunger and moves this week to that fast growing city. Mrs. Goldwater is the efficient principal of the Bunger school. She was the principal there before her marriage to Mr. Goldwater. The board prevailed upon her to take the school again and of course Sam decided at once to move to Bunger.

Mr. and Mrs. Goldwater are fine people and Graham regrets to give them up but hopes to have them back again sometime. They have many friends here who wish them well at Bunger and will gladly welcome them back to Graham when they have finished their work in the oil city. Mr. Goldwater will be in the city often and mail addressed to him at Graham will reach him as usual.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. McJimsey are attending the Fair at Dallas.

S. M. SEALEY DIES

S. M. Sealey, a pioneer citizen of Young county, died at a local sanitarium last Sunday. He had been in bad health several months and came here for treatment but disease had such hold on his body that he got no relief and died early Sunday morning.

Mr. Sealey lived in the Bunger community many years but for several years has lived east of Graham. He was a respected citizen of the communities in which he lived and has many friends who regret to learn of his death. He was a member of the Methodist church and the funeral services were conducted by his pastor, Rev. Cantrell, assisted by Brother T. E. Bowman. He was buried in the Bunger cemetery Monday afternoon.

He is survived by his wife, one son, John Sealey, one daughter, Miss Theo, and two stepsons, D. Harkey of Graham, and Dr. R. M. Harkey of Lubbock, all of whom were present at the funeral.

J. R. Jones, of Mt. Calm, and others whose names we were unable to obtain were present.

STORM DAMAGED COTTON NOT LOST

Dallas, Oct. 10.—Owners of thousands of bales of cotton which were damaged by floods in Central and Southern Texas recently will be fully protected from loss through a blanket insurance policy which the Texas Farm Bureau Cotton Association has on all the cotton in its pool.

The moment a member's cotton leaves the gin it automatically comes under the protection of the big policy covering all cotton owned by the Association. Members of the Association in Central and South Texas were not aware that they were protected to the extent of the full value of their cotton until several of them were notified by the Association to that effect. Flood damage to cotton in Central and South Texas amounted to thousands of dollars but the Texas Farm Bureau Cotton Association membership is fully protected.

STUDEBAKER

THIS IS A STUDEBAKER YEAR

For the first eight months of 1921, our sales of Studebaker Cars were 41 per cent greater than for the same period of 1920, and 101 percent greater than for the same period of 1919. For the same period, our sales of Repair Parts were 13 per cent less than 1920, and 3 per cent less than in 1919.

On September 1, 1921, there were approximately 116,000 more Studebaker Cars in operation than two years ago, and yet our parts business is 3 per cent less than it was in 1919. This proves conclusively that—

Studebaker Cars are standing up in service and staying out of repair shops, to a degree unexcelled, we believe, by any cars of whatever price.

The Studebaker Corporation of America
A. R. ERSKINE, President.

U. S. WHOLESALE PRICES DOWN 42 PER CENT.

During the last twelve months wholesale prices have dropped 42 per cent in this country below the peak in 1920. While prices did not soar nearly as high in the United States as in other countries the readjustment to normal levels has been more capricious and uneven than in foreign countries.

The decrease in France, to date, is about 41 per cent. Great Britain and Japan both register 41 per cent while Canada shows 29 per cent and Australia 15 per cent. As you will see, the approach to normalcy in this country is a shade better than elsewhere, which is another argument in support of fast-returning prosperity, observes Sugarman's Indicator.

VETERINARY SURGEON WITH GENTRY SHOWS

People who love horses, ponies and dogs, (and there are few of us who do not) may be interested in the news that this year Gentry Brothers are carrying with their famous shows a veterinarian, a highly specialized surgeon and practitioner, who explains to visitors interested in animals how Gentry Brothers carry over 300 ponies on the road and never have any ill for any length of time. This is true of the Gentry horses and dogs, also to say nothing of the wild animals in the interesting arena of the show.

The veterinary surgeon invites stockmen to visit him at the circus grounds in Graham on Wednesday, October 19, when Gentry Brothers Famous Shows come to town.

Piping Sea Air Inland
Guy's Hospital in London, England, has installed a system of pipes through which air from the sea can be brought to patients needing it. Sea air is said to contain more oxygen and is very invigorating.

The Chamber of Commerce is doing some work on the Bunger road. The secretary will call on you soon for a contribution for this work and it is hoped that you will respond liberally. The heavy traffic on this road calls for much work at once. Help the Chamber of Commerce in its efforts to build roads to our fields.

HOW COTTON SAVED THE SOUTH THIS YEAR.

Not Business Conditions But Crop Shortage Was the Primary Factor.

The year 1921 will long be remembered as the season in which Nature went out of its way to decrease the yield of cotton. Fortunately, the very large carry-over of something like 7,000,000 bales from the previous season was instrumental in saving the farmers throughout the South from very hard times. The reason for this is that the sensational rise in price from 12 cents to 22 cents a pound was not brought about by business inflation and industrial expansion, which was the primary uplifting power of 1918 and 1920, but the 1921 rise was due to a crop shortage.

Hence, the 10 cent per pound upturn might have meant little if production was about cut in half had there not been a big carry-over. There is no profit even in selling for twice the price if one holds but half the quantity. One outstanding feature of a crop calamity is the manner in which Nature, the original fatalist, skips here and there, cutting down the yield in one field and for no apparent reason increasing the yield, or at least allowing a normal yield, in another. Some communities are blessed and others follow into disaster.

With strange human perversity the average farmer, when cotton prices were around the 30 cent level last year, refused to bring his crop to market in the expectation of even higher prices. We all know what happened. Cotton futures dropped like a plummet of lead in the briny deep, and this season the average farmer thought that there would be no bottom. This caused a heavy "to market movement," but fortunately the carry-over of 7,000,000 bales proved so large that it could not be brought to market fast enough to be sold before the big recent upturn in price. That is why the recent big advance in cotton has been the financial salvation of the South. It came as a big surprise but, nevertheless, was most welcome, notes Sugarman's Indicator.

Justice C. D. Brewton united in marriage at his office yesterday at 3 o'clock, Arthur Robinson and Miss Amy Tipp, of Archer City.

TIME TO QUIT LOOKING ON BOOTLEGGERS AS A JOKE

The Morning News printed a portion of Judge H. T. Littleton's evidence given in a case the other day in the district court in which a man was being tried for running an illicit still. The News is not interested as to whether the judge's evidence helped his client or not. We suppose the object of the testimony was to show that the defendant was more likely to be making a deadly poison than whiskey and the evidence was relevant as his client was charged with making intoxicating liquor. The judge's testimony was quite technical but made a true statement of what the ignorant man may do with a still and some corn mash.

The distillation of whiskey is a very fine art and its improper distillation is fraught with the almost certain fact that a more or less poisonous concoction will result. There are very few of us who do not know of one or more of our acquaintances whose health has been shattered by drinking this bootleg poison. Many of us know of persons whose death it has caused. Just why a sane man will take the chances on this vile stuff is a mystery. But its drinking is looked on as a joke by many and the joke grows very grim after a while.

Some few young boys in Marshall are drinking more or less of these poisons. Any man should forfeit his own life who is willing to take another's life for a few dollars. And yet when the bootlegger is brought to trial he more often than not gets a suspended sentence. A man who will sell this poisonous liquor should be placed where he can't sell it. The selling of whiskey when it was whiskey of the bootlegger was bad enough. Judge Littleton has thrown the spotlight on the terrible dangers that lurk in the moonshine and white lightning that is being sold here in this county and the News printed his testimony in order that the foolish drinker might realize the risk he takes.

A prominent physician told this writer the other day that he knew three men who, in his opinion, would not live six months whose kidneys have been destroyed by the fumes of this bootleg whiskey. Of course, he gave no names but he added that probably every doctor in the county knew of similar cases.

It's time to quit looking on the bootlegger as a joke.—Marshall Morning News.

BUSINESS METHODS.
When the agent brought Mrs. Tarley her fire-insurance policy he remarked that it would be well for her to make her first payment immediately.

"How much will it be?" she asked.

"About one hundred dollars."

Wait a minute and I'll get the exact amount."

"Oh, how tiresome!" she exclaimed. "Tell the company to let it stand and deduct it from what they will owe me when the house burns down."—The American Legion Weekly.
