Information About Hi-School Band

BROWNFIELD PEOPLE SHOULD BECOME MORE SCHOOL BAND-CONSCIOUS

There Are Several Articles Printed Below From the Pens Of Various Writers, Who Are Endeavoring to Give You The Information You Wish about the Band.

The Function of the Band Mothers Club

The Band Mothers Club, associated with the Brownfield High School Band, plays a very important part in the function of the band. This club is an auxiliary in motive and practice and is an invaluable part of the band program.

In the spring of 1937 the Band Mothers organization was established and immediately set to work to uniform the band. Splendid cooperation from the city and community was given in this effort and approximately $1500.00 was raised during the next few months and was used to outfit completely the first fully uniformed band in Brownfield High School.

Each spring, at the close of school, uniforms are checked in by members of the Band Mothers club and stored away for safe keeping for the summer months. The suits are cleaned thoroughly and renovated each year before the storage period by the student who rented the uniforms. Each fall the suits are fitted and rented to students for the year. All of this work is accomplished through the untiring efforts of the Band Mothers with the exception of the choice of students or players which choice is placed entirely in the hands of the band director and the superintendent of schools.

Transportation is a major problem for the band and the solution there of is many times brought about by the transportation committee in the Band Mothers organization whose chairman is Mrs. R. L. Bowers. The civic organizations, Lions, Rotary, Chamber of Commerce, and Jaycees have cooperated to the nth degree and made transportation to football games possible.

Last year a band banquet was held and the Band Mothers were the hostesses. The affair proved so enjoyable and successful that the club decided to make it an annual event.

These and many others are the duties of the Band Mothers organization. It has become a very valuable institution to the town and community. It deserves the hearty support of every citizen of this territory.

Band Personnel

The Brownfield H. S. Band began practice in earnest this week in order to attend the Brownfield-Kermit football game and do their part of rooting for the Cubs. The Band has not made the first football trip in past years, but in line with its new aggressive program, plans are being made for it to be present at every game this season if at all possible.

Uniforms were being issued to the following members this week: Clarinets: Buford Milner (post-grad), Jacqueline Thompson, Mary Alice Tidwell, Gayle Lilly, Robert Heath, Fred Adams, Reba

The Brownfield High School Band, 1940-41

You have all read lots about the Brownfield High School band, how it was organized in 1935-36, when they learned their first March, which was "Activity" by Harold Bennett, and when they went to their first contest, received their first uniforms, then their second uniforms which are being used now.

Well, to make a long story short this band has increased from about 25 members to about 50 good musicians. They did excellent work last year. They went to practically all football games, namely Post, Slaton, Taboka, Littlefield, Levelland and Olton. They had swell times at those games and they enjoyed putting in their two cents worth in helping the football boys win their games.

At the last part of the year they went to Littlefield to a band clinic directed by D. O. Wiley, Band Director of the Texas Tech band. Most of you know what a band clinic is, but for the benefit of those who don't, we will explain. There are about six members of each band picked to represent their school band. These members practice two sessions a day each about three hours long. They are taught every possible movement of each piece they play, and after they have been taught these they give a concert for the benefit of the public.

There is lots of fun playing in these clinics. You play with students you have never seen before. Some who have been taking band for as many as nine or ten years, and take our word, they are good. Well, the band then went to the contest in Plainview this was the trip the whole band was looking forward to. The trip was a success, although our band was put in the fourth division. Experience, and how to be quiet when you are supposed to. We believe they played better at that contest than any other time in the year.

Yes, that year was a success, but, speaking for the seniors who graduated out of the band, we only hope they may go a lot farther in the year that is now upon them.—Ulee McPherson.

Wayne Milner, and Leon Lewis.

Basses: Homer Hughes and Paul Auburg.
Drums: Ted Greenfield, Lejune Lincoln, and Raymond Benson.
Alto: Richard Elliot, Earl Hildreth, and Hugh Lilly.

Saxophones: Bobby Bowers and Glynola Akers.
Bartone: David Hanks.
Trombones: Earl Mullins and Wayne Rogers.

There are several other students in line for uniforms sometime during the first semester, depending on improvement and attitude.

About fifteen students have registered for a beginners band and a few more are expected. Another group of beginners will be started during October, but no one may begin after November 1, until the second semester.

The band will form a part of the booster caravan which is being planned to advertise Brownfield and Terry county throughout the neighboring territory later this month. Beginning the first Monday in October the Band will play a concert on the square in town each first Monday during the school year.

The band members and the director, Mr. Boyd, are anxious to do their part toward boosting the school, the football team, and the town in general.

To The Citizens of Brownfield

A number of our citizens have inquired why the municipal light and power plant could not furnish the Magnolia Petroleum Company with light and power since their supply yard and shops are going to be so close to the city limits. We wish to advise our citizens that the city through the Mayor contacted the Superintendent of this division of the Company both by letter and in person to give us consideration and let us figure with them. We wish our people to know that the City Administration wanted this business and tried to get it. However, they did not see fit to give us any consideration and never as much as came to see us.

Since the County, the City and a good number of our citizens all gave their influences and finances to get the railroad switch to their acreage we felt that we were at least due a little courteous consideration in the matter. The Magnolia Petroleum Company has the privilege of doing as it wishes, but Brownfield will continue to grow and push forward in the future as it has in the past.

Clyde C. Coleman, Mayor.

Tom Mix Coming To Rialto In Person

Tom Mix is coming to town in person with his horse, Tony II, bringing his entire company to appear one day only on the stage at the Rialto, Saturday, October 5th. Tom is on his way back to Hollywood to re-enter pictures, and the management was fortunate to persuade him to drop off in Brownfield for this visit.

Mrs. Jones is also endeavoring to get Smiley Burnett and his company in person. She is determined that Brownfield shall lead this district in entertainment offering. She will continue to obtain the cream of the entertainment world.

New Additions To Buildings Under Way

An extension of 25x25 feet of tile is being put on the Dixi-Star Bakery on East Main. Tile work practically complete. Roy Wingard, contractor.

Rotarians Sponsoring Kermit Game

The local Rotary club is sponsoring the Brownfield-Kermit football game Friday night. They are asking that as many Rotarians as possible phone or tell L. Nicholson if they can go, and how many boys they can carry in their car. Remember this game is tonight (Friday, Sept. 13), and not Saturday night, as some seem to think, making it possible for a lot of business men to attend.

Supt. Emmitt Smith states that cars will have to be here with players at noon or slightly thereafter.

Drive to be Staged for Permian Basin Ass'n. Members

Tentative plans for staging a Permian Basin Association membership campaign in Brownfield have been approved following a conference of local PBA directors with Wilburn Page, Midland, Executive Secretary of the association. September 24 and 25 will be the dates for the drive, Page announced.

Local Directors are Tom May, J. O. Gillham, and R. M. Kendrick. James Welborn, local royalty dealer is a member of the Legislative Committee.

"Brownfield may have more to gain from the Permian Basin Association than any city in West Texas," Tom May said Wednesday. "The well rounded program on taxation, legislation, proration and encouragement of development will be of lasting benefit to us all," he continued.

Final plans for the campaign together with names of the local Membership Committee will be announced within the next week, it was said.

Miss Evelyn Smith of Brownfield is now at work on a commercial census here. When this is compiled it will be made a part of the West Texas census being made by the Permian Basin Association.

NYA Program Commences Sept. 24

The Herald has been advised that an NYA program will be started here September 24. As we understand it, those eligible for the work will be allowed 80 hours of work per month for which they will receive $16. Those eligible for the work are boys between the ages of 17 and 24 who are out of school and unemployed. Most of the program will be similar to high school manual training work and will be supervised by Mr. Bost, who is in charge of the manual arts department in the local schools.

Negotiations to attempt to secure power tools which will be available to both participants in the program and to school students are now under way. Applications for work in the NYA program from Mr. Bost, Miss Mabel Whitney of the FSA, or Mrs. Jack Holt of the County Welfare Board.

Some Glaring Blunders of Past 2 Weeks

Week before last we made two mistakes in the Super Market ad. We had them selling grapes for 13c, but failed to tell their customers that they got 3 pounds for that sum. Then we had them selling cookies in Oleo packages instead of Celo packages.

Last week, we made a good one on the Piggly Wiggly ad. We had them selling lettuce heads at 1 1/2c each, which should have been 3 1/2c each. Boy, we thought we were going to have to buy a bunch of lettuce, but Terry county customers are reasonable, and an explanation is usually sufficient to convince them that it was the printer's mistake, although they might josh the merchant a bit about it.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Anderson have returned from a three weeks visit in Pampa and Glazier.

Terry County Fair Deferred for Year

For plenty good reasons, the Terry County Fair has been deferred until 1941. And because it was deferred is no reason whatever to lose our shirts about the matter. Indeed, after due consideration we believe it a good idea, even though we have the products to put on the best one for the past several years.

The housing is the main reason. Every building in the city that will hold a rat is occupied by some firm, and it is not fair or reasonable to ask these firms to move their stuff out to be exposed to all kinds of weather, in order to house the fair for just two days. We'd feel rather gally to do so.

But the solicitors have apparently gone just about as far as they can go in contacting individuals as stockholders. They believe that the city and county should also come in with a good donation and really put it over. Both will benefit from the fair. Of course there are many to see that have not taken stock, and several that will have money when the crops begin to move that could not take stock right now.

But we have almost a year to work on the matter. Yet we should not take that time, but have everything in readiness for the 1941 fair before the date arrives. Five or six thousand dollars will do wonders toward the initial buildings, and with a good set of farmers and business men as directors, they will no doubt put aside enough yearly after expenses are paid, to erect future buildings as needed and as the county grows.

Pierce Construction Co. Locates Here

The Pierce Construction Company, pipe line contractors, have located here in the State Bank building. They have their own ditchers and bulldozers, as well as welders and other machines necessary for all kinds of oil field construction.

This firm, with A. W. Logan as manager, comes to Brownfield from Hobbs and Seminole. Mr. Logan does the private Magnolia pipe line building.

Not being able to get a house so far, Mr. Logan stated that he had a great mind to build his own, as he expected to be in Brownfield a long time. He believes that Brownfield will be a good town a long time, and that a nice piece of property will always be worth what it costs one.

New Salesman With Collins Dry Goods

R. E. Jones of Amarillo has accepted a position with Collins Dry Goods Co., as salesman. Mr. Jones comes to Brownfield with several years of experience as salesman, and is well recommended. He stated to a Herald reporter that he liked Brownfield, and hope to make it his permanent home.

This big firm is anticipating one of the biggest fall businesses in its history, is the reason for putting on an extra clerk. Miss Martha McClish was recently added to the ladies department of the store. Mr. Jones, wife and small daughter live in the Ches Gore rent cottages in the eastern part of the city.

PROPERTY TAXPAYING VOTERS OF TERRY CO. TO VOTE ON ROAD BONDS

Commissioners' Court Issues Order For Election on October 11th, to Approve An Issue of $290,000 to Build Highways to Hockley and Dawson County Lines.

Recently, representatives of the Chamber of Commerce, County Judge R. A. Simms, and Judge-elect, C. L. Lincoln, the commissioners, and other interested parties visited Austin, and had an audience with the State Highway Commission as regards the finishing and hot topping of the highway to Levelland, and the one to Lamesa, or to be more explicit, the one to the Hockley county line and the one to the Dawson county line.

The Highway Commission gave the men a very respectful hearing, but then announced that appropriations for road and highway improvements for 1940-41 had been taken up and that there were no funds left for this work. They acknowledged the importance of these highways to the state as well as to the county and several communities in Terry county but advised the committee to come home and order a road bond election, and stated that the bonds would be taken up by the State as it had all others.

At a setting of the regular term of the commissioners' court this week, a petition bearing the names of property tax-paying citizens, about equally divided between farmers and town people was presented to the court, calling for an election to issue $290,000.00 in bonds. The Chamber of Commerce had circulated the petition, seeking only the required number, divided as stated above. This election will be held on the 11th day of October.

Now just a word about this bond issue. If and when two-thirds of the property taxpaying voters ok these bonds, and they are sold, and the work of paving these roads is completed, the State Highway department will take them off the hands of the county, as they have all over the state, and as they have already agreed to do in Gaines and Yoakum counties, before the roads are completed. They are paid for with one cent on every gallon of gasoline bought in the state of Texas. It might be possible that we may have to pay the installment and interest on them for the year. But that is about the only way we are going to be able to build these much-needed roads for use of local people as well as tourists in the next several years, it appears.

Now, if you are one of those fellows who says that the roads are good enough for you, let us state for your special benefit that other people in other sections of the state don't think such roads as we have from here to Lamesa, and from here to Levelland, are good enough for them, and YOU are helping to pay for those roads in other section of Texas every time you buy a gallon of gasoline, whether you wish it or not. That one cent per gallon is collected off you, and goes into a fund to care for the interest and principal on bonds in other sections of the state. YOU are helping to build and improve their roads. Why not get in on this deal and let Terry county share some of these free roads?

Folks, this is something to think about—not just guess at, and the proponents of the issue will see that every citizen of the county is educated to the fact before the election rolls around. You are not going to be left to guess about the matter. We believe the citizens of Terry county are above average in intelligence, and that they will consider this an opportunity to get better highways.

Let us state in conclusion that Dawson county is now fast improving their section from Lamesa to the Terry county line, having almost half of it paved, and the rest graded, drained, and partly topped with caliche. No doubt they will have their section to the Terry county line completed by early 1941. They did this with a bond issue, and the State has agreed to take it over.

As to Hockley county, they seem to be in the same boat as we, that is, they seem to have their section drained and graded, and perhaps some caliche laid, but no paving. A committee of Hockley county folks were at Austin the same time our delegates went, and jointly asked that the road through their county and Terry be completed. So, we imagine Hockley county will have to issue bonds to finish their road, after which the state will designate and take it over.

Re-Topping U.S. Highway 380 Under Way

The contractor is busy putting a seal coat topping on U. S. Highway 380 from Brownfield to within about six miles of Tokio, a distance of some 12 miles. Material is all on the ground, and Saturday the work of topping was within about 7 miles of town, coming this way.

This was the first part of the road from here to Tokio that was paved, with a seal coat, and it had become rather washboarded. The new topping will put the road in fine fettle.

In the meantime, contractor is on the ground awaiting the work order to start the finishing touches on 380 from Plains to Broncho, a distance of about 15 miles. That will give us an all paved road to California west, when it and the Indian reservation section through the White Mountains of New Mexico is finished, which is expected to be by early spring.

United Automotive Service Opens Here

Virgil Boles, who was a few years ago connected with the Carter Chevrolet Co. here as salesman, has returned to Brownfield and opened the United Automotive Service. Mr. Boles has had years of experience in this line of work himself, and will employ only the best of mechanics as well as materials.

If you will peruse Mr. Boles' ad this week, you will learn just a few of the things you can have done in his place, in the Adams, building on West Main. Be sure to call and see him.

That popular service station man, Jack Omer, formerly with Hahn's Texaco Service Station, has leased the Service and Filling Station in front of Mr. Boles' place, where you will find a full line of Texas Gasoline, lubes and greases.

As Maine goes, so goes Vermont. As Georgia goes, so goes South Carolina. Now ain't that a cute get-off, but one's about as sensible as the other.

The report persists in coming from the metropolis on the Trinity that we will be in war by Christmas. Say, ain't that the place where the Anti-New Dealers head-quarter? If so, all those rumors will cease after November 8th.

Candidate Willkie is not going over with the laddies like the "deestrick" attorney would have, had he been the GOP nominee. Dewey was really a "putty" boy, while Willkie is more like a disheveled horse wrangler at his worst.

America should never again be sap enough to go into agreement with any European or Asiatic nation to scrap war vessels, and reduce armament. Those bohunks have never been known to keep their words, and never will, we suppose.

Eee Eye Hill of the Tahoka News says he's going to cut loose some of these days and write up some of the prominent personages of the South Plains. While we are quite modest, Eee Eye, we might give you an interview and furnish you a mat.

As far as we are concerned, Lockney is welcome to those interned Hitler sailors. We are not that anxious to increase our population. What we want is good old Americans, whether they came from Great Britain, Switzerland, Germany, the Netherlands or the Scandinavian countries. But they must love the Stars and Stripes to be welcome in Terry county.

And we might state right here for the benefit of the general driving public that there is a traffic light at Broadway and highway 51. Some of these days an officer will catch you running that light, and you'll see it next time. A man came near getting run over there last week. A man driving a lumbering truck like a drunk Indian blared it through on red. Get their numbers and report them to the city authorities.

Army staff officers are authority for the statement that Texas has furnished more men per population for the army and navy departments than any state in the Union, in recent months. And we might add that the South Plains area has lead all other sections of Texas. Back on the Atlantic coast, the very people who may be attacked first are howling most against the draft. They seem to want to let George do it, and they think George lives in the southwest.

And KFYO, radio station owned by the Avalanche-Journal wants us to exchange, with the idea of quoting from the Herald and other South Plains weeklies occasionally. Also wanted to know how we feel about a broadcast once in awhile by area newspapermen. As for us, we made a dandy speech, they said, down at Athens out at Arch Underwood's shack on the lake, but we thought it was just another trick with a dead mike. And when we learned that it was tied in with KRLD at Dallas we like to have fainted. Hard to learn old dogs new tricks.

It is queer how some of our senators and representatives consider trading 50 overage destroyers to Great Britain as an act of war whereas selling hundreds of million dollars worth of ammunition, guns, war planes, etc. through private channels, is not. As for international law, there is no such thing since Germany recognizes no law on land or sea except the law of might. If the 50 old destroyers enable Great Britain to continue to hold out against Hitler this will prove one of the most valuable investments this nation ever made. Few doubt the U. S. is next on Hitler's list if Great Britain is sunk.—Big Spring News.

Lubbock, Democrats in convention voted to endorse the national administration, and to support the re-election of President Roosevelt and Wallace. They could scarcely have done otherwise, if they are really Democrats. The party has really progressed decades beyond the imagination of a lot of off-brand democrats, who are hardly less standpatters than their ultra-conservative Republican brethren. Just as William Jennings Bryan was two generations ahead of the ruling element of the party, just so is Franklin Delano Roosevelt, and there is no real difference in the Democratic party and the Progressive Republican Party, but as far as socialism as the poles are apart. The present democratic party stands squarely for equal rights of all from the richest to the poorest in the land.

As was expected, the big dailies as well as Candidate Willkie are against conscripting wealth, but of course are strong for conscription of human flesh and blood. At the close of the first world war, Congressman Marvin Jones worked for several sessions of congress to include manufacturing plants and wealth in with human conscription, but as the memory of the war died, and people began to think there would never be another, the bill was never passed. Yet, we that were grown people in 1917-1920 well remember the wholesale scandals, and the hosts of war millionaires at the close of that conflict—wealth made at the price of human sacrifice and suffering, which still endures. Many of those old boys who went over are now raving maniacs in government and private institutions. If the government can take Jones' son, they have just as much right to conscript Brown's factory. If it is only worth $30 per month for Smith's boy to offer his life, it is worth no more for Thompson to turn over his mill at an equal amount. Christ said while here on earth that the soul of man could not be measured by earthly treasure.

IRONY COMES FORTH

Marshall Phillippe Petain of France appealed to the colonies of the once-great French empire for loyalty and obedience via radio. It is ironic that in a nation which is perhaps now in the clutches of a mad dictator that a man should appeal for loyalty. From reports which have reached this nation, one of the principal reasons for the failure of the French fortifications and the general breakdown of morale was the unfaithfulness of some of the leaders of the nation and the greed which one or two displayed.

In his speech, Petain said, "For the first time since the armistice the voice of France is heard in her empire. I desire that the first message addressed to overseas populations, governors, colonists, citizens and subjects and protected persons should be a message from the chief of state.

"France has lost the war. Three-fifths of our territory has been occupied. France is preparing to pass a terrible winter. She must face the hardest tasks. But her unity, forged in 1,000 years of effort and sacrifice, remains intact.

"Unity cannot be discussed. No attempt from whatever director or whatever idealistic origin can succeed against unity. Your first duty today is to obey. The second is to aid the government in its task without reticence. To the voice of the nation the empire, the most beautiful flower in the French crown, will answer present."

WINTER FOOD FOR QUAIL

This is the time of the year when landowners should start thinking about feeding quail during the rugged days of winter and the time when sportsmen should urge the owners of their favorite quail shooting grounds to help the birds.

With a marked increase in Bobwhites being reported from many sections of Texas, it is more necessary than ever to leave food standing for these birds, it is pointed out by the executive secretary of the Game Department. A few rows of grain left standing at the field edges, close to natural cover, is the best insurance possible for carrying over the game and insectivorous birds into next year.

Fluid Drive a Big Improvement on Dodge

Mr. Frank Jordan, of the Jordan Motor Co., local Dodge and Plymouth dealers, announces that it has been years since the automobile industry has produced an operating improvement approaching the newness and general interest of the Fluid Drive, which will be featured in 1941 Dodge Models.

Now of course you are curious to know what advantage that Fluid Drive has made possible in a modern car. This of course is a subject too intricate for a newspaperman. He might tell you a bit about how a linyotype or press works, and why—but he knows just about as much about a car as a hog does a side-saddle.

So, we advise those who are interested to call at the Jordan Motor Co. show rooms on the southeast corner of the square, and a mechanic who knows what he's talking about can show you all the new features before we could possibly get the hood of the car up.

BAPTIST CHURCH

The District Missionary, Ponder, preached at both hours last Sunday in the absence of the pastor who was assisting the church at Tokio in their meeting. We have been glad to loan the pastor to these country communities and hope that their work together has been profitable for the Lord's work.

Baptists have always been strong in the country places and still are and few country churches realize fully their great possibilities, as they should provide better places for their teaching program and they will be surprised themselves how it will help them build their churches.

The Brownfield Association of some 37 churches are in session this week at O'Donnell. These associations composed of free churches of which we have 108 in Texas with more than three thousand churches cooperating together to promote missionary causes, are carrying forward a great work for Christ in this state. We invite all forward looking Baptist folk who have a real missionary zeal to be of service in promoting the work of the kingdom to associate themselves with some of these churches.

The pastor will not be away in other meetings and next Sunday we begin a new associational year and new teachers and officers will take their places in our teaching service and we expect next year to be a banner year with our church.

Next Monday evening 8 p. m. is the regular meeting of our brotherhood organization, and we desire to be of greater service as men during the next year and all men are invited to be present for that meeting, when new officers are expected to be elected for the coming year.

A cordial invitation to visitors at all our services.

Added Features Balance Pontiac Price Tilt

Pontiac's 1941 advertised delivered prices have been increased an average of only three per cent over 1940 although extra equipment costing from $6.55 to $34.20 has been made standard on the new models, it is announced by Harry J. Klingler, president and general manager of Pontiac Motor Division.

On the entire 1941 line, Klingler said, the price advance ranges from $1 to $45.

"Prices are up slightly but value has increased greatly," he added. "There are a total of 129 improvements and refinements on the 1941 Pontiac, a great many of which have been offered before only as special equipment at extra price."

"Our manufacturing and sales record for 1940 which led all volume producers in the industry for percentage increase has enabled us to hold price to an absolute minimum and yet offer more car, more comfort, greater performance and greater luxury."

Klingler cited longer bodies and wider seats on the 1941 Pontiac, longer wheelbases, added weight and horsepower, outside door locks on both front doors, new oil cleaner and complete dual equipment.

BANKING BECOMES "HUMANIZED"

There's been a revolution in commercial banking in recent years. It has been a bloodless and salutary revolution—and it involves banking's methods of "selling itself."

Dead and gone are the days when the banker sat in his bank, almost as remote as one of the Greek gods on Olympus, and waited for the nervous customer to come to him. Today banking goes to the customer—and it uses every possible medium to reach him. It advertises in newspapers and magazines. It issues brochures, which accurately explain to the layman how banking works. It has entered new fields of activity, such as small personal loans and automobile financing. And, as a result, its vital economic services reach a far greater proportion of the people than ever in the past.

Banking, in brief, has become "humanized." A public which really understands banking is not a public which readily falls for crack-pot schemes to socialize the banks, or to otherwise give politicians dominance over the people's money. And, on the other side of the medal, when banking better understands the needs of the public, it does a far more effective job in building and strengthening the country.

Any man of character and standing with a legitimate financial need is welcomed in the commercial banks of today. His business is wanted—whether it involves a hundred dollars or a hundred thousand, so long as it meets with the requirements of law and safe banking practice. The banks want to put their money to work.—Industrial News Review.

"There'll be more entertainment for less money than at any other Tri-State Fair," explained Ray Pinkney, Association President. "The program in front of the grandstand each afternoon and each night during the week will be absolutely free and not only that, but arrangements have been made so it will be profitable to attend. Each show will last an hour and a half."

Admission to the grounds this year will be 10 cents for children between the ages of 6 and 12 years; 25 cents for adults.

A New Variety of Kaffir or Milo

This new variety of Kaffir or Milo, which Agricultural Experts have not yet been able to name, is reported to have come from some part of Africa (possibly Abyssinia) via Italy, and was sent by an Italian soldier to relatives in the U.S.A. during the year 1937, but not in time to plant until the following year.

There was only a few kernels of seed, which were planted in the Spring of 1938 in Eastern Oklahoma, which is not a good kaffir or milo country, as the climate is too damp and the crop often mildews. But it grew so well, and produced much more grain when threshed, and made approximately twice as much green silage per acre, than other varieties, that it immediately attracted attention.

In the Spring of 1939, this seed sold locally at thirty cents per lb. in the head, which is equivalent to almost 40 cents per pound when threshed; tests made on threshing headed seed of this new variety, showed a recovery of from 76.8% to 80.2% from heads to threshed grain than other varieties. The seed is almost white and resembles white milo, but there the comparison stops, as the seed has a larger berry, and the stalk stools from the joints, often making 4 or 5 heads on a stalk; it also grows 2 feet taller than milo or kaffir. It is drought resistant, does not fire easily, and matures 20 to 30 days earlier than other varieties.

One hundred acres of this seed was planted in the spring on the B. W. Ludeman farm, 10 miles west and four miles south of Brownfield, which is being farmed by E. C. Griffith. Seed planted by Mr. Griffith on July 1st and 2nd this year is now heading, and will be ready to harvest not later than October 1st, thus maturing in less than 90 days from the time of planting. It is estimated the 1940 crop on this farm, will make at least 50% more threshed grain per acre than other varieties on the same or adjoining farms, while if cut for ensilage, would probably yield twice the tonnage per acre. The entire crop will be held for seed for the 1941 planting season, and promises to be in great demand. Professors in agricultural colleges pronounce this seed to be of the White Milo or White Durra families, but is probably a hybrid of the two. Test plots have been planted by the Oklahoma, South Dakota and Kansas agricultural colleges this year, and reports will soon be available.

The stalk of this new variety, when green, is sweeter than that of milo or kaffir, and may therefore by a cross or hybrid of cane, kaffir and milo, resulting in an entire new variety. Mr. Ludeman reports that if the agricultural experts are unable to name it, he has a name selected for this plant, which he will announce in due time. Inasmuch as this new variety of seed is drought resistant, mature 20 to 30 days earlier, and produces more abundantly than other varieties, it should prove to be a very profitable crop for the Plains area of West Texas, and Terry county has the only crop of this new variety of seed in 1940.

Reduced Price On Sale Of Fair Tickets

LUBBOCK, Sept. 11.—South Plains Fair Directors announced early this week that an advanced ticket sale would begin immediately and continue until Saturday, September 28, thereby giving residents of the South Plains an opportunity of securing special rates to visit their Fair.

Tickets have been placed on sale in Lubbock and other places at a special price. Regular fifty cent single admission tickets, four to a strip, are being placed on sale for $1.00—a regular $2.00 value. The regular 50c front gate admission will remain the same, officials declared. The special bargain sale makes the cost of tickets only 25c.

This special advance ticket sale will be in effect until Saturday, September 28. After that time the regular admission price will be in effect. All those interested in securing these bargain tickets may do so by writing the Panhandle South Plains Fair Association, Lubbock, enclosing a money order or bank draft in the correct amount. No tickets will be sold under $1.00. Each person may buy as many tickets as he or she desires.

This special sale will make possible attendance at the Fair by hundreds of South Plains families who heretofore have not been able to attend as many times as they would like.

SEE OIL EXHAUSTED IN SIXTY YEARS

Oil experts are again sticking out their necks in prophesying as to when the oil resources of the world will be exhausted. They state that at the present rate of consumption the world's oil will be exhausted in about sixty years. Scientists by that time should have atoms and electrons harnessed to do the world's work.

ROYAL AIR FORCE HAS HILIER WHIMPERING

Poor little Adolph Hitler is peevish because the Royal Air Force continues to disturb the slumber of the German populace, and warns if they do not cease and desist he is going to send 100 planes against English cities for every plane England sends against Berlin.

You see Hitler told the German people the English could never bomb Berlin as it was too well protected by anti-aircraft equipment. In fact Royal Air bombers had been pecking away at military objectives in the Berlin area for three months before Hitler would ever permit notice of air raids having been staged by the British. Even now he contends no damage except to civilians is being wrought—but he just doesn't relish the idea of the Germans being deprived of their sleep.

In a speech to 25,000 stooges, Wednesday, he raved and ranted against the English and admitted the war might be continued for five years and until one or the other was entirely exhausted.

Many believe he will make another attempt to bring about a cessation of the war as he would gain little by crushing Britain without destroying her fleet. With the British fleet operating from Canada Germany could still be blockaded and with her commerce on the sea halted she would have to live off her own fat, and that of the small nations she had captured and there would be small satisfaction in that.—Big Spring News.

Chickenpox, The Childhood Plague

AUSTIN, Sept. 9.—"Chickenpox is among the more prevalent of childhood plagues. Because of this fact, many parents assume the attitude of indifference toward both treatment and spread. Indeed, there are those who mistakenly imagine that this disease is an inevitable affliction, and consequently believe that the sooner the child has experienced it, the quicker the trouble will be over. It scarcely need be said that such a viewpoint is both unwise and risky," states Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

"The period during which the disease develops after infection has been established varies from fourteen to sixteen days; in some cases the time may extend to 3 weeks. Symptoms, such as a slight rise in temperature, headache or backache, frequently precede the characteristic eruption. This eruption often is the first observable symptom. It rarely delays its appearance more than twenty-four hours after indications of illness.

"This disease is highly infectious. The family physician should be called immediately upon the suspicion that chickenpox is present, as intelligent medical care and nursing are essential to a satisfactory and prompt recovery. During epidemics or neighborhood outbreaks, which are most likely to occur during the fall and winter months than at any other seasons of the year, parents should suspect all fever and aches as possible forerunners of chickenpox.

"While complications are rare, they sometimes do occur. Even with the great possibility that infection will run its usual course, it does not pay on that assumption to temporize. Among the complications may be erysipelas and other skin infections.

"Infants under one year of age are rarely susceptible to chickenpox. It is during the run-about age, namely the five and six-year olds, that opportunity to catch this disease is greatest.

"Of course, there is no desire to disturb parents unduly about chickenpox. The fact that approximately 52 per cent of the adult population in America have had it argues the folly of becoming overly alarmed in the face of an increased number of cases. On the other hand, it is well to appreciate that, in common with an illness (child or adult) the chances for a favorable and speedy outcome depend much upon early detection, medical attention, and intelligent bed-side care."

LARGEST MAMMOTH TUSK

The American Museum of Natural History has given George Doughty, merchant of Post, (Garza county), credit for finding the largest mammoth tusk known. It is 16½ feet long, two feet in circumference at the largest part and when boxed weighed 600 pounds. Doughty's hobby is the collection of prehistoric animal bones. His most recent find was a leg bone of a mammoth 40 inches long.

Terry Farmers Taking Advantage of Soil Conservation

Four farmers in Terry County have had Soil Conservation plans worked out for them, reports R. N. McClain, County Agent, and the Soil Conservation Service. The farm owners are Mr. G. W. Luker of the Union community, Mr. L. J. Holers of Meadow, Mr. C. L. Johnson of the Pool community and Mr. W. H. Black of Gomez.

It was explained that a farm plan was worked out on a farm in each precinct for a demonstration of Soil and Water Conservation practices, as a cooperative project between the Extension Service and the Soil Conservation Service. Some of the major practices that were planned to be carried out on these farms are: strip cropping of cotton and sorghums, terracing on tighter land, contour tillage, preservation of crop residues for land protection and controlled grazing to prevent excess trampling or to preserve sufficient grass cover to prevent blowing or washing of the soil, and the furrowing of pasture lands to hold rainfall on the grass land.

SNYDER, TEXAS

For '41—Finest We've Done!

More ROOM — from longer, broader bodies

More POWER — from stepped-up FIREBALL engines

More COMFORT — from softer, steadier ride

More VALUE — any way you measure it!

WITH this advertisement, Buick ushers in a brand-new automobile model year.

1940 production is history—recording the greatest manufacturing and selling season our company has ever known.

You may be sure we grimly realized we had to accomplish things in our new cars for 1941 that we could count on to continue our advance.

So we've taken our greatest all-time car and steadily and carefully brought it forward to a perfection of action, ease, goodness beyond anything ever offered under our name.

THE FIREBALL DOES IT!

Modern gasolines have high octane ratings to permit higher compressions without "ping." Note how this piston, which can be used only in valve-in-head engines, rolls the fuel charge into the shape of a flattened ball that centers around the new, smaller, racing-car type spark plug. Fired at its very heart, this more highly compressed fuel lets go with such full-forced, "ping-free" wallop that any gasoline of 75 octane rating (now available at standard-fuel prices) may be used in the 115-hp. engine. Any fuel of 80 octane rating serves in the 125- and 165-hp. engines.

Every car in all five series of the whole new line deserves unused fresh-minted language.

Stylewise, their suave and dynamic beauty refreshes the jaded eye as would sight of a hydrant in the desert.

They move and function like young wild things. They're all grace and poise and eagerness. They bring to driving and handling a keener pleasure and a new thrill.

Go see these superb new cars at your dealer's and ask especially about the new micropoise-balanced FIREBALL engines—the 1941 furtherance of Buick's Dynafash design and kingpin of all the features that make Buick the sensation of the new automobile year.

*According to the Encyclopaedia Britannica, a super motor which travels with a series of explosions like the shock waves of a great projectile is called a "FIREBALL."

Band Officers for The Year 1940-41

For the past week the band has been practicing on some marches of which they will select to play at the coming games. They plan to go to Kermit next Saturday, and play for the football team. They have been working very hard on these marches and have ironed out many difficult phases.

For the past two years the band has not had any officers. So they elected to the office of president Miss Mary Alice Tidwell. Lejune Lincoln as vice-pres. The office of secretary will be held by Miss

Bobby Virginia Bowers. Reporter will be Miss Jackie Thompson's job, and librarian will be handled by Larry Miller. All of these members have had as many as two years in the band, while others have been taking it for five years. They took possession of these offices on Tuesday, September 10, and will remain so for the duration of the school term.

We are positive they will carry out their jobs to the best of their ability. We also wish them and the rest of the band all the success that might come their way.

Fair Will Try to Please Customers

LUBBOCK, Sept. 9.—It takes all kinds of people to make a world and all kinds of entertainment to please Fair visitors.

"Attractions, with other Fair features, must advance with the times," announced C. E. Maedgen, President of the Panhandle South Plains Fair Association, "because Fair visitors are always demanding something new and different. We think we have just that thing for all who attend the 27th annual exposition in Lubbock, September 30 to October 5, inclusive," Maedgen continued.

In making their plans this year, Fair officials considered an afternoon grandstand attraction which would please young and old alike and have at last signed contracts for an afternoon entertainment worth several dollars. All of it is to be free. Final announcement came late this week when directors announced in conjunction with free school children's days, a free grandstand performance each afternoon—big-time circus and vaudeville acts, clowns, animals and plenty of laughter.

As previously announced, the night grandstand attraction will be the $200,000 federally-backed Entrada of Coronado, an hour and a half show worth ten times the price of admission. Over 1,000 persons are expected to be in the cast, playing their role on the world's largest stage. The stage is over 400 feet in length and the height of the scenery at the center is well over 80 feet. This immense stage setting is moved about on rubber-tired wheels running on large wooden tracks. Exquisite lighting effect, beautiful costumes, horses and real Indians will thrill you as you gaze in wonder as the true story of Coronado and his search for gold unfolds before your very eyes. Night grandstand admission is only twenty-five cents. Reserved seats and box seats will go on sale the last of the week.

TEXAS HAD 11 CAPITOL SITES IN EARLY DAYS

AUSTIN, Sept. 10.—Any school boy can tell you Austin's the capitol of Texas, but it was a different story 100 years ago, University of Texas records show.

In fact, the capitol of the Republic of Texas was moved so frequently there were probably times when even some of the nation's officials couldn't lay their finger on it. In the ten years before it joined the U. S., Texas had eight capitols, and juggled the honor between them eleven times.

The eight capitols, according to University of Texas records, were San Felipe, Washington, Harrisburg, Galveston, Velasco, Columbia, Houston and Austin, in that order. After Austin's "first term" as capitol from 1839 to 1842, Houston and then Washington each had the honor a second time, but in 1845, when annexation took place, the capitol of the new state was established at Austin, and a general election in 1872 made that site permanent.

Bill Fulton Reports On Two Plum Trees

Consider Drying Corn and Okra

By Maretta Holloway

Interest is being shown by the home demonstration club women in the drying of corn and okra. One of the September monthly club meetings is being devoted to a demonstration of drying vegetables. This demonstration includes showing corn and okra in the dried stage; also, dishes using the dried corn and okra are prepared and served to the members.

Steps in drying corn:

1. Select fresh, tender ears of corn in the milk stage.
2. Shuck, silk, and clean ears of corn.
3. Steam ears 5 minutes to get starch to set.
4. Cut corn from cob, removing the grains whole and not scraping the cob.
5. Place in open air in hot sun, spreading over raised netting, covering with clean cheesecloth to prevent dirt from entering, and yet allowing perfect circulation of air. Damp, cloudy days are not desirable for drying vegetables.
6. After the first wetness has left the corn, place grains of corn in thin muslin bag and hang in the air and sun. Bring indoors after sundown.
7. When corn reaches the rattle-stage, it is sufficiently dry.
8. Heat in moderate oven to kill any bacteria.
9. Store in sterilized jars with screw tops—however, it is not necessary to seal.
10. Cook as any other dry product, soaking 4-5 hours prior to serving. Cook in water in which soaked, seasoning with butter, salt and pepper. About forty minutes are required for cooking.

Note: The first wetness may be removed from the corn in shallow pans in a very slow oven for several hours, keeping the corn stirred, keepink the corn stirred, then placing the corn in bags to continue drying in the hot sun. The entire drying process may be done in the oven if desired. About 8 days is required for drying in the sun.

Steps in drying okra:

1. Select fresh, tender pods.
2. Clean, however, not advisable to wash or get wet.
3. Cut in 1-2 inch slices, making round sections, or string whole pods so as to permit free circulation of air.

4. Place in open air in hot sun in same manner as suggested for drying corn. For whole pods, leave small amount of stem on and string on cord, then hang up in a sunny place.

5. When okra shows no soft spots and is at the rattle stage, it is sufficiently dried.

6. Heat in moderate oven to kill any bacteria.

7. Store in covered containers as stated above.

(Okra may be prepared in any way that is the fresh. Combination of dried corn and dried okra and other vegetables makes a very good main dish.

Just try GOULASH

1 pound lean beef, 2 cups beef stock, 2 cups canned tomatoes with juice, 1 cup dried corn (soaked), 1 cup dried okra (soaked), 2 onions, 3 tbs. fat, 1 tbs. sugar, 1 tbs. whole pickling spices (tied loosely in cheesecloth bag), salt and pepper to taste.

Cut meat into cubes, combine with diced onion and fat. Cook until meat is browned. Add other ingredients and continue cooking for about 1 1/2 hours or until the meat is tender and the mixture is of the consistency to eat with a fork. More liquid may need to be added if meat and vegetables are slow to tender.

ANOTHER DRY HOLE?

In the constant search for new oil reserves in Texas, even the dry holes benefit the communities in which they are drilled.

They mean employment and wages for Texas labor, lease money for Texas farmers and ranchers and many other expenditures which benefit all lines of business.

2,300 dry holes were drilled in Texas last year at a cost of nearly 60 million dollars. Since oil was discovered in Texas, 52,000 dry holes have been drilled in all sections of the State at an expense of more than one billion dollars.

This billion dollar research has already resulted in the discovery in Texas of over half of all the known petroleum reserves of the Nation. The creation of this wealth will benefit Texas citizens for generations to come.

Whether the oil man wins or loses, the community always gains.

Seeing the Crops Over Old Terry

In the past week the writer has driven over some 50 miles of the highways and by-ways of Terry county. In fact, we have been in almost every section of the county, and after a spin of some 30 miles Sunday afternoon, we are convinced that the fellow at Lubbock who guessed that Terry county would make 37,000 bales of cotton is no far from right.

Our trail Sunday afternoon took us through the Pleasant Valley, Challis, Southern Needmore, Harmony and the area between Gomez and Brownfield. On Friday afternoon, the section west and southwest of Gomez for several miles was visited. We saw cotton that would be pronounced good in any man's country. True we saw some cotton that is late and will not make more than a quarter to a third bale per acre. On the other hand, we saw thousands of acres that will go from a half to three quarters, and we would not be surprised that some of it yields a bale per acre, if frost is on average time.

We saw some mighty good corn, and some not so good, especially where weeds are as high as the corn. We saw fields of grain like as we have never seen here or elsewhere, some of which will push up to two tons per acre. And the acreage is so great, we hardly know what the farmer is to do with all of it.

Great is old Terry.

Cherry Foster, west side tire and general auto supply dealer stated to a representative of the Herald last week that he was getting real results from his ads, and wanted us to continue them and add one he had dropped.

Cherry, that pink-haired, smiling fellow who is the boss up there, always has a cherry word for friends and customers. He is a walking and talking advertisement for his own business. But ads do help, Cherry. Thanks!

The cotton estimate as of September 1, was 12,772,000 bales for the U. S. It also raised the Texas estimate some 800,000 bales from August, as that month proved to be a good growing month, especially in West Texas. The nation had a high of 250 pounds per acre.

J. O. Wheatley, that red-faced, pretty boy of the Johnson community handed in another dollar last week, and maintained he gave us another last year that he got no credit for. Being noted for truth and veracity with everybody except C. Sears, we gave him credit for two years.

Makes Self Useful As Well As Ornamental

Who in Brownfield or Terry county doesn't know that smiling and beautiful young lady, who shares herself with dad, mother and brother, as one of Terry's many sweethearts. No one has ever met Doris Lee Gore, daughter of Sheriff and Mrs. Ches Gore of

Miss Doris Lee Gore

Terry county, without realizing that her million dollar smile is not forced, but just as natural as flowers in May.

Doris Lee Gore came into this old world at the family home on south Seventh Street in 1920, and is therefore 20 years of age. She finished high school here in 1938, making a high average all through grammar and high school. She was a general favorite with class mates and other students, and was always on the public speaking team, representing her class. She also took great interest in the Cub Football team, being leader of the pep squad in her Senior year, and such a pep squad she lead!

Entering Tech college the year she graduated from high school, she has had two years, and has been a favorite in college as well as high school. She became a member of the Ko Shari club in her freshman year, and is still a member. She is majoring in speech (eloquence to you old timers.) She will not attend Tech at the beginning of the fall semester as she is helping dad in the assessor-collector's office, which will be separated from the Sheriff's office the coming January 1st.

She and Herbert Chesshir, the other deputy, were up to their eyes in work, Monday when the writer appeared for this interview. They are making up the tax rolls for this year. Miss Doris Lee remarked that she liked the work better than housekeeping. However, she has had her full share of that as her mother has been ill for the past several weeks, and ordered to bed. A great Terry county product, if you ask us.

The FASHION FROCK Of The Week

Glamorous "TWO-TONES" As Worn in Hollywood by Binnie Barnes Popular Featured Film Player

The wardrobe of the ultra-smart women today demands that a two-tone dress be included. It is very fashionable and in harmonious color combinations, plus good style features is very flattering. This one meets these qualifications beautifully. The full sleeves caught at the wrist, the full folds of skirt and full back of the blouse are fashion trends that put this week's frock in the front of the fashion parade. A simple collar topped a row of decorative mottled ivory buttons leads to a self two-color belt that ties in a full bow at the waist. Deep pockets are almost hidden in the full folds of the skirt. There are loads of smart style in this dress, and with its two-color contrast it rates tops. Miss Barnes wears a steel blue with cherry red. Another good color combination is lava green with chicory brown.

BAND GETS TEXT BOOKS

This year, for the first time, textbooks are being furnished by the state for band students. The Brownfield High School has just received a shipment of these books and they will be issued to students registered for band. The state adopted textbook for band is the Victor Method of Class Instruction for Band and Orchestra. This method is published in eight graded books and provides material for students of all degrees of advancement. This addition to the free textbook supply should greatly facilitate the teaching of band in the schools, since it will no longer be necessary for the students to buy instruction books or practice material.

A $6,000 Home for Sale at $3,000

Such a "want" ad appeared in the Jayton Chronicle last week, and the article was so very good that we wish to pass the thought along. Of course there was no $6,000 home in Jayton offered for half price any more than there is in Brownfield. But circumstances could bring about such a condition. It has happened in oil boom towns that boomed too much.

Suppose each person in Brownfield and Terry county took a fool notion to run off to some other town and buy each and every article they eat, wear or use? How long do you suppose your home would be worth what it cost you, or at what an appraiser would value it? Did you know that property in your town is worth just about what you make it? Did you know that good, modern stores doing a profitable business annually, makes your property? Did you know that good farms and good farm trade stimulates not only the price of the farm but the property in the towns as well.

Suppose we ignore those facts, and run off to another town or sit down and order everything we need? How long do you suppose it would be until you would be glad to exchange your $6,000 home

BIBLE STILL BEST SELLER

Regardless of "Gone with the Wind," and other popular fiction sellers, including war books, the Bible remains the best-seller with Beaumont readers, said Mrs. Alex Szafir, manager of a local book store in that city.

"When death and destruction come, people invariably turn more to the Bible, both for solace and to trace its prophecies," she added.

Report Suspicious Characters to Officers

A good lady called the Herald office one day last week to report that a suspicious looking character had been at her home begging; that he looked plenty able to work. This happened right after the Cicero Smith burglary.

We have an idea that it would be a good idea for ladies to report such cases, not to the Herald, but to city and county officers. Big, able bodied men that are able to work have no business begging from house to house.

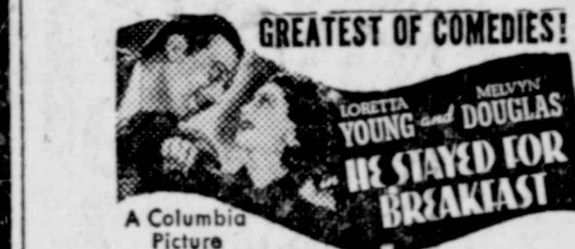

There should be some way to put them to work or run them out of town. Too often, they have other "trades" than begging.

Mrs. S. F. Rodgers of Amarillo was here from Friday to Monday visiting her father, J. H. O'Connor, and sister, Mrs. Nannie Hamilton.

Arlie Miller and family of the Harmony community spent the past week end in Ruidoso.

TOM MAY TREATS-AMARILLO DISTRICT OFFICE FORCE

Tom May went to Amarillo Sunday to take a truck load of Terry county watermelons, as a treat to the Amarillo district Magnolia office force. He has been sponsoring this party annually for the past ten years. He was accompanied by R. L. Bowers.

Texas had an increase of a bit over 10 per cent in the past ten years, some 120 counties gaining and the rest of the 252 losing. This is the smallest growth in many decades if ever on a percentage basis. The state is credited with 6,418,321 in 1940, as against 5,824,715 in 1930.

Most engineering graduates believe in engineering training whether they follow engineering or branch into other activities. They feel that no other training gives so much value in mental discipline, in practical understanding of the world today, and in the opportunities to perform important work in this scientific age.
