Light and Power Bonds OK'd Monday

By a vote of exactly four to one, the people of Brownfield, who are property taxpaying citizens, put over the $90,000 bond election here Monday, with which to enlarge the buildings at the municipal light and power plant, and install a 1200 hp engine. The vote was 136 for to 34 against the proposition. While the vote was light, compared to the number qualified to vote, the vote gives one a trend of the sentiment of the people of the city.

The huge pro majority was not so much what this or that one said or done to carry this election. The people's minds were already made up, and the subject goes back to the early 20's. Those of us who were here at that time remember that a committee was sent to Lubbock to contact a utility company with a proposition to build a highline to Brownfield. They asked the city a bonus of around $30,000 if our memory serves us right. A few years later this company built to Ropes and Meadow, and made a proposition to buy the plant here at a good profit to the city, without a bonus, after we had voted bonds and started a home plant.

So, while our people do not have it in for the utility companies, the above still lingers in their memories. The same company later put an ice plant here, that has always been the pride of the citizenship, and has their good will and trade. But they elect to furnish their own power and lights.

Probably utility concerns at that time had no more vision of the rapid development of this section than individuals, for after all, utility companies are made up of individuals, folks just like you and me. Had they visioned a rapid growth of Brownfield, big oil fields to our west and rural electrification at that time, they would have told the committee of our citizens that "We'll be into Brownfield just as quick as we can place the pole and string the wire, without a penny bonus."

These bonds will be paid for in six years by revenue derived from the plant without a tax raise or raise in rates.

The Census Needs Your Cooperation

Being reliably informed that there were many who have been away from home when called upon by the enumerators and therefore have not been counted, the chamber of commerce wants to urge that you contact one of the enumerators at once or leave your name and address with the chamber of commerce together with the hour and day you will be at home.

It is important that Brownfield and Terry County be credited with its full population. It is important to you and your town and county. PLEASE HELP MAKE YOUR CENSUS COMPLETE.

The names of the enumerators selected for the census canvass in Terry county are as follows: Mrs. Alline N. Salsler, Mrs. Walsie A. Harrington, Mr. Christy M. Caruth, Mr. Sewell Deans, Mr. Elmer A. McCutcheon, Mrs. Clemmie Hamilton, Mr. Herman D. Chessier, Mr. Joseph N. Griffin and Mr. Charles L. Lincoln.

Jerry Clark, five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Clark is very ill with pneumonia.

Vote on Soil Conservation May 25

The counties of Terry, Yoakum and Cochran will vote on forming a soil conservation district, May 25, according to Mr. Patterson, at the County Agent's office in the basement of the post office building. There will be some seven or eight voting places in the county, he stated. Perhaps we can give them next week.

These soil conservation districts are not altogether familiar to the writer; perhaps most of the farmers understand the object of them better than we, and no doubt there will be some educational meetings concerning them before the election is held in the proposed district. These districts became a law last year by the Texas legislature.

As we understand it, the law is not binding on farmers, even though the act is ok'd by two-thirds majority of all votes cast, but to benefit from the formation, one has to comply. Little as we may think about the matter, we need some conservation of soil in these sections, even if some think it regiments the farmers.

There are some real sandy farms in Terry that have been fully worked and cared for the past thirty years, that are still good and producing crops. Then there are some that have been neglected that are blowing off to the clay.

A good farm is an inheritance that will be good until Gabriel blows his horn if taken care of. There are farms in France, England and Germany that have been in the hands of the same families for centuries, that are producing as much as they did 400 years ago. But those farmers are putting something back into the soil year after year. Those farmers are not soil robbers.

WPA Professional Service Projects

All professional and service projects of the Works Progress Administration operating in Terry county are planning to hold open house during the week of May 20 to 25, 1940. The projects which are inviting the public to visit them this week are:

The housekeeping aide and service projects located in the American Legion Hall; the school lunch and library projects in the school buildings; and the community distribution project in the basement of the county court house.

The period of open house has been designated as "Community Week," and will be observed by professional and service projects throughout the nation, and is designed to acquaint the people of Terry county with the accomplishments of the projects here.

Community week will be started on Monday evening, May 20, with a gathering of project employees, sponsors, and interested friends, at the American Legion Hall. The group will listen to a radio broadcast from Washington which will be directed to like gatherings in almost every county in the nation. Refreshments and entertainment will be provided in addition to the radio broadcast.

HELPING CONSERVE SOIL

By Odell Spear, FFA Reporter

The Vocational Agriculture class of the High school has been cooperating in helping to conserve the soil of Terry and nearby counties. During the first of the year every member was required to know how to run contour lines. Some have run contours on their farms and others have been helping contour other farms. Other methods that are also being used are improving pastures, that is contouring to hold water, strip cropping and crop rotation.

We are trying our best to help keep the top soil of Terry county out of the air, because anyone can tell it isn't going to do any good there.

C. of C. to Sponsor $350,000 Bond Issue

By J. E. Shelton

After several months of investigation of the highway and lateral road needs of Terry County, the directors of the Chamber of Commerce voted to sponsor a county-wide bond issue in the sum of $350,000. Of this amount, $250,000 is to be allocated to the construction of the highway 137 from Brownfield to the Dawson County line to connect with the highway that is being constructed by Dawson county and for the completion of highway 51 from Brownfield to the Hockley County line upon which grading and drainage is now being done under a WPA program but which the highway department will not be able to surface upon account of lack of funds. $100,000 of the issue is to be used in the construction of a lateral road from Meadow directly west for approximately 18 miles which would place it in the vicinity of the newly discovered Terry County oil field which is expected to be extensively developed within the next few months.

Petitions asking for the election are being prepared and it is hoped that sufficient signatures will be procured in time for presentation to the commissioners court at its next regular meeting to enable them to order the election at that time. In sponsoring this movement, the chamber of commerce directors took the position that the Legislature, following precedent, would pass the necessary laws to have $250,000 of the issue assumed by the State under the Road Bond Assumption Law as has been their custom since 1932. On the $100,000 to be used on lateral roads, it is estimated that it will only be necessary to raise the tax rate 5 cents on the $100 valuation as we have a 15 cent special road tax which can be diverted to their payment under certain requirements, which means by popular vote. If and when these bonds are voted and highways constructed, Terry County will have more highway outlets than any other county in west Texas and maybe in the entire state. This is something that should be desired and worked for.

Smooth Hot Check Artist Here Saturday

About the smoothest hot check artist that has visited our city in some time, was here Saturday, and is said to have left the town with around $100 to the good, including goods and the cash.

First he deposited $10 in one of the banks just before noon. He then made a small purchase at a store and permitted the manager to phone the bank and see if the check was good.

Of course in the afternoon, the bank being closed, he gave as reference the business man who first took his check. Ten dollars worth of the checks were paid Monday, but the rest are still holding their checks.

Thrilling Love Story, Chilling Mystery Unreel'd in "Rebecca"

Based on the popular, best-selling Daphne du Maurier novel, David O. Selznick's production of "Rebecca", which will have a gala premiere at the Rialto Theatre on May 12 through United Artists release, was filmed with a cast whose list of stars reads like a screen Blue Book.

Laurence Olivier and Joan Fontaine appear in the principal starring roles, while the featured cast includes Reginald Denny, Judith Anderson, Geo. Sanders, C. Aubrey Smith, Gladys Cooper, Florence Gates and Nigel Bruce. Alfred Hitchcock, who previously staged such successes as "The Lady Vanishes" and "The 39 Steps", directed "Rebecca" from the screenplay written by Robert E. Sherwood and Joan Harrison.

Under the direction of Lyle Wheeler, art director at Selznick International, forty different sets representing the picturesque backgrounds of the story were constructed for the film. Among the unusual settings are London streets, old taverns, a coroner's office and a gloomy boathouse facing a windswept bay on the coast of Cornwall.

Tudor estate, known as Manderley, was built two stories high on a plot of ground which measured 100 by 125 feet. All sets were first built in miniature from the descriptions of locales and buildings written by Miss du Maurier herself in her novel. They were later created in full size by three hundred studio workmen. When finally completed, Manderley was a complete home—containing a library, drawing room, dining room, foyer and two upper story wings.

You loved the novel "REBECCA"; you will LIVE the picture.

Hines Leading In Texas Straw Vote

The latest straw vote from Austin stack up as follows, following receipt there of last batch of post cards handed out:

|----------|---------|
| Hines | 320,000 |
| O'Daniel | 290,000 |
| Sadler | 170,000 |
| Ferguson | 150,000 |
| Others | 70,000 |

This is on a percentage basis with votes from all over the state. At same time, 80 per cent were for natural resource tax, and 7 per cent for sales tax. No new taxes, 5 per cent.

Masons to Dedicate Lodge at Denver City

Masons of Denver City will dedicate their new lodge hall next Monday night, May 6th. This is the new date set and members of the Masonic order of Brownfield and their wives are cordially invited to attend. You are promised plenty of eats and a nice program.

PAUL M'DANIELL, PLASTIC SURGERY EXPERT IN EMPLOY OF FUNERAL HOME

Paul McDaniel, a graduate of the Dallas and Houston schools of Embalming and plastic surgery, has been employed by the Brownfield Funeral Home. He has also taken a post graduate course at the Minneapolis Embalming school and is considered one of the most efficient men in his line of work on the South Plains.

He and wife have moved into the funeral home, formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Brewer, where Mrs. McDaniel will be found at all times as an efficient assistant to Mr. McDaniel.

It means much to Brownfield to have a man of his experience and this progressive firm is to be congratulated on securing the services of Mr. McDaniel.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Griggs visited his mother in Monahans last week end.

The Changing Order Of Banking

The address of John E. Owens of the Republic National Bank of Dallas, before the South Plains Bankers at Lubbock, recently, brings in line the changing condition of bankers as a whole, and in the new fields they are looking out to make money for their stockholders and pay dividends.

It is a well recognized fact that for the past several years the Federal government has become a hard competitor with bankers in the field of loans, at rates hard to meet and make any money. It is true that bankers now charge for overdrafts, for the use of more checks than the daily balance justifies, which was unheard of in the country banks ten years ago.

But a new field is now open, according to a local banker. We now finance or refinance automobile and tractor paper. The latter has especially become a good source of revenue, he stated. A few years ago, the tractor manufacturers would bring in a stack of notes for them to look over, and the bank had the privilege of picking the notes they wished.

But, he stated, even that is changing. Now, the manufacturer wants to hold those notes themselves, or many of them, and we have to vie with them for this new business.

Bankers are just now feeling the sting of government competition that printing has felt for near half a century. We refer to government printed envelopes, which are printed cheaper than any private printing concern can purchase the material.

Lions to Attend Convention in Havana

Three local Lions, Herman Heath, Dennis Lilly and Nelson Smith are making reservations on the steamship "Florida", in order to attend the Lions International Convention at Havana, Cuba, July 27-28-29th. We failed to learn where this ship will sail from, but the boys are supposed to get there by train or their automobile, and join the rest of the Texas delegation.

So, if these boys can "spik a bit of Spinnish" they will no doubt give the visitors from other countries the lowdown on the resources of Texas, and Terry county in particular. Perhaps we'll have a bunch of Cuban cotton pickers up this fall.

Now there is Herman, who can talk for months about the natural gas resources, being with the West Texas Gas Co. Dennis, of the agricultural department, can spin long threads of yarn on the fertile soil, good water, and other good points of the area. Last but not least, Nelson can tell them that if in need of financial help, the Brownfield State Bank is ready for them.

We'd give a dollar if we had one, to get a snapshot of these three boys, unawares to them, while they are rubbering around the West India metropolis.

Dallas-Fort Worth Should Change Routes

About once a year, both Fort Worth and Dallas boosters make trips to West Texas, but they very religiously stay with the same old route, the main lines of the railroads. They see the same old people, and the same old scenes.

Here's a suggestion to them: Take buses some of these days and see some new country you've never seen before. See the biggest corn producing area, as well as the biggest feeding area in West Texas. See a new oil field, second only to the East Texas fields. See cities of 3000 less than a year old.

We are not knocking the railroads, but you need to see more of West Texas. It might help your business. Wichita, Kansas, is the only large city that ever officially visited Brownfield.

Connally for Strong Navy; Assures Peace

"A strong Navy is costly, but not as costly as war", was the statement of Senator Tom Connally, but it appeared to be the feeling of practically the entire Senate as that body passed a Naval Appropriation bill last week by a vote of 63 to 4 which calls for the building of 19 fighting ships.

Senator Connally told the Senate that he had always been in favor of a strong navy. He said, "I think the United States should have the best navy in the world. We are flanked by two oceans, and the only way in which we can protect ourselves is by dominating those two oceans. A navy costs a great deal of money, but does not cost as much as a war would cost us. I think it is the duty of the American people to provide an incomparable navy, one which will have no superior on the sea, and I am prepared to vote the necessary funds."

"It is my belief that we cannot rely upon any one arm. We have to have a balanced fleet; and the basis of the fleet is the heavy battleship; then the fast cruisers, the cavalry of the sea; then the destroyers for more mobile employment; then submarines; and, finally, aircraft."

Speaking about our involvement in the war, Texas' Junior Senator said, "The United States is not going to become involved in the European war. The only way we could get in it would be by some foreign nation attacking us, and no foreign nation is going to attack us, especially if it knows we have a navy capable of meeting its navy and destroying it, and that is what we have."

Mrs. Jones Making Improvements In Theatres

Mrs. Earl E. Jones, proprietor of the three local theatres, the Rialto, Rio and Ritz, announced some new improvements on the show houses this week. Wednesday, workmen began installing a new Neon sign at the Ritz.

A new roof will be added to the Rialto, and a cooling system will be installed at the Rio as soon as possible. For the last few years the Rio has closed during the summer months, but with the fast pickup in business here, this means no doubt that Mrs. Jones aims to keep the Rio open through the summer.

Carl Lewis Wins Prizes In Ford Contest

Seeing an article in the Levelland Herald where Basil Webb, former Brownfield citizen had sold a lot of Ford cars up there and had won some prizes, we hopped onto Carl Lewis and asked him why in the dickens some Brownfield guy didn't get in on the winnings. Says he, "I did, a whole string of them."

And here they are: An electric toaster, a Parker pen and pencil set, a cocktail shaker (never used Carl says), $47.50 in cash, a free trip to a banquet at the Baker Hotel, Dallas, with a fine feed in the crystal ball room, and lots of fun.

Here's what he did: Sold 21 new cars and 17 used cars in the months of February and March. Hurrah for Carl.

The Texas Company is going them one, or is it two better: The latest courtesy card we received privileges us to also buy tires, tubes and batteries up to $25 with an attached coupon. Come on, Gulg, Magnolia, Conoco, Sinclair, and put a new car purchase on yours.

Earl G. Alexander of Plainview, interested with Gladys Green in the Alexander Drug store in this city, was here Friday. Earl always seems pleased to see the progress Brownfield is making. Fact is, it was his home town for some ten or twelve years.

Brownfield Banquets Livermore and Crew

The Brownfield Chamber of Commerce and the Junior Chamber of Commerce gave a banquet last night at the Venetian Auditorium, featuring a barbecue nad stag party, honoring Geo. P. Livermore and his drilling crew. Mr. Livermore and crew had the honor of bringing in the first commercial oil well in Terry county, the No. 1 Jacobson, in northwest Terry.

Five hundred tickets were printed for the affair and it was believed that most if not all of them would be sold, as everyone seems to be on edge to help honor the men who have done a great thing for the town and county.

Further report on the banquet will be given in next week's Herald.

Mayor Asks Citizens To See Census Taker

As the Mayor of the City of Brownfield, I am taking this means of personally asking all those who have not been visited by the census taker to get in touch with that individual at once, and tell him how many you have in your family, or if there are others living at your home, give their names and number also.

Perhaps you know of a friend who has not been enumerated, or some one in your section of the city that has not been counted. Brownfield wants to show up just as well as possible in the new census. I ask you therefore as a special favor to our growing and progressive little city to see the one who is taking the census in your part of the city.

Clyde C. Coleman
Mayor, City of Brownfield

Rotary Convention Pronounced Great

Dr. John R. Turner, out going president of the local Rotary club, accompanied by Mrs. Turner and H. R. Winston, incoming president, attended the session of the 127th Rotary dist. at Sweetwater, Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday. The convention was well attended with some 600 visitors.

The entertainment features were extra fine, it was reported, and the outstanding speakers were worth going miles to hear. They were Marcus Tillet of Helsingfors, Finland, and Ray Tiffany of Hoboken, N. J. The convention featured International Relationship.

Bank Cashier Killed By Mystery Robber

LORENZO, April 29.—Knifed in the throat and felled by a blow on the head, Irvin Bownds, 38, bank cashier, was found dead in the looted bank vault Monday.

Bank Vice President Fred Wiese said between $2,000 and $3,000 was missing.

Justice of the Peace, J. R. Huckabay said in the official inquest verdict that Bownds came to his death at the hand of a person or persons unknown, from the head blow and knife wounds on each side of his throat.

Crosby county officers had a found no one who saw anyone leave the bank after Bownds had returned from lunch at his home.

Bank bookkeeper, Woodrow Watts found the body. Two customers, Thomas G. Hendricks and Oscar Hughes, both of Lorenzo, had preceded Watts into the bank, but finding no one about waited.

Mrs. Bownds said her husband left home for the bank at 12:48 p. m. He was seen walking along the street 10 minutes of 1 p. m. The body was found just before 1 p. m.

J. O. Gillham, vice-president of the Brownfield State Bank, was a business visitor in Fort Worth this week.

Jack D. Wester, insurance man of Lubbock, and former faculty member of the local schools, was here Monday, and paid a short call on the Herald.

The Herald has been called most everything, the News, the Banner, Journal, Sentinel, and perhaps a lot of cuss words, but it remained for the Ropes high school students to address us as The Star. Their communication was too late for publication.

Railroad Commissioner Lon Smith, now 71, announces that he is retiring after the completion of his term next January, after being a public servant for the past 50 years. Maybe he doesn't relish a strenuous campaign, or is it that he is taking a hint on what happened to Terrell last election?

Along with the hot July sun and the war in Europe, there is promised a hot battle royal down in the 17th Congressional District as Tom L. Blanton, who was ousted by Clyde Garrett of Eastland four years ago for the seat in Congress, has come out with a real war whoop, and that means that there'll be something happening every minute in the tall shinnery this summer.

The score card of the Texas-New Mexico league Sunday looked more like a sandlot league. For instance, Borger took Lubbock to a 25 to 8 runfest. Minds of the negro score. A white man asked the center fielder how the score stood. "Twenty-five to nothing" was the reply. "They're beating you pretty bad" said the white man. "Don't know" said the sweating darky, "we ain't been to de bat yet."

Fourteen men, representing practically every business in Texas, including merchants, lawyers, oil men, jurists, newspaper men, etc., have been appointed to investigate drunken driving in Texas. We hope they recommend a real hot law with no loop holes for such drivers to the next legislature. We have enough fool drivers in Texas without adding to them those that are crazy with drink.

The city of San Antonio has put a real crimp in the reckless bicycle rider, and that puts them on par with autoists. Cyclists are not allowed to catch on to another moving vehicle, ride with another person on the handlebars, nor without holding the handlebars. In fact, stunt bicycle riding in the Alamo city is out. Now if we had such laws in Brownfield, including one to keep them from weaving from one side of the road to the other, and another to keep them off the sidewalks, we'd be sitting Jake.

The Herald takes this opportunity to agree with Judge R. A. Simms on his highway program. We are not always keen for big bond issues, but as these roads, the Levelland and Lamesa are already definitely designated by the state, there would be little hesitancy in their taking them over and paying off the bonds. Otherwise we may be years in getting these roads completed, and in that five years we will be contributing some $75,000 to help pay for the other county's roads, with our gas purchase money. He that helpeth not himself, the same shall not be helped.

State Observer of Austin contained an article from one of their writers the past week that was as untruthful as it was silly. The writer intimated that country editors took everything from wheatstones to pork sausage on subscription, and that they supported Gov. O'Daniel almost 100 per cent. Fact is, the Herald gets $100 in cash on subscription to one trade in, and trade ins are ok if mutually agreeable. And in this section, there were very, very few country weeklies supporting O'Daniel in 1938. Most of them were for Thompson and McCraw. We can't say how they stood down in the sticks near Austin; we don't get any of 'em.

NORTHSIDE BAPTIST CHURCH

The revival meeting and prophetic lecture series now being conducted at the North Side Baptist Church are being blessed each night with increasing attendance, and the number of the several denominations represented is somewhat indicative of the wide-spread interest with which the messages of Evangelist Jno. R. Denning are being received.

During this week, the Bible history of the Jews as a nation and the significance of the present European war in the light of Prophecy Scripture has been discussed, and this Friday night the evangelist will present certain prophecies which are said to mark the Signs of the Times, using as his text Luke 21:28 "When Ye See These Things Begin To Come To Pass, Then Look Up."

On Sunday, May 12, the entire day will be devoted to special Mother's Day, with a basket dinner being served at the church. Comfortable chairs will be provided for the aged, and the pastor will present as gifts autographed Bibles as follows:

- (1) To the oldest mother present.
 - (2) To the mother who comes specifically for these services from the farthest distance.
 - (3) To two children; one from nine years and under, and one from ten to fourteen, quoting the longest continuous passages of Scripture, from memory.
- Many visiting friends and representatives from outside the county are expected to attend these Mother's Day services.
- The services of the revival begin each night at 8:15. There will be no Saturday night service.

It is rather dull around Gomez since school is out. But we continue to have sand storms; keeps us busy.

Wealth of Old Heirlooms in Brownfield

As to heirlooms, folks of this city have enough to start a small museum.

Gracing the walls of the dining room at the Dr. and Mrs. E. C. Davis home you see a large pewter platter, dating back to the stirring times of the revolutionary war. In those days all the food was placed on one platter (this method is being revived) and placed in the center of the table and the head of the house served the plates which were stacked by him and passed around. The platter was given to Mrs. Davis' mother by her grandmother as a wedding gift and it was old at the time. Mrs. Davis' mother, wanting to preserve it, had a lovely scene painted on it and it is used as a plaque. Then too, the Davis' have a variegated pottery pitcher more than 100 years old.

As a memento of fine needle work done in 1869, Mrs. Geo. W. Chisholm has two lovely quilts, made by her mother and one made by her grandmother. A person wanting to make pretty quilts should see these.

A book that is most priceless; a Bible brought from England by her great grandmother some two hundred years ago, is the cherished possession of Mrs. W. H. Dallas, who also has a locket one hundred years old and another item with memories in a report card, the first one she received in her first year of college, 1889.

You hear people say, "Oh, I wish for the good old days" and when we hear that we are reminded of the spinning wheel that has been in the late Dr. Geo. Graves' family for more than one hundred years, and was left to Mrs. Jack Holt by her grandmother. If it could talk, think of the many hours it could tell of night toil by candlelight; of spinning the thread for counterpanes and all kinds of clothing.

Mrs. John L. Randal is a descendant of a Methodist circuit preacher who came to Texas from Mississippi in 1834 to bring the tidings of peace and salvation to the early settlers. She prizes his Bible, which he carried in his saddle bags, printed in 1829. Mrs. Randal's father, P. M. Schrock, was gunner No. 1 in his regiment and Mrs. Randal has his tin ammunition box he used in the Civil war, and then there is her wedding dress of the loveliest cream cashmere, made and worn almost fifty years ago when girls boasted of size 18 waist and at least five petticoats. She has also kept her sidesaddle and we will tell you a secret, her accordion, and what's more, we have heard her play it.

One of the loveliest bedroom suites in town is that of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Griffin. The suite is made up of furniture from both Mr. and Mrs. Griffin's ancestors. The lovely old, large marble top dresser and table of solid walnut, purchased in 1860, was Mrs. Griffin's grandmother's and the bed with the headboard at least seven feet high, and also solid walnut, was Mr. Griffin's parents' and part of a suite they set up housekeeping with in 1877.

Mrs. Griffin also has her great-great-grandfather's glasses that are 100 years old and a quilt quilted by her grandmother in 1880.

Gracing the lovely living room of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bell is an old walnut parlor suite more than 100 years old, with its Colonial days graceful lines and carvings. One of the love seats, with one arm and the back, on which days of yesterday's southern belles sat with their hoop skirts and pantaloons. Here too among other souvenirs of the long ago in this room, is a lovely tall pitcher urn that is admired for its graceful lines and coloring. Mrs. Bell also inherited a lovely walnut bedroom suite with its old fashioned bureau, marble topped, that is 75 years old.

Another home that is rich in antiques is that of the lovely Mrs. Toone, who reminds one of the real south we have heard about and is said to be no more. With her poise and refinement, we can picture her in the past with her delicate china bric-a-brac and lovely furniture that she has cherished all these years. In her bedroom is another solid walnut bedroom suite with the marble top bureau and she also has a real old what-not dating back to early American days. Among her

A LUCKY NIGGAH

Two negroes were in a poker game. "What you got?" one inquired. "Four kings" was the answer, "and what you got?" The first negro said, "A pair of fives—and a razor" to which his opponent replied, "Niggah, how come you so lucky?"

They tell us that Lawrence Green celebrated his 45th birthday last week with a big chicken dinner provided by the good wife, with relatives and a few friends present. Lawrence, a world war veteran, is now one of our best painters and paperhangers.

Kathleen Hardin Now Registered Nurse

Miss Kathleen Hardin, born and reared in Brownfield, was a mid-term graduate of the Lubbock Sanitarium school of nursing. She now holds a position with the Phillips-Dupre hospital at Leveland. Kathleen, who we have known from babyhood, paid us a call Monday, and stated that she would get her diploma in May along with other graduates at the end of the term.

Kathleen likes nursing. She told us she loved her work, and therein lies the secret of success. No one can accomplish much whose heart and soul are not in the work. Katherine has a fine disposition, and a temper not easily ruffled. Therefore she is making an ideal nurse.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Herod were business visitors in Big Spring, Saturday afternoon.

She's Mother To Shirley Temple

Spring Byington climaxes her illustrious career as the screen's favorite mother by playing the mother of Shirley Temple.

The role is the famous one of Mummy Tyl in the 20th Century-Fox motion picture version of Maurice Maeterlinck's "The Blue Bird," the beautiful and human story that is known and loved the world over, filmed in the new Technicolor, which opens Saturday midnight through Sunday and Monday at the Rialto Theatre.

Among the distinguished mothers Miss Byington has portrayed on the screen were the mother of Loretta Young and her three real-life sisters in Darryl F. Zanuck's production of "The Story of Alexander Graham Bell," and the mother of the "Little Women" in a picturization of the Louisa May Alcott story, which marked her screen debut. But no doubt she is best known as the mother of the famous Jones family in the popular series of that name.

In "The Blue Bird," the beloved actress is also the mother of little golden-haired Johnny Russell, who plays the important role of Tyltyl, Shirley's small brother. For this picture provides Shirley, who is usually cast as orphan—or at least a half-orphan—with a full complement of relatives. Her daddy is played by Russell Hicks.

Other features in the distinguished cast which Production Chief Darryl F. Zanuck lined up for this memorable motion picture are Nigel Bruce, Gale Sondergaard, Eddie Collins, Sybil Jason, Jessie Ralph, Helen Ericson, Laura Hope and Gene Reynolds.

Mr. and Mrs. Voris Myatt of Lubbock, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Pounds, Sunday.

Some Inquiries About Our Rambling

Some of our half dozen readers have been making inquiries as to why we had no "Rambling Articles" in this great religious sheet of late. Fact of the business is, that after we got through paying taxes, money was too short for any sizable strolls. Then, too, our grocerymen hinted that we'd better stay home and work some or be cut off—or words to that effect.

But, if nothing unforeseen turns up, we're going to see if some of our good filling station men will not fill 'er up this week end for a jaunt below the cap for a little change of scenery. Will tell you some of it next week—all the law will allow in these columns.

Test Pilot of 1960?

It's HARD to tell... but EASY to pick a winning oil

MODEL airplanes, powered with twisted rubber bands or miniature gas engines, zoom and soar in competitive meets. Will their young builders be the test pilots of the future?

Experience has shown that the great pilot of tomorrow is just as likely to be a farm boy who has never seen a model plane, as it is to be a youngster with uncanny building skill.

Yes, many things are unpredictable. But when you want to select a winning oil for your motor, you can make a choice with certainty. This is why:

The great Phillips refining organization makes a complete and frank statement, which does away with doubt. Note there is no hedging, no reservation. We say plainly: if you want our best oil, remember we specify that Phillips 66 Motor Oil is our finest quality... the highest grade and greatest value... among all the oils we offer.

Next time you need oil, pick a winner. Whether you are merely adding a quart or draining worn and tainted oil that has gone through cold weather, ask for Phillips 66 Motor Oil at the Orange and Black 66 Shield.

TO CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harris, pioneer settlers in Terry county, will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary, Sunday, as that is more convenient for the children, although the date will be Thursday, 2nd day of May. Mr. Harris and family came to Texas from South Dakota in 1901, and on to Terry county in 1907, settling in northwest Terry.

Here he had a farm and ranch, and later established a store and post office which bore his name, and the community is known as Harris to this day. Lynn Harris and Family from St. Cloud, Minn., are here already, as well as a daughter, Mrs. Millard Ellington and daughter of Clayton, N. M., for the celebration.

Children who live here or in the county, are Mr. Clifford Pray and Mrs. Geo. Alexander, daughters, and Roy, Glen, and Clyde, sons.

This is a grand old couple, who have, with their excellent family, meant much to Terry county and its development socially, religiously and educationally.

Mr. and Mrs. Arch Fowler visited his brother and family at the Mallett ranch near Levelland Sunday.

FALSE CLAIMANTS OF SOCIAL SECURITY TO BE PROSECUTED

"Beginning immediately we will file criminal charges against claimants who make false statements to secure unemployment compensation," B. H. Thomson, District Supervising Examiner, said today as he served notice of the tightened enforcement of the fraud provisions of the Texas Unemployment Compensation Act.

Mr. Thomson said that he had received orders today from Orville S. Carpenter, Executive Director of the Texas Commission.

"We will file criminal charges against any individual guilty of misrepresentation or nondisclosure of any fact resulting in payment of jobless benefits when such benefits are not due him," the Supervisor declared.

Executive Director Carpenter stated that the Texas Commission would be unceasing in its efforts to uncover cases of misrepresentation. He informed Thomson that no exceptions were to be made and that charges were to be filed in every instance.

Notice will be given every unemployed individual claiming benefits of the provision of the Texas Act for filing of criminal charges in cases of misrepresentation or nondisclosure.

"Failure to report pertinent facts is a positive violation of the Law, and prosecutions will be instigated immediately," Thomson said.

The supervisor advised claimants to report all their earnings while filing claims, to report any part-time of self-employment, to disclose receipt of Workmen's Compensation insurance, old age benefits, old age assistance, wages in lieu of notice, and vacation pay. Also, they should reveal any fact having a bearing on their availability for work or their ability to work.

District Judge Louis B. Reed, of Lamesa, was here Monday.

This Ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage and publication. Passed this the 25th day of April, 1940.

TERRY CO. MEMORIAL CEMETERY ASSOCIATION

The Association wishes to take this means of announcing to the public at large the improvements that have been made at the new cemetery. In the way of improvements and beautifying it, we have a Pamona turbine pump and a 5 horsepower gas engine that will pump 50 gallons of water per minute and also furnish a 40-lb. pressure on the water lines that are distributed over the yard so as to use a spray or sprinkler to water grass and shrubs; five rows of Chinese elms are across the yard and evergreens across the front, and are being watered each week on Thursday and we invite the public to visit the yard on this day to see what is being done in regard to taking care of the trees and evergreens and see how they could buy a lot and be fixing it up and beautifying it and when it was needed would be a pleasure to take the loved ones to.

People are buying lots right along now so as to get a lot where you might want one in a choice place.

Commencement Address

Alan R. Fraser, District Attorney of the 83rd Judicial District, will deliver the commencement address to the large graduating class of 1940 in the Brownfield High School auditorium on the night of May 17th. He has chosen as his subject, "The Responsibility of Being Educated." Mr. Fraser's home is in Alpine, Texas, and he comes highly recommended as a speaker and as a man. The juvenile problem has taken a major part of his time during the last several years, and he is recognized in this and adjoining states as being an authority on that problem. Mr. Fraser is a young man and radiates energy and enthusiasm as he speaks. The school authorities feel that no better choice could be made for this particular occasion and invites the public to attend this very important program.

WRITER SEES DIES CHANGING AS INVESTIGATION PROCEEDS

NEW YORK, April 15.—"The Dies of yesterday's headlines isn't the Dies of today," writes Wesley Price of The American Magazine, who has just completed an investigation of the great investigator.

He believes that Chairman Martin Dies of the House Committee on Un-American Activities is learning as he goes along, is in effect completing his own education with each exposure of his committee. The writer concludes that this fact helps to explain the paradox of the Texan, who is bitterly assailed by some as more un-American than the groups he is covering, and is hailed by others as the stout champion of the American way.

After cutting through the smoke of battle that has obscured Dies for two years, and making a thorough study of the Texas congressman, Price makes the following estimate

"He seems to be a thoroughgoing, middle-class American, from his 7 a. m. breakfasts of scrambled eggs and sausages to the tip of his family tree. Inexperience and youth undoubtedly have led him into numerous blunders which have earned him—often with justification—the description of a brash and boisterous man, prejudiced and perverse, obstinate and opinionated.

"But after getting to know him intimately, I am convinced that he is growing in dignity with age and experience. Whether you like his politics or not, he has proved his capacity to take punishment like a man."

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Baker a 7-pound son, Saturday, March 16.

BREEDER-FEEDER PRESIDENT HONORED

The Dallas Agricultural Club, first of its kind in the world, is celebrating its fourteenth year, and honoring Frank P. Holland, Jr., for outstanding service to agriculture. The Club membership is composed of men and women in many vocations, but all of whom acknowledge their debt to agriculture as the basic industry upon which American institutions depend, and who meet at weekly luncheon to hear a talk on some phase of agriculture.

It serves as a forum for discussion but passes no resolutions for or against any theory of program presented. Its only positive action is embodied in the annual recognition of someone who has contributed to the welfare of Texas agriculture. This year the choice fell to Frank P. Holland, Jr., president of the Feeder-Breeder Association.

Pierce Brooks for Rail Commissioner

DALLAS, Tex. April 18.—Pierce Brooks, for several years prominent in Texas politics, today announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for Railroad Commissioner.

Brooks' announcement for the place now held by the veteran Lon A. Smith ends speculation which has been rife for months as to whether or not he would be a candidate for this office.

Two years ago Brooks polled more than 400,000 votes in a runoff campaign against one of the most popular men in Texas, Coke Stevenson, who only defeated him by a narrow margin. Brooks was in bed as the result of an accident for most of the runoff campaign.

TEXAS STOOD FOURTH IN FINNISH RELIEF

DALLAS, April 6.—Texas contributed $83,302.87 to Finnish relief aside from corporation contributions made direct to Herbert Hoover's committee by the home offices of many concerns having branches in this state. These figures were released by Capt. J. F. Lucey, Texas Director of the Finnish Relief Fund, this week from his office in Dallas. At the same time Capt. Lucey said the state headquarters and the state organization are being discontinued.

The Texas director was profuse in his compliments of the subscription campaign conducted by Texas newspapers. "If we had not had the marvelous cooperation of Texas newspapers," Captain Lucey said, "we never could have got the job done."

While Texas donations were not the largest, nor did Texas lead the states in number of donations, Capt. Lucey said, yet it was one of the ranking states. Only New York, Illinois and California and one or two other states

Health Officer On Clean-up Week

Observance of Texas Health, Clean-up and Safety week will be marked by scores of community celebrations throughout the state the week of March 31 to April 7, according to Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

The Texas State Health Department, The Texas Fire Insurance Commission, and the Texas Department of Public Safety are co-sponsors of the week.

The annual observance of this Health, Clean-up and Safety Week gives each locality an opportunity to take precautions against spread of disease, disabling sickness, and property loss through fire and accidents on the highway. Success of the week is dependent on the cooperation of each individual citizen who taken collectively make up local observances of the week.

In the interest of better public and personal health it is suggested that Texans ask themselves:

1. Is my family immunized against diphtheria, smallpox, typhoid?
2. Is my home protected against disease-carrying flies by screens in good condition, removal of fly breeding spots, proper garbage disposal?
3. Is my home free from mosquito-breeding places?
4. Is my water supply bacteriologically safe and pure?
5. Do I have safe sewage disposal, either through connection to city sewers, use of approved septic tanks, or sanitary toilet?
6. Is my plumbing in good repair and without leakage which may spread disease?
7. Have I checked my home for hazards which may contribute to accidents and removed these hazards? Is it safe from fire?
8. Is the area adjacent to my home free from potential harbors of rats, flies, and mosquitoes? Is it free from ragweed and will it be kept that way as an aid to hay fever sufferers? Are standing pools of water drained, filled, or oiled as an aid to mosquito control?
9. Has my family had an annual physical examination by our family physician as a check against potential illness?

PATHETIC OLD AGE

Just the other day I had occasion to go down to our County Court House on a matter of business. Upon entering the building my attention was directed to a very large group of pathetic old men and women sitting and standing in a long line. Upon inquiry, I ascertained they were making application for old age pensions.

I felt a tug at my heart as I saw a kindly faced old lady, as sweet as your mother or mine, swallowing her pride as she was elbowed by a rough looking applicant who looked as though his life's work had been drinking gin. Farther down the line I observed a determined erect old man, past 65, his chin still up, his spirit unbroken—without funds.

Old men and women, hundreds of them, some on crutches, some wholly or partially blind, some with canes, most of them with gnarled hands and sad faces, all of them asking—even begging for a mere pittance of a few dollars a month to keep body and soul together.

I so wanted to ask some of this group of wrinkled and discouraged humanity whether they thought 25 years ago that they would be found in this deplorable condition at 65. I wanted to ask them too whether at 25 they could have managed to save $5.00 to $10.00 a month to be put away for their sunset days of life. But my courage failed me—I hadn't the heart to ask them.

Should there ever be any doubt in the minds of young or even middle aged people as to the wisdom and necessity of safely putting away at least a small part of their income each and every month of those days ahead at 65, let me suggest to them that they go down to the place in their community where these pension applicants are being handled and mingle with them for half an hour. If this doesn't convince them that they had better start immediately on a systematic plan of saving, I will certainly have missed my guess.—Exchange.

Senior Class Prophecy

The senior class of 1939-40 foretells the lives of the class ten years from now.

Dear Mary Louise;

You cannot imagine my surprise on receiving your letter. Now that you are a famous designer of fashions in Paris, I expected you to be far too busy to correspond with an old school friend.

I suppose that you are anxious to hear about your classmates of 1940; I shall attempt to give you a brief summary of what they are all doing now.

Of course you are aware that Joe Broun has become a world renowned concert musician. He and his wife, who is the former Jerry Bolles, sailed last week for Liverpool, England.

Have you read Clarence Lewis' latest book titled, "The Intelligence of Women?"

I was in Fort Worth not so long ago, and spent the week end with La Verne Collier. She showed me some of her winning paintings. La Verne plans to study in Italy, in the near future.

While in Fort Worth, I met, (you could never guess who!) Mr. and Mrs. James Bowers. You will remember Mrs. Bowers as the former Mildred Clay. Goodness, I almost failed to mention little James Jr. He is a "darling", and the perfect image of his father.

On the train coming home, I accidentally ran into Roy Harriss. Being a screen idol doesn't seem to agree with the poor boy. At every stop, he was simply mobbed by women admirers.

Remember Mary Martin? Well, she is married now, but even marriage didn't put an end to her business career. Oh yes, and Pete Martin has made gobs of money within the last few years. He is one of our most eligible bachelors.

After all these years, Louise Leonard has finally "hooked" her dream man, Billy Redford.

Claudia Gore is following in the footsteps of his father as a politician. By the way, Grace Tarpley is now Mrs. Gore, but rumor has it that she is Reno bound.

Eric Mae Martin has become a famous poet—she was one of our classmates.

Ulee McPherson is now playing trumpet in the world famous Benny Goodman orchestra.

James Patterson is still in Brownfield. He has a very profitable business—raising bulldogs and pigeons.

Roberta McPherson, who was Roberta Webber, was home for a visit a short time ago.

Redell Parks is still making a name for herself. You will remember her as the little gal that won all the honors in Home Ec.

Tom Rowden has been appointed head coach at Tech. His assistant is our friend Eugene Locke.

The Wilmett twins, Alton and Elton, have made names for themselves as professional tennis players. They are still identical as "ditto" marks.

Dorothy Sexton and Rosavene Jenkins are nurses in the Lubbock hospital.

Kathryn Ince was here for a visit last month. She and her small daughter stayed for a week and then returned to their home in Boston.

Odell Spear, who is the author of the popular "Fu-Chu Says Book", a combination of the old Walter Winchell columns and "Confucius Say", recently granted his wife, Christine Bolles Spear, a divorce and $800.00 per month alimony. Judge Harold Simms handled the case for him.

Flaura Lee Shults, whom I am sure you remember, now owns a very exclusive dress shop in our fair city.

Doris Sherman is going places in the musical world. Rumors are that she has been offered a contract with Paramount in the new "Broadway Melody of 1950" show.

Emogene Fitzgerald, M. D., amazed leading physicians by stating that she has found a permanent cure for bald headedness by transplanting lambs wool to the human head.

Arthur Buchanan is the leading attraction of the Doss-Lindsey circus. Everyone is amazed by his individuality at sword swallowing. The owners of this world famous circus are Winfred Doss and Burl Lindsey, whom you should remember.

Mary Jean Lees, I have been told, is in Switzerland recovering from a nervous breakdown. She recently finished her most famous picture, which is the second production of "Gone with the Wind."

Dale Rentfro is in charge of the Western division of the American Airlines. He has as two of his air

Everyone knows how easy it is to drive a Ford. But no one could know, till he gets inside, how big this Ford is in leg-room, seat-room, knee-room . . . nor what a thrillingly soft, steady, big-car ride it gives!

Inflamed Nerves Made Healthful

(By Bernice Weldon, D.C., Ph.D.)

Nervous inflammation, or neuritis, is inflammation of a nerve. It is usually progressive in character, the process of nature being to fill the blood vessels of the inflamed area with serum. As the heat of the inflammation continues this serum dries up and there is degeneration of nerve and cell tissue. At this stage there is a kind of limp paralysis.

The very nature of the disease indicates its nerve source. It is caused by misalignment of joints of the spine, causing pressure upon the nerve affected at the point of its exit between the joints. Spinal adjusting removes the cause. There is repeated evidence that sufferers have found in chiropractic the thing that has freed them of suffering.

Brown and Walls Purchase Tip Top Cafe

A deal was consummated last week in which the Tip Top Cafe, belonging to Mrs. Grady Wright, was sold to M. E. Brown, better known locally as "Brownie", and John Walls, who are taking charge this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown have been living in Post the past several months, where they have owned a cafe. Both Brown and Walls are experienced cafe men.

BREWER ACCEPTS POSITION IN CLEBURNE

M. E. Brewer, who has been employed by the Brownfield Funeral Home for the past four years, left this week to accept a similar position with the Dillon Funeral home at Cleburne, Texas.

Mrs. Brewer, superintendent of nurses in the Treadaway-Daniell hospital, will remain with the hospital until this fall, when she will move to Cleburne, Mr. Brewer's old home town.

Mr. Brewer made many fast friends while living here, as he always had a smile and a kind word for all. Mrs. Brewer attended school as a child here, but the family later moved to Seminole, where she graduated. She later graduated as registered nurse at a Lubbock hospital.

The entire citizenship regrets to lose the Brewers, but hope for them happiness and prosperity in their new home.

Rev. Ed Tharp of Ralls, was a business visitor here Tuesday, and also visited friends.

Mrs. Joe Heard visited her mother in Ralls, Monday.

The south Terry well has been plugged and abandoned. However, they have not moved the machinery, according to reports, and the rumor is that another well will be put down, as there was a showing of oil in this one.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Brewer visited Mr. and Mrs. Max Gordon in Post, Saturday evening.

Amos Brewer and wife, of California, were here the past Saturday introducing a new spark plug. Amos lived in Brownfield while a youth and seems to getting on in this old world.

Her brother, T. B. Betenbaugh in a Lubbock hospital, Sunday. He has recently undergone major surgery. Mr. Betenbaugh's home is in Tatum.

Seems there are quite a few cases of measles. Walter Black reports his three children are now convalescing from them.

USE OF X-RAY IN DETECTING TUBERCULOSIS

Sanatorium, April 29.—The increased use of X-ray in the diagnosis of tuberculosis is saving hundreds of lives in Texas each year, in the opinion of Dr. J. B. McKnight, superintendent of the 1,000-bed State Tuberculosis Sanatorium near San Angelo.

"Through the use of X-ray, tuberculosis today is being detected before or shortly after symptoms appear," Dr. McKnight declared. "The early diagnosis makes it possible to institute treatment early, enabling a far greater number of tuberculosis patients to overcome their disease."

Years ago, physicians had to depend upon finding germs in the sputum of the patient to establish a diagnosis of tuberculosis, and by the time tubercle bacilli were found the patient usually suffered from advanced disease. Dr. McKnight said tuberculosis could and should be diagnosed without waiting for a positive sputum, and that no examination for tuberculosis is complete without having at least one X-ray plate of the chest made.

In This Corner

We were made glad this week when we read in the Lubbock Avalanche that the Church Women's Federation of Lubbock had accepted the offer of the present owner of the old Nicolett Hotel on Broadway to give to any civic or church organization, the building. We spent the night at this hotel something over thirty-five years ago when just a child. It was at that time the finest hotel west of Fort Worth, or so the claim was, and it is the first hotel of our recollection—first one we ever stayed in and were it torn down it would be the end of one of our first views of hotel grandeur. The church organization will move the building to their lots on 6th street and restore it as the Nicolett Hotel and use it as a recreational and educational center.

Sanger Bros. of Dallas, are running a series of ads in the Dallas News telling about Navarro county, when Sanger Bros. first store was built in Corsicana in 1871. They are quite interesting and it gives Navarro county quite a bit of publicity.

Jno. S. Powell, that stately old master of the violin, is the first person we ever saw that could play the violin without having to "tune up." Suppose the others were just fiddlers. Anyway, Pappy John is a violinist of no mean ability.

Visited a mother who told us she had six school costumes to make for school activities—wonder why there isn't more than one Mother's Day a year.

"This Glorious Way," sermon text of Elder Black, pastor of the Church of Christ last Sunday, made us wonder what would become of some of the children who eat at the lunch room when school is out. "Go thy way and be clothed and fed" will not within itself feed them.

Of course you have observed stately Mrs. Stahler's dimples—Mrs. Arlie Lowrimore, herself the essence of goodness, says she believes the reason we don't see more dimples is because people don't smile enough—Keep Smiling.

LOCAL HOME EC GIRLS WIN HONORS AT DALLAS

Last Saturday night a very tired but happy group of girls returned from a four-day State Homemaking Rally in Dallas. These girls brought back four honors for their school for which we should be very proud. Because of our large high school enrollment our girls were placed in the group with the larger schools in the state and competed with them in all their contests.

In the general wear costumes of the second year Homemaking class, Emma Gene Coleman won "excellent" on her dress. She also won "excellent" on the other contest she entered called "Safety in the Home." Mary Martin won "excellent" on her afternoon special occasion dress that she modeled.

Lois Chambliss, the club delegate, represented the Brownfield chapter in the choral contest between the 10 different areas of the state. This area won second place in the contest.

A very pleasant and worthwhile trip was reported by these girls. The program at the rally consisted of a variety of entertainment features, including luncheons, banquets, amateur hours, style shows, contests, singings, sight seeing features. The Baker and Adolphus Hotels were Rally headquarters. The Brownfield group had reservations at the Baker.

The Rally celebrated its 21st birthday this year with over 4,000 attending, which was quite an improvement of the 49 girls that attended 21 years ago in Austin.

After a three-weeks visit with home folks, Mrs. Blaine Bennett and little son Donald, returned to their home at Long Beach, California. Mrs. Bennett will be remembered as Miss Dorris Spears.

BUSINESS & PROFESSIONAL WOMEN'S CLUB

With speakers from Pampa, Amarillo and Plainview, the Business and Professional Women's club held a very enjoyable and instructive meeting Saturday evening, April 27, at the Wines Hotel, when a delicious chicken dinner was served. Mr. Ellison Carson led group singing.

Next day at luncheon a lady by her said, "So, did you hear that old lady play yesterday" and she answered "No," and it was a few minutes before she thought, "It was I" who played, then she told the lady "She had never thought about herself being old." Of course apologies were made but we who know Mrs. Dallas love her and know she will never grow old in spirit. She pleased the club by playing the Waltz Arabesque by Laca.

Two numbers greatly enjoyed were "On the Beautiful Blue Danube" and "Over the Waves" played by Jno. S. Powell, violin, Ellison Carson, guitar and lovely Mrs. Ellison Carson, piano.

BAPTIST CHURCH

The writer of these notes acknowledges inaccuracies in some of the recent reports on the amount necessary to finish the new building, but proposes now to give the facts, although they may show a larger debt than most of us had thought.

In order to finish the basement and pay for the pews there must be raised an additional sum of seven thousand dollars cash. If the work on the basement should stop completely now six thousand would be necessary to pay off existing contracts.

Considerable material is on hand for use in the basement, and the basement can be fully finished for one thousand dollars or it can be made usable for less, but to pay all bills seven thousand cash must be raised and this includes lighting and pews for the auditorium.

These facts will be disappointing to many but most home builders will verify the same experience in finding buildings cost more than they had anticipated unless they had secured full contract bids.

This cost is thought to be less at this than the contract bids made on the building so we are no worse off for the manner of building and if we had the money everybody would feel good about it.

It has been decided that the building will not be opened for church use until Sunday, May 19 when the corner stone will be placed in the building, in which will be placed the names of each member of the church, a short history of the church and the names of all former pastors, the amount subscribed for the building by every donor whether member of the church or not and the amount paid by each.

The full facts are that many members of this church have not fully appreciated the size of this undertaking and have given far short of their ability and well-to-do citizens of the town not members of the church have shown by their actions that they are not concerned in the least whether there shall be at least one good church building in the town or not.

Are we ready to acknowledge that we are licked or shall we face the facts resolutely in the face of this disappointment.

All services next Sunday morning as usual at the school auditorium and visitors will be welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Hartwell Minnick of De Kalb were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clovis Kendrick the past week end. She is Mrs. Kendrick's sister and will be remembered as the former Miss Bobbie Henson.

The Nurse

Dedicated to the Nurses at Treadaway-Daniell Hospital from Berlon Lincoln

The World grows better year by year,
 Because some nurse in her little sphere
 Puts on her apron and smiles and sings
 And keeps on doing the same old things.

Taking the temperature, giving the pills,
 To remedy mankind's numberless ills.
 Feeding the baby, answering the bells
 Being polite with a heart that rebels.

Longing for home, and all the while
 Wearing the same old professional smile.
 Blessing the newborn babes first breath,
 Closing the eyes that are still in death.

Taking the blame for the doctor's mistakes,
 Oh dear, what a lot of patience it takes.
 Going off duty at seven o'clock,
 Tired, discouraged, and ready to drop.

But called back on special at seven-fifteen
 With woe in her heart, but it must not be seen.
 Morning and evening, noon and night;
 Just doing it over and hoping it's right.

When we lay down our caps and cross the bar
 Oh Lord, will you give us just one little star,
 To wear in our crowns with our uniforms new
 In that City where the head nurse is You.

WORD TO THE WISE

Taxidermists often create freaks of nature such as rabbits with deer horns, but it remained for C. I. Mitchell and Frank Sladek of Temple to display a new and clever idea. They have exhibited in their store a ten pound, seven ounce black bass which was caught by Jack Keith of Temple in the Temple Country Club Lake. Mr. Keith had the fish mounted and then fitted an upper and lower plate of false teeth in the fish's wide-open mouth. An accompanying sign says "If I'd kept my mouth shut, I wouldn't be here."

I. L. St. Clair, owner of St. Clair's Variety Store, was here from Mulleshoe Tuesday, attending business in connection with the store.

LATE LIBRARY LISTINGS

Walter Black, librarian at the WPA library, reports that "Gone with the Wind" and "Grapes of Wrath" still head the list with the waiting list growing each day. Outside of the above two, the books of Zane Grey, Grace Livingston Hill and Kathleen Norris are more in demand than others.

New books donated at last book review were American Dreams, No Arm No Armor, The Clue in the Diary, Westward from Rio, Riverside Literature Series, The Bride of Fu Manchu, Father and Son, The Ordeal of Richard Feverel.

If you have any books to give to the library they will be highly appreciated. Bring them to the library in the court house.

2000 Mile Tour For 'Abe Lincoln' Beats Six Tough Eggs

The 2,000 mile tour of winners of the Know Your Texas Contest, sponsored by the Texas Almanac and the Dallas News, will pass through Brownfield the second or third week in June. The tour will start from Dallas, June 10.

Students of Texas high schools and elementary schools had only until May 1st to enter their booklets in the contest in which the forty-eight winners will be awarded an all-expense tour of the state that will go from sea level to the highest town in Texas, Fort Davis, and touch forty-eight of the state's 254 counties.

Grading of the Guide Booklets will begin May 3 by a committee of awards consisting of experienced school teachers. The tour will be made in air-conditioned Bowen Motor Coaches, the children to be accompanied by chaperones and members of The News and Texas Almanac staff.

One purpose of the trip is to give the winners a view of various physiographic regions of the state. The tour will go through the North Central Plains over the cap rock to the Great Plains, and into the Trans-Pecos section.

The tour will also touch the lower part of the Edwards Plateau, the coastal plains, the piney woods, and the black lands. While in the Davis Mountains the children will go almost 7,000 feet above sea level when they visit the McDonald Observatory on Mount Locke. The tour will touch at the Oklahoma line, go within fifteen miles of New Mexico, cross to Mexico, touch the Gulf Coast, and within about fifty miles of the Louisiana border.

The tour will be won by two pupils from each of the twenty-four supervisory districts of the state department of education.

Joe Safady spent Sunday in Levelland as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. Ollie.

MOTORIST'S LITANY

From creepers, men and janes,
 Who travel laggingly;
 From those who straddle lanes
 And move zigzaggingly;
 From nuts who make our nerves
 Intensely shiverous
 By sudden darts and swerves,
 Good Lord, deliver us!

From nitwits, female, male,
 Who, unremittingly,
 Get right upon our tail
 And honk ear-splittingly;
 From those who when we pass,
 Cause jitters quiverous
 By stepping on the gas,
 Good Lord, deliver us!

From dopes of brains bereft,
 Who shock and frighten us
 Waving a hand to left
 —And then turn right on us;
 From drivers who, in cars
 Of models flivorous,
 Think they are racing stars,
 Good Lord, deliver us!

From pilots who are prone
 To yell abusively;
 From those who think they own
 The road exclusively;
 From fools and pest—a force
 Vast, insectivorous—
 (Not you or me, of course)
 Good Lord, deliver us!

If Director John Cromwell could have resurrected for the knock-down drag-out fight episode in RKO Radio's "Abe Lincoln in Illinois" the original Clary's Grove boys themselves, he wouldn't have had a tougher gang than the six he chose for the re-enactment.

The six include: Howard Da Silva, strong man, jiu jitsu expert and all around stage heavy, who created the role in the Robert E. Sherwood Pulitzer Prize Play on the stage.

Kid Chessell, lightweight champion of the U. S. Merchant Marine Service in 1926 and welterweight champion of the U. S. Navy's Pacific Battlefleet in 1933-34-35.

Harold Hoff, back from Spain where he participated in several battles during a year of volunteer service with the Loyalists.

Fred Kohler Jr., athlete and son of Hollywood's erstwhile dean of screen villains, Fred Kohler, Sr.

Dick Wessel, ex-wrestler, boxer, globe-trotter and soldier of fortune.

Bill Sundholm, known to most movie fans as a dare-devil stuntster, and for eight years a diabolic Chinese heavy in pictures.

Aside from their real life background, not a one of these men has played anything sympathetic for screen or stage—and before their final selection had to prove to Cromwell their "dirty fighting technique."

This then was the gang which initiated Raymond Massey in the art of screen fighting where the critical eye of the camera doesn't allow the "pulling of punches."

IS YOU OR AIN'T YOU

A darkey was trying to find out from his son whether he had gotten married. The son was using a lot of big words in an effort to evade, but the older man broke in "I ain't askin' you, is you ain't; I see askin' you, ain't you is?"

Miss Jane Brownfield, Texas Tech student, spent the week end with homefolks.
