IN THE FIRE LIGHT.

Often in this winter fire-light,
While the shrill-voiced crickets sing,
Slowly rise the quiet beech-woods,
And the world is glad with spring.
Embers shine, and shadows flutter,
But I see the violets grow;
Underfoot the brown leaves linger,
And the white anemone blow.

And my darling, in her coffin,
Loves me as in days of yore;
Thirty years have flowered and faded,
But a dead grief lives once more.

Wild-birds call, and May-flowers beckon,
And my sweetheart, gone to rest,
Sits beneath the swinging larches,
With the anemones in her breast.

Night-winds sigh, and snow is falling;
But with fire light, fancy flows
Back to how we loved and parted,
In the spring-time, years ago.

OUR GALVESTON LETTER.
Congress—An Excellent Plan—Bad Results of the Ab Initio Controversy—Rebel Justice—On Ditt—Weather.
GALVESTON, TEXAS, Dec. 5, 1876.

Editor San Antonio Express:
Congress in its present session, in view of the incendiary and violent language of his "Accidency" in his recent message, wherein resistance to law and the legislative power of the Government is counseled and encouraged as "involving the country in a justifiable civil war;" and in view further of the absolute lawlessness and disregard of the lives, liberty and property of Union men existent in this and other "border ruffian" States, will no doubt adopt in some form Steven's Confiscation bill as the only wise and judicious measure of safety that can be devised for the final adjustment of law and order.

In the eighty odd counties of this State, embracing the Red River, middle, eastern and western parts thereof, where murder and crime are supreme, defiant of our military authorities, contemptuous of the small body of Unionists who may be fortunate enough to represent the civil few, no more excellent plan could be adopted for the expulsion of the ruffians who largely inhabit these regions, than the confiscation of their lands by the Government and the division thereof among Union citizens, representatives of our army and navy, and the large number of German emigrants, intelligent and law-abiding people, who would flock hither at the liberal inducements which the Government could offer them.

This is the only feasible plan that can be adopted, ensuring the absence of large bodies of the military for years to come. General Ord, in a written statement of the "situation" in his District, emphatically asserts that more troops are needed to prevent the utter lawlessness existent therein.

And as Andy Johnson says that "it will require a large standing army at an expense of millions per annum" to maintain the supremacy of the republican government inaugurated by Congress for the control of these States, therefore Mr. Stevens' bill will yet be found to be the wisest and most patriotic measure that can be used.

Some of the results flowing from the ab initio controversy are extremely pernicious. The efforts of such pseudo Union papers as Flake's Bulletin to ridicule the matter, and the inferences deduced that all rebel laws are in force, have had its effect on the minds of our rebel officials still unremoved; and in their action they have enforced State laws against our newly enfranchised citizens from the Civil Rights and Reconstruction bills are absolutely null and void.

But the other day, Justice Johnson, he whom our very worthy Union Mayor has appointed acting Recorder, had before him the case of a black woman, complainant, alleging the forcible entrance of her house by a white ruffian, who took property and valuables, under the pretext that he was a police officer. The man was proved to be a thief and a burglar; and Justice (?) Johnson fined him the very moderate sum of ten dollars!

Our excellent Chief of Police, to whom these facts were communicated, asked for a reversal of this decision. This Mr.

Johnson declined to do, and redress is now had to the Criminal Court, before a loyal Judge.

This is but one of the many perversions of justice by our disloyal officials, who omit no opportunity to show their animus to our colored citizens and friendless Union men.

It is rumored that a slate has been made, and removals will be effected ere many days.

Mr. Flake, it is said, will be well represented in our "reconstructed" City Council. The policy, I understand, is to divide the offices among the so-called Conservatives and earnest Unionists, at least so far as Galveston is concerned.

The Bulletin says that we are to have but one representative to the Convention from this city, and a floater, obtained in part from Harris county, while the latter has two. I presume this intelligence is correct, as an influential gentleman recently from Austin was a few days ago in our city.

HURRAH FOR NORTH CAROLINA!

Eloquent Letter from Ex-Governor Holden.

RALEIGH, November 22, 1867.

We have heard from enough counties to render it certain that we have achieved a grand and glorious victory. We know we have carried Wake, Granville, Warren, Franklin, Johnson, New Hanover, Bladen, Wayne, Craven, Lenox, Brunswick, Cumberland, Harnett, Davidson, Edgecombe, and Duplin, giving us twenty-five members. I think we are certain of forty-five more, thus giving us eighty to forty in the convention.

We have heard nothing yet from the great West, but I am sure we have swept everything there. It happens, fortunately, that we got the East through the strength of the colored vote and the West through the vote, for the most part, of the whites, who have always been Unionists, and are now Republicans. The contest has been fiercest in the middle part of the State, where ex-Governor Graham and Vance reside.

The result has completed the destruction of the rebel influence, if we are only true to ourselves and hold the helm with an iron hand. The majority for the convention cannot be less than 50,000. Our friends went for it en masse, and the opposition were divided, some voting for and some against it.

The undercurrent among the people was strongly for a convention, though in many localities their prejudices were played upon, and they were induced to vote for candidates opposed to a convention. It might be well for Pennsylvania and Ohio to vote again.

We shall have the advantage, in forming the constitution of our State, of seeing the constitutions of other States. It would be a burning shame to us all if, after having obtained such a victory in the interest of the Union and of our loyal people, we should do anything or omit anything by which the rebels should again get control, and divide and oppress us as in the case of Maryland and Kentucky.

Yours, very truly,
W. W. HOLDEN.

Mlle Judith David, a French Jewess of inimitable grace, is the new ballet dancer that is throwing all Berlin into ecstasies of delight.

Gen. Beauregard says many of the best Louisiana families are selling out their effects and removing to Maryland.

Guizot, who is eighty-four, says that in 1848, after his downfall, he tried to drown his grief by hard work. Instead of destroying him as he intended it should, it rendered him wonderfully hale and vigorous.

The chief prime donna in Vienna is a charming singer, but she cannot undertake the part of Juliet, in Gounod's new opera, owing to the trifling fact that she weighs over two hundred pounds. The production of the opera is, therefore, postponed for a year, during which period she will probably "do nothing."

Robert Buchanan is writing the life of Audubon, the naturalist. The London Times has a subscriber a hundred years old, who has read that paper since it was first started. Chauncey Rose, of Terra Haute, has given five thousand dollars to the colored orphan asylum in New York City. If Paris letter says Rosa Bonheur's visit to the United States some time next year is a fixed fact.

MAYOR Marshall, for the bridge; fined $100 costs.
 Russell Howard, drunk and noisy; fined $10 and costs.
 Ed. Conchine, for not hauling off his dead horse; fined $5 and costs.
 Poletto Mostono, for fast riding; fined $2 and costs.
 Plea Saunders, tried for gambling; acquitted.
 Frank Fritter, tried for gambling; acquitted.

PERSONAL—Hon. Geo. R. Scott was in our city on Monday on his way to Atascosa county to hold court. Judge Scott is one of the recent appointments and relieved B. F. Neal. The Judge has been holding court in Wilson county where matters were disposed of satisfactorily. The appointment of Judge Scott was most excellent and the people under his jurisdiction will find no cause of complaint.

ENVOY EXTRAORDINARY—We learn that Dr. Carothers late city and county physician has been deputed to take the rebel petition to have the Lyon's administration reinstated, to Gen. Hancock. Carothers of course feels quite sore at having his place filled by a thoroughly loyal man at a saving of $100 to the city per month. With Sweet of the Herald and Carothers how can the traitor's petition fail?

ANOTHER SILVER LINING—It was customary during the rebellion for the traitor newspapers and orators to twist every little success of the Confederacy into a silver lining to the cloud which was hovering over their guilty heads. Gen. Hancock is now their 'silver lining.' The idea is very poetical.

STAGE RUNAWAY—The Alletown stage met with an accident on the Cibola on Friday last. The horses ran away, upset the stage and injured the driver and passengers who were on board; none seriously.

ANOTHER DESPARADO—We learn that Sheriff Musgrave, of Atascosa, brought in and delivered over to the military authorities of this city another one of the Reed gang, on Saturday last.

BUCKSKIN—Six large bales of Indian tanned buckskins arrived recently in this city from Mexico.

Lord and Lady Ambery were the guests of Mrs. and Mr. Harriet Beecher Stowe.

THE Gas Generators Have Arrived!
 An invention by which a common Kerosene Lamp can at once be transformed into a Gas Lamp, of a most brilliant light, entirely safe against explosion; no chimney needed, and is not subject to be blown out by the strongest breeze or current of air; at the same time giving a better light than the combined light of two ordinary Kerosene Lamps, and saving fully one-third of the kerosene oil, by simply applying the gas generator.
 The undersigned having procured the patent right for Bexar County, has now a supply of the Generators on hand, and offers to sell them at One Dollar, specie, each. To Dealers, they will be offered by the dozen at a very fair discount.
 The undersigned has also been authorized to sell County Rights and Generators to all counties where said patent has not been introduced.

PUBLIC ACTS OF THE THIRTY-SEVENTH CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES.

CHAP. CXXVII.—An Act to provide for additional Medical Officers of the Volunteer Service.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That there shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, forty surgeons and one hundred and twenty assistant surgeons of volunteers, who shall have the rank, pay and emoluments of officers or corresponding grades in the regular army. Provided, That no one shall be appointed to any position under this act unless he shall previously have been examined by a board of medical officers to be appointed by the Secretary of War, and that vacancies in the grade of surgeon shall be filled by selection from the grade of assistant surgeon on the ground of merit only: And provided, further, That this act shall continue in force only during the existence of the present rebellion.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passage of this act, Brigade Surgeons shall be known and designated as Surgeons of Volunteers, and shall be attached to the general medical staff, under the direction of the Surgeon General; and hereafter each appointment for the medical service of the army shall be appointed Surgeons of Volunteers.

Approved, July 2, 1862.

CHAP. CXXVIII.—An Act to prescribe an Oath of Office, and for other Purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That hereafter every person elected or appointed to any office of honor or profit under the government of the United States, either in the civil, military or naval departments of the public service, excepting the President of the United States, shall before entering upon the duties of such office, and before being entitled to any of the salary or other emoluments thereof, take and subscribe the following oath or affirmation: "I, A. B., do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I have never voluntarily borne arms against the United States since I have been a citizen thereof; that I have voluntarily given no aid, countenance, counsel, or encouragement to persons engaged in armed hostility thereto; that I have neither sought nor accepted nor attempted to exercise the functions of any office whatsoever, under any authority or pretended authority in hostility to the United States; that I have not yielded a voluntary support to any pretended government, authority, power, or constitution within the United States, hostile or inimical thereto. And I do further swear (or affirm) that, to the best of my knowledge and ability, I will support the Constitution of the United States, against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion, and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office on which I am about to enter, so help me God;" which said oath, so taken and signed, shall be preserved among the files of the court, House of Congress, or Department to which the said office may appertain. And any person who shall falsely take the said oath shall be guilty of perjury, and on conviction, in addition to the penalties now prescribed for that offense, shall be deprived of his office and rendered incapable forever after of holding any office or place under the United States.

Approved, July 2, 1862.

CHAP. CXXIX.—An Act to establish a Land District in the Territory of Nevada, and for other Purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the public lands of the United States in the Territory of Nevada shall constitute a land district, to be called the District of Nevada, the office for which shall be established at such place within said district as the President of the United States may from time to time direct, and the pre-emption laws are hereby extended to said Territory.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That the President be, and he is hereby, authorized to appoint, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, a register and receiver for said district, who shall be required to reside at the site of said office, and who shall have the same powers and perform the same duties as are now or may hereafter be prescribed by law for other land offices, and whose compensation shall be the same as allowed for such officers by the act approved April twenty, eighteen hundred and eighteen, entitled "An act for changing the compensation of receivers and registers of the land offices."

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That when the settlers in any township of townships, not minerals or reserved by government, shall desire a survey made of the same under the authority of the Surveyor-General of the United States, and shall file an application therefor in writing, and deposit in a proper United States depository to the credit of the United States a sum sufficient to pay for such survey, together with all expenses incident thereto, without cost or claim for indemnity on the United States, it shall and may be lawful for said Surveyor-General, under such instructions as may be given him by the Commissioner of the General Land Office, and in accordance with existing laws and instructions, to survey such township or townships, and make returns thereof to the general and proper local land office: Provided, That the townships so proposed to be surveyed are within the range of the regular progress of the public surveys conducted by existing standard lines of bases for the township and sub-divisional surveys.

Approved, July 2, 1862.

CHAP. CXXX.—An Act donating Public Lands to the several States and Territories which may provide Colleges for the Benefit of Agriculture and the Mechanic Arts.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That there be granted to the several States, for the purposes herein-after mentioned, an amount of public land, to be apportioned to each State a quantity equal to thirty thousand acres for each senator and representative in Congress to which the States are respectively entitled by the apportionment under the census of eighteen hundred and sixty: Provided, That no mineral lands shall be selected or purchased under the provisions of this act.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That the land aforesaid, after being surveyed, shall be apportioned to the several States in sections or subdivisions of sections, not less than one quarter of a section; and whenever there be public lands in a State subject to sale at private entry at one dollar and twenty-five cents per acre, the quantity to be selected from such lands within the limits of such State, and the Secretary of the Interior is hereby directed to issue to each of the States in which there is not the quantity of public lands subject to sale at private entry at one dollar and twenty-five cents per acre, to which said State may be entitled under the provisions of this act, land scrip to the amount in acres for the deficiency of its distributive share: and scrip to be sold by said States and the proceeds thereof applied to the uses and purposes prescribed in this act, and for no other use or purpose whatsoever: Provided, That in no case shall any State to which land scrip may thus be issued be allowed to locate the same within the limits of any other State, or of any Territory of the United States, but their selection may thus locate said land scrip upon any of the unappropriated lands of the United States subject to sale at private entry at one dollar and twenty-five cents, or less, per acre: And provided, further, That not more than one million acres shall be located by such assignments in any one of the States: And provided, further, That no such location shall be made before one year from the passage of this act.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That all the expenses of management, superintendence, and taxes from date of selection of said lands, previous to their sales, and all expenses incurred for the management and disbursement of the moneys which may be received therefrom, shall be paid by the States to which they may belong, out of the treasury of said States so that the entire proceeds of the sale of said lands shall be applied without any diminution whatever to the purposes hereinafter mentioned.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That all moneys derived from the sale of the lands aforesaid by the States to which the lands are apportioned, and from the sales of land scrip heretofore provided for, shall be invested in stocks of the United States, or of the States or of other States, yielding not less than five per centum upon the par value of said stocks; and that the moneys so invested shall constitute a perpetual fund, the capital of which shall remain forever undiminished, (except so far as may be provided in section fifth of this act) and the interest of which shall be inviolably appropriated, by each State which may take and claim the benefit of this act, to the endowment, support, and maintenance of at least one college where the leading object shall be, without excluding other scientific and classical studies, and including military tactics, to teach such branches of learning as are related to agriculture and the mechanic arts, in such manner as the legislatures of the States may respectively prescribe in order to promote the liberal and practical education of the industrial classes in the several pursuits and professions in life.

Sec. 5. And be it further enacted, That the grant of land and land scrip hereby authorized shall be made on the following conditions, to which, as well as to the provisions hereinafter contained, the previous assent of the several States shall be signified by legislative acts: First, If any portion of the fund invested, as provided by the foregoing section, or any portion of the interest thereon, shall, by any action or contingency, be diminished or lost, it shall be replaced by the State to which it belongs, so that the capital of the fund shall remain forever undiminished; and the annual interest shall be regularly applied without diminution to the purposes mentioned in the fourth section of this act, except that a sum, not exceeding ten per centum upon the amount received by any State under the provisions of this act, may be expended for the purchase of lands for sites or experimental farms, whenever authorized by the respective legislatures of said States.

Second, No portion of said fund, nor the interest thereon shall be applied, directly or indirectly, under any pretense whatever, to the purchase, erection, preservation, or repair of any building or building.

Third, Any State which may take and claim the benefit of the provisions of this act shall provide, within five years, at least not less than one college, as described in the fourth section of this act, or the grant to such State shall cease; and said State shall be bound to pay the United States the amount received of any lands previously sold, and that the title to purchasers under the State shall be valid.

Fourth, The annual report shall be made regarding the progress of each college, regarding any improvements and experiments made; with their cost and results; and such other matters including State industrial and economical statistics, as may be supposed useful; one copy of which shall be transmitted by mail free, by each, to all the other colleges which may be endowed under the provisions of this act, and also occupy to the Secretary of the Interior.

Fifth, Public lands shall be selected from those which have been raised to double the minimum price, in consequence of railroad grants, they shall be conveyed to the States at the maximum price, and the number of acres proportionally diminished.

Sixth, No State while in a condition of rebellion or insurrection against the government of the United States shall be entitled to the benefit of this act.

Seventh, No State shall be entitled to the benefits of this act unless it shall express its acceptance thereof by its legislature within two years from the date of its approval by the President.

Approved, July 2, 1862.

CHAP. CXXXI.—An Act making Appropriations for the Support of the Army for the Year ending the thirtieth of June, eighteen hundred and sixty-three, and Additional Appropriation for the Year ending the thirtieth of June, eighteen hundred and sixty-two, and for other Purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the following sums be, and the same are hereby appropriated, out of any money in the treasury, not otherwise appropriated, for the support of the army for the year ending the thirtieth of June, eighteen hundred and sixty-three: For the recruiting service of the army, namely: For the enlistment of recruits, fo-quarters, fuel, stationery, straw, postage, banks, commission to citizens surgeons for medical attendance, transportation from rendezvous to detachments, and all other expenses until put in march to join regiments, one hundred and eighty thousand dollars.

S. D. & H. W. SMITH'S American Organ.

The most perfect and beautiful MUSICAL INSTRUMENT in the World, for the AMERICAN HOME CIRCLE.

The American Organ makes home attractive, refines and elevates the minds of all, beautiful in appearance and effects.

SIBERIA OTT, 788 Broadway, New York, WHOLESALE AGENT.

The immense popularity of these Organs, and their superior musical powers, is fast bringing them before the public, as the instrument so long desired in American homes. And although the cost price is but a trifle over the Melodian, yet the musical advantages, beauty of tone and quickness of touch and action are so far superior, that they are fast superseding the Melodian, and the call is now almost exclusively for the American Organ.

It is adapted to any music from the quickest and most lively, to the heavy tone of the Church Organ. And almost universally, they are preferred to the Piano, by persons who have them, yet costing less than half, and only taking a small amount of room.
