MRS. S. R. CRAWFORD PASSED AWAY SUNDAY

On last Sunday morning, gloom pervaded our little city when the news spread that Mrs. S. R. Crawford had passed away that morning at 5:30 o'clock at her home on South Elm Street. Her illness was brief, extending through only six days.

She had returned on Monday night from Belton where she had attended a meeting of her church and was ill upon her arrival, but not alarmingly so. Her physician was called and friends and relatives were in loving attendance. A specialist and trained nurses lent assistance but despite all of this, she grew steadily worse until death relieved her as stated above.

Her health prior to this time had been comparatively good; she had led a very active and useful life and her sudden departure comes as a shock to many bereaved hearts.

The funeral services were conducted at the home under the direction of her pastor, Rev. W. D. Boswell, of the First Baptist Church, after which the remains were laid to rest in Oak Grove Cemetery—a spot upon which she, herself, had expended so much of her time and means.

The procession was perhaps the longest ever seen in Graham. Mrs. Crawford is survived by her husband; four brothers, Messrs. Ridley, John, and Joe Stribling of Waco, Sam Stribling of Bunkie, La.; four sisters, Mesdames J. S. Quinn of Bunkie, La., G. H. Stevens of Mexia, Texas, W. W. Robertson of Morganza, La., and Mrs. S. R. Jeffery of this place, and hosts of friends who loved her dearly.

The floral offerings were many and beautiful. Her brother, Ridley Stribling of Waco, and sister, Mrs. G. H. Stevens, were at her bedside when the end came. Another brother, John Stribling, of Waco, and Mrs. J. S. Quinn of Bunkie, La., arrived Sunday night, too late for the funeral services.

Adele Stribling Crawford was born in Simmesport, La., October 24, 1851, thus making her almost 64 years of age at the time of her demise. She was the eldest of thirteen children, eight of whom survive as mentioned. At an early age, she made a profession of religion and proved to be a shining example of an active and consecrated Christian life. She was married in the fall of 1876 to Capt. S. R. Crawford at the old homestead in Simmesport, La. Shortly after her marriage they came to Young county and her life is closely interwoven with the interests of Graham and Young county, continuously since that time.

At her death, she was president of the Ladies' Missionary Society of the Baptist church and had been since its organization; president of the county organization of the B. W. M. W.; also president of the Young County Cemetery Association, and she was always first among the enterprising citizens of the town for any community uplift. However, as her pastor very truly said—with Mrs. Crawford, her church and her church work came first—her very life was given to the work of the Master's cause.

Mrs. Crawford was a friend to the poor or distressed—in her, many found relief and encouragement. Her lovely character and Christian life endeared her to many; she will long be remembered for her generous gifts to every good cause, her deep interest in Christian work, and her active sympathy for those who were in need of a helping hand. In her, the whole town of Graham sustains a great loss. We tender sympathy to the sorrowing ones.

Mrs. John H. Wood Showered.

Last Saturday afternoon the "Don't Worry Club" honored Mrs. John H. Wood with a kitchen shower at her home in east Graham.

While Mrs. Wood was away recently her home and contents were burned, so the "Don't Worry Club" in their usual thoughtful manner replaced Mrs. Wood's loss by a great variety of useful kitchen utensils, ranging from a rolling pin, porcelain and granite pans, bowls, crockery, to a bread-mixer and many other convenient tools dear to every housekeeper. The club assembled at the home of Mrs. W. I. Tidwell and went quietly on their happy mission, to the home of Mrs. Wood. All of the members were not able to be present yet all sent some token of remembrance to their friend and neighbor of long years' standing.

The following ladies comprised the party: Mesdames W. I. Tidwell, Walter Burns, Fay Marshall, W. T. Finch, Walter Douglass, Jno. B. Wood, Sam Dowdle, Edgar Matthews, R. L. Reed, Alma Martin and Jesse Allen.

Mesdames Chas. Widmayer and R. G. Graham were invited guests.

Mrs. R. L. Reed presented the honoree with material and padding for a bed quilt. There were thirty-eight useful gifts left by these thoughtful friends.

DEBATING SOCIETY

The Graham High School Debating Society met last Friday evening at 7 o'clock and had their first program, which was as follows:

Ten minute talk by the president.

Reading by Fred Hudson.

Debate. Resolved: That the Athenians would have been victorious in the Peloponnesian war had Alcibiades not turned traitor.

Affirmative—Clyde Guinn and John Lynch.

Negative—Henry Schlittler and Sidney Self.

Talk—Benefits derived from a debating society, by Floyd Hinson.

The opening talk and reading were both instructive and interesting. The debate was good but the affirmative speakers were unfortunate as the negative side won.

After the debate benefits derived from a debating society were discussed in an interesting and systematic way.

The critic made a short talk and then turned his office over to Mr. Earl L. Howell for the night.

Mr. Howell was followed in turn by Mr. J. E. Burk and Rev. John Newsome. All of these talks were good. They instilled into the minds of the members a desire to work harder and get individual good out of the society.

Everyone present enjoyed the entertainment and was impressed that it would be time well spent to come all of the time.

Reporter.

J. E. Farnsworth, first vice president and general manager of the Southwestern Telephone Co. and J. F. Henderson of Ft. Worth, also an official of that company, were in Graham on business Tuesday. While here they visited The Reporter office, going over old times in the phone business with R. G. Graham, who established the first local phone system in Graham.

Community Co-Operation

COPYRIGHTED FARM AND RANCH-HOLLAND'S MAGAZINE

There is now in progress in Continental Europe the greatest struggle in the history of the world.

While the brunt of this titanic war is of course falling on the shoulders of the citizenship of the nations engaged, its effects are being felt by every civilized country in the universe.

Direct effects on the cotton-growing districts of the United States, and the measures adopted to protect our cotton growers and cotton-producing communities, present conclusive evidence of the advantages of, and necessity for, community co-operation.

No sooner had the call to arms been sounded throughout warring Europe than the world's cotton market crumpled and fell like a punctured balloon.

The South, with a record-breaking cotton crop almost ready to be harvested, could find no market. Foreign mills that had been buying our surplus had been closed down and domestic mills lacked capacity for taking care of the yield in sight.

John Crutchfield Hurt.

John Crutchfield, who hauls cottonseed for the Graham Cotton Oil Co. was seriously hurt last Monday in some manner as he was driving towards Graham.

He was found in an unconscious condition near Red Top by Mr. Thigpen, who telephoned to Graham. Mr. Cal Masey, father-in-law of Mr. Crutchfield, went out after him in his car and brought him to town.

No one witnessed the accident, but from appearances it is supposed that he was kicked by one of his mules, as his skull is crushed and shows the imprint of a horseshoe.

He has never regained consciousness since the accident and it is feared he may never recover.

Interse Club.

Mrs. Edgar Matthews was hostess to the Interse Club on last Friday afternoon. Mrs. Buck Stewart was unanimously voted on as a member of the club. Mrs. Matthews was assisted by Mrs. Sam Dowdle in serving lemonade and wafers to the club members and the following guests: Mesdames Wallace, Norris, Cornish, Thomas and Matthews.

The club adjourned at a late hour to meet with Mrs. Fay Marshall next Friday.

Appendicitis Operation.

Miss Annis Clark was operated on in Graham Tuesday for appendicitis and stood the same nicely.

Her mother, Mrs. Mattie Clark, left here Tuesday afternoon for Graham and stayed with Miss Annis until this morning.

We are glad to note that the patient is recovering rapidly from the effects of the operation.—Archer Dispatch.

Invitations are out for the wedding of Mr. Henry D. Criswell and Miss Maye Gilmore, which occurs on Thursday, October 22 at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Gilmore, in the Salem community. They will be at home in Graham after November 15th.

Mrs. York of Greenville is in town as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Donnell.

Farmers whose lands were planted to cotton faced financial disaster. Communities faced panics. Something must be done to protect our cotton farmers.

Something was done. By whom? BY THESE FARMERS' FRIENDS AND NEIGHBORS. By men and women in every line of endeavor throughout all "cottondom."

The "Buy a Bale at Ten Cents a Pound" movement was launched. Merchants and professional men began purchasing their bales of distressed cotton from farmers in their communities and advised others to do likewise until the sidewalks of many Southern cities, towns and villages have come to resemble cotton platforms.

Every person who is able should buy a bale, thus furnishing the farmers funds with which to supply their needs.

Every farmer should in turn keep his purchasing money at home by trading with his local stores, whose owners and employes have his best interests at heart.

G. A. Posern Dead.

G. A. Posern died at his home at Flat Rock, out five miles east of town, last Friday and the remains were laid to rest here on Saturday, in Oak Grove Cemetery. He was taken ill while on a trip to New Mexico, in company with his son-in-law, Mr. Chambers. From Ft. Sumner, New Mexico, they immediately returned to his home in Texas but he lived only four days after reaching his destination.

Mr. Posern was born in Saxony, Germany, September 8, 1828. As a young man he went on a prospecting tour to South America where he lived for four years, employed as a bookkeeper for a large coffee concern. He returned to his old home in Germany when about thirty years old, and was there married. With his family he emigrated to America in 1877 and after a few years of unsettled living, located in Young county where he passed the greater part of the remainder of his life. He is survived by his widow and children, two of whom are Mrs. Chambers, formerly Miss Mattie Posern, who was connected with the public schools here for several years—and Arthur Posern of Woodson. We extend condolence to the bereaved in their hour of sorrow.

No Quarantine Against Stephens County.

An erroneous idea prevails among the people of Stephens county that Young county is still quarantined against that county in the matter of livestock. To correct this the county health officer has made the following statement:

"The quarantine restrictions as to stock from Stephens county and from this county to Stephens county have been removed, and there is now at this time no restrictions against any stock above referred to."

J. L. Williamson,
County Health Officer,
Young County.

Oran Hewitt of Cleburne, Texas, who is picking cotton for A. H. Jones, is piling up a pretty good record. In one day he picked 812 pounds, and for nine days he picked 4,369 pounds. Pretty good cotton picking, this.

Logan-Evans.

On Thursday morning, October 15, at 6 o'clock, a pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mrs. A. E. Logan when her daughter, Miss Allye, became the bride of Will F. Evans of Valentine. This wedding was the beautiful finale of a series of pre-nuptial affairs, which were offered the bride by her friends at this interesting period of her life.

The decorations of the home were dainty and beautiful. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Horace Tidwell, after which an impressive marriage service was read by Rev. B. F. Stallings of the Christian church, before an improvised altar of ferns, smilax and carnations. This bower of beauty formed a lovely setting for the ceremony.

The bride wore a handsome going away gown of purple broadcloth, with a small hat trimmed in French plumes in harmony, and other accessories to match. She carried an arm bouquet of bride's roses, with ferns.

Only a few immediate friends and relatives of the family and the Les Hiboux Club were present. A number of beautiful and useful presents were on display.

Miss Logan was reared in Graham and is a young woman of winning personality who has a legion of friends to wish her happiness.

The bridegroom is a prominent ranchman of Valentine, Texas.

Out of town guests on this occasion were John M. Cowden of Midland, Texas, Miss Grace Evans, of Valentine, sister of the bridegroom, and Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Lyon.

Christian Church.

B. F. Stallings, Minister.
H. L. Tidwell, Supt. Sunday School.

Bible school at 9:45 a. m.
Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

Next Sunday will be our own church day. All members are urged to be present. All friends are invited.

The monthly official board meeting will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of W. I. Tidwell. Every member of the board is urged to be present, as important business is to be transacted.

O. A. McBrayer Married.

O. A. McBrayer of South Bend stole a march on his friends when he returned last Tuesday night from a brief visit to the north, bringing his bride home with him. He was married in Oshkosh, Wisconsin, on October 3; to Miss Belle Hubbard of that city. Immediately following the ceremony, the happy couple left for their home at South Bend, Texas.

Mr. McBrayer is a prominent citizen of Young county, having been engaged in the mercantile business at South Bend for many years and has hosts of friends throughout the county who extend him and his bride happiest felicitations.

Methodist Church.

Our effort is to get everybody we can to attend Sunday school next Sunday morning. Let every teacher see or phone every scholar—all come and let us have a great day together.

The sermon will be to young men—how a certain King won a great victory by the help of his young men.

Don't forget and be on hand on time.

J. Hall Bowman.

ALARM SYSTEM BEING INSTALLED

Work was started Wednesday on the new fire alarm system being installed by the city. The overhead wires will be put up this week, and will be in readiness for the installation of the alarm boxes when they arrive.

The work is being done by J. H. Thomas, manager of the Southwestern Telephone Co. and Roy Walker of the Graham Electric Co. Mr. Thomas is donating his time to the city in getting the plant installed.

Countrywoman and Schools

I had intended to be a serious writer, but it seems that unconsciously I've started a reputation in the humorous line, so Mr. Editor just put me in the funny section and let me hear Plow Boy and Dreamy Eyes laugh.

But if my foolishness will produce a little "School Gospel" I don't mind being funny, and some of you preached a good sound doctrine, too.

Dreamy Eyes did hurt my feelings or flatter me one by making a city woman of me.

Now, Dreamy Eyes, I'm country all right and my ancestors as far as I know were farmer folk. I don't think I said all that badly needed education was in the country at the present, but I do say that there are plenty of country people to establish some of it there. The country people support numerous churches, missions and ministers and attend church. Why don't they visit the schools and study the children and teachers and their needs for themselves? And when I say needs I mean every need from a new stove shovel to a new teacher and school house, but try to be impartial and impersonal in your studying.

I'll venture to say many parents do not examine the children's books to prove them not good, but still they find fault with books, methods of teaching and the teachers. If we had the will we would find a way out of our difficulties and I'm glad to say many communities have a real school and are doing educational work.

It seems to me that if our schools were worth attending the men of the community could make the roads passable for the school children or that the homefolks might take them to school.

Dreamy Eyes, I suspect there are city people who are grey-headed and have no education, don't you guess, and very likely it isn't the city's fault either. You know some people want an education so they won't have to work, but they never succeed because it takes work to make an education. I say as long as country people say there is no education in the country there will be none, and as long as the farmer boy is led to believe he needs no education to handle a team he will not apply himself diligently. But I hope that farmers don't just expect to plow and gather the crops. They ought to put in some time studying just as Salemite does, though he works hard, and as Plow Boy tells us he does. Good wishes to all from "That Countrywoman."

Mrs. G. H. Stevens of Mexia and Messrs. Ridley and John Stribling of Waco, sister and brothers of Mrs. S. R. Jeffery, returned to their homes Tuesday.

Misses Vera Norman and Jennie Belle Hunter returned Sunday night from Peacevale, Texas, where they have been visiting Mrs. Mary Walstead, and recuperating. Both are reported much improved in health.

We are glad it is the fashion to wear cotton goods. Perhaps now we can be in the style show for a while.

The Boston Braves won a great victory over the Philadelphia Athletics the other day by a score of 1 to 0. This run was made in the ninth inning. Many a boy had rather be the "chap" that made that run than be President.

Mr. John Kisinger of Salem community has our thanks for some nice melons and sweet potatoes brought in Wednesday. While State Press of the Dallas News and Cracks Callan of the Star-Telegram are eking out an existence from paper sacks with possibly a plate of "ham-an" once in a while, we are living off the best the soil produces, including fresh snap beans, okra, greens, melons, potatoes and just lots of other good stuff. There are some good things about being a country editor.

Peanuts and hogs on ten acres next year would likely be much better than twenty acres of cotton. And we believe that ten acres of peanuts would be much easier cultivated than the twenty in cotton.

The inquisitive subscriber from Markley wants to know of us how big Big Monday was. Well, it looked to us like a bale of 6-cent cotton.

Reports from the larger cities in the South indicate that offerings of cotton are plentiful, and buying orders few, even at six cents. Evidently the farmers around the big towns are in as hard, if not worse shape than the farmers close to small towns. None of our exchanges report an unusual amount of cotton being offered for sale in their towns.

National advertisers do not believe that there are hard times in the United States, as they keep steadily at the game, drawing in the shekles from every state in the Union. It is easy for those who control the money in the United States to create a feeling of hard times, but these firms who spend thousands of dollars each week to let the people know what they have to sell are hard to fool.

Seeing that Germany is not yet conquered, and not likely to be in many months, we believe that all the countries involved could save many thousands of lives and their dignity also if they would allow Uncle Sam to step in and arrange peace terms. Wouldn't it be a good thing for our ambassadors to earn a part of their pay in this way?

A solution of the cotton problem will not be given by any one man. It will take the combined efforts of the farmers themselves to solve it. When mills produce too much goods they curtail their production. When cold storage houses have too many eggs they store them away and wait for a better market. When merchants have too many goods, they refuse to buy more. It is up to the individual farmer; he can either raise cheap cotton and go in want or raise more of the things he can consume and dispose of at a fair price. The farmer ought to be a business man, and we believe is enough of one to see where he is drifting.

The fall of Antwerp is another blood-bought victory of the Germans. This old city was called by Napoleon, "A pistol pointing at the heart of Europe." It is a city full of historic interest, and has figured prominently throughout this Great War. It is now in full possession of the Germans, after a fierce struggle of ten days. King Albert himself was among the defenders until a few hours before the fall when it was realized that longer resistance was useless. The Belgians have borne the brunt of the battle both in the advancing hosts of Germans to Paris, as well as in their grim retreat. They have covered themselves with glory by their valor and although little was known of their fighting proclivities before, now the world thoroughly respects "Little Belgium." Just how the Germans will use this new vantage point, it is hard to tell. Some experts think they will use it as a base for further action in northern France, seizing the ports along the coast with a view to invading England. Others think the possession of Antwerp, menacing England, may violate the neutrality of Holland. At all costs, we hope it may not involve another nation and that some how or other, the wholesale slaughter may abate and peace terms may be agreed upon, speedily.

A representative of the English recruiting corps was here Monday and Tuesday buying up horses for use in the English army. We understand that he selected and purchased about twenty horses, paying a reasonable price for them. These representatives are stationed at different points throughout the South, selecting good horses for cavalry use. These animals are shipped to Canada and from there are supposed to be re-shipped to England. After paying a fair price for them here and the cost of transportation across the continent, thence to England, makes them very expensive by the time they are ready for use. This buyer asserted that each horse cost from $180 to $230 by the time Great Britain saddled him for service.

PICKWICK

How are you all? I am fine and we sure have had some fine cotton picking weather, haven't we?

The Reporter was fine last week wasn't it? Silver Bell was with us again.

Welcome Wild Bill to our fine, very fine paper.

Hurrah! for the Kid. I think from what he said last week that he is right about the price of cotton and the cause of it being so low.

Silver Bell, I am like you. I had rather be called a socialist than a democrat, but I had rather not be called either one. Plow Boy you had a fine letter in last week's paper and as to the school question you are right about having better schools in town than there are in most rural districts, but whose fault is it? As you say we could have better schools if they would manage the money as you say. Now, let us still be friends and not argue about it.

What is the matter Jack o' Diamonds? Has Red Wing scared you off? Come on with your letters.

Trixie had a good letter last week, didn't she?

Mr. and Mrs. Ambros Agee and family have returned from California. We are glad to welcome them back again.

I forgot to mention last week that Miss Georgia Weldon had returned home from Graham, where she had been for several months. We are sure glad to have her come back.

Mrs. Lettie Weldon visited Mrs. Comstock Tuesday evening.

Grandma Nixon visited Mrs. Johnnie Mae Weldon one day last week.

Well, I did a little better this week picking cotton than I did last week. I just picked four and one half days and got 1421 pounds. How many can beat that.

Bill Potter was in town today (Saturday.)

Jordan Keeth of Milsap is picking cotton for R. A. Anderson.

Addison Wester called at T. F. Weldon's Saturday evening. Wonder what is the trouble with the Breckenridge boys, they have quit coming to Sunday school.

One of Tom Clay's little girls is reported as being real sick with scarlet fever. We hope for her a speedy recovery.

Snowflake, do you know me? I know you or at least I know one of your sisters and one of your brothers mighty well and I believe that I would know you if I were to meet you. Guess I will see you at the reunion will I not?

Mrs. Callie Davis visited Mrs. Lettie Weldon Friday evening.

Miss Carrie Weldon is picking cotton for R. A. Anderson this week.

Little William Nixon has been right sick the past week. Glad to report him better at this writing.

Several of the Pickwickers attended the party at Mr. McAvoy's of the Lucille community Friday night. Beauty didn't go. All reported a fine time.

J. P. Nixon is suffering from a badly cut finger and he has a time picking cotton.

Roe Davis is working for J. H. Wester.

Jewel Nicklas has quit work for J. H. Wester. We sure miss Jewel in our Sunday school.

Mrs. Fannie Jenkins is helping Mrs. Daisy Nicklas in the phone office at times.

Miss Carrie Weldon and Grandma Nixon took dinner Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wester.

Johnnie Dolittle, why wasn't you at singing Sunday night? G. W. Weldon took off a bunch of cattle yesterday to ship them to Ft. Worth.

Aren't you all glad that peacans are getting ripe? My little brother has just come in and gave me a handful. They sure are fine.

Lit Perry spent the night Saturday with Henry Nicklas.

Here some one take my pencil, I'm going. Beauty.

LOVING

Loving had a good rain Sunday night, a norther Monday and we expect snow in the near future.

Bro. Nobles filled his regular appointment at the Methodist church Sunday at 11 o'clock.

Mrs. Nobles has returned from Arkansas, where she has spent the past few weeks visiting.

Bro. Boone of Ft. Worth filled the pulpit at the Baptist church Sunday afternoon. A large crowd was in attendance.

Bro. McCord, our Baptist Missionary has been quite sick for the past week. Mrs. McCord is also suffering from a severe cold.

Bro. McCord will preach here on the fourth Saturday and Sunday in this month if he recovers sufficiently to fill his appointment.

Bro. J. W. Evans preached at Indian Mound Sunday. We understand that he has been called to the care of the Baptist church at that place.

The singing at Pick Stewart's Sunday night was well attended.

Louis Clark and family came in on Sunday's train from Oklahoma. They went out to Mrs. Clark's fathers, Virgil Hamm.

C. T. Story and Tom Brown went to Archer City Sunday. They made the trip in Mr. Story's car, returning the same day.

Claude Reeves and wife spent Sunday in the country visiting relatives.

A wedding took place in our town last week (exact date not available.) The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. L. McCord at his residence. The contracting parties were E. D. Cochran and Miss Susie McKinney.

Miss Winnie Groner returned home from Dallas Saturday, after making an extended visit with her sister at that place.

P. L. Pittman spent the day in Graham Big Monday.

Nellie Harris, who has been quite sick is much improved at this writing. She has had a very severe attack of kidney trouble.

It is with sincere regret that the people of Loving learned of the death of Mrs. S. R. Crawford. She was loved and respected by everyone in our part of the county and we will all feel her loss very keenly. To the bereaved we extend deepest sympathy in their sad hour of trial. Loving Heart.

SPRING CREEK

I have been so busy picking cotton I didn't take time to send my letter off that I wrote last week.

Cotton is fine up here, or around where I stay, at least.

S. A. Dugger and Miss Jennie Roberts attended the show at Megargel last Saturday night.

Mrs. Gus Whittaker and daughter, Marta May, called at her mother-in-law's, Mrs. Whittaker, Sunday.

Miss Carrie Vines was shopping in Megargel Saturday afternoon.

Matt Brom had a horse to die with colic last Monday from eating green cane.

Mrs. Ida Vines and children were at Megargel Saturday.

Bluebird, it isn't the one that passed twice a day, but the one that came on Sunday's. You have an idea who it is, I suppose.

W. E. Whittaker called at Matt Brom's Sunday.

Mrs. Whittaker and two of her daughters, Mrs. Gibbs and Mrs. Johnnie Sides, were out driving last Sunday.

Johnny Thomas called at W. T. Vines' Sunday on business.

Charles Whittaker and wife returned from El Reno, Texas, where she has been visiting relatives, Saturday.

Neal Wilborn has out thirty-four bales of cotton. He or some one else, I heard talking said he would make one hundred bales.

I think all the men in this vicinity try to go to gin the same day.

Mr. Bailey went to gin Friday.

Messrs. Mose and Eugene

Whittaker went to Seymour Sunday in Mose's Ford.

Messrs. Bill and Eugene Whittaker and Neal Vines were out horseback riding Sunday.

Mrs. Ida Vines called at Mrs. Edna Morgan's Sunday afternoon.

Several around here went to the storm cellar Sunday night on account of it raining and turning cool. The cool weather surely scared them. Hollyhock.

DUFF PRAIRIE

Mrs. Black and children from near Graham visited her daughter, Mrs. Edd Richardson last Thursday.

Wils Copeland and others made a flying trip down to Strawn Wednesday, in his new car.

Master Bert Deaton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Deaton, left Thursday for Merkel, where he will enter school.

Now, I am not given to fault finding, nor do I believe in chronic kicking. We, as a community at large, have not given our school the attention that we should. We have somewhere between $80 and $90 to support a school at this place, and of course have no teacher. We have no special school tax whatever. We have acres and acres of as fine land in this district as you will find in Stephens county. Every year we have made over an average crop. Most all of us are paying out our homes and living, yet we all seem very unconcerned about our school. Is it cheaper to board out our children and send them to school or to vote on a special tax? Or do we prefer to let them grow up in ignorance? Now parents and citizens, it is up to you. If you want a good school in this or any other community you can have it. If you will try hard enough. If not you will be in the same old rut that you started in when Gabriel blows his horn.

We are sorry to report little Marion Ingraham on the sick list.

Sid Copeland made a business trip to Graham Saturday.

Mrs. Emily Rogers of Pleasant Hill visited her son, J. H. Rogers from Saturday until Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Harrell visited relatives in South Bend Saturday and Sunday. Mrs. Harrell's sister came home with them and will spend the week with her. Pat.

School Supplies.

Competent ginners will look after your interests and see that every bale is properly ginned.

Graham Gin Company

MOUNT PLEASANT

I agree with Salemite that the acreage of cotton should be reduced next year, but I do not agree with Governor Colquitt's plan to enact legislative measures to "compel" a reduction of the acreage. I believe this is about the wildest idea that has ever gotten into the governor's head.

There are numberless farms in Texas that it pays better to run in cotton than anything else, even at 8 cents per pound, and to force the owners or renters of such farms to cut down the acreage of their cotton crop would be unjust.

If Governor Colquitt would go to the bottom of the cotton situation he should seek to bring about some land legislation, something like that which was proposed by Col. Ball. In my humble opinion this would be a much better and safer plan to use the school fund to benefit the agricultural classes than the Governor's "Bank of Texas".

If the farmers owned their homes they could plant whatever kind of crops it suited them to plant. As it is, they are forced to plant something they can gather and sell so they can get ready to "move."

Most of this talk about raising more feed and less cotton is to a great extent wasted on the renter. Particularly is this so in this western country, because we must raise a bulky feed here, such as sorghum, maize, kafir corn, feterita and Schreiber corn, or else buy Oklahoma and Kansas corn and chops. For by the time the above mentioned feed is moved it is worn out or damaged badly.

Oh, but some will say "Why do you move? Why not get you a good rent and stay with it? No use to keep moving if you are any account." Such talk reveals the ignorance, unthoughtfulness or pure cussedness of the speaker. We must move for various causes other than pure triflingness. Sometimes to give place to the landlord's son, some times because the place sells and then, God save the mark, some times we do not belong to the "right church." And yet these hypocritical devils have the audacity to complain that the Catholics oppress and persecute protestants! Show pity Lord.

If the reader will pardon my reference to my own experience I will give you something "fresh off the bat." I have been in Young county about seven years during which time I have moved three times, and not one time because I wanted to move, or because my landlord was displeased with me. I believe I could get a letter of recommendation from either one of these landlords, though I might have to get the witch of Endor to call one of them, a grand old man, up from the dead, because the place is under different management now.

The first time I moved because the place sold, the second time I moved because the landlord's son wanted the place. The third time I moved because the place was changing hands, and now I must move again because my landlord's son wants the place. And this man told me last year that the only thing that would cause me to have to move was for some of his children to want the place.

I would be pleased to remain on this place because it is a fairly good place, and my present landlord is above the average of landlords. So don't tell me all renters move just to be moving.

Now I hear someone say "Buy you a place and stop renting." Why, to be sure, if we are not able to buy corn bread let's buy pound-cake. Savvy?

If "Davy Jones" don't look "a leetle out" when he goes to gather up his boys he will overlook some of the landlords.

Mr. J. E. Martin attended the church services and the Sunday school at Tonk Valley last Sunday. Mr. Martin reports a good sermon preached by Rev. Gaines B. Hall. He also says they have the best Sunday school he ever saw. Said there were about 80 in attendance Sunday. They have a union Sunday school at Tonk Valley, and as Dago said,

"union Sunday schools are the only kind worth having in the country."

Mr. and Mrs. Wragg and Mr. and Mrs. Mote spent the day Sunday with home folks. These are indeed precious times when the children return to visit us, for all too soon they will in all probability be scattered, and their visits will be further apart—therefore the termination of each visit brings a twinge of sadness to our hearts.

William and Bessie Brown returned home Saturday after spending a couple of weeks in our midst.

Marshall Brown is picking cotton for C. F. Choate in Pleasant Hill this week.

The county road camp in charge of Finis Burnett was moved to Drummond last week.

Elder Fisher filled his regular appointment at the Chapel Sunday.

Say Kid, quit bringing forward old out of date questions. These are war times, "doncherknow." There are six more years yet for Wilson, two of the present term and four for the second term, which according to democratic rules he is entitled to and which he will no doubt get. And I shouldn't be at all surprised if cotton sells in less time than two years for twenty cents.

That's right Trixie, shoot the drunks; they deserve it, but let's walk easy on the Salvation Army boys, for I think they are doing a great deal of good, and have not the time to fool with this six cent cotton. By the way, it seems that Bryson people are down on bums and humbugs. I passed through there in the fall of 1906, the memorable good crop year for this country. When I stopped on the little creek just west of town for dinner I discovered that my fine gray hound was missing, so I went back to town to hunt for him. On the way (I walked the railroad) I saw a fine white cotton field, in which was a man and some little boys picking cotton. I inquired if they had seen my dog. "Nope" said the man, rather short. I found my dog on the streets of Bryson. As I returned with him to camp I waved to the man in the cotton patch, as much to see what he would say as anything else, and told him I had found my dog. He replied "I think there would be more money in picking cotton than there is in running around hunting." I gave the irate farmer another wave of the hand and told him "I had money that had never been spent and didn't have to pick cotton." You see, Trixie, I did not tell the fellow how much money I had, but I run my blazer just the same. But really are we not too hasty some times to censure strangers?

When I hear a professed christian pray thus: "Lord we feel unworthy to take thy Holy name upon our sinful lips," I think what an awful bad son you must be old man, if indeed you are a son. It seems to me that you pray like an alien. "For behold what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us that we should be called the sons of God," etc. And again, "For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God." Furthermore, "But as many as received Him, to them gave He power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on His name." Why should a good son feel unworthy to use his Father's name? Why, now why? Please stop here and answer this question reader, for it is a vital one.

Such a christian freak must be the spiritual (?) offspring of the preacher who will walk over a common man to get to "howdy" with some old whiskey soak who happens to have considerable of this world's goods. It hasn't been long since this writer was snubbed that way by a preacher.

Lest the Baptist people who seem to have "their feelings scattered all over the floor" should think I am after them again will say that I believe the church of my choice (the Methodist) has more swell headed aristocratic preachers than any other denomination. Guess I have the right to talk about my own kind, eh preacher?

What did that unequalled preacher, the late Sam Jones, see when he told the Boston preacher, "God is going to save this world, but not by the crowd that's working at it now?"

Homeite, Silver Bell and others, I thank you for your compliments of my effort to say something helpful on the school question, and other subjects.

There is no subject closer to my heart than the question of good schools.

Yes, I object to being called a socialist Silver Bell, but I allow everyone their own way of thinking. Nothing pleases "big business" more than for the common people to split up and align themselves with different reform movements, while old shyllock maintains a solid front. The common people will never accomplish much for themselves.

Thanks for your pencil Silver Bell. Just look what an awful letter I have written with it. Hope you will pardon me. Plow Boy.

We want your subscription.

We are extremely anxious to increase the feeding of

MEAL AND HULLS

among our farmer friends, and as an inducement to this end we offer for a limited time only the following unprecedented bargains in

Exchanging Meal and Hulls for Cotton Seed

---

For One Thousand Pounds of Seed

We will give 1200 pounds of Hulls and 400 pounds of Meal

You have the seed, we have the hulls and meal. We want to buy your seed. We want to sell hulls and meal. You need meal and hulls, for though you have other feeds at home, meal and hulls at these prices, make better and cheaper feed than anything grown or made for any kind of farm stock.

For Feeding Horses and Mules

Fattening cattle, hogs or any kind of poultry,
One pound of Meal is worth--

3 pounds of corn--
2 pounds of oats--
4 pounds of wheat bran--

For Producing Milk and Butter

One pound of meal and hulls mixed one to four is worth--2 pounds of corn--
2 pounds of wheat bran--
2 pounds of cotton seed--
4 pounds of best hay--

You get about one thousand pounds of seed to every bale of cotton ginned. If you have used meal and hulls you know it is better feed than seed. It will make more milk, more butter, better milk and better butter, more flesh and more fat, and keep your cows or steers in better fix than cotton seed. If you have not used it, catch one bale of seed, bring it to us and take home on this basis: 1400 pounds of hulls and 400 pounds of meal, being 1800 pounds of mixed feed. Worth more pound for pound, in feeding value than cotton seed, corn or hay. Feed it to any stock on your place, and if you do not find it a better and cheaper feed, pound for pound, come and say so and we will pay for the seed. You may be the judge and there will be no "back talk."

Live News from our Correspondents

SALEM

Miss Dora Ratcliff of Henry Chapel spent part of last week with her sister, Mrs. Millard Hinson.

We are hauling cotton from here now to the Finis gin. They are doing good and rapid work down there and paying Graham prices for seed. Much of the cotton is making one-third lint but it is not turning out in the field as well as at first expected.

Cotton picking is in full blast now. The pickers are in the field from daylight until it is so dark that a match has to be struck to see figures at last weighing at night. Yes the farmer has an easy time of it, and so does the mule.

Steadman Carter and Bob Garrett called at John Kisinger's last Sunday but we don't believe they went there to see the old man.

Miss Nannie Henderson spent Sunday with Miss Anna Bullard.

Rev. S. D. Cook filled his regular appointment here on Sunday, October 4th.

Bob and Elmer Garrett of Center Ridge community are picking cotton for R. L. Askew.

Sunday, October 4th, being the day set aside to pray for peace in Europe, religious services were held at Salem, conducted by Elder W. M. Higgins.

Mr. and Mrs. Arch Martin spent Saturday night and Sunday with his sister, Mrs. Mary Henderson.

Mrs. S. H. James, one among the first settlers of the Ming Bend community, quietly passed away some time during Friday night, October 2nd. No one was aware of her death until Saturday morning and as she was in her usual health the evening before it is thought that heart failure was the cause of her death. Mrs. James was the last one left of the family of Mr. and Mrs. William Morris, of Ming Bend, and now she has left this vale of tears and gone to meet father and mother and her three sisters and other loved ones on the other shore. A good woman has gone and the bereaved family have the sympathy of this entire community.

Clay Anderson and family visited relatives in Anadarko Bend last Sunday.

D. G. Hinson visited home folks Sunday.

We are sorry to hear that Plow Boy is working so hard to keep from manual labor. We got a glimpse of him show day, while he was standing on a wagon wheel inspecting a load of apples and noticed that he looked paler than usual and that the latter clause of his trousers looked like they had undergone much hard wear, but as he carries a very sharp pencil we will say no more at this time.

A good shower of rain fell here Sunday night, followed by quite a cold norther next day. A good rain would help now, for it is too dry for fall plowing and wheat sowing, but at the same time it would damage cotton.

The fact that it costs eight cents or over to produce a pound of cotton has been figured out and published several times during the last few years. It is plain then that the farmer who sells his cotton at present prices is working for worse than nothing. Information here about holding cotton leads to the belief that only cotton that has to be sold will be put on the market at present prices. If a bale is in such great distress that it is shedding many tears it will of course be sold. The present turn in affairs is very hard on the farmer; so much so that he doesn't know what turn to make, or what to do next. We are well acquainted with him and know that he works hard, and if there is any part of his anatomy that is inactive or idle it is that part above his ears. Let that be as it may, right now is the time for him to do a lot of good hard thinking. He should pass a few good resolutions, all his own, and then line up to them. He should resolve to plant only one-fifth of his land in cotton, for the next few years at least, and the remainder in grain and feed crops and then breed all the live stock, best adapted to the live stock, best adapted to his farm, that the farm will carry. By so doing he will find a good market for all his produce and he will have no cotton shedding tears all over the farm and his children will not weep because they have to pick cotton when they should be in school. And there will be less labor to perform on the farm and the land will not be worn out by planting the same crop on it year after year.

Cotton is king, every inch a king, and is the mainstay of the great State of Texas and should be treated as a king. It should not be made to shed tears and piled up until it is worthless. Just think of the man who has been raising the Half and Half variety of cotton. Why, for him the half hasn't been sold, for instead of the cotton the man has been sold. We have all been sold this time but we should see to it that it doesn't occur again, for we owe that much to cotton and win or lose in the transaction, every farmer should hold all the cotton off the market that it is possible for him to hold. Reduce his acreage for next year, store the cotton on the farm in some kind of way so it will be well protected from the weather and hold it until they roar good and long for cotton. This can be done. It is not mere theory, it is practical, and the work is in the hands of the man who sows the seed. For he decides of what the harvest shall be. He should keep awake and not allow himself to be misled by cotton reports put in circulation by ginning, compressor or oilmill interests, for they don't work for toll any more. They work for cash alone and a big cotton crop works greatly to their interest. Salemite.

TONK VALLEY

How did you Correspondents like the fine rain that fell last (Sunday) night? I was glad to see it, myself.

Eighty-four were present at Sunday school and church Sunday. This is quite encouraging to us. We hope to reach 100 next Sunday. Rev. Hall filled the pulpit here Sunday.

Quite a crowd of Upper Tonk people attended Rally Day at Lower Tonk Sunday morning. We enjoyed their program fine.

O. K. Freeman and family ate Sunday dinner at the Seddon home.

Miss Rudelle Seddon was a guest of Miss Delilah Robbins Sunday.

Misses Hattie Belle Reed and Nita Bryan visited at Garrett Robertson's Saturday night and Sunday.

Elmer Bray is picking cotton for his brother, Bert, in this community this week.

Rosco Byrd of Newcastle was a caller at his sister's, Mrs. Bray, Sunday.

Horace Busch's mother, who has spent the last year with him, left Tuesday morning for Alvarado, for a visit to her niece. From there she will go to her sister at Comanche for a visit.

Carl and Bruce Knight went to Ft. Worth to take in the stock show.

Miss Delilah Robbins and brother, Walter, attended the picture show in Graham Saturday night.

Mr. Hand attended the funeral of Mrs. S. R. Crawford Sunday afternoon.

Yes, Pansy, I went to the picture show Saturday night. Had a fine time. That big bud of yours had better quit telling you so much.

We were glad to welcome X. Y. Z. back to Sunday school Sunday, after a few Sundays' absence.

Quite a few from here went to second Monday.

Bert Bray visited his father in the Center Ridge community Saturday night and Sunday.

Misses Anna Belle Wadley and Alma George with their "beaus" were driving very slow in our community Sunday.

I saw our Editor at the picture show Saturday night. He looked like he was trying to solve the Million Dollar Mystery. Jolly Girl.

INDIAN MOUND

Last Monday evening about sunset a couple of youngsters passed down by here a-foot. Late Tuesday evening Ben Isbell of Padgett came down in search of them as a pair of runaway brothers. After looking this neighborhood over he took supper with R. G. Taylor after which he went back to Newcastle. Wednesday their father came down by Orth, Jean and Indian Mound and on to Graham the last place they had any trace of the boys. When the old gentleman overtakes these boys we believe there will be a happy reunion, but I would not like to be present. I've attended too many reunions of this kind already.

Hello here, Gray-eyed Girl. I thought some weeks ago that you had got easy once more on Sunday schools and teaching the Bible. Kids are always asking somebody something and especially when they call themselves sharp ones. I am sure you hold in your general belief to the denomination that does neither believe in Sunday schools nor secret organizations. Now come to the front with your Bible and show me your reasons. Please begin reading at Acts 13:1-18, 8:11. Please tell us what these verses mean. Yes, I read my Bible some, just like you advised me to do and what do you suppose I found over in Ephesians 4:11? Look and see right quick and then come back in a long turkey trot and tell us what that one verse means. If you will we will excuse you on the others. What difference is there in preaching and teaching the Bible? Bible answer please.

Come on Jack o' Diamonds with some more of your pro speeches. I glory in any young man of your age, who has the nerve to stand up and tell a sweet looking young lady that he is a pro.

Bro. J. W. Evans preached for us Saturday morning and Sunday at 11 a. m. and 4 o'clock in the afternoon. Our regular meeting days will be every second Sunday and Saturday before.

Sunday afternoon as Misses Corrine and Ruth Stephens started to church their buggy horse became unruly and ran away, tearing the buggy all to pieces. The horse was hurt slightly but we are glad to report that the girls escaped unhurt.

F. E. Borchardt carried a load of wheat to Graham Saturday afternoon and traded the whole load for flour.

H. H. Stephens is on the sick list at this writing. Hope he may be able to be up again soon.

Our community was shocked Sunday morning when we received the news that Mrs. S. R. Crawford was dead.

I'll grant you pardon any time Miss Brunette, as I always try to keep on the good side of all the ladies, and especially those that belong to our happy band of Correspondents.

Some of our people attended Big Monday.

B. W. Drum called at J. S. Fisher's Saturday.

R. G. Taylor is looking for it to turn cold. He went after a load of wood Monday.

W. R. Dollins and M. N. Newman were in Newcastle with cotton Thursday.

Here I come again, after an absence of some time. Cotton picking is the order of the day now.

Lewis Rickles went to E. L. Cretsinger's today (Wednesday) to cut cane.

J. H. Wesley and family, E. L. Cretsinger and family, H. J. Cretsinger and family and Grandpa Hunt called on Henry Steele and wife Sunday.

How many of you Correspondents were at Graham, Monday September 28th? I was there and if I saw any of you I did not know you. I sure enjoyed the circus all right.

Yes, Beauty, I was at Pickwick one time. There sure is some rough roads between here and there, and I think if you have ever been up here you will agree with me.

The anthrax has died down. I think it has died down most everywhere and hope it will stay dead.

John Wyatt has returned home, after a few weeks' visit to Grand Prairie, Dallas county.

J. H. Wesley hauled a bale of cotton to the gin today (Wednesday).

Brunette, I hope your cream will have nothing to do with the reunion.

Welcome to all the new Correspondents. If we get many more new ones the Editor will have to add on a leaf or two. But come on, he will manage that all right.

As news is scarce and I have been picking cotton will have to close. Will hand my pencil to Beauty and go. June Roses.

RED TOP

Dear Editor, am certainly glad I received a welcome to your band and will assuredly try to be a booster.

Health of the community is better at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Lem Bryant and Mrs. Annie Workman visited Mrs. Ramsey Sunday.

Several of the young people took dinner with Dr. Rutherford and wife Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carr Rutherford and Miss Louette Grubbs visited A. R. Rutherford's family Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Beaver and Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Bridges and Jack Petty visited at J. C. Petty's Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert McBee of Lone Oak visited at W. C. McGee's Sunday.

Miss Emily McBee visited Miss Ida McBee Sunday. Misses Mary, Eureka and Clara Slater visited home folks from Friday until Sunday. Miss Eula Laster visited Miss Jewel Steen the latter part of the week.

Mrs. Fannie Rutherford and daughter, Mrs. Irene Rutherford, visited at Indian Mound one day last week.

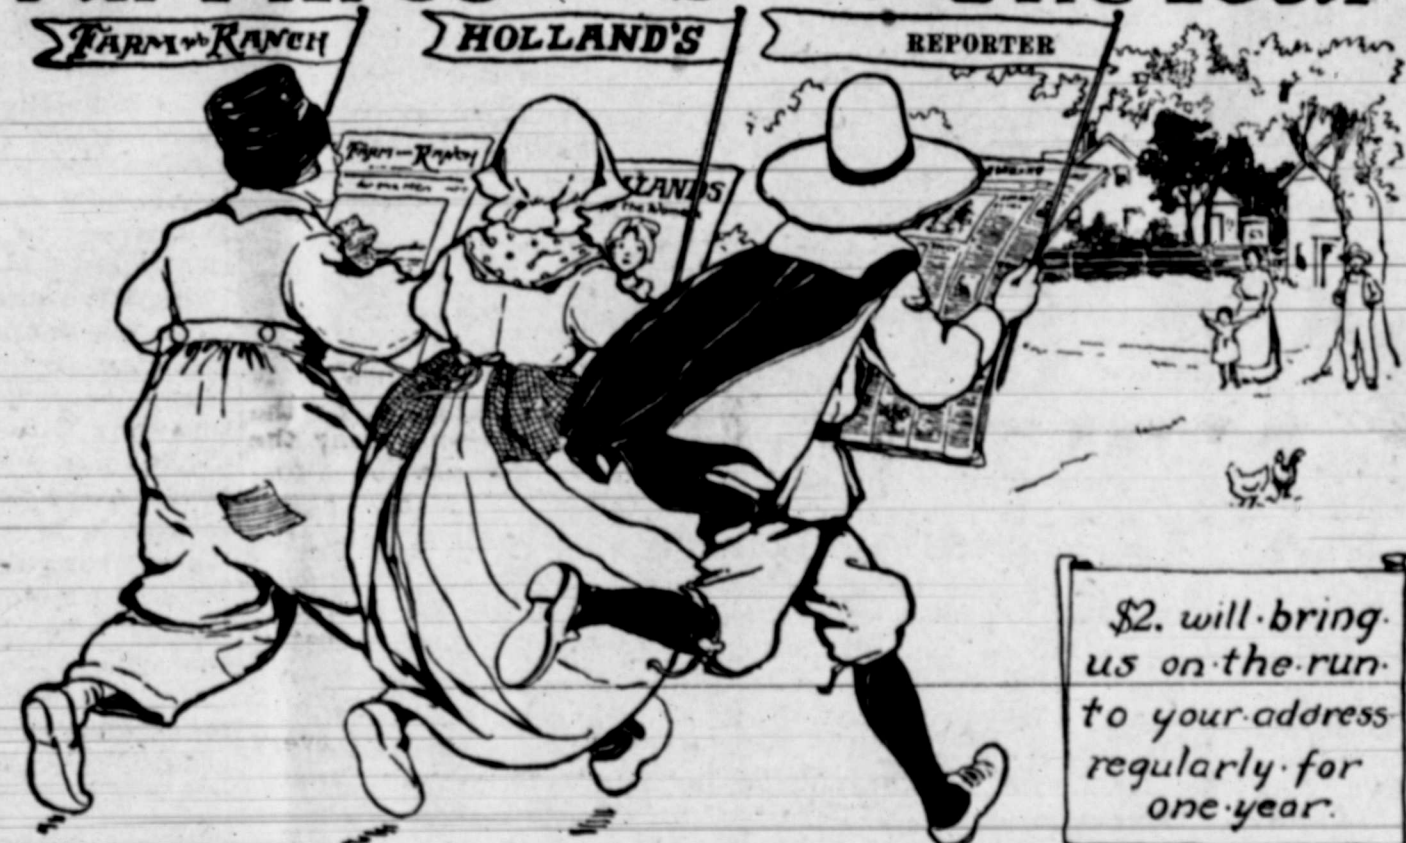

Misses Emmie Walker and Lena Hawkins were in our midst Sunday. Come again girls. Of course a few girls here will feel "sorter" blue, but the boys won't. (?)

Well, as I've not been anywhere and haven't learned very much news will ring off.

Wild Bill.

We want your subscription.

All Three for $2.00 for One Year.

Are You a Hollander?

DO YOU know just how much there is in a copy of Holland's Magazine? Have you ever looked over the table of contents? If not, you have a surprise in store for you. Just glance through one. Half a dozen to a dozen choice stories well written and well illustrated; a splendid cooking department, with pages of reliable recipes and household helps; "Late Things in Fashions," a much enjoyed children's department, and so on. Thus is Holland's, from cover to cover, filled with material of keen interest and value to every member of the family.

The Farmer's Right Hand Man

FARM AND RANCH is to the Southern farmer what Holland's is to the housewife. Its splendid articles by experts in agriculture, its mediums of correspondence with other farmers as to their problems, its Questions and Answers page are all sources of endless benefit to him.

Your Home Newspaper

TO complete the home library there remains only one thing—the home newspaper. This paper is one that will interest you in many ways, and give you all the local, and as much of the state and foreign news as we have space for and believe will be of interest. The advertising columns will tell you, quickly and accurately, where you can make your purchases to the best advantage, thereby saving you unnecessary visits to the different stores. This paper is for the entire family, and no home in this community ought to be without it.

If subscribed to singly the subscription price of the above three publications is $3.00. Order now and we will send all three of them to you regularly one year for only $2.00. Can you afford to neglect this opportunity?

A NEWSPAPER HELPS.

The public school is one of the greatest factors in our country. When reinforced by good, wholesome, reliable newspapers, it gives the American child a practical education. Without the aid of newspapers the public school can not give a boy or girl that degree of general intelligence that you wish your children to have. You can now get The West Texas Reporter and The Dallas Semi-Weekly Farm News for one year, three papers a week, for $1.75. Send us your subscription now—today.

FLINT CREEK

I'll step in again, after two weeks' absence.

I have been so busy I just couldn't write, but will take time this week.

Cotton picking is the go here at present. I think the people are going to try some other kind of crop next year as they won't get rich on 6c cotton.

If the war is any worse on the people over in Europe than it is here I'll tell you it is a sight. It's nearly as bad on the people over here as it would be next year if Thomas H. Ball had been elected governor of the "Grand Old State of Texas" but not quite. (?)

Pansy I guess you thought Red Wing did have me "bluffed" and I haven't much courage. I am afraid the people will quit reading my letters for I don't expect they like to read letters written by a "senseless" person.

Red Wing put up such an argument the last time I can't reply to it I don't reckon. But she considers the source of a person that hasn't any sense. But I'm glad we have a Correspondent that has the sense to repeat what another Correspondent says, only reverses it.

Red Wing, as for you thinking too much of yourself to go into some prohibition state, I say you think more of yourself than anyone else does. (But me.)

Hurrah! Silver Bell, I need all the backing I can get to hear Uno tell it. I was certainly glad to see you coming back again for Red Wing "am a bad one."

Oh! Uno, Uno, I am not as easy to "go back and sit down" but you all have "pity good opinions" of your selves, haven't you? I guess I had better hush as I haven't any "sense." Anyway I appreciate your advice.

The Correspondents have matrimony and politics mixed up a little. I believe Plow Boy got that started so I will not say a word against it at all.

But say, Kid, I don't think that one that I've "jumped" as Uno says is "cross-eyed" now. I suppose she read your letter.

I see we have the scriptures still going. I guess we have all denominations and all parties in our band of Correspondents. That's what makes the paper fine I think.

I guess all churches are "all right" and "plum good" and the "honorable side" is all right.

We had Baptist preaching at Flint Creek last Sunday week and it was all right, and was intended to have "Primitive" or "hard-shell" or some kind of preaching Sunday, which would have been all right, but the elders couldn't be there on account of a funeral I believe. We will have preaching next Sunday morning if nothing happens.

The Sunday school has played out or worked out so you need not come to visit our Sunday school any more. There were too many anti-Sunday school folks in this community, I reckon. We are singers though, come up and we will show you, anybody and everybody.

Virgil Willis happened to an accident and broke an arm. He is reported to be getting along all right.

Sad news came to I. D. McAfee last Wednesday while he was picking cotton for W. D. Doolen, that his baby was dead. He lives in Navarro county and left his family there to come out here and pick cotton. We sympathize with him and his family.

We were sorry to hear of the death of Mrs. S. R. Crawford.

Cotton is making from one-fourth to a bale to the acre in this part of the country. This is an awful good yield for this country, but we don't suppose we can make too much with cotton the price it is. Some are holding and some are selling. I think it would pay to hold if the farmer is out of debt but so many are in debt and are forced to sell that it is hard on them.

If the farmer can get his cotton picked before it turns bad weather he will be all right. Hands are scarce here and they are wanted, too. I think it pays to hire the cotton picked when it needs it and not wait thinking he, the owner, can pick it and it turns bad weather and wastes a great deal of it.

It is looking like it, might rain tonight (Sunday.)

If it rains quite a number from here will go to Big Monday but if it doesn't there will not be many go on account of cotton picking.

As I haven't written since the week after the birthday I thought the paper was fine and the print was too. A little bit too fine, I thought, but it had to be that way to get in those thirty-seven letters, which made it all right. I see we have some new ones, whom we are glad to welcome.

John Taylor, wife and baby visited A. C. Smith and family Sunday.

J. Y. Doolen and wife visited in the Rocky Mound community Sunday afternoon.

Oscar Miller of Graham was in this community Sunday afternoon.

As it is getting late will quit and write more when I have more time.

Here, Silver Bell, take your pencil. There is some of it left, as I had Beauty's to help out. I don't think you will need it to black Ferguson's name any more, but you may need it to write a few words to Red Wing.

Thanks for your pencil Beauty, it helped a whole lot. Take it now and come on.

Jack o' Diamonds.

MING BEND

News is scarce as everybody is busy picking cotton.

Wasn't there a fine lot of letters last week?

I agree with you Silver Bell on what you said about The Reporter. It sure is a good one.

Miss Reuby Newby returned home Thursday from a few days' visit with her sister near Proffitt.

Bill Sims has been picking cotton for Oscar James in the Gooseneck community. Bill says he picked over 1100 this week.

The death angel has visited this community since I last wrote and claimed for its victim the loving wife and mother of S. H. James and children. On Saturday morning the 3rd of this month, Mrs. James was found dead in bed. Mrs. James had been a sufferer from heart trouble for some time. She was laid to rest Sunday morning in the Ming Bend cemetery. She was a noble companion and a loving mother. We regretted to see her go, but God's will be done. Our loss is God's eternal gain. She leaves a husband, eight children and a host of friends to mourn for her, but we hope we will meet in that bright home where there will be no more parting.

W. L. Newby, Sam Williams, Riley Sims and W. A. Sims have been hauling cotton to the gin this week.

S. L. Ribble has moved to his brother, Charlie Ribble's, place. John and Will Reeves with their families, of Little Arkansas, visited relatives in Palo Pinto Saturday and Sunday.

W. L. Newby visited his daughter, Mrs. Ribble, Saturday and Sunday.

O. D. Lisle and family went to Gooseneck Sunday.

Mr. Lisle's daughter from Olney has been visiting home folks for a few days.

Hugh Ribble spent Saturday night with Everett Newby.

Bob McLaren and O. D. Lisle inform us that they are going to get them some dogs and traps and go to trapping rabbits, as cotton has gone to 6 cents.

Jennie Kutch spent Saturday with Mollie Williams.

Miss Mary Cunningham, Bill Sims, Walter James and Miss Margie Ribble visited Miss Reuby Newby Sunday afternoon.

Andy Owen and wife went to Graham Saturday.

Mr. Roark and daughter went to Graham Saturday.

Rainy Day.

OAKLAND

As the leaves begin to change their color and gather around to have their party when the winds begin to play the music I will visit you again. As I had so much company and was not at home all the time last week I did not get to pay my weekly dues.

News is scarce around here, for it is the same cry here as it seems to be everywhere, hard times, hard times, and will be harder times if this war continues, which I feel safe in saying, will last a year.

We all, I think, will feel the effects of it before it is over and now we could rest with a little ease if it didn't look like we, over here, were going to be in war with each other. There is room for discussion. Which will it be, race war, labor and capital or when it gets to where the farmers are compelled to raise produce to suit some well-headed fellow with a stiff hat on? If it wasn't for the hard-working farmers where would there be a town or city?

There were only a few who attended church at Oakland last Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Porter was in town last week.

Messrs. Singleton were out driving Sunday.

Mr. Roberts was at Mr. Whitfield's Sunday.

Mrs. Nat Massey of Walnut Springs is spending a few weeks visiting her niece, Mrs. J. M. Whitfield.

E. E. Craig took his third bale of cotton to town last week. Leonard Chambers has been hauling hay at his place the past week.

Mrs. Lester was in town Saturday.

Miss Whitfield was in town Saturday.

Mr. Clayton of Bryson was in our community buying cattle last week.

Elder D. J. E. Clark and Mr. White went to Senate to attend the funeral of Mr. Leatherwood Sunday.

It has been looking like we were going to have some rain before long, but there is no rain needed on the cotton. Some are wanting so they can break stubble.

Carrie Nation.

Primary Grade

We have a large bottle of Library Paste, with brush for 5 cents. Graham Printing Co.

ROCK CREEK

Health in this community is very good at present.

Well, I wonder how many of the Correspondents will be at Big Monday (tomorrow.) I for one am thinking of going.

Hurrah for you Candy Kid. Raise your peas and corn bread at home and lots more of your food and you will not have to ask the merchant to carry your note over another year. Quit raising so much cotton and go to raising something to eat.

Mr. and Mrs. Math. Denning spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Burk.

Mrs. Gertie Denning spent Friday night with Mrs. Bud Bennett.

Mrs. G. M. Foster and little son, Sidney, spent Saturday evening with Mrs. Burk and daughter.

J. D. Burk went to Bryson Saturday to the gin.

J. J. Foster made a business trip to Bryson Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Burk and little son, Winford, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Simpson of Union Ridge.

Boyd Bennett called on Dan Burk Sunday morning.

The doctor was called to see little Richard Pogue Thursday night. We are glad to report him up again.

J. H. Bennett lost a horse last week. It had had anthrax but apparently gotten well. I don't know what caused its death.

J. H. Robbins of Tonk Valley and Mr. Casey of Graham were down on Rock Creek last week looking after Mr. Robbins' cattle.

Jolly Girl, I'm very sorry you lost your cows. I used to have some I thought lots of. Oh, yes, you ought to see a letter I got today from D. R.

Say Trixie, where did the boys get their drink. I thought the city of Bryson was dry?

Jess Foster called at Mr. Burk's Sunday evening.

C. A. Olree went to Graham Saturday.

Jess Foster is talking of going up about Loving Monday, to be gone some time.

Richard Pogue called at D. W. Burk's Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. D. W. Burk and little son spent Sunday with Mrs. Math. Denning.

Mr. Harman went to Bryson to mill Saturday afternoon.

G. M. Foster made a business trip to Graham Saturday.

Daisy Flat.

BUNGER

The Gosse has been on the bum for three weeks gathering corn and baling hay.

Prayer meeting Sunday night was well attended. Bro. Upham was leader.

Johnny James of Ming Bend attended prayer meeting here Sunday night.

Tom Beach and Walter Fawks went wolf hunting Saturday night.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Jones, near Bunger, a big boy.

R. L. McLaren kissed a monkey wrench Friday while he and Mr. Wiley were tightening some taps on his hay rake. He said it loosened his butter tooth and made an ugly place on his long lip.

Mack Rose turned turtle off his horse and sprained his ankle and was helpless for two or three days.

Mr. Grantham bought Mr. Rhoades place near Bunger at $27.00 per acre.

Mr. Rhoades bought the P. H. Johnson place in Gooseneck near the school house.

Tom Beach will trade fat hogs for corn to feed his hounds on. Tom says his dogs are the fattest in Texas.

There are one hundred and forty-three million spindles in the world and only eighteen of them in distress. It looks like the rest of them could spin some of the cotton.

Say Plow Boy, what is the trouble? We go to town and ask the price of chops. Two dollars, and you say that is high isn't it and he will say the war is on. Well what is corn worth? Fifty cents. What's wrong with corn? The war is on. What makes calico so high? The war is on. Why is cotton so low? The war is on. Why is cottonseed no higher? The war is on.

O. M. James came to Bunger Sunday evening for medicine.

While baling hay in the McLaren field Dewey Wiley and Lee McLaren went to Mr. Conder's for a drink and got so interested talking they forgot to get a drink. I guess they were talking to Mr. Conder.

Mr. Tolbert is able to be up from his fall.

Here Salemite, take my pencil. My head has got to wool-gathering and I'm in a rush to get off to Graham. I can't think of any more to write. Gosse.

Library Paste

We sell a large bottle of Library Paste, with brush for 5 cents. Graham Printing Co.

SOUTH BEND

Some rain on Sunday night followed by a norther Monday. The young folks enjoyed a singing at the home of S. L. Thornton Sunday night.

The two Sunday schools were well attended Sunday. Our superintendent was with us Sunday, after being quarantined for some time. Glad to have him with us. Everybody welcome. Come and see.

Miss Mary McBrayer entered school at Graham Monday. J. J. Scott spent last Saturday night and Sunday in Graham. He was accompanied home by his daughter, Miss Bettie, who will spend this week in the Bend.

W. M. Goode and family, Mrs. V. M. Hale and children, and Miss Annie Holcomb ate Sunday dinner with M. D. Harrell and family.

Miss Fannie Goode ate Sunday dinner with the McBrayer's.

W. McDavid and family visited D. F. Shield and family.

Quite a few went to second Monday at Graham.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Harrell spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mrs. Harrell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. McCluskey.

Honeysuckle 2nd.

MIDWAY

Hello to you all. Here I am back again, after two weeks' absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodrome and daughters, Myrtis and Cleo, took dinner with H. W. Drum and family Sunday.

Misses Eula and Beulah Stratten are visiting their brother.

Miss Ola Herring spent Sunday with Miss Zada Drum.

Luther Drum and mother came over to the old home place last Friday.

Miss Lily Drum spent last Tuesday night with her aunt, Mrs. Lee Drum.

Mrs. Loftin called on Mrs. Lee Drum Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Fannie Cox and children accompanied by Miss Nannie Adams returned home last Thursday.

The Sunday school at Midway is progressing nicely with good attendance.

We are glad to say that Mr. Adams is improving at this writing.

The party at Robert Miller's Friday night was enjoyed by all present.

Lee Loftin took dinner with Willis Drum Sunday.

There will be a box supper at Midway on Saturday night, October 24th. Everyone is invited to come and bring a well filled box. It will be for the benefit of the Sunday school to pay for the organ and lights.

Apple Blossom.

JEAN

After a short absence will write a few items.

Most all we read these days is war and low prices of cotton. It seems like everyone knows exactly the thing for the farmer to do to get him on top, except the farmer.

It is easy to give advice and tell the other fellow how to run his business to make a success out of it but our own little affairs soon puts us on the blink.

But there is one consolation in this advice business—it don't cost anything—and as a rule it is worth just about what it cost; and if a fellow tried to follow all this free advice he would twist his spine in ten thousand pieces for no two of the advisers give the same direction. The dose is about the same size and the results are the same but the directions for taking are so different. Some say cut the cotton crop down one half and be happy while others say cut it out entirely and grow wealthy. I have just been reading a statement sent out by a St. Louis wholesale house where our cotton crop brought into the South five hundred million dollars in gold annually. Now feel in your left pocket and count how many gold pieces you find. Now don't find over the above amount or we will think there is something wrong with you or the St. Louis man.

I am not going to report my gold findings in this letter for fear I might make the St. Louis man out a liar. But when you take cotton away from the South it looks very much like our money crop is gone.

The man that has his home paid for also has no other debts to meet might get along very well without raising cotton. J. T. Lowe says his remedy is when cotton is worth 6 cents a pound raise twice as many bales as you do when it is worth 12 cents.

I see a good many of the writers have been making suggestions about the Correspondents' reunion and dinner. The only thing I have to say is please don't serve black-eyed peas. A fellow can get enough of a good thing.

J. R. Conally made a business trip to Markley Monday.

M. T. Wallace of Gatesville is visiting the family of A. J. Cantwell.

Rev. W. D. Allen preached Sunday at 11 o'clock at the school house. Rev. Noble of Loving at 3 p. m. Rev. Strickland of Loving at the Baptist church at night. All had good congregations, so you see we are not without preaching in our little berg and do not have to send to Sears-Roebuck for preachers either.

We had heavy rain Sunday night which will delay cotton picking. The rain was fine but we are badly behind with our picking.

Buster.

HAWKINS CHAPEL

Messrs. T. F. Harman and Thigpen were hauling in feed the past week.

Walter Ward and wife are away on a cotton picking expedition.

Robert Miller and wife entertained the young people Friday night. All seemed to enjoy it that were present.

There were several visitors in Sunday school Sunday.

Master Eugene Whited is still on the sick list with his knee. Mr. Whited took him to see the doctor last Monday.

Some are busy canning tomatoes at this writing.

Mrs. J. C. Miller and family were the guests of her brother, Robert Miller, and wife Saturday night. They returned to their home at West Fork Sunday morning accompanied by Miss Miller, Mrs. J. C. Miller's sister.

Mr. Storm's family and Miss Cox of Markley attended church at the Baptist church Sunday morning.

Mr. Whited helped Arthur Hawkins bale hay last week.

Bro. Dickerson of Loving filled his regular appointment at the Baptist church Saturday morning. His theme was "Rendering Service One Unto Another." Sunday morning his theme was "Coming to Jesus." Both services were real good with good interest manifested by all. Bro. Dickerson will serve the church another year as pastor. May God bless the work in every way. There was no preaching Sunday night as Bro. Dickerson preached at Markley Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Watson of Markley attended church here Sunday.

Mr. Stratton and the Kinerman children of Jermy were the guests of his son, Odus Stratton, Friday night.

The Misses Stratton of Jermy attended the entertainment at Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miller's Friday night.

Cotton picking is progressing nicely and there is a good deal of it being gathered.

Today we are enjoying another cool spell—and it looks as if we might get rain, which is needed.

Mrs. Jesse Oatman had a very painful arm the past week caused from a rising.

Mrs. Laura Baker has been gone from home the past week. J. E. Oatman was in Farmer Saturday.

Some of the Chapel people were in Loving Saturday.

Violet.

LONE OAK

Rev. R. E. Boyle had a severe attack of tonsillitis last week.

Albert McBee and family spent Sunday with relatives and friends at Red Top.

Miss Leila Murphy, who has been spending some time at the Alexander home, returned to her home in Oklahoma last week.

Lloyd Hawkins and wife spent Saturday night with Mrs. Belle Hawkins and family.

Mrs. Irene Rutherford and little Miss Bernice Glenn spent Thursday afternoon with Mrs. C. C. McBride and daughter.

Clyde Poole called at the Dossett home Sunday afternoon.

Miss Ida May Boyle was the guest of Misses Ruby and Macy Watson last Sunday.

Rev. R. E. Boyle filled his regular appointment at Shinola last Sunday. While there he had the pleasure of dining at the Cumpton home.

J. W. Arnold visited Mrs. M. R. Arnold and family Sunday afternoon.

Roy McBride called on the home folks Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker and daughter, Miss Amelia, were inspecting the new school building Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Veech hauled a load of cotton to Graham last Wednesday.

Roy McBride had the ill luck of losing a nice pony last Thursday.

Isn't it alarming that there isn't any sale for cotton at present and no provision for the disposal of cotton is being made by the federal government. There are some of the farmers who are not financially prepared to hire their cotton picked and have abundant cotton crops. I think we had better send an embassy from the Lone Star State to Germany and negotiate with her for a few of their four-hundred thousand war prisoners to come over and assist we farmers with our cotton picking. Then we could repay Miss Germany with cotton. See?

That is right, "fess" up Pilot. No one has ever told me that your sister assisted you in writing letters, but I knew well enough that she did. If my memory serves me right, I think in the fall of 1912, when you were picking cotton for us I was attending school at Graham and I was at home only on Saturday and didn't stay in the cotton field all the time then, either. As for you preaching in the field I never knew it before. I doubt that you could have quoted a half dozen passages of scripture from the Bible at that time. I was not a mourner either. Say, don't you remember the morning you and W. B. returned from the fair? Well, I suppose that is the time when you thought I was a mourner, but I wasn't. I did feel kinder sorry for you tho, but the only reason was because you had "snakes in your boots" as the saying goes. And I am most sure any strong minded person would have been very sorry for you if they could have seen you.

As you say your sis dictates your letters for you I didn't make such a great mistake in my dream after all. Now, will you please read Isaiah 5:21-22; Romans 7:15?

Gray-eyed Girl, you'd better be "careless" or you'll get romped on.

Welcome Wild Bill. We are indeed glad to have you with us.

Oh yes, the Reporter Staff Poet writes dandy poems. I enjoy reading them very much.

The nice rain received Sunday night will be fine for the young feed stuff.

Well, I'll hand my pencil to Jolly Girl and skiddoo.

Brunette.

FARMER

Our Sunday school was well attended Sunday, and the interest good.

Mrs. Ada Simpson of Olney spent the week with her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Casey.

Mrs. A. C. Casey is on the sick list this week.

Mrs. Lizzie, and Esther Beatrice Wall called at Mrs. Noah Cantwell's Sunday afternoon.

Yes, Gray-eyed Girl, of course Jesus saves his people from their sins.

Pilot.

KEYSER

J. C. Simpkins entertained the young people with a party Saturday night. All reported a fine time.

Misses and Messrs. Rhodes attended the funeral of their grandfather, Mr. Leatherwood, at Senate. We extend heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved relatives and friends.

Miss Opal Robinson spent Sunday with Misses Roxie and Dora Martin.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Martin and Miss Dora Martin were shopping in Bryson Tuesday.

I noticed Jack o' Diamonds was not present but his colleague, Silver Bell was. Silver Bell, your pro is backed up by the bootleggers and every negro in the Grand Old Lone Star State. Just rattle away, you shan't be hurt or hardly noticed.

Here Gray-eyed Girl is my pen.

Red Wing.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION

The State of Texas—To the Sheriff or any Constable of Young County.

Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon W. W. Norred by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in any newspaper published in the 30th Judicial District; but if there be no newspaper published in said Judicial District, then in a newspaper published in the nearest District to said 30th Judicial District, to appear at the next regular term of the Justice Precinct No. 1, Court of Young County, to be held at the Court House thereof, in Graham, on the last Monday in October, A. D. 1914, the same being the 26th day of October, A. D. 1914, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 23rd day of September, A. D. 1914, in a suit numbered on the docket of said Court No. 1277, wherein R. G. Taylor is Plaintiff and W. W. Norred is Defendant, and said petition alleging suit on a certain promissory note in the sum of $73.80 dated December 26th, 1911, and due on October 1, 1912, bearing ten per cent interest from date, and provides ten per cent additional as attorney's fees if sued on or placed in the hands of an attorney for collection.

Plaintiff says that said amount of money stipulated in said note is now long past due and unpaid, wherefore plaintiff prays judgment for his debt, $73.80, interest, attorney's fees and all costs of suit, and for general relief.

Herein fail not, but have before said Court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

The very day that our last comment on the "Ineffectiveness of the Submarine" was edited, this same submarine craft of German make sank three English vessels in the North Sea, which seemed to indicate that the submarine might be very effective, indeed. This death-dealing blow was made in a few moments—in an hour's time all three vessels were sunk and something like 1113 men sent below to a watery grave. Notwithstanding the fact that these three vessels were all old, seaworn, and of little value to England, yet it proved the fact that a submarine boat might, under proper conditions, score heavily. It is reported that this submarine boat, called the "U-9" came out herself unscathed, with no loss of life. If in an hour's time she can do such deadly work, does it not foretell a future for the submarine and a decline of the great dread-noughts which are powerless before her torpedoes? Yet a submarine, guided only by her periscope, is helpless at night, in a dense fog, or on a rough sea when the high waves obscure her vision. And then she is quite as likely to be blown up by stationary mines as any other craft, and she is not immune from aeroplanes. Whether naval experts consider the submarine "effective" or not, it is very true that this warfare under water is revolutionizing naval warfare as the crew is kept in nervous anxiety, expecting any moment to be blown into atoms, so the success of war on the sea today depends more upon the strength of nerves rather than that of armament.
