

Texas Merchants Prepare To Change Credit Operations

With government credit-control on durable goods scheduled to be lifted November 1, merchants throughout the State are adjusting and reorganizing their credit operations with the view of giving prompt and courteous service to their patrons, Erwin E. Singleton of Beaumont, President of the Retail Merchants Association of Texas, today advised A. W. Turner, manager retail merchants of Brownfield.

Singleton suggested to Turner that he caution all merchants in Brownfield, big and small, to set up their credit operations on a sound and conservative basis.

"It is to the interest of both the merchant and the patron—as well as to the welfare of the community that will spending on credit be discouraged," he said.

Singleton said both he and other representatives of the Retail Merchants Association of Texas were visiting as many cities of Texas as possible, helping merchants adjust their consumer credit reporting divisions and encouraging merchants to use their Credit Bureaus to the utmost extent.

"Although the lifting of the government credit restrictions will mean the individual merchant will be free again to work out payment schedules with his individual customers, neither should a merchant encourage spending beyond means, nor should the consumer seek to buy merchandise he is unable to pay for within a reasonable length of time," Singleton said.

"A good credit rating is a very important thing in any community. It means that a family is operating on a sound basis. The best policy for consumers to follow is to plan their credit buying so that obligations can be met promptly on due date."

Singleton said that during tours of several sections of Texas, he had found there were thousands of new business establishments which had not previously operated under restricted payment schedules. The attention of each of these merchants should be called to the availability of the services of the consumer credit reporting division of their local association.

Turner said that consumers in Brownfield had been exceptionally cooperative and understanding during the war years of government controlled retail credit, and on behalf of the merchants of Brownfield he wished to express their appreciation.

Cotton Gins, Compress Running Regular

Terry County's 17 gins are all fired up and ready to take it as it comes. Over 1000 bales have been ginned up to Wednesday of this season's crop.

The compress began operating last week and reports having processed to date over 1000 bales, some of which is from adjacent counties. This institution can handle over 60,000 bales including storage, during a season.

Cotton pickers are apparently sufficient, as but little complaint is heard. Ideal weather has been prevalent thus far.

Cruce, The Modern Daniel Boone

J. L. (L for Luther) Cruce and wife have just returned from the twenty-ninth time from their resort homestead down at Possum Kingdom lake, but this time he seems a bit more proud to get communicative to the press than formerly.

Luther says he killed two coons, raccon kind we presume, on this trip, and we hear he is trying to get Bessie (that's his little woman) to make him a real coon-skin cap, with the ringtails hanging down his back.

So, if you see Luther any time this fall dressed as per above, don't take it that the original Dan'l has come back to earth.

Later: Funny part was that Luther was very anxious for a witness to his kill with his little .22 rifle. Finally got a man at the store to go. The guy was a game warden and coons are fur-bearing and out of season. Luther had to go to Mineral Wells and talk fast to escape jail.

HIGH SCHOOL BOY ARRESTED FOR FORGERY

A 17-year-old local youth was apprehended by the Sheriff's department late Monday evening after he was alleged to have attempted to pass a check for a small amount at a local bank, drawn on a farmer east of town.

After lengthy questioning by the officers he is reported to have admitted the forgery. He was paroled to his parents, awaiting action by the grand jury.

Local Guard Unit Recommended For Federal Recognition

W. Graham Smith said today that Col. John N. Green has recommended Cannon Company, 142nd Infantry, 36th division, be inspected for Federal recognition. The present armory and storage facilities met with the Colonel's approval.

Establishment of this unit will add approximately $20,000 to be spent in this city. Not many business or manufacturing concerns exceed this amount and the people of Brownfield are urged to give their full support.

The strength of the Company is 76 enlisted men and five officers, and although an infantry unit, it will be highly mechanized. Training will be given in many technical phases.

Captain Smith, company commander said there are two openings at present for the rank of 2nd Lt., and to qualify an applicant must have served as a commissioned officer or as a first three grader in combat and be between the ages of 21 and 28. He also pointed out that men with no previous military experience have a good chance for rapid advancement if they work and show that they want to learn.

Texas Gas Exhaustion Predicted By Kittrell

At the present rate of consumption Texas' supplies of natural gas will be exhausted within 15 years, W. H. Kittrell, jr., former secretary of the State Democratic Executive Committee, declares in the October issue of Scene Magazine, published in Dallas. The October number, first to be published under the editorship of Stanley Walker, famed former city editor of the New York Herald Tribune, contains 72 pages of Southwestern features and photographs.

Kittrell proposes the formation of a Texas Conservation Association to work for the adoption of policies that will avert this exhaustion.

Pointing out that consumption of Texas gas has tripled in 10 years, with current consumption of gas produced in Texas amounting to more than three trillion cubic feet annually, he says:

"If, as the American Gas Association calculated, we had 82 trillion cubic feet of gas at the beginning of the current year, we will have 79 trillion left at its close, and if the use of gas continues to increase at 15 per cent per year, we will use nearly three and one-half trillion feet in 1948; four trillions in 1949, and four and three-fourths trillions in 1950, leaving us with 67 trillions at the close of that year. If the consumption increases till it levels off at six trillion feet by 1953 or '54 our supply will last until about 1962."

Export of natural gas cannot in fairness be prohibited, Kittrell concedes, adding: "We can, however, move to prevent the dedication of our remaining reserves to the projected and prospective lines, and we can enact legislation that will reduce or eliminate the waste of gas in the production of oil."

Scene Magazine explains editorially that the other side of this controversial question will be presented in its November issue.

R. R. Barnes, of Ft. Worth and Maurice Thompson returned Friday from a fishing trip to Port Aransas.

About 600,000 building fires occur in this country each year. Half of those burned buildings are dwellings.

Banks Offer To Assist Farmers In Cotton Harvest

"We are in the midst of harvesting our cotton crop," a spokesman for the two banks said today, "and we would like to make these suggestions which we think will be helpful and save time for everyone concerned."

"Come to the banks for your cotton picking funds, as to get advances from the gins works a serious hardship on the gins in many instances. We will be glad to help you out with your cotton picking requirements," he continued.

The spokesman further stated, "We are ready to handle your cotton loans for you if you wish to place your cotton in Government loan. Try to come to the bank before Saturday to get your cotton picking money as we are very congested on Saturdays and we can give you better service on other days.

"We are ready and willing to help you with your harvesting problems in any possible way.

Local People View Horrible Wreck

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Self, jr., Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Craig, jr., Mr. and Mrs. Bobbie Jones, Robert Lee Craig and Miss Dean Perkins, while returning from Austin last Sunday where they had witnessed the Tech-Texas U. football game Saturday, viewed the shocking scene of a two-car collision in which seven persons were killed only a few minutes before.

Four of the five Tech students, including a former aviator and his bride of a few months riding in one car were instantly killed. The other occupant, a girl in the sedan was seriously injured. The other vehicle occupied by an elderly rancher of near Brady, his wife and grown daughter crashed into the sedan, caught fire and burned up with the couple and their daughter thrown out of it. The car and bodies were still burning when the local people drove upon the scene.

Jobs Being Sought For Disabled Vets

The week of Oct. 5th through the 11th has been designated as employment of physically handicapped week for veterans. There is 8,000 in Texas and 17 in Terry county according to H. L. King, manager of local State Employment Commission, with office in the Wines Building.

The purpose is to procure work that these physically handicapped boys can do, and for which many are well fitted. Though, of course they cannot do just any kind of work, experience and study reveals that most of them are well qualified to do special work and as they know they can only do certain work, they become very efficient in that line and are not prone to quit. This move is not prompted by charity, but to urge those who need help to study out and find a job these boys can do efficiently. It is the business of the Commission to ferret out the boy with the ability for the job he is qualified to do.

Employers can be of great assistance to these boys and at the same time not hinder, but in many cases enhance his own business.

The Shooting Isn't Over In West Texas

West Texas is finally getting around to doing something about the continued discriminations against the area.

Rep. Preston Smith of Lubbock is behind a movement to secure an injunction, to prevent enactment of the so-called College Building Amendment that recently passed by a bare 5,213 votes.

Rep. Smith is representing his district properly in securing such a restraining order. The amendment was beaten in his territory, 40 to 1. It is his intent to throw the matter into the Supreme Court to prove that 14 colleges, and every citizen of West Texas is being discriminated against.

The question of the Legislature's failure to restrict the state for representative purposes will play a hand in the Court's decision, if it gets that far. Had Central and East Texas legislators abided by their oaths to uphold the constitution, the state would have been reconstituted. That would have given West Texas enough legislators to have successfully blocked the submission of such an amendment to the people.

The political triumvirate, Jester, Daniel and Shivers, who ripped their political pants by throwing their influence behind the passage of the measure, will find their influence even less in a Supreme Court decision.—Ralls Banner.

Midland Take Cubs 13-7; Lamesa Here For Tonight

The Cubs along with an enthusiastic group of fans journeyed to Midland last Friday night and were defeated 13-7. The Cubs outplayed Midland in every quarter but were unable to score more than once. One fan remarked that Brownfield should have beat them at least three touchdowns.

Tonight, however, the Cubs are expected to take their loss of last week out on Lamesa when the teams meet tonight in Cub field at 8 p. m. Lamesa has also played two games this season with one victory and one loss. So both teams will be trying to make it two in the win column to one loss.

BROWNIES MEETING IN COLEMAN PARK

It seems that the Brownie Scout troops are out in the cold unless a meeting place can be found for them. They had a joint meeting in the park Thursday of last week where they played games and were served kool aid and cookies by the leaders. Sixty one were present.

They met Tuesday of this week in the park and will continue to do so until a meeting place is found. One troop is also in need of a leader. Assistant leaders and troop committee members are available but someone is needed to assume the responsibility of being the leader.

John B. King, local nurseryman sustained slight injuries Monday in an automobile accident. Considerable damage was done to the car in which he was riding.

Afton Richard and Harvey Bass recently produced a special edition of the Aspermont Star's 50th anniversary that was a humdinger. Those two boys do most of their mechanical work, and being young and ambitious, they not only get out a large paper for that sized town, but they put a whale of a lot of personality into their efforts, and the people of Aspermont and old Stonewall show their appreciation in many ways.

The Canyon News expresses great fear that it will be impossible to elect a west Texan as governor of Texas. Does the News happen to remember a guy by the name of Coke Stevenson? If there ever were two typical West Texans, Coke is one of them. Then there was a guy by name of Tom Hunter that came in an inch of the goal twice, and we should not forget Pappy Lee O, who got in from where the west begins. And there are other offices, held by West Texans, such as John Lee Smith, lieutenant governor and a state treasurer, one of the Lockhart boys who died in office, holding it some 20 years. And the newcomer to Texas may think George H. Sheppard was born in Austin, perhaps, instead of hailing from Sweetwater originally. If West Texans will get together on west Texas candidates like they got together on the so-called college building amendment, they could elect their man hands down. But will they do it. Too often west Texans vote against their own interests by some one getting a letter from some one down in the swamps whose grandfather's hound dog ran with some candidate's double half uncle's hound dog, back in the 90's. So they vote for the hound owner's double-half nephew, sight unseen.

Editor Joiner over at Ralls primped himself for a murder trial at Lubbock recently. Thinking he was to be star witness, Mr. Joiner invested in a pair of polka dot 69c hose to influence the jury while in the witness stand. But they failed to call Mr. Joiner, and now there is a pair of slightly used socks for sale in Ralls, by a disappointed editor.

Headline: "Harry" Wallace says he will be glad to work with the Reds. Sure, he ought to get along with his own kind of cattle.

Well, there has been much of late in the daily press, as well as radio commentators about ex-mayor LaGuardia, of New York, since his last illness and death. We hope we were mistaken about this man, but our idea of men and statesmen are so far removed from the type of the rabble rouser and the bombast, that we never could get enthused about the "Little Flower." In fact, his antics and habits reminded us so much of his fellow countryman, the late lamented Musso the Muscle, that he did not appeal to us as the kind of American we admire.

That bureaucratic crowd a Washington is feverishly itching to put the American people on rations again, and create a lot of jobs. Perhaps rationing was OK as a war measure, and few if any opposed it, but such regimentation in peace time has no place in our republic. There is no plan that can get around that old fellow we have learned to call the old law of "supply and demand." And right now, we are not only bidding against each other for the rich food to be found in the store, but the whole world is bidding

The big word in Great Britain today is "austerity." But it is the one word that the folks there figured was out the window and gone forever and belonged in there amongst the dead language archives, when they listened and voted in their socialist Govt. Great Britain was to flow with milk and honey. That is what was promised—that is what did not happen, as the Govt. took over the coal business and every other business, almost. But you can say this much for "austerity"—if it has to happen to somebody, it is best to have it happen elsewhere versus to you.

But I am sorry for the British. I am sorry for any sucker who gets took-in—and to the cleaner. I am on this subject because we are not so far removed from being a bit none too alert our ownself here in this grand and noble land. Look at TVA and the Booneville dam, and 25 other dams. All were built under the false pretenses of being built to control floods. The low-down is, they are a socialist's big toe in our door.

The British listened with big ears to sweet but flimsy words—they are now pullin' in the old against all of us. With such universal demand for food; with a poor corn crop and the price out of sight, some are right here in America may have to go hungry as well as Europeans.

Soft, refined foods and lack of exercise are responsible for increasing thousands of constipation victims. Intestinal muscles become sluggish, waste matter accumulates and gas is formed. Often there is a tired, restless, listless feeling. It's cases like this that the new improved ADLERIKA is designed to help. This scientifically compounded Tone-Up laxative is quickly absorbed by the gastro-intestinal system. . . gas pressure is relieved and waste matter is moved gently through the digestive canal. When you eat well and digest your food well, you'll find a new joy in living. Order a bottle of ADLERIKA today.

G. I. Question And Answer Department

Q. What are some of the advantages offered to the veteran by the G-I Bill if he buys a home under its guaranteed loan provisions?

A. With a VA guaranty, the veteran has a better chance of inducing the lender to make a loan. The lender may even consider making the loan where no down payment is to be made on the home. Another advantage is the 4 per cent rate of interest which is low.

Q. Is it true that if I secure a guaranteed loan, VA will pay part of the loan without cost to me?

A. Yes, Veterans Administration pays to the lender an amount equal to 4 per cent of the guaranteed portion of the loan. For example, if the guaranteed portion of your loan is $4,000, the lender will receive $160 from VA to credit to your debt and you will not have to repay this amount to anyone.

Q. Can the veteran get a guaranteed loan for any type of business?

A. Yes, the veteran can get a guaranteed loan on any type of legitimate business on which the lender is willing to lend money.

Q. Can I get a guaranteed loan to buy furniture for my home and a pleasure car?

A. No.

Sewing Advice From Texas Tech

Women and girls who are making an effort to lengthen their skirts to conform with new fashions should begin at the waist rather than at the hemline, according to Miss Mabel D. Erwin, head of the Texas Technological College clothing and textiles department.

Tight fitting skirts will hang lower if side seams are let out a bit. Inserts in the waist of dresses to lower the waist line usually look better than ruffles, pleats or bias piecing on the hem, she stated.

If sleeves on old dresses are sufficiently full, they may be removed and used for waist inserts and the frocks converted to jumpers, she suggested.

However, any alteration on a dress must be done very carefully, the Home Economics professor stated, and a great many people would do better to go ahead and wear an old dress as it is, rather than to risk making an unattractive "home made" looking affair.

You can't beat Mother Nature!

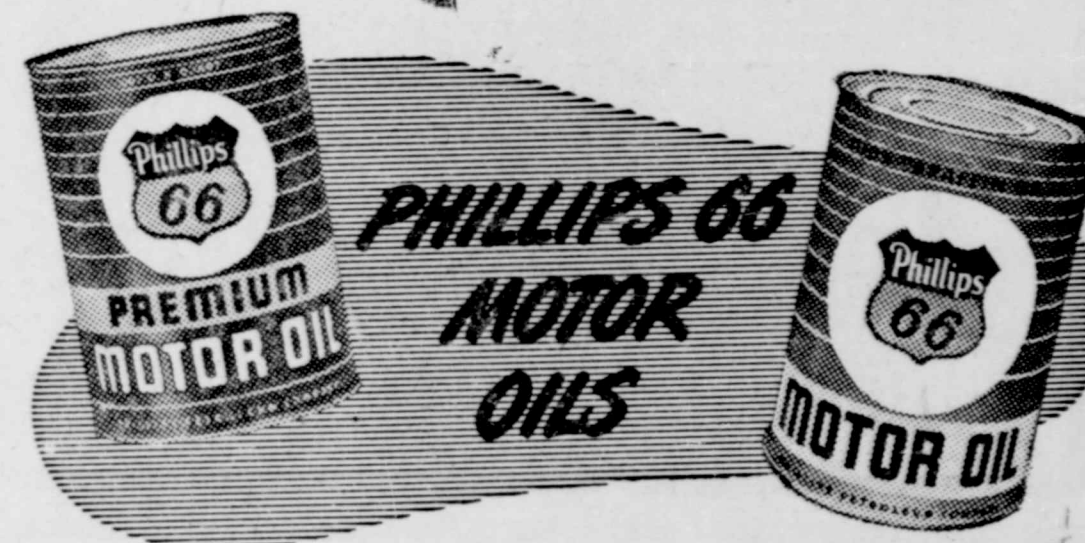

Nature's Finest!

Tiger or Giant Swallowtail (Papilio thoas) is the largest American butterfly. Lemon-yellow with velvety black. Wingspread to 5 1/2 in. Caterpillar, called "Orange Puppy," feeds on citrus fruits.

The Crude Is The Answer To Phillips 66 Fine Motor Oils

Mother Nature couldn't be beaten the day she made the Tiger Swallowtail butterfly—and she was doing a mighty fine job when she produced the crudes that go into Phillips 66 Motor Oils, too!
Then, Phillips special refining processes, Phillips practical skill and know-how, turned these exceptionally fine crudes into fine lubricants . . . lubricants that have what it takes to do an honest-to-goodness job of protecting your engine. Ask for Phillips 66 Motor Oil or Phillips 66 Premium Motor Oil.
Phillips 66 Motor Oil has made thousands and thousands of friends . . . and has chalked up an enviable record covering billions of miles of satisfactory performance!
Phillips 66 Premium Motor Oil is brand new! It cleans! It prevents bearing corrosion! It resists high temperatures and high pressures! In short, this oil is made especially for motorists who want something extra-special in lubrication.
You'll like them both . . . Phillips 66 and Phillips 66 Premium!

The secret of fall harvesting is to adjust the cylinder speed instantly for varying moisture conditions that change from hour to hour. The All-Crop Harvester's Quick Speed-Changer makes it as easy as tuning your radio.

Tough conditions require higher speeds to thresh the grain or seeds from heads or pods. Dry, brittle conditions require slower speeds to avoid damage to kernels.

The All-Crop Harvester's famous full-width, rubber-faced, spiral-bar cylinder processes the crop gently and thoroughly in a wide, thin stream . . . at the proper speed to save it all.

CHOICE is the keynote of today's career

Would you go to Europe, Japan or Korea?

Or would you stay near home? Any man who has had prior service in the Armed Forces may elect to do any of these things if he enlists in the Army now for 3 years or more. He can choose to be assigned directly to duty in Europe or with one of five famous Infantry divisions in the Far East. Or he may choose to be stationed near home for the first full year of his enlistment (where there are vacancies). Men with or without prior service may choose one of the famous combat divisions in Japan or Korea.

Would you select a career in aviation?

This you can do, and be guaranteed the training you choose before you enlist! Only requirements beyond regular physical and mental examinations are that you be a high school graduate, or that you are in the Air Force and can qualify. It's today's great opportunity to write your own ticket in the Air Force.

Would you want to learn to fly?

If you are single, 20 to 26½, and have had two or more years of college education or the equivalent, you can become an Aviation Cadet with the U. S. Air Force. Nowhere else can you get better training, for nowhere else is aviation advancing as fast or as far as in our own Air Force.

Would you go to a leadership school?

If you have qualities of leadership, would you want to develop them to their fullest? U. S. Army Leadership Schools are now selecting likely candidates from servicemen to take these valuable courses.

The Army and Air Force are doing everything possible today to help each individual develop along the lines that he picks for himself. Army and Air Force training is thorough and take-home pay is better than most civilian jobs. Opportunities for advancement are wide open to every man in uniform. Make your choice today at your U. S. Army and Air Force Recruiting Station.

Lasting Peace Hangs On Public Attitude

"We can gain lasting peace in our time," declares Trygve Lie, Secretary General of the United Nations, writing in the current issue of The Rotarian magazine. The answer lies in changing the minds of men from "preparing for war" to preparing for peace.

"Those who can content themselves with the prospect of a temporary respite (vacation) from war are either more concerned about themselves and the immediate present than they are about their children's and mankind's future," says Mr. Lie, "or, what is more probably true, they have just not thought the whole problem through."

"The first basis for an enduring peace is the acceptance by all people of this idea of 'permanency' not as a dream or distant goal, but as the immediate bare minimum of what they desire and demand."

It is illogical to divert wealth into armaments and supplies for war, Mr. Lie suggests, when: "it is as simple as two and two makes four to show that we cannot satisfy even the barest needs of our people for food, shelter, heat and clothing, to say nothing of the normal amenities of human existence, unless the individual Governments concentrate every last scrap of their resources and energies on these elementary problems."

While agreeing with the principle expressed by Dr. Arthur H. Compton in an earlier issue of The Rotarian magazine that a "peace of 20 to 30 years might well become permanent, Mr. Lie reinforces the famous nuclear physicist's suggestion: "No sane man or woman can be content with a holiday from war. The hard inescapable fact is that we must never, never experience it again. 'The next war' can very well be civilization's last, in more ways than one."

Tech Students To Have Medical Care

Medical service will be available on the campus to Texas Tech College students this fall on a 24-hour basis for the first time when the new college infirmary and dispensary is opened.

The health service will be directed during the fall by Dr. James G. Morris of Lubbock, who will maintain regular office hours at the college. Nurses will be on duty at all times.

The college infirmary provides accommodations for students ill enough to require constant supervision of the college physician and nursing staff, and not in such physical condition as to require the services of specialists or surgery. Students who, in the opinion of the physician require hospitalization, will be permitted to remain in the infirmary free for as long as seven days per semester and will pay a nominal fee to cover cost for each additional day the physician requires them to stay.

The program is made possible by action of the state legislature in authorizing directors of state supported colleges to require a

Printer's Devil

Former newsboy Kay Kyser, now famed as the 'Ol' Professor, helps pressmen check an edition of the New York Herald Tribune during a visit in honor of National Newspaper Week, October 1 to 8. That week also marks the switch of Kay's "College of Musical Knowledge" program to Saturdays at 10:00 p.m. AT over NBC, starting October 4.

Veterans' News

Veterans entering schools and colleges this fall may expect their first subsistence check in early November, the Veterans Administration has announced.

The initial payment will include all subsistence allowances due from the start of the semester through the end of the last full subsistence period before the check is issued.

No serious delays in payment of subsistence allowances are anticipated, but VA is advising student-veterans to be able to meet personal financial obligations for at least the first six weeks of the fall term.

The time lapse between date of enrollment and receipt of the first check involves two factors. First, a veteran generally is not entitled to receive a subsistence allowance until he has been in training for 30 days. Secondly, all checks are mailed normally on the first of the month, covering the allowances due for the previous month. Therefore, a veteran enrolling during the latter part of September ordinarily would not receive his first check any earlier than the first of November.

The Southwestern area supervised by VA's Dallas Branch Office is expecting an enrollment of more than 100,000 World War II veterans in colleges and universities. The estimate for Texas is 75,370, for Louisiana, 20,068 and for Mississippi, 9,267.

Soil Conservation District News

This past June 9, 1947, the acreage in Soil Conservation Districts and other districts (such as wind erosion districts, etc.) assisted by the Soil Conservation Service passed the billion-acre mark. What few outlying counties yet in Texas, not organized are rapidly coming into the program through organized efforts of landowners themselves. Your Cochran-Yoakum-Terry Soil Conservation District has been in operation since late 1941 and much has been accomplished. If you need planning assistance see your Work Unit Office in the Brownfield Post Office Building now.

Recently Dr. Ide P. Trotter, Director of Texas Extension, Texas A and M College, stated about owners wanting to practice good conservation farming as follows: "Soil is not really saved at conferences, conventions or clinics. Rather, the soil is saved on farms by farmers."

"The most effective way to get people to act and act quickly is to make an appeal to their basic instincts. Three of the most basic instincts common to all human life are: (1) Preservation, the urge to survive. (2) Patriotism, to one's family, community, or nation. (3) Piety, respect and reverence for the God we worship and all that He created."

"We want to get everybody interested and active in saving the soil. We should, therefore, try to use the power of an appeal to these three basic instincts. It is perfectly logical to present the case for saving the soil in this manner."

"Nothing, literally nothing, has ever succeeded over a long period of time on a poor and worn-out soil. That means that the world's welfare, as well as our own, is irrevocably tied to the

Heavy Expenditures Foreseen In County For Farm Homes

Farm families in Terry county will spend more than $600,000 for new housing in the next three to five years, according to a forecast released by the Tile Council of America.

"As a result of high incomes during the last few years, farmers in every part of the nation are prepared to invest record amounts in new home construction and in general farm improvements," said F. B. Ortman, chairman of the Council's residential construction committee.

Pointing out that the comforts and conveniences of urban living are now available to farm families, Ortman said that new rural homes will incorporate such features as water pressure systems, tiled bathrooms and modern kitchen facilities.

MORGAN COPELAND FRATERNITY PLEDGE

Social fraternities at the University of Texas pledged 453 men students at the beginning of the 1947 Fall semester.

Among the names of pledges announced by the 26 organizations through the office of Jack Holland, assistant dean of men, was Morgan Lee Copeland, for Theta XI fraternity.

Mrs. J. R. Evans, who makes her home with her daughter, Mrs. P. J. Nettles, on Route 1, is visiting this week in her former home town of Clyde, Texas.

fertility and productivity of the soil."

There is plenty of evidence now in the CYT district that farmers are endeavoring to use every means to save their soils to maintain the fertility.

Mr. E. E. Brown, Route 1, Seagraves, Texas, who farms in the southwest corner of Terry county, worked out plans this week to have five acres of hog pasture and 15 acres of grasses and legumes for an improved pasture for dairy cows. Br. Brown believes in using a legume to build up his soil fertility.

Increased production in 1948 seems to be the only way to solve some of the world's greatest problems of starvation, high prices and to help maintain peace.

There is an apparent need on the average farm where there are tractors, and other heavy equipment to be loaded and unloaded, of a loading ramp. A ramp could easily be built on each farm whereby loading and unloading of tractors, plows, etc., could be done quicker and with more ease. Our District Engineer can furnish any who apply, with plans to construct a ramp on each farm. See Engineer Joe Krizek for plans in this District office.

Here's the Answer to SHORTER-MORE PROFITABLE Cotton Harvests!

Harvesting cotton in a once-over operation is the short cut to bigger profits. Get this advantage by stripping and delivering cotton, two rows at a time, with a labor-saving John Deere No. 15 Cotton Harvester.

Designed to work with the John Deere "A" and "B" Tractors, the No. 15 is a simple, sturdy, long-lived machine that does a fast, efficient job of saving bolls after the cotton plants have been killed by frost. Many gin operators state that cotton stripped by the John Deere is cleaner than that pulled by the average hand puller.

This year, to make short work of your cotton harvest—use a John Deere Cotton Harvester. See us for complete information the next time you're in town.
