The Corn Crop.

(The Texas Farmer, published at Houston says:
"The corn crop in Texas is now made,
and is above an average one. There will be an excellent potato crop, which is now partially made. There will be plenty of provisions to supply all immigrants to the State this Fall, and that at reasonable rates. Immigrants should start early in the Fall so as to afford themselves time for Spring crops, which should be commenced in February.
Good land, in good localities, can be had at cheap rates. The inducements to immigrants have never been better, and from present indications the immigration will be larger than that of any for-healthy country, delightful climate, and cheap lands, our extensive waste must soon fill up, and the Lone Star team

THURSDAY, SEPT. 10, 1868.

Reminiscences of the National Republican Convention at Chicago, May 21, '68.

For President, U. S. GRANT. For Vice-President, Schuyler Colfax.

TO REPUBLICAN EDITORS AND PUBLISHERS.

The election in Vermont occurred on the 3rd inst., the number of votes was greater than that at any previous election.

The Associated Press Dispatches have utterly ignored the fact, not one word has appeared regarding the election, up to this date (9th inst.), showing the Association to be in the hands of dishonest partisans.

There are nine Union (Radical) papers in the State, beside several "independent" papers. Our ranks are being recruited steadily, notwithstanding a fierce opposition.

Republican newspaper men are requested to send their views upon this subject to the EDITOR EXPRESS, San Antonio, Texas.

The Harvest Season.

A picture of a Texas harvest scene would be quite a different affair from the sketches we see in picture books. Corn and cotton are products that bear the stamp of plantation life and the days of slavery.

We have recently passed over a section of Texas which always excites our admiration and enthusiasm; we mean the country between this city and Austin. We have spoken of farm life in the region of New Braunfels as it appeared to us, in planting time, when busy plows were being followed by industrious men and women.

We will leave the heavy yielding corn fields, to glance at the cotton patches. A more lovely sight than a field of cotton plants, can hardly be imagined; now in the first stages of bursting bolls.

and hauled to the cribs; the cotton is picked in bags and carried off to the gin house, or very often tressed carelessly in the corner of a fence. Such is the beginning of the principal harvest in Western Texas.

Could the stranger from other States, or from distant lands now see our State in its harvest time, our fields bursting with wealth, our hills and prairies, covered with fat cattle grazing upon the most luxuriant grass lawns, he would be compelled to exclaim, Texas is the loveliest land yet.

REGISTRATION.—The authorities of Missouri are registering the voters of the entire State, under the new registration law, on the completion of this important work, the grand strength of the Copperhead party will be broken, many of the Democratic officers elected in Missouri, it has appeared on the investigation, have obtained their election by fraudulent majorities, this new law will prevent such vill any in future.

The supervision of the Texas registered list, which will take place before another election, will be performed by boards of officers selected by Gen. Reynolds. We hope by that time the entire loyal portion of the people will be ready to unite upon measures and men, and that speculation, such as killed the usefulness of the late Convention will cease.

On last evening a party of soldiers, eight in number, were fired upon near town by men from the brush, and two of their number and a negro man who accompanied them were killed. The soldiers had been out, under orders from Capt. Tollman, to arrest some men for having beaten a freedwoman. Comment is unnecessary.—Dallas Herald, August 29.

MORE KILLING.—As we go to press, we learn that the driver of the Bonham stage last night reports that Lee and others had a fight on Wednesday last above Pilot Grove, in which two or three men were killed and some wounded. We have no particulars.—McKinney Messenger, August 29.

The above has since been corroborated. An affray occurred at a negro ball on the Central Railroad below the machine shop, on Saturday night, in which pistols and knives were freely used, two of the parties receiving severe but not dangerous wounds. Some ten or fifteen shots were fired.—Houston Telegraph.

The Quitman Clarion of the 15th ult., says the reports of crime and outrages in Wood county are slanders against the county, and denies the charges of our correspondent "Mecco," and asserts that there is no crime in Wood county; while we find in the same paper which makes the denial, the account of a foul murder perpetrated there, the body of the victim being found only half a mile north from the town of Quitman. Don't doubt before you are out of the woods, next time, neighbor.—McKinney Messenger.

Mr. E. C. Ropard, a citizen of this county, just returned from the eastern counties, informs us that a row occurred at Jordan's Saline, Van Zandt county, on Thursday and Friday of last week, during which a grocery was burned, one man killed and another wounded. Fighting was going on when our informant left. Several miles out from the place he says he met thirty armed citizens proceeding to the scene of hostilities. We heard no news per further particulars.—[Dallas Herald, August 22.]

FATAL AFFRAY AT SULPHUR SPRINGS.—We learn that on Friday evening last, a difficulty took place at Sulphur Springs, between some soldiers and another party, in which Sergeant Creary and a private named Miller were killed. Two horses were killed and several others wounded. We have not been able to ascertain any thing as to the origin of the fight, or by whom the killing was done.—[Jimpicotee, August 19th.]

It is reported here by a gentleman direct from Sulphur Springs that Biggerstaff & Co., whipped a negro woman some two miles distant from town. That the woman complained to the Bureau and a party of soldiers were sent out to arrest the offenders. Failing to find them, the soldiers on their way back were ambushed by Biggerstaff & Co., fired into, and the men killed as before related! It is said the beating of the negroes was only a decoy.—Paris Vindicator.

The Tennessee Radical papers are reproducing Andrew Johnson's back-scatter-traitor speech, which he said: "I say that the traitor has ceased to be a citizen, and, in joining the rebellion, has become a public enemy. He forfeited his right to vote with loyal men when he renounced his citizenship and sought to destroy our Government."

[PUBLIC-NO. 72.]
An Act authorizing the construction of a bridge across the Missouri river upon the military reservation at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That it shall be lawful for the Kansas and Missouri Bridge Company, a corporation having authority from the State of Kansas, to build a railroad, transit, and wagon bridge across the Missouri river upon or near the military reservation at Fort Leavenworth, and that when constructed all trains of all roads terminating at the Missouri river at or near the location of said bridge, shall be allowed to cross said bridge for a reasonable compensation to be paid to the owners thereof. And in case of any litigation arising from any obstruction or alleged obstruction to the free navigation of said river, the cause may be tried before the district court of the United States of any State in which any portion of said obstruction or bridge touches.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That any bridge built under the provisions of this act shall not be in any case of less elevation than fifty feet above extreme high-water mark, as understood at the point of location, to the bottom chord of the bridge, nor shall the spans be of less than two hundred and fifty feet in length, in the clear, and the piers of said bridge shall be parallel with the current of the river, and the main span shall be over the main channel of the river, at low water.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That for the use of railroads leading to said bridge from either side of the river there is hereby granted a right of way through said Fort Leavenworth military reservation not exceeding for all of said roads three hundred feet in width: Provided, That said roads do not in any way interfere with the public buildings on said military reservation.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That the Kansas and Missouri bridge be, and the same is hereby established as a post road, and that said bridge company shall have the right to take from said reservation, at such places as shall be designated by the Secretary of War, all stone, timber, and earth necessary to use in the construction of said bridge.

Sec. 5. And be it further enacted, That the right to alter or amend this act, so as to prevent or remove all material obstructions to the navigation of said river by the construction of bridges, is hereby expressly reserved.

Sec. 6. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Saint Joseph and Denver City Railroad Company, a corporation created by the laws of the State of Kansas, to build a bridge over and across the Missouri river at Saint Joseph, Missouri; and all the rights and privileges conferred by sections 1, 2, 4, and 5 of this act are hereby extended, so far as they are applicable, to the Saint Joseph and Denver City Railroad Company, and the restrictions, limitations, and conditions contained in said sections are hereby made applicable to said company.

An Act amendatory of an act approved July twenty-six, eighteen hundred and sixty-six, entitled "An act to authorize the construction of certain bridges, and to establish them as post roads."

Whereas the St. Louis and Illinois Bridge Company, organized under the laws of the State of Missouri, and the St. Louis and St. Louis Bridge Company, organized under an act of the general assembly of the State of Illinois, have been consolidated, in pursuance of the authority granted to the said Illinois and St. Louis Bridge Company, in their act of incorporation, and the authority granted to the St. Louis and Illinois Bridge Company, by an act of the general assembly of the State of Missouri, approved March nineteenth, eighteen hundred and sixty-eight; Therefore,

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the company formed by this consolidation, under the name and style of the Illinois and St. Louis Bridge Company, is hereby recognized and declared to be a corporation by that name, with full power and authority to construct a bridge across the Mississippi river opposite the city of St. Louis, in conformity with the act of which this act is amendatory, with all the rights, privileges, and powers granted and conferred by the several acts and resolutions of the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in relation to the respective provisions of the act to which this act is amendatory: And provided further, That in constructing said bridge there shall be one span of at least five hundred feet clear between piers.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That the said corporation may execute a mortgage and issue bonds payable, principal and interest, in gold, and their bridge across the Mississippi river and approaches thereto, when constructed, shall be a post road to carry the mails of the United States, and enjoy the rights and privileges of other post roads.

Sec. 8. And be it further enacted, That said corporation may hold their meetings in either the State of Illinois or the State of Missouri, as the board of directors may elect, and the directors may be citizens of any of the United States; and said corporation may sue and be sued in any circuit court of the United States: Provided, That nothing in this act or in any previous legislation affecting the premises shall be construed as to deprive the legislatures of the States of Illinois and Missouri of the right to regulate the tolls and fares which may be charged by said company for the use of such bridge: Provided further, That the tolls now fixed by the legislatures of Illinois and Missouri shall not be increased.
Approved, July 20, 1868.

Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of War be, and he is hereby, authorized to sell, at such times as he may deem most advantageous to the interests of the government, and in such manner as hereinafter provided, all that portion of the military reservation known as Fort Gratiot, in St. Clair county, in the State of Michigan, which lies south of a line running due west from the south end of the Grand Trunk railroad wharf, on the St. Clair river, until it intersects the road known as the Lexington road, and all that portion which lies west of said Lexington road.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That all that portion of the above described lands which lies east of a line running due south from the point of intersection with the Lexington road, mentioned in the foregoing section of this act, shall be divided into blocks and lots of convenient size for building purposes, with public streets conforming as near as may be, without detriment to the interests of the government or the State, to the public streets of the city of Port Huron, to the highest bidder, public notice of such sale having first been given for thirty days by advertisement in all the papers published in the city of Port Huron, and in at least two papers published in the city of Detroit, Michigan. The remaining portion of said military reservation, for the sale of which provision is made in the first section of this act, shall be sold at public auction at the city of Port Huron, after due notice, as prescribed in the foregoing paragraph, at such times and in such parcels as may be deemed most advantageous to the interests of the government; by the Secretary of War.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That the proceeds arising from the sale herein provided for, shall be paid into the treasury of the United States in the same manner as the proceeds from the sale of other public lands.
Approved, July 20, 1868.
