TERRY COUNTY GINS READY FOR SEASON RUN

Farmers Gin Prepared For A Good Season

Mr. Roy Phillips, manager of the local Farmer's Co-operative Gin phoned us Thursday to come and inspect the plant. Was up there last week, but at that time they were not ginning and had to defer our trip till this week. So we arrived in time to see the 12th bale ginned and the 13th and 14th were standing ready to go when we left. In another week, Mr. Phillips expects to be busy, and he has an excellent crew, good machinery, and a plant second to none.

This plant was first built about 1925, and was known as the McDonald Gin up until 1930, when it was purchased by the farmers of the area, and the gin is still held by Terry county farmers. Two years ago they discarded the round bale section, and now are turning out only square bales. One thing that particularly interested us was the fact that they are using cotton wrapping instead of imported jute. For a long time we have wondered why gins and farmers did not insist on cotton bagging, as it is not only better and looks better, but it is a product of the south instead of some foreign country.

Mr. Phillips, who has been manager for the past three years, took us through the plant or rather to it and told us to make ourselves at home. At the time, they were on a "bollie", and even though the weather was damp, with a feeling of mist in the air, the cotton was reaching the five Hardwicke-Etter 80-saw stands almost clean, and the fans and saws in the stands finished the job. The lint was rolling into the presses clean and shining. Mr. Phillips stated that all but a few of the bales ginned this year were good staple, and of course the first bales picked from low bolls are usually the poorest staple.

We need not remind you that the same machinery that was started out with in 1925 has long since been discarded, especially as applies to the ginning operation. Besides the Hardwicke-Etter gin stands mentioned above, before the cotton reaches these stands it is thoroughly cleaned by Mitchell Cleaners and Feeders over these stands. An all-steel press has been installed, and static has been eliminated as much as possible by live steam, as it is a well-known fact that humidity is the best router of static, which often causes gin fires.

We wish to state just here that the Farmers Co-op Gin has paid good dividends since they purchased it, and they were especially excellent in 1937, the year of the banner Terry county crop. But even last year with less than a 12,000 bale crop, this gin turned out 2146 bales for its members and their friends. They will give you a good clean sample, with the maximum amount of lint taken from the seed. The officers are men you all know: J. J. Gaston, President; W. H. Black, Vice-President; Wood E. Johnson, Secretary.

Henry Chisholm had a severe attack of cholera-morbus Tuesday night, but was feeling better Wednesday.

The West Texas Gin In Fine Condition

"The oldest gin in the county, yet one of the best," is the version Manager Herman Chesshir gave us when we interviewed him about the West Texas gin plant. And right here, we hope Herman is as badly fooled in the number of bales he gins this year as he was last year. Early last fall, he set a figure, that around about 1920, would have looked big, perhaps, but very little last year. He ginned many hundred bales over the figure he gave us.

One thing in particular that Herman wanted us to see, and that was the dust and trash (moe) houses he has built, and even in the dustiest weather this year, there is going to be a minimum amount of dust and dirt flying around their plant. This will be good news to people living near the gin. In the plant, they have the very best of equipment, and a crew of workmen, many of whom have been with the gin several years, and are ready to handle your cotton efficiently.

While their gins and presses are Continental, having 5, 70-saw gin stands, their cleaning apparatus is made by the Hardwicke-Etter Co. of Sherman, Texas. At the same time we were there, they were ginning on their 25th bale, belonging to Alton Webb, and it was real cotton. The fibre was full 15-16th, according to Herman, but we made a full inch out of the "pull" we had by rule measure, but Herman says the cotton was a little green, and will settle at 15-16ths. It was of the Accala variety, and was Alt's first bale, but he has a number open. The gin weight was 2050 (bollie) and the bale weighed 582.

Herman and his crew invite your inspection of their plant, and a trial of good ginning, and good staple.

Griffin Gin Ready For Cotton Season

It is a long step from the first model gin that Eli Whitney put out to the modern plants that are to be seen these days that cost from $30,000 to $40,000. Indeed it is a long step from the gin we first saw as a boy, to the five modern plants of Brownfield. The first cotton gin we saw had eight horses or mules as power, with a one stand 60 saw affair, where the cotton was unloaded out of baskets to stalls, and from stalls in hampers to the platform of the gin stand, to be fed in by hand. Thence to the old screw press, and a good day was about five or six bales.

As we looked over the complicated machinery in the Griffin Gin this week, we could not help making this contrast. Hayden Griffin had a 4 stand 80 saw Continental system, Continental Cleaner as well as a Super Unit Cleaner. The seed is caught near the stands and weighed, and a lever lets them go down to the waiting truck or wagon, or the seed house if sold by a shift of the lever. The plant is equipped with a John Mitchell dryer, with three radiators and a huge fan, that will dry damp cotton, making it much better ginning and a better sample. The latest type conveyors as well as air pressure machines are installed throughout the plant, making for speed and efficiency.

With a well selected and trained crew of men, plenty of power for operation, Mr. Griffin and personnel are prepared to give the public the ginning they will appreciate. He has already ginned several bales, getting all machinery well oiled and limbered up

Graham Smith Takes S'Western Life Ag'cy

W. Graham Smith, a well known citizen of our city for the past several years, has taken the local agency of the Southwestern Life Insurance Co., of Dallas. The Southwestern is one of the largest and oldest of Texas owned companies. The capitol stock is all held by Texas capitalists, and they write no insurance outside this state. Mr. Smith became local agent upon the relinquishment of the agency a few weeks ago by Mr. C. L. Lincoln.

Mr. Smith came to this city some six years ago directly from Florida, and went into the tailor business, still being owner of the American Tailor Shop. In due course of time he married a Brownfield girl, Miss Jewel Graves, daughter of the late Dr. and Mrs. G. W. Graves. They now have a little daughter. To say that Mr. Smith is pleased with his connections with this large Texas concern is putting it mildly, and any business given him will be highly appreciated.

As to the company, their latest statement discloses resources of over 61 million dollars, with a capital stock of over 4 million dollars. It has been organized and in operation for the past 36 years, and has insurance in force of more than 370 million dollars. The gain in 1938 was nearly 6 million dollars. They own their own skyscraper in the city of Dallas.

They guarantee 3 1-4 percent on policies, but are now paying as high as 4 percent. Here is good news for the young man that might be caught in a war draft. Their policies are unrestricted as to trade or profession as yet. In other words, those who might be called to war can now get a policy with the same rate as a farmer or any of the civil trades or professions.

Despite Deterioration Still A Good Crop

Many have stated to us recently that they have never seen crops go back as fast as they have in the past two weeks. That is of course because the rains three weeks ago sapped the plants, and the hottest, most unseasonable September and late August weather on record hit us. For instance on Saturday the 2nd, the Dallas news reported 113 degrees on the ground there, while aviators reported 120 degrees 2,000 feet up; an unusual condition. Despite this, some are experiencing some surprises here in gathering their crops.

For instance, L. A. Greenfield thought perhaps he would get 5 bales off 15 acres in the east edge of the city. He is getting four bales the first time over. A farmer informed us this week that Carl Griffith of the Wellman community would get 150 bales off some over 200 acres.

for the season. He asked you to call and inspect his plant if you have not already done so.

Fair Is Shaping Itself Nicely For Next Week

Those who have charge of the revived Terry County Fair are very optimistic over the prospects so far. It is believed now that a premium list of several hundred dollars will result in the work the committees are undertaking. The Lions are behind the movement, and will have charge of the concessions and carnival, but will have charge of none of the farm or arts departments except as individuals.

So let us all mark a red ring around our calendars for next Friday and Saturday, September 22-23, so that we may not miss any of the fair. A few weeks ago Mr. Shelton in his Chamber of Commerce Items told us where different sections of the fair as well as the carnival will be located. Through the courtesy of some business men and others, the carnival and concessions grounds will be on the quarter block west of Higginbotham-Bartlett Co., Mr. Edwards of the Farmers Implement Co., has graciously consented to move his implements out and turn his big warehouse over to agricultural displays. The poultry will be housed in the iron building just north of the Miller Service Station, and the Women's department will be housed in the showrooms of the former Carter Chevrolet Co.

We understand that the catalogues are being printed and will be distributed this week in time to be in the hands of the farmers as well as the judges in plenty of time for next week. The town and county is expecting a large crowd to attend, and that the displays that will be brought in will be a real eye opener to the section. The Lions club has also promised to give us some real amusement of the old time carnival vintage with the absence of the general objectionable feature.

In conversation with Lee Walker of the Meadow section, this week, he expressed the sentiment of many farmers as well as the business men of the town, when he remarked, "I hope we never let the fair die down again, as it is a great help and encouragement to the farmers of the area, and means much to the business interests of the town. Look what the regional fair at Lubbock means to them, and Brownfield used to have great crowds here and lots of money spent, in which all business interests shared."

We think Lee has something there. Probably the greatest mistake Brownfield has made was in not taking the money the WPA once offered us to improve our county park and fair grounds. But good men were divided on this proposition, and time only will tell just where the mistake was and how we let a good opportunity to build a real fair slip through our fingers.

Two Jokes on the Judges Gets Laughs

It is reported to us that Judge Louis B. Reed called a certain case this week, stating, "the next case on the docket will be State of Texas vs. _____, charged with assault with intent to rape." The Judge must have had his mind on something else, for he immediately begged the jury's pardon, and said he meant assault with intent to murder. Of course for those not familiar with the case, both persons involved in the case were men.

Judge C. C. Chapman, visiting here from Ohio, and who seems to like a joke on himself, told this one: A divorce case was being tried and a lady witness was asked to read a letter, when she stated that the letter was not "fit for any person to read." "Then hand it to the Judge," said the attorney.

Hi-way Headquarters Show Improvement

Had been passing and re-passing the State Highway headquarters and warehouse out on Lubbock Ave. a great many times of late, and noted an increasing look of beauty as time rolled on, so just asked Lester McPherson, highway maintenance Superintendent to take us up this week for a closer inspection. It has been around a year since we had been up there, and we found that in that time a great transformation had taken place.

In the first place, the elms are now large ones, that had been transported from the old site just west of the Farmer's Gin, which had become crowded, and the hi-way department, wanting more room to enlarge, if need be, and beautify the grounds, bought the present site some three years ago. However, it was not until two years ago that the effort of beautifying could be gotten underway as the buildings had to be erected, offices made, fences built, gas, water and sewer connections made, etc. But the place is far from a bald spot on the prairie now.

The front, except what is required by cars and trucks of Mr. McPherson and his employes, is a riot of flowers, such as zenias, poinsettias, etc., and the trees and shrubs have made wonderful growth during the past year. Even the elms that were put out at the new site as mere nursery stock, are now large and growing fast. Lester has dumped a lot of nails picked up on the highway by the picker, around these trees, as it is said the soil here is deficient in iron. Some of the shrubbery, such as Alpheas are now blooming and others will in the spring. So, this warehouse and grounds is not just a place to work and store things, but it is really nice to look at. Climbing roses adorn the front fence.

The site is well chosen, being on a rise, gives a good view of highway 51 north or south, lessening the danger to traffic or themselves in coming into the highway. Not only is the warehouse with its office, workshops and storage kept spotless, but the whole grounds are the same way. The rear section is being sodded in grass, and all the front not needed for parking already has a good sod coat. We judge there is between two and three acres in the plot.

Lester McPherson is to be congratulated in more ways than one on the work he has done. He is making a real beautiful roadside park 10 miles east of the city on 380, with cooking and barbecue pits. He has used a lot of money this year allotted to him for maintenance in putting a seal coat on the Tahoka road, which was badly needed, and says he aims to put it on the other four miles as soon as possible. So, let us hand out some flowers for the living.

Lester says the new road for some six miles this side of the Terry-Yoakum line to Plains is now finished, and is one of the best jobs in this section of the State, and the Plains and Yoakum county people are really proud of it. We have it unofficially from other sources that work of grading, draining and caliche coating will begin on the road from here to the Hockley county line next Monday. Lester says that he has about 120 miles of pavement under his jurisdiction now, with all but the Plains-Broncho stretch of some 20 miles being paved. He begins at Tahoka on 380, and runs to Broncho, and from the Lubbock-Hockley county line on 51, to the Terry-Gaines county line near Seagraves.

A. L. Baker, Wellman, dropped the Herald family a supply of nice roasting ears at the house, one day last week. Thanks a lot!

Chamber of Commerce Items

By J. E. Shelton

The response to our request in last week's paper was not so hot and as a consequence we are not able to supply the demand and persons who are engaged in the oil business are having to go to other towns for accommodations. We believe that those of our citizens who have money, would be making a sound investment if they would construct a few houses for rental purposes. Brownfield has not reached the limit of its possibilities by any means but we can't continue to grow in population as long as we do not provide housing facilities. Brownfield received another lot of free publicity when Fern Sawyer copped First Prize in a riding contest at the Frontier celebration at Colorado City last week. This is the second time that she has walked off with it this year and it is not the last time we are going to be in the limelight upon account of her efforts, as she was awarded

Lubbock Boosters Here Tuesday

Two McMakin buses, containing some 50 people stopped here about on scheduled time Tuesday afternoon, between four and five o'clock, distributed rulers to school children and circulars among the crowd. They had with them a fiddle band, which more recently has been called Hill-Billy bands, except this one was more on the cowboy order.

A pressing invitation was extended to Brownfield and Terry county to attend the 26th annual fair, Sept. 25th to 30th. One of the tunes played was an O'Daniel composition, Beautiful Texas, and the people were asked to join in, but either few knew the words, or there were not many O'Daniel people in the crowd.

They had made Slaton, Post, Tahoka, O'Donnell, Lamesa, Seminole, Seagraves, and were still scheduled to stop at Meadow and Ropes.

Terry's White Kitchen A Place of Beauty

It is amazing what paint, patience and a small amount of rearrangement will do to a place, but if you have not visited Terry's White Kitchen, next to the Rialto Theatre, you have a real pleasant surprise awaiting you when you do. But don't let us have to tell you, drop in and see for yourself.

We had lunch there Monday, and being a bit late, it was some time before we were served, for which not only the waitress apologized, but also Mr. Terry himself. We believe we are safe in saying that at least 75 people were dining in there at that time, which caused Mr. Terry to remark: "Well, it looks like we don't need to run another ad in the Herald, as that one last week certainly got results, but we'll have another this week."

Many Rotarians Visit Lubbock Tuesday Nite

Attending the annual get-together barbecue at the Texas Tech judging barns Tuesday night were the following Rotarians: Dr. John R. Turner, Dick McDuffie, Tom May, Dudley Repp, Roy Collier, Jas. H. Dallas, Everett Latham, Carl Throop, Dr. R. B. Parish, L. Nicholson, Graham Smith, Kyle and Jim Graves, Glen Akers, Rev. John Hendrix, C. L. Aven, Jr., Bob Bowers and Homer Winston.

Rotarians from Plainview to Odessa, and from Spur to New Mexico were invited and no doubt attended. The boys from Brownfield reported a fine time and a splendid feed.

Avalanche Staff Writer Here Last Week

J. Sam Lewis, staff correspondent for the Avalanche-Journal publications of Lubbock, was a pleasant visitor in our section last week, getting data for articles to appear in their special fair edition which will appear, probably Sunday the 24th. He paid a call on the Herald, and quite some time was taken up with our conversation, as we had not met in some time.

Sam told us that his articles this year would diverge somewhat from those of former years, in that his stories this year would deal somewhat with early settlers of the South Plains area. We gave him the names of some early settlers here, such as the Brownfields, Sawyers, Tiernan, Powell, Bell, and others to interview.

George Mahon Makes Short Call Wednesday

Congressman George Mahon of Colorado City and Lubbock, made a short call here Wednesday afternoon after addressing the pupils of the Seagraves school. Hearing here and at Seagraves that radio listeners had heard that President Roosevelt had called a special session of Congress, he was hastening to Lubbock, to get ready to go to Washington.

Mr. Mahon informed the Herald that he thought when he came home that he would have at least until October or Nov. to make his calls leisurely over the district, but war in Europe seems to have blocked his intentions, and upon leaving the Herald office, his farewell was, "I'll see you after the war, I hope."

Little Doing In District Court

So far as Terry county is concerned, this term of District Court has really been a light one. Only one case was tried this week. Judge Reed had to go back to Yoakum county this week, as they are having a mess of lawsuits over there since oil was struck.

Last week, the case, Welborn vs. Warr was concluded with a jury, the verdict being in favor of the plaintiff.

This week, the case, Treadaway Estate vs. Hodges. Verdict for the plaintiff. Next week will be the last week of district court.

Reports Plenty Sleeping Sickness of Stock

I. M. Bailey, one of the owners of the Palace Drug, is our authority for the assertion that there is much sleeping sickness among the stock in this area, and that much serum for that disease is being sold. It is said that serum is just about the only remedy for this disease.

Asked if it was confined to any one area, Mr. Bailey stated that it was all over Terry, Gaines and Yoakum counties and was killing valuable stock.

O. R. Reed Owner of Okla. Barber Shop

O. R. Reed of Levelland, has purchased the Oklahoma Barber Shop and took charge Thursday, August 31st. Mr. Reed is formerly of the Reed's Barber Shop at Meadow. He has completely gone over the interior of the shop and has a nice place for your convenience while getting barber work. Other barbers in the shop besides Mr. Reed are Mr. Blair, a hold over, and Mr. Bean.

The Official Paper of Terry County and the City of Brownfield

The many friends of Archie Underwood of Lubbock are congratulating him on the safety of his daughter, Miss Katherine, who was on the torpedoed Athenia, British ship sunk off the coast of Ireland. Another ship landed her in New York this week. The Herald hereby adds its message of felicitations to our good friend, Archie.

The press of Texas has just received statements from the legislature of Wisconsin that they are placing no trade barriers against any other states of the union. Until recently Wisconsin was accused of discrimination against cottonseed and other vegetable oils, as it is a great dairy state. Which reminds us that it was said a few years ago when creamery products got real high, that Iowans were selling all their cream and buying butter substitutes. We have never tasted a butter substitute that we'd give a nickel a pound for.

Those who know say there is no reason on earth for the sudden and radical advances in many foods, especially meats, flour and sugar, all staples, except that the people became panicky and tried buying in too large quantities, when there existed no reason on earth for it. In fact, European countries now at war had been storing and preparing food for months and perhaps years before the outbreak of the war for just such an emergency, and it may be six months, a year or more before they begin buying in any large quantities from other countries. America has an abundance of food of all kinds, and great surpluses of grain to draw on, and we'll have to admit too, that food has been mighty cheap of late. Even if there was no war, sooner or later, as buyers begin spending more with returning prosperity, foods would naturally advance. As an illustration, it is said that one could hardly load the white sand on the Cuban shore, transport it to the U. S., pay same duty on it and sell it much cheaper than sugar had been selling.

Blocher, Lubbock cotton man had raised his August estimate of the Terry-Yoakum county cotton yield to 25,000 bales, 5,000 more than at that time. Combining Yoakum county with Terry is a bit misleading. Seagraves, with two or three gins, is within two or three miles of the Yoakum county line and gets the southern Yoakum county cotton. The U. S. Department of Agriculture last year showed that Terry county produced more than 12,000 bales of cotton, but ginned only 11,993. So, one can see that some other county or rather counties are getting more Terry county cotton than we get from Yoakum. Let's see. Beginning at Seagraves, one-half mile over the line from Terry, gets a lot of it from the Willow Wells and Dumas sections; the Loop gin 12 miles east of Seagraves draws a lot from the Windom ranch area; Welch, just over in Dawson, gets a lot more from southeast Terry; Newmore and Lakeview in Lynn county just over the line southeast and northeast, together with Ropes get another large slice from a good cotton area in Terry county, not to mention the Sundown gin just over in Heckley county north of Brownfield. In other words, with the exception of the west side of the county, we are simply surrounded by county line gins in other counties.

We have often wondered why those papers that are forever fighting the new deal spending don't devote a little more space in fighting crime which takes more money to prosecute than we spend for education, churches, and general community betterment. Something more than two billion dollars annually is spent in the United States fighting crime. There are four and one-half as many criminals as public school teachers in the United States. New deal money has been spent for better school houses, gyms, roads, hospitals, streets, parks and what have you, they cost real money, we'll admit, but they are calculated to benefit humanity. Why don't some of you fellows unlimber your guns on the costs of crime? An exchange tells us that one murder case has already cost Castro county $10,000. What good has Castro county taxpayers got out of that money, pray tell us? You fellows remind us of a bunch of fice snapping at the heels of a traveler out in the road while a thief steals the horse in the back pasture.

MILLIONAIRE LEAVES BULK OF ESTATE TO POOR

M. D. Anderson, late president of the World's largest cotton company of Houston, left the bulk of his riches to the poor, his will revealed.

Anderson, a bachelor and partner of W. L. Clayton, set aside $1,000,000 for relatives, and the residue of his estate, estimated to be worth millions of dollars, was left to the M. D. Anderson Foundation, which, trustees said, would be used to support and maintain hospitals, homes and institutions for the care of the sick, blind, crippled, the young, the old and decrepit.

WEST TEXAS

Out in West Texas
On the high staked Plains
Where the sowers reap
The golden grains.
Where pickers pick
The snow white cotton,
In fields of peace,
Never forgotten.
It's morning blossoms
Have petals white
Then turn red
Just before night.
While the shadows creep
Over the kafir and maize
The corn and oats
Will make you gaze
Across the deep
And fertile land
Where pleasure and plenty
Extends a hand.
To those who will Ride and pull
Down the lever
Till the barge runs full.
Out to the middle
Of the lone sandhills
Is a happy spot
Where your heart fills
To see the melons
Long, sweet and fine
When you pull one
Another comes on the vine.

Out in West Texas
On the Staked Plains
Where the sowers reap
The golden grains.

AUGUST CHEVROLET SALES GAIN OVER LAST YEAR

DETROIT, Sept. 8.—Chevrolet dealers' retail sales of new cars and trucks in August totaled 48,840 units, a gain of 14.6 per cent over those for August, 1937, W. E. Holler, general sales manager, announced here today. Sales in the same period last year were 42,611.

The last ten days of the month showed gains over both the last ten days of August 1937 and the

WHEREAS, on the 12th day of September A. D., 1930 the State of Texas recovered a judgement in the District Court of Terry County, Texas, against C. G. Goodman as Defendant for the sum of One Hundred Seventy Three and 61/100 ($173.61) Dollars, with interest thereon at the rate of 6% per annum from the 12th day of September A. D., 1930, until paid, and the further sum of Twenty-nine and 89/100 ($29.89) Dollars, costs of suit; and

WHEREAS, said judgment decree described the foreclosure of the lien created, established and continued on the lands, lots and property hereinafter described, by reason of the levy and assessment of taxes and of the delinquency therein, the said taxes remaining unpaid and due to the State of Texas and the County of Terry, and as the same lien then existed and at any time theretofore existed by reason of such levy and delinquency and at the dates and for the years 1920, 1925, 1926, 1927, and 1928, and against the property so described and set forth as follows, to-wit:

Lot 12, Block 5, Original Townsite of Meadow, Terry County, Texas.

(Other property described in the deed to the State of Texas with above described property is not included in this notice.)

WHEREAS on the 27th day of October A. D., 1930, the then duly elected and qualified Sheriff of Terry County, Texas, levied upon the above described land as the property of the defendant, C. G. Goodman, and afterwards, advertised the same for sale at the courthouse door of Brownfield, Texas, such sale to be held, and the same was held, on the 2nd day of December A. D. 1930, being the first Tuesday of said month, and

WHEREAS, on the 2nd day of December A. D. 1930, between the hours of ten o'clock a. m. and four o'clock p. m., at the courthouse door of said county, in pursuance to the order of sale and said advertisement, sold said property at public outcry to the highest bidder for such land and the same was bid off to the State for the amount of said judgment, interest and costs adjudged against said property, to-wit: The sum of Two hundred four and 37/100 ($204.37) Dollars, and said State being the highest and best bidder for same; and

WHEREAS, the said property has not been redeemed within the time prescribed by law.

NOW, THEREFORE, notice is hereby given that by virtue of the authority vested in me by law, on the 3rd day of October A. D. 1937, being the first Tuesday of said month, between the hours of ten o'clock a. m. and four o'clock p. m., on said day at the courthouse door of said county, I will Miss Opal Dee Murry.

Harmony Parent Teachers Association met September 8, in regular business meeting, transacting the following business: The yearbook was adopted as planned and Mrs. M. D. Smith was appointed to have charge of printing the yearbooks. Anyone who will assist her in this work please see her. We hope to have these books ready by September 22. Those paying dues get a book. The adopted theme: "The Need of the Child for a Well-Rounded Life," was adopted for the year 1939-40. The study course adopted for 1939-1940 is "American Youth" as given in the National Magazine.

The aim for the year is to strive to be standard.

Mrs. W. T. Ivy and daughter, Quita Joy, accompanied by Mrs. Crede Smith, visited relatives in Hamlin, Texas, over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Aut Graham left Monday with Miss Twilla Graham for St. Charles, Mo., where she will enter Lindenwood College for girls.

G. W. UPTON ASKING FOR CITIZENSHIP

A Tokio farmer who remembers hearing shots in the Civil War and who after "doing a lot of preaching and farming and sitting on juries" has found he is a "man without a country," has made application to federal authorities for naturalization.

G. W. Upton, 84, landed in this country in 1865, leaving Liverpool, England with his family and ending up in Indiana.

"Until I applied for my old age pension I had no idea I was not an American citizen," he said. "I sat on juries, was an election clerk in the election preceding Cleveland's second administration and voted for him in the first."

Upton is the father of one son, W. F. Upton, on whose farm the aged man lives.—Lubbock Avalanche.

HARMONY

We are sorry to lose Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Thompson from our community. They are moving to Ropesville where he will work in the cotton gin.

Mr. and Mrs. George Long and little son, George Ross, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Garrett and little son, Charles Wayne spent the week end visiting in Bowie. Mr. and Mrs. Long visited Mr. and Mrs. Hogue McDonnald while Mr. and Mrs. Garrett visited his parents and relatives. They all visited in the home of Rev. and Mrs. B. F. Dearmore. Mrs. T. E. Hobbs with her son, Mr. Joe Merritt and daughter Ruth, accompanied by Mr. Happy Garner spent several days recently in Quemado where they visited in the homes of Mrs. Hobbs' sons, Messrs. Clarence and Geo. Merritt. They reported a splendid trip.

Don't forget next Sunday is preaching day. Rev. Curtis Jackson was called back to serve the local Baptist church another year. The Sunday School hour is ten o'clock and you have a cordial invitation to attend every Sunday. We want you. We need you.

Messrs. T. E. and J. O. Hobbs attended a reunion at Muleshoe in the home of their brother, Mr. M. R. Hobbs recently. Three of their sisters met there at the reunion. They were Mrs. Annie Whisenant and Mrs. Emma Jones of Hollis, Oklahoma, and Mrs. A. W. Messomore and a brother, Mr. J. L. Hobbs who came from Clovis, New Mexico.

Fall Frame Gardens

College Station, Sept.—Provident Texas gardeners can secure fresh vegetables from frame gardens from two to three weeks earlier than from unprotected fall garden plots. So says Jennie Camp, specialist in home production planning for the A. and M. College Extension Service.

The specialist advises people with frame gardens to replant them immediately to save time, and to persons without these conveniences she suggests construction of a frame garden subirrigated with either tile or tin cans soldered together. Two rows of tile two or three feet apart laid at a depth of ten inches are recommended.

A chart prepared by Extension Service officials indicates that lettuce, mustard, spinach, parsley, swiss chard, onion sets and radishes can be grown successfully in frame gardens between the planting season Sept. 1 to Nov. 1 even under the most extreme weather conditions. In most Texas areas, several plantings of vegetables can be made.

Authorities suggest that low growing, quick maturing varieties be planted and that seed be kept on hand for replanting each row as rapidly as it is harvested.

There are now more than 200 Texas counties with from ten to 300 frame gardens in each, according to figures gathered by Extension officials. Miss Camp recommends immediate replanting of these to supplement the food

LITTLE SIR ECHO HOW-DO-YOU-DO

Sing near an airplane and you get an echo . . . unless you loosen the struts and guy wires which hold the wings together. Howard Hawks picked up this bit of movie-making lore while filming scenes for Columbia's "Only Angels Have Wings," which co-stars Cary Grant and Jean Arthur at the Rialto Theatre, Sunday and Monday.

Action called for Grant, Miss Arthur and Thomas Mitchell to sing in an airplane hangar. Take after take was ruined by a curiously humming noise which seemed to be coming from a nearby plane. Investigation revealed that guy wires, necessarily stretched to absolute tautness between the wings, were acting as tuning forks and picking up certain high notes of the trio's songs and buzzing like a harp.

Judge C. C. Chapman of Ashland, Ohio, was here this week looking after some land interest, but as the land was in the sand-hills he didn't seem to think much of it, but liked the tillable lands of Terry county very much. He was being shown about by Clyde Lewis, and saw cotton fields for the first time, as well as seeing cotton ginned for the first time in his life.

THE REAL GUY

By comparison with early cinematic standards, the movie version of the newspaper man has improved in the last year or so. But by comparison with the newspaper man in the flesh, the movie version leaves much to be desired.

It is encouraging, therefore, to learn that the Hays office has decided to do something about it. Henceforth, the newspaper man will not be characterized as a good-for-nothing inebriate who has few equals as a first-class lout, fewer still who can surpass him for sponging on everybody he meets and none who can approach him for vulgar brass.

Of course the average newspaper man is no Websterian Milquetoast but he is far from being a dipsomaniacal braggart. In that his profession calls for him to be better informed on more topics he is, in a sense, a little better than his average fellow citizen.

But the difference stops there. He is energetic and ambitious, usually a family man who spends his evenings at home and not at the tavern nearest his office. He may have a nose for knews but he does not crash into milady's boudoir to get or make news. And it is the exception, not the rule, who affects disguises where other means fail to open up a news source.

He neither talks back to judges nor steals the thunder of another movie victim, the detective. He may avail himself of an occasional Annie Oakley but more often than not does so only when sent by his city editor to report a particular function. He usually pays for his own entertainment.

His hats are not crushed beyond recognition, his trousers are usually creased, his pockets do not bulge with all twelve editions of the Bugle and he does not always wear a bow tie. In fact, there is nothing distinctive about him that would enable anybody to pick him out of a crowd. In short, he's quite a regular fellow, with the average man's habits, likes and dislikes.

We hope Joseph I. Breen of the Hays office is able to convince the producers that this ordinary fellow can be made into box office attraction without distorting him beyond recognition, for his work is fascinating— not melodramatic.—Newsdom.

The Declaration of Independence of the Republic of Texas injected a new element into history when it listed a "neglect of public education" as one of the legitimate causes for revolution. Out of that grew The University of Texas, conceived in legislation and opened in 1883.

With "the state for a campus" the seven departments of The University of Texas Division of Extension register about 6,000 semester hours of work in 40 subjects as the annual correspondence enrollment.

Lee Walker and family were down Monday to visit sick relatives and friends in the hospital.

MEMORIAL CEMETERY

By arrangements of the Board of Directors of the Terry County Memorial Cemetery Association, plans have been worked out and approved where lots may be acquired in the new cemetery by paying one-fourth down for the lot desired and balance paid out in a period of twelve months. This arrangement makes it possible for you to own a desirable lot and have it for your family needs without the trouble and expense of selecting and paying for some lot after some death occurs in your family. Why not take advantage of this plan at an early date. So your arrangements will be out of the way in the matter, while you are able to select for yourself. See L. E. McClish to make arrangements.

SCHOOL GROUPING ELECTION IS THROWN OUT

The school election held last Saturday to determine whether Meadow and Poole shall group for high school purposes was ordered this week by the county Board to be held over. The people were voting on one thing and the ballot called for something else.

A publishing house in Austin which was hired to do the printing messed the job up, using the word "consolidation" where it should have been "grouping", and the error was not noticed until the election was already being held.

The election will be held Saturday, September 30th.—Meadow Star.

Pan-S. P. Fair To Open September 29

LUBBOCK, Texas, Sept. 11.—In another ten days or so the 26th annual Panhandle South Plains Fair will be in full swing.

Announcement was made this week by Fair officials of the signing of the contract with Ace Lillard and his Death Defiers to present one of the most thrilling and sensational exhibitions ever staged in the southwest. The auto thrill show will be held Friday and Saturday afternoon in front of the grandstand.

Flirting with the Grim Reaper every minute of the two hour show, these dare devils will put their cars through routines foreign to this section of the State. Crashing a brick wall, leaping the leap of death, tail spins, ski jumps, mid-air crashe at an 80 mile an hour impact, and many other

Keep in mind: This is Friday, Sept. 15th. The date for all patrons and teachers to meet at the local school auditorium for the first P. T. A. meeting of this school term. So be sure and come. You'll have a good time.

G. W. Alexander came in this week and had his paper changed to Glenrose, Texas. He and Mrs. Alexander left for there the last of the past week. We regret to lose this family but wish them luck in their new home.

A recent check-up showed that Texas farmers have received more than 34 million dollars in 1937 cotton price adjustment payments, a few more of which are yet to be made; more than 59 million in 1938 (farm and range) conservation checks, which are being paid this year; more than 3 million in 1939 wheat price adjustment payments, and almost 5 and a half million in 1939 cotton price adjustment cash.

E. C. BUELL, SR. PASSES

Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Moore, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Underwood and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Buell were called to Pilot Point Thursday because of the sudden death of Mr. E. C. Buell, Sr. father of Henry Buell, Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Underwood. With another daughter, Mrs. Smith of New York City. Mr. Buell had been visiting his children in Brownfield and had been home at Pilot Point less than 36 hours when he suffered the heart attack which caused his death.

Erwin Clyde Buell was born October 4, 1869 at Paxton, Illinois and died September 7, 1939 at Pilot Point, Texas—lacking some 27 days of being 70 years of age. He was the son of Thomas Warner and Alice Howland Buell, pioneers who settled at Roanoke in Denton county in 1883. Through his mother he traced his ancestry to Pilgrim John Rowland of Mayflower fame. He lived at Roanoke 44 years, moving to Pilot Point in 1938.

Mr. Buell was converted and joined the Baptist church in Paxton at the age of eleven and was ordained a deacon in the Baptist church when a young man. He lived a consecrated Christian life and served in many offices in the church work.

In 1901 Mr. Buell was married to Miss Annie Giles, a native of Nottinghamshire, England who died in 1916. Four of their five children survive.

Later he was married to Miss Annabel Garvin of Denton, who survives him. Seven children were born to them, all of whom survive. Besides the children living in Brownfield and Mrs. Smith of New York, his children are E. C. Buell, Jr., student at N. T. S. T. C., Denton; Warner, Garvin, Richard and Paul Buell and Misses Irene and Ada Marian Buell of Pilot Point, Texas. He was also survived by one brother, T. W. Buell of Denton and nine grandchildren. Billy, Erwin, L. G., Mary Alice, and Linda Giles Moore; Roberta and Nancy Underwood of Brownfield and Clyde and Alexander Smith of New York City.

Funeral services will be held at 10 a. m. Saturday at the First Baptist church in Roanoke, with his pastor, Rev. Epton of Pilot Point officiating and assisted by Rev. Davis of the Roanoke church. Interment was made at the I. O. O. F. cemetery at Roanoke, beside his first wife and his mother and father.

Mrs. L. H. Moncrief has as her guest, her mother, Mrs. W. H. Clinkscales, of Dallas. They were very pleasant visitors in the Herald office on last Thursday.

LARGEST LAND OWNER

Texas is said to be the largest land owner in the world. When it entered the Union in 1846, the State was permitted by treaty to retain its public domain.

It owns 643,685 acres in unsold public school land.

It owns about 7,500,000 acres of royalty, including school land which has been sold with a royalty reservation.

In addition, the Texas University has 2,000,000 acres, including rich oil production. The penitentiary system has 73,133 acres, including oil production.

Texas also owns about 1,000,000 acres of submerged land along the coast, bays and lagoons. Some of this land is producing oil and brings in royalty money.

STATE CEMETERY

Established in 1854 by the Legislature, the State Cemetery, at Austin, covers a half mile square. More than 1,900 Confederate veterans, including General Albert Sidney Johnson, together with some of Texas' greatest heroes, are buried in the cemetery, the State Board of Control reports.

Prepare For Extra Death Tolls In Sept.

AUSTIN, Sept. 13.—Department of Public Safety officers today prepared to combat pedestrian deaths with renewed activity as schools opened over the state, shopping increased and public gatherings became more numerous.

Recalling that the pedestrian death list rose disastrously to 291 from last September to June while 1,335 others were seriously injured, state police warned that a repetition of that toll is likely unless walking precautions are taken. Seventy-four school age persons were injured fatally when struck down by vehicles in that period. This, safety officials pointed out, shows the need for pedestrian drills among students, more precautions one the part of parents and driver vigilance.

Preliminary to its autumn, winter and spring campaign for pedestrian safety, state police offered rules for the walking public, violations of which have caused the greatest number of deaths and injuries. The rules are:

1. Cross only at intersections and then only when the signal light favors you and vehicular traffic has cleared.
2. Look in all directions while crossing streets and highways.
3. Discharge passengers at curb and have them alight from the side of the vehicle nearest the curb. Discharge school children at the curb on school sides of the street so they will not have to cross streets.
4. Do not stand off on curb, but remain on sidewalks.
5. Face oncoming traffic when necessary to walk on streets or highways.
6. Pedestrians should carry flash lights at night to warn approaching vehicles of their presence.

SEARCH FOR STEP-INS Baffles Arizona Sheriff

She didn't have 'em on. Tuesday three Navajo Indians, two men and a woman, were apprehended by the Sheriff's office after L. D. Swartz, manager of the J. C. Penny Company had telephoned in a complaint of their shoplifting.

The articles reported missing were a ten gallon hat and a pair of ladies' - - well, shall we say "panties?" The two bucks were searched by Undersheriff Clarence Houck and Deputy Sheriff George Woolford. A few articles that had been legally purchased were discovered, but not the hat or the "panties." It was then learned that the hat was in the truck outside.

But where, oh where were the "thingamajigs?" The Indian bucks had been stripped and searched. Maybe Navajo lady had them on.

"Clarence," said Sheriff Dan. Clarence flushed and stepped up. Orders were orders and if he had to, he'd find out for sure. Then in the nick of time Woolford found the "panties" in a box of groceries on the truck.

L. D. Swartz got his merchandise back. Judge McCloskey and Dean Nutting collected $10 for the state. And the "whatchamacallits" were discovered without further "inspection."

Swartz, Divilbess, Woolford and Houck were greatly relieved.

Cashier Dick McDuffie of the First National Bank informed us that he had lost his grandparents on both sides of his family in the last seven years, but that all had lived to a ripe old age, in their 70s and 80s. His parents died when he was a child, and he was reared by his grandparents.

HOPIS TO FEATURE THE FAMOUS RAIN DANCE

Hopi Indians, the Arizona cliff dwellers, will be an outstanding attraction at the State Fair of Texas, October 7 to 22. This will be their first Texas visit.

The Hopis are described as the most primitive people in America. They still maintain their ancient tribal customs, including the famed snake or rain dance, done with rattlesnakes, which will be a feature of their visit to the State Fair.

"SEASONED TIMBERS"

The book review, "Seasoned Timber" by Dorothy Canfield, to be given Sept. 18th by Mrs. I. M. Bailey, before the Maids and Matrons Club at the home of Mrs. Stricklin, took Dorothy Canfield three years to finish; has 485 pages and is her twenty-third book.

Dorothy Canfield is a member of the Book-of-the-Month club and leaves her Vermont home once in each month for New York to meet with the other judges in making their monthly selections. Her single literary work at the moment is a book on Vermont.

Her name in real life is Mrs. John Redwood Fisher and she takes quite an active part in the civic and social life of her home town.

If you want to see a seed house catalogue picture in real life full bloom, just drive by Rev. Fred A. and Mrs. Walker's home, just south of the Presbyterian church and view the riot of colors in their flower garden. See it early some morning when the large, blue morning glories are in bloom, their lovely blue in contrast to the other lovely flowers is a pretty picture.

Mr. and Mrs. Hayden Griffith also have some pretty morning glories.

Did you know that Mrs. M. B. Sawyer has a regular bird house, or room, rather. She has a pair of rainbow birds, the first we ever saw or heard of—they are the colors of the rainbow and about the size of a wren. Other birds are a parrot, love birds and canaries.

Mrs. Sawyer also has numerous pot plants in this room, making it almost a tropical garden with her tropical birds.

Word was received this week that Herman Trigg, one of the band instructors at Pampa, Texas, had accepted a position as high school band director at Snyder, Texas. He and Mrs. Trigg moved down last Friday. Herman held a like position here some three years ago.

The Club Cafe has secured the services of Ernest Runyan of Wichita Falls, as cook, and comes highly recommended.

Miss Evelyn White will re-enter A. C. C., Abilene, for the winter term.

PROGRESS?

According to an article appearing in the "Clover-Leaf American-Review," a statement is given of the things girls were permitted to have in French boarding schools of two hundred years ago. Each student was allowed one suit of underclothing, one pair of stockings, two handkerchiefs a month, and one towel every week; nuns, one towel every two weeks. Foot baths: students once every month. Nuns were allowed a bath only by special authorization of the superior. Students were permitted three baths a year; in May, June and July. Pupils unable to take baths at the appointed time must wait until the following May.

The German women today may not buy anything new if she has two dresses, three sets of underwear, two night shirts or pajamas, two petticoats, six pairs of stockings, six handkerchiefs, two pairs of shoes, one pair of gloves for the winter.

It is not stated what the males were permitted to have some two hundred years ago, but today, German men must get along with two suits and three shirts, two pairs of shoes, two pairs of winter gloves, and one stick of shaving soap that must last for six months.

Assembly Twilight Tea, September 12, Is Feature of Music Club

In the lovely home of Mrs. J. McGowan was the formal initial opening of the Cen-Tex Harmony club, Tuesday evening at 6 p. m. The Courtesy committee of the club were then entertaining hostesses.

In charming, formal costumes they welcomed new and original members. Bowls and vases of colorful asters and ferns made the attractive decorations.

A large crystal bowl of flowers in club colors centered the lace covered tea table. All appointments reflected a special compliment to the hostesses who were Mesdames Nicholson, McGowan, Herod, Wingerd, Parish, Seale and Miss Fitzgerald.

Daintily served were small rectangular shaped angel cakes in pink, pink and white mints, delicious punch, olives and pickles, small sandwiches.

Mrs. E. D. Jones, chairman of the yearbook committee presented the president who gave a warm welcome to all and a brief review of the past year's accomplishments, reminding and assuring the club of recognition of every phase of departmental work in district, State, and National Federation of Music Clubs. The local club has for two consecutive years made a rating of 100 per cent by complying with all the requirements.

Plans for District Convention are in the making. 7th District will be guests of the Lubbock Music club in November.

The local club will entertain the Lubbock and Levelland clubs Sept. 30.

Active membership includes Mesdames A. L. Bruce, Arnett Bynum, E. Carson, W. H. Dallas, C. T. Edwards, Roy Herod, E. D. Jones, J. J. McGowan, L. Nicholson, R. B. Parish, Joe Price, Money Price, Arthur Sawyer, A. J. Stricklin, Fred Seale, Mon Telford, J. R. Turner, J. M. Teague, L. M. Wingerd, Grady Wright, and Mrs. J. J. Zenter.

MRS. MON TELFORD HOSTESS TO ACE HIGH BRIDGE CLUB

Mrs. Mon Telford was hostess to the Ace High Bridge Club Friday afternoon when she entertained with four tables of bridge. Lovely costume jewelry was presented to Mrs. Wilson Collins for high score and Mrs. L. Nicholson for second high.

The hostess served a delicious salad course to Mesdames John R. Turner, Ned Self, Arthur Sawyer, A. J. Stricklin, Garrett Daugherty, W. H. Collins, R. B. Parish, Jim Graves, R. M. Kendrick, Roy Wingerd, Ray Christopher, Roy Herod, I. M. Bailey, Wilson Collins, Dube Pyeatt, L. Nicholson.

SURPRISE BIRTHDAY PARTY FOR MR. M. B. SAWYER

Honoring her father, M. B. Sawyer on his 78th birthday, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lewis were hosts with a surprise birthday party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Sawyer Tuesday, Sept. 12th. Friends of some thirty odd years were asked in for an evening of forty-two, Mr. Sawyer's favorite game.

The lovely tiered white birthday cake, made up of 78 individual cakes, were iced white and each with a pink candle and pink rose bud, centered the table, laid with dainty white maderia cloth. White tapers in white candlebra were burning at each end of the table.

The color scheme of pink and white was carried out throughout the entertaining suite with pink roses and cut flowers.

The hosts, were assisted by her sisters, Mrs. R. Barrier, Mrs. Clyde Lewis and Mrs. Cy Tankersly in the serving of punch, cake, sandwiches, potato chips and salted nuts.

Those enjoying this lovely affair and wishing Mr. Sawyer many more happy birthdays—all with the present lovely Mrs. Sawyer, were: Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Ballard, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Stricklin, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Barret, Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. John B. King, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Hardin, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. McSpadden, Mr. and Mrs. Redford Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gracy, Mr. and Mrs. Ame Flache, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Gilham, Mrs. W. A. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Downing, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Brothers, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Pounds, and Mr. and Mrs. Sam White.

ROTARY CLUB MINUTES

Hiram Arrant, District Governor of the 127th District of Rotary International, met with President John R. Turner and Secretary Lawton Nicholson last Friday morning at 10:30. Then at 10:45 a. m. he met with the principal committee chairman of the local Rotary club.

At 12:00 noon Governor Arrant met with the entire Rotary club. During the course of his talk at the luncheon he praised the work of the local club.

Irwin Jones of Lubbock was the guest of Everett Latham at the club.

Drs. Treadaway and Daniell, both of whom received instruction from Hiram Arrant at Hardin-Simmons University were guests of the club.

Miss Rasco is back from her vacation.

About twelve members of the club signified that they would attend the Inter-City Meeting at Lubbock Tuesday night.

The club voted to give $25.00 for expenses of County Fair.

MRS. T. L. TREADAWAY HOSTESS TO BRIDGE CLUB

On Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 Mrs. T. L. Treadaway was hostess to the I-Deal bridge club with 3 tables of bridge.

The entertaining suite was made lovely with fragrant cut flowers. Mrs. Clyde Cave scored high and Mrs. Joe J. McGowan, second, each received dainty white pots with ivy.

Summer salad, graham cracker pudding, peach pickle, cheese niblets and iced tea were to Mesdames McGowan, Wingerd, Bailey, McDuffie, Akers, Allen, Nicholson, Bandy, Cruce, Cave, Herod, and Mrs. Christopher.

M. E. Grand High Priest, Joe Pender, of the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Texas, paid an unofficial visit to Brownfield Chapter R. A. M. Sat. night.

A good crowd attended and enjoyed very much the fine talk made by Mr. Pender. Mr. Pender has been associated with the State Teacher's school at Denton for a number of years.

SCOUTS TO EXHIBIT "TRAIL TO CITIZENSHIP"

LUBBOCK—George Dale Superintendent of the Boy Scout Exhibit, "Trail to Citizenship" at the Panhandle South Plains Fair, reports today that reservations for booths are still coming in and that space for exhibits is now very limited. Scouts from Levelland, Slaton, Tullia, Spur, Ralls and Lubbock have selected booths and exhibit themes.

The trail a boy takes in entering the Cubbing program, and into manhood at 21 years of age will be depicted in this exposition.

METHODIST CHURCH

John Witt Hendrix, Pastor

It was a great pleasure to see the figures go up on the Church school record. It did that exact thing last Sunday and we hope it will this also. There is a class somewhere among them for you. Don't forget the hour, 9:45 to 10:50 a. m.

"COLLECTIN' THE BUTTER," is the theme for the morning worship. The expression grows out of churning milk. When it comes to a certain stage they call it "collectin' the butter." Maybe we've churned about some last Sunday; this let us get it all together. We're trying to discover what are the byproducts of Christianity. The choir will be in their place, have select music, and their leader, Mr. Emmitt Smith.

"SOULS FOR SALE," is the subject of the evening service. When I've been in heaven ten thousand 10,000 years, if I get there at all, I'll still feel as a keen reflection over my ministry, that deep, all absorbing anxiety for my evening services I endured in this world. I've a conviction backed by years of observation that no church can grow that does not have an evening service. I've never seen one that did. But the pastor didn't have F. D. R. as a competitor and had a fine crowd last Sunday evening, you're invited.

YOUNG PEOPLE will meet, a big crowd of 'em, at 7:30 p. m. And this is to issue you an invitation to meet with them, you'll enjoy this gathering.

BAPTIST CHURCH NEWS

There was a good congregation last Sunday morning with 339 present in the Bible study period.

The record of the last years work of the church showing substantial progress was read and adopted and will be carried to the Brownfield Association with which this church is a member, and which is in session with the Meadow church.

The Association is a great unit of cooperation with which Baptist churches associate themselves for the promotion of their mission work around the world and there are 109 such associations in Texas with six hundred and fifty thousand members in the churches cooperating through them. Such cooperating churches in Texas and other states are doing 98 per cent of all the mission work being carried on by baptist people today and our people were never more united in their task than at the present moment for which we should be profoundly thankful.

The W. M. U. met Monday at the church for reorganizing their work for next year and will meet in circles next Monday evening. The Brotherhood met Monday evening with thirty present and with a worth while program rendered on the church budget which was discussed from the point of the layman. On account of some conflict the time of this meeting was changed to the third Monday evening of each month and all men will take notice and come to these meetings which it is hoped will continue interesting and profitable.

The building committee reports that bids will be opened for the erection of the new building September 25th and all contractors desiring to make bids on this work will secure specifications and make their bids by that date. Much additional cash will be needed as there is something more than fourteen thousand dollars in this fund and it has been hoped that at least twenty thousand dollars will be paid in before the work shall start and all who are expecting to assist in this work are invited to render as much assistance as possible. It will take very fine cooperation on the part of the membership of this church to shoulder the responsibilities of the next few months as well as the next few years but they face the future with confidence and courage and invite all bearing the name of Baptist to shoulder with them the burdens and rejoice with them in the success attained.

A NEW USE FOR COTTON

D. F. Forwood, bedding manufacturer of Taylor, has perfected a process for fireproofing cotton staple so that it may safely be employed as housing insulation. This puts him in line for the $10,000 prize offered by legislative enactment for the party finding new uses for cotton in Texas that will increase consumption of 300,000 bales or more annually. Forwood's new insulation material is said to show a potential market for from 300,000 to 1,000,000 bales each year.

The deadline for accepting 1937 cotton price adjustment payments is October 1, 1939. Applications for 1938 conservation payments must be made before January 1, 1940.

TRI-STATE FAIR AT AMARILLO NEXT WEEK

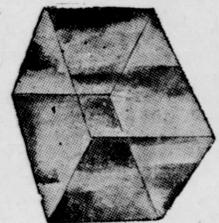

Beginning Monday, the Tri-State Fair, one of the larger regional fairs of Texas, will open at Amarillo and close Sunday, September 23. This fair includes the Panhandle of Texas and Oklahoma and northeast New Mexico.

The Tri-State promises one of the best agricultural and livestock exhibits to be seen anywhere this year, and an amusement bill that will be very superior.

Commercial vegetable acreage allotments are to be set up in about 125 Texas counties for 1940. No county will be asked to reduce below acreage planted to this crop in the county in 1939. The program, which will be voluntary, merely is intended to keep commercial vegetable acreage from expanding.

an "all expense" trip to Madison Square Garden Rodeo at New York upon account of her outstanding ability as a horsewoman. She will leave on the 24th of this month for New York.

A work order was issued this week for the construction of Highway 51 from Brownfield to the Hockley county line and work upon it is expected to commence before the end of this week. Commencement of this project is long overdue but the delay has been caused by reasons too numerous to mention. We hope that it will go forward without delay.

Clyde C. Coleman and George W. Henson were in attendance upon a meeting of the International Parks Highway Association which was held at Sterling Colorado last week. Delegates were in attendance from South Dakota, Nebraska, Colorado and Texas. When completed it bids fair to be one of the most important highways that we have. The writer was in attendance at a highway meeting at Seymour last Thursday night in which they were celebrating the completion of pavement between Ft. Worth and Lubbock over Highway 24.

During the meeting I was afforded an opportunity to inform the various delegations that Brownfield afforded the only direct highway connection between Lubbock and Roswell and the Carlsbad Caverns and was also the shortest route for them to travel between Fort Worth and points on the West Coast. Wednesday, September 27th has been designated as Brownfield Day at the Panhandle & South Plains Fair and all school children will be given free tickets for that day. The Lubbock Booster delegation will be in Brownfield today and are expected to leave enough tickets to take care of all school children, but in the event that any child fails to get a ticket before going to Lubbock, they are instructed to call at the office of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce where tickets will be given to them. Plans for the Terry County Fair which is to occur on September 22-23, are working out in a very satisfactory manner and the Lion's Club has done a splendid job of providing the necessary finances toward paying the expenses of it. As stated in the papers of last week, they will have full control of all carnival attractions and concessions. Catalogs are being distributed this week and may be had at the Chamber of Commerce or at the office of the county agent.

There was a lady in the office today, whose husband is connected with the oil field industry and desired to remove to Brownfield from another town, but said that she had been informed that we didn't want any "oil" people. The writer took pleasure in informing her that such information was unfounded in every way and that we certainly did want oil people as well as any others that could be had.

J. C. Harvey of Rolla, Mo., who is here visiting his brother, A. C. of west Terry, said Tuesday he liked the Plains fine, as it seemed to be a new, fast growing and hustling country. But he also likes his Ozark section.

Mrs. T. L. Treadaway is expecting her sister, Mrs. H. J. Risinger and Mr. Risinger and two sons, Hubert Lee and Donald Lester, of Bandera, Texas, in Sunday for a visit.

Nobody's Business

By Julian Capers

AUSTIN—The war in Europe has brought no changes in Texas' state governmental setup to-date, although there are several "war" angles which promise to affect many Texans directly. The first of these probably will be the expansion of National Guard units and activities in all states as authorized by President Roosevelt, in connection with his executive order, placing the country in a state of alertness, to preserve American neutrality. The active and efficient Texas national guard units probably will be recruited to full strength, and additional training activities inaugurated shortly, as the first step in preparations to guard this state's participation in the nation's neutrality policy.

Texas Oil Important

Oil is as essential as gunpowder to modern mechanized armies, and with a goodly share of the world's potential supply under Texas soil, naturally, Texans will immediately face new situations and conditions with respect to supplying oil to the warring nations, and to non-participating neutrals.

Railroad Commissioner Jerry Sadler over the week end wired the Federal Bureau of Mines, asking a revised estimate of market demand for Texas oil for the hearing scheduled for Monday. Sadler expressed the belief the declaration of war, made since the Bureau's last estimate for September, would materially change the figures. He wanted the information in connection with study of data for a new statewide order, which admittedly will call for an increase in East Texas production and a reduction in other fields, in compliance with a Federal court decision. At the same time, Ernest Thompson warned against increase in the allowable beyond a figure that will conserve pressure, and a similar warning came from the Secretary of Interior, Harold L. Ickes, the tireless advocate of Federal control of oil. Ickes indicated that he was ready to take advantage of wartime conditions again to push his movement for U. S. Control, which virtually all Texans oppose.

Farmers Are Warned

The war will bring no great increased demand for food products, Washington farm officials warned, and there is no occasion for farmers to expand their production of cotton, wheat and other basic food and fabric products. They pointed out huge surpluses of these commodities are already on hand, and warned whatever expansion may be needed if a long-drawn-out war ensues can be quickly obtained, with modern mechanized farming methods. There will be no war boom in farm products, these officials pointed out, such as followed in the wake of the World War of 1914. Cotton prices generally will suffer, most agricultural experts pointed out, due to upset exchange and falling off of world demand. They pointed out there is a year's supply for the entire world now on hand, and no need to expand acreage.

Johnson Heads Pension Setup

Adam Johnson, former member of the board of control, ex-city manager of Austin, and director of State relief during the depression period is the new director of the State Welfare Board, which will administer pensions, aid for children and needy blind.

The pension authorities have been adding pensioners to the roll, under provisions of the new "liberalized" pension act of the last session, so extremely slowly, that the additional names so far have made little difference in the pension payments. Approval by the San Antonio office of the Social Security Board of the September roll showed less than 2500 new names added, and a slight increase in the average payment, to a few cents over $14 per pensioner.

However, repayment of the bank loans made by the pension fund, and substantial increase of the number of pensioners added during the next month, may hasten the crisis in pension finances which is inevitable, in view of the fact no pension revenue was raised by the regular session. Many legislators, visiting Austin, are asking for a special session, but so far Gov. O'Daniel has given no indication he will call one.

Highway Minutes

Sterling Colorado Tuesday, Sept. 5, 1939.

The meeting was called to order by Mr. Ed Litch, acting chairman of the Sterling Chamber of Commerce Road Committee who in turn introduced Mr. John Honts president of the International Parks Highway Association who presented the following representatives of towns located along the highway:

Glenn S. White, State Highway Advisory Board, Ft. Morgan, Colorado; M. E. Litch, Chamber of Commerce, Sterling, Colo.; Eck Brown, Chamber of Commerce, Dalhart, Texas; W. A. Potts, Commercial Club, Chadron, Neb.; L. Broghamer, Hot Springs, S. Dak.; Henry Spalding, Chamber of Commerce, Chadron, Neb.; E. V. Black, Chamber of Commerce, Alliance, Neb.; Rex A. Joyce, Chamber of Commerce, Hot Springs, S. Dak. Geo. E. Hungerford, Peetz, Colorado; D. J. Harman, County Commissioner, Fleming, Colo.; Ray E. Rieke, County Commissioner, Padroni, Colo.; R. L. Coots, Chamber of Commerce, Sterling, Colo.; Chas. Pivonka, Jr. Chamber of Commerce, Sterling, Colo.; Stoy Faith, Jr. Chamber of Commerce, Sterling, Colo.; W. A. Thompson, Chamber of Commerce, Springfield, Colo.; C. L. Bosley, County Commissioner, Springfield, Colo.

Ed York, Lion's Club, Eads, Colo.; F. L. Pyles, Lion's Club, Eads, Colo.; Wm. T. Holland, Lion's Club, Eads, Colo.; J. R. Wood, Lion's Club, Eads, Colo.; Clyde C. Coleman, Mayor, Brownfield, Texas; G. W. Hinson, County Commissioner, Brownfield, Texas; T. A. Singer, Sec'y I. P. H., Dimmitt, Texas; A. H. Dennison, Chamber of Commerce, Odessa, Texas; J. T. Long, Chamber of Commerce, Odessa, Texas; John B. Honts, Chamber of Commerce, Dalhart, Texas; R. M. Thompson, Chamber of Commerce, Sterling, Colo.

Mr. Geo. E. Hungerford of Peetz, Colo. then reported on the proposed opening program for highway "113" between Sterling and Sidney to be held Friday, October 13th. He invited the members of the association to participate in his event.

Mr. Glenn White, State Highway Advisory Board member for the nine northeastern Colorado counties, was introduced by Chairman Litch. Mr. White explained that the proposed highway through Colorado was all completed except for 71 miles between Limon and Brush and recommended that the highway association get the entire length of the highway between Mexico and Canada federalized as soon as possible. This action will assure the completion of this road in the very near future.

He estimated that the cost of the construction of this road will be between $20,000 and $30,000 per mile which will include surfacing.

The meeting was then adjourned for the purpose of having state meetings.

The following officers were elected for each state: (The first name in each group represents the president, the second the vice president and the third the secretary.)

Texas, J. T. Long, Odessa; Judge R. A. DeFee, Channing; Judge A. H. Dennison.

Nebraska, Walter Peterson, Chadron; Tom Kokjer, Sidney; E. V. Black, Alliance.

Colorado, Ed Litch, Sterling; C. L. Bosley, Springfield; J. R. Woods, Eads.

S. Dakota, Sam Bober, Newell; Redford Dibble, Rapid City; Clarence Brady, Hot Springs.

N. Dakota was not represented.

At the Colorado meeting the following route through the state was selected by a motion moved, seconded and carried:

Entering the state from the south on Highway "59", the route goes to Kit Carson, thence north-west to Limon on U. S. "40" thence north to Brush on state highway "113" and U. S. "138". Thence north to state line on 113.

Various state representatives reported on the condition of the highway from Texas to North Dakota as follows:

The highway through Texas is completed except for a section between Brownfield and Littlefield and another section between Hereford and Channing.

The highway is all completed in Nebraska except for 71 miles between Limon and Brush.

The highway is all completed in Nebraska except for a few miles between the northern boundary of Colorado and Sidney, Nebraska ka and a few miles between Alliance and the S. Dakota state line. The highway through South Dakota is completed. However, some changes are anticipated in the highway.

The report of the Resolutions Committee was given to the Association and accepted by a motion moved, seconded and carried. This report was not given to the secretary of the meeting, and therefore, it is impossible to include it in this report.

As a matter of record, however, the following statement should be made:

The resolutions contained words of commendation and appreciation of the host city as well as the acting officers of the International Parks Highway Association. Most important it contained the following statement, "and when the International Parks Highway has been routed through the various states from Mexico to Canada be it resolved that the International Parks Highway Association then take whatever action necessary to secure for this highway a national number plus any other qualifications necessary to make it a federalized road."

The president, Mr. Honts, then appointed the following committee to work on the program of securing a federal number for this highway:

Mr. M. E. Litch, Sterling, Chairman; E. V. Black, Alliance, Neb.; T. A. Singer, Dimmitt, Texas.

The Nominating Committee nominated the following officers for the International Parks Highway Association during the coming year:

J. B. Honts, Dalhart, Texas, President; Walter Peterson, Chadron, Nebraska, Vice-President; T. A. Singer, Dimmitt, Texas, Secretary.

These were elected by a unanimous vote.

The meeting then went on record as agreeing to meet at the call of the officers of the association. The secretary of the Sterling Chamber of Commerce was instructed to send out to all of those attending a copy of the proceedings of the meeting.
