CORNER DRUG STORE OWNED BY ONE OF TEXAS' YOUNGEST PHARMACISTS

Store, Now in its 11th or 12th Year, Has Made Rapid Growth Since it Started. New Products Always Sold Soon After Being Put on the Market.

This week, we are giving you a short story about another of our drug stores, and we might also remind the readers that at the time the proprietor, Jim Graves, entered the business as joint owner, and even when he became full proprietor, he was regarded as one of the youngest drug store owners and pharmacists in the state. But before mentioning Jim further, we wish to give a short sketch of the background of the Corner Drug Store.

Nearly every town of any size has a corner drug store. The name is easy to remember, as the location suggests the name. Back somewhere about 1927 or 1928, J. E. Michie sold his grocery store and sweated around with the "leisure" bunch for a spell. But an old grocery drummer as well as a retail groceryman was not satisfied for long doing nothing, so he rented and started the Corner Drug store. It did not take Mr. Michie long to find out he was in the wrong stall, and he sold out to a drug store man, Mr. J. C. Lewellen, who died in the early 30ties following an operation. His wife operated the store for some time, and sold to Jim Graves and Homer Nelson. This partnership existed until 1936 when Jim bought out his partner.

The Corner has always been a popular place to trade from the standpoint of the youth and adult

Terry Has Lowest Cotton Yield in Years

Terry county ranks eleventh in the production of cotton in fifteen counties of the South Plains for the crop of 1938, with 11,074 bales reported on January 16, which is the semi-final report of the U. S. bureau of the census.

Lubbock county ranks first; Lynn second; Lamb third; Dawson fourth; Crosby fifth; Hockley sixth; Scurry seventh; Dickens eighth; Hale ninth.

The 1938 production in some of the nearby counties together with the 1937 comparisons are given:

County	1938	1937
Cochran	6,620	17,466
Crosby	38,712	84,807

of both sexes. They have always had a bunch of clerks that are ready to jolly you or be jollied. And you will always find your favorite remedy on hand, as well as a full line of all the popular remedies put out by the Nyal Company. The shelves are literally bulging with drugs and drug sundries, tobaccos, candies, magazines and newspapers, and a well selected stock of jewelry, and a modernly equipped and supplied prescription department, with pure, fresh drugs. Your prescription is always filled as the doctor writes it to the crossing of a "t" to the dotting of the "i". The motto is: "Confidence Built It," and this confidence means not only that they have confidence in their drugs and their ability to compound them as the doctor orders, but that their customers are confident that the prescription is ok.

After the late Dr. G. W. Graves and family moved here to make their home in 1924, Jim got his first job as soda jerker in the Alexander Drug Store, of Saturdays and Sundays, having to attend school other days. In 1929, he attended the Danforth School of Pharmacy in Fort Worth obtaining his license in 1930. Some time after rejoining the Alexander Drug here, he was transferred to their store at Levelland and then back here, and as stated above the purchase of the Corner Drug occurred on or about February 13th, 1933. So this is really Jim's ownership anniversary, being the 6th.

In order to always have a registered pharmacist on hand, Guthrie Allen, with several years experience, was employed by Mr. Graves when George Bragg moved to Levelland about a year ago. Other members of the force, are Rudolph Moorhead, who has had many years of experience in drug stores in Texas and New Mexico, and Duwane Moorhead, who likewise has had considerable experience in the drug business. Toots Thomas helps out Saturdays.

Thus you have a short picture of another of the thriving business institutions of the city of Brownfield.

PTA Funds Running Short—Divvy Up!

Some of the good ladies who are boosting the local Parent-Teacher Association, and especially the milk fund for underprivileged and undernourished children, have stopped us on the street to tell us that the funds collected in milk bottles at various stores, are running short of the demand since the holidays.

Presumably, the people found their holiday bills higher than they expected, and on top of that were anticipating that tax paying time was approaching before Feb. 1st, and pinched off their donations.

Now that these things have been met, why not drop your change in these bottles. You'll find them handy at your favorite store. A little from this one and that one will go a long way toward putting this fund back on a self-supporting basis. Otherwise the fund will have to be replenished from other sources.

Special Notice to Our Rural Editros

We had three correspondents this week that were too late to put in type. Two of them just before press time. We regret this very much as we highly value our community correspondents, but beg of you to mail them to us not later than Tuesday. We ask this that you will get your paper on Friday. This means as much to you as it does our advertisers, as you both save when the paper goes out early for you to take advantage of their specials on Friday afternoon and Saturday. We thank you.

House of David Team Here Friday Night

LAUGHS GALORE! What promises to be the best as well as the best basketball game ever to be played in this part of the state will take place at the high school gymnasium Friday night. The House of David of Benton Harbor, Michigan, will take on the four high schools of the county in a game that will demonstrate how basketball is played at its best, and how to have fun at the same time. Wellman, Meadow, Union and Brownfield high schools will each take the bearded gentlemen for quarter each. Then as a GRAND FINALE all four of these teams will play the bewildered gentlemen at the same time—20 against 5. A half-time show is also promised that will include juggling ball and the spinning of balls on a wire.

Leading the whiskered artists will be Bill Steinecke, who has played with the House of David for 13 years in baseball and basketball, playing in the United States, Canada, Hawaii, and England. He will be assisted by the elongated Gene Brownell, Lefty Maxwell, all-American forward of Denver, Chop Lyons, an all Southern guard from Georgia Tech, and Ham Hamilton, of Florida University. Other stars and comedians will assist.

ONE TIME IN A LIFETIME you will have the opportunity to see these stars in action. The admission will be forty cents for adults, twenty-five cents for women and school children. Adult tickets may be bought until noon Friday at twenty-five cents. Friday night, tonight, February 10.

Arnett Bynum Badly Injured Saturday

Arnett Bynum of this city, who is a plumber of Odessa, had the misfortune last Saturday of falling from a ladder, some 22 feet high while presumably working on the outside ventage of a building where plumbing was being installed. He was rushed at once to an Odessa hospital, where he is confined for treatment.

Our understanding is that two vertebrae, as well as fracturing three or four ribs just under the shoulder. There were other minor bruises and abrasions, it is stated. Last word from his bedside reports that he is doing as well as could be expected, and with no complications will recover.

Mr. Bynum has a wife and two daughters residing in Brownfield, Marjorie Sue, and Mrs. W. T. Ince, and a brother, Ralph Bynum, who rushed to his bedside as soon as they heard of the accident. Dr. T. L. Treadaway, brother of Mrs. Bynum, has also made two trips to Odessa to assist with medical care.

A Brief Review of the County Agent's Work

The 1938 Agricultural Program in Terry county has required about two years work to be done in one. All of the cultivated land in the county had to be covered by a worksheet and all related contract numbers of the past programs had to be accounted for and connected to and become a part of the 1938 worksheet.

The allotments and yields had to be changed for the entire county. In the past years, committees, both local and county, assigned acreage and yields to different farms to the best of their ability. In 1938 the allotments were made on purely a mathematical basis by the Washington and State offices according to the past history of the county as reported by the Bureau of Crop estimates.

A total of 1851 work sheets were signed in the county for the year 1938. This necessitated the handling of several thousand papers and committee help and the purchase of additional equipment and supplies. The association expense for the period of April 1st to January 1st, 1939 was slightly over $9,000.00 which includes the measurement of all farms in the county, also the signing and typing of the subsidy applications which were paid in 1938.

Subsidy payments amounting to $233,180.50 have already been received and the payments due for the compliance with the 1938 program are estimated at $447,500 making a total of $680,680.50.

Over 25 per cent the amount required by the state office before audit is begun, of the 1938 Applications for Payment have already been sent in.

As part of the 1938 program 13 range applications were signed on which payment will be made for drilling wells, tanning and deferred grazing. Under this phase of the program four wells have been drilled, 7,100 acres of pasture land deferred and 50 acres of mesquite eradicated. The above payment estimates does not include payments to be made under the Range Program.

We are now ready to sign up the 1939 work sheets and all those who are breaking out sod will have to have these sheets signed up by the 15th of this

Not Much Crime in Terry, Says Judge

Judge Louis B. Reed, our district judge, who is holding court here, this being the last week of this term, was a pleasant caller Monday, bringing along his faithful old pipe, and plenty plug-cut, sprawled out in one of our chairs that we figured was not too old and rickety to hold him up, and was ready to swap a few with us. Judge Reed does not indulge in questionable stories, but likes well flavored negro stories as well as the writer. He has a number of them always on tap, as there were 7500 folks of color in his native county old Red River.

We asked judge Reed about the criminal docket, and he informed us that while there were a number of civil cases to be disposed of at this term of court, the criminal docket was unusually light. In fact, he paid a high compliment to the citizenship and the officers in keeping down crime waves in this county. He feels that the docket will be near cleared up when the term passes into history the last of this week.

Court opens at Tahoka, Monday. About the most essential case on the trial docket here this term was a rape case of a girl under age of consent, transferred here from Gaines county. The boy or man in the case, was given a two year suspended sentence. He was very anxious that an assault case that took place here last fall be tried and disposed of at this term.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rogers of Big Spring were visitors in the name of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Murphy over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Verner of Meadow, route, were in Monday.

New Musical Finds Eddy McDonald Co- Starred Again

Modern Dress, a modern story and modern Technicolor befit Jeanette MacDonald and Nelson Eddy better than anything they have attempted in the past. Despite their successes together in "Naughty Marietta," "Rose Marie," "Maytime" and "The Girl of the Golden West," they establish still another milestone for the film musical in "Sweethearts," which opens Sunday at the Rialto Theatre.

As stars of a Broadway "show

within the show," they are right in their element and handle the comedy as skillfully as their singing assignments. An unprecedented cast of comedy personalities surrounds them, with Frank Morgan pre-eminent as the flutery show producer, Ray Bolger winning the limelight he deserves as the show's dancer, Florence Rice adding to a series of recent hits with her secretary role, Mischa Auer and Herman Bing the laugh riots they always are, as the battling composer and librettist, and Reginald Gardner as an ingenious Hollywood agent.

The musical numbers are staged with lavishness yet with good taste, and nowhere does the color become obvious. Director W. S. Van Dyke II has blended myriad ingredients into a smooth, harmonious whole. Dorothy Parker and Alan Campbell have written a screen play which sets a new high for musical plots and Hunt Stromberg has given "Sweethearts" the same infinite care and inspiring hand which have made all his productions of the past several years, from "Naughty Marietta" to "Marie Antoinette," outstanding.

Local Oil Man Would Pass For Dr. Dafoe

We have before us a recent issue of The Area Pecten, official organ of the Shell Petroleum Co., of Texas, published monthly at Houston, Texas, in which they pull quite a joke on Henry Clark, a prominent member of the Location Crew, of this city. We quote:

"Our latest acquisition to the staff, Henry De Brunner Clarke, is sporting a novel lunch kit. Hurrying down the street, it reminds us of Dr. Dafoe in his latest race with the stork. When opened at noon he need only an apron and cap to complete the picture of a hot dog man just opening for business in the country fair."

Call Meeting Issued To Farmers of Area

Some of the leaders in the movement to adopt one type of cotton for this section are asking that we run this call for a mass meeting of farmers to meet at the courthouse in Brownfield, next Tuesday, Feb. 14th at 2 o'clock p. m.

It seems urgent that the Terry county farmers not only adopt one type of cotton, but that type be a better staple than is generally grown here, if they be able to see what they raise.

Be at this meeting without fail.

TAX COLLECTIONS OF COUNTY, SCHOOL AND CITY GOOD DESPITE THE DROUTH

The County Had 1938 Collections of 80 Percent, Brownfield School District, 78 Percent and the City of Brownfield 90 Percent. Over 1500 Polls Paid.

With 1549 poll taxes and exemptions issued this year by Ches Gore, collector for the county and state, against 2541 polls and exemptions issued last year, we fall almost 1000 polls below the primary and general election year of 1938, but somewhat ahead of the average of year, according to Mrs. Bennie Smith, office deputy. Going further into the matter, Mrs. Smith stated that the total collections of 1938 taxes up to February 1, was $62,164.09, compared with collections same day last year of $63,333.93, a loss of $1,169.84.

However, Mrs. Smith stated that taxes were still being collected and that despite the drouth the very low collections the county expected two months ago, around 80 per cent of the 1938 taxes were collected, and that very little of the delinquency of 1937 remained to be collected, comparatively speaking. A greater poll tax payment this year than most off years, is believed to be caused from the expectation of voters that a sales or transaction tax amendment, as well as perhaps other constitutional amendments will be voted on this year.

County School Board Met Here Monday

Members of the county school board, consisting of Emmitt Smith of this city, T. C. Lucas of Meadow, Rile Davis of Union, W. E. Winn of Gomez, and J. O. Wheatley of Johnson, met in the office of Lee Fulton, county superintendent, Monday. Reports of the trip made to the State School of Executives, was given by Mr. Smith and Mr. Lucas.

The members were invited to accompany the county superintendent and Deputy State Superintendent, E. Astin Day, this week as they visit the affiliated and standardized schools of the county. Plans were made for as many of the board as could accept the invitation.

This is the first time the deputy has spent as much as a week in our county in the interest of better schools, and the county board is showing their appreciation of this fact and giving their time to boost the schools.

It is reported that Mrs. Harold Shively is no doing so well, and the family have wired her husband to come at once. Known better locally as Jeannette Hancock, she is confined to her bed at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Hancock.

Let's try to make this the largest Court of Honor Brownfield has had.

he reported that up to Feb. 1, 78.68 per cent of the 1938 school taxes were collected, and that some had come in since that date, but not enough to bring the total up to 80 per cent. However, he stated that several large tax payers had not paid as yet, which he felt sure would not be allowed to go delinquent.

Mr. Akers stated that two months ago the board felt that if 60 per cent was collected they would be doing well. The same might be said of the attitude of the commissioners' court at that time, and of course both collection agencies are elated.

Roy Herod, city tax collector reported an even better record. He stated that 90 per cent of the 1938 taxes were paid, and that the delinquent list of the subsequent years was negligible. Mr. Herod stated that of the 1938 taxes remaining unpaid there were no large accounts the largest being for only $34.28, and from there on down to about $1.00.

Of the $8,740.98 taxes assessed for 1938, some $7,856.81 has therefore been collected, the delinquencies remaining being in the neighborhood of $884.17. This fact shows that Brownfield and Terry county are really in better shape than we thought.

Where Are the Fire Victims Working?

In cruising around over town the past week, we became curious to learn where the victims of the fire of Friday morning, January 27th, were working, if they were at work, and have decided to pass it on to the readers.

We found Mrs. Boots Moreman, of the Boots Cafe, now meeting and feeding her former customers at the Terry White Kitchen. Miss Evelyn Smith, proprietor of the La Vogue Beauty Shop, which burned is helping out at the Chamber of Commerce Retail Merchants Association offices at the Courthouse. Two of her former employees, Miss Vivian Mosier is now with Cinderella, and Miss Tina Rayburn at the Sandra Sue.

Of the men out of jobs by the fire, Mr. Sherman, proprietor of the Sanitary Barber shop is pinch hitting Saturdays at Buck's Barber Shop, Jack Holt is with the Hotel Barber shop, and Gay Price, with the Walker Barber Shop.

Dr. H. A. Castleberry was up from Van Zandt county last week looking much better than when here last fall. Still talks of moving back to Terry.

The Official Paper of Terry County and the City of Brownfield

A snow that would probably have measured four inches had most of it not melted as it fell, was received here last Thursday, that will help hold the bottom season received from big rains in January.

You hear many people cussing the credit system. Perhaps it is bad, but under the conditions, the commercial world would suffer without it. Credit is like a sharp knife. When used properly it is a big asset in the hands of the possessor. Improperly used it may become a very dangerous instrument that leads to ruin.—Rochester Reporter.

If the ground hog or his third cousin, the prairie dog came out here last Thursday, he failed to see his shadow, and probably needed his overcoat and ear muffs before he got back to his den. But if we were a gambler, we'd bet a ten spot that Herman Heath's gas company draws on the people of Brownfield for quite heavy gas bills for more than six weeks.

We like to listen to the many discussions we hear on the streets about the sale and transaction tax. You hear one fellow give his version, and you pronounce it good—can't be refuted. Then on down the street, another guy strips the argument you have just heard of every vestige of props it stands on. One says, "why put a tax on the very people you are trying to help?" The next man says, "that is where it belongs; let all pay some taxes, and not put a penalty on those who have worked hard to accumulate some taxable property." And so, "far into the night."

Although born with a silver spoon in his mouth, as the old saying goes, and although he can trace his ancestry back more than 400 years, President Roosevelt is a very democratic soul and his musical favorites run just about like those of John Doe. Such, for instance as Jaunita, Home on the range, and dozen of others, including Yellow Rose of Texas. One of the editors of the Abilene Daily Reporter recently confessed that he had never heard of the song, "Yellow Rose of Texas." What foreign port could that gentleman originated? We've heard the song since boyhood back in our old hilly Tennessee home. Our remembrance is that the last line of the chorus ran, "The Yellow of Texas beat the belles of Tennessee."

Anent the discussion about whether or not Tech college play football on Sundays, the Herald confesses it can't see a great deal of difference in having Sunday football games and Sunday baseball games. We may just be dense but it looks like a case of tit for tat. Of course it will be argued that baseball it not played as a school, but a club, but after all amateur baseball teams are made up of school boys from the grade vacant lots in the in and out of college young men on the in closed fields, and practically the same audience see them. And, an after thought, some are the promoters of Sunday as well as other day baseball tournament or leagues. Somebody give chapter and verse, please.

The Herald takes this means and opportunity of thanking the Lubbock Journal for the very nice writeup they gave us in their issue of Wednesday, January 25th, including the pictures, as well as the nice editorial in the Avalanche a few days later. However, we are warning Charles Guy and Sam Lewis that they did not buy any exemption certificate from future attacks of this paper, when they fly the track. Also, to Bro. E. Hill for his felicitations in the Lynn County News, Tahoka, and the nice article that appeared in Williard Bright's paper, the Seagraves News. And we would not neglect that of our good friend, Hon. George Mahon, congressman from this district, who under date of January 31st, sends us a clipping of our mug from the Lubbock Journal, and just under on a letter writes: "Congratulations: A little late, but none the less sincere." We also wish to thank our competitor, the Brownfield News for the nice article they wrote about us in their last issue. There may have been others we failed to see, if so, thanks a lot. The newspaper profession is made up of men who are sincere and friendly — men you learn to love and respect although you may disagree with them on many issues.

The Avalanche-Journal has had quite a discussion of late among readers whether or not they did right or wrong in suppressing the picture of a white woman of that city who ran off recently with a negro doctor also of that city. It was a good piece of news, or rather scandal, and meant a rather big scoop to the Lubbock publications, but a big majority agreed they did right in not printing the picture or the name of the woman. Being a reader of the Avalanche-Journal, we also agree. Occasionally we have a man approach us and ask why we do not publish the names of people arrested here. Recently we could have had quite a bit of front page stuff about the arrest of some local boys, as well as some men implicated in some cotton deals. But these boys all came from good families, and the men all had good families that would have felt the blow of publicity worse than those involved. Indeed the Herald is still just a local paper, trying its best to make the community better—not worse.

Amos and Andy, at the beginning of a new year with their sponsors, asked their admirers to go out next day and buy 3 cans of their sponsor's products. They were asked to do that to help the couple of gents who probably already are quite rich. I wouldn't have the nerve to do that. In fact, I'd have too much pride to do that. Those of us who have had experience on the country press won't beg or whimper for business. If you want to have a right good fight tell a country editor you'll buy some advertising space in his paper "just to help him out." He'll tell you where you can go; that he's no beggar. But I notice the begging attitude creeping into the advertising game. It's disgusting. The institution where this paper is produced supports several families. That's something to brag about in these tight times. But we don't get our business by begging and whimpering. We have a feeling that real service is what brings business in here. And that, after all, is the only real basis of successful business. But once in a while we have an experience just like you've had at times. We have to go out and spend money with firms who've never spent a cent with us, and it gives us the all-overs. Our thoughts then run in asterisks and dots and dashes. They could not be spelled out.—Knox County Herald.

Out of town peddlers and bedroom printers pay no taxes and have no argument other than price. Many times if prices are compared they are no lower than what the home printer can make for the same class of work. Taking the peddler's word for prices charged by the home printer is never safe. It is better to have your work estimated by a firm that knows your problems and is sympathetic toward your success.—McLean News.

Along the country road came a $7,000 limousine. As it caught up with a small car the owner couldn't resist the temptation to slow down and jolly the other driver a bit. "Heavens, man," he said, "what is it about your car that makes such a dreadful rattling sound?" "That? Oh that's the $6,500 jingling in my pocket," replied the small car driver.

Horace Barton of the Union Gin was seen on the streets, Monday.

Keep at a safe distance behind the "Hitcher-on". Help discourage this dangerous practice and don't permit it on your car.

LIFE MAGAZINE EDITORS GET TECH FAN MAIL

LUBBOCK—Editors of Life magazine doubtless wished they had gone to a party last week instead of staying in the office writing outlines for the O'Daniel inauguration pictures. One statement said the suit worn by the Governor "was made from Texas wool and woven at Texas Agricultural and Mechanical College." At least one of the 3,500-odd letters Life may get from Texas Technological College students and faculty members on the subject has already been posted by air mail:

"For your information," writes M. E. Heard, head professor of textile engineering, in whose department the O'Daniel suits were woven, "Texas Tech is located about 550 miles from Texas A. & M. College. While Tech is a state supported school and only thirteen years old, we have slightly over 3,500 students registered at the present writing. We have a campus 2008 acres. The college is sub-divided into five divisions as follows: engineering, agriculture, arts and sciences, home economics, and graduate."

Heard has asked that all Tech students write similar letters of protest to the magazine's editors.

DR. RAINEY VISITS TEXAS U. CAMPUS

AUSTIN, Feb. 2.—Dr. Homer Price Rainey, president-elect of the University of Texas, appeared on the campus of that institution today, shook hands with the staff, met students Pat, Mike and Molly O'Daniel, children of Governor W. Lee O'Daniel, and faced a battery of newspapermen in "prexy's office." Currently director of the American Youth Commission in Washington, Dr. Rainey said he hoped to finish his work with the commission in time to take over the presidency June 1.

We have a report this week which was rather lengthy, and received late from Miss Myrtle A. Peden, Home Supervisor of the Farm Security Administration for Terry and Yoakum county, giving the names of Terry and Yoakum county ladies that won blue ribbons in the "Living at Home" contest. Rather than abbreviate this interesting article, we are holding it over till next week to reproduce in full.

SLOW STARTING IS OLD-FASHIONED
Since Phillips 66 Came to Town

"WHAT A FUNNY LOOKING CAR" is the universal comment on any 1910 model. The gasoline of that era is just as funny, compared with today's.

Progress in motor car design has been more than matched by improvements in motor fuels. And one of the leaders among modern gasolines is today's high test Phillips 66 Poly Gas.

No other gasoline will so consistently give you fast starting in freezing weather, because no other gasoline so consistently tops the list in high test quality. Yet you pay not a penny extra for this extra high test, because Phillips is the WORLD'S LARGEST PRODUCER of natural high test gasoline.

Your modern car will yield a new high in engine performance with this modern, high test, high energy, custom-tailored motor fuel. Try a tankful . . . compare . . . see if Phillips 66 Poly Gas doesn't give you just about the fastest cold-weather starting you have ever enjoyed.

Mrs. Arthur Cotten and children visited relatives in Oklahoma last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Shern Henard and Mr. and Mrs. Shern Tingle visited in Wellington last week.

PWA Expenditures Ten Million in Area

A report showing that since the beginning of the new construction program of the new Public Works Administration 487 requisitions totaling $10,532,435 have been paid to project owners in the seven states of the PWA Fifth Region, was filed today with Administrator Ickes today by Georg M. Bull, Regional Director.

Most of the requisitions were for advance payments to cover preliminary expenses incurred in getting the projects underway. Further payments will be made at various periods during construction. The last portion of the 45 percent grants will be paid on completion when the projects are checked by PWA engineers and found satisfactory.

The states, the number of requisitions, and the amount so far paid is as follows: Arkansas, 35, $784,032; Colorado, 38, $697,277; Kansas, 91, $1,935,985; Louisiana, 105, $2,715,087; New Mexico, 12, $471,979; Oklahoma, 40, $763,932; and Texas, 166, $3,164,139.

Bull pointed out the during construction the projects are largely financed by private credit extended to contractors by banks and material houses and by the funds making up the local contribution to the project.

The report also said that construction of the Region's 843 new projects was proceeding satisfactorily and that employment on the projects was continuing to rise rapidly.

Meadow Basketball Teams Are Making Good Records

The fast-passing, sure-shooting Meadow quintet paced to victory again at the Anton tournament last week end. The Bronchoes defeated Anton in the final game to win first place. The first game the Bronchoes played was with the Lubbock Cowhands, the second game was with Morton, and the third game was with Spade. This brought them to the semi-finals with Witharral, a team with an outstanding record for the past year. This was a very close game, but the fighting Bronchoes managed to nose out Bill Haie's quintet. In the final game the Bronchoes defeated Anton at a score of 20-9. After Verner, crack shot for the Bronchoes, was placed on the all-tournament team. The Bronchoes have won every tournament they have entered this year.

While the boys were fighting to win the Anton tournament, the Meadow girl's sextet were fighting to the South Plains League championship. This tournament was played at Frenship. In the first game, which was played Thursday night, the Elonchettes defeated Ropesville 39-35. Cheered on by this victory, the girls met the Southland sextet Friday night. The girls went wild and defeated Southland 26-22. The next game was to be played with Roosevelt, but that team forfeited. This gave the Meadow girls the title of Champions of the South Plains League.

This week the Meadow teams play the Brownfield teams for the County Championship. The Meadow teams are coached by Finis T. Bell.

Members of the boys' team are Captain Afton Verner, B. W. Branch, Bill Copeland, Joe Bailey Smith, John Dick Moorhead, Harvey Bass, Harvey Gatewood, Lenoir Easterwood, and Victor Rogers.

New Tech President Assumes Duties

LUBBOCK—Clifford B. Jones assumed official duties as president of Texas Technological College February 1, with the opening of the spring semester. The college administrative council extended formal welcome to the new president and his wife at a reception Thursday evening, at which all full time employees of the college were present.

The Faculty Club, social organization, will entertain President and Mrs. Jones with an informal dinner February 22, according to W. L. Stangel, president. Faculty wives and women faculty members honored Mrs. Jones at a tea Wednesday afternoon.

GRANDMA BENSON PASSES

Grandma R. M. Benson, 76, passed away at the home of her son, J. P. Benson, four miles east of the city, Tuesday morning about three o'clock. Grandma Benson had been in poor health for some time, and confined to her bed. She was a faithful attendant at church when able to do so, and always had a smile and good word for all.

Funeral services were conducted at the church of Christ, Tahoka, Tuesday afternoon, conducted by J. H. Killion of this city, and J. P. Drennon of O'Donnell. Burial in the Tahoka cemetery, where her husband and other relatives are buried.

Arrangements under direction of the Brownfield Funeral Home.

Mrs. Warner Hayhurst was over from Plains, Sunday to see the picture, Marie Antoinette.

CARD OF THANKS

We take this means of thanking our friends and neighbors of the West Point community and Brownfield for their help and words of comfort in the recent death of our little daughter. Also for the nice floral offerings. May God bless you.
 W. M. Slint and family.

Preston Lewis and Ira Jones have purchased the Phillips 66 station on the highway from Elmer McCollum, and took charge Wednesday night. The firm will be known as Lewis & Jones, and they promise you good service. A produce house will be run in connection.

Mr. and Mrs. Redford Smith were in Lubbock, Sunday to see their niece, Miss Kathleen Hardin, in training at the Lubbock Sanitarium.

The small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grady Goodpasture is quite ill of pneumonia at the Lubbock Sanitarium.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Stephens of Lubbock were in town Tuesday night. Mr. Stephens is part owner of Stephens-Latham Dry Goods store of this city.

INTEREST HIGH IN CHEM-
URGY DURING 1938

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Jan. 31.—The National Farm Chemurgic Council Sunday reported that the chemurgic movement to increase the industrial use of farm products made its greatest progress during 1938 and that the future was decidedly encouraging for further advance in the new science to balance agriculture with industry.

Among chemurgic triumphs of the year, the council pointed out, two stood out as indicative of the progress—the new $6,000,000 newsprint mill to be built at Lufkin, Texas, first of its kind to use Southern pine as raw material, and creation of four federal research laboratories which will develop new uses for surplus farm crops.

Throughout 1938 headquarters here were in constant receipt of requests for information, many of which were from students in high schools and colleges who were eager to keep abreast of the times.

From a practical standpoint, chemurgists are pointing to the State of North Carolina, which during the past year witnessed beginning of ninety-two new industries and fifty-three plant additions, representing an investment of $10,000,000 and creating hundreds of new jobs as well a

REWARD IS OFFERED

LAMESA, Feb. 4 Sheriff A. M. (Buck) Bennett has announced a reward of $25 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of any person or persons found guilty of stealing maize, cotton corn or other feed stuff, or cattle and hog thefts, in the amount of more than $10.

Sheriff Bennett said that he had received numerous complaints recently of thefts. C. M. Burton reported two or three loads of maize were taken from his place.

Mrs. W. E. Lyle and Mrs. Irene Duke were callers in the A. J. Stricklin home last Sunday afternoon.

Sawyer Graham was a Lubbock visitor Wednesday.

Midland Girl Honor Guest at Fat Stock Show

Miss Walter Fay Cowden of Midland who will be one of the eight ranch-girl honor guests at the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show, March 10-19. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Cowden. Each of the eight girls will represent a section of the Southwestern cattle country, being chosen by her neighbors and other cattle men of that section. The girls will make an appearance at the world championship rodeo twice daily during the stock show. Several social functions are being planned in Fort Worth in honor of the representatives. Miss Cowden is a graduate of Texas State College for women.

ROPSVILLE COMMITTEE
NAMED TO FILE PROTEST
ON MOVE

Ropesville, Feb. 4. — Business men here, as soon as it was learned the Ropesville project of the Farm Security administration would have its office moved to Lubbock, met and named a committee to file a protest.

Lanan Bassett, J. C. Lucas and J. W. Berry were named.

W. H. Collins left this week for the Dallas markets to buy spring and summer goods for Collins Dry Goods. New goods will begin arriving this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Greathous were visitors and shoppers in the city Saturday. They are Pleasant Valleyans.

TEXAS PLANNING BOARD HAS HUGE TASK

What will the population of Texas be in 1960? And where will that population be concentrated? Why isn't Texas produced wool scoured in Texas? What new markets can be found for Texas' agricultural products? What new uses can be found for Texas farm and ranch products? What are our mineral and marine resources?

All of these questions, and countless more just like them, can be answered by the Texas Planning Board, one of the State's youngest, but busiest agencies.

There is very little the Texas Planning Board doesn't know about the natural resources of the State. It is their job to know. The law which created the Planning Board in 1935 specifically said the Planning Board should survey the natural resources of the State and prepare a long-range program for their conservation and orderly development.

This mandate of the 45th Legislature cannot be carried out in one year, two years or even 20 years. The State of Texas is a vast empire. Within its far flung borders can be found almost every known mineral. The five hundred and more soil types which are found in the State can raise any and every known crop. The climate of the State ranges from sub-zero in the Texas Panhandle to the sub-tropical temperatures of the Lower Rio Grande Valley. Along the eastern border of the State approximately 54 inches of rain falls every year while less than 12 inches falls in the extreme western portion of the State. Eight major rivers have their origin in Texas and traverse the State on their way to the Gulf of Mexico. Less than three-fifths of the State has been accurately mapped. These are just a few of the numerous reasons why the mandate of the 45th Legislature cannot be carried out in the span of life allotted to the Board—four years—because an intelligent plan for the social and economic development of the State cannot be put together until every resource has been carefully studied and weighed as an integral segment of a state-wide plan.

Although the job given to the Planning Board is one of the biggest ever to be given to any state agency, the Board is one of the smallest in personnel in the state government. Excluding the members of the Board, who are appointed for varying terms by the Governor and who serve during their tenure of office without compensation of any kind, except the satisfaction of knowing they have contributed something to the development of their native state, the Planning Board staff consists of a director, two engineering statisticians, a draftsman, a chief clerk, two secretaries, one stenographer and an assistant to the director.

Upon the shoulders of this small but highly specialized staff, falls the task of studying the resources of the State and then formulating plans for their conservation and orderly development so that the generations yet unborn may receive their share of benefits from a heritage which has been considerably abused through wanton waste. This waste has been due, in a large part, to the mistaken idea that the natural resources of Texas are inexhaustible. Intelligent planning will conserve the State's natural resources and at the same time will permit them to yield a social and economic return to the State.

Virgil Bynum, of Kerrville, Texas, who had been attending the bedside of his injured brother, Arnett of Odessa, came up here and spent Monday night with relatives and friends. Shag says good rains have already started enough weeds for sheep and goats in his section, but cattle are still on feed.

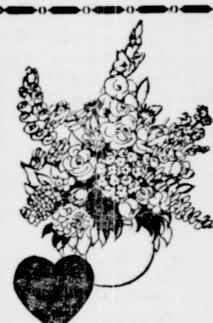

Orin Dennis, teacher in the Littlefield schools at present, and former teacher here, was here Saturday on business.

Frosty Ellington was in from the Harris section Saturday, blankety blank. In other words, no news.

COTTON IMPROVEMENT
SHOWS BOOST IN 1938

College Station, Feb. 1. — Only 8.5 per cent of the 1938 Texas cotton crop (up to December 1) was under 7-8 inch in staple length in 1937; 65 per cent of the length as compared with 16.7 per cent graded white middling or better in 1938 and 53 per cent in 1937; and the average staple length increased by 1-32 inch.

Progress in the move to improve the quality of Texas cotton was seen in these USDA Bureau of Agricultural Economics figures by F. E. Lichte, cotton gin specialist of the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service.

Lichte has long contended that improvements in gin equipment cannot take care of sloven harvesting practices, and his annual report shows that there was a 10 per cent increase in the amount of cotton picked and a corresponding drop in percentages snapped, sledged, and gathered as bollies.

His figures show 71.7 per cent picked, 24.4 snapped, .3 per cent sledged, and 3.6 gathered as bollies in 1938 as contrasted with 61.3 picked, 30.5 snapped, .5 per cent sledged, and 7.5 per cent gathered as bollies in the preceding year.

The specialist said that most ginners were cooperating to the best of their ability in the move to improve the quality of Texas cotton, and noted that 18 seed cotton driers were added in 1938 to bring the total number in gins up to 285. Many ginners, too, slowed down their gins and ran on a loose roll, and that resulted in increased value of the cotton.

7 SAINT VALENTINES? I DIDN'T KNOW THAT!

Strange as it seems February 14 celebrated in honor of not less than seven saints by the name of Valentine. There is no record of any act on the part of these saints to connect them with the observation of this lovers' festival. . . or with the sending of Valentines. Most historians and authorities believe the association with the seven saints and Valentine's Days to be accidental.

DEMON DAUGHTERS

Margaret Turner, the talented writer of the Woman's Angle in the Lubbock Avalanche, gives a brief resume of Honore Morrow's new book, "Demon Daughter," soon to be off the press. Miss Turner says of the book, Felice Morrow, the daughter of Mrs. Morrow, was her inspiration. "The book sets out there is a natural antagonism between mothers and daughters, and that bringing up a girl is a dogs fight from start to finish. A girl in her teens is a slippery individual, you can't depend on her for anything. She's what you might call 'unmoral.'"

Mrs. Morrow says she believes that girls are interested only in attracting and impressing men and boys, and they don't give a hoot what their mothers think about them or their morals. Most girls outgrow those attitudes as soon as they find their own place in life, and then a mother and daughter can meet as friends—instead of enemies.

Miss Turner asks, "do you think the novelist is right?" and that she would like to have opinions of mothers and daughters.

As mother of one of the purest and noblest little daughters in the world, we wish to voice the opinion of many millions of other mothers, who will read or hear of the book, she has missed one of the grandest heritages of life in that she could not merit the confidence and respect of her daughter. A daughter naturally looks to her mother as something holy and wonderful and we sincerely believe a mother that wants to be a pal to her daughter or son, can mean more to her or him than all other outside interests, and when they fail to do this they have fallen short of being a mother.

Every girl wants a mother she can confide in and take her troubles to and when she sees she has no sympathy there, where is she to seek mother's love and understanding.

We heard of a school, there are others we suppose, in California where they have a student advisor for the girls who do not have mothers, or understanding mothers, where they can take their problems and ask and receive advice. This is noble gesture on the part of the school board, but think what a mother misses in not being able to have the confidence of her daughter and helping her to meet the obstacles of life—to meet the right boys and girls, and when she can't do this, we say in modern slang, "as a mother, she is a FLOP"

TERRY COUNTY COUNCIL HOLD MEETING AT CHALLIS

Miss Nellie Mae McLeroy, president of the County Council and other members of the County Council, met at Challis, Friday night, Feb. 3rd., and helped render a very entertaining program. The Challis community organized a Parent-Teacher Association.

Members of the Council will meet at the Forrester school Friday night, Feb. 17, to assist the school and community in organizing. The following program will be given:

- Invocation.
- Song, by the community.

ATTENDS FRIENDSHIP O. E. S. NIGHT IN LUBBOCK

Some five hundred members of the Eastern Star attended a Friendship Night meeting and banquet in Lubbock, last Tuesday night when forty chapters were invited.

Those attending from this chapter were Mesdames Gore, Cox, Thompson, Briley, Smith, Bruton, Bailey, Davis and Stahler. There was a banquet at the Hilton Hotel before the meeting.

BILL BYRON PRICE HOST TO FRIENDS

Several couples of the younger set enjoyed a dance at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. Money Price on last Friday night, when the young son, Bill Byron greeted his guests.

Dancing was enjoyed until a late hour, then delicious sandwiches, olives, potato chips and cocoa was served to the following: Helen Gillham, Charlott Dial, Vivian Seale, Doris Cain, Emogene Coleman and M. J. Craig, Jr., LeJune Lincoln, Ted Greenfield and Deverle Lewis.

MAIDS AND MATRONS CLUB

Paraguay and Uruguay was the lesson of the Maids and Matrons club on Tuesday afternoon at four o'clock, when Mrs. M. E. Jacobson was the very gracious hostess to the group.

Those taking part on the program were: Mesdames Jacobson, Davis and Stricklin. Mrs. Lee Fulton was made a new member. A lovely refreshment plate of congealed pineapple, cheese-cream salad, appetizers, olives, individual cherry pies with whipped cream and coffee, was served to the members: Bell, Smith, Wingerd, Randall, Brownfield, Perry, Bailey, Telford, Tarpley, Davis, Price, Stricklin, Misses Sloan, Edwards, Rasco, and the hostess, Mrs. Jacobson.

ACE HIGH BRIDGE CLUB

The Ace High Bridge club met Friday afternoon, February 3rd at the lovely new home of Mrs. Ned Self when she entertained with three tables of bridge.

Mesdames Ray Christopher and Wilson Collins scored high in the games and were presented lovely Humming Bird hosiery.

A dainty refreshment plate of tuna fish salad, nut bread, potato chips, pickles, tea and cherry pie was served.

Those enjoying the games were: Mesdames Wingerd, Collins, Telford, Kendrick, Graves, Sawyer, Christopher, Wilson Collins, Herod, Hudgens, Treadaway, and McClain.

Mrs. A. S. Matthews of Corpus Christi, Texas, and Mrs. Foyld Stark and Johnny Heath of Seminole, were very pleasant callers at the Herald office Wednesday. They were on their way to Lubbock to visit their sister and aunt, Mrs. L. L. Cobb, whose small son was run over by a car on last Friday. Mrs. Stark and Mrs. Matthews have also been attending the bedside of their brother, Arnett Bynum who was seriously hurt in Odessa on last Saturday. Old timers will remember Mrs. Matthews as Ruby Bynum.

Sermon topic for the morning service: "Two Forces in the Universe," based on the story of Stephen. The hour for the night service has been changed to 7:30. The pastor will speak on, "The Perfect Friend," at the evening hour.

We are glad to welcome a number of new families to our city. We invite you to come to church Sunday morning and get acquainted. You are welcome.

Professor C. A. Wilhite of the Harmony school and nine of his basket ball boys were in town Wednesday. They had played a game at Pleasant Valley school.

Mrs. Claude Hudgens of Levelland and Lawrence Stewart of Abilene were here Wednesday afternoon greeting old friends.

Eastern Star Organize A Study Club.

Members of the Order of the Eastern Star met Monday, Feb. 6, at 6:00 p. m. in the Masonic Hall to organize a study club. Mrs. Henda Jane Nabors, formerly of Lubbock but now residing between Meadow and Brownfield, attended the meeting to help organize the club.

The officers who were elected for the club were:

President, Mrs. Jessie G. Randall. Vice-President, Mrs. Ethel Fulton. Secretary-Treasurer, Mrs. Ida Bruton.

Reporter, Mrs. Una Bell. Teacher, Mrs. Jessie G. Randall. Assistant Teacher, Mrs. Henda Jane Nabors.

The members of the Study Club voted to meet on the first Monday of each month in the Masonic Hall at 6:00 p. m.

The next meeting will be March 6, at that time the organization will be completed and Mrs. Nabors will teach the class.

Members of the O. E. S. who attended the study club meeting were: Mistresses Ona Gore, Della Thompson, Thelma Peacock, Cornelia Moore, Ella Cox, Grandmother Cox, Luna, Laura Smith, Jewell Smith, Ethel Fulton, Jessie G. Randall, Ida Bruton and Una Eel and Miss Mary Jo Luna. Visiting "Stars" were Mrs. Henda Jane Nabors and Mrs. Barret.

P. T. A. PICK UPS

West Ward Parent-Teacher Association opened its regular meeting Thursday, Feb. 2, at three o'clock with prayer led by Bro Hendrix.

The Saxette Band played three numbers which were enjoyed very much by all those present.

Mrs. Concrief had charge of "Founders Day" program which paid tribute to the pioneer. We are proud to have one of the State founders, Mrs. Toone, as a citizen of our town.

It was a "treat" to have two men, Mr. Baze and Bro. Hendrix in the group. Bro Hendrix gave a short discussion concerning, "The Needs of the Day and How They May Be Met." Mr. Baze gave suggestions about the purchase of play-ground equipment and expressed appreciation for the Milk Fund, which is being sponsored by the Association.

The results of the Milk Fund are very outstanding not only in added pounds and better work for the undernourished pupils to whom the milk has been given, but also in the added number of pupils who are drinking milk. Milk has more food value than other foods that can be used for school lunches. The donations taken from the P.-T. A. Milk Bottles that may be seen in the business houses care for many pupils. There was only $3.00 in the P.-T. A. bottles this past month. That will not pay for the milk given to some 35 children each day, so we urge you to look for the bottles and help the P.-T. A. keep the good work going.

MEADOW W. M. U.

Meadow Baptist W. M. U. met at the church at 2:30 Monday afternoon with 8 ladies present. Mrs. A. L. Hicks read the scripture lesson, and we had business meeting. We are expecting more women for Bible study next Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Collins and Mr. and Mrs. Ned Self attended the marriage of Miss Edith May Collins to Stanley Wilks, in Lamesa, Sunday. Mrs. Wilks is a niece of Mr. Collins. Also Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Collins, he being a brother of the bride.

John Chisholm was a business visitor to Fort Worth the first of the week.

THE COURTESY CLUB

The 5-B Courtesy Club met February 3, 1939. The president, Mae Belle Roper presided. The Thrift committee, under the leadership of James Hubert Walker, gave the following program:

Song, "Going to Give a Circus," Corrine Thrasher, Willie Merle Jackson, Dorothy Copeland, and Neta Jean Worsham.

Poem, "The Night Has a Thousand Eyes," Willie Merle Jackson. Story, "Jenks Pig," Jesse Turner. Story, "Ghost House," Dorothy Copeland.

The following were selected as best citizens: Nita Jean Worsham, Earl Bates, Bertina Ramsur, R. B. Walls, Jr., and Dale Hill.

The next meeting will be February 10, 1939. The Good Manners Committee, under the leadership of Nita Jean Worsham will give the program.

BAPTIST CHURCH NEWS

Somewhat better attendance at the Bible study period last Sunday morning with 264 present. Have you graduated in the greatest book of all time, the only inspired volume, man's waybill from earth to Heaven?

The Sunday evening services of B. T. U. at 7:30 and preaching hour at 8:30 was not well attended and should be improved.

It is your responsibility to be present and assist to make Sunday evening a great evangelistic hour. The pastor needs your presence and cooperation.

The W. M. U. met in circles Monday evening with 30 present and they wish you to meet with them and enjoy their fellowship and study. They meet in circles again next Monday at 2:30 p. m. continuing the study of the Missionary book, "Go Forward" and welcome you. The Annie Long circle with Mrs. Auburg; the Lotte Moor with Mrs. McPherson; the Reagan with Mrs. E. C. Davis; and the Lockett with Mrs. L. C. Heath.

The pastor is discussing the book of Jude at the Mid-week Wednesday evening service at 7:30 p. m. Add your presence to this service. Especially the teachers and officers of the Sunday school should meet Wednesday evening for a short departmental meeting to discuss their problems for the Sunday school hour. The school is failing to meet the Standard requirements that make a first rating school, because the teachers and officers will not put time enough into their work. We wait to see if they will improve.

These notes are weekly furnished the press as matters of interest to many people of the community, and if you will read them you will keep in touch with our church program. We hereby express appreciation of the church to both of the newspapers who publish our church news.

If you and your family are not regularly attending worship, this is your urgent invitation to bring the family into the Bible study hour next Sunday morning.

JUDGE REED SPEAKS AT PRESBYTERIAN MEN'S FELLOWSHIP DINNER

On Tuesday night, February 7th, the men of the Presbyterian church enjoyed a fellowship dinner at the Wines Hotel Dining room. A goodly number of men were present and enjoyed a delicious dinner and a lively informal program. The Hon. Louis B. Reed, District Judge of the 106th Judicial District and a prominent Presbyterian Layman, gave a most interesting talk.

Following the invocation, given by W. H. Dallas, the ladies of the Women's Missionary Society served the dinner. Miss Gertrude Rasco entertained with piano selections during the meal. A male quartet, (barbershop variety) consisting of Dennis Smith, M. J. Akers, David Perry, and F. A. Walker, sang songs. James H. Dallas served as toastmaster and his ready wit was a source of fun for all.

At the close of the meeting it was decided to perfect a permanent organization for the men's group and a committee was appointed to arrange for the next meeting. This committee consisted of Roy Wingerd, David Perry and Raymond Taylor.

The proceeds from the dinner were applied on the mission work of the church.

Every effort is being made to make you comfortable and the session of the Church school profitable. It opens its session at 9:45 and closes at 10:45 a. m.

PUBLIC WORSHIP, both morning and evening, 11 and 7:30. LEAGUES, the first one 6:15 p. m., and the other one immediately thereafter.

MORNING WORSHIP brings you select music by the choir under the directorship of Mr. Emmitt Smith. The pastor delivers a sermon using as his subject, "A POCKET FULL OF DREAMS." This is an endeavor to get over the dreams of what a church could be. An increasing number are finding this service interesting.

EVENING WORSHIP brings a big sing of old and familiar hymns; will, if you care to select it, sing your favorite. The pastor will deliver a sermon using as subject, "THE GOVERNOR DISMISSES A PREACHER." The preacher was getting in on him! The Governor dismissed the whole meeting, called it off without any Benediction. Hear about it!

A number of Methodists drove over to Tahoka last Sunday afternoon to hear Bishop Holt. They report they were amply repaid for their trip.

While in Tahoka they visited the new Baptist church in that little city. It is a thing of beauty and of good taste. Both pastor and people are to be commended for their good work and sacrifice.

REVIVAL CONTINUES AT FOURSQUARE CHURCH

With Rev. and Mrs. Warren Johnson, Evangelist and singer, the old time gospel is being preached daily and souls saved at the Foursquare Gospel church.

Come every night at 7:30. Sunday, 10 a. m.; Sunday School, 11 a. m. Sister Lee will bring the message.

Sunday, 7:30, Bro. Johnson will speak. Subject, "Short Beds and Scanty Covers."

Monday night, Sister Johnson will bring the message. Come every night.

U. OF T. ANTHROPOLOGISTS SAY MAN IS NOT FROM APE

AUSTIN—The University of Texas anthropology museum has put man and a giant ape side by side and found the fallacy in the doctrine that man descended from the monkey.

Two skeletons, one of a Negro man, the other of a chimpanzee, are displayed in the museum on the top floor of the Waggener Hall. The differences between them are pointed out by museum authorities.

"The important differences between man and the great apes pertain mainly to the size of the brain and the locomotor habits," Dr. J. Gilbert McAllister, director, said. "Man is not 'up from the ape,' though in bone structure, muscles, organs and pathology, there is but a difference of degree not kind."

Listing some of the differences between man and the chimpanzee, gorilla or other apes, Dr. McAllister pointed out that man has a much larger brain, less facial protrusion, a pronounced chin, a flatter chest.

Man does not have interlocking canine teeth as do the giant apes, his cervicel vertebrae do not "bristle," his spinal column has an "S" curve, his leg bones are longer and stronger, his pelvis more basin-shaped, he does not have an opposable big toe.

More conclusive than anything else that man did not descend from the monkey, however, is man's culture, Dr. McAllister declared.

"It is this social heritage of language, beliefs, customs, morals, techniques, that marks the greatest difference between man and the giant apes," he said.

Both skeletons were reconstructed by Dan Bussey of Timpson, a University student, as a National Youth Administration project.

A letter from Vona Lee Ditto, recently says, she likes her new job with Everybody's, at Midland fine, but would be glad to see any of her old friends come in while there or passing through. Everybody's is an exclusive ready to wear for ladies and gents.

Miss Lucille McSpadden and Mesdames Collins and Hatcher, spent the week end in Odessa.

NOBODY'S BUSINESS

By Julian Capers, Jr.

AUSTIN — The issue between a sales tax and increased levies on natural resources was clearly drawn this week, as the House taxation and revenue committee began preliminary arrangements to start hearings on various tax bills. The week has brought distinct changes in the tax battle, and the atmosphere, clouded for the first few weeks of the session by conflicting interests, seems gradually to be clearing up.

Most important development appears to observers of the situation here to be distinct weakening of the strong position which the sales tax element maneuvered themselves into immediately after the session opened, through the introduction of the O'Daniel transaction tax bill. The purpose of this bill apparently was to make a sales tax look so good by comparison that it would be submitted without strong resistance. The strategy apparently worked fine at first. Now it seems to have proved a boomerang, and the sales tax ranks are shaken badly by the reaction.

A Three Days' Cough Is Your Danger Signal

No matter how many medicines you have tried for your common cough, chest cold, or bronchial irritation, you may get relief now with Creomulsion. Serious trouble may be brewing and you cannot afford to take a chance with any remedy less potent than Creomulsion, which goes right to the seat of the trouble and aids nature to soothe and heal the inflamed mucous membranes and to loosen and expel germs and phlegm.

Even if other remedies have failed, don't be discouraged, try Creomulsion. Your druggist is authorized to refund your money if you are not thoroughly satisfied with the benefits obtained. Creomulsion is one word, ask for it plainly, see that the name on the bottle is Creomulsion, and you'll get the genuine product and the relief you want. (Adv.)

considerably. The transaction tax proposal stirred up the people to such an extent that they began to examine into the effects not only of a transactions tax, but also a sales tax.

Exposure of the process by which the sales tax unloads the burden upon the merchant and the consumers has spread like wildfire, through newspapers and by word of mouth, and reports here of an aroused populace have the sales taxers so worried that at the week end their leaders were extremely dubious about submitting the measure to the people at any near date.

Meanwhile, those forces in the House who do not believe that the "little" people should shoulder the burden of a $30,000,000 or $40,000,000 additional tax load to pay pensions or for any other purpose, popped three bills into the House hopper. Two of them propose hikes in the natural resources tax rates, including oil gas and sulphur. One by Albert Derden of Marlin, would raise $24,000,000 annually. Another bill by G. C. Morris of Greenville, proposes similar increases, but more moderate in percentage, and would raise about $16,000,000. Particularly significant was the fact that 44 house members signed Morris' bill with the author.

It would take 100 votes to submit a constitutional amendment calling for a sales tax. This indicates that at least 45 House members prefer to tax the bi interests before resorting to a tax on poverty. If the resources group can recruit 6 additional votes—and it appears reasonable that they can—there is little prospect of getting the sales tax submitted by the House. Both the Derden and Morris proposals are coupled with liberalized pension measures, Derden proposing to pay $15 to all over 65, while Morris would apply the O'Daniel plan of paying enough to make up a $30 minimum income for everybody over 65, including all sources. Derden's bill would also kick the cigaret tax up a penny a pack, from 4 to 5 cents.

The transaction tax, as such, is apparently dead beyond recall. Despite the plea of the governor for help from the "plain common citizens" on the radio Sunday, when he urged them to write the representatives in favor of his bill, the massed opposition of consumers, merchants, farmers, labor, and virtually every business interest in Texas—including those large interests who dictated the writing of O'Daniel's bill—is much too strong. The newest groups to take the field against it, and against the sales tax for which it was made a stalking horse, include organized labor and farmers' organizations. Heads of the unions and five statewide farmers' organizations this week were planning conferences in Austin to make known their opposition.

Economy Signs Gratifying
Meanwhile, there were indications that the great volume of talk about economy might be productive of results. The Legislature ducked the problem of deciding whether Elster M. Haile lives in Texas or Kansas, by abolishing the office of State Tax Commissioner to which O'Daniel had nominated him, at a saving of $50,000 a year. The Railroad Commission, through efforts of Ernest Thompson and Jerry Sadler, cut 56 employees permanently off its payroll, saving $150,000 a year, and was congratulated by resolutions adopted by both Houses. The Senate quickly passed O'Daniel's emergency recommendation for placing appointment and control of the State auditor under the Legislature, a reform which students of government have urged for years. The week end saw many guesses, but no certainty, about whom O'Daniel would name Highway Commissioner, following the Senate's action in rejecting a vote of 16 to 12, the name of Carr P. Collins. E. B. Germany of Dallas, R. L. Lucas of Tyler, County Commissioner, Mills of Port Arthur, Charles Ashcroft of Sulphur Springs, Ex-Lt. Gov. Walter Woodul of Houston, and several others were mentioned. Nobody knew, and the governor was keeping his counsel. His nomination probably will be a surprise.

Austin Notes

Prompt Senate action on a bill passed by the House as an emergency, to permit the borrowing of $900,000 to prevent cutting pensions payments next month, was expected. The bill also authorized refunding of a balance of $1,300,000 of a previous three million dollar borrow for pensions. . . . Dr. Homer Price Rainey, president-elect of Texas University, who takes over next June, visited Austin and conferred with the regents. Through this column, he thanked thousands of Texans who have written him congratulations and best wishes on his new job. . . . Strong opposition to the plan of some Texas county judges to raid the County Road Bond Indebtedness Fund for nearly $200,000,000 by having the board take over retirement county bonds used to build lateral roads, followed the statement of Lowry Martin, Corsicana publisher, and president of the Texas Good Roads Assn., condemning the measure. Martin proposed a substitute, under which the counties would be repaid in cash, out of the surplus in the fund, for payments they had to make in the early years of its operation on bonds spent on roads that are now State Highways, when the income wasn't sufficient to meet these payments in full. . . . Gov. O'Daniel's "explanation" on the radio that he didn't intend to add to the punishment of the condemned Dallas negro, but only granted the 30-day stay of execution to arouse public opinion, against the death penalty, and to "keep blood off his own hands" raised a question of whether, in order to ease his own conscience of the burden of having any part in the execution of any criminal, the Governor intends to torture every criminal sentenced during the next two years by staying each execution for 30 days. . . . Rail Commissioner Ernest Thompson forgot official duties and politics for a week, and raised $30,000 for the President's infantile paralysis fund, in a vigorous campaign among Austin folk, which he directed.

TEXAS HAS 816 CRIPPLED CHILDREN ON WAITING LIST

DALLAS, Jan. 24. — Texas has hundreds of little children, victims of infantile paralysis, knocking on hospital doors for treatment. This fact was revealed here today in a letter to George Waverly Briggs, state vice chairman for the Celebration of the President's Birthday, Jan. 30, from J. J. Brown, director vocational rehabilitation, Austin.

The actual count shown in the summary of all counties shows that the state has a listed total of victims seeking treatment of 816 children. Seventy-one counties out of the total of 254 of the state report no hospital cases. El Paso county leads with 51 waiting cases; Dallas follows second with 31, and Bexar takes third with 29 patients.

Counties with ten or more waiting patients are Pell, 10; Cass, 11; Fannin, 12; Harris, 15; Jefferson, 28; Limestone, 11; Lubbock, 11; McLennan, 24; Navarro, 19; Nueces, 10; Tarrant 17; and Travis 11.

"This table should prove to Texans how necessary their support is to relieve suffering," Mr. Briggs said. Then quoting from the Brown letter, he read: "The attached list gives you by county the number of children on the waiting list ready to be sent to the hospital, but no money is available to send them. This statement by Mr. Brown shows conclusively how essential this drive for funds is, and I consider it a challenge to every Texan."

Mrs. Robert Chambliss was among the shoppers Monday.

SOME DISTRIBUTION !

From the Western Newspaper Union offices in Chicago comes a story about setting type out of a barrel. The story was reported in the Mulberry (Ind.) News by Donald Clark, who with Ray Clark, editor, and son Robert heard it in Chicago. It was told that:

"A tramp printer wandered into a small country town down south one day and was amazed to find a young man laboriously setting type out of a barrel. He poked around into the barrel, half full of type, until he found each letter wanted, and placed it in the proper position in his typesetting stick. After watching for some time, the tramp printer exclaimed: "By gum, I've been in just about every country-newspaper office in this country, but this is the first time I ever saw anybody set type out of a barrel. Isn't it pretty slow going—take you a long time to get the paper out?"

"'Yep,' grunted the young typesetter, 'takes a hell of a long time to set up all the type, but god-almighty you ought to see us distribute it!'"

PAPER MILL MAY RAISE SOUTHERN STANDARDS

At Lufkin, located in the center of 3,500,000 acres of pine forests, a $6,000,000 newsprint paper plant will be established next year by Southland Paper Mills, Inc., bringing to realization a dream of the late Dr. Charles Holmes Herty, famous Savannah chemist.

Dr. Herty saw in the vast pine forests of the South the basis of great industrial activity which would raise the living standard of thousands of rural families. In his laboratories he made, among other things, thousands of tons of fine newsprint which was used successfully by various newspapers.

Last week, E. L. Kurth, president of the Southland Paper Mills, announced financing of the proposed newsprint plant was complete, contracts would soon be let. Within a year the mills will be converting Southern pine into 50,000 tons of newsprint annually, he said.

The new industry is being made possible through a $3,425,000 RFC loan (to be repaid in 10 years) and stock subscriptions by southern newspaper publishers who have agreed to take the plant's entire output for five years at prices paid Canadian mills, now the principal source of American newsprint.

Cheaper raw products and lower freight rates will enable the Texas plant to sell for less, but publishers will pay as much to insure the plant's profitable operation.

Experience is not what happens to a man. It is what man does with what happens to him.

MRS. L. NICHOLSON LOSES FATHER

Mr. and Mrs. L. Nicholson were called to Mansfield, Texas, last Friday the third, when Mrs. Nicholson's father, Mr. E. R. Swinney, age 69, passed away with heart failure, at the home of a daughter.

Services were conducted in Mansfield, Saturday afternoon and burial followed in Forest Hill cemetery.

Surviving children are as follows: Mrs. Lawton Nicholson, Brownfield, Texas; Mrs. W. E. Hayes and Mrs. Roy Bradshaw, Fort Worth, Texas; Mrs. B. F. Farris, Mansfield; Mrs. Gifford Rumyon, Dallas; Mrs. R. N. Summers and Miss Lometa Swinney, Los Angeles, Calif.; and one son, W. L. Swinney, Oklahoma City.

He had visited several times in the home of Mrs. Nicholson here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Benton of the south side was here with the shoppers, Monday.

It had been a menace to stock and there was a large bounty for the killing of the animal. The skin was sent to Denver for mounting.

NOTED HOT CHECK ARTIST CAUGHT

A man who gave his name as Smith and who has been swindling merchants all over the country for three years with worthless checks was arrested and jailed at Port Arthur. Explaining how he operated, Smith said: "The fine art in cashing checks lay in buying something. You've got to buy something. They don't like to cash a check if you're not buying anything. But they'll do anything to make a sale—nine out of 10 of them will."

BURDENSOME TAXES

(To be sung to the tune of Beautiful Texas.)
You've all heard the fantastic stories, Of the State that would be tax free. But this was a tale Lee was telling To get votes from you and me. Now some folks who still love the truthful, And want to be honest and fair Will not tolerate an outlandish rate That is more than business can bear.

CHORUS
Burdensome, burdensome taxes, In the land where the bluebonnets grow

Taxes on ten generations Of the Sons of the Alamo. If you live on the plains or the mountains Or down where the sea breezes blow

You're taxed on every transaction, Taxed till you can't pay "no more."

We have builded our beautiful highways With taxes from city and farm, But you can't pyramid these taxes

Without doing our Texas great harm. White cotton, green forests, blue rivers, Golden wheat fields and trees taxed bare,

We'll be taxed till doomsday—the business way For Wilbert has taxes to spare.

(Repeat Chorus)

In this song about burdensome taxes, There's something we just have to say—

A half a million people Regret they voted that way. But there's still the high court of impeachment

And may God forbid him that fate So let us all pray for that bright-eyed day,

When we redeem our beautiful state (from)

(Repeat Chorus)

SOCIALISM BANKRUPT OLD MEXICO

By Fred Pasley
Mexico is bankrupt. Her trade is dwindling, her sources of revenue are drying up, the peso is skidding toward the post-war German mark status, and the country is being flooded with flat money. The Bank of Mexico, 51 per cent, of whose stock is held by the Government, has not issued a statement since March of 1938. The Government's overdraft at the bank is now approximately 200,000,000 pesos.

Foodstuffs and living costs generally have soared from 50 to 100 and in some instances 200 per cent, reaching peaks never before known in Mexican history, not even in the chaotic days of the Madero revolution.

FROM WOOD PULP TO NEWS PRINT IS FILM STORY

AUSTIN, Feb. 4. — From giant pine tree to newspaper is a long step, but you can see the whole complicated story in a three-reel motion picture, "Trees to Tribunes," available at the University of Texas.

The first reel of the film, which the University Visual Instruction Bureau offers without charge to colleges, schools and other organizations, tells the story of how pulp wood is gathered—life in the timberlands, cutting trees, sawing logs, "sledding," "driving" logs down streams, dynamiting log jams and loading the boats. The second reel shows the process of making newsprint paper, and the third traces the steps in publishing the newspaper from editorial room to the delivered paper.

CHAIN STORE PAYS $100,165 TAX

The payment of $100,165 chain store tax for 1939 by one concern, Safeway Stores, was announced by Comptroller George H. Sheppard, who estimated the chain store tax levy would produce $750,000 this year. The Safeway Company operates 166 stores in Texas, on which the tax amounted to an average of $603.40 per store.

NORTH AMERICAN NAZIS

For the high-handed explosion from Mexico of the New York Times correspondent, Frank L. Kluckhohn, nothing in the history of this hemisphere provides a precedent. The ominous fact is that, for the first time, a fundamental tactic of the modern dictator state has been translated to an American continent.

Had there previously been the slightest reason to doubt what kind of government exists in Mexico, this episode would remove it. Of course, no such reason existed. It has been apparent for months that our southern neighbor's primary policies were being cut to the familiar pattern. The denial of the elementary rights of private property, the seizures of oil and farm lands, the constantly increased collaboration with the Fascist-Nazi block, pointed alike to an inescapable conclusion. South of the Rio Grande, on North American soil, we have a totalitarian state, based upon collectivism as ruthless and all-embracing as anything that exists on the other side of the Atlantic.

For fully and accurately reporting the growth and development of this menace, and for no other reason, Kluckhohn has been expelled. The procedure is summary. It is cruder, even, and more arrogant than any of its European precedents. No specific denial is made of the truth of any of the correspondent's statements. He is simply told to "get out of the country within 24 hours." —Amarillo Times.
