A YOUNG HERO.

He Kills Six Cheyennes and Escapes With a Scalp.
[From the Leavenworth Commercial, Aug. 15.]

Some four or five weeks ago, one of the grading parties in advance of the railroad, had with them a young man of about eighteen years, named George Wait. His business was to break the prairie ground with a plough, for the graders along the line. One morning, as he was out about two and a half miles from the camp, 21 miles beyond Ellsworth, mounted on a mule, he discovered a party of about thirty Indians dash out of the timber, on the Smoky Hill, and make towards him and another man, who was on foot, about a quarter of a mile nearer camp than he was. He started to go towards camp, but the Indians discovered his intention, and, by the superior fleetness of their ponies, cut him off. Young Wait now saw them divide into two parties—one party going towards his comrade and the other towards him. He attempted to make the timber on the Smoky Hill, but the Indians were too rapid in their movements for him. He had two navy revolvers, and resolved that the remnants should pay for their scalp if they got it, and at a fair price, too. Soon they came near, circling around him with savage yell, and began shooting at him. The Indians seemed to be well armed with pistols and lances, very few having bows and arrows.

Wait returned the fire, and he says that several times they came so near that the lances nearly touched him. Indian after Indian fell before the unerring aim of Wait's six-shooters, and the assaulting party was getting smaller very rapidly; the dead Indians being carried away by the survivors according to Indian custom. Soon he heard the shouts of approaching comrades, and the Indians made a final dash to kill the brave boy, who, unaimed already with a bullet in his leg, still stood to his mule. One young warrior came up until the muzzle of his pistol nearly touched that of the boy, and both fired—the Indian falling from his horse with a mortal wound, while the hero of the fight only got a revolver ball in his side. In a few moments more the retreating party came up, consisting of half a dozen negro soldiers and some railroad employees, when the Indians suddenly retreated. Wait still had strength to dismount and take the pistols and scalp-diamond of the "last of the Cheyennes," which last he now bears as a trophy of his fight.

GOING ON IN THE OLD WAY.—At the recent commencement of the Georgia State University at Athens, one of the graduates delivered an address on the "Vital Principles of Nations," the sentiments of which were evidently drawn from the same sources of inspiration as the recent letters of that thoroughly un-reconstructed ex-senator, Ben. H. Hill. There were other symptoms of mismanagement at the commencement. The rebel sentiments of the young orator were vociferously applauded, the band played Dixie, and as the report we get from there says "nothing more," they probably did not know any other air, and the whole affair, showed conclusively that the faculty of the university had neither learned anything from the war, nor permitted anything useful to be taught in that institution. Gen. Pope has therefore very wisely cut off their supplies. He has forbidden the payment of any money out of the State treasury to the faculty of Athens. The rebel papers are therefore more wrathful against General Pope than ever.

A CARD FROM GOVERNOR BROWNLOW.
KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 13, 1867.
To the Editor of the Chronicle:

The Springfield (Mass.) Republican, of the 10th instant, thus introduced the subject of our late elections:
"A letter from Nashville, Tenn., states that Governor Brownlow promised, before election, that if his party succeeded suffrage should be extended to all the white men of the State. The Conservatives will now ask him to call the old Legislature together, as they can change the law at once, while it would take six years to carry through an amendment to the Constitution. If Brownlow refuses to fulfill his promise, there will be an agitation at once for a Convention to pass a new Constitution."

I made no such ridiculous promise, either privately or publicly, in writing or by speaking, and for the all-sufficient reason that I entertain no such sentiment. The bad conduct of the rebel papers and politicians, during our late canvass, has satisfied me that our franchise law is right. If the rebels wish peace, let them submit to the laws of this State; if they desire the reverse, let them commence "agitation."

Loyal men intend to govern this State, and they propose to do it without the advice of Northern journals, falsely claiming to be Republicans. I will have all such journals know that I am elected by 20,000 of a majority on the white vote, and by 50,000 upon the entire vote of the State. Elected, too, in the face of Northern opposition that ought to bow its head in shame.

W. G. BROWNLOW,
Governor of Tennessee.
—Brownlow's Whig.

A wild woman who believes herself excommunicated by the Pope and condemned to lead a solitary life for ten years, has been caught and caged in the mountains of Wales.

ANOTHER AMNESTY.

Telegram dated the 3d inst. says: "The President's amnesty is before the Cabinet this morning. The President hoped last night it would be disposed of to day. The proclamation will be based upon that of March 1862, issued by Johnson while Provisional Governor of Tennessee, which was approved by Lincoln and Congress. That proclamation said in effect, while conscious that treason may be punished, no vindictive or retaliative measures will be adopted, but a general amnesty for all past acts and expressions, will be granted to the people on the single condition that they yield themselves citizens under the majority of the law. He appealed to all erring and misguided people to return to their allegiance, and avail themselves of this amnesty."

What can this mean? Is Johnson preparing to recognize the South as it stands, without reconstruction? Is he determined on overturning the whole Congressional plan? It looks like it; no other use for an amnesty could be suggested.

THE LOYALTY OF THE SOUTHERN PULPIT.

The rebel clergy of Virginia are greatly exercised over the following indorsement made by Gov. Pierpont upon a paper appealing to the North for pecuniary aid to build a loyal Methodist church in Richmond:

"There is great need of the church building just referred to. The spirit of the Southern pulpit is thoroughly disloyal, active in the propaganda of rebel sentiments and in cherishing the hope that the 'lost cause' may be regained by the destruction of republican government in this country."

They have in large numbers signed a circular published to all the world, like one of the general epistles of old, protesting their innocence of all and each of those allegations. The sensitive loyalty of the church in this quarter is fully shown by the gratuitous denial at the late Baptist Convention, held at Trenton, of the "painful rumor" that a Baptist church of this city was Yankeeized, or abolitionized, or ministered to by a Federal chaplain. A doctor of divinity felt called upon to forever set at rest these "painful rumors" by the assurance that the pastor was as true to the South during the war as he had been himself. Comment is unnecessary. — Memphis Post.

In this State God's Gospel is monopolized by those who still cling to the "lost cause," and until sectionalism is done away with in the churches the religion of the meek and lowly Saviour must languish. Spiritual christianity must be built up or the cause will perish.

DEATH OF GEN. GRIFFIN'S CHILD.—We learn that Gen. Griffin has lost a child by yellow fever. Gen. Griffin has become endeared to the loyal people of Texas, and in his sorrow he has their sympathy and their earnest prayers.

INDIAN NEWS.—It is reported that a party of fifteen Indians are again down in the Boerne county. We learn that Gen. Hatch has dispatched an expedition to Devil's River to break up a camp of Indians reported to be in that vicinity.

CAPTURED.—We learn that the three murderers who committed the double murder in Mason County, recently, and also killed a citizen of Lampasas, have been captured in Barnett.

DEATH OF A PAPER.—We learn that Mr. John Reidner, a printer who formerly worked in this office, has fallen a victim to the yellow fever in Galveston. He leaves a wife and child in this city.

OFFICERS ILL.—We learn that Lieut. Garrison is recovering from his attack, and that Gen. Potter is still very ill in Galveston.

Woman's suffrage was voted down in the Michigan Constitutional Convention by a vote of 34 to 29.

CATHOLIC PRISONS TO BE KEPT OUT OF MEXICO.—New Orleans, Aug. 29.—Steamship Fizarro, from Matamoros, arrived last night with dates to the 31st; but little news. The Brownsville Ranchero publishes a copy of the order of Beriozabel to the Chief of Police, directing the arrest of Catholic priests crossing from the American side to the Mexican side of the river, holding them subject to his disposition.

CITY FINANCES.

We find the following in the San Antonio Herald, the city organ, intended we suppose, as a report of our city finances for the past year:

The first item is $5,202 10 "issued to pay debts contracted under the administration of D. Cleveland;" also further down, 1,450 00 "contracted under D. Cleveland's administration." This is meant to lead people to believe that the Cleveland administration left the city in debt the sum of $6,652 10. From the best information we have we learn that every dollar's indebtedness contracted by the Cleveland administration was paid up to the hour of Cleveland going out of office, and $1,000 left in the treasury. These sums above stated may be for work commenced or contracted for which have been carried out by the present administration and belong to the present administration.

The second item is $78,856 63, "issued to pay expenses incurred since August 25th, 1866." Add to this another item, to pay the expenses during said time, $3,084 70, making $81,941 33, "issued to pay expenses incurred since August 25th, 1866." Add to this the amounts claimed to have been paid on Cleveland's account, and we have an expenditure of $88,893 40. Now who got this money? Where are the items? It is little satisfaction for our people to look in vain for a valuable public improvement and learn that $88,893 40 has been expended by the city.

What a magnificent report to make of a year's administration of the city! How satisfactory to the people who have paid the taxes.

Now just let us glance at the Cleveland administration. In the same length of time they paid a debt of $20,000, made more permanent improvements than any former administration, left a thousand dollars in the treasury and city scrip at par. The above report gives no account of monies received, but merely monies paid out, and we have only the slightest clue to the actual indebtedness of the city, in the items: "Amount currency warrants outstanding, $7,332 18;" "amount specie warrants outstanding, $3,223 45." Nothing is said of the amount turned over by former administration; of the amount in the hands of the collector, or the amount due the city at that time. Such an "exhibit" is one of the most damaging proofs of incompetency if not the most extensive dishonesty.

In speaking of Flakes Bulletin the Houston Telegraph says:

The Bulletin, then, has at last defined its position. It is a "middleman," neither Radical nor Conservative, representing neither original Union men nor ex-Confederates. He is ready to fall on the side of Johnson and Grant, or Stanton, Sheridan, and Congress, according to which promises to vie. Fluke held an equally safe position in regard to the Federal and Confederate Governments. Pretty good for Fluke.

To-day's Tribune hugs Grant. The Herald drops him. The political position assumed by General Grant shows our great soldier in a new light. It is his first development of political genius—his first and final mistake. The reply of the President has completely overturned him—outflanked him. Grant does not understand the crisis. He clings to Sheridan and forgets principles."

The military authorities at Cheyenne, the new Pacific railway town, lately made a campaign against the whisky saloons of that place and emptied every drop of liquor into the streets.

THE TREATMENT OF REBEL PRISONERS.

A Rock Island (Ill.) paper publishes the following:

"The official record of the rebel prison on the island of Rock Island, as kept by the Commissary of Prisoners—a copy of which, and the only one that was taken from the original, and is now in the possession of C. D. Knox, of this city—shows that out of fifteen thousand prisoners kept on the island only eight died of scurvy. This is a much smaller proportionate number of deaths from the disease than occurred in the federal army, even in time of actual service. No prison was ever nearer kept, or sanitary rules and regulations more strictly enforced, than at the Rock Island barracks. The rebel generals had but little feeling for the welfare of their men. They were only poorly fed, poorly clothed and overworked while in the service, and it was not until they fell into the hands of the federals as prisoners of war that they received full rations. This we learned from the lips of those who had been prisoners themselves, and with whom we afterward became intimately acquainted. To charge cruelty in the management of the Rock Island prison, in order to draw attention from the investigation about to be made in the treatment of federal prisoners in southern prisons, and thereby apparently lessen the enormity of the guilt that attached to those in command there, at the time when men were absolutely starved to death, shows a want of the commonest humanity."

A FENIAN ADVENTURE.—The New York Times publishes a "curious and romantic, but true narration" of the adventures of a party of Fenians who fitted up a vessel and sailed in April last from New York for Ireland, from which they returned a short time ago. There were three hundred and fifty of these bold adventurers, all picked men, thoroughly armed, and well supplied with warlike stores. They got to the Irish coast in safety, touching at different points, and landed an armed force at the most promising locality. But nobody gathered round them, or knew anything of them or their project, or cared anything at all about them. And so, after a series of mishaps, and daring attempts, in which a number of them were captured, the bark Plato has returned to New York, bearing a body of men who have suffered hardships that they are not willing to repeat.

The Pope's Concordat with Austria, which became a law on the 5th of November, 1855, has been abrogated by the Austrian Diet, by a vote of 130 to 24. By the terms of the Concordat, every person, institution, and thing in Austria was submitted to the church; education was confided to her, worship was confided to her, every grand transaction of life—birth, marriage, burial—could be legalized only by her assent. Every hospital was surrendered to nuns, every school to the fathers, every charity to an affiliated order. All the German representatives in the Diet voted for the abrogation except one, and this one refused to vote with the majority because the act was not radical enough.

When Van Amburgh's show was in Burlington, Iowa, a few days ago, and parading through the streets, the old elephant Tippo Saib refused to venture on the Main street bridge; no persuasion could induce him to cross. It is said this same animal fell through this bridge some ten years ago, while attempting to cross it, and he is supposed to have remembered it.

Garth said he married to obtain respectability. Wilkes wedded to please his friends. Weyerly, in his old age, took his servant girl to spite his relations, and there is a story about a widow so inconsolable for the loss of a husband that she took another to keep from fretting herself to death.

The Brown University pedestrians have returned from a trip of nine hundred and eighty-two miles. They were taken, at various places, for Gypsies, returned soldiers, Fenians, peddlars, railroad workers, racehorse riders, sailors, base-ball players, freemen and ruffians.

The London Record says that the Ritualistic Commission met on the 5th of August, and, according to general rumor, the proposal for exceptional legislation, dispensing with uniformity of vestments in parochial churches, was negatived by a majority."

Two St. Louis policemen undertook to drive a hog which was rooting in the streets lately, but the animal turned on them and put them to flight. In the chase he gained upon them, and they took to a tree for safety.

Gen. Sheridan has granted, on surgeon's certificate of disability, permission for Chaplain John C. Jacobi, 9th Cavalry, to leave the limits of this district for thirty days. —N. O. Times, Aug. 28th.

—Horace Maynard, Wm. B. Stakes, A. J. Fletcher, and General Joseph A. Cooper, are named as radical candidates for the Tennessee senatorship.

Mrs. Lincoln passed through Milwaukee last week, on her way to Lake Superior.

A Leipzig bookseller is about to publish the works of the late Maximilian. They will form seven volumes.

STILL ANOTHER NEW AND ATROCIOUS WORD.—A Western paper remarks: "Up to a late hour last night not a single drinker had found his way, on account of his weakness for strong drink, to the hospitalities of the city." Editors should restrain reporters from trifling with the English language in this way.

This latest extravagance about Maggie Mitchell is that she was engaged to be married to Robert Henry Hendershot, "the drummer boy of the Rappahannock," and gave up her trip to Palestine and the East because of his elopement and marriage with a Poughkeepsie, New York, girl.

PUBLIC ACTS OF THE 39th Congress of the United States of America.

CHAP. CLXXXIV.—An Act to reduce Internal Taxation and to amend an Act entitled "An Act to provide Internal Revenue to support the Government, to pay Interest on the Public Debt, and for other Purposes," approved June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and sixty-four, and acts amendatory thereof.

That section ninety-nine be amended by striking out all after the enacting clause, and inserting in lieu thereof the following: That there shall be paid on all sales, made by brokers, banks or bankers, whether made for the benefit of other or on their own account, of the following taxes, that is to say: Upon all sales and contracts for the sale of stocks, bonds, gold and silver bullion and coin, promissory notes or other securities, a tax at the rate of one cent for every hundred dollars of the amount of such sales or contracts; and on all sales and contracts for sale negotiated and made by and persons, firm or company not paying a special tax as a broker, bank or banker, of any gold or silver bullion, coin, promissory notes, stocks, bonds, or other securities, not his or their own property, there shall be paid a tax at the rate of five cents for every hundred dollars of the amount of such sales or contracts; and on every sale and contract for sale, as aforesaid, there shall be made and delivered by the seller to the buyer a bill or memorandum of such sale or contract, on which there shall be affixed a lawful stamp or stamps in value equal to the amount of tax on such sale, to be determined by the rates of tax before mentioned; and in computing the amount of the stamp tax in any case herein provided for, any fractional part of one hundred dollars or value or amount which tax is computed shall be accounted at one hundred dollars. And every bill or memorandum of sale, or contract of sale, before mentioned, shall show the date thereof, the name of the seller, the amount of the sale or contract, and the matter or thing to which it refers. And any person or persons liable to pay the tax as herein provided, or any one who acts in the matter as agent or broker for such person or persons, who shall make any such sale or contract, or who shall, in pursuance of any sale or contract, deliver or receive any stocks, bonds, bullion, coin, promissory notes, or other securities, without a bill or memorandum thereof, as herein required, or who shall deliver or receive such bill or memorandum without having the proper stamps affixed thereto, shall forfeit and pay to the United States a penalty of five hundred dollars for each and every offence where the tax so evaded, or attempted to be evaded, does not exceed one hundred dollars, and a penalty of one thousand dollars where such tax shall exceed one hundred dollars, which may be recovered with costs in any court of the United States of competent jurisdiction, at any time within one year after the liability to such penalty shall have been incurred; and the penalty recovered shall be awarded and distributed by the court between the United States and the informer, if there be any, as provided by law, who, in the judgment of the court, shall have first given the information of the violation of the law for which recovery is had: Provided, That where it shall appear that the omission to affix the proper stamp was not with intent to evade the provisions of this section, said penalty shall not be incurred. And there shall be paid monthly on all sales by commercial brokers of any goods, wares, or merchandise, a tax of one twentieth of one per centum upon the amount of such sales; and on or before the tenth day of each month, every commercial broker shall make a list or return to the assistant assessor of the district of the gross amount of such sales as aforesaid for the preceding month, in form and manner as may be prescribed by the commissioner of internal revenue: Provided, That in estimating sales of goods, wares, and merchandise for the purposes of this section, any sales made by or through another broker upon which a tax has been paid shall not be estimated and included as sold by the broker for whom the sale was made.

And whenever the addition to any fare shall amount only to the fraction of one cent, and person, or company, liable to the tax of two and a half per centum, may add to such fare as cent in lieu of such fraction; and such person or company shall keep for sale, at convenient points, tickets in packages of twenty and multiples of twenty, to the price of which only an amount equal to the revenue tax shall be added: And provided further, That no tax under the foregoing provisions of this section shall be assessed upon any person, firm, company, or corporation, whose gross receipts do not exceed one thousand dollars per annum: And provided further, That all boats, barges, and flats not used for carrying passengers, nor propelled by steam or sails, which are floated or towed by tug-boats or horses, and used exclusively for carrying coal, oil, minerals, or agricultural products to market, shall be required hereafter, in lieu of enrollment fees of tonnage tax, to pay an annual special tax, for each and every such boat of a capacity exceeding twenty-five tons, and not exceeding one hundred tons, five dollars; and when exceeding one hundred tons, as aforesaid, shall be required to pay ten dollars; and said tax shall be assessed and collected as other special taxes provided for in this act.

That section one hundred and seven be amended by striking out all after the enacting clause, and inserting in lieu thereof the following: That any person, firm, company, or corporation owning or possessing or having the care or management of any telegraph line by which telegraphic dispatches or messages are received or transmitted, shall be subject to and pay a tax of three per centum on the gross amount of all receipts of such person, firm, company, or corporation.

That section one hundred and ten be amended by striking out all after the enacting clause, and inserting in lieu thereof the following: That there shall be levied, collected, and paid a tax of one twenty-fourth of one per centum each month upon the average amount of the deposits of money, subject to payment by check or draft, or represented by certificates of deposit or otherwise, whether payable on demand or at some future date, with any person, bank, association, company, or corporation engaged in the business of banking; and a tax of one twenty-fourth of one per centum each month, as aforesaid, upon the capital of any bank, association, company, or corporation, and on the capital employed by any person in the business of banking beyond the average amount invested in United States bonds; and a tax of one twelfth of one per centum each month upon the average amount of circulation issued by any bank, association, corporation, company, or person, including as circulation all certified checks and all notes and other obligations calculated or intended to circulate or to be used as money, but not including that in the vault of the bank, or redeemed and on deposit for said bank; and an additional tax of one sixth of one per centum, each month, upon the average amount of such circulation, issued as aforesaid, beyond the amount of ninety per centum of the capital of any such bank, association, corporation, company, or person. And a true and accurate return of the amount of circulation, of deposit and of capital, as aforesaid, and of the amount of notes of persons, State banks or State banking associations, paid out by them for the previous month, shall be made and rendered monthly by each of such banks, associations, corporations, companies, or persons to the assessor of the district in which any such bank, association, corporation, or company may be located, or in which such person has his place of business, with a declaration annexed thereto, and the oath or affirmation of such person, or of the president or cashier of such bank, association, corporation, or company, in such form and manner as may be prescribed by the commissioner of internal revenue, that the same contains a true and faithful statement of the amounts subject to tax as aforesaid; and for any refusal or neglect to make or to render return and payment, any such bank, association, corporation, company, or person so in default, shall be subject to and pay a penalty of two hundred dollars, besides the additional penalty and forfeiture in other cases provided by law; and the amount of circulation, deposit, capital, and notes of persons, State banks and banking associations paid out, as aforesaid, in default of the proper return, shall be estimated by the assessor or assistant assessor of the district as aforesaid, upon the best information he can obtain; and every such penalty may be recovered for the use of the United States in any court of competent jurisdiction. And in the case of banks with branches, the tax herein provided for shall be assessed upon the circulation of each branch, severally, and the amount of capital of each branch shall be considered to be the amount allotted to such branch; and so much of an act entitled "An act to provide ways and means for the support of the government," approved March three, eighteen hundred and sixty-three, as imposes any tax on banks, their circulation, capital, or deposits, other than is herein provided, is hereby repealed.

[OFFICIAL.]
PROCLAMATION.
By the President of the United States of America.

WHEREAS, by the act approved July 3, 1864, entitled "An act further to regulate and provide for the enrolling and calling out the national force, and for other purposes," it is provided that the President of the United States may, at his discretion, at any time hereafter, call for any number of men as volunteers for the respective terms of one, two, and three years, for military service; and that in case the quota, or any part thereof, of any town, township, ward, or of a city, precinct, or election district, or of a county not so subdivided, shall not be filled within the space of fifty days after such call, then the President shall immediately order a draft for one year to fill such quota, or any part thereof, which may be unfilled; and whereas the new enrollment heretofore ordered is so far completed that the aforementioned act of congress may now be put in operation, for recruiting and keeping up the strength of the armies in the field, for garrisons, and such military operations as may be required for the purpose of suppressing the rebellion and restoring the authority of the United States government in the insurgent states:

Now, therefore, I, ABRAHAM LINCOLN, President of the United States, do issue this my call for five hundred thousand volunteers for the military service; provided, nevertheless, that this call shall be reduced by all credits which may be established under section 8 of the aforesaid act, on account of persons who have entered the naval service during the present rebellion, and by credits for men furnished to the military service in excess of calls heretofore made. Volunteers will be accepted under this call for one, two, or three years, as they may elect, and will be entitled to the bounty provided by the law for the period of service for which they enlist.

And I hereby proclaim, order, and direct, that immediately after the fifth day of September, 1864, being fifty days from the date of this call, a draft for troops to serve for one year shall be had in every town, township, ward, or of a city, precinct, or election district, or county not so subdivided, to fill the quota which shall be assigned to it under this call, or any part thereof, which may be unfilled by volunteers on the said fifth day of September, 1864.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.
Done at the city of Washington, this [ ] eighteenth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and of the independence of the United States the eighty-ninth.
ABRAHAM LINCOLN,
By the President:
WILLIAM H. SEWARD,
Secretary of State.

Throw away your false fixures, your switches, your wig—
Destructive of comfort, and not worth a fig.

And ad rejoice in your own luxuriant hair.
Reparator Capilli.
For restoring hair upon bald heads (from whatever cause it may have fallen out) and forcing a growth of hair upon the face, it has no equal. It will force the beard to grow upon the smoothest face from five to eight weeks, or hair upon bald heads in from two to three months; a few ignorant practitioners have asserted that there is nothing that will force or hasten the growth of the hair or beard. Their assertions are false, as thousands of living witnesses (from their own experience) can bear witness. But many will say, how are we to distinguish the genuine from the spurious? It certainly is difficult, as nine-tenths of the different preparations advertised for the hair and beard are entirely worthless, and you may have already thrown away large amounts in their purchase. To such we would say, try the Reparator Capilli; it will cost you nothing unless it fully comes up to our representations. If your Druggist does not keep it, send us one dollar and we will forward it, postpaid, together with a receipt for the money, which will be returned you, on an application, providing entire satisfaction is not given; address,

This is no imposition, as testimonials without number can attest. By stating place of birth, age, disposition, color of eyes and hair, and enclosing fifty cents, and stamped envelope addressed to yourself, you will receive the picture by return mail, together with desired information.
Address in confidence MADAME GERTRAUDE REMINGTON, P. O. Box 297 Troy, N. Y.

A Young Lady returning to her country home after a sojourn of a few months in the city, was hardly recognized by her friends. In place of a coarse, rattle, flushed face, she had a soft raby complexion of almost marble smoothness, and instead of twenty-three she really appeared but eighteen. Upon inquiry as to the cause of so great a change, she plainly told them that she used the CIRASSIAN BALM, and considered it an invaluable acquisition to any Lady's toilet. By its use any Lady or Gentleman can improve their personal appearance an hundred fold. It is simple in its combination, as Nature herself is its simple, yet unsurpassed in its efficacy in drawing impurities from, also healing, cleansing and beautifying the skin and complexion. By its direct action on the cuticle it draws from it all its impurities, kindly healing the same, and leaving the surface as nature intended it should be, clear, soft, smooth and beautiful. Price $1, sent by Mail or Express on receipt of an order by W. L. CLARK & Co., No. 3 West Fayette St., Syracuse, N. Y. The only American Agents for the sale of the same.

GREAT ASTROLOGIST,
MADAME H. A. FERRIGO.
She reveals secrets no mortal ever knew. She restores to happiness those who, from dulcet events, catastrophes, crosses in love, loss of relations and friends, loss of money, &c. have become despondent. She brings together those long separated, gives information concerning absent friends or lovers, restores lost or stolen property, tells you the business you are best qualified to pursue and in what you will be most successful, causes speedy marriages and tells you the very day you will marry, gives you the name, likeness and characteristics of the person. She reads your very thoughts, and by her almost supernatural powers unveils the dark and hidden mysteries of the future. From the stars we see in the firmament—the metallic stars that over- come or predominate in the configurations—from the aspects and positions of the planets and the fixed stars in the heavens at the time of birth, she deduces the future destiny of man. Fall not to consult the greatest Astrologist on earth. It costs you but a trifle, and you may never again have so favorable an opportunity. Consultation free, with likeness and all desired information, $1. Parties living at a distance can consult the Madame by mail with equal safety and satisfaction to themselves, as if in person. A full and explicit chart, written out, with all inquiries answered and likeness enclosed, sent by mail on receipt of price above mentioned. The strictest secrecy will be maintained, and all correspondence returned or destroyed. References of the highest order furnished those desiring them. Write plainly the day of the month and year in which you are born, enclosing a small lock of hair.

Reparator Capilli.
Throw away your false fixures, your switches, your wig—
Destructive of comfort, and not worth a fig.
Count your curls, come young, come ugly, and fair,
And ad rejoice in your own luxuriant hair.
Reparator Capilli.
For restoring hair upon bald heads (from whatever cause it may have fallen out) and forcing a growth of hair upon the face, it has no equal. It will force the beard to grow upon the smoothest face from five to eight weeks, or hair upon bald heads in from two to three months; a few ignorant practitioners have asserted that there is nothing that will force or hasten the growth of the hair or beard. Their assertions are false, as thousands of living witnesses (from their own experience) can bear witness. But many will say, how are we to distinguish the genuine from the spurious? It certainly is difficult, as nine-tenths of the different preparations advertised for the hair and beard are entirely worthless, and you may have already thrown away large amounts in their purchase. To such we would say, try the Reparator Capilli; it will cost you nothing unless it fully comes up to our representations. If your Druggist does not keep it, send us one dollar and we will forward it, postpaid, together with a receipt for the money, which will be returned you, on an application, providing entire satisfaction is not given; address,

Wonderful but True.
MADAME REMINGTON, the world-renowned Astrologist and Somnambulist Chirographer, while in a clairvoyant state, delineates the very features of the person you are to marry, and by the aid of an instrument of intense power, known as the PSYCHOMETROPE, guarantees to produce a perfect and life like picture of the future husband or wife of the applicant, with date of marriage, occupation, leading traits of character, &c. This is no imposition, as testimonials without number can attest. By stating place of birth, age, disposition, color of eyes and hair, and enclosing fifty cents, and stamped envelope addressed to yourself, you will receive the picture by return mail, together with desired information.
Address in confidence MADAME GERTRAUDE REMINGTON, P. O. Box 297 Troy, N. Y.

A Young Lady returning to her country home after a sojourn of a few months in the city, was hardly recognized by her friends. In place of a coarse, rattle, flushed face, she had a soft raby complexion of almost marble smoothness, and instead of twenty-three she really appeared but eighteen. Upon inquiry as to the cause of so great a change, she plainly told them that she used the CIRASSIAN BALM, and considered it an invaluable acquisition to any Lady's toilet. By its use any Lady or Gentleman can improve their personal appearance an hundred fold. It is simple in its combination, as Nature herself is its simple, yet unsurpassed in its efficacy in drawing impurities from, also healing, cleansing and beautifying the skin and complexion. By its direct action on the cuticle it draws from it all its impurities, kindly healing the same, and leaving the surface as nature intended it should be, clear, soft, smooth and beautiful. Price $1, sent by Mail or Express on receipt of an order by W. L. CLARK & Co., No. 3 West Fayette St., Syracuse, N. Y. The only American Agents for the sale of the same.

ASTROLOGY.
The World astonished at the wonderful Revelations made by the
GREAT ASTROLOGIST,
MADAME H. A. FERRIGO.
She reveals secrets no mortal ever knew. She restores to happiness those who, from dulcet events, catastrophes, crosses in love, loss of relations and friends, loss of money, &c. have become despondent. She brings together those long separated, gives information concerning absent friends or lovers, restores lost or stolen property, tells you the business you are best qualified to pursue and in what you will be most successful, causes speedy marriages and tells you the very day you will marry, gives you the name, likeness and characteristics of the person. She reads your very thoughts, and by her almost supernatural powers unveils the dark and hidden mysteries of the future. From the stars we see in the firmament—the metallic stars that over- come or predominate in the configurations—from the aspects and positions of the planets and the fixed stars in the heavens at the time of birth, she deduces the future destiny of man. Fall not to consult the greatest Astrologist on earth. It costs you but a trifle, and you may never again have so favorable an opportunity. Consultation free, with likeness and all desired information, $1. Parties living at a distance can consult the Madame by mail with equal safety and satisfaction to themselves, as if in person. A full and explicit chart, written out, with all inquiries answered and likeness enclosed, sent by mail on receipt of price above mentioned. The strictest secrecy will be maintained, and all correspondence returned or destroyed. References of the highest order furnished those desiring them. Write plainly the day of the month and year in which you are born, enclosing a small lock of hair.
