

Food—for Thought

OBSERVERS in and out of government here are skeptical and somewhat pessimistic over the ultimate success of any voluntary plan asking the American people to tighten their belts in order to save food for Europe's foodless millions.

This pessimism was due not so much to any belief that the American people as a whole would not be willing to make the sacrifice, but over the futility of asking them to make the effort and then see it go for naught while the profiteers and speculators continued to reap a harvest in profits based on the misery in Europe.

They pointed first to the actions of the leading grain exchanges in at first refusing to acquiesce to a government request requiring double margin requirements in grain speculation. They also pointed to the effect on the price of foodstuffs as a result of President Truman's simple announcement of a 500 million bushel grain export goal, for immediately prices of grain, livestock and most other food commodities leaped upwards to the limit permitted.

Prices of grain don't just raise themselves. Men raise them and men who raise prices, speculating on future deliveries to aid starving people, are making huge profits on the foods we are giving to these people. If this condition is permitted, and the government is powerless to prevent it without action by congress, how, observers point out, can the public generally be asked in all conscience to sacrifice.

Then when the general public is asked to save a bushel of grain for the starving peoples of Europe we have the picture of the brewers and distillers of the nation buying up huge quantities of grain in anticipation of possible limitations on grain for alcoholic purposes.

During the fiscal year ending June 30, 1947, 66,788,000 bushels of corn and 86,938,000 bushels of barley plus 228,000 bushels of wheat, 4,235,000 bushels of rye and 3,821,000 bushels of grain sorghums went into the manufacture of industrial alcohol and distilled and fermented liquors.

Diversion Here, Too

In addition, 90 million bushels of wheat were fed to livestock to make delectable steaks and other meats for the tables of those able to pay from 70 cents to $1 a pound for beef and pork. Grass fed beef certainly would be good enough for the average family for a year until the crisis in the European food situation could be met, and observers point out that with per capita consumption of alcohol at an all-time high, most certainly grains could be diverted for a time from alcoholic drinks without any great loss to the American people.

Of course, all this demand for food is not going to hurt the American farmer and latest statistics from the department of agriculture indicate that farm income in 1947 will top the 29 billion dollar mark. Last year it was about 25 billion dollars. In 1940 it was 11 billion, and remember 1933—it was about 4 billion. Farm mortgages now total 8 billion dollars as compared to 10 billion before the war while farm assets total 111 billion dollars as compared to 98 billion last year and 54 billion before the war.

Election Issues

Although it is a year before the national election in November 1948 main issues already are settled—prices, housing, taxes, labor and foreign affairs.

Although we have a vaunted bipartisan foreign policy, Senator Taft on his western swing has criticized the administration on foreign affairs and it is so interlaced with domestic affairs, partisanship is hard to keep out of the picture. Then there are local issues such as reclamation, rent control, veterans affairs, valley authorities, farm subsidies and universal military service, which undoubtedly will be campaign issues.

Jumping the Gun

The American people are jumping the gun on installment buying before all controls are unshackled November 1. Official figures released by the Federal Reserve board reveal that consumer borrowing of all types increased 155 million dollars during August to reach a total of about $11,216,000,000, or 34 per cent above August a year ago. Installment loans during the same period increased 2 per cent to $3,029,000,000.

Home Demonstrators 'Adopt' A Family

There have been many stories of the adoption of destitute European families by Americans. But here is a story of the adoption of a Texas family by a Texas group.

When a tornado hit the little town of Higgins last spring, the destruction was equal to any "blitz." Assistance for the stricken town poured in from all over the country.

Members of the Rehm Home Demonstration Club in Hartley county knew that it would take time for family life to recover from the loss of home and property. So they decided to "adopt" a Higgins family.

The ladies of the club met together last month and canned 100 quarts of corn and 30 quarts of green beans to be delivered to their adopted family, a concrete example of the kind of help they are giving.

The project has been very popular with every one in the community, Norma Lee Lantz, county

Scarlet Fever Warning Issued by Health Dept.

The State Department of Health has issued a warning in regard to scarlet fever, since the number of cases usually increases during the fall months. The majority of deaths from this disease occur during the months from October through February.

Scarlet fever is a very contagious and serious disease. Grown people may contract it, but children under 15 years are especially apt to have it, if exposed. It is especially dangerous for children under 5 years, and Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, warns mothers to "not let your children take any chances with scarlet fever. Call the doctor as soon as any suspicious symptoms appear."

Dr. Cox said that the first signs you may notice are that the child seems tired, restless and out of sorts. Usually, there is a sore throat, chills, vomiting, or in some cases convulsions and fever. The skin is dry and hot, the tongue is furred, and, under this furry covering, it is red and swollen. In ordinary cases, these early signs are followed in a day or two by a rash. Little flat red points, close together, appear first on the neck and chest and soon the rash, very red in color, spreads over most of the body.

The doctor is required by law to report the case to the local health officer. It is important that the family follow carefully the quarantine instructions which the health officer issues, since a severe case of scarlet fever may develop from contact with some one who has only a light attack. Children who have had scarlet fever, must not return to school until permission is given by the health officer and physician.

Whoever devised the eggless Thursday never took the matter up with hen in our block. Since the program was appointed, we've been puzzled to know how postponing an egg saves grain. Maybe it's done with X. It finally dawned on us that, regardless of whether milady the hen's produce is eaten, said hen is going right ahead eating grain just as tho' she never heard of Charles Luckmann. We haven't seen any hens dieting in our block on Thursdays. As soon as Congress gets through with our Hollywood stars we want the professional witch-hunters to pin the Communist label on these hens—if any labels are left over!—Ralls Banner.

See where Simon Legree forgot to notify you people that he wasn't responsible for this column—guess he figures nobody reads it anyway. Hope he's right.

There is a druggist here in Brownfield who lost a fine lighter. It was found, under very peculiar circumstances, smelling more like Chanel, No. 9 than of Ronson fluid. If he were to ask a real estate man friend of his, he might get it back. No questions will be asked.

Signs of the times:—Brownfield beauty shops are standardizing and raising prices due to the increased cost of supplies, etc.

Don't run, brother, walk... saw some anti-freeze in quarts and gallons at the Southern Auto Store the other day. Never mind what brand—it works.

The feud goes on and on. This week's Champ of the Lobby at the Brownfield is "Kid" Wilgus, otherwise known as "The Fox." Just sits there at the checker board muttering, "next victim."

If any of you have wondered about Highway Patrolman Cole, who used to be stationed on this beat, he's resigned. Went into business with his Pappy, down in Abilene.

The Jewelers, Lynn Nelson and Jim Bayless are seeing to it that no one will want for silverware at Christmas time. It's been coming in every day—beautiful stuff in plate and sterling. What one hasn't on hand the other has.

Speaking of jewelry, the Augsburg shop has a nifty selection of gift merchandise coupled with a convenient lay-away plan.

Dropped in at the Craig Motor Co., this week and saw a beautiful new Chrysler on the floor. We offered Marion our 1940 Chevy and 100 bucks for the job. He just gave us one of those dadgummed silly laughs of his.

And they are carrying his neighbor Arlie Lowripore high about his ad in the Harvest Festival double page spread last week, in which he is offering a paint job at Jack's Garage. And Jack is sharing in the ragging too, some phoning them to know the color of the paint job. "Well, says Arlie, they do read the ads after all." Four white wall Star tires is his donation.

MANY FANS TO FOLLOW CUBS TO PAMPA TONITE

Two buses with many individual cars are to carry Brownfield fans and backers of the Cubs to Pampa to night to witness their seventh game of this season.

We learn the Legionnaires and other Veterans at Denver City will stage an Armistice Day rally in that city, the night of the 11th with dancing and other entertainments.

tions really pep the old town up! Too bad they weren't up in time for the fair.

Looks like compulsory vaccination against small pox is up against a battle down in Austin. Certain churches are agin' it. Perhaps a lot of sick people make a healthier flock in the minds of those preachers.

Another thought provoking news item is the air lines record for 1947—twice as many lives lost as in any previous year. These bigger and better planes make for bigger and more disastrous accidents. One crash of a big 56 passenger job can kill more people than four accidents with some of the earlier type transports.

Local Banks Are In Fine Condition

In last week's issue of the Herald, the statements of the two banks here, the Brownfield State and First National, appeared in detail. This was in response to a call issued by the Comptroller of the Currency at Washington, and the Commissioner of Insurance and Banking at Austin, as of Oct. 6th, closing time.

You also probably noted that the banks are taking care of the people in this area in a handsome way. Not too many years ago the customer might have to make a trip to larger cities of the state, or perhaps to Kansas City for a loan to purchase some cattle, other livestock, or make a payment on a farm. Then days are gone forever, it seems, as the banks are now providing such means without leaving the county.

And if most any person has a legitimate need of money, and has any stability and character worth mentioning, he can negotiate a loan in keeping with his business or enterprise. In fact it takes no semblance to a miracle to get a loan these days, if you really need one.

Below we are giving a combined total of the interesting parts of the statements as they appeared last week:

Loans	$3,395,480.37
Assets	9,862,318.03
Cash	3,139,475.30
Deposits	9,495,951.78

Mrs. Houston Hamilton is in Dallas visiting her daughter and new grandchild, Mrs. E. C. Walker and Linda Dean. Mr. Hamilton visited them, the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Breaks of Redlands, Calif., stopped over here for a short visit with Mrs. Break's aunt, Mrs. A. J. Stricklin and family, last Saturday. They had also visited at Stephenville, Brownwood and Lubbock. Mrs. Breaks graduated as a trained nurse in the Lubbock Memorial hospital.

Called around at the Walker Barber Shop this week and found that shop had recently changed hands, Mr. Matt Smith of Slaton being the purchaser. By the way, Mr. Smith wants a house badly, as he wants to move his family to Brownfield soon.

All ex-servicemen are urged to attend, as important matters are up for discussion.

John's Mexican Cafe Doing Good

Called around at the new cafe catering to people of Mexican descent, one day this week, and while we did not get to see the proprietor, another man informed us that John's Mexican Cafe was doing a nice business. Some of the business men near the place just off Main on south 7th, informed us that they feed lots of people over the week end.

While talking to the well dressed gentleman mentioned above, he informed us that he was a barber, and was seeking a small place to open a shop catering to Mexican people here helping to gather the bumper cotton crop.

If anyone knows of such a place, he can be contacted at John's Mexican Cafe most any time. Ask for the barber.

Thousands Visit The County Fair

Terry County's first Fair in seven years, was visited by thousands of spectators last week, and Terryites were elated over the many excellent exhibits, especially those of the Community booths. While the cattle exhibits were not too numerous, the dairy breeds were fine. Many hogs of various breeds were shown, were as fine as anybody's fair. In all it proved the pride of the people in Terry county.

Great hopes arose for much larger and better one next year.

Lubbock Girl Scouts
Guests of Locals

Six Senior Girl Scouts and their leader, Mrs. C. O. Cagle and her assistant leader and Mrs. S. E. Gillespie, president of the Lubbock Girl Scout association, were guests of the Brownfield senior troop Saturday afternoon.

The Scouts met at the Presbyterian church at 5:30 P. M. for Scout ceremonies and reports from the two troops. The Lubbock girls gave a history of their troop for the six years it has been organized. A sing song including Scout songs was enjoyed with Mrs. P. C. McCord playing the piano. The meeting closed with the singing of Taps and the girls adjourned to Coleman Park where they had a weiner roast and campfire ceremony.

The Brownfield Scouts attended the fair in a group after the weiner roast. Those participating were Jacki Crump, Doris Walls, Bernadine Chapman, Willa Johnson, Wanda Lou Baldwin, Lydia Beth Gorbey, Bernice Gross, Jo Ann Hudson, Loryce McBee and Iva Mae Blair. Mrs. John Butler is leader of the troop. She was assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baldwin in entertaining the out of town troop.

Mrs. Homer Nelson Loses Her Mother

Homer Nelson informed us this week that Mrs. Nelson's mother, Mrs. W. C. Porter, of Terrell, Texas died Saturday 18th, after two weeks illness, from which it was thought she was recovering, when a blood clot formed. Mrs. Porter had visited Mrs. Nelson, and was visiting another daughter at Abilene when stricken.

She was to have left the Abilene hospital Sunday or Monday. The body was carried to Terrell, where funeral and burial was had Monday the 20th. Her husband a noted soil conservationist in the early days, in conjunction with the late Dr. Knapp, passed on 11 years ago.

Mrs. Porter is survived by six sons and three daughters, including Mrs. Nelson.

Over Some of The Farm-To-Market
Roads Sunday

Late Sunday afternoon, the Sr. and Jr. members of this firm together with their wives and Mrs. Sallie Limer, of Long Beach, California, went out over some of the 50 odd miles of Farm to Market roads completed by the county, this year. First went out the Levelland highway to Needmore, then west to where one road turns south via Poole and to Johnson. From Johnson, the three or four mile gap to the Plains highway to be built by the state, is still just a poor excuse for a country lane.

Well, now, perhaps not 20, not 10, but five years ago it would have been considered a fair county lane, but after sifting around 60 mph on one of those paved F to M roads, that road seemed disgusting to say the least. But some of these days the State boys will get ready and then we will have some 30 miles more of FM roads. One thing that has held up the state part of the building was that they held out for 16 feet pavement, and the county wanted 18. The State finally capitulated.

In the course of a few years, there will be mighty few farm homes in Terry county more than three or four miles from pavement, or out of reach of light and power lines. Half the day when the farm family may return to their homes from towns in a dozen or two minutes, switch on the lights in the house and at the barns and go about their chores. Then after supper, not dinner, on Terry county farms, the old man can get his weekly or daily, light the old pipe, tune in the favorite programs, while the wife peruses the slick mags, and the children either study their lessons, or sprawl on the floor over the comics. When that happens, why want to move to a noisy town?

And while trying out a Homer Winston's and Commissioners Gossett, Bartlett, Fox and McNeil's road, we kept an eye skinned out at the fine crops in evidence at all points. Man it seems that old Terry after two years of failure, is simply turning to cotton and feed this year, and the harvesters have hardly touched the surface.

Found some cotton, evidently not storm proof, that is stringing out pretty badly. Hope a brisk norther does not pick it. They are so wasteful.

Approximately 396,000 farm families and other rural consumers in 44 states and Alaska will get electricity as the result of loans approved by REA during 1947.

Our Brother-In-Law Buried Last Friday

Slightly after midnight of Thursday morning last week, our telephone rang, and a voice at the other end of the line said, "Papa has just passed away." This has been expected for weeks, as Joe A. Roberts, of Coahoma, has been bed fast for some four months and Big Spring physicians had announced that there was nothing they could do. Funeral services were announced for Friday afternoon at the Baptist church at Coahoma, of which he was a charter member.

While his death was expected momentarily, all that knew Joe Roberts in life regretted to see him go. Many have been the pleasant visits the writer and family have had in the hospitable home of Joe and Rosetta Roberts, and we do not say this just because Mrs. Roberts is our wife's eldest sister. Evidence developed at the funeral that fully confirmed our ideas. Other people thought as we.

We don't think we have ever seen more food brought to any place than was unloaded and served by neighbors, to a huge crowd at the family residence Friday. And when we left, Friday P. M., 114 sprays and wreaths of flowers had been accounted for, some coming from Tennessee, Arizona and other states. There was at least $750 worth of flow-

DISTRICT COURT HOLDS SESSION NEXT TUESDAY

Judge Louis B. Reed of Lamesa has advised Mrs. White, district clerk, that he will be here Tuesday November 4.

He will convene a session of court and hear pending matters at that time.

Now people just don't extend themselves that way on food and flowers, as well as with their presence unless they like the deceased and his family.

While a fairly large church for a small town, it would not begin to hold those who came to pay their last respects. Many had to remain outside. Not only that, but every store and even the guns were silenced until after the funeral and burial.

Deceased leaves his widow and three boys and five girls: E. C. Roberts, Seagraves; Pat, of Coahoma, and Joe Jr., of Big Spring; Mrs. Hannah Thompson and the youngest child, Miss Letha Nell of Coahoma; Mrs. Ida Collins, of Big San Angelo and Mrs. Anna Belle Lay of Brownfield. Another daughter died in childhood back at the turn of this century. He had 10 grandchildren and 5 great-grandchildren. Two sisters survive.

Other than the Lay and Ming families, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Stricklin and Mrs. Sallie Limer attended from Brownfield.

MRS. J. H. HARRIS HONORED ON 78th BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Jess H. Harris, of Co-manche who is here visiting her daughters, Mrs. Vern Ellis, Mrs. Roy Collier and Mrs. L. O. Lewis, was complimented on her 78th birthday Friday afternoon with a party given by them at the home of Mrs. Ellis, 911 East Hill.

Spiced tea, decorated cake squares and nuts were served by Wanda Collier and Judy Barrow. The refreshment table was laid with a white cloth and centered with pink dahlias. A gold tea service and china appointed the table.

The guest list of friends of the honoree's that she made while living in Brownfield. Thirty-five were registered and several sent gifts that were unable to attend.

Avalanche-Journal Man Rates Thanks Of Terry County

As Ex-Governor Coke Stevenson would say, "we calculate" that C. W. Ratliff, one of the editors and sometimes pinch hitter for the field man, of the Avalanche-Journal publications, rates the thanks of Brownfield and Terry county, for his writeups and pictures of the Terry County Fair, held here last week. He did the job well.

Then Sunday, he did an even better job of giving our Harvest Festival and Merchants Jubilee, to be held Nov. 7th some mighty fine publicity. The publicity Mr. Ratliff gave the fair and show as well as the Jubilee, could not be bought, as an editor's opinion expressed in a newspaper is unbuyable.

We hope that Brownfield and Terry county, can in some measure in the future, render in kind some token of their appreciation of the publicity Editor Ratliff gave us.

Retail Sales in Small Cities Gain

Small towns throughout Texas came up with the brightest August retail trade picture in comparison with the August 1946 situation in spite of the fact that their larger sister cities turned in greater July-to-August sales hike according to reports of independent stores to The University of Texas Bureau of Business Research.

Cities in the largest population group (over 100,000) saw sales plunge 4 per cent below year-ago figures, medium sized cities (50,000-100,000) turned in a 1 per cent gain, the 2,500-50,000 population group registered a 2 per cent increase, and the smallest towns felt a 12 per cent sales boost. Average statewide sales gain in comparison with August 1946 sales was 3 per cent.

Farmers Home Administration made new adjustment loans to 23-654 veterans, amounting to $30,159,937 during 1947.

Westex County Joins Illicit Still Parade

Texas Liquor Control Board Inspectors in September reported the seizure of five illicit stills.

Destruction of the stills, which had a cubic capacity of 275 gallons, prevented the potential evasion of $5,866.24 in State taxes.

With the stills, Inspectors captured 400 gallons of mash and made 3 arrests. Sixty-six gallons of moonshine liquor were destroyed.

One still each was taken in the counties of Comanche, Titus, Hopkins, McCulloch, and Marion.

Mahon To Give "American Stake" In Europe Politics

A first hand account of conditions in Europe will be presented to Texas Technological College students and faculty Oct. 30 when Cong. George Mahon speaks on "America's Stake in European Politics" at a general convocation on the campus, Pres. W. M. Whyburn announces.

Mahon is a member of the Herter committee that recently toured Europe to investigate conditions relative to the Marshall plan. In his talk he is expected to discuss alternatives open to the United States in its foreign policy, placing special emphasis on relations between the United States and Russia.

The congressman's appearance at Tech precedes his return to Washington Nov. 5, when the 19-man Herter committee will hold its first formal meeting since returning from Europe to draw up recommendations for a joint Senate-House resolution on U. S. foreign relations.

As badly as we hate war—as much as we need housing, we dislike to see all the training camps all over the country scrapped and the land turned back to the original owners. If we could just believe that humanity had reached that point where they are ready to beat their swords into plowshares, we would gladly see them go. Some say there will be no time to train in the next war, then if the next "Pearl Harbor" does come, we had as well close shop. Those in the know say that our army, navy and air corps, the greatest on earth just as matter of 24 months ago, are now just a skeleton of their former selves, and wholly inadequate to meet modern conditions. To be unprepared is to invite attack. Prepared and no one wants to attack. But as long as this old world is in the turmoil it is at this time, there is nothing else to do than to be prepared.

It is said that our expert calculators begin back 100 years ago figuring just when the last tree would be cut, and all our timber resources exhausted. Then after that, they begin on the time when the coal would be dug out from under the surface. Right now the experts are concerned with telling us just when the last oil and gas will have been taken out of the earth. Men know a lot and are learning more, but the Almighty is a long way ahead yet. He knew what He was about when this old earth was built.

There are still a lot of plane accidents. Airplanes, while useful, in many ways, are still a long way from being foolproof, and perhaps always will be, even in the hands of the trained experts, and positively dangerous if handled by the novice. Airplanes of necessity have to be fast to navigate the air, and depending as they do on man's inventions to overcome converse air currents or unseen mountains, makes riding in them even more hazardous.

Price controls, which we remember as OPA, was given us as a war measure, and designed to step up production of war material, and not as a permanent regimentation of the people. If our government jumps in to prime the pump every time we hit rough going, it will not be too long until we find ourselves ruled by some dictator, one of these fine mornings. We realize as much as anyone that cost of everything one buys is high, and apparently will go higher, but let us remember that old saying that "all that goes up must come down." At the same time, let's hope that it won't come down too fast, like 1920 for instance. At the same time our duty ahead is to work like beavers, lay aside something if possible and keep out of debt as much as possible, and pay what we now owe. Prices will come down some of these days.

One of the great mistakes of Socialism is that their remedy of redistribution of the wealth really means "spreading poverty." Such is now happening in Merry Old England. The ambitious of the younger generation say it is no place to rear a family of young people, and as many of them as possible, are leaving for Canada, Australia or the south African colonies. Some are even coming to the United States, knowing the problem of housing and jobs, but are willing to risk all that where private initiative predominates. These young Englishmen are unwilling to emulate Mr. Micawber, a favorite Charles Dickens character, who was always "waiting for something to turn up."

Many people who have no love or even respect for the commies are beginning to wonder if the powers that be at Washington are doing just the right thing, or going about the matter in the right way in calling them to Washington to testify. Perhaps it is even true that communistic propaganda is infiltrating the movie plays now being produced, yet there might be a better way to head off this move than these open hearings. Things like this could lead to an investigation of a free press and free speech. Don't misunderstand us. We believe these people who are trying to undermine our way of life should be kept under surveillance, and their shielded propaganda deleted from all movies to go out for young people to see and hear. And those guilty of trying to destroy our country in any way should be prosecuted or banished to the countries they profess to love.

Some one, unbeknowing to us, has had "The Fact" a small four page magazine printed in New York, sent to the Herald dater up one year. Now this was mighty thoughtful of someone, but after reading some of the few numbers we have received, we have decided that while the small pulp magazine is not exactly red, it is at least a bit pinkish. It seems to be the burden of this magazine to show that anyone who accumulates more than a bare living during a life of hard work

MACHINERY MAKE AMERICAN FARMERS SUPERIOR

Farmers are major users of steel and steel products, according to Clifford F. Hood of Cleveland, Ohio, president of the American Steel and Wire Company, who spoke recently in New York on the General Electric Farm Forum. "Far from being minor in character, the farm market for steel and steel products is of tremendous importance," Mr. Hood pointed out, "and members of the steel industry fully appreciate the fact that our prosperity is to a large degree dependent up on the farmer's welfare."

The low cost of steel used in the manufacture of farming implements was mentioned by Mr. Hood in the WGY broadcast. "The steel in an average-sized tractor, which costs the farmer $1350, has the value of but $60, or 4.4 per cent of the total price." The machine is, to a large extent, responsible for the high degree of efficiency of American farms, which are the world's biggest producers of food, Mr. Hood said. He compared the United States and Soviet Russia.

Dr. and Mrs. E. C. Davis and Mr. L. O. Lewis returned Saturday from a two weeks hunting trip in Arizona and Utah. They brought back their quota.

Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Walker spent the week end in Portales, N. M. with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Nixon.

"Russia has a land area two and a half times what ours is. Her population is one-third larger. But our farm production is one and one half times what Russia's is, even though we both have under cultivation about the same amount of land," Mr. Hood asserted. "We surpass Russian production regularly."

American farmers are more efficient, he said. "Just before the war, each of our farm workers was producing six times more than each Russian worker," Mr. Hood declared.

Porter Boys Are Soil Conservationists

While at the Herald office this week to report the death of his mother-in-law, Mrs. W. C. Porter, Homer Nelson disclosed the fact that the six sons of the late W. C. Porter were following in the footsteps of their demised father in soil conservation work on their own farms around Terrell, Texas. Homer related that some of their lands had become so rundown that 15 bushels of oats was considered a top crop.

One of the sons planted vetch (we hope we spelled it right) and last fall turned the green plants under. That was followed this spring with oats that made 60 bushels per acre. The conversation then drifted to the old states, where we related that they were building up soil we thought was done for 50 years ago, by sowing lespedeza clover, and grazing a few years before re-cultivation. From that we went to planting young pine seedlings on the old red gullied hillsides.

Homer Gave Us A Story
Speaking of pine led Homer to open up with a good story he don't think we'll print, as he was not talking for publication. But here's about how it happened. Several years ago, a young man back there near Prescott, Ark., where Homer's dad lives, had some pine land mortgaged to a rayon concern in New Jersey. He was about to lose it, and offered it to Mr. Nelson for the debt against it. Mr. Nelson declined, as he already had all the land he wanted.

But Homer became interested

GOMEZ H D REPORT

Gomez Home Demonstration club elected the following officers for next year when members met in the home of Mrs. Tyler Martin last Monday.

Mrs. Tyler Martin, re-elected president; Mrs. Denver Kelly, vice president; Mrs. Kenneth Hodges, secretary and treasurer; Mrs. Jack Mason, council delegate, Mrs. Kellie Sears, reporter and Mrs. Wes Key, parliamentarian.

The hostess served ice cream and cake to 6 members and two visitors who were Mrs. Gordon Carter and Mrs. Carl Willis.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lewis and daughter, Patty spent Saturday night and Sunday in Plainview visiting relatives.

Ireba Chaffin, owner of the Style Shop returned Friday from Fort Worth and Dallas where she attended market.

and bought the land for $7 per acre. He later acquired some more pine land near it. At the time of the purchase, Homer related, all the pine was cut to six inch trees. Homer has never let any be cut less than 10 inches, and he has received an average of $100 per acre for the timber alone.

Now that joints right up with an editorial we wrote before we talked with Homer about the experts calculating as far back as 100 years ago, that all our forests would soon be exhausted. With the proper conservation such as Homer is practicing, we'll have lots of timber in the USA long after the present generation is forgotten.

And the Arkansas Chamber of Commerce can send us a check for this advertisement.

A Local Drug Store Insults Our Pen

Our "Forever Amber" ballpoint pen, that was supposed to write three years without refilling, after a few months, balked, coughed and died recently. It was one of the kind that is supposed to write in the shower, tub, or under the waters of the Pacific, or even in the stratosphere, on anything. We thought a lot of that pen.

We also got the idea that the ballpoint was the powerhouse that made the wheels go round. We spoke to a local druggist about a refill. "Sure, send it up," We did, and soon the employee not only returned with a refill but a brand new ballpoint, and handed us the old ink reservoir and the old point.

Imagine our feeling at having been disillusioned about that priceless ball point. Of course, we did not pay much for the pen—got it as a prize for buying two gross of pencils, but just think how much our ego is lowered.

Lyon-Holleman Corners The Old He

Saw Lee Lyon and H. L. Holleman on the sidewalks one day this week and invited them in a cafe for a cupa Arbucks. They refused but lunged on us with all four feet, as it were. Reason, H. L. put in the first irrigation wells in south Terry and we have never visited his farm, or perhaps mentioned the fact.

Frankly, the boys were not much mad if any, as they kept smiling while roasting us, but we promise to visit the Holleman farm before too long, and it has been moons since we were at the modern farm home of the Lyons.

By the way, Mr. Holleman informed us that he made some mighty fine crops this year, and believed he had some cotton that would go 1 1-4 bale per acre.

Friend Young Brings In Whopper Melon

Our old friend, J. M. Young of west Terry, presented the Herald family with a melon last week, as he was bringing some specimens from the Young farm to the fair. This one would have weighed around 60 or 70 pounds.

One of the husky boys at the office loaded it in the car when we got ready to go home that day, and the Old He is not much pumpkin when it comes to carrying heavy stuff, the ladies had to unload the whopper.

Now you won't believe this probably, but the women went to the car with a butcher knife and halved it before trying to carry it in the house. One half was covered with oiled paper and kept for days in the frigidaire, and the ladies pronounced it the best they have eaten this year.

Thanks a lot, old timer.

Officials Review State Guard Plans

Veterans' News

The Veterans Administration is appealing to veteran students and job-trainees, as well as to schools and job training establishments in which veterans are enrolled under the GI Bill, for assistance in preventing subsistence allowance overpayments.

The veterans and their training establishments are asked to notify VA immediately when trainee-veterans abandon their training programs. When veterans know in advance the definite date on which they will complete or discontinue their training, they should advise VA at that time instead of waiting until they are actually stop their training.

Failure to notify VA of training discontinuances usually results in overpayments of subsistence allowances, VA said. Such overpayments must be refunded to the government.

A recent survey disclosed an average lapse of 23 days between the time the veteran stopped his training and the time VA was notified of his discontinuance. As a result, the veteran continued to receive subsistence allowance payments to which he was not entitled.

Immediate or advance notice of training discontinuances will assist VA materially in reducing the amount of overpayments. In many cases, such notices will eliminate overpayments and the necessity for refunds by veterans.

Veterans who fail to make arrangements to repay subsistence allowance overpayments may be prevented from re-entering schools or job-training courses under the GI Bill.

Veterans are not being forced to turn back full amounts immediately. They need only make arrangements for monthly repayments that cause them no financial hardship and thus become qualified to resume training.

The Low Down From Hickory Grove

Well folks, these latest new kind of days—"no chicken on Thursday," "no meat on Tuesday," etc.—they give me an idea for another new kind of day. Maybe it can be squeezed in some place—and will catch on. I am calling it "no chaos day." On that day it will be quiet—nobody will break out in a lather that something has gotta be done before sundown or disaster will overtake us. If there is one thing in this land-of-the-free that we have more of, but which does not seem to be cramping our style too much, it is "threatened chaos." Chaos is hanging over our head like a chicken hawk over the barnyard.

Folks go to bed fearful of what will be on the radio at 7 next morning. Stomach ulcers and irritated dispositions come next. And anybody thing that stomach ulcers are not our national affliction, let him hesitate for one-half second at a red stop-light. The raucous toots from behind will tell him.

My new "no chaos day," if we could arrange to have it coincide with election day, I kinda figure the quietness might help. Anybody not endorsing this idea, he might drop in on his doctor—2 to one it is his stomach.

Yours with the low down,
JO SERRA.

Introduces Extension Courses in Japan

When Japanese students are able to study extension courses from their own universities this fall, it will be due in part to the efforts of Dr. C. D. Eaves, professor of history at Texas Technological college.

Dr. Eaves recently returned from Japan where he spent a year with the United States Intelligence and Education program.

teaching geo-politics to American troops, and later with the Civilian Intelligence and Education program, in which he supervised reorganization of about 80 Japanese colleges and universities in the Tokio area. He helped introduce extension courses in these colleges, the first in Japanese history.

The Japanese are making a genuine effort to learn American type democracy and sincerely wish to maintain friendly relations with the United States, Dr. Eaves declared. Although Russian agents are doing everything in their power to hinder American occupation activities in the islands, they are meeting with small success because at least 95 per cent of the Japanese hate and fear Communism and the Russians, he stated.

The professor expressed his opinion that Japanese masses are truly grateful to the United States for giving them freedom of speech and the press, the first they have ever had.

G I Questions And Answers

Q. Can I get wartime compensation rate paid for disabilities I incurred in peacetime service?

A. No. If your disability was incurred in peacetime service, you will not be entitled to wartime benefits unless your service falls under PL 359 - 77th Congress which provides wartime rates if the disability was the direct result of armed conflict or was received while you were engaged in extra hazardous service.

Q. How can I show that my parents are dependent on me for support?

A. Dependency will be held to exist if your parents do not have an income sufficient to provide reasonable maintenance for themselves and members of their family under legal age, or members of the family otherwise dependent by reason of mental or physical condition.

Q. If I accept the compensation check VA has sent me, does that mean I am satisfied with the rating given me?

A. No. The acceptance of a check does not waive any rights you may have in claiming greater compensation or pension than that which has been awarded you.

Q. What identification data should I give in writing about my claim for benefits administered by the Veterans Administration?

A. If you are making application you should give your full name, grade, organization, serial number, date of entrance into service, date of discharge, and date and place of birth. After the claim is filed it will be assigned a claim number which should be mentioned in all subsequent communications.

Q. What books and equipment does Veterans Administration supply or pay for while a veteran is taking education or training under the G I Bill?

A. VA pays for all books and equipment that the school requires of all students in the same course.

Q. May I change the course I am taking for another that I like better and in which I feel there is a better future for me?

A. Yes. You may change your course providing you have VA's permission to do so. If the facts in your case indicate that a change will be to your best interest, VA will grant authorization for the change.

Q. Is out-patient treatment available to a veteran with a non-service-connected disability?

A. No. I was a member of the WAAC but did not continue in the service when it became the WAC. Am I entitled to hospitalization in a Veterans Administration hospital?

A. Yes, if you meet eligibility requirements.

Q. I work in the day and would like to know if I may enroll in a night school or take a part-time course under the G I Bill?

Recruiting Campaign Increases National Guard

Reflecting the rise in enlistments during the current nationwide recruiting campaign, 53 ground units of the National Guard were given recognition during the week ending October 10, 1947, Major General Kenneth F. Cramer, Chief of the National Guard Bureau, has reported.

Texas had two units that were recognized. They are Service Battery, 645 Armored Field Artillery Battalion of Wichita Falls and Troop A, 124th Mechanized Reconnaissance Squadron of Snyder.

RABIES MORE PREVALENT IN WINTER

Contrary to popular belief, rabies is more prevalent in winter than in the so-called "dog-days" of the hot summer months.

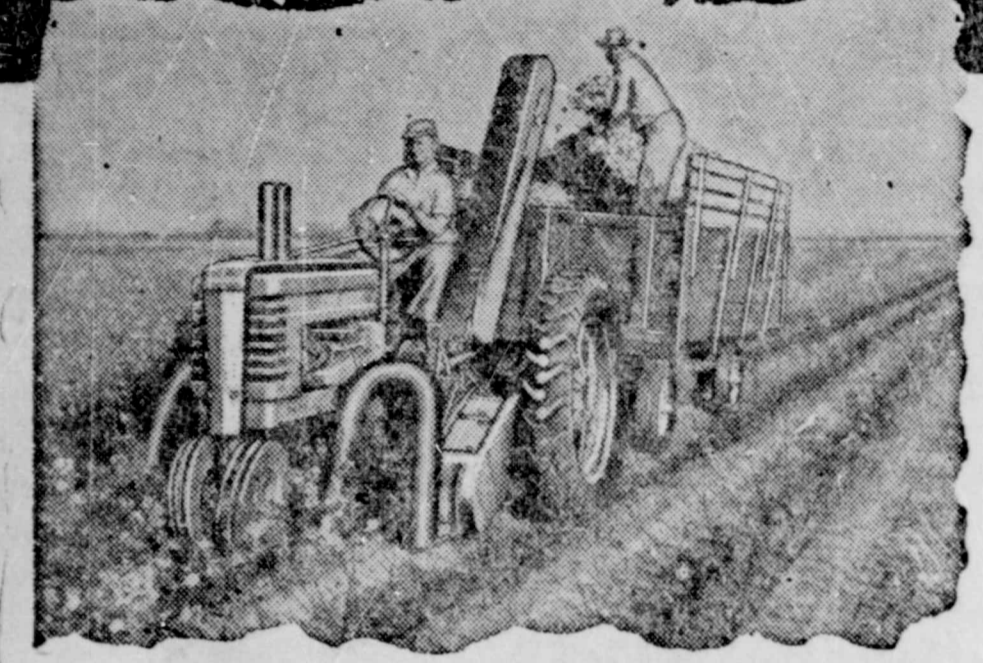

In a statement released this week by Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, it was disclosed that of all animal brains submitted for examination by the State Laboratory in January, 1947, 33 per cent tested positive for rabies, while in the mid-summer month of July only 18 per cent were positive.

"If all stray dogs were destroyed, and all pets vaccinated for rabies, it would go far toward stamping out this justly feared, and always fatal disease," Dr. Cox said.

The doctor stressed that dogs suspected of having rabies should not be killed immediately, but should instead be confined ten days for observation to see if the disease develops. If a dog sickens and dies during the observation period, the head should be packed in ice and sent to the State Health Department for examination. Freezing the brain, or killing the dog prematurely, or in such a manner as to injure the brain may make correct laboratory findings uncertain, if not impossible.

Dr. Cox declared that after a dog is confined ten days and then killed, there is still a safe margin of time for a victim of his bite to be treated for rabies prevention, but he cautioned that if the disease is found to be present in the dog, the victim should then begin treatment without further delay.

Mrs. J. B. Knight and Mrs. Terrell Knight and children spent the weekend in Graham visiting Mrs. J. B. Knight's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. McClanahan. They accompanied her home to visit here for several weeks.

Harvesting cotton in a once-over operation is the short cut to bigger profits. Get this advantage by stripping and delivering cotton, two rows at a time, with a labor-saving John Deere No. 15 Cotton Harvester.

Designed to work with the John Deere "A" and "B" Tractors, the No. 15 is a simple, sturdy, long-lived machine that does a fast, efficient job of saving bolls after the cotton plants have been killed by frost. Many gin operators state that cotton stripped by the John Deere is cleaner than that pulled by the average hand puller.

Every housewife these days is constantly looking for low-cost meat dishes that are eye-appealing enough for the most jaded appetites. Here's plain old Hambryer which can be shaped to look like a steak. Mix well 1 lb. ground chuck beef, with 1/2 cup milk or water, 1 cup wholewheat cereal flakes, 1 tsp. salt, 1/4 tsp. pepper and 2 tbsp. minced onions. Put in a 10" metal pie plate shaping like a steak to about 1" thickness. Broil 8 to 12 mins. underneath medium high flame turning once with tongs. 5 servings.

A good way to save gas is to bake eggs under the broiler rack in bacon drippings while the bacon is broiling. Use medium flame.

If you find your broiler oven lining heavily spattered with grease try putting a shallow dish filled with ammonia in each compartment, close the doors and leave for a while. The ammonia fumes help loosen the grease making the final cleansing that much easier.

High prices today call for lower-cost use of cheaper meats. Frankfurters can be teamed with cold cuts. Try wrapping a piece of bologna around a frankfurter, fasten with a toothpick, brown under medium flame in your broiler.

Here are pep and liveliness that few cars of any price can equal . . . power and dependability known the world over . . . all stemming from Chevrolet's World's Champion Valve-in-Head Engine which has delivered more miles for more owners than any other engine built today!
