

JONES THEATRES CELEBRATING THEIR TWENTIETH ANNIVERSARY THIS WEEK

These Show Houses Have Kept Well Abreast Or Ahead Of The City Of Brownfield. Mrs. Jones A Good Judge Of Appropriate Picture And Buys The Best. Always Ready To Help The Community.

The three thoroughly modern theatres belonging to Mrs. Ethel Jones, the Rialto, Rio and Ritz, are a far cry from their modest little efforts to show the old silents of two decades ago. At that time, the show was housed in the crowded little area of the old American Legion Hall on fifth street, with a bat's nest built on stilts in the rear for the operator. The breaks were frequent, but it was our only amusement, and we enjoyed it—wants to fix breaks and all.

A little less than a year later, or about 1922, the late husband of Mrs. Jones, Earl, and Arnett Bynum opened the Pastime on the north side of the square, about where the Ritz is now located. Good shows, or the best that could be bought at that time continued until the fine new Rialto was built and opened May 24th, 1925. The Pastime building was then transformed into a store, as it was thought perhaps that it would be years before another show would be needed in Brownfield. And it was, but Brownfield just kept on growing.

In 1935, it was seen that another show was needed here to take care of the increasing patronage and thus bringing to the theatre goes an added show program each week. So, the Ritz was built and was opened to the public with its first performance in August, 1935, with a first class projector and talkie devices Sound equipment was installed in the Rialto in 1928. However, new sound equipment was installed a few years later, when it had been greatly improved.

With the town and country still growing by leaps and bounds and with oil discoveries in Gaines and Yoakum counties, there was a demand for the third theatre and the Rio, built and equipped with the most modern architecture and machinery that money could buy, was opened in October, 1938. Several years before that time, Earl Jones had bought the interest of his partner in the Rialto, and he found himself the owner and manager of three fine show houses.

A weakened condition brought on by the first World War precluded that Earl was not to live but a few months after the opening of his third show house, as he passed away on the 6th day of April, 1939. As luck would have it, a faithful wife had gone with him nightly to help with the shows, and she was thoroughly trained in the operation as well as the business management of the shows when the blow fell on her shoulders. She not only assumed the management of the shows, but went forward with the rearing and education of her family of two girls and two boys. Both girls are now grown and in college, while the two boys, Bobby and Sammy have taken their places as auxiliary operators and are making good. When at home, the girls act as ticket salesladies at the boxoffice, or as ushers. She truly has four lovely children that any mother could be proud of.

There are so few wives that can take up the broken thread mend it and keep going. Like her husband, Mrs. Ethel Jones had a host of friends, real friends, who encouraged her in every way, and she has made a marvelous manager. And like Earl, nothing in the way of help for the good of the community, or as at present to help her country in the time of need, but that she stands ready not only to help personally, but to throw the power of her shows into the campaign. Is there need of a free show for the kiddies of the community to entertain them when Santa Claus comes to town, or is it a drive of some kind? Whatever the idea, her shows were ready to do their part. Only recently she gave a pass, war tax and all to all mothers in the area, who had boys in the service, and it was stated to us that a surprisingly large number came for the show. The feature for that day, which was Mother's Day, May 10th, was very appropriate for the occasion, being "Always In My Heart."

In the page ad in this issue you will note that there is an unusually good program for the entire week, which has been bought and brought to Brownfield as a fitting part to the Anniversary Celebration of the Jones Theatres. The regular employees are, Pete Tiernan, R. C. Zant, Robert Adams, Madeline Tiernan, Sue Jones, Mary Alice Tidwell and Mrs. Glen Akers. The auxiliaries are Bobby and Sammy Jones and Gertrude Jones.

The Herald greets the Jones Theatres on the 20th anniversary of their performances in Brownfield. They have brought laughter, entertainment and educational features to our people that have been clean and wholesome. Before the days of rigid censorship, there were some questionable features, and we personally know that several were turned down and never shown here, after the picture was run prior to show hour, and other pictures substituted that were obtained from other nearby towns. Questionable pictures these days, however, are extremely rare.

Number Attend Dist. 2-T Lions Convention

Quite a large number of people from Brownfield attended the district 2-T convention of Lions in Odessa, this week. Registration started Sunday afternoon, and the convention lasted through Tuesday. Those who attended it say it was a great convention, the delegates being well entertained.

The following were named by our informant as those who attended part or all sessions: Messrs. and Mesdames Burton Hackney, Homer Newman, Bill McKinney, Tommie Black, and Messrs. Pat Patterson, Dick McGinty and Dennis Lilly.

Murry Fly, School Supt. at Odessa, was elected the next district governor. Next meeting place is open. The Brownfield crowd had charge of the program at one of the banquets.

Pat M. Neff Heads Southern Baptists

At the recent Southern Baptist convention held in San Antonio, President Pat M. Neff, of Baylor University of Waco was named to head the convention. Neff is also ex-governor of Texas.

Pat M. Neff has many personal friends in Brownfield and Terry county, having visited this section about 1918 to make the principal address at a picnic and celebration of the coming of the Santa Fe railroad. He was then serving as district attorney of McLennan county.

He has a wide acquaintance, and has the best memory of faces and names perhaps of any man in Texas. He also has a great personality, and always carried Terry county by big odds.

Member RCAF Home On Short Furlough

G. W. (Dale) Hutchings, Jr., son of Mrs. C. E. Motley, of Monohans, is home from a short furlough from the Royal Canadian Air Force. Mrs. Motley, better known perhaps as Mrs. Rentfro here, was for many years a teacher in the Brownfield schools, and Dale graduated from the Brownfield high school, or the first year after they moved to Monohans, we have forgotten which.

Dale has but recently graduated as a flyer and stood third in a class of 160, according to his mother, who was a caller at the Herald office Monday. He spent one day in Brownfield visiting his friends and school mate. The rest of his stay here was with his aunts and uncles, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Lyon and Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Goza, out on the farm in the Hunter Community, southwest of town. Thence on to visit his mother at Monohans.

Dale has made wonderful progress with the RCAF, and will be stationed for the present in Nova Scotia on coast guard duty. However, he has his affections set on a transfer back to the air force of his native land, USA.

Dale stated to his mother while here that he had enjoyed his training in Canada very much, and that the Canadian people had been really nice to him.

To The Voters Of Brownfield

After careful consideration of the matter, particularly as to my qualifications for the place, I have decided to enter the race for City Secretary of Brownfield, subject to action of the special City election to be held June 23.

I would like to state especially for the benefit of those of you who might not know me personally, that I have had a considerable amount of experience in the type of work which comprises the City Secretary's duties. Until recently I have been employed as bookkeeper for the Teague-Bailey Chevrolet Co. and the loss of this employment was through no fault of my work, as all of you know. In all, I have had many years of experience in the keeping of records of various kinds and in general accounting work. So far as any employer has ever let me know, my work has been satisfactory.

I have been a resident of Brownfield for three years and have tried at all times to be friendly and courteous in all my dealings. I invite a thorough investigation of my record which I believe you will find qualifies me for this place. If elected, I promise every citizen of the city I will diligently devote myself to the duties of the office and will strive at all times to render complete satisfaction.

I will cooperate 100 per cent with the other city officials and will do the best I can to see that your city government is as good and efficient in every way as can be found anywhere.

I plan to carry on an active campaign and will try to see every voter in the city so that I may discuss my candidacy in person with all of you. If, however, I do not see some of you, it will be because I simply was not able to do so, and I want you to investigate my qualifications. If you find you conscientiously can give me your vote and influence, I assure you it will be greatly appreciated.

Yours sincerely,
Grady Goin.

Showers Fell Here Monday Afternoon

Thirty-seven hundredths of an inch of rain fell here Monday afternoon that revived the grass and vegetation, and made the War Gardens look up much more than a big watering with the hose. There was a bit of small hail with it.

Not much rain fell west of town, and none a dozen miles out, it was stated to us. To the east it was heavier with a severe hail report, east of Union and on toward Lamesa.

Company D Completes First Aid Course

Forty-six officers and men and sixteen supernumeraries from the local guard unit—62 in all—have recently completed the prescribed Red Cross First Aid course and will receive their certificates in the near future. This is a most enviable record among guard units, as about six is the largest number yet reported from any other company.

Sgts. E. G. Akers and T. R. Black were instructors for the course.

Announcement was made at last Tuesday night's drill period that there was now several vacancies in the company and a class of about twenty men will be started early in June. Those expecting to be called to duty in the regular Army are advised to take advantage of this opportunity to acquire at least some of the rudiments of Infantry Drill before they are called. We are all acquainted with the men who make up the officer and non-commissioned officer personnel of the local company and they are willing to give you all the help they can—even spend as much extra time with you as you wish, but the Army drill sergeant is not given to wasting sympathy on a raw recruit that he has never seen before. Therefore, a little preliminary training here at home and given by men who know and like him, is likely to spare the potential draftee some unpleasant moments after he is called into the "big Army."

Houston Hamilton, who has served some six years as an enforcement officer, three and one-half years as Sheriff's deputy and two and a half years on the police force as night officer, authorizes us to announce his candidacy for the office of City Marshal of Brownfield subject to the special election on June 23.

Mr. Hamilton came to Terry county in 1926, is married and has four children. He is well known to most people who have been here any length of time, but being a night officer, he wishes to refer the new comer, who may not have met him to those who have. He is willing to leave it to those who know him as to his qualifications for the office he seeks.

Houston Hamilton Announces For City Marshal

He will try to see all city voters if possible before the election, to personally present his claims. If elected he promises to faithfully perform his duties as an officer without fear or favor, and to cooperate 100 per cent with the city council, the mayor and all city, county and state officers in enforcing the law.

Alva Lee Runnels Gets Vacation Next Week

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Runnels are leaving this week for the Buchanan Lake near Austin, where they will fish a few days, thence on to Austin and the Texas School for the Deaf, where they will join their daughter, Miss Alva Lee, and bring her home after commencement is over.

Miss Alva Lee is not graduating this year, but of course wants to stay until her friends in the senior class have received their diplomas.

Brownfield Steam Laundry Changes Hands

Mr. S. S. Tidwell of Portales, N. M., has recently purchased the Brownfield Steam Laundry from Jim Miller, who has entered the Aviation school at Lubbock. The Herald welcomes Mr. Tidwell to Brownfield.

Miller has been the owner and manager of the laundry several years and his work has given satisfaction. The new owner stated to the Herald that he was making no changes in the working personnel of the laundry.

So, Now It's Lieutenant Gene Hurt

Had a card yesterday from Gene Hurt at Ft. Benning, Ga., stating that Uncle Sam had determined to ruin a good soldier by making a lieutenant out of him. He is to graduate and get his bars on the 25th.

Gene advises us to hold up his paper, as he don't know whether they will send him back to Texas or Timbucto, and says Gene, "it makes little difference to me." "Regards to all my friends," was his closing remarks.

Highway Men To Pick Up Scrap Metal

So acute has become the metal situation, that the State Highway maintenance crews are authorized to pick up scrap metal if placed along the right-of-way, according to B. L. McPherson, local Maintenance Foreman of the highway department. This metal must not be placed on the roadway, but along the right-of-way.

As the men come in from their day's work, trucks will stop and pick up this metal as they go in home. Tin cans and old car bodies are not wanted, as they are too heavy to load. Anything under 400 pounds of scrap metal can be loaded. Farmers are urged to clean up iron, steel, and other valuable metal that is not needed about their places, and put it where it can be picked up by the highway trucks.

To give you an idea of just what scrap metal means in terms of munitions and guns, the following table is given by the war production board:

5 pounds	4 hand grenades
420 pounds	210 rifles (.30 cal.)
850 lbs.	150 light machine guns
2 tons	8 anti-tank guns
15 tons	1 tank
15,000 tons	1 battleship

Judge J. Ross Bell Makes Formal Statement

J. Ross Bell was born 58 years ago in Tennessee. Received his law degree and was licensed to practice law in 1910. Taught school two years in public schools of Miss., and West Texas. Came to West Texas 32 years ago and began the practice of law.

He is a married man and has one son who is now serving in the

J. ROSS BELL

Air Corps of the United States Army.

For eight years District Attorney of Baylor, Cottle, King, Knox, Dickens and Motley Counties, retiring of his own accord. One of the outstanding lawyers of West Texas. Has participated in the trial of many important cases before both State and Federal Courts including the Courts of Civil Appeals as well as the Supreme Court of Texas. Many people in each of the 46 counties of this district are acquainted with him and know his qualifications both as a man and lawyer. His qualifications for the position he now seeks has not been questioned.

For many years active in the advancement of the civic, agricultural and religious interests of West Texas.

The present emergency will prevent him from seeing many of the people of the District but the support of all will be greatly appreciated and is respectfully solicited.

Smiths Locating At Rock Island

Mrs. Emmitt Smith phoned us this week to change their paper to Rock Island, Ill., where Mr. Smith has entered civil service work for the government.

Before joining her husband, she will visit relatives at Tulsa, Texas. Until recently Mr. Smith was superintendent of our schools, and Mrs. Smith was a member of the faculty.

Alvin Lee Smith Here Visiting Home Folks

A home town boy that went through the scrap with the Japs December 7th at Pearl Harbor, came in last week from his ship, Pelias, which Alvin terms the "mother ship," to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Smith and family. Alvin Lee was not very talkative, which of course, being one of the Navy regulations not to do so.

However, he did state that he was wounded in the arm, and the souvenir he promised us in a letter of a few weeks ago, was a piece of shrapnel taken from his arm. We suppose it is a part of the huge shipments of scrap iron we gladly sold those Rats several years ago, now being returned to us.

He also stated that he was on the ship or ships that slipped into Manila Bay but recently, carrying the last load of ammunition and food for the fighters on Corregidor and bringing away some 30 million dollars in gold and silver belonging to the Philippine government, which was safely landed in the U. S., on the west coast.

That was the reason, we presume, that he got a short furlough. Alvin Lee gave no one any hopes of a short war, however, as he believes, it will be a long, hard one. Tuesday, when several young men left in a bus for training camps, he was present at the bus station to see them off. "Many more will have to go," he stated, but added, "I sure like to see them go like this bunch willingly, and with determination written on their faces."

Alvin Lee joined the Navy last August at Lubbock, and after a short training period on the west coast was assigned to the Pelias. He is a first class seaman. A younger brother, Alfred, is in training as a radio man at the University of Wisconsin.

Farm Laborers To Register

On account of shortage of farm laborers in Terry County, plans have been made through the State Department of Labor to have all high school students and heads of families that will take farm jobs as tractor drivers or to chop cotton on our farms to register on Monday, May 25, in the basement of the courthouse from 8 to 12 A. M. Mrs. Hazel Holt, head of the County Welfare Department, will be glad to take your name and address.

When jobs are open, Mrs. Holt will address you by mail or telephone where you are to report for jobs.

You will be serving your County during this emergency by registering for farm work. This registration is not compulsory.

Lieutenant Balfanz Reported Missing

The war department notified Mrs. L. Balfanz of this city this week that her son, Lieut. A. W. (Dub) Balfanz was missing. Lt. Balfanz had been in the fight on Bataan, but is reported to have escaped to Corregidor.

Whether or not he was killed, wounded or captured by the Japs when Corregidor was captured is unknown of course until the war department finds out more about the matter. There is a possibility that he will show up in the list of prisoners when and if Japan makes that fact known.

If he has been killed, he will be the second from Brownfield, since the war started, W. E. Henson being killed the day of the attack on Pearl Harbor, Dec. 7th

Roy Phillips Undecided What He Will Do

Had a chat with Roy Phillips, whose resignation took place recently with the local Farmers Co-operative Gin, as manager, and he stated that up to that time he had not fully decided what his next move would be but thought he would remain in the gin business.

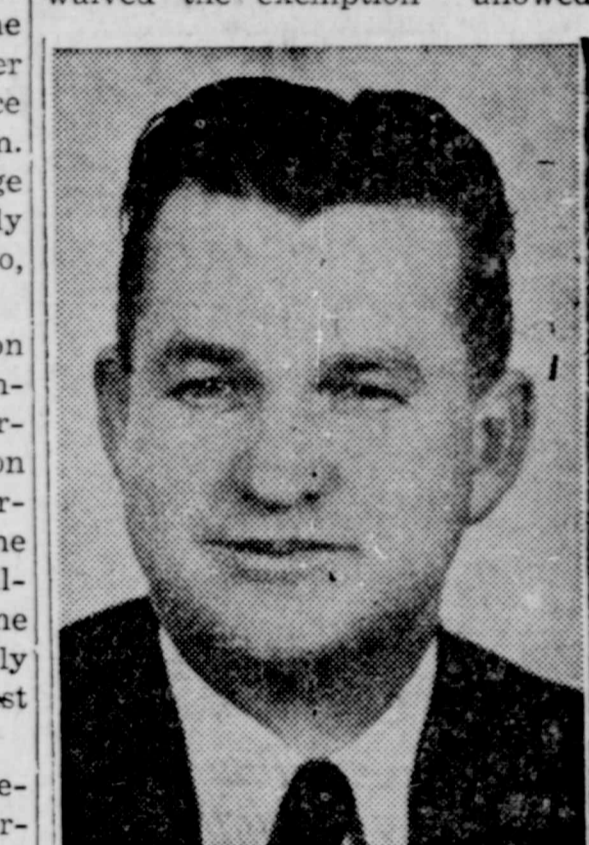

Roy is a good gin man, and we imagine that he will get a job as manager, or perhaps buy or build his own gin. Mr. Robinson has taken Roy's place as Farmers Co-Op. manager, and is said to be a good man for the place.

Sen. Marshall Formby Now Buck Private

PLAINVIEW, May 15—It's now Private Marshall Formby of the U. S. Army. In this district he's still Senator Formby, however.

Private Formby was inducted May 11 at Lubbock and went from there to Fort Sill, Okla. He did not know Saturday (15th) where he would be stationed.

Private Formby, 31, single, did not apply for a commission, but waived the exemption allowed legislators and took the $21-a-month job.

Private Formby enlisted at Dickens where he registered in the draft. He is a graduate of Texas Technological College and has engaged in newspaper work at Aspermont, Lubbock, Miami, Fla., and at Plainview, coming here a year ago from Dickens County.

The senator-soldier said before leaving here that he had made arrangements for his constituents to contact his Austin office by communicating with Miss Fay Davis who will attend to duties concerning this senatorial district. Miss Davis who is employed in the lieutenant governor's office will be kept informed of Formby's address.

Private Formby's term (in the legislature) does not expire until January of 1945.

"As to my term with Uncle Sam," Formby said, "it will terminate when we have walloped a bunch of gangsters who are trying to strangle the world to death on a lot of 'new orders' we Americans can't stomach."

Regional Jaycee Convention Here Monday

The local Junior Chamber of Commerce will have the honor of entertaining the regional convention here Monday. This region covers scores of west Texas counties. There will be a chuck wagon lunch at 8:30 P. M., at the American Legion Hall, for which tickets are now being sold.

The business session will be held in the afternoon, at which time plans will be made for the "On to Dallas State and National Convention" which will be held June 16-20.

The main speaker for the chuck wagon feed will be Dr. Wm. Pierce of Tech College. His subject will cover Inter-American Co-operation, and the furthering of Bond sales.

In this connection, it might be stated that a Bond Meter has been erected at corner of Main and Sixth streets that shows bond sales from day to day.

lation. Although this district touches the sea in no place and might be termed a landlubber district, it stands ahead of some that are very much closer to the briny deep. And when it comes to enlistments for all war departments, north Texas leads the nation.

Some nine of our sun tanned boys answered the call of their country this week, leaving for training camps somewhere. A few others were off at work, and will join the contingent from Terry county. A few of them go to officers' training camps. These boys had very few jokes to crack, but determination to serve their country well was written plainly in their faces. Mothers, dads, sisters and brothers, as well perhaps as sweethearts were on hand to see them off. Those were a bunch of Spartan mothers; not a tear was shed that we saw until son was out of sight, on the bus after it had pulled out. Then, and not till then, did we see one of these mothers break down and shed tears. But son didn't see her. God bless her and other mothers of the fighting men, and God bless their sons wherever they may be.

Air raids in this country, and we can and very likely will have several of them, will in all likelihood be more for psychological effects on the population than for the real damage they may do to military objectives. It will be to panic the people. Can we take it as well as our British cousins? That point remains to be seen. If and when we have such raids do not try to spread fear and confusion by overdrawn reports of damage and number of casualties. That is just what your enemy wants. To keep down exaggerated reports, let the proper authorities do that, after a full investigation. Conflicting reports will make us appear ridiculous in the eyes of all countries. That is exactly what happened in Japan after the raid on them; they went to pieces, offering little or no resistance, as they are regimented and cannot act as individuals. They are still trying to find out where those planes came from, and their white brethren in Germany are now reporting that they came from that mythical destination that President Roosevelt gave the press several weeks ago, a non-existent place named by some novelist in his book.

New Trucking Law Will Hit All Hard

All of west Texas has reason to be alarmed at the recent order from the Office of Defense Transportation Commission, soon to go into effect which among its provisions sets forth that no truck may traverse the highways in inter-city trade unless loaded to capacity in one direction, and 75 per cent loaded for the return trip, or words to practically that effect.

Many local business houses are alarmed, as rigid enforcement of the war law would stop two-thirds of the trucks which regularly supply this area with vital provisions.

Fresh vegetables from the outside would almost be barred; it would be practically impossible to ship eggs by truck; practically all groceries that come here come by truck. Bread trucks, grain trucks, trucks of almost any and every kind would be affected.

Dozens of telegrams and letters have been rushed to our Senators and Congressmen protesting the order the past week, and more are on the way.—County-Wide News, Littlefield.

GOOD RIDDANCE

Bon voyage to nearly 1,000 guests who have been enjoying the hospitality of this country, generally against their will and ours too, for many months. And few "au revoirs." In most cases Americans hope never to see them again. They are mainly diplomats and other foreign officials who have represented their countries in the United States and Latin-America, and with whose governments this country is now at war, actually or technically.

Among them are the insolent gents from Japan who were smiling and bowing in the State Department at Washington at the very moment when their government was bombing Pearl Harbor and raining death on 3,000 Americans.

Uncle Sam has been maintaining most of them at government expense until they could be exchanged for Americans stranded abroad. Here is a situation where Americans get a break. We benefit both ways from the swap. And it is natural to feel a sense of cleansing as those alien enemies leave our shores.

They will not sail in the dark, subject to attack by lurking submarines, as so many of our people have had to do. Forty floodlights will illumine their ship by night. And it would be wicked to wish them bad luck on the way over.—Amarillo Times.

BIGGER LIES

Have just been reading an article in the Texas Citizen paper written by "A. Hope Wheeler." I don't know Wheeler, but he told a bunch of plain lies about Gov. Coke Stevenson. Among the lies, he says that the Governor is a "Roosevelt hater," and that the Governor "sold the old people down the river," and that he is "owned and controlled by Wall Street!" As a matter of fact the Governor has cooperated with the national administration as often as has Senators Connally and O'Daniel. He never forgot the interests of the old folks, and has done more in their behalf than any governor to date because he was fortunate in having both legislative bodies on his side, having served in both the State Senate and House of Representatives for several years. He does smoke a pipe, but Wheeler forgot to mention that fact. But Governor Stevenson does not drink hard liquors and has the utmost respect of all the good citizens who really know him in every-day life. The Governor is self-educated, studied law nights and made his own way because his parents did not have the means to school him in that day and time. Frankly, I know of few old country boys who have come up through the ranks and achieved victory who can take it as gracefully as Gov. Coke R. Stevenson. He is a real man. As a personal friend, I resent the implications of Wheeler in his article, and thousands of other Texans will do the same. There isn't a man in Texas today more worthy of the high office of Governor than Coke Stevenson.—Clarendon Leader.

The local Boy Scouts were out Wed., delivering card to sustaining members, and thanking them personally for their interest in the Boy Scout movement. These boys are doing a wonderful work during these war times. It was stated that they were on the job aiding the wounded at Pearl Harbor soon after the bombing.

When the canning season rolls around, each family will be allowed five pounds of sugar extra for that purpose. This sounds light to those perhaps that have been used to buying it by the hundred pounds for that purpose, but we'll have to go lightly on many things in order that our fighting men fall heavy on the Yaps and Japs.

What came near being a real big Panhandle tragedy last week, happened at the little city of Hedley in Hall County when 65 pupils and 8 of their teachers got ptomaine poisoning from eating at a WPA lunch room. Ambulances from McLean, Clarendon and Memphis were called into services and hastened the victims to hospitals in these towns, where scores of physicians and nurses began work. Next day, it was announced all were out of danger. An investigation of the food is to be made.

It appears now that with a rationing of sugar, those old sorghum mills will be resurrected in Terry county, cleaned and sterilized and make some more "sweetening." We note that a syrup maker down in Gaines county has already announced such a move. We believe that there are at least three mills in Terry county, or were a few years ago, that can be put to good use. Once again, we may be enjoying those good old "lasses" puddings cakes and sorghum pies, and like them as sugar for cakes and pies will be out of the question, regularly.

You remember a few years ago, a favorite spell of the Navy to get recruits was, "join the Navy and see the world." A change has been made in that motto. Now it's "join the Navy and complete your education or learn a trade while freeing the world." And while on the subject of the Navy, a subject every loyal American likes to talk about, we might mention that the north Texas district, which comprises this section, stands seventh in naval enlistments in the United States, per 100,000 popu-

Allred Launches Action Program For War, Peace

James V. Allred, who resigned a lifetime appointment as United States District Judge to reenter active political life as a candidate for United States junior senator, has based his campaign on vigorous support of President

JUDGE JAMES V. ALLRED

Roosevelt's war and peace program.

For winning the war, the former governor has sounded the demand. There must be no strikes, no slow downs, no violations on the part of either capital or labor to interrupt war production." He challenged unconscionable war profits, and denounced "cartel agreements and trading with the enemy."

In calling for uninterrupted production, Allred reminded the people of his own spirited fight as Texas governor against sit-down strikes.

"I mean these commitments now, just as I meant what I said in 1937 when sit-down strikes were sweeping the nation," he declared. "I was the only governor in 48 states to speak out on this subject then, before it was popular. I said there would be no sit-down strikes in Texas and there were none."

The candidate affirmed all-out support of President Roosevelt's war program and "the Atlantic

Union News, Or Personal Opinion -Which?

We see that our broad minded editor has been saying a few good things about the tillers of the soil.

The farmers should take pride in the fact that among the many problems of this nation at the beginning of this war, there was no shortage of food. Of all industries necessary to win this war the farm industry alone was ready when the conflict came. What is more, it was ready following several years of crop restrictions, which goes to show that critics of the triple-A farm program did not know what they were talking about when they said our farm program was creating an era of scarcity. Even the pulpit rang out with statements that our farm program meant more hungry people, but the fact is the food and feed crops that the farmers produced in 1941 was an all-time record breaker.

There is no cotton shortage today, but every one should know that to abolish crop control would mean more cotton and less food crops for ourselves and our fighting allies.

Crop control, by a majority vote is Democracy, and no one should wish to abolish Democracy. Some say farm prices are too high. Let's consider these facts:

1. Farm prices increased 33 per cent from December, 1939, to November, 1941, but still are 22 per cent less than they were in April, 1917, the beginning of World War No. 1.

2. On the other hand, weekly wages of factory workers increased 31 per cent during this period and in November, 1941, were 125 per cent more than in April, 1917. On November 1, 1941, cotton was selling for 21 per cent less than in 1919. But factory worker's wages were 125 per cent of 1917 and 60 per cent over 1919.

Is the farmer getting a parity price for his products, and if so, some one explain what is parity.

The farmers should not wish to be profiteers—in fact farm prices should not go too high as it is important that farm people keep the good will of the public, whether John L. Lewis and his bunch do or not.

The horny-handed sons of toil have never failed their country in Charter for winning the peace" and stated, "I will undertake to frustrate the designs of those who will attempt to sabotage President Roosevelt's peace plans, just as they crucified Woodrow Wilson."

Allred, who at the age of 19 left a draft-exempt job to join the United States Navy in the first World War, blasted as "false propaganda" reports that President Roosevelt would hold open for him the federal judgeship which he resigned to enter the senatorial race, or appoint him as a judge in some other district, declaring such reports "a reflection upon the President and myself."

Hitting the campaign trail with the vigor that characterized his successful bids as two-term-Attorney General and Governor of Texas, the black-haired, 43-year-old candidate said he would take his program to the people "just as I always have, looking them in the eye, speaking from the record."

Allred said he had pitched his battle "upon the highest plane I know, a record of experience against inexperience, of accomplishment against failure, of respect for Texas."

He said that he would not employ personal abuse but would deal with the written record.

times of emergencies, and they will not fail this time. When we think the war news is bad, our minds should go back to the military campaigns of George Washington.

For five long, weary years Washington fought a war of retreat. During that time he won but few battles. He left most of the battlefields in retreat.

Washington and his small army, with no money and less credit, fought on and on—and won—and laid the foundation for this nation with all it has meant to all of us. We need the courage, the tenacity and the faith that was Washington's to win.

We are now producing the greatest war machine the world has ever known. When our country goes for all-out war production, we can and will outproduce our enemies.

We must not only win the war but we must also win the peace. Will Rogers once said that our country had never lost a war, nor won a peace conference. This must be an exception to that rule.

Our boys will soon be fighting in different parts of the world. Some will make the supreme sacrifice. It is for us, the living, to see that they shall not have died in vain. We have seen the Spartan mother, with a "God Bless you," as she bade her son go to war, and return with an honorable discharge at the close of the struggle, or leave his body on a foreign battlefield, broken and bloody.

Those who are permitted to stay at home should not complain of the sacrifices we must make. If it takes our tires, our cars, or even the shirts off our backs to win this war we should not complain, for even then we would be doing but precious little compared with what our soldier boys are doing.

This is not a political letter, yet I wonder if we are going to send our boys to war where they may kill or get killed and then send men to Congress who say "Thou shalt not kill."

If it is wrong to kill a desperado in the electric chair, then I wonder if it is not also wrong to kill a bunch of criminals on the battlefield.

Maybe we have a candidate who will be able to reconcile the people to his attitude on the "Thou shalt not kill" commandment and also explain why he favors the successful prosecution of this war, or all-out production and at the same time, have as his platform "Thou shalt not kill."

Baptist Church News

The pastor and family were in attendance at the Southern Baptist Convention at San Antonio last Sunday but are expected to return this week and will be able to give a first hand report of the meeting next Sunday. In the absence of Pastor Rogers the pulpit was filled Sunday morning by the educational director from the church at Tahoka and the evening service was conducted by men of the local Brotherhood who gave a discussion of "Sin In Human Life" and their discussion was good but they needed a time keeper. Many of the men are losing much by failing to attend the monthly meetings of the Brotherhood and engage in the study of the Bible as well as matters concerning the progress of the work of our convention. Baptist churches are pure democracies and information of the membership is an absolute necessity to the successful promotion of their work and those not informed of the work and purposes being promoted show much indifference.

The church here has voted to establish a circulating library and will welcome the gift of good books of religious or literary value for such library and any such books will be left at the church office in the basement and all books that may be given for this purpose should be brought in before any new books are purchased that we may have a good selection of books. The library committee will greatly appreciate books from any source of historical or literary value as many people are not able to purchase books they would like very much to

WAR CHECKS FARM BUILDING

College Station, May 18—Recent War Production Board orders affecting construction of farm homes and buildings mean rural families in Texas may build little and repair much for the duration of the emergency. Purpose of the orders is to restrict the sale or use of materials necessary to the war effort.

There are a few exceptions to the order. For example, a farm building which costs less than $1,000 and will not be used for residential purposes may be built if materials are available. However, cost of several new buildings within any 12-month period must not exceed $1,000. All agricultural construction exceeding this figure must be authorized by the War Production Board. Individual applications should be filed with the County USDA Boards for transmittal.

New farm residential construction which will cost less than $500 is also exempt from the order. Mrs. Bernice Claytor Extension Service specialist in home improvement, says this means many farm families will need to do considerable repair on their homes to keep them in good shape and to protect health during the war period.

Farm residences costing $500 or more must be approved by WPB unless buildings damaged or destroyed by "fire, flood, tornado, earthquake, act of God or the public enemy" must be reconstructed or restored. Then no permit is necessary.

Among services specifically excluded from the OPA's Maximum Price Regulation are professional, advertising, insurance, entertainment, transportation, and barber shop.

PREPARED FOR ARCTIC OPERATIONS—Uncle Sam's soldiers are trained for duty in all climates. With snow shoes slung over their backs, the men in this platoon are marching into the unbroken trails along lofty summits of the Rocky Mountains for their field maneuvers. They are equipped for winter fighting at home or for rugged action in Alaska or other regions of the far north. These troops are instructed in operating from natural camouflage and in the deep snow.

On Sunday, May 24, Boyce House, the popular Texas newspaper and radio columnist, will read a number of poems and timely selections gleaned from Texas newspapers on his radio program, "I give you Texas and the Great Southwest", sponsored by the makers of Justin Boots and Shoes.

All these Selections are honey bits of observation and sentiment by Texas folks, and one of them, a poem entitled "The Cancelled Check," is from the Terry County Herald.

Boyce House is heard Sunday at 12:45 over Stations KGKO, Fort Worth-Dallas; KGNC, Amarillo; KTSB, San Antonio; and KXYZ, Houston.

Plains Panhandle Annual Singing Convention At Lubbock

The annual convention of the Plains Panhandle Singing Association which was organized in Lubbock county several years ago will meet again at Lubbock the first Sunday in June and Saturday afternoon and night before. The dates are June 6th and 7th.

This convention is composed of all the Texas Panhandle and Eastern New Mexico. The place is Central Baptist Church in Lubbock. Rev. Jeff Welch, the pastor of the church is cooperating very nicely in helping to make the convention a success.

We are expecting a large number of quartettes, trios and duets from all parts of West Texas and Eastern New Mexico, as well as plenty of song leaders.

Any and all song book publishers are welcome with their books and any company representative wishing to bring some of his company's books to the convention for the singers to use is welcome. We want everyone to feel that he is a part of the convention. We are expecting representatives from the Stamps-Baxter Music Company of Dallas and the Vaughn Music Company of Tennessee and probably others that we do not know of at present. All are cordially invited.

It is one of the largest conventions that meets in this part of the Panhandle and there will be some of the best talent available at the convention. Earl Raper, of Plainview, Texas, is Secretary, Tracy Campbell, of Lamesa, Texas, is Vice-President, and Lee Thompson, of Farwell, Texas, is President.

College Station, May 18—By observing several simple rules, homemakers successfully can substitute honey or molasses for part or all of the sugar required in their favorite recipes.

Hazel Phillips, Extension Service specialist in food preparation, says the characteristic flavors of molasses and orghum make many foods more delicious. Both vary in moisture and acidity, she says, so the amounts she recommends for sugar substitution are "approximate."

It takes about 1 1/2 cups of molasses or sorghum to equal one cup of sugar in sweetness. Each cup contains approximately one-fourth cup of water so the liquid in a recipe should be reduced in proportion. In products that are leavened, about one-fourth teaspoon of soda should be used for each cup of molasses or sorghum.

Miss Phipps gives this caution: Molasses and sorghum burn easily, so the temperature for baking should be lower than the temperature for baking mixtures made with sugar.

Rules for substituting honey for sugar are quite similar. Mixtures with honey brown easily and high heat changes the flavor of honey so cooking temperatures should be lowered. A cup of honey gives approximately the same amount of sweetness as one cup of sugar, so the exact amount may be substituted.

W. N. (Bill) Coory of Arlington, farmer and candidate for Commissioner of Agriculture, offers a constructive program.

Yoakum Co. Singing Convention May 24

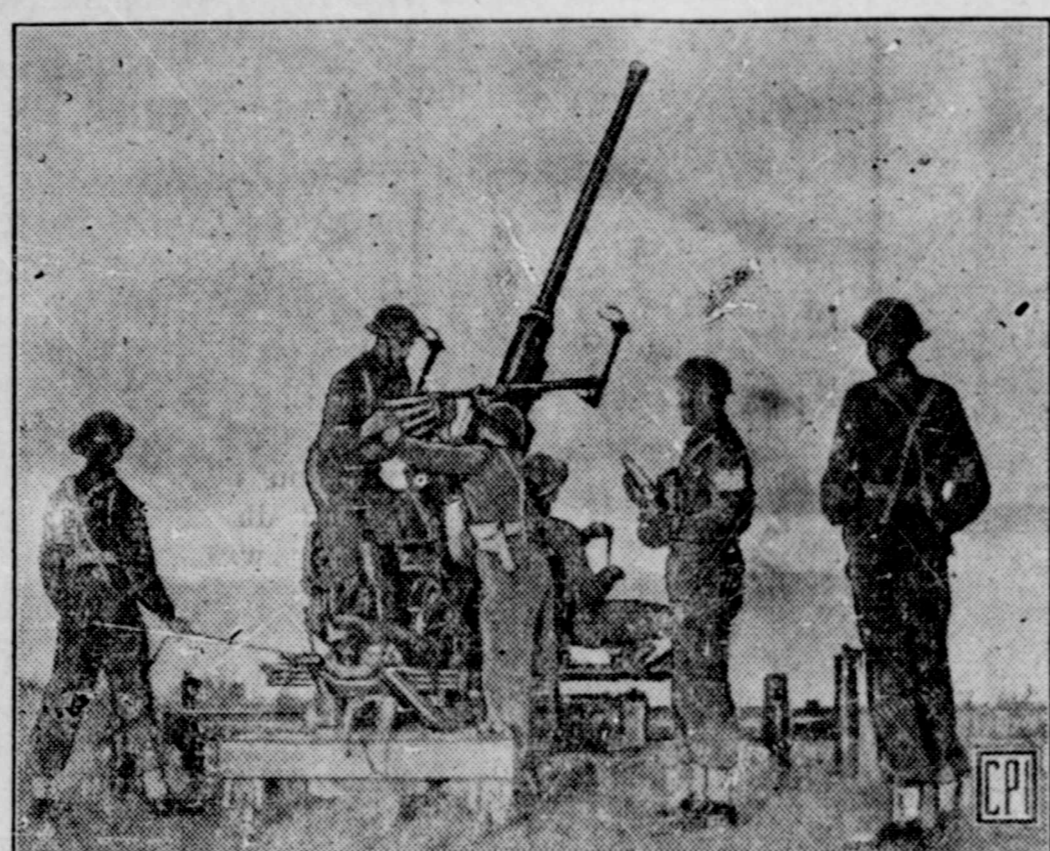

According to W. F. Snitker of Plains, the Yoakum County Singing Convention will meet in that city next Sunday, May 24, for their spring convention. Dinner will be served on the ground.

Good singers are expected to be in attendance from all over the plains of Texas and eastern New Mexico.

Tom May, W. R. McDuffie, Bruce Zorns, and J. B. Knight were Amarillo visitors Wednesday.

Mrs. Jack Bailey is visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Tarpley in Abilene.

Defending the Pacific Coast

CANADA'S west coast defenses have been vastly improved since the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor. The Bofors anti-aircraft gun in this photo is one of many, all manufactured in Canada, which stand ready to blast away at the first sign of an enemy raider. Because of the deafening noise which accompanies the rapid fire of the gun, the cease fire order is given the trigger man by a yank of the rope which the soldier at left holds in his hand. To equip and train the army which guards Canada at home and abroad, $1,000,000,000 will be spent in 1942-43. When it is complete there will be a Canadian army overseas of two corps. A division now in Canada will be equipped as an armoured unit, trained and sent overseas. Another army tank brigade will be created for use with infantry divisions. Defense of east and west coasts have been placed under two commands. Air, land and sea services in these areas, as well as in Newfoundland, have been placed under the single command of the senior officer in the area.

Spring House Cleaning Brings Accident Toll

Be careful during your Spring house cleaning, for this annual clean-up brings with it a heavy toll of accidents affecting both the woman and the man of the house, records show.

During the course of a year home accidents cause between 4,500,000 and 5,000,000 non-fatal injuries and some 33,000 fatal injuries. Half of the fatal injuries have resulted from falls alone.

Falls from step ladders, from windows while cleaning them, from roofs, on slippery or soapy floors, and over articles out of place are among the causes of such accidents.

'Air-Borne Infantry

Far cry from the "doughboy" who marched for days to capture his objective, are the troops whose mission it is to fly where their support is most needed, step from their transport plane and taking their place in the line, fully equipped, surprise and overpower the enemy. Airborne infantry also is equipped to disrupt communications and destroy command posts far behind the lines of battle.

SEASON OF DYSENTERY SAYS DR. COX

AUSTIN—The season of the year when the most complaints are received on account of diarrhea and dysentery or "Summer Complaint" is here and Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer has issued a warning to parents in regard to this, and offers the following suggestions to prevent its occurrence among babies. The chief causes of diarrhea include impure milk, water and contaminated foods, overheating, fever from any cause, too much sugar or cream in the diet, overfeeding and underfeeding.

Mother's milk is the safest food. However, if other milk is to be used, the supply should be clean and pure. The water should be clean, pure and boiled. Any other articles of food should be fresh and clean and no unsuitable articles of food such as cake and candy should be given.

If a feeding formula is used, it should be one prescribed by a physician and it must be prepared with extreme attention to cleanliness and kept cold until used. The baby should be fed at regular intervals and should not be forced to eat when he is not hungry. The baby should be kept cool and comfortable in hot weather, should not be overclothed and should be given plenty of clean water to drink. Any infections which develop in the nose, throat, ears or other organs should receive prompt attention from a physician.

If diarrhea develops feeding should be stopped or greatly diminished and an abundance of water should be given. Cathartics should not be given except on the advice of a physician. If the diarrhea does not improve within a short time, a physician should be called and a complete examination should be made.

The three F's, flies, fingers and food are the three sources of danger to the baby. Flies carry disease germs to the baby and to its food. Fingers and hands that are not thoroughly washed before preparing the baby's food are likely to be germ carriers also. All milk and water that is intended for the baby should be boiled for five minutes, then carefully covered and kept in a cool place until used.

MRS. ARCHIE WADDELL HONORED WITH TEA AND SHOWER

Mesdames H. D. Leach, Bill Blackstock, Garvin Smyrl, and Troy Wright were hostesses at a tea and bridal shower Thursday afternoon from four until six o'clock at the home of Mrs. Leach honoring Mrs. Archie Waddell, the former Miss Louise Hazelwood.

The entertaining rooms were attractively decorated with roses. Miss Lemma Leach greeted the guests and presented them to the receiving line composed of Mrs. H. D. Leach, the honoree, Mrs. Sadie Hazelwood, mother of the bride, Mrs. W. W. Waddell, mother of the groom, Mrs. Troy Wright, and Mrs. Paul Young.

Mrs. Garvin Smyrl registered the guests in the brides book which was topped with a corsage of pastel shaded sweet peas and blue satin ribbon and Mrs. Bill Blackstock presided in the gift room.

The lace covered dining table was centered with a bouquet of red roses and fern leaves. Miss Attye Sledge poured and Misses Ida and Oleta Leach served punch and angel food cake squares.

Fifty ladies registered and sent gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Hogue of Levelland spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Hogue and family.

MRS. NEWSOM IS HONOREE AT MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER

Mesdames T. L. Treadaway, A. H. Daniell, and Leo Holmes honored Mrs. R. D. Newsom, a recent bride, with a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. Treadaway from 7:30 to 9:30 Tuesday evening.

The honoree, Mrs. Daniell and Mrs. Holmes were in the receiving line, and the bride's mother, Mrs. E. S. Tankersley presided at the bride's book.

Candles burned in the dining room, and the table was set in crystal and decorated with miniature nurses. The centerpiece was made up of a shell of ice filled with lime sherbert and surrounded with larkspur, snapdragon, and roses.

Mrs. M. E. Brewer, Mrs. Munroe, Mrs. Bob Whitney, Mrs. Mary Kizer and Sammie Tankersley served angel food squares, and lime punch to approximately sixty guests who called during the evening.

President Don Morris of Abilene Christian College spent Friday night in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Winston.

Mrs. C. M. Corkoran and son of Alpine, and Mrs. W. P. Stevens and daughter of Bisbee, Ariz., are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Shelton.

MAIDS AND MATRONS GIVE VICTORY TEA HONORING RETIRING PRESIDENT

Mesdames L. M. Wingerd, W. B. Miller, Looe Miller, Money Price, and Miss Olga Fitzgerald were hostesses to the Victory Tea given at the home of Mrs. Wingerd Monday afternoon honoring Mrs. Ike Bailey, the retiring president.

A very interesting program was given, with Mrs. E. C. Davis as program chairman. Mrs. Price talked on America and "Greetings from the President" were given by Mrs. Bailey. Mrs. Toone presented Mrs. Bailey with a beautiful set of pottery, and Beautiful Texas" was sung by all. Mrs. Wingerd conducted an "Information Please" quiz, after which Mrs. Chapman sang "The Star Spangled Banner."

A patriotic color scheme was carried out in the decorations. Rose, larkspur and snapdragons made up a beautiful red, white and blue centerpiece. Candles burned at each end of the table which was set in crystal. Mrs. W. A. Bell and Mrs. Redford Smith poured and Marion Wingerd and Sandra Bailey helped serve. Mrs. Randal presided at the guest book.

Cake squares, red, white and blue ice cream, and red punch were served to Mesdames C. M. Chapman, Grady Goin, Redford Smith, W. A. Bell, E. C. Davis, Lal Copeland, Jessie Randal, Lee Brownfield, Mon Telford, H. M. Bell, Jr., Lee Fulton, L. Nicholson, R. B. Parish, Charles L. Foote, H. C. Foote, J. R. Turner, Ruth Moore, M. G. Tarpley, W. B. Toone, Dolores Smith, and Frank Matchet and Orval Parry of Seagraves, and Miss Gertrude Rasco, and the hostess and honoree.

LADIES AID SOCIETY MEETS MONDAY

The Ladies Aid Society of the First Christian Church met Monday afternoon with Mrs. S. P. Veasey at the home of Mrs. Bob Hamm. Those present were Mesdames C. A. White, J. A. Dennis, M. V. Brown, S. P. Veasey, F. E. Walters, Bob Hamm, C. S. Sheaffer, Ida Bruton, and Dick McDuffie.

Punch and cookies were served to those present. The next meeting will be with Mrs. R. N. McClain.

Mrs. Dudley Repp and Sonny Repp of Lubbock spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Dick McDuffie and Mr. and Mrs. Lee O. Allen.

VICTORY BOOK CAMPAIGN NEARS GOAL

Mrs. Jessie Randal and Mrs. Homer Winston report that they still need seventy-five books before reaching the goal set by the Victory Book Campaign. The first box of fiction was sent to the Midland Air School and was personally acknowledged by the commanding officers. These were new and modern books.

Did you realize our armies are not made up of illiterates, but of the most intelligent, most respected and home-loving boys? Will you realize this enough to dismiss selfishness, and give some more of your best and most cherished novels?

Bring at least one book to your grocery store this week, by Monday, as that is the dead line. Give while you have it to give!

MRS. TELFORD IS HOSTESS TO KOLONIAL KLUB

The Kolonial Kard Klub met at the home of Mrs. Mon Telford Friday afternoon, and honored Mrs. Garrett Daugherty, who has moved from this city, with a handkerchief shower.

Those attending were Mesdames Tommy Black, Herman Heath, Ray Austin, Don Herborn, Slim Schellinger, Gertrude Lees, Roy Wingerd, A. A. Sawyer, C. T. Edwards, Money Price, Garrett Daugherty, and E. C. Davis.

The hostess served fruit salad, cookies, and punch to those present.

ACE HIGH CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. SELF

Mrs. Ned Self was hostess to the Ace High Club at her home Thursday afternoon. Members and guests present were Mesdames Ray Christopher, W. H. Collins, A. A. Sawyer, R. M. Kendrick, L. Nicholson, R. B. Parish, John R. Turner, Roy Wingerd, Joe J. McGowan, Wilson Collins, Orb Stice, and Mike Barrett.

A delicious salad plate, cookies, and punch was served to those present.

LOCAL WOMEN ARE DELEGATES TO NATIONAL CONGRESS OF PARENTS AND TEACHERS IN SAN ANTONIO

Mrs. E. C. Davis, Mrs. Frank Wier and Mrs. Fred A. Walker returned Friday from San Antonio where they attended the National Congress of Parents and Teachers which was in session there May 4-7th.

The Convention Theme "America, Strong, With Spirit Free" served as an undercurrent thought throughout all sessions. All speakers and discussion leaders dealt sincerely with the problem of "What to do in the World at War." It was a striking factor that much emphasis was put upon the need of spiritual education in home life and school. Another interesting factor was the stress made by all speakers of the need for calmness on the part of adults, in order that our children not become panicky. It was urged that we limit our war talk to such times as when the children wanted to talk and ask questions and that we be very honest with them in our answers; talking to them at the level of their understanding.

A great deal of emphasis was put upon recreation. Dr. Cox made this statement: "Play is the child's best way to health and growth. It meets the emotional needs of the child." It was strongly urged that all communities furnish some type of wholesome recreation for the children. This throws the responsibility back upon the parents of Brownfield since our local P. T. A. has already provided for such an opportunity in the weekly Play Nite at our High School Gym on Saturday nights. This is worthy of our support and to be a success must be supported by our parents. This might serve as the one way we can help in defense work behind the lines.

Summary: Let us return to the family altar of worship; be calm and fearless at all times; keep our family life as normal as possible and help our children, the future citizens, to be happy so we may all come through this crisis with the old red, white and blue flying high and above the theme: "America Strong, with Spirit Free."

GRANDMA J. M. PHILLIPS PASSES AT DENISON

Grandma J. M. Phillips, 89, of Denison, Texas, passed away last Wednesday, May 13. She was the grandmother of Mrs. Jack Stricklin, jr., of this city, and mother of Mrs. A. C. Crowe of Seagraves. The two above mentioned ladies and Jack Taylor Stricklin, great grandson, and Mrs. A. J. Stricklin, Sr., left for Denison Thursday.

Funeral was held at the church of Christ, Denison, Friday afternoon, and burial in a Denison cemetery. The party was accompanied home Sunday by Mrs. S. R. Taylor, another daughter of Grandma Phillips.

Walter Holden and daughter, Janie, of Chandler, Ariz., came in Sunday for a visit with his sister, Mrs. A. J. Stricklin and family. Mr. Holden and daughter, accompanied by Mrs. Stricklin, left for Coahoma, Wed., to visit a few days with another sister, Mrs. J. A. Roberts and family.

Mrs. I. T. Graves and daughter, Miss Larue, of Crowell, are here visiting in the home of her brother-in-law, Kyle Graves and family. Their home was wrecked in the recent cyclone there, and both were hurt.

Bob Brewer left Sunday for California where he will work in a defense plant.

Earl Alexander of Plainview was here on business Wednesday.

"UNCLE SAM" wants Your Gas Range to LAST!

Your Gas Range is one of the most durable of cooking appliances—a reliable, economical servant. It will give you perfect performance for years if you exercise a little care in its use.

Easy-to-Follow Hints for Longer Service

HOW TO PRESERVE THE ENAMEL

1. After use wipe range enamel with soft dry cloth while range is warm... NOT HOT.
2. If further leaning is necessary, wash with mild soap, rinse and dry.
3. Don't place wet dishes, bottles or glasses on top of the range.

HOW TO CARE FOR TOP BURNERS

1. Wipe burners with damp cloth after use.
2. When necessary, clean with mild soapy water, rinse and dry thoroughly.
3. If burners become clogged, clean with stiff brush. Modern range burners are non-clog.
4. Do not boil aluminum or enamel burners in soda. Cast iron burners may be boiled in a solution of one tablespoon sal soda to each three quarts of water. Wipe dry and turn upside down to drain before replacing.

HOW TO CLEAN THE BROILER

1. Remove broiler pan and grill after food has been served.
2. Allow to cool before washing.
3. Wash broiler compartment with soap and warm water.
4. If broiler is beneath oven, remove empty broiler pan when oven is in use.

HOW TO CLEAN OVEN

1. If boil-overs occur, allow oven to cool and then remove char with a good cleaner or fine steel wool.
2. Wash sides, bottom, door and racks of oven occasionally with warm water and soap.
3. Do not place oven bottom into water if it is insulated.
4. Low temperature roasting of meat reduces spattering of grease... minimizes oven cleaning.

I GIVE YOU TEXAS

by BOYCE HOUSE

I wish I was beside the sea,
A-sailing in a boat,
With all the things I've got to write

I wish I was on yonder hill
A-leafing in the sun
With all the work I've got to do Done.

I wish I was beneath a tree
A-sleeping in the shade,
With all the bills I've got to pay Paid.—From the Whitesboro News-Record.

This sugar shortage isn't so bad. For one thing, it's caused me to renew my acquaintance with East Texas ribbon cane.

And try sprinkling a little salt on your grapefruit instead of sugar. It's different—but good.

Only "fly in the ointment" is the rubber shortage—and me just having changed over from a belt to suspenders and acquiring the knack of thrusting my thumbs in them and rearing back with the feeling of importance which that gives. And when a fellow makes a point in an argument and then snaps his suspenders, that clinches matters. But I guess there'll be no more suspenders after the present supply is gone.

Here lies Pierre Victor Fournier, inventor of the Everlasting Lamp, which consumes only one centime's worth of oil in one hour. He was a good father, son and husband. His inconsolable widow continues his business in the Rue aux Trois. Goods sent to all parts of the city. Do not mistake the shop across the street for this.

Machinery has always mystified me, probably because there are only two machines I can operate; a typewriter and an automobile. The typewriter is operated on the hunt-and-peck system, using two fingers, one on each hand (and a thumb to hit the space bar); and I didn't learn how to drive until I had been voting for 10 years.

How anyone, therefore, could have a steady enough hand, keen enough eyes and sufficient patience to take the delicate springs and screws of an ordinary watch out—much less one of these tiny wrist-watches—is beyond me.

My timepiece needed a little adjusting and I happened to mention to a Fort Worth Jeweler that it had been overhauled recently in Austin. He named a shop there and when I answered "Yes," puzzled as to how he knew, he explained that, after such a job, the watch repairer scratches his initials—almost invisible—inside.

Interesting—or was he spoofing? A gentleman slipped on the stair of a subway and started to slide down to the bottom. Halfway down, he collided with a lady, knocking her down, and the two continued their way to the lower landing.

After they had reached the bottom, the lady, still dazed, continued to sit on the gentleman's chest. Looking up at her, he finally said politely, "Madam, I'm sorry, but this is as far as I go." Tom King, who was in the office of State Auditor longer than any other man, didn't grow up down along the Rio Grande. He was employed, quite a few years back now, to audit the books of a big mercantile establishment near the border, and he asked about a "miscellaneous" item of several thousand dollars.

"Oh, that's for peloan"—(this writer doesn't guarantee the spelling)—replied the manager.

Though having not the least idea in the world what peloan was, King didn't wish to betray the fact so he waited a while, then returned to the item and inquired cautiously and received same reply. By now, the manager had sized up the situation and was secretly amused. At last, King had to come right out and ask what peloan was.

And for the first time he made acquaintance with one of the quaint customs among the Texas citizens of Mexican ancestry: when the family buys a week's supply of groceries for cash or settles a bill that has been running a while, the merchant "throws in" a sack of candy or some other little gift.

Statement By Dan Moody

It is my plan to make a personal speaking campaign over Texas. The people are entitled to have the candidates come before them and make their speeches and tell where they stand, what they stand for and the reasons for their stand. I want to go to the cities and towns of Texas and speak in the Auditoriums, on the court-house squares and in the parks. There I can meet the people face to face, give them opportunity to ask me questions, and answer their questions from the platform. Hecklers, for whom I have always tried to have a ready answer, will add interest and enthusiasm to those meetings.

If Senator O'Daniel thinks he can defend his record as Governor and United States Senator, I challenge him to meet me in joint debate in any community or communities where he thinks the going will be good for him. I will treat him as a gentleman, and I assure him that so far as I am concerned the proceedings will be conducted with dignity. He can leave his band at home, because there will be enough fur flying to hold the attention of the crowd without the aid of an orchestra. I will be glad to give him both the open and close of the arguments.

There are many issues which he and I can debate, among them the following:

2. I shall condemn, and he may defend, his entire isolationist record by which he made his contribution to delaying national preparedness.

2. I shall condemn, and he may defend, the attitude manifested by him while Governor of Texas, when in a speech made by him during National Defense Week, he said: "I don't think we are near war. We have a lot howling in Europe, but they aren't going to do us any harm over here." That statement was made about ten days before the program to fortify the island of Guam was defeated. It was just such an attitude that prevented preparation for the defense of that island, and left a little band of heroic Marines to defend it unto death or capture.

3. I shall attack and he may defend, his speech and vote in the United States Senate in favor of the proposal to disband the trained Army and send it home, in spite of the urgent appeal of President Roosevelt and Chief of Staff General George C. Marshall that the proposal be not adopted. As against their appeal Senator O'Daniel pleaded with the Senate not to extend the draft with the words "Please don't do it," which received the applause of isolationist Senators. If his plea had been followed, think what the result would have been to this nation.

4. I shall contend that all people are entitled to work in the defense of our nation, and advocate a program to prevent strikes and fix hours of labor in defense industries that will enable our country to produce every needed machine and material of war; and he can continue his program of abuse and agitation carried on in an effort to make newspaper headlines and keep the questions alive for political purposes.

5. I will show that he rendered his country a disservice if it is true, as he boasts, that last year he prevented the government's building a pipe line from Texas to the Atlantic coast for the purpose of making available greater quantities of gasoline and oil for shipment to battle fronts. The railroads are doing a splendid job in moving gasoline and oil to the East, but they cannot do it all. Their services should not be dispensed with but as a matter of national defense the pipe line should be built to supplement railroad and tanker service to getting gasoline and oil to the places where it is needed in the defense effort. Proper precautions should be taken, and I am sure will be taken, to see that the line is operated for the public welfare and not for the benefit of any private interest, either during or after the war.

6. I will criticise on him to explain why he was not at his post of duty to vote against the bill enacted, but later repealed, to pay pensions to members of Congress.

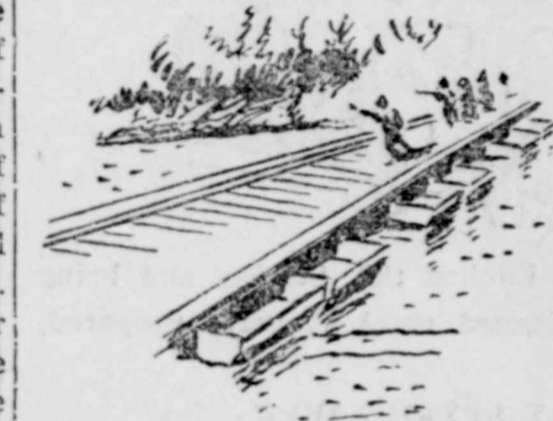

7. I will assert the proposition and he can attempt to dispute it that the representation of the State of Texas in the United States Senate should not be entrusted to a man who lived in Texas for approximately fifteen years and at no time during his residence here thought enough of the responsibilities of Democratic citizenship to qualify to vote, until he was about fifty years of age.

8. I will assert the proposition and he can dispute it that in this time of national peril, if ever no United States Senator should attempt to destroy the confidence of the people in the government or any branch of it.

This proposal to Senator O'Daniel is earnestly made in the belief that joint discussion of the above issues and others that will develop would be enlightening to the people and aid them in determining whom they desire to represent this State in the United States Senate under the conditions now existing. If, when Judge Allred enters the campaign, he finds cause to differ with me on any of the principles for which I stand, I shall be glad to debate any such differences with him.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

Our army spells and pronounces it ponton, not "pontoon", as you do. Ponton bridges cost all the way from $15,000 to $700,000. The smaller bridge using individual metal pontons is pictured here. The largest ponton bridge is 1,000 feet long and is made of rubber instead of aluminum.

One small bridge has a weight capacity of 25 tons, using about 2,000 individual metal pontons. The smallest is used only to take troops over smaller streams. But whether our army uses the smaller or largest ponton, our engineers need plenty of them. If you and every American invests at least 10 percent of income in War Bonds every pay day we can supply our fighting forces with these essentials to a victorious war.

Turnip Greens And Blackeyed Peas Tested

LUBBOCK—The humble turnip green and blackeyed pea are getting psychoanalyzed these days too. This is not a case of war nerves, however, but an effort to find the mineral content of the two vegetables, widely eaten in southern homes, as a possible means of checking anemia and other mineral deficiencies, such as decayed teeth, prevalent in the South.

Research at Texas Technological College, now in its third year, is part of a larger project being carried on under sponsorship of the national Bureau of Home Economics by experiment stations in Texas and other states.

The two plants under study at Texas Tech are grown in the college farm under natural soil conditions, and uncooked vegetables are used for chemical analysis. As a sub-project, however, cooking experiments are being made on both blackeyed peas and turnip greens at different stages of maturity, and with varying amounts of water, to test for palatability.

Do you know it's easy as anything to make cream puffs? Do it the Spry way—no fussing or fooling—mixing is so easy and quick, when you use creamy, all-vegetable Spry. Try these recipes soon.

Cream Puffs
1/2 cup Spry
1/2 cup boiling water
1 cup sifted all-purpose flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
4 eggs, ungelatin

Nut Cream Filling
5 tablespoons flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 egg yolks
1/2 cup sweetened condensed milk
1 1/2 cups water
1 1/2 teaspoons vanilla
1/2 cup peanuts, chopped

Bring Spry and water to boiling point in saucepan. Sift flour and salt together. Add to water all at once and beat vigorously until mixture is thick and smooth and comes away easily from sides of pan. Remove from fire.

Add eggs, one at a time, beating thoroughly after each addition until mixture is smooth and blended. Drop mixture from tablespoon about 2 inches apart on Sprycoded baking sheet. (The mixture should hold its shape and not spread.)

Bake in very hot oven (450°F.) 10 minutes, then reduce heat slightly to 400°F. and bake 25 minutes longer. Cool. Slit each puff. Fill with Nut Cream Filling. Dust with confectioners' sugar. Makes 18 puffs.

Lombard's Last Picture Coming To Rialto Sun.

Stanley Ridges in "To Be Or Not To Be."

The Rialto announces the presentation of Carole Lombard's last picture. An exciting romantic comedy, keyed to an over-mounting tempo of suspense. Jack Benny at his best in a surprisingly different comic role. Here is a Lubitsch picture—brilliant in its acting . . . spectacular in its scope.

Remember Anniversary Week, May 24th through 30th.

Joe J. McGowan, Bill McGowan, Homer Winston Ned Self, Roy Wingerd, Lal Copeland, and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Brownfield are fishing at Buchanan Lake this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Odell Mothershead have moved to San Diego, Calif., where they will train at an airplane school. Mrs. Mothershead is the daughter of T. G. Allen of Allen of Allen Studio, where she has been employed.

The McGowans Are Off On Fishing Trip

Joe J. McGowan and son, Bill, are at Buchanan Lake near Austin fishing. Bill called his mother Tuesday and stated they were sure catching them and that he had caught one catfish that weighed 25 pounds. Bill is to see just what day his law class of 107 graduate while down there.

In the meantime, he may be called into army aviation service, in which case he will be graduated in absentia (we believe that is the word.) He has already been admitted to the bar.

Mr. and Mrs. Lad Brownfield and Christine McDuffie were Lubbock visitors Monday.

Mrs. Glen Akers and Miss Gertrude Rasco spent several days this week in Memphis.

Lee O. Allen, Troy Noel, Jack Bailey, Ike Bailey and Buddy Teague left Sunday for Old Mexico on a fishing trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Womack and John J. Hannon of Lubbock were the weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Daniell Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kendrick, Bill McGowan and Miss Mildred Fouts were Lubbock visitors Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Kendrick left Sunday for New Mexico and Colorado where they will spend several weeks.

Mrs. Spencer Kendrick and children left Monday to visit relatives in Abilene and Brady.

Pat Patterson of the Lubbock Air Base spent the weekend with friends here.
