THE CAUSE.

The Houston Transcript dissects upon immigration, and draws a comparison between Texas and the great Northwest, of the remarkable rapidity with which that section settles, with what celerity cities spring into existence, and railroads are built, and how slow everything moves in Texas, which has many advantages over the Northwest. The Transcript remarks:

"There must be some cause for this, and the sooner our people discover and rectify the error the better for us all."

Yes, there is a cause. Before the rebellion, it was slavery, with all its proscriptions, its tyranny, its crime, that drove away immigration,—for what freeman cared to come to a land where labor was degraded to the level of the slave? What republican desired to make a home in a State where free speech and freedom of action and opinion was denied him—where lynch law punished those who did not believe in slavery, with death, while the legislation of the State was made to foster and nurse this lie upon American Republicanism.

Since rebellion, the cause of backward immigration has been the want of a loyal State government, and the presence of such pestiferous traitor sheets as the Transcript. People abroad judge our State by its public prints, and as long as we have such concerns as the Telegraph and Transcript to make treason and slavery respectable, so long will immigration be impeded.

The only cause of the backwardness of Texas in the march of improvement, is its reputed disloyalty to the Government and its rebel papers. Our only redemption lies in loyal reconstruction, by which the representations of these lying, unprincipled papers may be proved untrue.

The traitor press of Texas to-day is unscrupulously mean—they cling to the "lost cause" because it pays to pander the prejudices of their readers; they have not the courage or manhood to tell the people of their errors,—to bury the forgotten issues of the past,—to give a hearty allegiance to the American Union;—no, like that miserable Northern blackguard, Brick Pomeroy, they consult their pockets and feed Southern hate and Southern prejudices.

Why stand guessing at the causes for our backwardness, when you know them, and have not the courage to tell them? The moral cowardice of the Texas rebel press is perfectly disgusting.

THE ALABAMA FRANCHISE LAW.

Montgomery, Nov.—The following is the article on the elective franchise, as finally adopted by the reconstruction convention as a part of the new constitution:

Art. 1, Sec. 1 Every male person born in the United States, and every male person who has been naturalized, or who has legally declared his intention before to become a citizen of the United States, twenty-one years old or upward, who shall have resided in this state six months next preceding the election, and three months in the county in which he offers to vote, except as hereinafter provided, shall be deemed an elector; provided, that no soldier or sailor or marine in the military or naval service of the United States shall hereafter acquire a residence by reason of being stationed on duty in this state.

Sec. 2. It shall be the duty of the general assembly to provide, from time to time for registration of all electors but the following classes of persons shall not be permitted to register, vote or hold office: Those who, during the late rebellion, inflicted or caused to be inflicted any cruel or unusual punishment upon any soldier, sailor, marine or citizen of the United States, or who in any other way violated the rules of civilized warfare; those who are or may be disfranchised by the proposed constitutional amendment known as the fourteenth article, and the act of Congress passed March 2d, 1867, except such persons as have aided the plan of reconstruction proposed by Congress, and accepted a political equality of all men before the law; provided, that the general assembly shall have power to remove disability incurred under this last clause; those who have been convicted of treason, embezzlement of public funds, malfeasance in office, crime punishable by law with imprison. No idiot or insane person shall be permitted to register or vote in this state.

Sec. 3rd. All persons before registering, must take or subscribe the following oath:

I do solemnly swear or affirm, that I will support and maintain the Constitution and laws of the United States and the Constitution of the State of Alabama; that I am not excluded from registering by any of the clauses in section two of this article, that I will never countenance or aid in the secession of this State from the United States; that I accept the civil and political equality of all men, and agree not to attempt to deprive any person or persons, on account of race, color or previous condition, of any political or civil right, privilege or immunity enjoyed by any other class of men; and further more, that I will not, in any way, injure or countenance in others any attempt to injure any person or persons on account of past or present support of the Government of the United States, or the laws of the United States, or the principle of the political and civil equality of all men or of affiliation with any political party.

Resolutions were adopted expressing entire satisfaction with the military administration of law of Gen. John Pope, and tendering him the thanks of the people of Alabama for the firm and impartial course which he has pursued. Three votes were given against these resolutions.

Several branches of the Constitution were considered and adopted involving unimportant changes in the old constitution, except the creation of office of Lt. Governor. Convention will probably complete its work this week.

George Francis Train knows a family of sisters who cured their brothers from swearing by saying damn every time their brothers did. At the table Susie would say to Georgie, pass me that damn butter. [laughter.] and Minnie would ask Elmer for that damn buckwheat cake. [Laughter.]

A number of fashionable young ladies uptown, in New York, propose to organize for mutual improvement. Gossip, chatter, and the latest fashions, the opinions of Madame Grundy, the reason why the neighbors opposite sit up so late, and similar matters—are strictly forbidden, even after tea.

The Saturday Review tells a story of an English clergyman, who missed by the prevalent pointing of certain Scriptural words in Italian, read in a sonorous voice, with due emphasis. "And he spake to his sons, saying: 'Saddle me this ass.' And they saddled him."

An unfortunate man, who had never drunk water enough to warrant disease, was reduced to such a state of drowsy that a consultation of physicians was held upon his case. They agreed tapping was necessary, and the poor patient was invited to submit to the operation, which he seemed inclined to do in spite of the entreaties of his son, a boy seven years old.

"Oh, father, father! do not let them tap you," said the young hopeful, "do anything, but do not let them tap you!"

"Why, my dear, it will do me good, and I shall live long in health to make you happy."

"No, father, not you will not. There never was anything tapped in our house that lasted longer than a week."

Letter from Mexico says that the government continues the seizing and sequestration of property. A list of Somera's property confiscated has been published, and foots up about $200,000; the only surviving brother of the late Bishop of Durango has lost by confiscation the snug sum of $2,000,000, while the property of Almonte, Escalante, Andrade, Ramirez, with hosts of others, will go to swell the sum to $10,000,000 more.

Abolition of the Secret Political Service in Austria.—Among the reform which Baron Beust is zealously pushing forward the dismissing of the secret police is not the least. Besides securing the inviolability of letters, he turns adrift an infamous crowd of informers, and saves the exchequer a yearly expenditure of one hundred thousand thalers.

Our Washington special says it is stated on good authority that Secretary Seward has instructed Mr. Marsh, our Minister to Italy, to offer Garibaldi an asylum in the United States.

On the arrival of Mrs. Jeff. Davis at Rutland, Vt., on Thursday the 7th, on her way to Montreal, the Copperheads of the town brought out two brass field pieces and fired a salute, and in the evening procured a few musicians, and serenaded her with the Confederate music.

Local Intelligence.

COURT REPORTS.

MAYOR'S COURT, Nov. 26, '87.
Pat. Gerry, found drunk on street, fined $5 and costs.

J. H. Kampmann, driving out of a walk across the bridge on Commerce street, fined $10 and costs.

George Jaggue, butchering a calf with fresh ear marks and the brand could not be made out, the defendant appeared by Counsel after having the evidence and arguments of Council, fined $25 and costs, appealed to District Court.

Wicks, driving out of a walk across the bridge on Commerce street, fined $10 and costs.

The State, vs George Jaggue, for same charge as above, required to give bond in the sum of $300, for appearance at District Court.

FURIOUS DRIVING.—Two of our most respectable citizens were up before the Mayor, yesterday, Tuesday, for violating the city ordinance by driving over the main bridge faster than a walk. Mr. Kampmann, and Mr. Wicks. Like most of our city ordinances this one had fallen into contempt and the two gentlemen were unwittingly offenders. But Mr. Kampmann built the bridge, and put up the signs. He drives a very steady animal and is by no means a furious driver. But the Mayor very properly fined these gentlemen, which will serve as a warning to all who are heedless of the city laws. The joke comes in when Kampmann paid his fine he threatened to sue the city for payment for the bridge. It seems Mr. Kampmann has never been fully paid for his work but we believe the city was relieved of the debt by parties who had bought the lands sold for the purpose of building the bridge.

THANKSGIVING DAY.—To-morrow is the day of National Thanksgiving. It becomes a christian people to observe this day. It has been always a custom with all nations to set apart certain days for religious observance. This Thanksgiving Day has become a National Holiday. It is the American harvest feast. With joyful and thankful hearts we should keep this day with appropriate religious observance. It is also a day of feasting and rejoicing. The Governor of our State has called upon the people to observe this day and we hope his proclamation will be properly heeded.

SPLENDID BEEF.—Our beef market is not the most attractive in the world. There needs much to be done to make it a pleasant place to visit. The butchers are, as a general thing, very slovenly and careless with their meat. And, strange to say, much poor meat is offered for sale, when our prairies teem with fat cattle. Mr. Jno. Hickey, and old Texas, has opened a stall in the Northwest corner, and is killing some splendid animals. We have never seen finer cuts; his roasts which look like mosaic work of fat and lean. Mr. Hickey proposes to offer some fine corned beef in a few days which will be a treat.

MARRIED.

SMITH-CARRIANO.—In this city, on the morning of the 26th instant, at St. Mary's Church, Lieutenant CHARLES P. SMITH, U. S. A., to GERTRUDE CARRIANO, eldest daughter of Ignacjo Cassiano, Esq.

The happy couple left on the day of the marriage for the home of the Lieutenant in Pennsylvania. The Lieutenant has been for a long time Adjutant of the 35th Infantry, and is known by all who came in contact with him, as an urbane gentleman. His beautiful bride is a native of our city, and comes from pure Castilian stock, and one of the oldest and wealthiest families. We wish them a happy journey.

NOTARY PUBLIC.—Over Lindmiller's Drug Store, Main Street.
Office hours, 8 to 12 A. M.—2 to 3 P. M., or can be found at any time by making inquiry at the Express printing rooms on Market Street.

WHOLESALE AGENT.

The immense popularity of these Organs, and their superior musical powers, is fast bringing them before the public, as the instrument so long desired in American homes. And although the cost price is but a trifle over the Melodion, yet the musical advantages, beauty of tone and quickness of touch and action are so far superior, that they are fast superseding the Melodion, and the call is now almost exclusively for the American Organ.

It is adapted to any music from the quickest and most lively, to the heavy tone of the Church Organ. And almost universally they are preferred to the Piano, by persons who have them, yet costing less than half, and only taking a small amount of room.

Send for descriptive circulars giving full particulars and price.

I beg to inform my friends and the public generally, that I have the agency for the States of Louisiana and Texas, of the celebrated new scale Marshall & Miltner Piano Fortes, which are now the most perfect pianos, in tone, touch, durability, workmanship and finish of any now made in Europe or America. I am daily receiving testimonials of the superiority of these pianos from the first artists, and even many of my most energetic competitors say they are the best pianos they have ever seen. While I express my acknowledgments for all past favors, and solicit a continuance of the same, I assure my patrons that their interests shall continue to be the object of my special devotion.
Respectfully,
PHILIP WERLEIN
